QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE MEETINGS

Q: Why do Harrodsburg and Independence want to merge?

A: Our companies are proposing a strategic alliance because we believe that by combining we can create a strong franchise in the southern Indiana and greater Louisville and central Kentucky market areas, that will provide significant long-term benefits to our shareholders and customers alike.

Q: What will happen to outstanding shares of Independence and Harrodsburg common stock?

A: Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Independence common stock will be converted into 1.0 share of Harrodsburg common stock, with fractional shares paid in cash. Outstanding shares of Harrodsburg common stock will remain outstanding with no change. After the merger, shares of Harrodsburg common stock will represent the combined assets and business of Harrodsburg and Independence.

Q: What will the combined company be called and will the shares continue to trade on the Nasdaq National Stock Market?

A: Upon the completion of the merger of Harrodsburg and Independence, the combined company will be called 1st Independence Financial Group, Inc. The shares of 1st Independence Financial Group, Inc. will trade on the Nasdaq National Stock Market under the symbol FIFG.

Q: Is the merger taxable?

A: Harrodsburg and Independence each expect the merger to be tax-free. Harrodsburg's legal counsel will deliver an opinion to Harrodsburg and Independence at the closing of the merger that neither Harrodsburg, Independence, Harrodsburg shareholders, nor the Independence shareholders should recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in the merger, except with respect to any cash that Independence shareholders will receive instead of fractional shares.

We describe the material federal income tax consequences of the transaction in more detail on page 64. The tax consequences to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. Please consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences that the merger will have on you.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Independence shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. Harrodsburg shareholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We expect to complete the merger in the early third quarter of 2004. However, because the merger is subject to governmental approvals, we cannot predict the exact timing.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After we complete the merger, Harrodsburg will send instructions to Independence shareholders whose shares are to be converted in the merger. These instructions will explain how to exchange your Independence stock certificates for 1st Independence Financial Group, Inc. stock certificates. Harrodsburg shareholders will keep their current stock certificates.

Q: How do I vote?

A: Please mail your signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at your shareholders meeting. In order to assure that your vote is counted, please give your proxy as instructed on your proxy card even if you currently plan to attend the meeting in person. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, we will count your proxy card as a vote in favor of each proposal submitted at your shareholders meeting.

Q: Why is the Harrodsburg 2004 Stock Option Plan being ratified?

A: The merger agreement requires the exchange of stock options to certain individuals from Independence. There are currently not sufficient shares available under the current Harrodsburg stock option plan to make these grants. The Harrodsburg board of directors is recommending the issuance of these additional shares solely because Harrodsburg has agreed to exchange the options of Independence s employees, executive officers and directors under the merger agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time prior to your shareholders meeting by submitting a later-dated signed proxy card or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by a broker, will the broker vote the shares for me on the merger?

A: No. You must instruct your broker to vote your shares on the merger, following the directions provided to you by your broker. Your failure to instruct your broker to vote on the merger will be the equivalent of voting against the merger.

Q: Who do I call if I have questions about the meetings or the merger?

A: If you are a shareholder of Harrodsburg, you can contact Arthur L. Freeman at (859) 734-5452 to answer your questions about the merger.

If you are a shareholder of Independence, you can contact N. William White at (812) 944-1400 to answer your questions about the merger.

THE MERGER AND THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization is attached to this document as Appendix A. Please read the merger agreement carefully. It is the legal document that governs the merger.

What Independence Shareholders Will Receive (page 51)

As a result of the merger, Independence shareholders (except for Harrodsburg) will receive, for each share of Independence common stock, 1.0 share of Harrodsburg common stock. Harrodsburg will not issue any fractional shares. Independence shareholders will receive a check for any fractional share in an amount equal to the share fraction multiplied by the average closing price of Harrodsburg common stock on the five trading days before Harrodsburg completes the merger.

On March 22, 2004, the latest available date prior to the mailing of this document, the closing share price of Harrodsburg common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National market was $22.49. Applying the 1.0 exchange ratio to the Harrodsburg closing price on that date, each holder of Independence common stock (except Harrodsburg) would be entitled to receive Harrodsburg common stock with a market value of approximately $22.49 for each share of Independence common stock. The value of Harrodsburg common stock, however, is likely to change between now and completion of the merger. You should obtain current price quotes for Harrodsburg common stock. See Selected Historical and Pro Forma Financial Data on page 6.

Ownership of Harrodsburg After the Merger

Harrodsburg will issue approximately 690,000 shares of Harrodsburg common stock to Independence shareholders in the merger. The shares of Harrodsburg common stock to be issued to Independence shareholders in the merger will represent approximately 36% of the outstanding Harrodsburg common stock after the merger. This information does not take into account outstanding Harrodsburg or Independence stock options or shares of Independence stock already owned by Harrodsburg.

Board of Directors Following the Merger (page 75)

Following the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will consist of ten members, five of which have been chosen from among Harrodsburg's current directors and five of which have been chosen from among Independence's current directors.

Interests of Harrodsburg's and Independence's Officers and Directors in the Merger (page 67)

You should be aware that a number of Harrodsburg and Independence directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interest as shareholders. These interests exist because of the rights that these directors and executive officers have under the terms of their benefit and compensation plans and also, in the case of the executive officers, under the terms of various agreements. Additionally, these interests arise from provisions of the merger agreement relating to appointments to the Harrodsburg board, employment arrangements and employee benefits after the merger, the exchange of stock options and indemnification and insurance after the merger.

The members of Harrodsburg's and Independence's boards of directors knew about and considered these additional interests when they approved the merger agreement.

Our Reasons and Recommendations for the Merger (pages 53 and 55)

Harrodsburg and Independence believe that the merger will:

create a strong franchise with an expanded core market area;

create opportunities for significant operational benefits and financial cost savings and revenue enhancements through the integration of Harrodsburg and Independence's operations;

strengthen the combined company's competitive and capital position in the financial services industry, which is rapidly changing and growing more competitive;

widen the combined company's product range through a broadened customer base with similar demographics; enable shareholders of both companies to participate in the future growth of the combined businesses of Harrodsburg and Independence; and provide customers of both companies with a broader range of products and services.

Harrodsburg's board of directors believes the merger is in its shareholders' best interests and unanimously recommends that Harrodsburg's shareholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the issuance of shares of Harrodsburg common stock in the merger.

Independence's board of directors believes the merger is in its shareholders' best interests and recommends that Independence's shareholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

You should note, however, that achieving these objectives is subject to particular risks and uncertainties, including possible difficulties in combining the operations of the two companies, in achieving anticipated cost savings and other financial and operating benefits from the merger and in the introduction and acceptance of new products and services into Harrodsburg's and Independence's market areas. See Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Information. To review our reasons for the merger in greater detail, as well as how we came to agree on the merger, please see pages 51 through 56.

Opinions of Financial Advisors (pages 56 and 60)

Harrodsburg. Among other factors considered in deciding to approve the merger, the Harrodsburg board of directors received the opinion of its financial advisor, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., to the effect that, as of January 22, 2004, the date the parties signed the merger agreement, the exchange ratio was fair to the holders of Harrodsburg common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached a copy of the opinion to this document as Appendix B. You should read this opinion completely to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., in providing its opinion.

Independence. Among other factors considered in deciding to approve the merger, the Independence board of directors received the opinion of its financial advisor, David A. Noyes & Company, that, as of January 22, 2004, the date the parties signed the merger agreement, the exchange ratio was fair to the holders of Independence common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached a copy of the opinion to this document as Appendix C. You should read this opinion completely to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by David A. Noyes & Company in providing its opinion.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The Merger is structured so that Harrodsburg, Independence, and the holders of Harrodsburg and Independence common stock should not recognize any income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger, except for any gain or loss related to cash received by Independence shareholders for fractional shares.

It is a condition to closing the merger that each company receive an opinion of counsel that the merger will be a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences that the merger will have on you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your tax advisors for a complete description of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Market Price of Common Stock (page 74)

Shares of Harrodsburg common stock are traded on the Nasdaq National Market and shares of Independence common stock are not publicly traded. On January 21, 2004, the last trading day before Harrodsburg announced the merger, Harrodsburg common stock closed at $23.42 per share. On March 22, 2004, the latest available date prior to the meeting of this document, Harrodsburg common stock closed at $22.49 per share.

Shareholders Appraisal Rights (page 72)

Under Delaware law, Harrodsburg shareholders do not have a right to an appraisal of the value of their shares in connection with the merger.

Under Indiana law, Independence shareholders have a right to an appraisal of the value of their shares in connection with the merger.

To dissent and receive the appraised fair value of their shares, Independence shareholders must follow the procedures outlined in Appendix E, including, without limitation:

make a proper demand for appraisal in accordance with the Indiana law as more fully described on pages 70 through 71; and not vote in favor of the merger in person or by proxy.

What We Must Do to Complete the Merger (page 64)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met. In addition to compliance with the merger agreement, these conditions include:

adoption of the merger agreement by Harrodsburg and Independence shareholders; approval of the merger by federal and state regulatory authorities;

receipt of opinion regarding the federal income tax consequences of the merger; and the absence of any injunction or legal restraint blocking the merger or government proceeding preventing the completion of the merger.

As long as the law allows the parties to do so, Harrodsburg and Independence could decide to complete the merger even though one or more of the conditions in the merger agreement has not been met. Harrodsburg and Independence cannot be certain when (or if) the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Accounting Treatment (page 66)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction. This means that, for accounting and financial reporting purposes, we will treat the fair market value of the consideration received by Independence shareholders that is in excess of the fair market value of Independence as goodwill, on Harrodsburg's financial statements. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 142, this goodwill will not need to be amortized in the future, but, goodwill will be evaluated annually for impairment. Outstanding stock options exchanged in the merger will be accounted for in accordance with APB No. 25.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 70)

Harrodsburg and Independence can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement prior to completing the merger. In addition, either of Harrodsburg or Independence may terminate the merger agreement if:

either Harrodsburg or Independence violates a material provision of the merger agreement and does not cure the violation within 30 days;

any required approval of shareholders or regulatory authorities is not received;

the merger has not been completed by August 31, 2004;

RISK FACTORS

Prior to deciding whether or not to approve the transaction, shareholders of Harrodsburg and Independence should be aware of and consider the following risks and uncertainties that are applicable to the merger and the combined company, in addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including the matters addressed under the caption "Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements," beginning on page 13.

Upon completion of the merger, the combined company will be called 1st Independence Financial Group, Inc. (1st Independence Financial) and the resulting institution will be called 1st Independence Bank.

Risks Relating to the Merger

The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the market value of Harrodsburg prior to the effective time of the Merger.

The precise value of the merger consideration to be paid to you will not be known at the time of the meetings. The merger agreement provides that 1.0 share of Harrodsburg common stock will be issued in the merger in exchange for each share of Independence common stock. This exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the value of Harrodsburg common stock between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger. The market value for the Harrodsburg common stock could fluctuate depending on any number of reasons, including those specific to Harrodsburg and those that influence trading prices of equity securities generally. There are no termination rights in the merger agreement that would permit Independence to terminate the merger if the value of Harrodsburg's common stock falls.

Your interests will be diluted by the merger.

After the merger, Independence's shareholders will own less than a majority of the outstanding voting stock of Harrodsburg and could therefore be outvoted by Harrodsburg shareholders if they all voted together as a group on any issue that is presented to Harrodsburg's shareholders. Harrodsburg's shareholders will own approximately 64% of Harrodsburg's outstanding voting stock, but the majority of the senior management positions of Harrodsburg and half of Harrodsburg's initial board of directors will be comprised of individuals who formerly served as officers or directors of Independence. There is no single individual shareholders of Harrodsburg or Independence who controls in excess of 8.5% of either company's common stock.

Some directors and executive officers of Harrodsburg and Independence will receive benefits in the merger in addition to the merger consideration received by all other shareholders of Independence.

Some officers of Harrodsburg or Independence will receive employment agreements in connection with the merger. In addition, five of the members of Harrodsburg's current board of directors and five of the members of Independence's board of directors will together serve as the entire board of directors of Harrodsburg after the completion of the merger. They will also serve on the board of the combined bank subsidiary and receive payments for their service. Accordingly, our directors and some of our executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons In The Merger That Are Different From Your Interests on page 67.

Post Merger Risks

Difficulties in combining the operations of Harrodsburg and Independence may prevent 1st Independence Financial from achieving the expected benefits from its acquisitions.

1st Independence Financial may not be able to achieve fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies it hopes to achieve in the merger. The success of the merger will depend on a number of factors, including (but not limited to), Harrodsburg's ability to:

integrate the operations of Harrodsburg and Independence;

Table of Contents

maintain existing relationships with depositors of Harrodsburg and Independence to minimize withdrawals of deposits after the merger;

maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers to limit unanticipated credit losses from loans of Independence;

control the incremental non-interest expense from the combined operations to maintain overall operating efficiencies;

retain and attract qualified personnel; and compete effectively in the communities served by Harrodsburg and Independence and in nearby communities.

These factors could contribute to 1st Independence Financial not achieving the expected benefits from the merger within the desired time frames, if at all.

1st Independence Financial's stock price may be volatile.

The trading price of 1st Independence Financial's common stock may be volatile. The market for 1st Independence Financial's common stock may experience significant price and volume fluctuations in response to a number of factors including actual or anticipated quarterly variations in operating results, changes in expectations of future financial performance, changes in estimates of securities analysts, governmental regulatory action, banking industry reform measures, share illiquidity, and other factors, many of which are beyond 1st Independence Financial's control.

Furthermore, the stock market in general, and the market for banks and bank holding companies in particular, has experienced extreme volatility that often has been unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies. These broad market and industry fluctuations may adversely affect the trading price of the combined company's common stock, regardless of actual operating performance.

Future sales of shares of 1st Independence Financial common stock could negatively affect its market price.

Upon completion of the merger, the combined company will have approximately 1.9 million outstanding shares of common stock. Future sales of substantial amounts of 1st Independence Financial's common stock (including shares issued upon the exercise of stock options) by Harrodsburg's or Independence's current shareholders, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of 1st Independence Financial's common stock. We make no prediction as to the effect, if any, that future sales of shares, or the availability of shares for future sale, will have on market price of 1st Independence Financial's common stock.

1st Independence Financial is extensively regulated.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

The operations of 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank are subject to extensive regulation by federal, state and local governmental authorities and are subject to various laws and judicial and administrative decisions imposing requirements and restrictions on them. Policies adopted by the entities can affect 1st Independence Financial's business operations and the availability, growth and distribution of 1st Independence Financial's investments, borrowings and deposits. In addition, federal authorities will periodically conduct examinations of 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank and may impose various requirements or sanctions.

1st Independence Financial's ability to pay dividends to its shareholders will be dependent upon its ability to receive distributions from 1st Independence Bank. Certain statutes and regulations restrict 1st Independence Bank's ability to pay dividends or make other distributions on its capital stock and thus limit the transfer of funds to 1st Independence Financial.

Independence is a bank holding company headquartered in New Albany, Indiana, which provides a full range of deposit and loan products through its wholly owned subsidiary, Independence Bank, a state-chartered commercial bank. All references to Independence generally refer to the consolidated entity including Independence Bank, unless the context indicates otherwise.

At December 31, 2003, total assets and liabilities increased $19.2 million and $18.4 million, respectively to $108.8 million and $100.3 million, respectively, as compared to fiscal 2002. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, net income was $804,000 or $.90 per diluted share, as compared to $249,000 or $.36 cents per diluted share for same period in 2002. Set forth below is a detailed discussion of the changes to Independence's Consolidated Financial Statements as of December 31, 2003.

Additionally, on January 22, 2004, Independence, Independence Bank, Harrodsburg and First Financial entered into a strategic alliance and signed a definitive agreement to merge their companies in a tax-free transaction. For further information, reference is made to Note 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Asset/Liability Management

Independence Bank, like many other financial institutions, is vulnerable to an increase in rates to the extent that interest-bearing liabilities generally mature or reprice more rapidly than interest-earning assets. Historically, the lending activities of commercial banks, such as Independence Bank, emphasized the origination of short to intermediate variable rate loans, secured by various types of collateral that are more closely matched with the deposit maturities and repricing of interest-earning assets occurs closer to the same general time period. While having interest-bearing liabilities that reprice more frequently than interest-earning assets is generally beneficial to net interest income during a period of declining interest rates, such an asset/liability mismatch is generally detrimental during periods of rising interest rates.

To reduce the effect of interest rate changes on net interest income Independence Bank has adopted various strategies to enable them to improve matching of interest-earning asset maturities to interest-bearing liability maturities. The principal elements of these strategies include:

Originate variable rate commercial loans instituting interest rate floors;

Originate one-to-four family residential mortgage loans with adjustable rate features or fixed rate loans with short maturities;

Lengthen the maturities of our liabilities when it would be cost effective through the pricing and promotion of higher rate certificates of deposit and utilization of Federal Home Loan Bank advances or other borrowings;

Attract low cost checking and transaction accounts, which tend to be less interest rate sensitive when interest rates rise;

Maintain interest-bearing deposits, federal funds, and U.S. government securities with short to intermediate terms to maturities; and

Maintain an investment portfolio that provides a stable cash flow, thereby providing investable funds in varying interest rate cycles.

Independence Bank measures its interest rate risk exposure to rate movements using an overnight upward and downward shift (shock) in the Treasury yield curve. As of December 31, 2003, if interest rates increased 300 basis points and decreased 100 points, respectively, net interest margins would increase by 3.6% and 2.5%, respectively.

Financial Condition

At December 31, 2003, total assets increased $19.2 million to $108.8 million from $89.6 million in fiscal 2002. The increase in total assets in 2003 is primarily due to commercial and home equity loan growth of $26.2 million, increases in premises and equipment of $716,000, offset by a $6.3 million decrease in loans held for sale.

At December 31, 2003, loans held for sale decreased $6.3 million to $1.8 million from $8.1 million in fiscal 2002. Such decreases in loans held for sale were primarily due to a slowdown in the mortgage refinance market attributable to a less favorable interest rate environment.

Loans receivable, net increased $26.2 million to $91.4 million at December 31, 2003 from $65.2 million in fiscal 2002. The growth in the loan portfolio in fiscal 2003 was primarily due to increases in commercial loans of approximately $21.5, real estate mortgage loans of approximately $1.5 million, and home equity lines of credit of approximately $3.9 million. The growth in the commercial loan portfolio reflects the strong loan demand for small business and middle market loans in the southern Indiana and greater Louisville market areas. Home equity and real estate mortgage increases reflect a strong market presence of Independence Bank's mortgage division that was opened for a full year.

Table of Contents

At December 31, 2003, premises and equipment increased $716,000 to $1.8 million from $1.1 million in fiscal 2002. In fiscal 2003, Independence Bank opened the St. Matthews branch, a full service branch, located in the greater Louisville, Kentucky market area.

