Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 4, 2009, Triplecrown Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Triplecrown”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”) by and among Triplecrown, Cullen Agricultural Holding Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Triplecrown (“CAH”), CAT Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of CAH (“Merger Sub”), Cullen Agricultural Technologies, Inc. (“Cullen Agritech”) and Cullen Inc Holdings Ltd, the sole stockholder of Cullen Agritech (“Cullen Holdings”).

Cullen Agritech is a newly formed company committed to the development and commercialization of advanced agricultural technologies. Cullen Agritech’s principal focus will be to improve agricultural yields through pasture and animal sciences. Cullen Agritech will also provide advisory services associated with the development and implementation of efficient farming techniques both in the United States and abroad.

The following summaries of the Merger Agreement, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the other agreements to be entered into by the parties are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the agreements, certain of which are attached as exhibits hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

Upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (i) Triplecrown will merge with and into CAH with CAH surviving the merger and becoming the new publicly-traded corporation of which the present holders of Triplecrown securities will be security holders by reason of the automatic exchange of their Triplecrown securities for common stock and warrants of CAH and (ii) Merger Sub will merge with and into Cullen Agritech with Cullen Agritech surviving the merger and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of CAH. Upon completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the current holders of common stock of Triplecrown will own 57,740,000 shares of CAH stock (assuming no holders of shares of Triplecrown common stock sold in its initial public offering (“Public Shares”) elect to convert their shares into a portion of Triplecrown’s trust account and assuming the founders of Triplecrown (“Triplecrown Founders”) cancel an aggregate of 11,260,000 shares they will receive upon exchange of their Triplecrown common stock as described in more detail below) and the current holder of common stock of Cullen Agritech will own 15,881,148 shares of CAH common stock. Assuming that holders of approximately 29.99% of the Public Shares elect to convert their shares into a portion of Triplecrown’s trust account, the current holders of common stock of Triplecrown will own 41,180,000 shares of CAH stock (assuming the Triplecrown Founders cancel an aggregate of 11,260,000 shares they will receive upon exchange of their Triplecrown common stock in connection with the merger as described in more detail in this proxy statement/prospectus), and the current holder of common stock of Cullen Agritech will own 15,881,148 shares of CAH common stock. Cullen Holdings, the sole stockholder of Cullen Agritech, has agreed that it will not sell any of the shares it receives in the transaction until the 12-month anniversary of the consummation of the merger.

Prior to Triplecrown’s IPO, the Triplecrown Founders acquired 13,800,000 units of Triplecrown, representing 13,800,000 shares of common stock of Triplecrown (“Founders’ Shares”) and 13,800,000 warrants to purchase shares of common stock of Triplecrown (“Founders’ Warrants”). All of such securities are held in escrow under an escrow agreement with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, pursuant to which such securities will not be released from escrow until one year after the consummation of Triplecrown’s initial business combination (except in certain limited situations). In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Triplecrown Founders have agreed to have cancelled an aggregate of 11,260,000 shares of common stock of CAH they will receive in exchange for 11,260,000 Founders’ Shares upon consummation of the transaction. The remaining 2,540,000 shares, as well as all of the warrants of CAH that the Triplecrown Founders will receive in exchange for their Founders’ Warrants, will continue to be held in escrow pursuant to the original terms of the escrow agreement and will be released one year after the consummation of the transaction.

As described in more detail below, as a condition of the transaction, Triplecrown's stockholders will be asked to approve an amendment to Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation to permit the transaction and Triplecrown's warrant holders will be asked to amend the terms of the warrant agreement governing the warrants to increase the exercise price and redemption trigger of the warrants and extend the duration of such warrants.

If approved, the transactions are expected to be consummated by October 22, 2009, after the required approval by the stockholders and warrant holders of Triplecrown and the fulfillment of certain other closing conditions, as described herein and in the Merger Agreement.

