METRO PREFERRED HOME CARE

Combined Financial Statements

December 31, 2002 and 2001

(1) Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization and Nature of Operations

Metro Preferred Home Care (Metro Preferred or the Company) is a provider of home health care nursing services in Southeast Louisiana. Metro Preferred is comprised of two operating entities, Standard Home Health Care, Inc. (Standard), a Louisiana corporation and Cypress Health Services, L.L.C. (Cypress), a Louisiana limited liability company. The shares of outstanding common stock of Standard and the membership interests in Cypress are owned by the following individuals in the stated percentages:

	Standard	Cypress
Owner A	40%	40%
Owner B	40%	40%
Owner C	20%	20%

(b) Basis of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting, and the financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the combined financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the combined financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those amounts.

(d) Principles of Combination

The combined financial statements include the accounts of Standard and Cypress, based on common control and similar business, referred to collectively as the Company . All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in combination.

(e) Revenue Recognition

Edgar Filing: AMEDISYS INC - Form 8-K/A

The Company has agreements with third party payors that provide for payments to the Company at amounts different from its established rates. Gross revenue is recorded on an accrual basis based upon the date of service at amounts equal to the Company's established rates or estimated reimbursement rates, as applicable. Allowances and contractual adjustments are recorded for the difference between the established rates and the amounts estimated to be payable by third parties and are deducted from gross revenue to determine net service revenue. Net service revenue is the estimated net amounts realizable from patients, third party payors and others for services rendered, including estimated retroactive adjustments under reimbursement agreements.

Combined Financial Statements

December 31, 2002 and 2001

Prior to the implementation of the Medicare Prospective Payment System (PPS) on October 1, 2000, reimbursement for home health care services to patients covered by the Medicare program was based on reimbursement of allowable costs subject to certain limits. Final reimbursement was determined after submission of annual cost reports and audits thereof by the fiscal intermediaries. Under the new PPS rules, annual cost reports are still required as a condition of participation in the Medicare program. However, there are no final settlements or retroactive adjustments.

Under PPS, the Company is paid by Medicare based on episodes of care. An episode of care is defined as a length of care of up to sixty days with multiple continuous episodes allowed. A base episode payment is established by the Medicare Program through federal legislation for all episodes of care ended on or after the applicable time periods detailed below:

Period	Base episode payment
Beginning October 1, 2000 through March 31, 2001	$2,115 per episode
April 1, 2001 through September 30, 2001	$2,264 per episode
October 1, 2001 through September 30, 2002	$2,274 per episode
October 1, 2002 through September 30, 2003	$2,159 per episode

With respect to Medicare reimbursement changes, the applicability of the reimbursement change is dependent upon the completion date of the episode; therefore, changes in reimbursement, both positive and negative, will impact the financial results of the Company up to sixty days in advance of the effective date.

The base episode payment is adjusted by applicable regulations including, but not limited to, the following: a case mix adjuster consisting of eighty (80) home health resource groups (HHRG), the applicable geographic wage index, low utilization, intervening events and other factors. The episode payment will be made to providers regardless of the cost to provide care. The services covered by the episode payment include all disciplines of care, in addition to medical supplies, within the scope of the home health benefit.

Revenue is recognized ratably over the 60-day episode. If an episode is terminated before the 60th day, any remaining unrecognized revenue is recognized at the time of termination. Deferred revenue represents payments received from the intermediary in advance of rendering services to patients.

(f) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Edgar Filing: AMEDISYS INC - Form 8-K/A

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash equivalents include certificates of deposit and all highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less when purchased.

METRO PREFERRED HOME CARE

Combined Financial Statements

December 31, 2002 and 2001

(g) Provision for Doubtful Accounts

The Company provides for accounts receivable that could become uncollectible in the future by establishing an allowance to reduce the carrying value of such receivables to their net realizable value. The Company estimates this allowance based on the aging of its accounts receivable and its historical collection experience for each type of payor.

(h) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Additions and improvements are capitalized, but ordinary maintenance and repair expenses are expensed as incurred. The cost of property and equipment sold or otherwise disposed of and the accumulated depreciation thereon are eliminated from the property and equipment and related accumulated depreciation accounts, and any gain or loss is credited or charged to income.

Capital leases, primarily consisting of computer equipment and phone systems, are treated as purchases and included in property and equipment. Capital leases are recorded at the principal amount set forth at lease inception and are depreciated over the useful life of the equipment. The capital leases include a three-year term which expires December 31, 2003.

