GOLD FIELDS LIMITED ( GOLD FIELDS ): LEGAL ACTIONS

DISADVANTAGE SHAREHOLDERS

Since Harmony announced its proposed merger with Gold Fields, it has become clear who comes first in the eyes of the Gold Fields Board: its lawyers, not its shareholders.

Quite simply, the Gold Fields Board is conducting a campaign to disenfranchise its shareholders. To date it has:

Withheld the register of Gold Fields members in an attempt to prevent Gold Fields shareholders from receiving Harmony's proposed merger document;

Threatened to interdict Harmony from posting the proposed merger document;

Challenged the Securities Regulation Panel's approval of Harmony's proposed merger and subsequently was one of the parties that requested a delay of the hearing for this challenge;

Applied to the Competition Authorities to delay the early settlement offer; and

Applied to the High Court to prevent Harmony from implementing its proposed merger at all.

The Board of Gold Fields has a duty to act in the best interests of its shareholders. None of these actions does this. We strongly believe the effect of these actions is to deprive Gold Fields shareholders from benefiting from the significant value inherent in the Harmony proposed merger.

And there will be significant value:

Harmony's proposed merger will create the world's largest gold mining company with a compelling investment story;

Edgar Filing: HARMONY GOLD MINING CO LTD - Form 6-K

Harmony believes it can deliver greater value from Gold Fields' South African assets than is currently being achieved;

Harmony would avoid the value leakage that has happened in Gold Fields' proposed transaction with IAMGold Corporation Inc.; and Harmony will ensure a strong future for South Africa's gold mining industry.