At December 31, 2003, total liabilities increased $18.4 million to $100.3 million from $81.9 million in fiscal 2002. Increases in 2003 reflect net deposit increases of $4.8, increases in federal funds purchased of $7.6 million, increases in federal home loan bank advances of $2.0 million, and an increase in subordinated debentures of $4.0 million.

Interest bearing deposits in fiscal 2003 increased $6.8 million offset by a decrease in noninterest bearing deposits $2.0 million. These increases in interest bearing deposits reflect the competitively priced product lines within the local market areas for Independence Bank. Noninterest bearing deposits decreased $2.0 primarily due to a decline in closing attorneys' real estate escrow balances held by Independence Bank.

In fiscal 2003, federal funds purchased increased $7.6 million and Federal Home Loan Bank borrowings increased $2.0 million. Independence Bank utilizes federal funds purchased lines of credit to meet overnight liquidity needs and utilizes short term variable rate Federal Home Loan Bank advances to fund short term liquidity needs. The rate on federal funds purchased lines of credit are tied to the Federal Reserve Federal Funds rate while the Federal Home Loan Bank variable advances are tied to market rates.

In March of 2003, a trust was formed by Independence that issued $4.0 million of 4.32% floating rate trust preferred securities in 2003 as part of a pooled offering of such securities. Independence issued subordinated debentures to the trust in exchange for the proceeds of the offering, which represents the sole asset of the trust. Please refer to Note 9 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Stockholders' equity increased by $795,000 to $8.5 million at December 31, 2003 compared to $7.7 million at December 31, 2002. The total proceeds of common shares purchased by Directors through options exercised were $18,000 during 2003. Additional decreases to stockholders equity included a decrease in the net unrealized appreciation on investment securities available-for-sale for $27,000, which was offset by net income of $804,000 during fiscal year 2003.

Comparison Of The Results Of Operations For The Years Ended December 31, 2003 And 2002

Net Income

Net income for the year ended December 31, 2003 increased $555,000 to $804,000 from $249,000 for the same period in 2002. The increase in net income for the 2003 period is primarily due to increases in net interest income and non-interest income offset by increases in noninterest expenses.

Net Interest Income

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

For the year ended December 31, 2003, net interest income after provision increased $1.0 million to $3.8 million from $2.8 million for the same period in 2002. The increase in interest income for the 2003 year end was due to the increase in commercial and home equity loan volume.

Provision for Loan Losses

For the year ended December 31, 2003, the provision for loan losses increased $69,000 to $361,000 from $292,000 for the same period in 2002. The increase in the loan loss provision in 2003 was related to the continued growth of the Independence's loan portfolio, which increased by a net $26.2 million during the year ended December 31, 2003. The allowance for loan losses is maintained at a level that represents management's best estimates of losses in the loan portfolio at the balance sheet date. However, there can be no assurance that the allowance for losses will be adequate to cover losses, which may be realized in the future and that additional provisions for losses will not be required.

Table of Contents

Non-Interest Income

Non-interest income for December 31, 2003 increased $1.9 million to $3.2 million from $1.3 million for the same period in 2002. Such increase in fiscal 2003 was primarily due to an increase in gains on sales of loans on the secondary mortgage market of $1.8 million.

Non-Interest Expense

For the year ended December 31, 2003, non-interest expense increased $2.1 million to $5.4 million from $3.3 million for the same period in 2002. Salaries and benefits increased $1.5 million due to commissions paid associated with the increase in non-interest income increase from gains on sales of loans and increased staffing levels associated with opening of the St. Matthews branch.

Income Tax Expense

For the year ended December 31, 2003, Independence income tax expense totaled $473,000 compared to an income tax expense of $215,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002. Such increase in tax expense for the 2003 period was the direct result of an increase in income.

Liquidity

Independence Bank's primary sources of funds are deposits and proceeds from principal and interest payments of loans. Additional sources of liquidity are advances from the FHLB of Indianapolis and other borrowings, such as Federal Funds purchased or the issuance of subordinated preferred securities. At December 31, 2003, FHLB advances totaled $7.4 million. Independence utilizes FHLB advances during periods when management believes that such advances provide a lower cost source of funds at a lower cost than deposit accounts, and when management desires liquidity in order to help expand the loan portfolio. Additionally, cash and cash equivalents totaled $8.4 million at December 31, 2003.

Independence's operating activities produced positive cash flows for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and negative cash flows for 2002. Net cash from operating activities for 2003 totaled $7.8 million, as compared to a $7.4 million deficit for 2002. The increase in operating cash flows in year 2003 resulted primarily from increased secondary market loan sales.

Net cash used in investing activities for 2003 totaled $28.1 million, as compared to $12.4 million in fiscal 2002. The increase in cash used in investing activities was attributable to portfolio loan growth.

Net cash from financing activities for the year ended December 31, 2003 totaled $18.1 million, as compared to $23.7 million for 2002. The decrease of $5.6 million of funds from financing activities primarily reflects a $17.0 slower deposit growth and a $2.0 million prior year sale of common stock offset by proceeds received of $7.6 million in federal funds purchased, $2.0 million in FHLB advances, and $4.0 million from the issuance of subordinated debentures. The $2.0 million prior year sale of common stock reflects Harrodsburg's purchase of 200,000 shares of Independence common stock in 2002.

At December 31, 2003, Independence Bank had $14.7 million in certificates of deposits due within one year and $4.4 million due between one and three years. Management believes, based on past experience, that the Banks will retain much of the deposits or replace them with new deposits or borrowings. Additionally, at December 31, 2003, Independence Bank had $22.6 million in outstanding commitments to make loans at market rates. Independence Bank intends to fund these commitments with short-term investments proceeds from loan repayments, and increased deposits.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in Thousands, except per share data)

December 31, 2003 and 2002

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation: The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Independence Bancorp (the Company) and its subsidiaries, Crawford Financial Corp. (inactive) and Independence Bank (the Bank). The Company is a bank holding company whose principal activity is the ownership and management of the Bank. The Bank operates under a state bank charter and provides full banking services, including trust services. Independence Mortgage Group, a division of the Bank, was created during 2002 for the purpose of engaging in mortgage banking operations. As a state bank, the Bank is subject to regulation by the Department of Financial Institutions, State of Indiana, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Nature of Operations: The Company, through its bank subsidiary, conducts basic commercial banking and mortgage banking operations with customers located primarily in Floyd, Clark and Crawford County, Indiana and Louisville, Kentucky. Operations consist of generating commercial, mortgage and consumer loans and accepting deposits from customers. The loan portfolio is diversified and the ability of debtors to repay loans is not dependent upon any single industry. The majority of the Company's loans are secured by specific items of collateral including business assets, real property, and consumer assets.

Use of Estimates: To prepare financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, management makes estimates and assumptions based on available information. These estimates and assumptions affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and the disclosures provided, and future results could differ. The allowance for loan losses is particularly subject to change.

Cash Flows: Cash and cash equivalents includes cash, deposits with other financial institutions under 90 days, and federal funds sold. Net cash flows are reported for loan, deposit, and short-term borrowings.

Securities: Securities are classified as held to maturity and carried at amortized cost when management has the positive intent and ability to hold them to maturity. Securities are classified as available for sale when they might be sold before maturity. These securities are carried at fair value, with unrealized holding gains and losses reported in accumulated other comprehensive income. Securities are written down to fair value when a decline in fair value is not temporary. Gains and losses on sales are determined using the amortized cost of the specific security sold. Interest income includes amortization of purchase premiums and discounts.

Mortgage Banking Activities: Mortgage loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of aggregate cost or market value. To deliver closed loans to the secondary market and to control its interest rate risk prior to sale, the Company enters into "best efforts" contracts. The aggregate market value of mortgage loans held for sale considers the price of the sales contracts. No servicing is retained on loans sold into the secondary market.

Loans: Loans are carried at the principal amount outstanding. Interest income is accrued on the principal balances of loans. The accrual of interest on impaired loans is discontinued when, in management's opinion, the borrower may be unable to meet payments as they become due. When interest accrual is discontinued, all unpaid accrued interest is reversed when considered uncollectible. Interest income is subsequently recognized only to the extent cash payments are received. Certain loan fees and direct costs are being deferred and amortized as an adjustment of yield on the loans.

Allowance for Loan Losses: The allowance for loan losses is a valuation allowance for probable credit losses, increased by the provision for loan losses and decreased by charge-offs less recoveries. Management estimates the allowance balance required using past loan loss experience, known and inherent risks in the nature and volume of the portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors. Allocations of the allowance may be made for specific loans, but the entire allowance is available for any loan that, in management's judgment, should be charged-off.

A loan is impaired when full payment under the loan terms is not expected. Impairment is evaluated in total for smaller-balance loans of similar nature such as residential mortgage, consumer, and on an individual loan basis for other loans. If a loan is impaired, a portion of the allowance is allocated so that the loan is reported, net, at the present value of estimated future cash flows using the loan's existing rate or at the fair value of collateral if repayment is expected solely from the collateral.

Foreclosed Assets: Assets acquired through or instead of loan foreclosure are initially recorded at fair value when acquired, establishing a new cost basis. If fair value declines, a valuation allowance is recorded through expense. Costs after acquisition are expensed.

Premises and Equipment, net: Land is carried at cost. Premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is recorded using both straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the premises and equipment. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lesser of the estimated useful life or the lease term on a straight-line basis.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets: Goodwill results from prior business acquisitions and represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of acquired tangible assets and liabilities and identifiable intangible assets. Upon adopting new accounting guidance on January 1, 2002, the Company ceased amortizing goodwill. Goodwill is assessed at least annually for impairment and any such impairment will be recognized in the period identified.

Intangible assets consist of core deposit intangibles arising from whole bank acquisitions. The core deposit intangibles are being amortized on an accelerated basis over seven years.

Long-term Assets: Premises and equipment and other long-term assets are reviewed for impairment when events indicate their carrying amount may not be recoverable from future undiscounted cash flows. If impaired, the assets are recorded at discounted amounts.

Loan Commitments and Related Financial Instruments: Financial instruments include off-balance sheet credit instruments, such as commitments to make loans and commercial letters of credit, issued to meet customer financing needs. The face amount for these items represents the exposure to loss, before considering customer collateral or ability to repay. Such financial instruments are recorded when they are funded. Instruments, such as standby letters of credit, that are considered financial guarantees in accordance with FASB Interpretation No. 45 are recorded at fair value.

Repurchase Agreements: Substantially all repurchase agreement liabilities represent amounts advanced by various customers. Securities are pledged to cover these liabilities, which are not covered by federal deposit insurance.

Benefit Plans: Profit sharing and 401k plan expense is the amount contributed to the Plans as determined by Board decision.

Stock Compensation: Employee compensation expense under stock options is reported using the intrinsic value method. No stock-based compensation cost is reflected in net income, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to or greater than the market price of the underlying common stock at date of grant. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if expense was measured using the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation.

	2003	2002
Net income as reported	$ 804	$ 249
Deduct: Stock-based compensation expense determined under fair value based method	35	29
Pro forma net income	$ 769	$ 220
Basic earnings per share as reported	$ 0.91	$ 0.36
Pro forma basic earnings per share	0.87	0.32
Diluted earnings per share as reported	0.90	0.36
Pro forma diluted earnings per share	0.86	0.32

The pro forma effects are computed using option pricing models, using the following weighted-average assumptions as of grant date.

	2003	2002
Risk-free interest rate	3.94%	4.81%
Expected option life	10 years	10 years
Weighted-average fair value of options granted, per share	$ 3.25	$ 3.82

No assumption was made for estimated volatility since it was not feasible to determine this assumption for a non-public entity whose stock was not actively traded. There is no dividend yield assumption since the Company has not historically paid dividends or indicated that dividends would be paid in the future.

Income Taxes: Income tax expense is the sum of the current year income tax due or refundable and the change in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Deferred tax liabilities and assets are recorded for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and tax bases of assets and liabilities, computed using enacted tax rates. A valuation allowance, if needed, reduces deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized. The Company files consolidated income tax returns with its subsidiaries.

Derivatives: The Company only uses derivative instruments in its mortgage banking activities as described in Note 3.

Earnings Per Common Share: Basic earnings per common share are net income divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per common share include the dilutive effect of additional potential common shares issuable under stock options. Earnings and dividends per share are restated for all stock splits and dividends through the date of issue of the financial statements.

Comprehensive Income: Comprehensive income consists of net income and other comprehensive income. Other comprehensive income includes unrealized gains and losses on securities available for sale, which are also recognized as separate components of equity. Since there were no security sales gains on losses during the period, the only component is the change in unrealized gains and losses on securities available for sale.

Loss Contingencies: Loss contingencies, including claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. Management does not believe there are any such matters that will have a material effect on the financial statements.

Minority Interest: The minority interest consists of callable preferred stock in the Bank. The Bank's existing articles of incorporation state that the callable preferred stock may be called at the option of the Bank at any time at the par value thereof, plus any declared but unpaid dividend, pursuant to such procedures as the Board of Directors may specify. During 2002, the Company retired the minority interest.

Dividend Restriction: Banking regulations require maintaining certain capital levels and may limit the dividends paid by the bank to the holding company.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments: Fair values of financial instruments are estimated using relevant market information and other assumptions, as more fully disclosed in a separate note. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment regarding interest rates, credit risk, prepayments, and other factors, especially in the absence of broad markets for particular items. Changes in assumptions or in market conditions could significantly affect the estimates.

Reclassifications: Some items in the prior year financial statements were reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

Contractual maturities of securities held to maturity and available for sale at year-end 2003 were as follows. Securities not due at a single maturity date, primarily mortgage-backed securities, are shown separately.

	Held to Maturity		Available for Sale
	Amortized	Fair	Amortized	Fair

Total	$ 329	$ 347	$ 2,215	$ 2,278

Securities pledged at year-end 2003 and 2002 had a carrying value of $1,174 and $1,477 were pledged to secure FHLB advances and for other purposes as permitted or required by law.

At year-end 2003 and 2002, there were no holdings of securities of any one issuer, other than the U.S. Government and its agencies, in an amount greater than 10% of shareholders' equity.

Securities with unrealized losses at year-end 2003 not recognized in income are as follows:

Description of Securities	Less than 12		12 Months or		Total
	Months		More

Mortgage-backed and other asset backed	$ 445	$ (3)	$	$	$ 445	$ (3)
--	--------	--------	----	----	--------	--------

All of the securities are backed by the U. S. Government and its agencies. There are no concerns of credit loss and there is nothing to indicate that full principal will not be received. Management considers the unrealized losses to be market driven and no loss will be incurred unless the securities are sold. While these securities are held in the available for sale portfolio, the current intent and ability is to hold them to maturity. The Company does not have a history of actively trading securities, but keeps the securities available for sale should liquidity or other needs develop that would warrant the sale of securities.

The Company had commitments to originate $3,247 and $1,556 in loans as of December 31, 2003 and 2002 that it intends to sell. The Company may purchase the facility at any time for $1,187 plus an increase equal to the percentage increase in the CPI-U from January 1, 2001 until the month of the purchase.

NOTE 9 - FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK ADVANCES AND OTHER DEBT (Continued)

The advances were collateralized by $363 and $676 of investment securities and $13,766 and $15,617 of qualifying mortgage loans under a lien arrangement at year-end 2003 and 2002. Advances are subject to cash restrictions or penalties in the event of early repayment.

The Company has a line of credit with an unaffiliated institution. The Company may borrow up to $2,500 ($0 and $758 outstanding at year-end 2003 and 2002) at an interest rate of 4.325% (as of year-end 2003, which adjusts quarterly based on the changes in prime rate) with a maturity date of January 25, 2004. The Company renewed this line of credit at a rate of prime plus .125%, which matures on January 25, 2005. The note payable is secured by all of the Bank's common stock.

At year-end 2003, the Company did not have an outstanding balance in unused lines of credit with the FHLB.

Subordinated Debentures: A trust formed by the Company issued $4,000,000 of 4.32% floating rate trust preferred securities in 2003 as part of a pooled offering of such securities. The Company issued subordinated debentures to the trust in exchange for the proceeds of the offering, which represents the sole asset of the trust. The Trust Preferred Securities are subject to mandatory redemption, in whole or in part, upon repayment of the subordinated debentures at maturity or their earlier redemption at the liquidation preference. The subordinated debentures are redeemable at par prior to the maturity date of March 26, 2033 at the option of the Company as defined within the trust indenture. The Company has the option to defer interest payments on the subordinated debentures from time to time for a period not to exceed twenty (20) consecutive quarters. If payments are deferred, the Company is prohibited from paying dividends to its common stockholders.

Under new accounting guidance, FASB Interpretation No. 46, as revised in December 2003, the trust is not consolidated with the Company. Accordingly, the Company does not report the securities issued by the Company and held by the trust, as these are no longer eliminated in consolidation.

No payments on the subordinated debenture are required over the next five years. Required payments on the FHLB advances over the next three years are:

NOTE 11 - OFF-BALANCE-SHEET ACTIVITY

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

Some financial instruments, such as loan commitments, credit lines, letters of credit, and overdraft protection, are issued to meet customer-financing needs. These are agreements to provide credit or to support the credit of others, as long as conditions established in the contract are met, and usually have expiration dates. Commitments may expire without being used. Off-balance-sheet risk to credit loss exists up to the face amount of these instruments, although material losses are not anticipated. The same credit policies are used to make such commitments as are used for loans, including obtaining collateral at exercise of the commitment.

The Company extends binding commitments to customers and prospective customers. Commitments to make loans are generally made for periods of 60 days or less. The majority of loan commitments are variable with maturities ranging from one to twenty years.

NOTE 12 - CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS AND RESTRICTIONS ON RETAINED EARNINGS

Banks and holding companies are subject to regulatory capital requirements administered by federal banking agencies. Capital adequacy guidelines and, additionally for banks, prompt corrective action regulations involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by regulators. Failure to meet capital requirements can initiate regulatory action.

Prompt corrective action regulations provide five classifications: well capitalized, adequately capitalized, undercapitalized, significantly undercapitalized, and critically undercapitalized, although these terms are not used to represent overall financial condition. If adequately capitalized, regulatory approval is required to accept brokered deposits. If undercapitalized, capital distributions are limited, as is asset growth and expansion, and capital restoration plans are required.

The Company is subject to certain regulations on the amount of dividends it may declare without prior regulatory approval. Under these regulations, the amount of dividends that may be paid in any year is limited to that year's net profits, as defined, combined with the retained net profits of the preceding two years, less dividends declared during those periods. During 2004, the bank could, without prior approval, declare dividends of approximately $752 plus any 2004 net income retained to the date of the dividend declaration. NOTE 13 STOCK OPTIONS

The Company maintains two stock option plans, a director nonqualified stock option plan and an employee incentive stock option plan. The employee incentive stock option plan allows for the granting of incentive or nonqualified stock options. The exercise price of each option type is the greater of eight dollars or 100% of the fair market value of the Company's stock; however, if an incentive stock option is granted under the employee plan to an employee-owner the exercise price is 110% of the fair market value at the date of grant.

