Note 1 - Company and Basis of Presentation

Blonder Tongue Laboratories, Inc. (together with its consolidated subsidiaries, the “Company”) is a technology-development and manufacturing company that delivers television signal encoding, transcoding, digital transport, and broadband product solutions to the cable markets the Company serves, including the multi-dwelling unit market, the lodging/hospitality market and the institutional market including, hospitals, prisons and schools, primarily throughout the United States and Canada. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Blonder Tongue Laboratories, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The results for the first quarter of 2015 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year and have not been audited. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting primarily of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair statement of the results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented and the consolidated balance sheet at March 31, 2015. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to SEC rules and regulations. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto that were included in the Company’s latest annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Note 2 - Liquidity

The Company’s primary sources of liquidity are its existing cash balances, cash generated from operations and amounts available under the Santander Financing (as defined in Note 6 below). As of March 31, 2015, the Company had approximately $1,695 outstanding under the Revolver (as defined in Note 6 below) and $1,121 of additional availability for borrowing under the Revolver. The Company anticipates these sources of liquidity, along with the expected refinancing of the Company’s Revolver and Term Loan (both of which expire on February 1, 2016), will be sufficient to fund its operating activities, anticipated capital expenditures and debt repayment obligations for the next twelve months. As of April 30, 2015, taking into account the Temporary Overadvance Facility (as defined in Note 6 below), the Company had approximately $3,037 outstanding under the Revolver (as defined in Note 6 below) and $340 of additional availability for borrowing under the Revolver, with $254 of cash on hand. While the Company anticipates refinancing all or part of its existing indebtedness prior to February 1, 2016, there can be no assurances that a refinancing will be available on acceptable terms or at all. As a result of lower than expected net sales in the first quarter of 2015 and the reduction, pursuant to the Sixth Amendment (as defined in Note 6 below), in the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory from 50% to 25%, the Company experienced a material decrease in its liquidity in the first quarter of 2015. While the Company anticipates that its net sales will return to historical norms during the third quarter of 2015, in the interim, the Company obtained an accommodation from Santander, whereby effective as of March 30, 2015, Santander agreed to provide the Company with $500 of additional availability beyond its borrowing base under the Revolver during the period from April 1, 2015 through April 24, 2015, all of which was drawn on or prior to April 24, 2015. In other efforts to alleviate the existing liquidity pressures and reposition the Company to become profitable at a lower level of net sales, the Company implemented a two-phase cost-reduction program which is expected to reduce annualized expenses by approximately $2,100, including a temporary reduction in certain executive salaries, a decrease in workforce and a decrease in engineering consulting expenses. Prior to April 24, 2015, the Company provided Santander with updated financial information for 2015, which takes into account the full implementation of its cost reduction program. Santander has evaluated such updated financial information and as a result, agreed to enter into the Eighth Amendment described in Note 6 below. The Eighth Amendment is silent with respect to the status of the Temporary Overadvance Facility; however, Santander has advised the Company that the accommodation in the Eighth Amendment by which the advance rate on Eligible Inventory (as defined in the Santander Agreement) was increased from 25% to 35%, is in lieu of both the Temporary Overadvance Facility and any additional accommodations contemplated thereby, as more fully discussed in Note 6 below. Since March 30, 2015, the Company's liquidity position has improved and it believes that the foregoing credit accommodations, coupled with the enhanced liquidity that should be derived from the implementation of the cost reduction program will be sufficient to alleviate the Company's short term liquidity pressures. The Company also believes that when the accommodations being provided by Santander pursuant to the Eighth Amendment are terminated, the additional liquidity derived from implementation of the cost reduction program should be sufficient for the Company's ongoing operations. While there can be no assurance that the foregoing requested accommodations and expense reduction programs will be achieved, the Company believes that it will nevertheless be able to fund its operating activities, anticipated capital expenditures (which will be curtailed during this interim period), and debt repayment obligations for the next twelve months.

The Company's primary long-term obligations are for payment of interest and principal on its Revolver and Term Loan, both of which expire on February 1, 2016. The Company expects to use cash generated from operations to meet its long-term debt obligations, and anticipates refinancing its long-term debt obligations at maturity.