Initial Charter Amendment

Pursuant to Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and as disclosed in the prospectus included in the registration statement for Triplecrown's IPO, Triplecrown undertook to consummate an initial business combination in which it acquired an operating business in the financial services industry with a fair market value equal to at least 80% of the balance in Triplecrown's trust account (excluding deferred underwriting discounts and commissions) and resulting in the ownership by Triplecrown of not less than 50% of the voting securities of the target business. Additionally, Triplecrown was prohibited from consummating a business combination with a business affiliated with any of the Triplecrown Founders. In the proposed transaction, (i) the sole stockholder of Cullen Agritech, the entity that will become CAH's operating business following the proposed transaction, is Cullen Holdings, an entity controlled by Eric J. Watson, Triplecrown's chairman of the board and treasurer, (ii) Triplecrown will ultimately be acquired by CAH and therefore not acquire at least 50% of the voting securities of the target business, (iii) Cullen Agritech is not an operating business in the financial services industry and (iv) the fair market value of Cullen Agritech on the date of the transaction is less than 80% of the balance of the trust account. Accordingly, the proposed transaction does not satisfy the requirements of Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and IPO prospectus as to its initial business combination. Accordingly, Triplecrown intends to amend the terms of its amended and restated certificate of incorporation to allow for the consummation of the proposed transaction. Such amendment will require approval of Triplecrown's stockholders.

Conditions to Closing

General Conditions

Consummation of the transactions is conditioned on (i) the holders of (a) a majority of the Public Shares voted at Triplecrown's stockholder meeting to approve the merger and (b) a majority of Triplecrown's outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, at a meeting called for this and other related purposes, approving the initial charter proposal and the merger proposal and the holders of a majority of Triplecrown's outstanding warrants approving the warrant amendment (described below) and (ii) the holders of fewer than 30% of the Public Shares voting against the merger and properly demanding that their Public Shares be converted into a pro-rata portion of the trust account, calculated as of two business days prior to the anticipated consummation of the merger.

In addition, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement is conditioned upon, among other things:

- no statute, rule, ruling, regulation, judgment, decision, order, injunction, writ or decree shall have been enacted, entered, ordered, promulgated, issued or enforced by any court or other governmental authority that is in effect and prohibits, enjoins or restricts the consummation of the transactions;
 - the execution by and delivery to each party of each of the various transaction documents;
- the delivery by each party to the other party of a certificate to the effect that the representations and warranties of each party are true and correct as of the closing, and all covenants contained in the merger agreement have been complied with by each party, in each case except as would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;
- the receipt of all necessary consents and approvals by third parties and the completion of necessary proceedings in compliance with the rules and regulations of each jurisdiction having jurisdiction over the subject matters;
- the amendment of Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation to provide for the initial charter amendment;
 - the cancellation of shares of Triplecrown common stock by the Triplecrown Founders;
- the receipt of legal opinions as may be mutually agreed upon by Cullen Agritech and Triplecrown;
- the lock-up agreements, the escrow agreement and other necessary transaction documents shall have been executed and delivered by the parties; and

- the registration statement to be filed in connection with the transaction shall have become effective and no stop order suspending its effectiveness, or proceeding to that effect, shall have been implemented by the SEC.

Triplecrown's Conditions to Closing

The obligations of Triplecrown to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, in addition to the conditions described above in the preceding paragraph, are conditioned upon each of the following, among other things:

- there shall have been no material adverse effect on CAH since the date of the Merger Agreement;
- employment agreement between Natural Dairy, Inc. and Dr. Richard Watson shall have been executed;
- the transfer of certain intellectual property to CAH that is currently held by Cullen Agritech; and
- specified officers and directors of Cullen Agritech shall have resigned from their positions.

Cullen Agritech's and Cullen Holdings' Conditions to Closing

The obligations of Cullen Agritech and Cullen Holdings to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement also are conditioned upon, among other things:

- there being no material adverse effect on Triplecrown since the date of the Merger Agreement;
- initial charter, secondary charter and warrant amendment proposals have been approved; and
- specified officers and directors of Triplecrown shall have resigned from their positions.

Waivers

If permitted under applicable law, either Triplecrown or Cullen Agritech may waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained in the Merger Agreement and waive compliance with any agreements or conditions for the benefit of the waiving party. The condition requiring that the holders of fewer than 30% of the Public Shares affirmatively vote against the merger proposal and demand conversion of their shares into cash may not be waived. Triplecrown would file a Current Report on Form 8-K and issue a press release to disclose any waiver of any representation, warranty or condition to the Merger Agreement. If such waiver is material to investors, a proxy statement/prospectus supplement would also be sent to holders of Public Shares as promptly as practicable.