For financial reporting purposes, depreciation of property and equipment including those subject to capital leases ($137,249 in 2002, and $162,098 in 2001,) is included in other general and administrative expenses and is provided utilizing the double declining balance method based upon the following estimated useful service lives:

Furniture, fixtures and equipment	5-7 years
Vehicles	5 years
Computer software	5 years

(i) Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Whenever recognized events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset, including intangible assets, may not be recoverable, management reviews the asset for possible impairment. Management uses undiscounted estimated future cash flows to assess the recoverability of the asset. If the expected future net cash flows are less than the carrying amount of the asset, an impairment loss, measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset, is recognized.

(2) Acquisitions

The following acquisitions were accounted for as purchases:

(a) Standard Home Health Care, Inc.

Effective August 11, 2000, the members of Cypress acquired the outstanding stock (1,000 shares) of Standard Home Health Care, Inc. for $10,000. The members acquired all assets and liabilities of the Company with the exception of any tax liabilities generated from the prior operations of the Company which were maintained by the sellers.

(b) Ochsner Home Health, Inc.

Effective August 23, 2000, Cypress directly acquired certain assets, including the Medicare Home Health Provider Number (the Provider Number), of Ochsner Home Health. Cost reports for the Provider Number related to prior operations have been closed for years except for the 2000 short-year; however, the fiscal intermediary, acting on behalf of Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), is entitled to reopen settled cost reports for up to three years after issuing final assessments. Ochsner has indemnified Cypress for any cost report overpayments attributable to all prior periods.

(3) Property And Equipment

Property and equipment consist of the following as of December 31, 2002 and 2001:

Cypress is a limited liability company, which is treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, all income of the Company is taxed directly to the respective members and shareholders. As a result, no amounts for federal income taxes have been reflected in the accompanying combined financial statements.

(7) Related Party Transactions

(a) Preferred Executive Management

Preferred Executive Management, L.L.C. (Preferred) is a Louisiana limited liability company owned by the owners of the Company in the same percentage interests as the Company. The purpose of Preferred is to provide executive level management to Standard Cypress and other companies sharing common ownership. In addition, Preferred also pays for insurance and other items shared by the companies and, in turn, allocates the costs to the companies. Preferred is a cost pass-through, allocating, in general, 60% of its costs to Standard, 30% of its costs to Cypress and 10% of its costs to Metro Preferred Medical Staffing, discussed below. The allocation was designed to approximate the relative time and resources that Preferred's employees spend on the respective companies. The Company incurred expenses for such services of $909,962 and $706,293 in 2002 and 2001, respectively.

(b) Comprehensive Managed Care Services

(8) Commitments and Contingencies

(a) Legal Proceedings

From time to time, the Company and its subsidiaries are defendants in lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of the Company's business. Based on current knowledge, management believes that the resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

(b) Medicare Reimbursement Reductions

The Company derived 82% of its revenues from the Medicare system for each of the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

From October 1, 1998 to October 1, 2000, Medicare-reimbursed home health agencies' cost limits were determined as the lesser of (i) their actual costs, (ii) per visit cost limits based on 105% of national median costs of freestanding home health agencies, or (iii) a per beneficiary limit determined for each specific agency based on whether the agency was an old or new provider.

In December 2000, Congress passed the Benefits Improvement and Protection Act (BIPA), which provided additional funding to healthcare providers. BIPA provided for the following: (i) a one-year delay in applying the budgeted 15% reduction on payment limits, subsequently extended to September 30, 2002 (ii) the restoration of a full home health market basket update for episodes of care ending on or after April 1, 2001, and before October 1, 2001, resulting in an increase to revenue of 2.2%, (iii) a 10% increase, beginning April 1, 2001 and extending for a period of twenty four months, for home health services provided in a rural area, and (iv) a one-time advance equal to two months of periodic interim payments (PIP).

The scheduled reduction was implemented effective October 1, 2002 for all episodes of care ended on or after October 1, 2002 and reflected a decrease of 7%, offset by an inflationary update of .8%, resulting in a net decrease to reimbursement of approximately 6.2%.

In addition to the reduction effective October 1, 2002, the provision in BIPA whereby home health providers received a 10% increase in reimbursement that began April, 2001 for serving patients in rural areas expired on March 31, 2003. Patients in rural areas account for approximately 2.5% of the Company's patient population.