Note 3- Earnings (loss) Per Share

Earnings (loss) per share is calculated in accordance with ASC Topic 260 "Earnings Per Share," which provides for the calculation of "basic" and "diluted" earnings (loss) per share. Basic earnings (loss) per share includes no dilution and is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share reflect, in periods in which they have a dilutive effect, the effect of common shares issuable upon exercise of stock options. The diluted share base excludes incremental shares of 841 and 1,756 related to stock options for the three month periods ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. These shares were excluded due to their antidilutive effect.

Note 4 – New Accounting Pronouncements

The FASB, the Emerging Issues Task Force and the SEC have issued certain accounting standards updates and regulations as of March 31, 2015 that will become effective in subsequent periods; however, management of the Company does not believe that any of those updates would have significantly affected the Company's financial accounting measures or disclosures had they been in effect during 2015 or 2014, and does not believe that any of those pronouncements will have a significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements at the time they become effective.

BLONDER TONGUE LABORATORIES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIESCONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*(In thousands)*(unaudited)*Note 5 – Inventories

Inventories net of reserves are summarized as follows:

	March 31, 2015	December 31, 2014
Raw Materials	$ 5,341	$ 5,151
Work in process	2,675	3,045
Finished Goods	6,109	5,487
	14,125	13,683
Less current inventory	(9,310)	(9,257)
	4,815	4,426
Less reserve for slow moving and obsolete inventory	(2,820)	(2,798)
	$ 1,995	$ 1,628

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost, determined by the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) method, or market.

The Company periodically analyzes anticipated product sales based on historical results, current backlog and marketing plans. Based on these analyses, the Company anticipates that certain products will not be sold during the next twelve months. Inventories that are not anticipated to be sold in the next twelve months, have been classified as non-current.

Approximately 69% and 66% of the non-current inventories were comprised of finished goods at both March 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively. The Company has established a program to use interchangeable parts in its various product offerings and to modify certain of its finished goods to better match customer demands. In addition, the Company has instituted additional marketing programs to dispose of the slower moving inventories.

The Company continually analyzes its slow-moving, excess and obsolete inventories. Based on historical and projected sales volumes and anticipated selling prices, the Company establishes reserves. Inventory that is in excess of current and projected use is reduced by an allowance to a level that approximates its estimate of future demand. Products that are determined to be obsolete are written down to net realizable value.

Note 6 – Debt

On August 6, 2008, the Company entered into a Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander Bank, N.A. (formerly known as Sovereign Bank, N.A.) through its Sovereign Business Capital division (“Santander”), pursuant to which the Company obtained an $8,000 credit facility from Santander (the “Santander Financing”). The Company and Santander entered into a series of amendments to the foregoing Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement (as so amended, the “Santander Agreement”), including the Seventh Amendment referenced below, which, among other things, adjusted the Santander Financing to $8,783 consisting of (i) a $5,000 asset-based revolving credit facility (“Revolver”) and (ii) a $3,783 term loan facility (“Term Loan”), each expiring on February 1, 2016. The amounts which may be borrowed under the Revolver are based on certain percentages of Eligible Receivables and Eligible Inventory, as such terms are defined in the Santander Agreement. The obligations of the Company under the Santander Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

Under the Santander Agreement, the Revolver currently bears interest at a rate per annum equal to the prime lending rate announced from time to time by Santander (“Prime”) plus 1.50% or the LIBOR rate plus 4.25%. The Term Loan currently bears interest at a rate per annum equal to Prime plus 1.75% or the LIBOR rate plus 4.50%. Prime was 3.25% at March 31, 2015. LIBOR rate loans under the Santander Agreement may be borrowed for interest periods of one, three or six months. The LIBOR rates for interest periods of one-month, three-months and six-months were 0.17%, 0.25% and 0.36%, respectively, at March 31, 2015. The per annum interest rates above became effective on January 21, 2015, pursuant to the terms of the Seventh Amendment described below.

On May 14, 2015, the Company entered into the Eighth Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the “Eighth Amendment”) to amend the Santander Financing. The Eighth Amendment (i) waived the Company’s failure of compliance with the Minimum EBITDA covenant for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015, effective as of March 31, 2015, and (ii) increased the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory (as defined in the Santander Agreement) from 25% to 35% through and until September 30, 2015, after which it will revert back to 25%. The Eighth Amendment also contains other customary representations, covenants, terms and conditions. In connection with the Eighth Amendment, the Company paid Santander an amendment fee of $15. The Eighth Amendment is silent with respect to the status of the Temporary Overadvance Facility; however, Santander has advised the Company that the accommodation in the Eighth Amendment by which the advance rate on Eligible Inventory was increased from 25% to 35%, is in lieu of both the Temporary Overadvance Facility and any additional accommodations contemplated thereby, as more fully discussed in the next following paragraph.

