We are confident that their collective years of experience will prove to be a great resource to VocalTec as we continue our goal of driving profitable growth. Further, I was pleased that the other shareholders thought it was in their best interest to let me increase my holdings above 25 percent of the company and I will now, in fact, increase my percentage to approximately 26.2 percent by acquiring over an additional 100,000 shares of VocalTec stock from other shareholders this week. Lastly, I now look forward to announcing a stock split in the future sometime after the official release of magicTalk."
