INRAD OPTICS, INC AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1 -SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Inrad Optics, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments of a normal recurring nature considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results of operations of any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for the full fiscal year. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and accompanying footnotes included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through the date the consolidated financial statements were issued.

Management Estimates

These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures have been prepared in conformity with U.S. GAAP which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses reported in those financial statements. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, and makes adjustments when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from those estimates and assumptions. Significant changes, if any, in those estimates resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements in future periods.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in-first-out basis) or market. The Company records a reserve for slow moving inventory as a charge against earnings for all products identified as surplus, slow-moving or discontinued. Excess work-in-process costs are charged against earnings whenever estimated costs-of-completion exceed unbilled revenues.

Inventories are comprised of the following and are shown net of inventory reserves, in thousands:

	June 30, 2013 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2012
Raw materials	$ 1,163	$ 1,267
Work in process, including manufactured parts and components	1,123	1,291
Finished goods	1,110	1,039
	$ 3,396	$ 3,597

Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements or tax returns. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statements carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, the Company did not record a current provision for either state or federal income tax due to the losses incurred for both income tax and financial reporting purposes or the availability of net operating loss carry-forwards to offset against federal and state income tax.

In evaluating the Company's ability to recover deferred tax assets in future periods, management considers the available positive and negative factors, including the Company's recent operating results, the existence of cumulative losses and near term forecasts of future taxable income consistent with the plans and estimates that management uses to manage the underlying business. A significant piece of objective negative evidence evaluated was the cumulative loss incurred by the Company over the three-year period ended December 31, 2012 as well as the six months ended June 30, 2013. Such objective evidence limits the ability to consider other subjective evidence such as our projections for future growth.

On the basis of this evaluation, as of June 30, 2013, the Company's management concluded that it is more likely than not that the Company will not be able to realize any portion of the benefit on the net deferred tax balance of $3,445,000 and therefore the Company continues to maintain a valuation allowance for the full amount of the net deferred tax balance.

When sufficient positive evidence exists, the Company's income tax expense will be charged with the increase or decrease in its valuation allowance. An increase or reversal of the Company's valuation allowance could have a significant negative or positive impact on the Company's future earnings.

Net (Loss) Income per Common Share

Basic net (loss) income per common share is computed by dividing net (loss) income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net (loss) income per common share is computed by dividing net (loss) income by the weighted average number of common shares and common stock equivalents outstanding, calculated on the treasury stock method for options, stock grants and warrants using the average market prices during the period, including potential common shares issuable upon conversion of outstanding convertible notes, except if the effect on the per share amounts is anti-dilutive.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, all common stock equivalents were excluded from the computation of diluted net loss per share because their effect is anti-dilutive. This included 970,211 common stock equivalents related to outstanding options and grants, in each respective period. In addition, there were 2,500,000 common shares and 1,875,000 warrants issuable upon conversion of outstanding related party convertible notes in each period which were anti-dilutive.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, all common stock equivalents were excluded from the computation of diluted net loss per share because their effect is anti-dilutive. This included 942,823 common stock equivalents related to outstanding options and grants, in each respective period. In addition, there were 2,500,000 common shares and 1,875,000 warrants issuable upon conversion of outstanding related party convertible notes in each period which were anti-dilutive.

Stock-Based Compensation

Stock-based compensation expense is estimated at the grant date based on the fair value of the award. The Company estimates the fair value of stock options granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The fair value of restricted stock units granted is based on the closing market price of the Company's common stock on the date of the grant. The fair value of these awards, adjusted for estimated forfeitures, is amortized over the requisite service period of the award, which is generally the vesting period.