On March 30, 2015, Santander agreed to provide the Company with $500 of additional availability beyond its borrowing base under the Revolver (the “Temporary Overadvance Facility”) during the period April 1, 2015 through April 24, 2015, for which the Company paid Santander an accommodation fee of $2.5. Santander agreed to consider a further accommodation of up to an additional $500 for a more extended period of time based on updated financial information that was to be provided to them prior to April 24, 2015. Under the agreement, If Santander determined that it would not provide the Company with a further accommodation, the Company would be required to eliminate the outstanding balance under the Temporary Overadvance Facility on or before September 30, 2015.

On January 21, 2015, the Company entered into the Seventh Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the “Seventh Amendment”) to amend the Santander Financing. The Seventh Amendment (i) extended by one year the Termination Date of the Santander Agreement from February 1, 2015 to February 1, 2016; (ii) continued the installment payments of principal under the Term Loan at the same monthly payment of $18 per month for the additional year until the final payment of unpaid principal and interest is due on February 1, 2016; (iii) increased the interest rates applicable to the Revolver and the Term Loan by one quarter of one percent (0.25%); and (iv) reset and modified the Minimum EBITDA covenant to address the term being extended by one year. The Seventh Amendment also contains other customary representations, covenants, terms and conditions. The Company paid a $15 amendment fee to Santander in connection with the Amendment.

On March 28, 2014, the Company entered into a Sixth Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the “Sixth Amendment”) to amend the Santander Financing. The Sixth Amendment (i) reduced the maximum amount available for borrowing under the Revolver from $6,000 to $5,000, (ii) increased the interest rates applicable to the Revolver and the Term Loan by three quarters of one percent, (iii) modified the Company’s fixed charge coverage ratio covenant to eliminate the testing thereof with respect to the trailing 12-month period ended as of December 31, 2013, (iv) eliminated the fixed charge coverage ratio covenant with respect to all periods after December 31, 2013, (v) modified the minimum EBITDA covenant to (a) eliminate the testing thereof with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, (b) change the manner of calculation thereof, and (c) imposed a quarterly building minimum EBITDA covenant test, commencing with the fiscal quarter ended on March 31, 2014, and thereafter for the two fiscal quarters ended June 30, 2014, the three fiscal quarters ended September 30, 2014, the four fiscal quarters ended December 31, 2014 and thereafter quarterly on a trailing four fiscal quarter basis, (vi) reduced the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory (as defined in the Santander Agreement) from 50% to 35%, with a further reduction in such advance rate to 25% effective on or about June 27, 2014 and (vii) reduced the sublimit on advances against such Eligible Inventory from $3,000 to $2,000. In connection with the Sixth Amendment, the Company paid Santander an amendment fee of $45.

Upon termination of the Revolver, all outstanding borrowings under the Revolver are due. The outstanding principal balance of the Revolver was $1,695 at March 31, 2015. The Term Loan requires equal monthly principal payments of approximately $18 each, plus interest, with the remaining balance due at maturity. The outstanding principal balance of the Term Loan was $3,730 at March 31, 2015.

The Santander Agreement contains customary representations and warranties as well as affirmative and negative covenants, including certain financial covenants. The Santander Agreement contains customary events of default, including, among others, non-payment of principal, interest or other amounts when due.

Note 7 – Legal Proceedings

The Company is a party to certain proceedings incidental to the ordinary course of its business, none of which, in the current opinion of management, is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows.

Note 8 – Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the filing of its consolidated financial statements with the SEC.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect management's analysis only as of the date hereof. Readers should carefully review the risk factors described in other documents the Company files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation, the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 (See Item 1 – Business; Item 1A – Risk Factors; Item 3 – Legal Proceedings and Item 7 – Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations).

