Commentary

The Saudi British Bank (SABB) recorded a net profit of SAR2,032 million (US$542 million) for the year ended 31 December 2009. Net special commission income increased by SAR230 million (US$61 million), or 7.2 per cent, compared with the same period in 2008, reflecting higher average asset balances and improved margins.

Provisions for possible credit losses increased compared with the same period in 2008 reflecting provisions taken to support the bank's financial position in line with the bank's conservative policy.

Richard Groves, Managing Director of SABB, said: "SABB's continued strong operating income streams and control over costs have enabled the bank to report encouraging profits for the year ended 31 December 2009, notwithstanding the increase in provisions for possible credit losses. The capital adequacy ratio, liquidity and the overall quality of our loan book remain strong.

"We thank our customers for their continued support and our staff for their commitment and contribution to the bank's success."
