As demonstrated by the results of operations reported in Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2013, Smith-Midland Corporation reported a net profit for the six months then ended. It is anticipated that the Smith-Midland Corporation will report that its income for the second quarter of 2014 will be approximately break-even and it will report a net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2014, however, at this time an estimate cannot be reasonably determined as more work is needed to complete the these financial statements.
