OVERSEAS REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENT

THE UNDERTAKING

BY THE CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDER

This overseas regulatory announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.10B of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The Company and all members of the Board warrant that the information set out in this announcement is true, accurate and complete, and accept joint responsibility for any false information or misleading statements contained in, or material omissions from, this announcement.

On 21 September 2015, China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (the “Company”) received an undertaking letter from (China Eastern Air Holding Company) (“CEA Holding”), the controlling shareholder of the Company, de which are set out as follows:

CEA Holding undertakes that it will propose the resolution on amendments to the terms of dividends under Article 157(D) of the articles of association of the Company (the “Articles of Association”) before the forthcoming general meeting of the Company and vote for such resolution at the general meeting. The original terms and amended terms under Article 157(D) of the Articles of Association are as follows:

1. The original terms under Article 157(D) of the Articles of Association

“Article 157 (D) Conditions and proportion of distribution of cash dividends by the Company: Proposal and implementation of cash dividends distribution by the Company shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Company records a profit for the year, and the audit institution issues an unqualified audited report on the Company’s financial statements for that particular year;

The distributable profit (i.e. the after-tax profit of the Company after making up for losses, allocation to the (2) statutory common reserve fund and discretionary common reserve fund) realized by the Company for the year is positive in value;

(3) The Company has sufficient cash flow, and distribution of cash dividends will not affect the Company’s normal operation and sustainable development.

Provided that the Company is in good operating condition and has sufficient cash flow to meet the needs for its normal operation and sustainable development, the Company will proactively distribute cash dividends in return to its shareholders, and the accumulated profit distribution made in cash by the Company in the latest three years shall not be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profit in the latest three years. In the event that the said payout ratio of cash dividends cannot be met due to special reasons, the board of directors may adjust the payout ratio of dividends according to actual circumstances and state the reasons therefor.”

2. The amended terms under Article 157(D) of the Articles of Association

“Article 157 (D) Conditions and proportion of distribution of cash dividends by the Company: Proposal and implementation of cash dividends distribution by the Company shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The Company records a profit for the year, and the audit institution issues an unqualified audited report on the Company’s financial statements for that particular year;

(2) The distributable profit (i.e. the after-tax profit of the Company after making up for losses, allocation to the statutory common reserve fund and discretionary common reserve fund) realized by the Company for the year is positive in value;

(3) The Company has sufficient cash flow, and distribution of cash dividends will not affect the Company’s normal operation and sustainable development.

Provided that the Company is in good operating condition and has sufficient cash flow to meet the needs for its normal operation and sustainable development, the Company will proactively distribute cash dividends in return to its shareholders, and the accumulated profit distribution made in cash by the Company in the latest three years shall not be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profit attributable to the owners of the parent company in the consolidated statements in the latest three years. In the event that the said payout ratio of cash dividends cannot be met due to special reasons, the board of directors may adjust the payout ratio of dividends according to actual circumstances and state the reasons therefor.”
