Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 1, 2009, West Bancorporation, Inc. (“the Company”) entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (“the Agreement”) to sell all of the stock in WB Capital Management Inc. (“WB Capital”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, to Miles Capital Holdings, Inc.

The transaction is expected to close no later than December 31, 2009. The transaction is subject to closing conditions including, among other things, certain approvals and consents of clients of WB Capital, minimum working capital in WB Capital, minimum assets under management, employment agreements with certain officers of WB Capital, and delivery of customary closing certificates and documents. The Agreement provides for a maximum purchase price of $3,170,000, consisting of a $2,000,000 seven-year promissory note and contingent earn-out payments of up to $1,170,000 over five years if WB Capital achieves certain revenue milestones. The Agreement further provides that the Company will not be involved in the investment advisory business for five years after closing, except as is currently being performed by the West Bank trust department. Miles Capital, Inc. will be allowed to make its investment advisory services available to West Bank trust department customers and manage West Bank’s bond portfolio for the next three years. The Agreement contains customary indemnification provisions for a transaction of this type.

The foregoing summary of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the Agreement which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

As a result of the Agreement described above in Item 1.01, the Company recorded an impairment charge to goodwill related to WB Capital of $1.5 million. This impairment charge reduces the net book value of WB Capital to an amount that approximates the selling price, not including the contingent earn-out payments. The impairment charge was recorded in the third quarter of 2009.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