General

The Company was incorporated in November, 1988, under the laws of Delaware as GPS Acquisition Corp. for the purpose of acquiring the business of Blonder-Tongue Laboratories, Inc., a New Jersey corporation, which was founded in 1950 by Ben H. Tongue and Isaac S. Blonder to design, manufacture and supply a line of electronics and systems equipment principally for the private cable industry. Following the acquisition, the Company changed its name to Blonder Tongue Laboratories, Inc. The Company completed the initial public offering of its shares of Common Stock in December, 1995.

Today, the Company is a technology-development and manufacturing company that delivers a wide range of products and services to the cable entertainment and media industry. For 65 years, Blonder Tongue/Drake products have been deployed in a long list of locations, including lodging/hospitality, multi-dwelling units/apartments, broadcast studios/networks, education universities/schools, healthcare hospitals/fitness centers, government facilities/offices, prisons, airports, sports stadiums/arenas, entertainment venues/casinos, retail stores, and small-medium businesses. These applications are variously described as commercial, institutional and/or enterprise environments and will be referred to herein collectively as “CIE”. The customers we serve include business entities installing private video and data networks in these environments, whether they are the largest cable television operators, telco or satellite providers, integrators, architects, engineers or the next generation of Internet Protocol Television (“IPTV”) streaming video providers. The technology requirements of these markets change rapidly and the Company’s research and development team is continually delivering high performance-lower cost solutions to meet customers’ needs.

The Company’s strategy is focused on providing a wide range of products to meet the needs of the CIE environments described above (e.g., hotels, hospitals, prisons, schools, etc.), and to provide offerings that are optimized for an operator’s existing infrastructure, as well as the operator’s future strategy. A key component of this growth strategy is to provide products that deliver the latest technologies (such as IPTV and digital SD and HD video content) and have a high performance-to-cost ratio.

The Company has seen a continuing long-term shift in product mix from analog products to digital products and expects this shift to continue. Despite this long-term trend, sales of digital video headend products were $2,109,000 and $2,404,000 in the first three months of 2015 and 2014, respectively. Likewise, sales of analog video headend products were $1,040,000 and $1,671,000 in the first three months of 2015 and 2014, respectively. Any substantial decrease in sales of analog products without a related increase in digital products could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

On February 1, 2012, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, R. L. Drake Holdings, LLC ("RLD"), a Delaware limited liability company, acquired substantially all of the assets and assumed certain specified liabilities of R. L. Drake, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Seller") (the "RLD Acquisition"), pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement of even date, by and among RLD, Seller, R. L. Drake Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation, and WBMK Holding Company, an Ohio corporation, as amended by a certain First Amendment to Asset Purchase Agreement dated February 3, 2012 (as so amended, the "Asset Purchase Agreement"). The purchase price was approximately $7,020,000, which included a working capital adjustment of approximately $545,000. At the time of the acquisition, RLD manufactured and distributed products similar to those historically produced by the Company. The acquisition allowed the Company to leverage the combined research and development and sales and marketing departments to shorten the development and manufacturing cycle and deliver a more complete compliment of business and product solutions for the markets the Company serves.

The Company's manufacturing is allocated primarily between its facility in Old Bridge, New Jersey the ("Old Bridge Facility") and a key contract manufacturer located in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"). The Company currently manufactures most of its digital products, including the latest encoder and EdgeQAM collections at the Old Bridge Facility. Since 2007 the Company has transitioned and continues to manufacture certain high volume, labor intensive products, including many of the Company's analog products, in the PRC, pursuant to a manufacturing agreement that governs the production of products that may from time to time be the subject of purchase orders submitted by (and in the discretion of) the Company. The Company may transition additional products to the PRC if determined by the Company to be advantageous based upon changing business and market conditions. Manufacturing products both at the Company's Old Bridge Facility as well as in the PRC, enables the Company to realize cost reductions while maintaining a competitive position and time-to-market advantage.

Results of Operations

First three months of 2015 Compared with first three months of 2014

Net Sales. Net sales decreased $836,000, or 15%, to $4,742,000 in the first three months of 2015 from $5,578,000 in the first three months of 2014. The decrease is primarily attributed to a decrease in sales of digital video headend products and analog video headend products. Sales of digital video headend products were $2,109,000 and $2,404,000, and analog video headend products were $1,040,000 and $1,671,000 in the first three months of 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Cost of Goods Sold. Cost of goods sold decreased to $3,362,000 for the first three months of 2015 from $3,821,000 for the first three months of 2014, but increased as a percentage of sales to 70.9% from 68.5%. The decrease was primarily due to a decrease in overall sales. The increase as a percentage of sales was primarily attributed to an overall reduction in manufacturing overhead, as well as a less favorable product mix. The Company expects cost of goods sold as a percentage of sales to decrease in the remaining quarters of 2015 as overall product mix is anticipated to improve.

