PROXY STATEMENT
AMERICA'S SUPPLIERS, INC.

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders beginning on or about April [], 2010, in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the America's Suppliers, Inc. Board of Directors to be used at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at 9:00 a.m. (Pacific Time) on Wednesday, June 16, 2010 at our principal office at 7575 E. Redfield Road, Suite 201, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260, and at all adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting for the purposes listed in the preceding Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING

What am I voting on?

Proposal 1: The election of five directors for terms expiring at the next Annual Meeting; and

Proposal 2: To ratify the selection of Malone & Bailey, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2010.

We are not aware of any other matters that will be voted on. If a matter does properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as the proxy in the accompanying form of proxy will vote the proxy at their discretion.

What is the board's voting recommendation?

Our board of directors recommends a vote:

FOR each of the five nominated directors; and

FOR the ratification of Malone & Bailey, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010.

What is the vote required for each proposal?

Proposal 1: The election of the five nominated directors requires the affirmative vote of the plurality of votes cast by the holders of our common stock present, or represented, at the Annual Meeting, assuming quorum is present; and

Proposal 2: The ratification of Malone & Bailey, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010, requires a majority of our common stock present or represented at the Annual Meeting, assuming quorum is present.

What constitutes a quorum?

In order to conduct our Annual Meeting, a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Company must be present in person or represented by proxy. This is known as a "quorum." Abstentions and shares held in "street name" by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to a particular matter, referred to as broker non-votes, will count toward establishing a quorum.

Who may vote at the Annual Meeting?

The record holders of our common stock and preferred stock on the close of business as of April [], 2010 (the "Record Date") are entitled to receive notice of, to attend, and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof. Each outstanding share of our common stock is entitled to one vote upon each matter presented. As of the Record Date, there were 11,992,430 shares of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding held by [—] holders of record. Each outstanding share of preferred stock is entitled to 1 vote upon each matter presented. As of the Record Date, there were no shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding. A list of stockholders of record entitled to vote will be available for inspection by any record stockholder at our corporate headquarters at 7575 E. Redfield Road, Suite 201, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260 prior to and at our Annual Meeting.

What is the difference between a shareholder of record and a beneficial owner of shares held in street name?

Stockholder of Record. If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company's transfer agent, The Bank of New York Mellon ("BONY"), you are considered the shareholder of record with respect to those shares, and this Notice was sent directly to you by BONY and you received a proxy card along with this notice.

Beneficial Owner of Shares Held in Street Name. If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, broker-dealer, or other similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name," and the Notice was forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to instruct that organization on how to vote the shares held in your account. This Notice was sent to you by your brokerage firm, bank, broker-dealer, or other similar organization and you received the vote instruction form of that brokerage firm, bank, broker-dealer, or other similar organization.

How do I vote?

There are three ways to vote:

- By completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card (applicable only to stockholders of record);
- By following the instructions on the vote instruction form (applicable only to beneficial holders); or
- By attending our Annual Meeting in person and submitting a written ballot.

If you are a beneficial owner and your broker holds your shares in its name, the broker is permitted to vote your shares on the proposal to ratify Malone & Bailey, LLP as the Company's independent auditor even if the broker does not receive voting instructions from you.

If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank or other holder of record, you are not entitled to attend our Annual Meeting or vote in person at our Annual Meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from the broker, bank, trustee, or nominee that holds your shares giving you the right to vote the shares.

What does it mean if I get more than one proxy?

It means your shares are held in more than one account. Please vote all proxies to ensure all your shares are counted.

Can I change my vote or revoke my proxy?

You can change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time prior to the closing of the polls, by:

- Returning a later-dated proxy card;
- Voting in person at our Annual Meeting; or 2

- Notifying our Secretary by written revocation letter.

Any revocation should be filed at our corporate headquarters at 7575 E. Redfield Road, Suite 201, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260.

Attendance at our Annual Meeting will not in itself constitute revocation of a proxy. All shares entitled to vote and represented by properly completed proxies timely received and not revoked will be voted as you direct. If no direction is given, the proxies will be voted as our board recommends.

Who conducts the proxy solicitation?

