Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 6, 2005, Competitive Technologies, Inc. (“CTT”) received notice that Administrative Law Judge Janice K. Bullard from the United States Department of Labor had dismissed the claims filed against CTT by former employee J. Scott Bechtel. In a complaint filed with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration pursuant to the employee protection provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, alleging whistleblower discrimination, Bechtel had claimed wrongful termination and had sought reinstatement. In her ruling, Judge Bullard found that Bechtel had failed to establish that CTT’s rationale for Bechtel’s discharge was pretextual. Additionally, Judge Bullard found that the record did not establish disparate treatment of Mr. Bechtel; and, further, that the issue of damages was not relevant since Mr. Bechtel had not carried his burden of proof.

A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