Recently Adopted Accounting Standards

In July 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2013-11, “Presentation of an Unrecognized Tax Benefit When a Net Operating Loss Carryforward, a Similar Tax Loss, or a Tax Credit Carryforward Exists.” ASU 2013-11 clarifies the financial statement presentation of unrecognized tax benefits when a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward exists. ASU 2013-11 is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2013 and should be applied prospectively to all unrecognized tax benefits that exist at the effective date. Management does not expect the adoption of ASU 2013-11 to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 2- EQUITY COMPENSATION PROGRAM AND STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

There were 80,000 stock options granted during the six months ended June 30, 2013. There were no stock options granted during the six months ended June 30, 2012. Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our significant accounting policies are described in Note 1 of the accompanying consolidated financial statements and further discussed in our annual financial statements included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012. In preparing our condensed consolidated financial statements, we made estimates and judgments that affect the results of our operations and the value of assets and liabilities we report. These include estimates used in evaluating goodwill and intangibles for impairment such as market multiples used in determining the fair value of reporting units, discount rates applicable in determining net present values of future cash flows, projections of future sales, earnings and cash flow and capital expenditures. It also includes estimates about the amount and timing of future taxable income in determining the Company's valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets. Our actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

For additional information regarding our critical accounting policies and estimates, see the section entitled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in our annual report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Results of Operations

The Optical Components category is focused on custom optics manufacturing. The Company specializes in high-end precision components. It develops, manufactures and delivers precision custom optics and thin film optical coating services through its Custom Optics and Metal Optics operations. Glass, metal, and crystal substrates are processed using modern manufacturing equipment, complex processes and techniques to manufacture components, deposit optical thin films, and assemble sub-components used in advanced photonic systems. The majority of custom optical components and optical coating services supplied are used in inspection, process control systems, defense and aerospace electro-optical systems, laser system applications, industrial scanners, and medical system applications.

The Laser System Devices and Instrumentation category includes the growth and fabrication of crystalline materials with electro-optic (EO) and non-linear optical properties for use in both standard and custom products. This category also includes the manufactured crystal based devices and associated instrumentation. The majority of crystals, crystal components and laser devices manufactured are used in laser systems, defense EO systems, medical lasers and R&D applications by engineers within corporations, universities and national laboratories.

Revenue

Sales for the three months ended June 30, 2013 were $2,695,000, a decrease of 6.4%, compared to $2,880,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2012. Sales for the six months ended June 30, 2013 were $5,771,000, a slight increase from $5,721,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2012. Sales in the Optical Components category increased 4.2% for the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared with the prior year. Sales of Laser Systems Devices and Instrumentation decreased 5.2% over the same period.

Shipments to customers in the universities & national laboratories market increased. This was offset by decreased shipments in the process control & metrology markets, the laser systems market and the defense/aerospace market which was spread across most of the Company's existing customers in those markets with the exception of a few customers that recorded sales increases.

Sales to major customers defined as those who represent more than 10% of period sales, were down as a percentage of total sales in the first six months of 2013 compared with the same period in 2012. This was due to lower sales to one large laser systems market customer that was partially offset by an increase in sales to one large defense market customer compared to the same period in the prior year.

The Company's top five customers represented 34.3% of total sales in the six month period ended June 30, 2013, down from 43.4% in the same period in 2012.

Orders during the first six months of 2013 compared to 2012, decreased to $4.8 million compared to $6.3 million last year

Order backlog was $4.9 million at June 30, 2013, down compared to $5.9 million at December 31, 2012 and $5.6 million at June 30, 2012.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold was $2,387,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2013 compared to $2,313,000 in the same quarter in 2012, an increase of $74,000 or 3.2%. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, cost of goods sold increased by $352,000 or 8.0% to $4,765,000 compared to $4,413,000 in the same period in 2012.

As a percentage of sales, cost of goods sold increased to 88.6% compared to 80.3% in 2012 for the three months ended June 30, 2013. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, cost of goods sold as a percentage of sales was 82.6% compared to 77.1% in the same period in 2012.

Manufacturing wages and salaries, including related fringe benefits, increased by 1.5% and 7.2%, respectively, during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, compared to same period last year, as a result of the shift in our historical customer mix discussed above.

The impact of the Company's work force reduction in March and April, 2013 had a net positive impact over the six months ended June 30, 2013. Severance costs included in cost of goods sold were $29,000 and $141,000 in the three and six months ended June 30, 2013. These costs were offset by associated payroll savings which amounted to approximately $175,000 and $220,000 in the respective periods.