Selling Expenses. Selling expenses increased to $843,000 for the first three months of 2015 from $812,000 in the first three months of 2014, and increased as percentage of sales to 17.8% for the first three months of 2015 from 14.6% for the first three months of 2014. The $31,000 increase was primarily the result of an increase in salary expense (including fringe benefits) of $109,000 due to an increase in headcount, offset by a reduction of $56,000 due to the closing of our Canadian facility. The percentage increase was primarily the result of lower sales.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses decreased to $1,056,000 for the first three months of 2015 from $1,218,000 for the first three months of 2014, but increased as a percentage of sales to 22.3% for the first three months of 2015 from 21.8% for the first three months of 2014. The $162,000 decrease was primarily the result of decreased travel and entertainment expense of $132,000 due to decreased business travel. The percentage increase was primarily the result of lower sales.

Research and Development Expenses. Research and development expenses decreased to $804,000 in the first three months of 2015 from $840,000 in the first three months of 2014, but increased as a percentage of sales to 17.0% for the first three months of 2015 from 15.1% for the first three months of 2014. This $36,000 decrease is primarily the result of a decrease in amortization expense of $30,000 relating to license fees. The percentage increase was primarily the result of lower sales.

Operating Income (Loss). Operating loss of $(1,323,000) for the first three months of 2015 represents an increase from the operating loss of $(1,113,000) for the first three months of 2014. Operating loss as a percentage of sales was (27.9%) in the first three months of 2015 compared to (20.0%) in the first three months of 2014.

Other Expense. Interest expense increased to $71,000 in the first three months of 2015 from $58,000 in the first three months of 2014. The increase is the result of higher average borrowings and higher interest rates.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of March 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company's working capital was $3,629,000 and $8,761,000, respectively. The decrease in working capital is primarily due to the reclassification of the Santander Term Loan of $3,730,000 from long term to short term and an increase in accounts payable of $1,019,000 and an increase of borrowings on the Revolver of $426,000.

The Company's net cash used in operating activities for the three month period ended March 31, 2015 was $362,000, primarily due to a net loss of $1,415,000, offset by an increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses of $1,317,000.

Cash used in investing activities for the three month period ended March 31, 2015 was $133,000, of which $1,000 was attributable to additional license fees and $132,000 was attributable to capital expenditures.

Cash provided by financing activities was $357,000 for the first three months of 2015, which was comprised of net borrowings on the Revolver of $426,000 offset by repayment of debt of $69,000.

On August 6, 2008, the Company entered into a Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander Bank, N.A. (formerly known as Sovereign Bank, N.A.) through its Sovereign Business Capital division ("Santander"), pursuant to which the Company obtained an $8,000,000 credit facility from Santander (the "Santander Financing"). The Company and Santander entered into a series of amendments to the foregoing Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement (as so amended, the "Santander Agreement"), including the Seventh Amendment referenced below, which, among other things, adjusted the Santander Financing to $8,783,000 consisting of (i) a $5,000,000 asset-based revolving credit facility ("Revolver") and (ii) a $3,783,000 term loan facility ("Term Loan"), each expiring on February 1, 2016. The amounts which may be borrowed under the Revolver are based on certain percentages of Eligible Receivables and Eligible Inventory, as such terms are defined in the Santander Agreement. The obligations of the Company under the Santander Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

Under the Santander Agreement, the Revolver currently bears per annum interest at a rate per annum equal to the prime lending rate announced from time to time by Santander ("Prime") plus 1.50% or the LIBOR rate plus 4.25%. The Term Loan currently bears interest at a rate per annum equal to Prime plus 1.75% or the LIBOR rate plus 4.50%. Prime was 3.25% at March 31, 2015. LIBOR rate loans under the Santander Agreement may be borrowed for interest periods of one, three or six months. The LIBOR rates for interest periods of one-month, three-months and six-months were 0.17%, 0.25% and 0.36%, respectively, at March 31, 2015. The per annum interest rates above became effective on January 21, 2015, pursuant to the terms of the Seventh Amendment described below.

