Allianz achieves its goal with tender offer for AGF - Squeeze-out to be launched

Following the closing of the tender offer for the outstanding shares, Allianz SE will hold (directly and through its subsidiary Allianz Holding France SAS) 178,030,698 shares - representing 92.18 percent of AGF share capital and voting rights - of its French subsidiary AGF. This is based upon an announcement today of the French stock market authority Autorite des Marches Financiers (AMF). Taking into account 6,199,392 treasury shares held by AGF representing 3.21 percent of the share capital, minority shareholders will hold 8,895,695 shares representing 4.61 percent and therefore less than 5 percent of the AGF share capital and voting rights following the tender offer. As stated already in the tender offer document, Allianz SE intends to launch a squeeze-out procedure pursuant to the conditions set forth in the General Regulations of the AMF. The conditions for the squeeze-out and the consideration will be announced as soon as the squeeze-out document has been filed with the AMF. "The success of this offer is another step towards the implementation of our strategy to simplify group structures and thereby improve competitive positions, which is also in the interest of our customers", commented Paul Achleitner, member of the board of Allianz SE.