The maximum term of all options is ten years and the options vest at an annual rate of 20%. The total shares available for future grant under both plans shall be the total shares of authorized common stock of the Company that is unissued.

A summary of the activity in the plan is as follows:

NOTE 14 - FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

Carrying amount is the estimated fair value for cash and cash equivalents, Federal Home Loan Bank stock, accrued interest receivable and payable, demand deposits, federal funds purchased, repurchase agreements, and variable rate loans or deposits that reprice frequently and fully. Security fair values are based on market prices or dealer quotes, and if no such information is available, on the rate and term of the security and information about the issuer. For fixed rate loans or deposits and for variable rate loans or deposits with infrequent repricing or repricing limits, fair value is based on discounted cash flows using current market rates applied to the estimated life and credit risk. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analysis or underlying collateral values. Fair value of loans held for sale is based on market quotes. Fair value of Federal Home Loan Bank advances and subordinated debentures is based on current rates for similar financing. The fair value of off-balance-sheet items and derivatives used in mortgage banking is based on the current fees or cost that would be charged to enter into or terminate such arrangements and is not material.

THE MERGER

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger agreement and the merger. This description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the annexes to this document, including the merger agreement. You are urged to carefully read the annexes in their entirety.

Overview of the Merger

Harrodsburg currently owns 22.5% of Independence. Upon completion of the merger, Independence will be merged into Harrodsburg. Harrodsburg will be the surviving entity of the merger, but its name will be changed to 1st Independence Financial Group, Inc. Each outstanding share of Independence common stock (except for the shares currently owned by Harrodsburg) will be converted into the right to receive 1.0 share of Harrodsburg common stock. After the completion of this strategic alliance, current Harrodsburg shareholders will own approximately 64% of the combined company and current Independence shareholders (other than Harrodsburg) will own approximately 36% of the combined company. Additionally, the combined company will change its year end from September 30 to December 31.

Merger Consideration

Each outstanding share of Independence common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.0 share of Harrodsburg common stock. No fractional shares of Harrodsburg common stock will be issued in the merger. Instead of a fractional share, you will receive the cash value (without interest) of the fractional share based on the average closing price of Harrodsburg common stock on the five trading days before the merger.

On March 22, 2004, Harrodsburg common stock closed at $22.49 per share. Based on that price, the value of the transaction would have been approximately $15.5 million, which represents 77.5% of the outstanding shares of Independence (excluding stock options). These values, however, may increase or decrease as a result of fluctuations in the market price of Harrodsburg common stock.

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Independence common stock will be converted into an option to purchase 1.0 shares of Harrodsburg common stock. The terms and conditions of the converted option will be subject to the same terms and conditions as governed by the old options. Fractional shares, if any, will be rounded to the nearest whole share and per share exercise prices will be rounded to the nearest whole cent. Options for approximately 67,000 shares of Independence common stock were outstanding on March 22, 2004.

Background of the Merger

Independence was formed in 1998 for the sole purpose of either starting or acquiring a community bank in southern Indiana. On April 1, 1999 Independence commenced a private offering and raised approximately $5.0 million. On June 10, 1999, Independence acquired Crawford Financial Corporation, a bank holding company owning Marengo State Bank, a state-chartered community bank with one branch office, in Marengo, Indiana. Following the acquisition, the bank's name was changed to Independence Bank and its main office was relocated to New Albany, Indiana.

Subsequent to Independence's private offering in 1999 and its growth to three offices by 2002, Independence needed an additional capital infusion to continue its business plan objective of growth expansion. Rather than going through the expense of an additional private offering, in August, 2002, N. William White, President and Chief Executive Officer of Independence contacted Arthur L. Freeman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Harrodsburg to inquire as to whether Harrodsburg was interested in making an equity investment in Independence. Messrs. Freeman and White knew each other for many years as a result of participations in financial services industry professional organizations. Mr. Freeman and the Harrodsburg board were interested in reviewing the potential investment, since as part of its business plan, Harrodsburg wanted to expand its operations. In this regard, in 2001, Harrodsburg acquired a majority interest in Citizens Financial, Inc., a de novo state-chartered commercial bank located in Glasgow, Kentucky. Because of Independence's growth and earnings potential, Harrodsburg believed that an investment in Independence would further increase the earnings of the company.

Table of Contents

On October 15, 2002, Harrodsburg entered into a stock purchase agreement with Independence to purchase a 22.5% equity interest of Independence stock for $2.0 million. Upon completion of due diligence by Harrodsburg and receipt of regulatory approval, Harrodsburg completed the purchase of Independence's stock on December 31, 2002.

During early 2003, Messrs. Freeman and White talked on an informal basis about the possibility of combining the two companies. These discussions focused on the potential benefits of combining but did not address any specific price or other transactions terms. Despite the $2.0 million capital infusion by Harrodsburg in December 2002, Independence was likely in need of additional capital due to its continued execution of its strategic business plan characterized by strong growth in assets, loans and deposits in 2003. In this regard, Independence opened a branch office in Louisville, Kentucky and also formed a mortgage division with offices in Louisville, Kentucky and southern Indiana in August, 2002.

In the late summer and fall of 2003, Messrs. Freeman and White's discussions focused on the possibility of a transaction in greater detail. The parties discussed a potential transaction, including matters relating to the potential fit between the companies, the potential strategic benefits that a combination might offer and the possible terms of the offer. Among other things, the parties discussed the fact that the companies had complementary businesses. Additionally, the parties also noted that as a result of a strategic affiliation the combined company would have better future prospects than either company was to achieve on a stand-alone basis. In this regard, Harrodsburg desired to expand its operations but was hampered by the lack of compatible candidates in its market area in addition to its lack of a seasoned management team to sustain such expansion. Independence was operating in markets in which Harrodsburg would like to expand and Independence had a seasoned management team. Additionally, Independence was constrained by limited capital to continue its growth plan on a long-term basis. In order to sustain its growth plan, Independence recognized that it must either raise additional capital or find a compatible strategic partner with capital levels to support Independence's strategic growth plan. Independence further recognized that an equity offering would dilute the equity ownership of its existing shareholders and such cash infusions would likely sustain the company on a short-term basis given its strategic plans for continued strong growth. Because of Harrodsburg's current investment in Independence, Independence believed that it would be a compatible strategic partner. Harrodsburg not only had the capital to sustain Independence growth plan but also had similar business and operating environments.

During October 2003 to mid December 2003, the parties conducted their respective due diligence reviews with the help of their respective financial advisors and special counsel and negotiated the terms of the merger agreement.

On December 17, 2003, the Harrodsburg board held a regularly scheduled board meeting at which the terms and details of the merger proposal were presented to the board and discussed. Mr. Freeman together with representatives of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. and Patton Boggs LLP reviewed the terms of the proposed merger with Independence. Following a discussion at that meeting and based upon factors described in the preceding paragraphs, Harrodsburg board of directors authorized Mr. Freeman to pursue a merger with Independence on the basis of the proposal.

On December 18, 2003, the Independence board held a special meeting at which the terms and details of the merger proposal were presented to the board and discussed. Mr. White together with a representative of Kreig Devault LLP reviewed the proposed terms of the merger with Harrodsburg. Following a discussion at that meeting and based upon factors described in the preceding paragraphs, Independence board of directors authorized Mr. White to pursue a merger with Harrodsburg on the basis of the proposal. In January 2003, Mr. Freeman was appointed to the board of directors of Independence. In view of the fact that Mr. Freeman is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Harrodsburg, Mr. Freeman did not participate in this board decision.

On December 19, 2003, Harrodsburg delivered a proposed definitive merger agreement to Independence. From December 19, 2003 through January 21, 2004, the parties, with the help of their financial and legal advisors, further negotiated the terms of the merger including the exchange ratio to be received by Independence's shareholders. Additionally, the parties completed their respective due diligence.

On January 21, 2004, the Harrodsburg board of directors held a regularly scheduled meeting at which Mr. Freeman presented to the board the proposed definitive merger agreement. By telephone conference call, a representative of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. made a presentation on the fairness of the proposed transaction to Harrodsburg from a financial perspective. The full text of the Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. opinion is attached as Appendix B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Additionally, by telephone conference call, a representative of Following these deliberations, the Independence board of directors voted to approve the merger agreement and instructed Mr. White to execute the merger agreement and related documents on Independence's behalf. Mr. Freeman did not attend the special meeting of Independence nor did he vote to approve the merger agreement as an Independence board member.

Harrodsburg's board of directors has determined that the terms of the merger and the merger agreement and the issuance of Harrodsburg common stock in connection with the merger are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Harrodsburg and its shareholders. In reaching its determination, the Harrodsburg board considered the opinion of its financial advisor, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio from a financial point of view to Harrodsburg's shareholders. Harrodsburg's board of directors also considered a number of other factors, including that the merger should produce a well capitalized institution with an enhanced retail lending franchise as well as a number of financial benefits that should foster the potential for earnings growth. Additionally, Harrodsburg's board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weights to the factors considered. The material factors considered were as follows:

In reaching its determination to approve and deem advisable the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein, the Independence board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors considered by it.

Independence's board of directors recommends that the holders of Independence common stock vote FOR adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of Harrodsburg's Financial Advisor

On November 17, 2003, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW) was retained by Harrodsburg to evaluate Harrodsburg's strategic alternatives as part of a shareholder enhancement program and to specifically evaluate Harrodsburg's potential strategic affiliation with Independence. KBW, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the evaluation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, and distributions of listed and unlisted securities. KBW is familiar with the market for common stocks of publicly traded banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The Harrodsburg board of directors selected KBW on the basis of the firm's reputation and its experience and expertise in transactions similar to the merger and its prior working relationship with Harrodsburg.

Pursuant to its engagement, KBW was asked to render an opinion as to the fairness to the Harrodsburg shareholders, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration paid to Independence shareholders. KBW delivered its opinion to the Harrodsburg board of directors that, as of January 22, 2004 the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Harrodsburg. No limitations were imposed by the Harrodsburg board of directors upon KBW with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. KBW has consented to the inclusion herein of the summary of its opinion to the Harrodsburg board of directors and to the reference to the entire opinion attached hereto as Appendix B.

The full text of the opinion of KBW, which is attached as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, sets forth certain assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW, and should be read in its entirety. The summary of the opinion of KBW set forth in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion.

Table of Contents

In rendering its opinion, KBW (i) reviewed the agreement and plan of reorganization, (ii) reviewed publicly available information of both Independence and Harrodsburg that they deemed relevant, (iii) discussed with senior management and the board of directors of Harrodsburg the current position and prospective outlook for Harrodsburg, (iv) discussed with senior management of Independence their operations, financial performance and future plans and prospects, (v) considered historical quotations, levels of activity and prices of recorded transactions in Harrodsburg's and Independence common stock, (vi) reviewed financial and stock market data of other banks in a comparable asset range to Independence, (vii) reviewed financial and stock market data of other banks in a comparable asset range to Harrodsburg, (viii) reviewed certain recent business combinations with banks as the acquired company, which KBW deemed comparable in whole or in part, (ix) performed other analyses which KBW considered appropriate.

Analysis of Recent Comparable Acquisition Transactions.

In rendering its opinion, KBW analyzed certain comparable merger and acquisition transactions of both pending and completed bank transactions. In its analysis KBW compared the acquisition price relative to four industry-accepted ratios: deal price to book value, deal price to tangible book value, deal price to last twelve months' earnings and premium to core deposits. The analysis included a comparison of the median, high and low of the above ratios for pending and completed acquisitions, based on the following comparable group: (1) all institutions in the comparable group were banking institutions; (2) all transactions in the comparable group were either announced or completed after March 31, 2003 (3) all transactions in the peer group had an asset size of the selling bank between $75 million and $500 million. As a result of these transaction criteria, the following selling bank institutions were used in analyzing comparable transactions:

Selling institutions in comparable merger and acquisition transactions:

First Capital Bankshares Inc.
 Newton Financial Corp
 E.N.B. Holding Company, Inc.
 Home Towne Heritage Bank
 Caledonia Financial Corp.
 Community Bancorp Inc,

Peoples First Inc.
 Millennium Bank
 First & Ocean Bancorp
 Lakes Region Bancorp Inc.
 Grange National Banc Corp.
 CSB Financial Corp.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in this analysis is identical to Independence, Harrodsburg or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the companies to which they are being compared.

The information in the following table summarizes the material information analyzed by KBW with respect to the merger. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analysis performed by KBW in rendering its opinion. Selecting portions of KBW's analysis or isolating certain aspects of the comparable transactions without considering all analyses and factors could create an incomplete or potentially misleading view of the evaluation process.

Table of Contents

	Price to Book Ratio (%)	Price to Tangible Book Ratio (%)	Price to last 12 months earnings (x)	Core Deposit Premium (%)
Low Value	212.5	248.0	17.1x	15.30

	Price to Book Ratio (%)	Price to Tangible Book Ratio (%)	Price to last 12 months earnings (x)	Core Deposit Premium (%)
Consideration paid by Harrodsburg*	261.4	306.5	27.6x	19.10

* Transaction multiples based upon the acquisition of 77.5% of Independence shares outstanding and not already owned by Harrodsburg.

KBW viewed the aforementioned comparable group as appropriate in deriving a comparable transaction value based on Independence size, capital base and earnings. In addition, KBW viewed the fact that the comparable group contained 12 transactions as being statistically significant for the purposes of comparison. Given that the value of the consideration on an aggregate basis to be paid in the merger, as of the date of the opinion, is with the range of comparable bank transactions on the basis of price to book value, price to tangible book value, price to last twelve months earnings, and core deposit premium, KBW believes that this analysis supports the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Harrodsburg and its stockholders of the consideration to be paid in the merger.

Contribution Analysis. KBW also analyzed the financial statements of Harrodsburg and Independence to determine if the pro forma ownership of the Harrodsburg shareholders in the combined company's shareholder base was consistent with the financial contribution of Harrodsburg to the combined company, particularly in terms of earnings contribution. The results of the contribution analysis are as follows:

The contribution analysis performed by KBW did not take into account any merger adjustments or cost savings as a result of the merger. In addition, KBW relied on management guidance for estimated earnings for 2004 Harrodsburg and Independence. Based on relative earnings contribution of both Harrodsburg and Independence, KBW concluded that the pro forma ownership of Harrodsburg shareholders in the combined company as a result of the consideration paid to the Independence shareholders was in line with the Harrodsburg earnings contribution to the combined company and further supported the fairness of the consideration paid to Independence.

Discounted Dividend Analysis. KBW performed a discounted dividend analysis to estimate a range of present values per share of Independence's common stock. This range was determined by adding (1) the present value, which is a representation of the current value of a sum that is to be received some time in the future, of the estimated future dividends that Independence could generate through Year 5 of their current business plan (as provided to KBW during due diligence) and (2) the present value of the terminal value, which is a representation of the ongoing value of an entity at a specified time in the future of Independence's common stock.

In calculating a terminal value of Independence's common stock, KBW applied terminal multiples in a range of 15.3x – 19.3x to year 5 forecasted earnings. The terminal multiple range is driven from the median multiple of 17.3x derived from comparable group of publicly traded banking institutions located in the Midwest region of the United States and having an assets size below $250 million. KBW then extended the potential range downwards to 15.3x and upwards to 19.3x forecasted year five earnings to provide greater flexibility in assessing a range of potential values. In performing this analysis, KBW used the budget provided by the Independence for the 2004 fiscal year as well as the business plan for the following years. The combined dividend stream and terminal value were then discounted back to September 30, 2003 (the date of most recent financial information when the analysis was performed). KBW established a discount range of 9.3% to 13.3% in terms of the cost of equity. This range was based off an 11.3% discount rate as provided by Ibbotsons Associates, Inc. for a composite of small capitalization financial institutions. Ibbotsons Associates, Inc. is a recognized authority on cost of capital analysis and derives discount rates for various industries based on industry type, size and liquidity. The results of KBW's analysis are set forth in the following table:

Discount Rate	Terminal Multiple
	15.3x	16.3x	17.3x	18.3x	19.3x
13.3%	$ 19.51	$ 20.64	$ 21.76	$ 22.89	$ 24.02
12.3%	$ 20.38	$ 21.56	$ 22.74	$ 23.92	$ 25.10
11.3%	$ 21.30	$ 22.54	$ 23.77	$ 25.00	$ 26.23
10.3%	$ 22.27	$ 23.56	$ 24.85	$ 26.14	$ 27.43
9.3%	$ 23.30	$ 24.65	$ 26.00	$ 27.35	$ 28.70

In performing this analysis, KBW assumed that 57% of Independence's net income would be paid out to shareholders, which consistent with Harrodsburg's current cash dividend payout ratio to common stockholders. Based on the foregoing criteria and assumptions, KBW determined that the theoretical present value of the Independence's common stock ranged from $19.51 to $28.70 per share. Given that the value of the consideration on a per share basis to be paid in the merger, as of the date of the opinion, is below the midpoint implied theoretical value of 17.3x forecasted future earnings discounted at 11.3% and is within the range of theoretical values for Independence, KBW believes that this analysis supports the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Harrodsburg and its stockholders of the consideration to be paid to Independence in the merger.

The discount dividend analyses of Independence does not necessarily indicate actual values or actual future results and do not purport to reflect the prices at which any securities may trade at the present or at any time in the future. Dividend discount analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of this methodology are highly dependent upon numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates, terminal values, projected capital structure, and discount rates.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

Based on the above analyses KBW concluded that the consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Harrodsburg shareholders. This summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analysis performed by KBW and should not be construed independently of the other information considered by KBW in rendering its opinion. Selecting portions of KBW's analysis or isolating certain aspects of the comparable transactions without considering all analysis and factors could create an incomplete or potentially misleading view of the evaluation process.

In rendering its opinion, KBW assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial information provided to it by Harrodsburg and Independence. In its review, with the consent of the Harrodsburg board of directors, KBW did not undertake any independent verification of the information provided to it, nor did it make any independent appraisal or evaluation of the assets or liabilities and potential or contingent liabilities of Harrodsburg or Independence.

The fairness opinion of KBW is limited to the fairness as of its date, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not address the underlying business decision to effect the merger (or alternatives thereto) nor does it constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Harrodsburg as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the merger proposal.

Furthermore, KBW expresses no opinion as to the price or trading range at which shares of the pro forma entity will trade following the consummation of the merger.

KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements.

In preparing its analysis, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of KBW and Harrodsburg. The analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses and do not purport to be appraisals or reflect the prices at which a business may be sold.

