PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K and Form 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, Form 10-Q and Form 10-QSB, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Registrant generated only nominal revenue (none of it related to operations) during the quarterly period ending September 30, 2003. The Registrant currently has a cash balance of approximately $2,000 and accordingly does not have sufficient funds to pay its auditors to conduct a review of the Registrant's financial statements in conjunction with the preparation of its quarterly report. The Registrant is attempting to raise capital sufficient to pay its auditors to allow the review process to go forward. There can be no assurance of whether or not this capital can be obtained on terms acceptable to the Registrant, or at all, or the timing of any such financing. Accordingly the Registrant can not provide any estimate of when it will be able to file the Form 10-QSB. .

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

Edgar Filing: NUWAY MEDICAL INC - Form NT 10-Q

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

During the second half of 2002, the Registrant changed its management, divested existing business operations, and refocused its efforts into areas unrelated to its past operations. The assets that generated revenue in last year's corresponding report were disposed of, resulting in the entire loss of revenue from those assets beginning in the fourth quarter of 2002. The Registrant's current business is being marketed. The Registrant generated no income from sales during the third quarter 2003, compared to $123,287 in sales (generated from divested business operations) during the same period in 2002. The Registrant's only income during the past quarter was nominal and related to the sublease of a portion of its office space.