(c) Legislation

The healthcare industry is subject to numerous laws and regulations of Federal, state, and local governments. These laws and regulations include, but are not necessarily limited to, matters such as licensure, accreditation, government healthcare program participation requirements, reimbursement for patient services, and Medicare and Medicaid fraud and abuse. Government activity has increased with respect to investigations and allegations concerning possible violations of fraud and abuse statutes and regulations by healthcare providers. Violations of these laws and regulations could result in expulsion from government healthcare programs together with the imposition of significant fines and penalties, as well as significant repayments for patient services previously billed. Management believes that the Company is in compliance with all state and Federal legal provisions concerning fraud and abuse as well as other applicable government laws and regulations. While no material regulatory inquiries have been made, compliance with such laws and regulations can be subject to future government review and interpretation as well as regulatory actions unknown or unasserted at this time.

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) was enacted August 21, 1996 to assure health insurance portability, reduce health care fraud and abuse, guarantee security and privacy of health information and enforce standards for health information. Organizations are required to be in compliance with certain HIPAA provisions relating to security and privacy beginning April 14, 2003. Organizations are subject to significant fines and penalties if found not to be compliant with the provisions outlined in the regulations. Management is in the process of implementing these regulations, enhancing systems security, and training all personnel as required for HIPAA compliance.

Pursuant to the provisions of HIPAA, covered health care providers were required to comply with the statute's electronic Health Care Transactions and Code Sets Requirements by October 16, 2002, or secure an automatic one-year extension to the deadline. Prior to the regulatory deadline, the Company secured the automatic one-year extension in accordance with the directives of CMS. The extension affords the Company until October 16, 2003 to attain compliance with these regulatory requirements.

(d) Operating Leases

The Company has leased office space at various locations under non-cancelable agreements which expire between 2003 and 2006, and require various minimum annual rentals. Total minimum rental commitments at December 31, 2002 are due as follows:

Year Ended December 31:
2003	$ 234,478
2004	143,595
2005	115,248
2006	115,248

Rent expense was $313,520 and $294,928 in 2002 and 2001, respectively.

The Company and Global Management Services, L.L.C. (Global), have an agreement under which Global provides financial consulting and management services, accounting services, payroll processing, billing services, collection services, community education services and hardware and software consulting for the Company s home health agencies. are paid at the rate of $60,000 per month. In addition, at the end of each year, Global may receive an additional payment based on the performance of the Company. Such additional payment is subject to the complete discretion of the Company and is determined at year-end. The Company incurred expenses of $720,000 and $983,669 in 2002 and 2001, respectively, for such services.

(f) Insurance Plans

The Company believes that it has maintained adequate insurance coverage at all times, including, but not limited to, General Liability, Malpractice and Workmen's Compensation insurance. The Company has not maintained any self-funded insurance plans at any time. Accordingly, the Company does not believe that it will incur additional costs, beyond the insurance premiums incurred, for any claims against it.

(g) Other

The Company is subject to various other types of claims and disputes arising in the course of its business. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(in thousands, except per share information)

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of Amedisys, Inc (the Company) and from the historical combined financial statements of Metro Preferred Home Care (Metro) with pro forma adjustments related to the acquisition of Metro by the Company. On August 5, 2003, effective August 1, 2003, Amedisys LA Acquisitions, LLC (Purchaser), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Amedisys, Inc. (Amedisys) which acted as Guarantor, purchased certain assets and certain liabilities, of nine home care offices of Standard Home Health Care, Inc. and Cypress Health Services, LLC (Sellers), located in southeast Louisiana. The purchase price of approximately $8 million was comprised of $6 million in cash at closing, 163,000 shares of Amedisys, Inc. common stock, and $1 million in a three-year note subject to performance requirements. The assets acquired consist primarily of Medicare and Medicaid provider numbers; furniture, fixtures, equipment, and leasehold improvements; inventory; prepaid expenses; advances and deposits; office supplies; records and files; transferable governmental licenses and permits; and rights in, to and under specified licenses, contracts, leases and agreements. The assets were valued at fair value based on the historical prices the Company paid for similar assets. The liabilities being assumed are the paid-time-off balances of the Sellers' employees, the value of which was offset from the cash paid to Sellers at closing, and obligations arising on or subsequent to the closing dates under the assumed contracts. The pro forma statements of operations are presented as if the transactions occurred on January 1, 2002. The pro forma balance sheet is presented as if the transaction occurred on June 30, 2003. The transactions and the related adjustments are described in the accompanying notes. In the opinion of management, all adjustments have been made that are necessary to present fairly the pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements. The pro forma adjustments relating to the acquisition represent management's initial estimates of the value of the tangible and intangible assets acquired. The actual adjustments may differ materially from those presented in the unaudited pro forma financial statements.

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are presented for illustrative purposes only. They may not be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have actually occurred if the transaction described had occurred as presented. In addition, future results may vary significantly from the results reflected in such statements.
