Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors

Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of revenues and direct operating expenses of ART Two Hickory Corporation for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002. These statements are the responsibility of the Property's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements are prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (for inclusion in Form 8-K of Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc.) and, as described in Note 1, are not intended to be a complete presentation of the results of operations.

In our opinion, the statements of revenues and direct operating expenses referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and direct operating expenses of ART Two Hickory Corporation for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO STATEMENTS OF REVENUES
AND DIRECT OPERATING EXPENSES

December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002

NOTE A ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

ART Two Hickory Corporation ("Two Hickory") owns the approximately 96,127 square foot Two Hickory Office Building in Farmers Branch, Texas. During 2004, 2003, and 2002, Two Hickory was owned by American Realty Investors, Inc. ("ARI").

The accompanying financial statements do not include a provision for depreciation and amortization, interest expense, income taxes or other corporate expenses. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to be a complete presentation of the results of operations.

NOTE B

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

- The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

-- Rental revenue is recorded when due from tenants and is recognized monthly as it is earned, which is not substantially different than on a straight-line basis.

NOTE C TENANT LEASES

The Two Hickory building was leased by fourteen tenants during 2004, eight of which remained at December 31, 2004. The lease agreements require the lessees to pay charges associated with the property, including property taxes, utilities, insurance and repairs and maintenance.

The building is leased under operating leases, which expire between September of 2005 and May of 2012. At December 31, 2004, the approximate future minimum rental income under the operating leases are as follows:

2005 $1,336,105

2006 1,005,289

2007 K46,842

2008 J21,767

NOTE D RELATED PARTIES

Two Hickory received in 2004, 2003, and 2002, approximately $305,000, $358,000, and $372,000, respectively, in rents from related parties.

At December 31, 2004, the approximate future minimum rental income from related parties under the operating leases are as follows:

2005 $I00,067

2006 I00,067

2007 K3,356

NOTE E SUBSEQUENT EVENT

ART Two Hickory Corporation was sold to Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc., a Nevada corporation, a subsidiary of ARI, effective January 4, 2005 under a contract entered January 4, 2002.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors

Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of revenues and direct operating expenses of Garden Foxwood, L.P. for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002. These statements are the responsibility of the Property's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements are prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (for inclusion in Form 8-K of Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc.) and, as described in Note 1, are not intended to be a complete presentation of the results of operations.

In our opinion, the statements of revenues and direct operating expenses referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and direct operating expenses of Garden Foxwood, L.P. for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO STATEMENTS OF REVENUES

AND DIRECT OPERATING EXPENSES

December 31, 2004, 2003, and 2002

NOTE A ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Garden Foxwood, L.P. ("Foxwood") owns a 220 unit apartment complex located in Memphis, Tennessee. During 2004, 2003, and 2002, Foxwood was owned by American Realty Investors, Inc. (ARI).

The accompanying financial statements do not include a provision for depreciation and amortization, interest expense, income taxes or other corporate expenses. Accordingly, these statements are not intended to be a complete presentation of the results of operations.

NOTE B

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

- The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

-- Rental revenue is recorded when due from residents and is recognized monthly as it is earned, which is not substantially different than on a straight-line basis as lease terms are generally for periods of one year or less.

NOTE C OTHER REVENUE

Other revenue consists of deposit forfeitures, application and late fees, charges for returned checks and other miscellaneous revenues of the property.

NOTE D SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Foxwood was sold to Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc., a Nevada corporation, a subsidiary of ARI, effective April 12, 2005 under a contract entered April 12, 2002.

Transcontinental Realty Investors, INC.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

This pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes of Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc. ("TCI") included in its annual report filed on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 and its quarterly report filed on Form 10-Q for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet is presented with 600 Las Colinas, Luna land, Senlac land, Whorton land and Wilmer 88 land as if they were purchased on June 30, 2005. The other properties purchased by TCI prior to June 30, 2005 are already included in TCI's consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2005; therefore, no pro forma adjustments for these properties were made.

The unaudited pro forma statements of operations are presented for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and the year ended December 31, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations present TCI's operations as if the transactions described above had occurred at January 1 of each of the periods presented.

The pro forma consolidated balance sheet and pro forma consolidated statements of operations are not necessarily indicative of what the actual financial position would have been or what the actual results of operations would have been had TCI completed all the property acquisitions on January 1, 2004 or January 1, 2005, nor do they purport to represent our future operations from these property acquisitions.