Our board of directors is soliciting these proxies. We will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies. Our regular employees may solicit proxies by mail, by telephone, personally or by other communications, without compensation apart from their normal salaries.

Who will count the votes?

Our board of directors will appoint one or more persons to serve as the inspector(s) of elections to tabulate the votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting. The inspector(s) of elections will also determine whether or not a quorum is present.

Do I have any appraisal rights in connection with any matter to be acted upon?

No. Our stockholders do not have appraisal rights in connection with any matter to be acted upon.

Who can help answer my questions?

If you have any questions about the Annual Meeting or the proposals to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement or copies of any of our public filings referred to in this proxy statement, you should contact Michael Moore, at (877) 837-9569. A copy of this proxy statement and our annual report for the year ending December 31, 2009 may be obtained online at www.americassuppliers.com. Board Leadership Structure

Our Company is led by Peter Engel, who has served as Chairman of our Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer since 2008. We believe that having Mr. Engel act in both these roles is most appropriate for the Company at this time because it provides the Company with consistent and efficient leadership, both with respect to the Company's operations and the leadership of the Board. In particular, having Mr. Engel act in both these roles increases the timeliness and effectiveness of the Board's deliberations, increases the Board's visibility into the day-to-day operations of the Company, and ensures the consistent implementation of the Company's strategies.

Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board as a whole has responsibility for risk oversight. The oversight responsibility of the Board and its audit and compensation committees is enabled by management reporting processes that are designed to provide visibility to the Board about the identification, assessment and management of critical risks. These areas of focus include strategic, operational, financial reporting, succession, compensation, compliance, and other risks. The audit committee is tasked with oversight of financial and reporting and compliance risks and the compensation committee is tasked with oversight of compensation risks, while the Board as a whole oversees all other risks.

Nominations of Directors

The Board does not have a standing nominating committee. When necessary, the Board as a whole performs functions equivalent to that of a nominating committee. In that capacity, the Board has no charter. For this reason the Board, (1) has no policy with regard to the nomination of candidates recommended by security holders; (2) has developed no specific minimum qualifications that it believes must be met by a Board-recommended nominee for a position on the Board; (3) has developed no specific qualities or skills that it believes are necessary for a member of the Board to possess; (4) has no specific process for identifying and evaluating nominees for director and (5) does not have a policy with regard to the consideration of diversity in identifying director nominees.

The Board of Directors believe the attributes, leadership skills and other experiences of its board members described in the table below, provide the Company with a diverse range of perspectives and judgment necessary to guide the Company's strategies and monitor their execution.

Peter Engel

- Business leadership and operational experience as our Chief Executive Officer and Chairman since 2008.
 - Extensive business experience in various executive and board level roles.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our board of directors recommends that you vote “FOR” all the director nominees.

7

PROPOSAL 2 — RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Our Audit Committee has selected Malone & Bailey, LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, to audit our financial statements for our fiscal year ending December 31, 2010. Malone & Bailey, LLP audited our financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. Although stockholder approval of the selection of Malone & Bailey, LLP is not required by law, our board of directors believes it is advisable to give stockholders the opportunity to ratify this selection. [We expect representatives of Malone & Bailey, LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting, with the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.] In the event of a negative vote on this proposal by the stockholders, the Audit Committee may consider whether it is appropriate, either for this fiscal year or in the future, to consider the selection of other independent registered public accounting firms.

CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS

Effective September 12, 2008, we dismissed Burr, Pilger & Mayer LLP (“BPM”) as our independent registered public accounting firm and appointed Malone & Bailey, P.C. (“Malone & Bailey”) as our new independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. Our board of directors approved the dismissal of BPM and the appointment of Malone & Bailey as the Company’s new independent registered public accounting firm.

BPM has not performed any audit related services regarding the Company’s financial statements since June 1, 2007 relating to the consolidated financial statements for fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. BPM’s reports on the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 included an explanatory paragraph regarding substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

Through June 1, 2007, there were been no disagreements with BPM (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to BPM’s satisfaction, would have caused BPM to make reference thereto in their reports on the Company’s financial statements for such years ended.

FEES PAID TO INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The following table shows the fees paid or accrued by us for the audit and other services provided by Malone & Bailey, LLP for fiscal years 2009 and 2008.