KBW will receive a fee of $75,000 for services rendered in connection with advising and issuing a fairness opinion regarding the merger. As of the date of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, KBW has received $35,000 of such fee; the remainder of the fee is due upon approval by shareholders of the merger. During 2003, KBW received fees of $37,000 for the management of a modified dutch auction for Harrodsburg as well as a $150,000 fee for the issuance of a trust preferred security issued by Harrodsburg.

Opinion of Independence's Financial Advisor

At a meeting of the Independence Board on January 22, 2004, at which the terms of the proposed merger were discussed and considered, David A. Noyes & Company (David A. Noyes) rendered its opinion to the Independence Board that, as of that date, the Exchange Ratio was fair to the Independence Stockholders from a financial point of view. The full text of David A. Noyes' opinion dated the date hereof is included as Appendix C to this proxy statement.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

David A. Noyes, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of commercial bank and thrift securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of commercial banking and thrift organizations, David A. Noyes has extensive experience in, and knowledge of, the commercial banking and thrift industries and its participants.

In connection with its opinion, David A. Noyes reviewed, among other things:

the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization

Consolidated Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Reports for Independence for the three years ended December 31, 2002;

annual reports on Form 10-KSB of Harrodsburg covering the three years ended September 30, 2003; quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB of Harrodsburg; and certain other communications from Independence and Harrodsburg to their respective stockholders.

Table of Contents

David A. Noyes also held discussions with members of the senior management of Independence and Harrodsburg regarding the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies. In addition, David A. Noyes reviewed the reported price and trading activity for Independence common stock and Harrodsburg common stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for Independence and Harrodsburg with similar information for certain other companies in which securities are publicly traded. David A. Noyes reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate.

David A. Noyes relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. David A. Noyes is not an expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and assumed, with the Independence board's consent, that such allowances for each of Independence and Harrodsburg are in the aggregate adequate to cover all such losses. Similarly, David A. Noyes assumed, with the Independence board's consent and without independent analysis, that the obligations of Independence and Harrodsburg pursuant to derivatives, swaps, foreign exchange, financial instruments and off-balance sheet lending-related financial instruments will not have an adverse effect which would be relevant to its analysis. In addition, David A. Noyes did not review individual credit files nor did it make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Independence or Harrodsburg or any of their subsidiaries, and it had not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. David A. Noyes's opinion as to the fairness of the exchange ratio addressed the ownership position in Harrodsburg to be received by the Independence shareholders pursuant to the exchange ratio on the terms set forth in the agreement and did not address the future trading or acquisition value for the stock of Harrodsburg. David A. Noyes considered the relative merits of the merger and certain alternative business strategies. David A. Noyes also assumed, with the Independence Board's consent, that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles and that obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals and third party consents for the merger or otherwise will not have an adverse effect on Independence or Harrodsburg pursuant to the merger.

David A. Noyes's advisory services and the opinion expressed by it were provided for the information and assistance of the Independence Board in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and such opinion did not constitute a recommendation as to how any Independence shareholder should vote with respect to such transaction.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses considered in a presentation to the Independence Board on January 22, 2004 by David A. Noyes in connection with its oral and written opinions as of such date.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by David A. Noyes, but describes the material analyses performed thereby. In addition, David A. Noyes believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all such analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses and the opinions. The preparation of a financial adviser's opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analyses or summary description. In its analyses, David A. Noyes also took into account its assessment of general economic, market, and financial conditions and its experience in similar transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and its knowledge of the banking industry generally. With respect to the comparative financial and market performance and other similar transactions analyses summarized above, no public company utilized as a comparison is identical to Independence or Harrodsburg and such analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the acquisition or public trading values of the companies concerned. Any estimates contained in David A. Noyes' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or its securities actually may be sold. None of the analyses performed by David A. Noyes were assigned a greater significance by David A. Noyes than any other.

Independence has entered into an agreement with David A. Noyes relating to the financial advisory services being provided by David A. Noyes in connection with the merger. Independence has paid Noyes a fee of $42,500. If a transaction is consummated, Independence agrees to pay Noyes a final fee of $32,500 upon consummation. Independence has also agreed to indemnify and hold harmless David A. Noyes, its officers, directors, employees and agents against all claims, losses, actions, judgments, damages or expenses, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and experts' expenses, arising from or relating to the advice and recommendations given and/or the services performed pursuant to this agreement.

If, in connection with its engagement, David A. Noyes becomes involved in any capacity in any action or legal proceeding, Independence has agreed (a) to reimburse David A. Noyes for its reasonable legal fees, disbursements of counsel and other expenses, and (b) to indemnify and hold David A. Noyes harmless against any losses, claims, damages, or liabilities, joint or several, to which David A. Noyes may become subject in connection its engagement (other than any loss, claims, damage, or liability that a court having jurisdiction determines by a final judgment to have resulted from David A. Noyes failure to exercise reasonable or ordinary care, malfeasance or recklessness). In the event that this indemnity is unavailable or insufficient to hold David A. Noyes harmless, then Independence will be required to contribute to amounts paid or payable by David A. Noyes in respect of such losses, claims, damages, and liabilities in such proportion as appropriately reflects the relative benefits received by, and fault of, Independence and David A. Noyes in connection with the matters as to which such losses, claims, damages, or liabilities relate and other equitable considerations. The agreements of Independence extend to and inure to the benefit of each person, if any, who may be deemed to control David A. Noyes.

Aside from services in connection with this transaction, including earlier evaluations of strategic alternatives, Noyes has not had any previous relationship with Independence, and no compensation has been received other than as described above.

What We Must Do To Complete The Merger

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met by Harrodsburg and Independence. The conditions described below are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions specified in the merger agreement.

Harrodsburg and Independence must:

obtain shareholders approval from both companies;

fulfill their obligations under the merger agreement;

avoid any material breach of their representations and warranties;

obtain a tax opinion from legal counsel;

obtain regulatory approvals or nonobjection from the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of Thrift Supervision; the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions, and the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions;

obtain Nasdaq stock market approval to list the 1st Independence Financial shares to be issued in the merger;

not have in effect any order, decree, or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which would prevent the completion of the merger transactions;

do nothing that would have or result in any material adverse effect on the other party; and receive certain officer s certificates from each other regarding the satisfaction of the merger agreement s conditions.

You can find details of the conditions to the merger in Article 6 of Appendix A. Harrodsburg and Independence cannot guarantee that all of these conditions will be satisfied or waived.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

General. The following is a description of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to shareholders of Independence. Patton Boggs LLP, legal counsel to Harrodsburg, will issue a tax opinion at the effective time of the merger confirming the federal income tax consequences described below. The federal income tax laws are complex and the tax consequences of the merger may vary depending upon each shareholder's individual circumstances or tax status. Accordingly, this description is not a complete description of all of the consequences of the merger and, in particular, may not address federal income tax considerations that may affect the treatment of shareholders subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law (including, for example, foreign persons, financial institutions, dealers in securities, traders in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, holders who acquired their shares of Independence common stock pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or right or otherwise as compensation and holders who hold Independence common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction). In addition, no opinion is expressed with respect to the tax consequences of the merger under applicable foreign, state or local laws or under any federal tax laws other than those pertaining to the income tax. This description is based on laws, regulations, rulings and judicial decisions as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, without consideration of the particular facts or circumstances of any holder of Independence common stock. These authorities are all subject to change and any such change may be made with retroactive effect. No assurance can be given that, after any such change, this description would not be different.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

The Merger. Both the merger and the subsidiary merger, when consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus (the Code). Accordingly, Harrodsburg, First Financial, Harrodsburg shareholders, Independence and Independence Bank will not recognize any taxable gain or loss as a result of the merger or the bank merger.

The federal income tax consequences of the merger to the Independence shareholders who exchange their shares for Harrodsburg common stock are as follows:

the Independence shareholders will not recognize gain or loss on the exchange except with receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares. See below for the tax consequences of receiving cash in lieu of fractional shares.

the Independence shareholders' tax basis in the Harrodsburg common stock received and any fractional shares deemed received pursuant to the merger will equal such shareholder's tax basis in the shares of Independence common stock being exchanged; and the holding period of Harrodsburg common stock received will include the holding period of the shares of Independence common stock being exchanged.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Harrodsburg common stock will be issued in the merger. An Independence shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share will be treated as having received such fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged such fractional share for cash in a redemption by Harrodsburg. An Independence shareholder should generally recognize capital gain or loss on such a deemed redemption of the fractional share in an amount determined by the excess of the amount of cash received and the shareholder's tax basis in the fractional share. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Independence common stock exchanged was held for more than one year.

Closing Tax Opinion. It is a condition precedent to the obligations of Harrodsburg and Independence to effect the merger that they receive an opinion from Patton Boggs LLP, dated as of the effective time of the merger, that each of the merger and the subsidiary merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Such opinion will be based upon facts existing at the effective time of the merger and the subsidiary merger, and in rendering such opinion, counsel will require and rely upon facts, representations and assumptions that will be provided by Harrodsburg, Independence and others.

Harrodsburg and Independence will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matters relating to the merger and the subsidiary merger, and as a result there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will agree with any of the conclusions described herein.

Table of Contents

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate holders of Independence common stock may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding imposed at a rate of 29% (for 2004) on any cash payments they receive. Independence shareholders will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if they:

furnish a correct taxpayer identification number and certify that they are not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal they will receive; or are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against a Independence shareholder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the shareholder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service.

Reporting Requirements. Independence shareholders who receive Harrodsburg common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file with their United States federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting under GAAP. Under this method, Independence's assets and liabilities as of the date of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of Harrodsburg. Any difference between the purchase price for Independence and the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired (including core deposit intangibles) will be recorded as goodwill. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," issued in July 2001, the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually and to the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value will be written down to its implied fair value and a charge will be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives recorded by Harrodsburg in connection with the merger will be amortized to expense. The financial statements of Harrodsburg issued after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Independence beginning on the date of completion of the merger. Additionally, outstanding stock options exchanged in the merger will be accounted for in accordance with APB No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees."

Approvals Needed to Complete the Merger

In addition to the approval of the merger agreement by Harrodsburg and Independence shareholders, completion of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to the prior approval or notice of the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions, and the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions. In reviewing applications under the Bank Holding Company Act and the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation must consider, among other factors, the financial managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and resulting institutions, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation may not approve a transaction if it will result in a monopoly or otherwise be anti-competitive.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation must take into account the record of performance of First Financial and Independence Bank in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by each institution. First Financial and Independence Bank each received a satisfactory rating during their respective last Community Reinvestment Act examinations.

In addition, a period of up to 30 days must expire following approval by each of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporations and the Federal Reserve Board, within which period the United States Department of Justice may file objections to the merger under the federal anti-trust laws. Although the companies believe that the likelihood of such action by the Department of Justice is remote in this merger, there can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not initiate such proceeding. If such proceeding is instituted or challenge is made, the companies cannot ensure a favorable result.

The companies are not aware of any other regulatory approvals required for completion of the merger, except as described above. Should any other approvals be required, it is presently contemplated that such approvals would be sought. There can be no assurance that any other approvals, if required, will be obtained.

The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the consideration to be received by Independence shareholders. Furthermore, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

Subsidiary Merger

In connection with the merger, First Financial and Independence Bank have also entered into a plan of merger pursuant to which First Financial and Independence Bank will merge their operations. The bank merger is to occur at the same time as the merger of Harrodsburg and Independence and the resulting institution will become a Kentucky state-chartered bank. In order to facilitate the bank merger and its conversion to a Kentucky state-chartered bank, I-Bank, Inc. (I-Bank) was formed. I-Bank is an interim Kentucky state-chartered bank and is wholly owned by Independence Bank. First Financial Bank will merge with and into Independence Bank and Independence Bank will simultaneously merge with and into I-Bank, as the resulting institution. The resulting institution, a Kentucky state-chartered bank, will be named 1st Independence Bank. The plan of merger may be terminated by mutual consent of the parties at any time and will be terminated automatically in the event the merger agreement is terminated.

Interests Of Certain Persons In The Merger That Are Different From Your Interests

Some members of Harrodsburg's and Independence's management and Harrodsburg's and Independence's boards have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as Harrodsburg shareholders or Independence shareholders. The Harrodsburg board and the Independence board were aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

New Employment Agreements. Upon the effective time of the merger, the new combined company, 1st Independence Financial and the resulting institution, 1st Independence Bank, will enter into employment agreements with Arthur L. Freeman, N. William White, R. Michael Wilbourn and Alan D. Shepard.

Mr. Freeman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Harrodsburg and First Financial, will serve as the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of 1st Independence Financial and the Chairman of the Board of 1st Independence Bank. Mr. White, President and Chief Executive Officer of Independence and Independence Bank will serve as the President of 1st Independence Financial and President and Chief Executive Officer of 1st Independence Bank. Mr. Wilbourn, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Independence, will serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank. Additionally, Mr. Shepard, Executive Vice President of Independence, will serve as Executive Vice President, and senior lending officer of 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank.

For Messrs. Freeman and White (collectively referred to as Executives), each employment agreement initially provides for a base salary of $130,000 and an initial term of three years, with automatic one year extensions on each anniversary of the effective date of each agreement unless either of Messrs. Freeman, White, 1st Independence Financial or 1st Independence Bank gives the other notice of its desire to terminate the automatic extension. Upon such termination, each agreement would expire at the end of the current three year term.

Each employment agreement, as with respect to each Executive, will terminate upon the death or termination of employment due to disability of the Executive, in the event of certain regulatory actions, or upon notice by either 1st Independence Financial, 1st Independence Bank, Mr. Freeman (as to his agreement) or Mr. White (as to his agreement), with or without cause. An Executive's employment agreement will be suspended in the event of the regulatory suspension of his employment.

If an Executive is terminated by 1st Independence Financial or 1st Independence Bank without cause (which is defined in each employment agreement) or if an Executive terminates his employment for just cause (as defined in each Agreement to mean that 1st Independence Financial Group or 1st Independence Bank commits a breach of its obligations under the respective employment agreement and does not timely cure the breach), 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank will be obligated to pay or provide to the terminated Executive his base salary in effect at the time of termination for the duration of the term of the Agreement in addition to providing health and life insurance and any other retirement and compensation benefit plan coverages in place at the time of termination of employment. Additionally, each Agreement obligates 1st Independence Financial and 1st Independence Bank under such circumstances to also provide the Executive and his immediate family continued health and if applicable, life insurance coverage through the remaining term of the employment agreement.

If an Executive's employment is terminated by either 1st Independence Financial or 1st Independence Bank for cause (as defined in each employment agreement) or by the Executive for any reason other than just cause (as described above), the Executive shall be entitled to receive his salary and applicable benefits only through the effective date of the termination of his employment.

If an Executive's employment is involuntarily terminated within two years after a change of control (as defined in each employment agreement), of 1st Independence Financial or 1st Independence Bank then the terminated Executive shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the product of 2.99 times the Executive's base amount as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and any proposed or final regulations thereunder, less the value of any benefits provided or rights accelerated by the change of control, as determined pursuant to Section 280G of the Code.

Each employment agreement also includes a covenant which will limit the ability of the Executive to compete with 1st Independence Financial or 1st Independence Bank in an area encompassing a thirty mile radius from his respective principal home residence.

The employment agreements with Messrs. Wilbourn and Shepard will be materially consistent as the Executive agreements described above, except that Messrs. Wilbourn and Shepard shall each receive a base salary of $105,000 and will not be provided coverage under an executive life insurance policy.

Stock Options. Options to acquire Independence common stock have been issued pursuant to the Independence stock option plan. The merger agreement provides that the outstanding options at the time the merger takes effect will be converted into options to purchase one share of common stock of the combined company, 1st Independence Financial. The terms of the new options will be determined as follows:

the right to purchase shares of Independence common stock pursuant to the old option will be converted in a new option with the right to purchase that same number of shares of 1st Independence Financial common stock;

the option exercise price per share of 1st Independence Financial common stock will be the previous option exercise price per share of Independence common stock; and in all other material respects the new option will be subject to the same terms and conditions as governed the old option on which it was based, including the length of time within which the option will vest and may be exercised.

As of March 22, 2004, there were options outstanding for approximately 67,000 shares of Independence common stock that would be converted in the merger as described above. Such options were issued to employees and directors of Independence. See Ratification of the 2004 Option

Plan.

Other Provisions of the Merger

Although the completion of the merger requires shareholder approval, many provisions of the merger agreement became effective immediately upon its signing. Your vote was not required to make these provisions binding obligations of Harrodsburg and Independence.

Representations and Warranties. Each party has made representations and warranties to the other party with respect to various matters, including its financial statements, capital structure, business, loans, investments, regulatory filings and benefit plans. These representations and warranties must be true and correct upon both signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger. A party can terminate the merger agreement if the other party's representations and warranties are not true and correct, resulting in a material adverse effect on that other party. If the merger is completed, or if the merger agreement is terminated for some unrelated reason, the representations and warranties become void. You can find details of these obligations in Article 4 of Appendix A.

Cooperation and Conduct of Business. Each party has agreed to cooperate in completing the merger and to avoid extraordinary transactions between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger. In addition, we have agreed not to solicit or encourage a competing transaction to acquire us. However, we can furnish information to or negotiate with someone who makes an unsolicited written bona fide proposal if our advisors determine that it is our boards of directors' fiduciary duty to do so. These provisions also become void if the merger agreement is terminated, except for those related to confidentiality and shared expenses. You can find details of these obligations in Articles 5 and 6 of Appendix A.

Table of Contents

Waiver. Section 8.3 of Article 8 to Appendix A allows either Harrodsburg or Independence to waive (to the extent permitted by law) any condition or obligation of the other party.

Termination. The merger agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement of the parties (even after shareholder approval), or by Harrodsburg or Independence under any of the following circumstances:

in response to a material breach which is not cured within 30 days;

if the merger is not completed by August 31, 2004;

if any required regulatory or shareholder approval is not obtained;

if either Harrodsburg's or Independence's board of directors withdraws their recommendation to approve the merger agreement or modifies or qualifies their recommendation in a manner adverse to the other party;

if either Harrodsburg or Independence enters into another agreement with someone else, in connection with a superior proposal (as defined in the agreement); or if either Harrodsburg's or Independence's board of directors determines, after consultation with its advisors, that it is their fiduciary duty to accept such a superior proposal.

You can find details of the termination provisions in Section 7.1 of Article 7 to Appendix A.