Termination

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time, but not later than the closing, as follows:

- by mutual written agreement of Triplecrown and Cullen Agritech;

by either Triplecrown or Cullen Agritech if the merger is not consummated by the date Triplecrown is required to liquidate, provided that such termination is not available to a party whose action or failure to act has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to be consummated before such date and such action or failure to act is a breach of the Merger Agreement;

- by either Triplecrown or Cullen Agritech if a governmental entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger, which order, decree, judgment, ruling or other action is final and nonappealable;
- by either Triplecrown or Cullen Agritech if the other party has breached any of its covenants or representations and warranties in any material respect and has not cured its breach within thirty days of the notice of an intent to terminate, provided that the terminating party is itself not in breach; and
- by either Triplecrown or Cullen Agritech if, at the Triplecrown stockholder meeting, the Merger Agreement shall fail to be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Public Shares present (in person or represented by proxy) and entitled to vote at the meeting or the holders of 30% or more of the Public Shares exercise conversion rights.

Indemnification

To provide a fund to secure the indemnification obligations of Cullen Holdings to Triplecrown against losses that CAH may sustain as a result of (i) the inaccuracy or breach of any representation or warranty made by Cullen Agritech in the Merger Agreement or any schedule or certificate delivered by it in connection with the Merger Agreement and (ii) the non-fulfillment or breach of any covenant or agreement made by Cullen Agritech in the Merger Agreement, an aggregate of 10% of the initial shares to be issued in the merger (1,588,115 shares of Triplecrown common stock) will be placed in escrow (with an independent escrow agent), which will be canceled to the extent that Triplecrown has damages for which it is entitled to indemnification. The escrow will be the sole remedy for Triplecrown for its rights to indemnification pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Claims for indemnification may be asserted against the escrow by Triplecrown once its damages exceed a deductible and will be reimbursable to the full extent of the damages in excess of such amount up to a maximum of the escrowed shares. Claims for indemnification may be asserted until the 30th day after the date CAH has filed with the SEC its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2010 (but in any event no later than April 16, 2011). As a consequence of these limitations, Triplecrown may not be able to be entirely compensated for indemnifiable damages that it may sustain.

Secondary Charter Amendments

In connection with the proposed transaction, Triplecrown also intends to seek approval from holders of its common stock to approve the following differences between the amended and restated certificate of incorporation of CAH to be in effect following the merger and Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation: (i) the name of the new public entity will be "Cullen Agricultural Holding Corp." as opposed to "Triplecrown Acquisition Corp."; (ii) CAH will have 200,000,000 authorized shares of common stock and 1,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock and may increase or decrease such amounts without stockholder approval, as opposed to Triplecrown having 160,000,000 authorized shares of common stock and 1,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock and may not increase or decrease such amounts without stockholder approval; (iii) CAH's corporate existence will be perpetual as opposed to Triplecrown's corporate existence terminating on October 22, 2009; and (iv) CAH's amended and restated certificate of incorporation will not include the various provisions applicable only to specified purpose acquisition corporations that Triplecrown's amended and restated certificate of incorporation contains.

Warrant Amendments

In connection with the proposed transaction, Triplecrown intends to seek the approval from the holders of its warrants to (i) increase the exercise price of Triplecrown's warrants from $7.50 per share to $12.00 per share, (ii) extend the expiration date of the warrants from October 21, 2012 to October 21, 2013 and (iii) increase the price at which the stock must trade for the warrants to be called for redemption from $13.75 per share to $17.00 per share. The approval of each of the warrant amendment proposals is a condition to the merger being consummated. If approved by warrant holders, the amendments to the warrant agreement will be effective immediately upon consummation of the merger.

Attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report is the form of investor presentation that Triplecrown and Cullen Agritech expect to use in connection with presentations to certain of Triplecrown's securityholders, as well as other persons interested in purchasing securities of Triplecrown, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Note Regarding Financial Information and Data of Cullen Agritech

The financial information and data of Cullen Agritech contained in certain of the exhibits to this Current Report may not conform to Regulation S-X. Accordingly, such information and data may be adjusted and presented differently in the definitive proxy statement/prospectus to be mailed to Triplecrown's stockholders and warrant holders.

Note Regarding Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The investor presentation attached as an exhibit hereto contains certain non-GAAP financial measures, as defined under Regulation G of the rules and regulations of the SEC, including EBITDA. EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure (i.e., it is not a measure of financial performance under generally accepted accounting principles) and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for consolidated statements of operations and cash flows data prepared in accordance with GAAP. In addition, EBITDA as used by Cullen Agritech may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

While Cullen Agritech uses EBITDA in managing and analyzing its business and financial condition and believes this measure is useful to its management and investors, this non-GAAP financial measure has certain shortcomings. Cullen Agritech's management compensates for the shortcomings of EBITDA by utilizing it in conjunction with its comparable GAAP financial measure.