On May 14, 2015, the Company entered into the Eighth Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the "Eighth Amendment") to amend the Santander Financing. The Eighth Amendment (i) waived the Company's failure of compliance with the Minimum EBITDA covenant for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015, effective as of March 31, 2015, and (ii) increased the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory (as defined in the Santander Agreement) from 25% to 35% through and until September 30, 2015, after which it will revert back to 25%. The Eighth Amendment also contains other customary representations, covenants, terms and conditions. In connection with the Eighth Amendment, the Company paid Santander an amendment fee of $15,000. The Eighth Amendment is silent with respect to the status of the Temporary Overadvance Facility (as defined below); however, Santander has advised the Company that the accommodation in the Eighth Amendment by which the advance rate on Eligible Inventory was increased from 25% to 35%, is in lieu of both the Temporary Overadvance Facility and any additional accommodations contemplated thereby, as more fully discussed in the next following paragraph.

On March 30, 2015, Santander agreed to provide the Company with $500,000 of additional availability beyond its borrowing base under the Revolver (the "Temporary Overadvance Facility") during the period April 1, 2015 through April 24, 2015, for which the Company paid Santander an accommodation fee of $2,500. Santander agreed to consider a further accommodation of up to an additional $500,000 for a more extended period of time based on updated financial information that was to be provided to them prior to April 24, 2015. Under the agreement, if Santander determined that it would not provide the Company with a further accommodation, the Company would be required to eliminate the outstanding balance under the Temporary Overadvance Facility on or before September 30, 2015.

On January 21, 2015, the Company entered into the Seventh Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the "Seventh Amendment") to amend the Santander Financing. The Seventh Amendment (i) extended by one year the Termination Date of the Santander Agreement from February 1, 2015 to February 1, 2016; (ii) continued the installment payments of principal under the Term Loan at the same monthly payment of $18,000 per month for the additional year until the final payment of unpaid principal and interest is due on February 1, 2016; (iii) increased the interest rates applicable to the Revolver and the Term Loan by one quarter of one percent (0.25%); and (iv) reset and modified the Minimum EBITDA covenant to address the term being extended by one year. The Seventh Amendment also contains other customary representations, covenants, terms and conditions. The Company paid a $15,000 amendment fee to Santander in connection with the Seventh Amendment.

On March 28, 2014, the Company entered into a Sixth Amendment to Revolving Credit, Term Loan and Security Agreement with Santander (the "Sixth Amendment") to amend the Santander Financing. The Sixth Amendment (i) reduced the maximum amount available for borrowing under the Revolver from $6,000,000 to $5,000,000, (ii) increased the interest rates applicable to the Revolver and the Term Loan by three quarters of one percent, (iii) modified the Company's fixed charge coverage ratio covenant to eliminate the testing thereof with respect to the trailing 12-month period ended as of December 31, 2013, (iv) eliminated the fixed charge coverage ratio covenant with respect to all periods after December 31, 2013, (v) modified the minimum EBITDA covenant to (a) eliminate the testing thereof with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, (b) change the manner of calculation thereof, and (c) imposed a quarterly building minimum EBITDA covenant test, commencing with the fiscal quarter ended on March 31, 2014, and thereafter for the two fiscal quarters ended June 30, 2014, the three fiscal quarters ended September 30, 2014, the four fiscal quarters ended December 31, 2014 and thereafter quarterly on a trailing four fiscal quarter basis, (vi) reduced the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory (as defined in the Santander Agreement) from 50% to 35%, with a further reduction in such advance rate to 25% effective on or about June 27, 2014 and (vii) reduced the sublimit on advances against such Eligible Inventory from $3,000,000 to $2,000,000. In connection with the Sixth Amendment, the Company paid Santander an amendment fee of $45,000.

Upon termination of the Revolver, all outstanding borrowings under the Revolver are due. The outstanding principal balance of the Revolver was $1,695,000 at March 31, 2015. The Term Loan requires equal monthly principal payments of approximately $18,000 each, plus interest, with the remaining balance due at maturity. The outstanding principal balance of the Term Loan was $3,730,000 at March 31, 2015.