Termination Fees. If the merger is terminated, Harrodsburg or Independence may be obligated to pay the other party the following fees:

Independence will be required to pay Harrodsburg $300,000 if the representations and warranties it has made to Harrodsburg in connection with the merger agreement are not true or correct, or, Independence fails to cooperate with Harrodsburg to complete the merger;

Harrodsburg will be required to pay Independence $300,000 if the representations and warranties it has made to Independence in connection with the merger agreement are not true or correct, or Harrodsburg fails to cooperate with Independence to complete the merger;

Independence will be obligated to pay Harrodsburg up to $800,000 if Independence's board of directors withdraws or changes its recommendation to approve the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Harrodsburg, Independence's board recommends to its shareholders to tender their respective shares to a third party, or Independence enters into or (determines it must enter into) another merger agreement because it receives a superior proposal (as defined in the agreement); or

Harrodsburg will be obligated to pay Independence up to $800,000 if Harrodsburg's board of directors withdraws or changes its recommendation to approve the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Independence, Harrodsburg's board recommends to its shareholders to tender their respective shares to a third party, or Harrodsburg enters into or (determines it must enter into) another merger agreement because it receives a superior proposal (as defined in the agreement).

Exchange of Certificates

Harrodsburg will appoint an exchange agent to handle the exchange of Independence stock certificates for 1st Independence Financial stock certificates and the payment of cash for any fractional share. Promptly after the merger is completed, the exchange agent will send to each holder of Independence common stock a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange and instructions explaining how to surrender Independence certificates to the exchange agent. Holders of Independence common stock that surrender their certificates to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive the appropriate merger consideration. Holders of unexchanged shares of Independence common stock will not be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions payable by 1st Independence Financial after the effective time until their certificates are surrendered. However, when those certificates are surrendered for shares of 1st Independence Financial common stock, any unpaid dividends or distributions will be paid, without interest.

Table of Contents

No stock certificates representing fractional shares of 1st Independence Financial common stock will be issued upon the surrender of Independence stock certificates. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Harrodsburg will pay to each former shareholder of Independence who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of Harrodsburg common stock an amount in cash, without interest, determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of Harrodsburg common stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement by the average share price of the Harrodsburg common stock for the 5 trading-day period prior to the close of the merger.

After completion of the merger, no transfers of Independence common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be allowed. Independence stock certificates that are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be canceled and exchanged for the appropriate merger consideration.

Harrodsburg will only issue a 1st Independence Financial stock certificate in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Independence stock certificate is registered if you present the exchange agent with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership of the shares of Independence common stock formerly represented by such Independence stock certificate, and show that you paid any applicable stock transfer taxes.

If your Independence stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you may be required to deliver an affidavit and a lost certificate bond as a condition to receiving any Harrodsburg stock certificate to which you may be entitled.

As noted above, you should not send your stock certificate to Harrodsburg or Independence until you have received the letter of transmittal. However, if you cannot locate your stock certificate, please contact N. William White at Independence at (812) 944-1400, to make suitable arrangements in advance of the closing of the merger and the exchange of stock certificates.

Independence common stock certificates should not be returned with the enclosed proxy and should not be forwarded to the exchange agent until you receive the transmittal form.

Harrodsburg stock certificates will not be exchanged as part of the merger. Harrodsburg stock certificates will be exchanged for 1st Independence Financial certificates upon a subsequent transfer, or if a Harrodsburg shareholder specifically requests that 1st Independence Financial's transfer agent make the exchange.

Effective Time of the Merger

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

The merger will be consummated if the merger agreement is approved by Harrodsburg shareholders, Independence shareholders, Harrodsburg and Independence obtain all required consents, and all other conditions to the merger are either satisfied or waived. The merger will become effective on the date and at the time that the certificate of merger and articles of merger are filed with the Secretaries of State of the States of Delaware and Indiana, respectively, or such late date or time as may be indicated in such certificates. It is currently anticipated that the merger will occur in the second quarter of 2004. Harrodsburg and Independence each has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not completed by August 31, 2004.

Resale of 1st Independence Financial Common Stock By Affiliates of Independence

The 1st Independence Financial common stock issued pursuant to the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933, except for shares issued to any Independence shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Independence for purposes of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 or an affiliate of Independence for purposes of Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933. Affiliates will include persons (generally executive officers, directors and 10% shareholders) who control, are controlled by or are under common control with (1) Independence at the time of the annual meeting or (2) 1st Independence Financial at or after the effective time of the merger.

Rule 145 will restrict the sale of 1st Independence Financial common stock received in the merger by affiliates and certain of their family members and related interests. Generally speaking, during the year following the effective time of the merger, those persons who are affiliates of Independence at the time of the annual meeting, provided they are not affiliates of 1st Independence Financial at or following the effective time of the merger, may publicly resell any 1st Independence Financial common stock received by them in the merger, subject to certain limitations as to, among other things, the amount of Harrodsburg common stock sold by them in any three-month period and as to the manner of sale. After the one-year period, such affiliates may resell their shares without such restrictions so long as there is adequate current public information with respect to 1st Independence Financial as required by Rule 144. Persons who are affiliates of 1st Independence Financial after the effective time of the merger may publicly resell the 1st Independence Financial common stock received by them in the merger subject to similar limitations and subject to certain filing requirements specified in Rule 144.

The ability of affiliates to resell shares of 1st Independence Financial common stock received in the merger under Rules 144 or 145 as summarized herein generally will be subject to 1st Independence Financial's having satisfied its reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for specified periods prior to the time of sale. Affiliates also would be permitted to resell 1st Independence Financial common stock received in the merger pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 or another available exemption from the Securities Act of 1933 registration requirements. Neither the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part nor this proxy statement/prospectus cover any resales of 1st Independence Financial common stock received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Independence in the merger.

Independence has agreed in the merger agreement to cause each person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of it for purposes of Rule 145 to deliver to Harrodsburg a letter of agreement intended to ensure compliance with the Securities Act of 1933.

Shareholders Appraisal Rights

All of the Independence shareholders have the right under Indiana law to dissent from the merger and to demand and obtain cash payment of the appraised fair value of their shares of Independence common stock under the circumstances described below. Harrodsburg's shareholders, whose rights are governed by Delaware law, do not have the right to dissent from the merger and receive cash for the value of their shares, since Harrodsburg's shares of common stock are quoted on the Nasdaq National Market.

The appraised value that Independence shareholders obtain for their shares by dissenting may be less than, equal to or greater than the value of the 1st Independence Financial common stock you will receive under the merger agreement. If you fail to comply with the procedural requirements of Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the "IBCL"), you will lose your rights to dissent and seek payment of the appraised value of the shares.

The following is a summary of the IBCL, which specifies the procedures applicable to dissenting shareholders. This summary is not a complete statement of the law regarding the right of Independence's shareholders to dissent under Indiana law, and if you are considering dissenting, please review the provisions of the IBCL carefully. The text of the IBCL is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix E. Independence shareholders should be aware of the following:

To be entitled to dissent and seek appraisal you must:

before the vote is taken at the annual meeting of Independence shareholders, deliver to Independence written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the merger is effectuated, and not vote in favor of the merger in person or by proxy at the Independence annual meeting of shareholders.

If the merger is approved by the Independence shareholders, Harrodsburg will send a notice of dissenters' rights to those Independence shareholders satisfying the above conditions within ten days after the shareholder approval. The notice will state the procedures that must be followed to exercise dissenters' rights in accordance with the IBCL.

AN INDEPENDENCE SHAREHOLDER WHO DOES NOT DELIVER WRITTEN NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT AND EITHER VOTES AGAINST THE MERGER OR REFRAINS FROM VOTING WILL BE CONSIDERED NOT TO BE ENTITLED TO RIGHTS UNDER THE IBCL.

Independence shareholders who execute and return the enclosed proxy but do not specify a choice on the merger proposal will be deemed to have voted in favor of the merger and, accordingly to have waived their dissenters' rights, unless they revoke the proxy prior to its being voted.

Upon consummation of the merger, Harrodsburg will pay each dissenting Independence shareholder who has complied with all requirements of the IBCL and of the notice, its estimate of the fair value of the shares. Dissenters can object to the fair value by stating their estimate of the fair value and demanding payment of the additional amount claimed as fair value within 30 days after Harrodsburg makes or offers payments for the dissenters' shares. Harrodsburg can elect to agree to the dissenters' fair value demand or can commence an action in the Circuit or Superior Court of Floyd County, Indiana, within 60 days after receiving the demand for payment for a judicial determination of the fair value. The court can appoint appraisers to determine the fair value. The costs of the proceeding, including compensation and expenses of the appraisers, counsel for the parties, and experts, will be assessed against all parties to the action in such amounts as the court finds equitable. Each dissenter made a party to the action will be entitled to receive the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenters' shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by Harrodsburg.

TO PERFECT RIGHTS OF DISSENT, AN INDEPENDENCE SHAREHOLDER MUST NOT VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER AND MUST DELIVER A WRITTEN DEMAND FOR PAYMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE IBCL. THIS SUMMARY OF THE DISSENTERS' RIGHTS OF INDEPENDENCE SHAREHOLDERS DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE COMPLETE AND IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY THE STATUTORY PROVISIONS ATTACHED TO THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AS APPENDIX E. ANY INDIVIDUAL CONSIDERING EXERCISING RIGHTS OF DISSENT SHOULD CAREFULLY READ AND CONSIDER THE INFORMATION DISCLOSED IN APPENDIX E AND CONSULT WITH AN INDEPENDENT INVESTMENT ADVISOR BEFORE EXERCISING RIGHTS OF DISSENT.

Harrodsburg. Delaware law provides that the board of directors may propose amendments to a corporation's certificate of incorporation. Proposed amendments must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote, and a majority of each class entitled to vote thereon as a separate class, unless the certificate of incorporation requires a larger percentage. Additionally, Delaware law requires that, subject to specified exceptions, amendments must be approved by a separate vote of a class or series of stock whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the certificate of incorporation, if, among other things, the amendment would adversely affect the rights or preferences of such class or series.

Although Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation provides generally that amendments to the Harrodsburg certificate may be approved by a majority vote of the aggregate vote that the holders of the Harrodsburg's capital stock are entitled to cast on the amendment, a vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of capital stock eligible to be cast by shareholders at a meeting for election of directors is required for: (1) meetings of shareholders; (2) special meetings of shareholders; (3) shareholder proxies; (4) shareholder nominations and Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation prohibits shareholder action by written consent.

Independence. Under Indiana law, any action required to be taken at any annual or special shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if approved by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action. Dividends

Harrodsburg. Harrodsburg's ability to pay dividends on its common stock is governed by Delaware corporate law. Under Delaware corporate law, unless there are restrictions in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, dividends may be declared from the corporation's surplus, or, if there is no surplus, from its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and the preceding years. Dividends may not be declared, however, if the corporation's capital is less than the amount of all capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets.

Substantially all of the funds available for the payment by Harrodsburg of dividends come from the operations of its respective bank subsidiaries. There are various statutory limitations on the ability of these bank subsidiaries to pay dividends to Harrodsburg.

Independence. Under Indiana law, a board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its stockholders, subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation, provided that no distribution may be made if, after giving it effect, the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or the corporation's assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount needed, if the corporation were dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy preferential rights, upon dissolution, of stockholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Substantially all of the funds available for the payment by Independence of dividends come from the operations of its respective bank subsidiary. There are various statutory limitations that will limit the ability of Independence's bank subsidiary to pay dividends to Independence. Independence currently does not pay dividends to its shareholders.

Indemnification

Harrodsburg. Under Delaware law, directors, officers, employees and agents of a corporation may be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement under certain circumstances. In certain types of actions, suits or proceedings, whether they are civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by, or in the right of the corporation, i.e., a derivative action), such individuals may be indemnified against individual liability if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. A similar standard applies in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) resulting from the defense or settlement of such actions. In the case of derivative actions, Delaware law requires court approval before there can be any indemnification when the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation. To the extent that a person otherwise eligible to be indemnified is successful on the merits or otherwise of any claim or defense, indemnification is required for expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred.

Expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation in defending a proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay the amount of any advance if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized by Delaware law.

Harrodsburg's certificate and bylaws provide for the indemnification of its directors and officers, and of any person serving at the request of Harrodsburg as a director, officer or partner of another enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Harrodsburg under the provisions described above.

Table of Contents

Harrodsburg has been informed that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, and is therefore unenforceable.

Independence. Independence is subject to Indiana law with respect to indemnification. Indiana law is substantially the same as Delaware law in this area and Independence's articles of incorporation contain substantially the same provisions governing indemnification as does Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation. However, since Independence is not a public company, it would not be subject to above prohibitions under the Securities Act of 1933.

Business Combinations With Interested Parties

Harrodsburg. Delaware law generally prohibits a stockholder that owns 15% or more of a Delaware corporation's outstanding voting stock (which we refer to as an interested stockholder) from engaging in specified business combinations involving the corporation during the three years after the time the person became an interested stockholder unless, among other things:

prior to such time, the board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder.

upon the consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting outstanding at the time the transaction commenced; or at or subsequent to such time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and by the stockholders at a meeting by a vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock not owned by interested stockholders.

The business combinations subject to such restriction include, with specified exceptions, mergers, consolidations, sales of assets, issuances of stock and transactions providing a financial benefit with or to the interested stockholder. Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation contains an election, as permitted by Delaware law, to be exempt from such requirements.

The certificate of incorporation of Harrodsburg requires special approval for certain business combination transactions with a principal shareholder. Harrodsburg defines a principal shareholder as a person or company, combined with its respective affiliates, that beneficially owns 10% or more of the outstanding company's voting stock. Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation defines a business combination to include mergers, consolidations, sales of assets, issuance of stock, and transactions providing a financial benefit with or to the interested shareholder.

With exceptions, Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation requires that these types of transactions be approved by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of all of its outstanding voting stock, including the stock held by the interested party. In general, this special voting requirement applies to any merger or consolidation of the company with any interested party, any transaction which has the effect of increasing the proportionate interest of any interested party in the company's equity securities or any liquidation or dissolution of the company proposed by or on behalf of an interested party.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

Harrodsburg's special voting requirements described above will not apply to any business transaction if the transaction has been approved by two-thirds of Harrodsburg's board of directors prior to the interested party's acquisition of beneficial ownership of 10% or more of Harrodsburg's common stock. These special voting requirements will not apply to any business transaction involving Harrodsburg if after a person becomes an interested party the transaction is approved by 66 2/3% of those members of the Harrodsburg's board of directors who have no interest in the business transaction; or certain fair price and procedural requirements are met.

The provisions in Harrodsburg's certificate dealing with interested parties may not be amended without the approval of holders of not less than 80% of Harrodsburg's voting stock.

Table of Contents

Independence. Indiana law contains a business combination provision that is similar to Delaware law. Since, Independence shares are not registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, such provision does not apply to Independence.

Additionally, Indiana law also contains a control share statute that generally prohibits (1) control share acquisition, (2) the disgorgement of profits by certain controlling persons, (3) business transactions with interested stockholders, and (4) the ability of shareholders to put their stock following a control transaction. The control statute applies to Independence.

Independence's articles of incorporation provides that any business combination must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the voting stock that is eligible to be cast, which is not approved and recommended by the vote of at least 80% of the Independence's board of directors. All other business combinations require the majority of the votes eligible to be cast.

Fair Price Provisions

Harrodsburg. The Harrodsburg certificate of incorporation requires that any merger or business combination of Harrodsburg or any of its subsidiaries with a principal shareholder or any other corporation that is or would be an affiliate of a principal shareholder, requires the affirmative vote of at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of the then-outstanding stock of Harrodsburg entitled to vote, except in cases which either (i) certain price criteria and procedural requirements are satisfied, or (ii) the transaction is recommended to the shareholders by two-thirds of the continuing director. A principal shareholder is defined under the Harrodsburg certificate of incorporation as any person who or which:

is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 10% of the voting power of the then outstanding stock of Harrodsburg entitled to vote; or is an affiliate of Harrodsburg and at any time within the two-year period immediately prior to the date of any such business combination was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the voting power of the then outstanding stock of Harrodsburg entitled to vote; or is an assignee of or has otherwise succeeded to any shares of stock of Harrodsburg entitled to resale which were at any time within the two-year period immediately prior to the date of any such business combination beneficially owned by an such shareholder, if such assignment or succession shall have occurred in the course of a transaction or series of transactions not involving a public offering within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933.

A continuing director is defined under Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation as those members of Harrodsburg's board who is not affiliated with a principal shareholder and was a director of Harrodsburg prior to the time the principal shareholder became a principal shareholder.

Independence. Neither Independence's articles of incorporation or bylaws contain a fair price provision.

RATIFICATION OF THE 2004 OPTION PLAN

Harrodsburg shareholders are being asked to ratify the 2004 Stock Option Plan. The Harrodsburg board of directors adopted and ratified the 2004 Option Plan on February 17, 2004 and March 15, 2004, respectively, by unanimous consent, subject to approval by the shareholders of Harrodsburg at the annual meeting. The ratification of the 2004 stock option plan provides for authorizing the issuance of an additional 300,000 shares of Harrodsburg's common stock upon the exercise of stock options to be awarded to officers, directors, employees and other persons. The Harrodsburg board of directors is recommending the issuance of these additional shares solely because Harrodsburg has agreed to exchange the options of Independence's employees, executive officers and directors under the merger agreement. See The Merger Interests Of Certain Persons In The Merger That Are Different From Your Interests for a discussion of who will receive the awards and the amount of the awards. The number of shares available under the plan reflects the total grants agreed to in the merger agreement in addition to additional shares to be issued to officers, directors, employees and other persons from time to time. Currently, there are no plans to grant additional options under the plan except for the 67,000 shares that are to be exchanged in accordance with the merger agreement.

The Harrodsburg board of directors unanimously recommends that Harrodsburg shareholders vote FOR the ratification of the 2004 Option Plan.

Purpose Of The 2004 Option Plan

The purpose of the 2004 Option Plan is to enable Harrodsburg to attract officers and other key employees and consultants and to provide them with appropriate incentives and rewards for superior performance. The 2004 Option Plan affords Harrodsburg the ability to respond to changes in the competitive and legal environments by providing Harrodsburg with greater flexibility in key employee and executive compensation. The 2004 Option Plan is intended to encourage stock ownership by recipients by providing for or increasing their proprietary interests in Harrodsburg, thereby encouraging them to remain in the company's employment. The 2004 Option Plan has been prepared to comply with all applicable tax and securities laws, including Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and state and federal tax laws.

Description Of The 2004 Option Plan

The following general description of certain features of the 2004 Option Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the governing plan document which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix G.

General

Officers, directors, employees and other persons who are designated by the compensation committee will be eligible to receive, at no cost to them, awards under the 2004 Option Plan (the 2004 Optionees). Each award granted pursuant to the 2004 Option Plan shall be evidenced by an instrument in such form as the compensation committee shall from time to time approve. It is anticipated that awards granted under the 2004 Option Plan would constitute either incentive stock options (options meeting the requirements under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (Code)), non-qualified stock options, or performance awards. Option shares may be paid for in cash, shares of Common Stock, or a combination of both. Harrodsburg will receive no monetary consideration for the granting of awards under the 2004 Option Plan. Further, Harrodsburg will receive no consideration other than the option exercise price per share for common stock issued to 2004 Optionees upon the exercise of their options.