Material costs decreased 28.7% and 11.7% during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, respectively, compared with the same periods in 2012, mainly due to the change in sales mix, discussed above.

Gross margin decreased for the three and six month period ended June 30, 2013 as a result of the factors discussed above. Gross margin in the second quarter of 2013 was $308,000 or 11.4% versus $567,000 or 19.7% in the same period in 2012. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, gross margin decreased to $1,007,000 or 17.4% compared with $1,308,000 or 22.9% in the comparable period in 2012.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses ("SG&A" expenses) in the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 amounted to $910,000 or 33.8% of sales and $1,763,000 or 30.5% of sales, respectively, compared to $865,000 or 30.0% of sales and $1,719,000 or 30.0% of sales, respectively, for the same periods in 2012. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, SG&A expenses included approximately $29,000 and $75,000 in severance costs related to the workforce reduction discussed in Note 5 to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. Associated payroll savings from the workforce reduction was $69,000 and $85,000 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013.

(Loss) from Operations

The Company had an operating loss of $602,000 in the three months ended June 30, 2013 compared with an operating loss of $297,000 in the three months ended June 30, 2012. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, the Company had an operating loss of $757,000 compared with an operating loss of $411,000 in the same period last year. The operating losses in 2013 and 2012 primarily reflect the impact of the level of sales on the Company's relatively fixed cost structure.

Other Income and Expense

For the three months ended June 30, 2013, net interest expense was $46,000, up from $36,000 in the same period in 2012. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, net interest expense was $91,000, up from $71,000 in the same period in 2012.

Interest expense for the three months ended June 30, 2013 increased to $48,000 compared to $41,000 in the same period in 2012. Interest expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2013 increased to $96,000 compared to $82,000 in the same period in 2012. The increase in both periods is mainly attributable to the addition of a term note with Valley National Bank in the third quarter of 2012.

Interest income during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 was $2,000 and $5,000, respectively, compared with $5,000 and $11,000, respectively, in the comparable periods in 2012, and results from lower average cash balances in interest bearing accounts over the comparable periods.

In the first quarter of 2013, the Company sold surplus machinery and recorded a gain of $31,000.

Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements or tax returns. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statements carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, the Company did not record a current provision for either state or federal income tax due to the losses incurred for both income tax and financial reporting purposes or the availability of net operating loss carry-forwards to offset against federal and state income tax.

In evaluating the Company's ability to recover deferred tax assets in future periods, management considers the available positive and negative factors, including the Company's recent operating results, the existence of cumulative losses and near term forecasts of future taxable income consistent with the plans and estimates that management uses to manage the underlying business. A significant piece of objective negative evidence evaluated was the cumulative loss incurred by the Company over the three-year period ended December 31, 2012 as well as the six months ended June 30, 2013. Such objective evidence limits the ability to consider other subjective evidence such as our projections for future growth.

On the basis of this evaluation, as of June 30, 2013, the Company's management concluded that it is more likely than not that the Company will not be able to realize any portion of the benefit on the net deferred tax balance of $3,445,000. As a result, the Company maintains a valuation allowance for the full amount of the net deferred tax balance.

When sufficient positive evidence exists, the Company's income tax expense will be charged with the increase or decrease in its valuation allowance. An increase or reversal of the Company's valuation allowance could have a significant negative or positive impact on the Company's future earnings.

Net (Loss)

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, the Company had a net loss of $648,000 and $817,000, respectively, compared to a net loss of $333,000 and $482,000, respectively, for the same periods in 2012.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's primary source of liquidity is cash and cash equivalents and on-going collection of accounts receivable. The Company's major use of cash in recent years has been for the payment of accrued and current interest on convertible debt, the servicing of long term debt and for capital expenditures.

As of June 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $2,465,000 and $3,089,000, respectively.

