Explanatory Note

As previously disclosed, on December 17, 2018, Fidelity Southern Corporation, a Georgia corporation (“Fidelity”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation (“Ameris”), pursuant to which, among other things, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Fidelity will merge with and into Ameris (the “Merger”), with Ameris surviving the Merger.

On March 8, 2019, an action captioned Paul Parshall v. Fidelity Southern Corporation et al., Case 1:19-cv-01098-MHC (the “Parshall Action”), was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia on behalf of a purported class of Fidelity shareholders against Fidelity, its current directors and Ameris. This complaint contends, among other things, that the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by Ameris on February 12, 2019 in connection with the Merger (as amended, the “Registration Statement”) is false and misleading because it omits certain allegedly material information in violation of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 14a-9 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

On April 26, 2019, Fidelity filed a Current Report on Form 8-K (the “Original Form 8-K”) providing certain supplemental disclosures (the “original litigation-related supplemental disclosures”) to the Registration Statement in response to the Parshall Action.

On April 24, 2019, an action captioned Morten Oftedal v. Fidelity Southern Corporation et al., Case 1:19-cv-03656 (the “Oftedal Action” and together with the Parshall Action, the “Actions”), was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against Fidelity and its current directors. This complaint contends, among other things, that the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the “Definitive Proxy Statement”) is false and misleading because it omits certain allegedly material information in violation of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 14a-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

This Form 8-K/A amends the Original Form 8-K to amend certain of the original litigation-related disclosures and to include additional supplemental disclosures (collectively, the “additional litigation-related disclosures”) to the Definitive Proxy Statement in response to the Oftedal Action. Except as expressly modified herein, the original litigation-related disclosures in the Original Form 8-K shall continue to update or supplement the Registration Statement and Definitive Proxy Statement.

Item 8.01

Other Events.

The defendants believe that the Actions are without merit, and deny that any further disclosure beyond that already contained in the Registration Statement and the Definitive Proxy Statement is required under applicable law to supplement the Registration Statement and the Definitive Proxy Statement included therein which has been disseminated to Fidelity and Ameris stockholders. Nonetheless, to avoid the risk that the Actions may delay or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the Merger and to minimize the expense of defending the Actions, the defendants are making the additional litigation-related disclosures, as set forth herein. Nothing in this Form 8-K/A shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the supplemental disclosures set forth herein.

The additional litigation-related disclosures contained below should be read in conjunction with the Registration Statement and the Definitive Proxy Statement included therein, which are available on the Internet site maintained by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) at <http://www.sec.gov>, along with periodic reports and other information Fidelity and Ameris file with the SEC, including the Original Form 8-K. To the extent that the information set forth herein differs from or updates information contained in the Registration Statement, the information set forth herein shall supersede or supplement the information in the Registration Statement and the original litigation-related disclosures. All page references are to pages in the Definitive Proxy Statement, and terms used below, unless otherwise defined, have the meanings set forth in the Definitive Proxy Statement.