Shares issuable under the 2004 Option Plan may be from authorized but unissued shares, treasury shares or shares purchased in the open market. An award which expires, becomes unexercisable, or is forfeited for any reason prior to its exercise or the lapse of any applicable restrictions will again be available for issuance under the 2004 Option Plan. No award or any right or interest therein is assignable or transferable except by will or the laws of descent and distribution. The 2004 Option Plan shall continue in effect for a term of ten years from the 2004 Option Plan effective date.

Types of Options and Awards

The compensation committee may grant incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options, or performance awards. In general, if a 2004 Optionee ceases to serve as an employee of Harrodsburg for any reason other than death, retirement or disability, an exercisable Incentive Stock Option may continue to be exercisable for three months but in no event after the expiration date of the option, except as may otherwise be determined by the compensation committee at the time of the award. In the event of the death of a 2004 Optionee during employment or termination of employment due to disability, an exercisable incentive stock option will continue to be exercisable for one year, to the extent exercisable by the 2004 Optionee immediately prior to the 2004 Optionee's death or termination of employment due to disability but only if, and to the extent that, a 2004 Optionee was entitled to exercise such incentive stock options on the date of death or termination of employment due to disability. Upon the retirement of a 2004 Optionee, the incentive stock options shall be immediately exercisable for the lesser of one year or the remaining term of such options. In the event of death, termination of employment due to disability, retirement or other termination of service of a 2004 Optionee, exercisable non-qualified stock options shall remain exercisable for six (6) months from such date or if less, for the remaining term of such options.

The exercise price for the purchase of common stock subject to an option may not be less than one hundred percent (100%) of the fair market value of the common stock covered by the option on the date of grant of such option (in regard to incentive stock options issued to a 10% shareholder, may not be less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the fair market value of the common stock). No more than $100,000 of incentive stock options can become exercisable for the first time in any one year for any one person. The Compensation Committee may impose additional conditions upon the right of a 2004 Optionee to exercise any option granted hereunder which are not inconsistent with the terms of the 2004 Option Plan or the requirements for qualification as an incentive stock option, if such option is intended to qualify as an incentive stock option.

No shares of common stock shall be issued upon the exercise of an option until full payment therefore has been received by Harrodsburg, and no 2004 Optionee shall have any of the rights of a stockholder of Harrodsburg until shares of common stock are issued to such 2004 Optionee.

The 2004 Option Plan provides that the board of directors of Harrodsburg may authorize the compensation committee to direct the execution of an instrument providing for the modification, extension or renewal of any outstanding option, provided that no such modification, extension or renewal shall confer on the 2004 Optionee any right or benefit which could not be conferred on the 2004 Optionee by the grant of a new option at such time, and shall not materially decrease the 2004 Optionee's benefits under the option without the 2004 Optionee's consent, except as otherwise provided under the 2004 Option Plan.

Award Grants Under the 2004 Option Plan

The board of directors or the compensation committee shall from time to time determine the officers, directors, employees and other persons who shall be granted options, or performance awards under the 2004 Option Plan, the number of options or performance shares to be granted to any individual, and with respect to options, whether the options granted will be incentive stock options and/or non-qualified stock options. In selecting 2004 Optionees and in determining the number of options to be granted, the Harrodsburg board or the compensation committee may consider the nature of the services rendered by each such individual, each individual's current and potential contribution to Harrodsburg and such other factors as may be deemed relevant. The 2004 Optionees may, if otherwise eligible, be granted additional options.

Options may be granted to newly appointed or elected non-employee directors within the sole discretion of the 2004 option committee, and the exercise price shall be equal to the fair market value of such common stock on the date of grant. The options granted to non-employee directors on the 2004 Plan effective date will vest 25% as of the date of grant, and thereafter at the rate of 25% as of each one year anniversary of the grant during such period of service as a director. Such options granted to non-employee directors will remain exercisable for up to ten years from the date of grant.

Effect of Sale Event and Other Adjustments

Subject to any required action by the shareholders of Harrodsburg, within the sole discretion of the board or pursuant to the board's delegation of authority or the compensation committee, the aggregate number of shares of common stock for which options may be granted hereunder or the number of shares of common stock represented by each outstanding option will be proportionately adjusted for any increase or decrease in the number of issued and outstanding shares of common stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of shares or the payment of a stock dividend or any other increase or decrease in the number of shares of common stock effected without the receipt or payment of consideration by Harrodsburg. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of Harrodsburg, in the event of any change in control, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, exchange of shares, spin-off, reorganization, tender offer, partial or complete liquidation or other extraordinary corporate action or event, the compensation committee, in its sole discretion, shall have the power, prior to or subsequent to such action or events, to (i) appropriately adjust the number of shares of common stock subject to options, the exercise price per share of such option, and the consideration to be given or received by Harrodsburg upon the exercise of any outstanding options; (ii) cancel any or all previously granted options, provided that appropriate consideration is paid to the 2004

Optionee in connection therewith; and/or (iii) make such other adjustments in connection with the 2004 Option Plan as the compensation committee, in its sole discretion, deems necessary, desirable, appropriate or advisable. However, no action may be taken by the compensation committee which would cause Incentive Stock Options granted pursuant to the 2004 Option Plan to fail to meet the requirements of Section 422 of the Code without the consent of the 2004 Optionee.

The compensation committee will at all times have the power to accelerate the exercise date of all options granted under the 2004 Option Plan. In the case of a sale event of Harrodsburg as determined by the compensation committee in accordance with the terms of the 2004 Option Plan, all outstanding options shall become immediately exercisable. A sale event means the consummation of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of Harrodsburg, (ii) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Harrodsburg to an unrelated person or entity, (iii) a merger, reorganization or consolidation in which the holders of Harrodsburg's outstanding voting power immediately prior to such transaction do not own a majority of the outstanding voting power of the surviving or resulting entity immediately upon completion of such transaction, or (iv) any other transaction, regardless of the form of the transaction, in which the owners of Harrodsburg's outstanding voting power prior to such transaction do not own at least a majority of the outstanding voting power of the relevant entity after the transaction.

In the event of a sale event, the compensation committee and the board of directors will take one or more of the following actions to be effective as of the date of such change in control: (i) provide that such options shall be assumed, or equivalent options shall be substituted, (Substitute Options) by the acquiring or succeeding company (or an affiliate thereof), provided that: (A) any such substitute options exchanged for incentive stock options shall meet the requirements of Section 424(a) of the Code, and (B) the shares of stock issuable upon the exercise of such Substitute Options shall constitute securities registered in accordance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (1933 Act) or such securities shall be exempt from such registration in accordance with Sections 3(a)(2) or 3(a)(5) of the 1933 Act (collectively, Registered Securities), or in the alternative, if the securities issuable upon the exercise of such substitute options shall not constitute registered securities, then the 2004 Optionee will receive upon consummation of the change in control a cash payment for each option surrendered equal to the difference between (1) the fair market value of the consideration to be received for each share of common stock in the change in control times the number of shares of common stock subject to such surrendered options, and (2) the aggregate exercise price of all such surrendered options, or (ii) in the event of a transaction under the terms of which the holders of the common stock of the Company will receive upon consummation thereof a cash payment (the Merger Price) for each share of common stock exchanged in the change in control transaction, to make or to provide for a cash payment to the 2004 Optionees equal to the difference between (A) the Merger Price times the number of shares of common stock subject to such options held by each 2004 Optionee (to the extent then exercisable at prices not in excess of the Merger Price) and (B) the aggregate exercise price of all such surrendered options in exchange for such surrendered options.

The compensation committee shall have the power reserved to it in the governing document of the 2004 Option Plan to make adjustments in the number of shares subject to options and canceling options, and make similar adjustments necessitated in connection with the occurrence of an extraordinary corporate action.

Amendment and Termination of the 2004 Option Plan

The board of directors may alter, suspend or discontinue the 2004 Option Plan, except that no action of the board shall increase the maximum number of shares of common stock issuable under the 2004 Option Plan, materially increase the benefits accruing to 2004 Optionees under the 2004 Option Plan or materially modify the requirements for eligibility for participation in the 2004 Option Plan unless such action of the Board shall be subject to approval or ratification by the stockholders of Harrodsburg.

Possible Dilutive Effects of the 2004 Option Plan

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

The common stock to be issued upon the exercise of options awarded under the 2004 Option Plan may either be from authorized but unissued shares of common stock or shares purchased in the open market. Because the stockholders of Harrodsburg do not have preemptive rights, to the extent that Harrodsburg funds the 2004 Option Plan, in whole or in part, with authorized but unissued shares, the interests of current stockholders may be diluted.

Table of Contents

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a brief summary of certain of the Federal income tax consequences of certain transactions under the 2004 Option Plan. This summary is not intended to be exhaustive and does not describe state or local tax consequences.

Non-qualified stock options. Non-qualified stock options granted under the Option Plan do not qualify as incentive stock options and will not qualify for any special tax benefits to the 2004 Optionee. A 2004 Optionee generally will not recognize any taxable income at the time he or she is granted a non-qualified option. However, upon its exercise, the 2004 Optionee will recognize ordinary income for federal income tax purposes measured by the excess of the then fair market value of the shares over the exercise price. The income realized by the 2004 Optionee will be subject to income and other employee withholding taxes. The 2004 Optionee's basis for determination of gain or loss upon the subsequent disposition of shares acquired upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option will be the amount paid for such shares plus any ordinary income recognized as a result of the exercise of such option. Upon disposition of any shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of a non-qualified stock option, the difference between the sale price and the 2004 Optionee's basis in the shares will be treated as a capital gain or loss and generally will be characterized as long-term capital gain or loss if the shares have been held for more than one year at their disposition. In general, there will be no federal income tax deduction allowed to Harrodsburg upon the grant or termination of a non-qualified stock option or a sale or disposition of the shares acquired upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option. However, upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option, Harrodsburg will be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes equal to the amount of ordinary income that an 2004 Optionee is required to recognize as a result of the exercise, provided that the deduction is not otherwise disallowed under the Code.

Incentive Stock Options. If an option granted under the Option Plan is treated as an incentive stock option, the 2004 Optionee will not recognize any income upon either the grant or the exercise of the option, and Harrodsburg will not be allowed a deduction for federal tax purposes. Upon a sale of the shares, the tax treatment to the 2004 Optionee and Harrodsburg will depend primarily upon whether the 2004 Optionee has met certain holding period requirements at the time he or she sells the shares. In addition, as discussed below, the exercise of an incentive stock option may subject the 2004 Optionee to alternative minimum tax liability. If a 2004 Optionee exercises an incentive stock option and does not dispose of the shares received within two years after the date of such option or within one year after the transfer of the shares to him or her, any gain realized upon the disposition will be characterized as long-term capital gain and, in such case, Harrodsburg will not be entitled to a federal tax deduction.

If the 2004 Optionee disposes of the shares either within two years after the date the option is granted or within one year after the transfer of the shares to him or her, such disposition will be treated as a disqualifying disposition and an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise minus the purchase price, or (2) the amount realized on the disposition minus the purchase price, will be taxed as ordinary income to the 2004 Optionee in the taxable year in which the disposition occurs. However, in the case of gifts, sales to related parties, and certain other transactions, the full difference between the fair market value of the stock and the purchase price will be treated as compensation income. The excess, if any, of the amount realized upon disposition over the fair market value at the time of the exercise of the option will be treated as long-term capital gain if the shares have been held for more than one year following the exercise of the option.

The exercise of an incentive stock option may subject an 2004 Optionee to alternative minimum tax liability because the excess of the fair market value of the shares at the time an incentive stock option is exercised over the purchase price of the shares is included in income for purposes of the alternative minimum tax even though it is not included in taxable income for purposes of determining the regular tax liability of an employee. Consequently, a 2004 Optionee may be obligated to pay alternative minimum tax in the year he or she exercises an incentive stock option.

In general, there will be no federal income tax deductions allowed to Harrodsburg upon the grant, exercise or termination of an incentive stock option. However, in the event an 2004 Optionee sells or disposes of stock received on the exercise of an incentive stock option in a disqualifying disposition, Harrodsburg will be entitled to a

deduction for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the ordinary income, if any, recognized by the 2004 Optionee upon disposition of the shares, provided that the deduction is not otherwise disallowed under the Code.

Performance Shares. A recipient of a performance share award generally will be subject to tax at ordinary income rates on the fair market value of the performance shares reduced by any amount paid by the recipient at such time as the shares are awarded.

Shareholder Ratification

Shareholder ratification of the 2004 Option Plan is being sought to qualify the 2004 Option Plan for the granting of incentive stock options in accordance with the Code, to enable 2004 Optionees to qualify for certain exempt transactions related to the short-swing profit recapture provisions of Section 16(b) of the 1934 Act, to meet the requirements under the rules of the Nasdaq National Market for continued listing of Harrodsburg's common stock, and to meet the requirements for the tax-deductibility of certain compensation items under Section 162(m) of the Code. An affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes cast at the meeting in person or by proxy is required to constitute stockholder ratification of this Proposal.

DESCRIPTION OF HARRODSBURG CAPITAL STOCK

General

The authorized capital stock of Harrodsburg consists of 5,000,000 shares of Harrodsburg common stock, par value of $0.10 per share, and 500,000 shares of preferred stock, par value of $0.10 per share. As of March 22, 2004 there were 1,222,978 shares of Harrodsburg common stock outstanding and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. Upon completion of the merger, we expect there to be up to 1.9 million shares of Harrodsburg common stock outstanding, based on the outstanding number of shares of Harrodsburg common stock and Independence common stock as of March 22, 2004.

The Harrodsburg common stock will represent capital that cannot be withdrawn. In addition, the Harrodsburg common stock will not be an account of an insurable type and will not be insured by the FDIC.

Common Stock

Dividends. Harrodsburg can pay dividends out of statutory surplus or from certain net profits if, as and when declared by its board of directors. Decisions concerning the payment of dividends on Harrodsburg common stock will depend upon Harrodsburg's results of operations, financial condition and capital expenditure plans as well as such other factors as the board of directors, in its sole discretion, may consider relevant. In addition, the payment of dividends by Harrodsburg is subject to limitations which are imposed by Delaware law. Holders of Harrodsburg common stock will be entitled to receive and share equally in such dividends as may be declared by the board of directors out of funds that are legally available. If Harrodsburg issues preferred stock, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the Harrodsburg common stock with respect to dividends.

Voting Rights. Each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote per share. Holders of Harrodsburg common stock do not have any right to cumulate votes in the election of directors. Harrodsburg's certificate of incorporation provides that holders of common stock who own or may be considered to own more than 10% of the outstanding shares of common stock can only vote their stock up to the 10% limit. Certain matters require an 80% shareholder vote to approve. Those matters are set forth in more detail in Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders Amendment of Certificate/Articles and Bylaws. If Harrodsburg issues preferred stock, holders of the preferred stock may also possess voting rights.

Liquidation. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Harrodsburg, the holders of its common stock would be entitled to receive, after payment or provision for payment of all its debts and liabilities, all of the assets of Harrodsburg available for distribution. If preferred stock is issued, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the Harrodsburg common stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution.

Table of Contents

Preemptive Rights. Holders of Harrodsburg common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any shares that may be issued. The Harrodsburg common stock is not subject to redemption.

Preferred Stock

Harrodsburg has not issued any shares of preferred stock. However, preferred stock may be issued with such preferences and designations as the board of directors may from time to time determine. The board of directors can, without shareholder approval, issue preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion rights which could dilute the voting strength of the holders of the common stock and may assist management in impeding an unfriendly takeover or attempted change in control.

Anti-Takeover Considerations

Delaware law and the Harrodsburg amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain a number of provisions which may have the effect of discouraging transactions that involve an actual or threatened change in control of Harrodsburg. For a description of the provisions, see Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders Amendment of Certificate/Articles and Bylaws, Business Combinations With Interested Parties, and Fair Price Provisions.

by Harrodsburg shareholders in order to consummate the merger. The last two proposals are more fully discussed under the heading "Additional Information Regarding the Harrodsburg Annual Meeting" on page 91.

Harrodsburg shareholders also may consider and vote upon any other matters that may properly come before the Harrodsburg annual meeting, including approval of any adjournment of the annual meeting. As of the date of this document, the Harrodsburg board of directors is not aware of any other business to be presented for consideration at the meeting.

Matters to be Considered at the Independence Annual Meeting. At the Independence annual meeting, Independence shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon:

The adoption of the merger agreement, and

Election of three directors of Independence's board.

The first proposal is more fully discussed under the heading "the Merger" on page 51. The proposal to elect directors is more fully discussed under the heading "Certain Beneficial Owners and Management" on page 76.

Independence shareholders also may consider and vote upon any other matters that may properly come before the meeting, including approval of any adjournment of the meeting. Voting Rights of Shareholders; Votes Required for Approval

Voting Rights of Harrodsburg Shareholders. The Harrodsburg board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 22, 2004 as the record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the Harrodsburg meeting. Only holders of record of Harrodsburg common stock on that record date are entitled to vote at the meeting. Each share of Harrodsburg common stock you own entitles you to one vote. On the Harrodsburg record date, 1,222,978 shares of Harrodsburg common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote at the Harrodsburg annual meeting.

Each participant in the Harrodsburg Employee Stock Ownership Plan instructs the trustee how to vote his or her allocated shares. The trustee votes unallocated shares in the manner directed by the majority of the allocated shares for which it received instructions. If a participant does not give timely instructions, the trustee votes the allocated shares in its discretion.

Vote Required for Adoption of the Merger Agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Harrodsburg common stock is required to adopt the merger agreement and approve the issuance of Harrodsburg common stock in the merger. The Harrodsburg board unanimously recommends that Harrodsburg shareholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the issuance of shares in the merger.

Because adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the Harrodsburg common stock outstanding, abstentions and failure to vote will have the same effect as votes against the merger. Under the Nasdaq Stock Market rules, your broker may not vote your shares on the merger without instructions from you. Without your voting instructions, a broker non-vote will occur and will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Harrodsburg common stock present and voting on the matter may approve all other proposals to be considered at the Harrodsburg meeting except the election of directors, which is done by a plurality of the votes cast. See Additional Information Regarding the Harrodsburg Annual Meeting on page 91.

A majority of shares present may also authorize the adjournment of the Harrodsburg annual meeting. No proxy that is voted against the merger will be voted in favor of adjournment to solicit further proxies in favor of the merger.