On July 26, 2012, the Company entered into a term loan agreement with Valley National Bank, Wayne, NJ, in the amount of $750,000. The loan is secured with a security interest in new equipment acquired by the Company in the amount of $825,000 which will enhance the Company's thin film coating capabilities. The loan is repayable in equal monthly installments over five years beginning in August 2012 and bears an interest rate of 4.35% annually. In 2012, the Company made a down-payment of $500,000 on the equipment and included the payment in Other Assets at December 31, 2012. In March 2013, the Company made an installment payment in the amount of $242,500. During the second quarter of 2013, the installation of the equipment was completed and the final installment payment of $82,500 was made. The cost of the equipment including installment payments and associated installation costs were capitalized in the second quarter of 2013 in the amount of $897,000 with an additional $70,000 capitalized for leasehold improvements associated with the equipment.

We believe that existing cash resources held by the Company and anticipated to be generated from future operating activities are sufficient to meet working capital requirements, anticipated capital expenditures, debt servicing payments and other contractual obligations over the next 12 months.

On July 31, 2012, the maturity dates of a $1,500,000 Subordinated Convertible Promissory Note to Clarex Limited (“Clarex”) and a $1,000,000 Subordinated Convertible Promissory Note to an affiliate of Clarex were each extended to April 1, 2015 from April 1, 2013. The notes bear interest at 6%. Interest accrues yearly and is payable on maturity. Unpaid interest, along with principal, may be converted into securities of the Company as follows: the notes are convertible in the aggregate into 1,500,000 units and 1,000,000 units, respectively, with each unit consisting of one share of common stock and one warrant. Each warrant allows the holder to acquire 0.75 shares of common stock at a price of $1.35 per share and expire on April 1, 2018. The Company paid current interest of $37,500 in each quarter during the six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012. The Company expects to make interest payments of $37,500 in the remaining quarters of 2013 and in each quarter through the maturity date of the notes to satisfy the amounts of interest accruing in each quarter.

The following table summarizes net cash (used in) operating, investing and financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012:

	Six Months Ended
	June 30,
	2013	2012
	(In thousands)
Net cash (used in) operating activities	$ (134)	$ (96)
Net cash (used in) investing activities	(416)	(181)
Net cash (used in) financing activities	(74)	-
Net (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	$ (624)	$ (277)

Net cash used in operating activities was $134,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared to $96,000 in the same period last year. The decrease in net cash from operating activities in the first six months of 2013 compared to 2012 resulted primarily from the higher net loss generated in the current period.

Accounts receivables decreased by $186,000 at June 30, 2013 compared to a decrease of $233,000 the same period last year. The decrease was mainly the result of the timing of shipments and the collection of balances during the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared to the prior year.

Inventory balances decreased by $200,000 in the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared to an increase of $413,000 in the six months ended June 30, 2012 which was the result of planned reductions in 2013 primarily attributable to the reduction in orders placed in the current year.

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities decreased by $26,000 in the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared to a decrease of $31,000 in 2012 principally due to the timing of payments as the Company continues to optimize its use of cash.

Non-cash items consist of depreciation and amortization, stock based compensation expense and the Company's annual 401K matching stock contribution for the six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012.

Net cash used in investing activities was $416,000 during the six months ended June 30, 2013 versus $181,000 last year. Capital expenditures for the six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012 were $447,000 and $181,000, respectively. The expenditures in 2013 were primarily for the balance owed on new equipment purchased to enhance the Company's thin film coating capabilities and the associated installation costs at the Northvale facility. The expenditures in 2012 were primarily incurred to refurbish operating facilities in New Jersey and Florida and to purchase manufacturing equipment. The Company also sold surplus machinery during the six months ended June 30, 2013 and received net proceeds of $31,000.

Net cash used in financing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2013 totaled $74,000 compared to net cash provided of $500 in the comparable period in 2012. The increase in cash used in 2013 is mainly attributable to the principal payments made on the term loan with Valley National Bank that the Company entered into in the third quarter of 2012 to finance the acquisition of new equipment. The net cash provided in 2012 consisted primarily of proceeds from the exercise of stock options for $5,500, offset by principal payments on long term notes of $5,000.

Overall, the Company had a net decrease in cash and cash equivalents of $624,000 in the six months ended June 30, 2013 compared with a decrease of $277,000 in the corresponding period last year.