The Santander Agreement contains customary representations and warranties as well as affirmative and negative covenants, including certain financial covenants. The Santander Agreement contains customary events of default, including, among others, non-payment of principal, interest or other amounts when due.

The Company's primary sources of liquidity are its existing cash balances, cash generated from operations and amounts available under the Santander Financing. As of March 31, 2015, the Company had approximately $1,695,000 outstanding under the Revolver and $1,121,000 of additional availability for borrowing under the Revolver. The Company anticipates these sources of liquidity, along with the expected refinancing of the Company's Revolver and Term Loan (both of which expire on February 1, 2016), will be sufficient to fund its operating activities, anticipated capital expenditures and debt repayment obligations for the next twelve months. As of April 30, 2015, taking into account the Temporary Overadvance Facility, the Company had approximately $3,037,000 outstanding under the Revolver and $340,000 of additional availability for borrowing under the Revolver, with $254,000 of cash on hand. While the Company anticipates refinancing all or part of its existing indebtedness prior to February 1, 2016, there can be no assurances that a refinancing will be available on acceptable terms or at all. As a result of lower than expected net sales in the first quarter of 2015 and the reduction, pursuant to the Sixth Amendment, in the advance rate applicable to Eligible Inventory from 50% to 25%, the Company experienced a material decrease in its liquidity in the first quarter of 2015. While the Company anticipates that its net sales will return to historical norms during the third quarter of 2015, in the interim, the Company obtained an accommodation from Santander, whereby effective as of March 30, 2015, Santander agreed to provide the Company with $500,000 of additional availability beyond its borrowing base under the Revolver during the period from April 1, 2015 through April 24, 2015, all of which was drawn on or prior to April 24, 2015. In other efforts to alleviate the existing liquidity pressures and reposition the Company to become profitable at a lower level of net sales, the Company implemented a two-phase cost-reduction program which is expected to reduce annualized expenses by approximately $2,100,000, including a temporary reduction in certain executive salaries, a decrease in workforce and a decrease in engineering consulting expenses. Prior to April 24, 2015, the Company provided Santander with updated financial information for 2015, which takes into account the full implementation of its cost reduction program. Santander evaluated such updated financial information and as a result, agreed to enter into the Eighth Amendment described above. The Eighth Amendment is silent with respect to the status of the Temporary Overadvance Facility; however, Santander has advised the Company that the accommodation in the Eighth Amendment by which the advance rate on Eligible Inventory was increased from 25% to 35%, is in lieu of both the Temporary Overadvance Facility and any additional accommodations contemplated thereby, as more fully discussed above. Since March 30, 2015, the Company's liquidity position has improved and it believes that the foregoing credit accommodations, coupled with the enhanced liquidity that should be derived from the implementation of the cost reduction program will be sufficient to alleviate the Company's short term liquidity pressures. The Company also believes that when the accommodations being provided by Santander pursuant to the Eighth Amendment are terminated, the additional liquidity derived from implementation of the cost reduction program should be sufficient for the Company's ongoing operations. While there can be no assurance that the foregoing requested accommodations and expense reduction programs will be achieved, the Company believes that it will nevertheless be able to fund its operating activities, anticipated capital expenditures (which will be curtailed during this interim period), and debt repayment obligations for the next twelve months.

The Company considers opportunities to refinance its existing indebtedness based on market conditions. Although the Company may refinance all or part of its existing indebtedness in the future and will be required to do so by February 1, 2016, there can be no assurances that a refinancing will be available on acceptable terms or at all.

The Company's primary long-term obligations are for payment of interest and principal on the Company's long-term debt. The Company expects to use cash generated from operations to meet its long-term debt obligations, and anticipates refinancing its long-term debt obligations at maturity as described above. Changes in the Company's operating plans, lower than anticipated sales, increased expenses, acquisitions or other events may require the Company to seek additional debt or equity financing. There can be no assurance that financing will be available on acceptable terms or at all. Debt financing, if available, could impose additional cash payment obligations and additional covenants and operating restrictions. The Company also expects to make financed and unfinanced long-term capital expenditures from time to time in the ordinary course of business, which capital expenditures were $132,000 and $673,000 in the three months ended March 31, 2015 and the year ended December 31, 2014, respectively. The Company expects to use cash generated from operations, amounts available under its credit facility and purchase-money financing to meet any anticipated long-term capital expenditures.
