Issued: Monday 4 October 2010, London UK - LSE announcement

GSK takes minority stake in newly formed Convergence Pharmaceuticals

GlaxoSmithKline plc (GSK) today announced that it has taken an 18% minority equity stake in Convergence Pharmaceuticals Limited, a new biotechnology company that will focus on the development of new analgesic compounds. Convergence Pharmaceuticals, which was officially launched today, recently raised around $35.4 million in Series A financing from a syndicate of leading European and US life science investors.

Under the terms of the agreement, Convergence Pharmaceuticals has acquired two clinical stage assets from GSK together with rights to certain earlier stage compounds and contributions in kind. In return, Convergence Pharmaceuticals has issued shares to GSK to the value of $4.7 million. These two clinical stage compounds, formerly GSK1014802 and GSK2197944, target voltage-gated ion channels. GSK will also be eligible to receive additional shares on completion of asset milestones. In addition, GSK has taken up an observer role on the board of Convergence Pharmaceuticals.