Voting Rights of Independence Shareholders. The Independence board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 22, 2004 as the record date for shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Independence annual meeting. Only holders of record of Independence common stock on the record date are entitled to vote at the Independence annual meeting. Each share of Independence common stock you own entitles you to one vote. On the Independence record date, there were 889,690 shares of Independence common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Independence annual meeting, held by approximately 110 shareholders of record.

Vote Required for Adoption of the Merger Agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Independence common stock outstanding is required to adopt the merger agreement. The Independence board recommends that Independence shareholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Because approval of the Independence proposal to adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Independence common stock outstanding, abstentions and failures to vote will have the same effect as votes against the merger. Under the Nasdaq Stock Market rules, your broker may not vote your shares on the merger without instructions from you. Without your voting instructions, a broker non-vote will occur and will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast. See Certain Beneficial Owners and Management on page 76.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of shares of Independence common stock entitled to vote is required to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Independence common stock present and voting on the matter may authorize the adjournment of the meeting. No proxy that is voted against the merger will be voted in favor of adjournment to solicit further proxies in favor of the merger.

Voting of Proxies; Revocability of Proxies

Voting of Proxies. You may vote in person at your meeting or by proxy. To ensure your representation at the meeting, please vote by proxy even if you plan to attend your meeting. You can always change your vote at the meeting. Remember, if your shares are held in the name of a broker or other nominee, only your broker or such nominee can vote your shares and only after receiving instructions from you on how to vote the shares. Please contact the person responsible for your account and instruct him or her to execute a proxy card on your behalf.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. If you properly give your proxy and submit it to us in time to vote, the persons named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed. You may vote for or against the proposal(s) set forth on your proxy card and described in this document or abstain from voting. If you submit your proxy but do not make a specific choice as to how to vote, your proxy will follow the Harrodsburg board's or Independence board's recommendation and vote your shares FOR the proposal(s).

If any other matters are properly presented for consideration at the Harrodsburg annual meeting or Independence annual meeting, the persons named in the relevant form of proxy will have the discretion to vote on those matters in accordance with their best judgment. Neither Harrodsburg nor Independence is aware of any other matters to be presented at its respective shareholders' meeting other than those described in its notice of meeting.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

You may receive more than one proxy card depending on how your shares are held. For example, you may hold some of your shares individually, some jointly with your spouse and some in trust for your children in which case you will receive three separate proxy cards to vote.

Revocability of Proxies. You may revoke your proxy before it is voted by:

submitting a new proxy with a later date, notifying your company's secretary in writing before the meeting that you have revoked your proxy, or voting in person at your meeting.

Table of Contents

If you plan to attend your company's meeting and wish to vote in person, we will give you a ballot at the meeting. However, if your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring a legal proxy from the nominee, indicating that you were the beneficial owner of common stock on the appropriate record date and giving you the right to vote those.

Do not send in any stock certificates with your proxy cards. As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail transmittal forms with instructions for the surrender of stock certificates for Independence common stock to former Independence shareholders.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE HARRODSBURG ANNUAL MEETING

In addition to the adoption of the merger agreement, Harrodsburg shareholders are being asked to vote on the ratification of one benefit plan, the election of two directors, and the ratification of auditors.

Vote Required for Approval of Proposals Other than the Merger. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of shares of common stock entitled to vote is required to constitute a quorum at the meeting. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. Approval of the amendment of the benefit plan and ratification of the appointment of BKD, LLP requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Harrodsburg common stock present and voting on these matters. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining a quorum at the meeting; however, abstaining shares will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the amendment of the benefit plans and ratification of the auditor proposal while non-voted shares will have no effect on the amendment of the benefit plans and ratification of the auditor proposal. Abstentions and non-voted shares will have no effect on the election of directors.

Principal Holders

Persons and groups owning in excess of 5% of the common stock are required to file certain reports regarding such ownership pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"). The following table sets forth, as of the record date, persons or groups who own more than 5% of the common stock. Other than as noted below, management knows of no person or group that owns more than 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock at the record date.

Name of Beneficial Owner	Amount and Nature of Beneficial Ownership	Percent of Shares of Common Stock Outstanding (%)

⁽¹⁾ The Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) purchased such shares for the exclusive benefit of plan participants with funds borrowed from the Company. These shares are held in a suspense account and will be allocated among ESOP participants annually on the basis of compensation as the ESOP debt is repaid. The board of directors of the Bank has appointed a committee consisting of non-employee directors Coleman, Letton and Shryock to serve as the ESOP administrative committee (ESOP Committee) and to serve as the ESOP trustees (ESOP Trustee). The ESOP Committee or the board instructs the ESOP Trustee regarding investment of ESOP plan assets. The ESOP Trustee must vote all shares allocated to participant accounts under the ESOP as directed by participants. Unallocated shares and shares for which no timely voting direction is received, will be voted by the ESOP Trustee as directed by the ESOP Committee. Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting

Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act requires Harrodsburg's directors and executive officers to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of their equity securities of Harrodsburg with the Securities and Exchange Commission and to furnish Harrodsburg with copies of such reports. To the best of Harrodsburg's knowledge, all of the filings by Harrodsburg's directors and executive officers were made on a timely basis during the 2003 fiscal year. Harrodsburg is not aware of other beneficial owners of more than ten percent of its common stock.

Election Of Directors

The Certificate of Incorporation requires that directors be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, each class to serve for a three year period, with approximately one-third of the directors elected each year. The Board of Directors currently consists of seven members, each of whom also serves as a director of First Financial Bank.

Jack L. Coleman, Jr. and Thomas Les Letton (the Nominees) have been nominated by the board of directors for a term of three years (the Nominees). The Nominees currently serve as directors for Harrodsburg. The Nominees will serve for their respective terms or until his successor has been elected and qualified.

The persons named as proxies in the enclosed proxy card intend to vote for the election of the Nominees, unless the proxy card is marked to indicate that such authorization is expressly withheld. Should the Nominees withdraw or be unable to serve (which the board of directors does not expect) or should any other vacancy occur in the board of directors, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote for the election of such person as may be recommended to the board of directors by the nominating committee of the board. If there are no substitute nominees, the size of the board of directors may be reduced. Beneficial ownership of directors and executive officers of Harrodsburg, as a group, is also shown in this table.

The loans have been made in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the bank's other customers, and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility, or present other unfavorable features.

An Independence Acquisition Proposal which is received and considered by the Independence Board in compliance with this Section 5.6(a) and which meets the requirements set forth in clause (D) of the preceding sentence is herein referred to as an Independence Superior Proposal. Independence agrees that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Independence Acquisition Proposals. Independence agrees that it will notify Harrodsburg if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, Independence, Independence Bank, or any of its representatives.

(b) Harrodsburg agrees that neither it nor any of the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries' directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation or similar transaction involving Harrodsburg or any of the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries, or any purchase of all or substantially all of the assets of Harrodsburg or any of the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries or more than 10% of the outstanding equity securities of Harrodsburg or any of the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries (any such proposal or offer being hereinafter referred to as Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal). Harrodsburg further agrees that neither Harrodsburg nor any of the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries' directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any Person relating to a Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal, or otherwise facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement a Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent Harrodsburg or the Harrodsburg Subsidiaries' Boards from (A) complying with their disclosure obligations under federal or state law; (B) providing information in response to a request therefor by a Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal if Harrodsburg or the Harrodsburg Subsidiary's Board receives from the Person so requesting such information an executed confidentiality agreement; (C) engaging in any negotiations or discussions with any Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal or (D) recommending such Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal to the stockholders of Harrodsburg, if and only to the extent that, in each such case referred to in clause (B), (C) or (D) above, (i) the Harrodsburg Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that such action would be required in order for its directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law and (ii) the Harrodsburg Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor) that such Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal, if accepted, is reasonably likely to be consummated, taking into account all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal and would, if consummated, result in a transaction more favorable to Harrodsburg's shareholders from a financial point of view than the Merger. A Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposal which is received and considered by the Harrodsburg Board in compliance with this Section 5.6(b) and which meets the requirements set forth in clause (D) of the preceding sentence is herein referred to as a Harrodsburg Superior Proposal. Harrodsburg agrees that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Harrodsburg Acquisition Proposals. 8.7 Expenses. Each party hereto will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions contemplated hereby, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel and, in the case of Harrodsburg, the registration fee to be paid to the SEC in connection with the Registration Statement, except that expenses of printing the Proxy Statement shall be shared equally between Independence and Harrodsburg, and provided further that nothing contained herein shall limit either party's rights to recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

8.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

8.9 Entire Understanding; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement and the Shareholder Agreements represent the entire understanding of the parties hereto and thereto with reference to the Transaction, and this Agreement and the Shareholder Agreements supersede any and all other oral or written agreements heretofore made. 8.10 Severability. Except to the extent that application of this Section 8.9 would have a Material Adverse Effect on Independence or Harrodsburg, any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable. In all such cases, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute

OPINION OF KEEFE, BRUYETTE & WOODS, INC.

January 22, 2004

Board of Directors

Harrodsburg First Financial Bancorp, Inc.

104 South Chiles Street

Harrodsburg, KY 40330

Dear Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as an independent investment banking firm regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Harrodsburg First Financial Bancorp, Inc. (Harrodsburg) of the consideration to be paid by Harrodsburg in the merger (the Merger) between the Harrodsburg and Independence Bancorp (Independence). We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, Harrodsburg 's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Merger.

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated January 22, 2004 between Harrodsburg and Independence (the Agreement), at the effective time of the Merger, Harrodsburg will exchange one share of Harrodsburg Common Stock for each share of Independence Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio or Merger Consideration). The complete terms of the proposed transaction are described in the Agreement, and this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the evaluation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, and distributions of listed and unlisted securities. We are familiar with the market for common stocks of publicly traded banks, savings institutions and bank and savings institution holding companies.

In connection with this opinion, we reviewed publicly available financial data relating to Harrodsburg including: Annual Report and Form 10-KSB for the years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, internal financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2003 and other information we deemed relevant. We discussed with senior management of Harrodsburg the current position and prospective outlook for Harrodsburg. We considered historical quotations and the prices of recorded transactions in Harrodsburg 's common stock. We reviewed financial and stock market data of other savings institutions, particularly in the Southeastern region of the United States, and the financial and structural terms of several other recent transactions involving mergers and acquisitions where the acquirer was a savings institution.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

For Independence, we reviewed financial data relating to Independence Bancorp and Independence Bank including: the December 31, 2002 and 2001 audited financial statements, quarterly FDIC call reports from March 31, 2003 through September 30, 2003, unaudited December 31, 2003 financial statements and other information we deemed relevant. For purposes of this opinion we have relied, without independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of the material furnished to us by Independence, including information from published sources, and we have not made any independent effort to verify such data. With respect to the financial information, including projections and asset valuations we received from Independence, we assumed that they had been reasonably prepared reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of Independence management. In addition, we have not made or obtained any independent appraisals or evaluations of the assets or liabilities, and potential and/or contingent liabilities of Independence. We have further relied on the assurances of management of Independence that they are not aware of any facts that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax, or accounting nature; or the ability of the Merger, as set forth in the Agreement, to be consummated.

Table of Contents

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the Merger, no restrictions or conditions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger to the Harrodsburg or the ability to consummate the Merger. Our opinion is based on the market, economic, and other relevant considerations as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof.

Consistent with the engagement letter with you, we have acted as financial advisor to the Harrodsburg in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for such services. In addition, the Harrodsburg has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement by the Harrodsburg in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, as outlined in the foregoing paragraphs and based on such other matters as we considered relevant, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be paid by Harrodsburg in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Harrodsburg.

This opinion may not be summarized, excerpted from, or otherwise publicly referred to without our prior written consent, although this opinion may be included in its entirety in the proxy statement/prospectus of Harrodsburg used to solicit stockholder approval of the Merger. It is understood that this letter is directed to the Board of Directors of the Harrodsburg in its consideration of the Agreement, and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

APPENDIX C

OPINION OF DAVID A. NOYES & COMPANY

CONFIDENTIAL

January 22, 2004

Board of Directors

Independence Bancorp

3801 Charlestown Road

New Albany, IN 47151

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of outstanding shares of common stock of Independence Bancorp (Independence) (Independence Common Stock), of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (Agreement), dated as of January 22, 2004, by and between Harrodsburg First Financial Bancorp, Inc. (Harrodsburg), First Financial Bank, Independence and Independence Bank. The Agreement provides for the merger of Independence with and into Harrodsburg (the Merger), pursuant to which, among other things, each share of Independence common stock will be exchanged for one share of Harrodsburg (Harrodsburg) Common Stock (Harrodsburg Common Stock) as follows:

Generally, each share of Independence Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares of Independence Common Stock held directly or indirectly by Independence or Harrodsburg (except shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted, if any)), shall be converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration.

David A. Noyes & Company, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of commercial bank and thrift securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of commercial banking and thrift organizations, Noyes has extensive experience in, and knowledge of, the commercial banking and thrift industries and their participants.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-KSB of Harrodsburg for the three years ended September 30, 2003; Consolidated Financial Statements and Independent Auditors Reports for Independence for the three years ended December 31, 2002; certain interim financial reports to stockholders of Independence and Harrodsburg; and certain other communications from Independence and Harrodsburg to their respective shareholders.

We also have held discussions with members of the senior management of Independence and Harrodsburg regarding the strategic rationale for, and potential benefits of, the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies. In addition, we have reviewed the price and trading activity for Harrodsburg Common Stock, and compared certain financial and stock market information for Harrodsburg with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded. We also reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed, with your consent, that such allowances for each of Independence and Harrodsburg are in the aggregate adequate to cover all such losses. Similarly, we have assumed, without independent analysis, that the obligations of Independence and Harrodsburg pursuant to derivatives, swaps, foreign exchange, financial instruments and off-balance sheet lending-related financial instruments will not have an adverse effect which would be relevant to our analysis. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Independence or Harrodsburg or any of their subsidiaries, and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Our opinion as to the fairness of the Exchange Ratios addresses the ownership position in Harrodsburg to be received by the holders of Independence Common Stock pursuant to the Exchange Ratios on the terms set forth in the Agreement and does not address the future trading or acquisition value for the stock of Harrodsburg. In addition, our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger and alternative business strategies. In that regard, we were requested to, and did, solicit third party indications of interest in acquiring all or part of Independence. We also have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles and that obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals and third party consents for the Merger or otherwise will not have an adverse effect on Independence or Harrodsburg pursuant to the Merger.

Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of Independence in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Independence Common Stock should vote with respect to such transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and based upon such other matters as we consider relevant, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Independence Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

DAVID A. NOYES & COMPANY

FORM OF HARRODSBURG SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT

SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT (the Agreement) dated as of _____, 2004, among _____, a shareholder (Shareholder) of Independence Bancorp, an Indiana corporation (Independence) and Harrodsburg First Financial Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Harrodsburg). All terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Merger Agreement (defined below).

WHEREAS, Harrodsburg, First Financial Bank, a federally chartered stock savings bank (First Financial), Independence, and Independence Bank, an Indiana state-chartered bank (Independence Bank) are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of the date hereof (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Independence will merge with and into Harrodsburg on the terms and conditions set forth therein (the Merger) and, in connection therewith, outstanding shares of Independence Common Stock will be converted into shares of Harrodsburg Common Stock in the manner set forth therein; and

WHEREAS, Shareholder owns the shares of Independence Common Stock identified on Exhibit I hereto (such shares, together with all shares of Independence Common Stock subsequently acquired by Shareholder during the term of this Agreement, being referred to as the Shares); and

WHEREAS, in order to induce Independence and Independence Bank to enter into the Merger Agreement, Shareholder, solely in such Shareholder's capacity as a shareholder of Independence and not in any other capacity, has agreed to enter into and perform this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

3. Agreement to Vote Shares. Shareholder agrees that at any meeting of the stockholders of Harrodsburg, or in connection with any written consent of the stockholders of Independence, Shareholder shall:

(i) appear at each such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum; and

(ii) vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, or deliver a written consent (or cause a consent to be delivered) covering, all the Shares (whether acquired heretofore or hereafter) that are beneficially owned by Shareholder or as to which Shareholder has, directly or indirectly, the right to vote or direct the voting, (x) in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger; (y) against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Independence contained in the Merger Agreement or of Shareholder contained in this Agreement; and (z) against any Acquisition Proposal or any other action, agreement or transaction that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to materially impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect consummation of the Merger or this Agreement.

4. No Transfers. Prior to the Harrodsburg Shareholders Meeting, Shareholder agrees not to, directly or indirectly, sell transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, pledge, assignment or other disposition of, any of the Shares. In the case of any transfer by operation of law, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the transferee(s). Any transfer or other disposition in violation of the terms of this Section 2 shall be null and void.

5. Representations and Warranties of Shareholder. Shareholder represents and warrants to and agrees with Harrodsburg and First Financial as follows:

A. Capacity. Shareholder has all requisite capacity and authority to enter into and perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement.

D-2

Table of Contents

B. Binding Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of Shareholder, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

C. Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the performance by Shareholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the consummation by Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which Shareholder is a party or by which Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which Shareholder is subject or, in the event that Shareholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, any charter, bylaw or other organizational document of Shareholder.

D. Ownership of Shares. Shareholder has good title to all of the Shares as of the date hereof, and, except as set forth on Exhibit I hereto, the Shares are so owned free and clear of any liens, security interests, charges or other encumbrances.

6. Specific Performance and Remedies. Shareholder acknowledges that it will be impossible to measure in money the damage to Harrodsburg and First Financial if Shareholder fails to comply with the obligations imposed by this Agreement and that, in the event of any such failure, Harrodsburg and First Financial will not have an adequate remedy at law or in equity. Accordingly, Shareholder agrees that injunctive relief or other equitable remedy, in addition to remedies at law or in damages, is the appropriate remedy for any such failure and will not oppose the granting of such relief on the basis that Harrodsburg and First Financial may have an adequate remedy at law. Shareholder agrees that Shareholder will not seek, and agrees to waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with Harrodsburg's or First Financial's seeking or obtaining such equitable relief. In addition, after discussing the matter with Shareholder, Harrodsburg and First Financial shall have the right to inform any third party that Harrodsburg and First Financial reasonably believe to be, or to be contemplating, participating with Shareholder or receiving from Shareholder assistance in violation of this Agreement, of the terms of this Agreement and of the rights of Harrodsburg and First Financial hereunder, and that participation by any such persons with Shareholder in activities in violation of Shareholder's agreement with Harrodsburg and First Financial set forth in this Agreement may give rise to claims by Harrodsburg and First Financial against such third party.

7. Term of Agreement: Termination.

A. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof.

B. This Agreement shall terminate upon the date, if any, of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms. Upon such termination, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities hereunder; provided, however, such termination shall not relieve any party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement prior to such termination.