Audit-related fees	-	96,268

Total	$ 151,076	$ 219,804

During fiscal year 2009 and 2008, the Audit Committee pre-approved all engagements and fees for services the principal registered accountant provided.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we may receive claims of and become subject to consumer protection, employment, intellectual property and other commercial litigation related to the conduct of our business. Also, we may receive related inquiries from state and federal agencies which might relate to our business practices, or the activity of our customers or suppliers. Such regulatory matters and commercial litigation could be costly and time consuming and could divert our management and key personnel from our business operations. The uncertainty of litigation increases these risks. In connection with such litigation or regulatory inquiries, we may be subject to significant damages or equitable remedies or fines relating to the operation of our business and the sale of products on our website. Any such litigation may materially harm our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition or cash flow. We are not aware of any outstanding litigation or any pending or threatened litigation that would be expected to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

These and other types of claims could result in increased costs of doing business through legal expenses, adverse judgments, settlements or require us to change our business practices.

Additional litigation may be necessary in the future to enforce our intellectual property rights, to protect our trade secrets or to determine the validity and scope of the proprietary rights of others. Any litigation, regardless of outcome or merit, could result in substantial costs and diversion of management and technical resources, any of which could materially harm our business.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Our certificate of incorporation provides that the personal liability of our directors shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of Section 102(b)(7) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or the DGCL. Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL generally provides that no director shall be liable personally to us or our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that our certificate of incorporation does not eliminate the liability of a director for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to us or our stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) acts or omissions in respect of certain unlawful dividend payments or stock redemptions or repurchases; or (iv) any transaction from which such director derives improper personal benefit. The effect of this provision is to eliminate our rights and the rights of our stockholders through stockholders' derivative suits on our behalf, to recover monetary damages against a director for breach of her or his fiduciary duty of care as a director including breaches resulting from negligent or grossly negligent behavior except in the situations described in clauses (i) through (iv) above. The limitations summarized above, however, do not affect our or our stockholders' ability to seek non-monetary remedies, such as an injunction or rescission, against a director for breach of her or his fiduciary duty.

In addition, our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that we shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, indemnify all directors and officers who we may indemnify pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL permits a company to indemnify an officer or director who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding because of his or her position, if the officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of such company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. We have entered into indemnification agreements with our directors and officers consistent with indemnification to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL.

We maintain a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by our directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties. The entire premium for such insurance is paid by us.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act, our directors and officers, and persons controlling us pursuant to the foregoing provisions, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors and officers, and person who own more than 10% of the Company's shares to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the SEC. Any stockholder proposals intended to be presented at the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Company at its office in Scottsdale, Arizona on or before January 1, 2011 in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and proxy relating to such meeting. The Company has received no stockholder nominations or proposals for the 2010 Annual Meeting.

Shareholders wishing to communicate with the Board may direct such communications to the Board of Directors c/o America's Suppliers, Inc., Attn: Peter Engel, at the Company's headquarters at 7575 E. Redfield Road, Suite 201, Scottsdale, Arizona, 85260. Mr. Engel will present a summary of all shareholder communications to the Board of Directors at subsequent Board meetings. The directors will have the opportunity to review the actual communications at their discretion.

METHOD OF COUNTING VOTES

Unless a contrary choice is indicated, all duly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions set forth on the proxy card. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker holding shares registered in street name is permitted to vote, in the broker's discretion, on routine matters without receiving instructions from the client, but is not permitted to vote without instructions on non-routine matters, and the broker returns a proxy card with no vote (the "non-vote") on the non-routine matter. Under the rules and regulations of the primary trading markets applicable to most brokers, both the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of auditors are routine matters on which a broker has the discretion to vote if instructions are not received from the client in a timely manner. Abstentions will be counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum but will not be counted for or against the election of directors or the ratification of independent auditors. As to Item 1, the Proxy confers authority to vote for all of the three persons listed as candidates for a position on the Board of Directors even though the block in Item 1 is not marked unless the names of one or more candidates are lined out. The Proxy will be voted "For" Items 1, and 2 unless "Against" or "Abstain" is indicated. If any other business is presented at the meeting, the Proxy shall be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.
