Commentary

Bank Ekonomi reported profit before tax of IDR195.2bn (US$21m) for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2012, a decrease of 26% compared with the same period in 2011, as operating expenses increased by IDR154.6bn (US$17m), while operating income (including net interest income) increased by IDR45.8bn (US$5m). Total operating expenses increased by 31%, driven by increases in employee expenses and information technology improvement related expenses. Operating income significantly increased by 82%, through gains from assets held for sale (foreclosed assets), a reversal of impairment losses on loans and increased net trading income.

Net interest income for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2012 was IDR694.0bn (US$75m), a slight decrease of 1%, or IDR9.8bn (US$1m) compared with the same period in 2011. The decrease was mainly due to lending rates decreasing more than deposit rates as competition in the market increased.

Non-interest income was IDR123.6bn (US$13m) for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2012, an increase of 82% or IDR55.7bn (US$6m) compared with the same period in 2011. This was due to an increase in net trading income and the sale of assets acquired from the settlement of troubled debt.

Operating expenses for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2012 were IDR648.5bn (US$70m), an increase of 31% or IDR154.6bn (US$17m) compared with the same period in 2011, which was mainly due to an increase in employee expenses and infrastructure improvement related expenses. As part of the Bank's continuous improvement and expansion, the Bank has invested in its people and infrastructure which resulted in a significant increase in operating expenses.

Total assets as at 30 September 2012 increased by IDR648.2bn (US$68m), or 3%, compared with 31 December 2011. In line with the increase, the gross balance of loans to customers increased by IDR2,365.6bn(US$247m) as the Bank kept expanding its loan portfolio.

Customer deposits as at 30 September 2012 increased by IDR905.0bn (US$94m) to IDR20,977.5bn (US$2,187m) compared with 31 December 2011.