C. If the Merger Agreement is not terminated in accordance with its terms, this Agreement (except for the provisions of Sections 3 and 8, which shall survive the Effective Time) shall terminate upon the Effective Time. Upon such termination, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities under this Agreement; provided, however, such termination shall not relieve any party from liability for any willful breach of such Section prior to such termination.

Edgar Filing: HARRODSBURG FIRST FINANCIAL BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

8. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

All Incentive Stock Options issued under this Plan are intended to comply with the requirements of Section 422 of the Code, and the regulations thereunder, and all provisions hereunder shall be read, interpreted and applied with that purpose in mind.

2.14 Non-Qualified Stock Option means any Award granted under this Plan which is a stock option but is not an Incentive Stock Option.

2.15 Officer means any Employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries who is designated by the Board as a corporate officer.

2.16 Participant means any Employee, Officer, director, consultant or independent contractor who is designated by the Board pursuant to Article VI to participate in the Plan.

2.17 Retirement means a termination of employment which constitutes a retirement under any applicable qualified pension benefit plan maintained by the Company as that term is defined by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA").

2.18 Sale Event means the consummation of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (ii) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to an unrelated person or entity, (iii) a merger, reorganization or consolidation in which the holders of the Company's outstanding voting power immediately prior to such transaction do not own a majority of the outstanding voting power of the surviving or resulting entity immediately upon completion of such transaction, or (iv) any other transaction in which the owners of the Company's outstanding voting power prior to such transaction do not own at least a majority of the outstanding voting power of the relevant entity after the transaction, in each case, regardless of the form thereof.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE PLAN AND MISCELLANEOUS

3.01 Plan Administration. The Board shall administer the Plan unless and until the Board delegates administration responsibility to the Committee in the manner provided in Section 3.02. The Board, unless it delegates responsibility therefore to the Committee, shall thus be responsible for the overall administration and operation of the Plan. The Board shall have the power, subject to, and within the limitations of, the express provisions of the Plan:

(a) To determine from time to time which of the persons eligible under the Plan shall be granted Awards; when and how each Award shall be granted; what type or combination of types of Award shall be granted; the provisions of each Award granted (which need not be identical), including the time or times when a person shall be permitted to receive Common Stock pursuant to an Award; and the number of shares of Common Stock with respect to which an Award shall be granted to each such person.

(b) To construe and interpret the Plan and Awards granted under it, and to establish, amend and revoke rules and regulations for its administration. The Board, in the exercise of this power, may correct any defect, omission or inconsistency in the Plan or in any Award Agreement, in a manner and to the extent it shall deem necessary or expedient to make the Plan fully effective.

(c) To amend the Plan or an Award Agreement pursuant to the terms of Article IX hereof.

(d) Generally, to exercise such powers and to perform such acts as the Board deems necessary and expedient to promote the best interests of the Company which are not in conflict with the provisions of the Plan.

3.02 Delegation to the Committee. The Board may delegate administration of the Plan to the Committee which shall be comprised of one (1) or more members of the Board, and the term Committee shall apply to any person or persons to whom such authority has been delegated. If administration is delegated to the Committee, the Committee shall have, in connection with the administration of the Plan, the powers theretofore possessed by the Board, including the power to delegate to any subcommittee any of the administrative powers the Committee is authorized to exercise (and references in this Plan to the Board shall thereafter be to the Committee or subcommittee), subject, however, to such resolutions, not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, as may be adopted from time to time by the Board. The Board may abolish the Committee any time and revert in the Board the administration of the Plan.

3.03 Revocation for Misconduct. Any Award, or portion thereof, under this Plan, whether or not vested, made to a Participant who is discharged from the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (or whose personal services contract is terminated in the case of a consultant or independent contractor) due to the individual's (i) personal dishonesty of a material nature affecting his or her ability to perform his or her duties with the Company, (ii) willful misconduct or gross negligence, (iii) breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, or (iv) conviction of any criminal offense which involves dishonesty or breach of trust or conviction of any felony shall automatically terminate, rescind and be revoked.

3.04 Sale Events. In the case of and subject to the consummation of a Sale Event, Awards granted under the Plan may be assumed or new Awards may be substituted by the successor entity so long as the new Awards are substantially similar to the substituted Awards, with such adjustment as to the number and kind of shares and the per share exercise prices as the parties to the Sale Event shall agree. In the event that the Awards are neither assumed nor substituted in connection with a Sale Event, the Board shall authorize and the Company shall pay to each Participant with a vested Award an amount equal to (i) the excess of the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of the date of the Sale Event less the per share exercise price applicable to such Award, multiplied by (ii) the number of vested options.

3.05 Limitation on Liability. No member of the Board shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan. To the maximum extent allowed by law and the Company's bylaws, the Board shall be indemnified by the Company in respect of all their activities under the Plan.

3.06 Compliance with Law and Regulations. All Awards granted hereunder shall be subject to all applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and to such approvals by any government or regulatory agency as may be required. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates for shares of Common Stock prior to the completion of any registration or qualification of or obtaining of consents or approvals with respect to such shares under any Federal or state law or any rule or regulation of any government body, which the Company shall, in its sole discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable.

ARTICLE IV

ELIGIBILITY

Awards may be granted to such Employees, Officers, directors, consultants or independent contractors as may be designated from time to time by the Board, pursuant to guidelines, if any, which may be adopted by the Committee from time to time.

ARTICLE V

COMMON STOCK AVAILABLE FOR THE PLAN

The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to this Plan shall be three hundred thousand shares (300,000). If and to the extent that the number of issued shares of Common Stock shall be increased or reduced by change in par value, split up, reclassification, distribution of a dividend payable in Common Stock, merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, reincorporation, or the like, the Board may make appropriate adjustment in the number of shares of Common Stock authorized by the Plan and in the number and exercise price of shares covered by outstanding Awards under the Plan. In the event of any adjustment in the number of shares covered by any Award, any fractional shares resulting from such adjustment shall be disregarded and each such Award shall cover only the number of full shares resulting from such adjustment. The Board may make such adjustments, and its determination shall be final, binding and conclusive.

The Board also may adjust the number of shares subject to outstanding Awards and the exercise price and the terms of outstanding Awards to take into consideration material changes in accounting practices or principles, extraordinary dividends, acquisitions or dispositions of stock or property or any other event if it is determined by the Board that such adjustment is appropriate in order to prevent dilution or expansion of the rights of Participants, provided that no such adjustment shall be made in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, without the consent of the participant, if such adjustment would constitute a modification, extension or renewal of the Option within the meaning of Section 424(h) of the Code.

No shares shall be the subject of more than one Award at any time, but if an Award as to any shares is surrendered before exercise, or expires or terminates for any reason without having been exercised in full, or for any other reason ceases to be exercisable, the number of shares covered thereby shall again become available for grant under the Plan as if no Awards had been previously granted with respect to such shares.

ARTICLE VI

PARTICIPATION; STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT

The Board shall, in its discretion, determine from time to time which Employees, Officers, directors, consultants or independent contractors will participate in the Plan and receive Awards under the Plan. In making all such determinations there shall be taken into account the duties, responsibilities and performance of each respective Employee, Officer, director, consultant or independent contractor, his or her present and potential contributions to the growth and success of the Company, his or her cash compensation and such other factors as the Board shall deem relevant to accomplishing the purposes of the Plan.

Awards may be granted individually or in tandem with other Awards. All awards are subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions and privileges of the Plan in addition to the terms, conditions, restrictions and privileges for an Award contained in the Award Agreement. No Award under this Plan shall be effective unless memorialized in writing by the Committee in an Award Agreement delivered to and signed by the Participant.

ARTICLE VII

AWARDS

7.01 Stock Options. The Board may from time to time grant to eligible participants Awards of Incentive Stock Options or Non-Qualified Stock Options; provided however that Awards of Incentive Stock Options shall be limited to Employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options must have an exercise price at least equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock at the time of grant, except as provided in Section 8.05. Non-Qualified Stock Options may have an exercise price that is equal to, below, or above the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock at the time of grant. The exercise price applicable to a particular Award shall be set forth in each individual Award Agreement.

7.02 Performance Awards. The Board may, in its discretion, grant performance awards which become payable on account or attainment of one or more performance goals established by the Board. Performance awards may be paid by the delivery of Common Stock or cash, or any combination thereof, as determined in the sole discretion of the Board.

ARTICLE VIII

OPTION AWARDS

8.01 Vesting of Options

(a) General Rules. Incentive Stock Options and Non-Qualified Stock Options granted to Participants shall become vested so that 25% of the Option Award shall vest as of the date of the grant and 25% of the Option Award shall vest on each one year anniversary thereafter, so that 100% of such Option Award shall be vested as of the third anniversary of the date of grant, unless otherwise determined in the discretion of the Board and memorialized in the Stock Award Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no vesting shall occur on or after the date that an Employee's employment or personal services contract with the Company or any of its subsidiaries terminates for any reason other than his Death, Disability or Retirement. In determining the number of shares of Common Stock with respect to which such Awards are vested and/or exercisable, fractional shares will be rounded up to the nearest whole number if the fraction is 0.5 or higher, and down if it is less.

(b) Acceleration of Vesting Upon Death, Disability or Retirement. In the event a Participant dies while in the employ of or under contract to provide professional services for the Company or any of its subsidiaries or terminates employment or his professional services contract with the Company or any of its subsidiaries as a result of Disability, any Award(s) granted to such Participant under this Plan not yet vested on such date shall become 100% vested as of such date and be exercisable either by the Participant or the Participant's representative subject to Section 8.03. In the event of a Participant's Retirement, any Award(s) granted to such Participant under this Plan not yet vested on such date shall become 100% vested as of such date.

(c) Vesting Upon a Sale Event. Notwithstanding the general rule described above, immediately prior to the consummation of a Sale Event, Participants shall automatically become 100% vested in their unvested Awards, if any.

8.02 Duration of Options.

(a) General Rule. Except as provided in Section 8.05, each Award granted to a Participant shall be exercisable at any time on or after it vests until the earlier of (i) ten (10) years after its date of grant or (ii) the date that is six (6) months (ninety (90) days in the case of Incentive Stock Options granted to Employees) following the last day on which the Participant is employed or renders services for the benefit of the Company or its subsidiaries.

(b) Exception for Termination Due to Death, Disability or Retirement. If a Participant dies while in the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or terminates employment with the Company or any of its subsidiaries as a result of death, Disability or Retirement without having fully exercised his Awards, the Participant or his legal representative or guardian, or the executors, administrators, legatees or distributees of his estate shall have the right, during the twelve (12) month period following the earlier of his death Disability or Retirement, to exercise such Awards to the extent vested on the date of such death, Disability or Retirement. In no event, however, shall any Award be exercisable more than ten (10) years from the date it was granted.

(c) Notice of Disposition; Withholding; Escrow. A Grantee shall immediately notify the Company in writing of any sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition (or action constituting a disqualifying disposition within the meaning of Section 421 of the Code) of any shares of Common Stock acquired through exercise of an Incentive Stock Option, within two (2) years after the grant of such Incentive Stock Option or within one (1) year after the acquisition of such shares, setting forth the date and manner of disposition, the number of shares disposed of and the price at which such shares were disposed. The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any compensation or other payments then or thereafter due to the Grantee such amounts as may be necessary to satisfy any withholding requirements of Federal or state law or regulation and, further, to collect from the Grantee any additional amounts which may be required for such purpose. The Board may, in its discretion, require shares of Common Stock acquired by a Grantee upon exercise of an Incentive Stock Option to be held in an escrow arrangement for the purpose of enabling compliance with the provisions of this Section 8.02(c).

G-5

Table of Contents

8.03 Nonassignability. Awards shall not be transferable by a Grantee except by will or the laws of descent or distribution, and during a Grantee's lifetime shall be exercisable only by such Grantee or the Grantee's guardian or legal representative. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Plan, a Grantee who holds Non-Qualified Stock Options may transfer such Awards to his or her spouse, lineal ascendants, lineal descendants, or to a duly established trust for the benefit of one or more of these individuals. Awards so transferred may thereafter be transferred only to the Grantee who originally received the grant or to an individual or trust to whom the Grantee would have initially transferred the Award pursuant to this Section 8.03. Awards which are transferred pursuant to this Section 8.03 shall be exercisable by the transferee according to the same terms and conditions as applied to the Grantee.

8.04 Manner of Exercise. To the extent vested and exercisable, awards may be exercised in part or in whole from time to time by execution of a written notice directed to the Company, at the Company's principal place of business, accompanied by cash or a check in payment of the exercise price for the number of shares specified and paid for. The Board, may in its discretion, permit a Grantee to exercise vested and exercisable options awarded under this Plan by surrendering an amount of Common Stock already owned by the Grantee equal to all or a portion of the options' exercise price, but only in instances where the shares to be surrendered have been held by the Grantee for a period of at least six (6) months. Subject to the limitations set forth in the Stock Award Agreement, the Board may, in its discretion, allow the Grantee may make payment by arranging with a third party broker to sell a number of shares otherwise deliverable to the Grantee and attributable to the exercise of the Award in order to pay the exercise price of the Award.

8.05 $100,000 Limitation. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained elsewhere in this Plan and as long as required by Section 422 of the Code, the aggregate Fair Market Value, determined as of the time an Incentive Stock Option is granted, of the Common Stock with respect to which Incentive Stock Options are exercisable for the first time by the Grantee during any calendar year, under this Plan and stock options that satisfy the requirements of Section 422 of the Code under any other stock option plan or plans maintained by the Company, shall not exceed $100,000. To the extent that the aggregate value of shares of common stock to be received by the Grantee for the first time in any one year pursuant to the exercise of an Incentive Stock Option (ISO Stock) exceeds $100,000 based on the fair market value of the Common Stock as of the date of the Incentive Stock Option's grant, such excess shall be treated as Common Stock received pursuant to the exercise of a Nonqualified Stock Option (NQSO Stock). The Company shall designate which shares of Common Stock to be received by the Grantee will be treated as ISO Stock and which shares of Common Stock, if any, will be treated as NQSO Stock by issuing separate share certificates identifying in the Company's share transfer records which shares are ISO Stock.

8.06 Limitation on Ten Percent Stockholders. The price at which shares of Common Stock may be purchased upon exercise of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an individual who, at the time such Incentive Stock Option is granted, owns, directly or indirectly, more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock issued to stockholders of the Company, shall be no less than one hundred and ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value of a share of the Common Stock of the Company at the time of grant, and such Incentive Stock Option shall by its terms not be exercisable after the expiration of five (5) years from the date such Incentive Stock Option is granted.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION OF THE PLAN

The Board may, by resolution, at any time terminate or amend the Plan with respect to any shares of Common Stock or Awards which have not been granted, but no such action shall adversely affect the rights under any outstanding Award without the holder's consent. If and to the extent necessary to ensure that Incentive Stock Options granted under the Plan remain qualified under Section 422 of the Code, Plan amendments shall be subject to approval by the Company's stockholders who are eligible to vote at a meeting of stockholders.

ARTICLE X

EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

Neither the Plan nor any Award hereunder shall create any right on the part of any Employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to continue in such capacity nor shall it create the right on the part of any independent contractor providing professional services to the Company or any of its subsidiaries to continue doing so.

G-6

ARTICLE XI

WITHHOLDING

The Company may withhold from any cash payment made under this Plan sufficient amounts to cover any applicable income and payroll taxes, and if the amount of such cash payment is insufficient, the Company may require the Grantee to pay to the Company the amount required to be withheld as a condition to delivering the shares acquired pursuant to an Award. The Company also may withhold or collect amounts with respect to a disqualifying disposition of shares of Common Stock acquired pursuant to exercise of an Incentive Stock Option under Section 8.02(c).

The Board is authorized to adopt rules, regulations or procedures which provide for the satisfaction of a Participant's tax withholding obligation by the retention of shares of Common Stock to which he otherwise would be entitled pursuant to an Award or by the Participant's delivery of previously-owned shares of Common Stock or other property. However, if the Company adopts rules, regulations or procedures which permit withholding obligations to be met by the retention of Common Stock to which a Grantee otherwise would be entitled pursuant to an Award, the fair market value of the Common Stock retained for such purpose shall not exceed the minimum required Federal, state and local tax withholding due upon exercise of the Award.

ARTICLE XII

EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE PLAN; TERM

12.01 Effective Date of the Plan. This Plan shall become effective on the Effective Date, and Awards may be granted hereunder as of or after the Effective Date and prior to the termination of the Plan, provided that no Incentive Stock Option issued pursuant to this Plan shall qualify as such unless this Plan is approved by the requisite vote of the holders of the outstanding voting shares of the Company at a meeting of stockholders of the Company held within twelve (12) months before or after the Effective Date.

12.02 Term of Plan. Unless sooner terminated, this Plan shall remain in effect for a period of ten (10) years ending on the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date. Termination of the Plan shall not affect any Awards previously granted and such Awards shall remain valid and in effect until they have been fully exercised or earned, are surrendered or by their terms expire or are forfeited.

ARTICLE XIII

GOVERNING LAW

To the extent not governed by Federal law, this Plan shall be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article XVII of Harrodsburg's Certificate of Incorporation provides for indemnification of directors and officers of Harrodsburg against any and all liabilities, judgments, fines and reasonable settlements, costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in any actual, threatened or potential proceeding, except to the extent that such indemnification is limited by Delaware law and such law cannot be varied by contract or bylaw. Article XVII also provides for the authority to purchase insurance with respect thereto.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware authorizes a corporation's Board of Directors to grant indemnity under certain circumstances to directors and officers, when made, or threatened to be made, parties to certain proceedings by reason of such status with the corporation, against judgments, fines, settlements and expenses, including attorneys' fees. In addition, under certain circumstances such persons may be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in defense of a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation. Similarly, the corporation, under certain circumstances, is authorized to indemnify directors and officers of other corporations or enterprises who are serving as such at the request of the corporation, when such persons are made, or threatened to be made, parties to certain proceedings by reason of such status, against judgments, fines, settlements and expenses, including attorneys' fees; and under certain circumstances, such persons may be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of a proceeding by or in the right of such other corporation or enterprise. Indemnification is permitted where such person (i) was acting in good faith; (ii) was acting in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or other corporation or enterprise, as appropriate; (iii) with respect to a criminal proceeding, has no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and (iv) was not adjudged to be liable to the corporation or other corporation or enterprise (unless the court where the proceeding was brought determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity).

Unless ordered by a court, indemnification may be made only following a determination that such indemnification is permissible because the person being indemnified has met the requisite standard of conduct. Such determination may be made (i) by the Board of directors of the Holding Company by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to such proceeding; or (ii) if such a quorum cannot be obtained or the quorum so directs, then by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (iii) by the stockholders.

Section 145 also permits expenses incurred by directors and officers in defending a proceeding to be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon the receipt of an undertaking by the director or officer to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation against such expenses.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(A) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any Prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the Offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (6) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(B) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(C) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(D) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
