BARCLAYS PLC

Barclays completes the sale of BGI to BlackRock

Barclays PLC ("Barclays") has completed the sale of Barclays Global Investors to BlackRock, Inc. ("BlackRock"), which was announced initially on 12 June 2009, following the receipt of all necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other closing conditions. The consideration at completion was US$15.2 billion (£9.5 billion), including 37.567 million new BlackRock shares giving Barclays an economic interest of 19.9% of the enlarged BlackRock group.

Barclays expects to realise a net gain after taxation and transaction costs of US$9.7 billion (£6.2 billion), subject to finalisation of the closing balance sheet. This gain reflects the price of BlackRock common stock of US$227 as at completion (10:00am EST on 1 December 2009). This transaction would have added an estimated 185bps to Core Tier 1 and 124bps to Tier 1 capital ratios as at 30 June 2009.

Together with the exercise of warrants on 20 October 2009, Barclays would have reported an estimated Core Tier 1 ratio of 9.2% and Tier 1 ratio of 11.9% as at 30 June 2009 on a pro-forma basis.

As stated in the Q3 Interim Management Statement adjusted gross leverage and risk weighted assets as at 30 September 2009 were broadly consistent with the position as at 30 June 2009.

Commenting on completion of the transaction, John Varley, Group Chief Executive, said:

"This transaction gives Barclays material economic exposure to a highly competitive global asset manager. It also clears the way for a new commercial relationship between Barclays and BlackRock. Going forward, we will be able to derive new business opportunities for Barclays, in particular in Barclays Capital and Barclays Wealth, benefiting both our clients and our shareholders. Bob Diamond and I look forward to contributing to the progress of this new global leader as members of the BlackRock board. We are also pleased by the further strengthening of our capital ratios which results from completion of this transaction."

Forward-looking Statements

This announcement contains (or may contain) certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933 with respect to certain of Barclays plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its proposed sale of BGI and its future financial condition and performance and which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Barclays cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'will', 'would', 'could', 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect', 'envisage', 'estimate', 'intend', 'intention', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, various conditions to closing, UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, the effects of continued volatility in credit markets, liquidity conditions in the market, market-related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, effects of changes in valuation of credit market exposures, changes in valuation of issued notes, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, the further development of standards and interpretations under IFRS applicable to past, current and future periods, evolving practices with regard to the interpretation and application of standards under IFRS, progress in the integration of the Lehman Brothers North American businesses into the group's business and the quantification of the benefits resulting from such acquisition, the outcome of pending and future litigation, BlackRock's results of operations, potential claims by BlackRock for breach of contract under the documentation for the transaction with BlackRock, the success of future acquisitions and other strategic transactions and the impact of competition, a number of which factors are beyond Barclays control. As a result, Barclays actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in Barclays forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made herein by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Except as required by the Financial Services Authority, the London Stock Exchange plc or applicable law, Barclays expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this announcement to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Nothing in this announcement is intended or is to be construed as a profit forecast or to be interpreted to mean that earnings per Barclays share for the current or future financial years, or those of the enlarged group, will necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings per Barclays share.
