To the Shareholders of First Citizens Bancorp

The Board of Directors of First Citizens Bancorp (First Citizens) has unanimously approved a merger combining First Citizens and BB&T Corporation (BB&T). In the merger, you will receive, depending upon your election, 1.30 shares of BB&T common stock, an amount in cash equal to 1.30 multiplied by the average last sale prices of BB&T common stock for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger or a combination of both cash and BB&T common stock (calculated as above), as you may designate in your election form, for each share of First Citizens common stock that you own (up to the aggregate cash consideration available to all First Citizens shareholders in the merger) plus cash instead of any fractional shares. To the extent that total cash elections from First Citizens shareholders exceed the aggregate cash available, First Citizens shares exchanged for the cash election will be reallocated to the stock election on a proportional basis, as described in more detail in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

BB&T common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the symbol BBT. On January 11, 2006, the last full NYSE trading day before public announcement of the merger, the closing price of BB&T common stock was $41.94. Based on the 1.30 exchange ratio and the closing price of BB&T common stock on January 11, 2006, the implied dollar value of the BB&T common stock merger consideration (including all cash to be paid in respect of shares of First Citizens common stock) was approximately $54.52 per share of First Citizens common stock, and the implied transaction value was approximately $142.6 million. On June , 2006, the latest practicable date prior to the printing of this document, the closing price of BB&T common stock was $. Based on the 1.30 exchange ratio and the closing price of BB&T common stock on June , 2006, the implied dollar value of the BB&T common stock merger consideration (including all cash to be paid in respect of shares of First Citizens common stock) was approximately $ per share of First Citizens common stock, and the implied transaction value was approximately $ million. BB&T expects to issue approximately [] million shares of common stock in the merger (excluding any shares of BB&T common stock issued as a result of the exercise of First Citizens stock options prior to the merger), which will represent approximately []% of the outstanding BB&T common stock following completion of the merger assuming 75% stock consideration.

The price of BB&T common stock will fluctuate prior to completion of the merger. As explained on page of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger does not include a price-based termination right, and First Citizens has not obtained updated fairness opinions from its financial advisors.

We expect the merger to generally be tax-free with respect to the BB&T common stock you receive and generally taxable with respect to cash you receive.

At the special meeting you will consider and vote on approval of the merger agreement. The merger cannot be completed unless holders of at least a majority of the shares of First Citizens common stock entitled to vote approve the merger agreement.

The special meeting will be held at 9:00 a.m., Eastern time, on Tuesday, July 11, 2006 at First Citizens main offices at 2305 Keith Street, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311. You are cordially invited to attend.

This proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the proposed merger. We encourage you to read this entire document carefully.

Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card. If you fail to vote, the effect will be the same as a vote against the merger agreement.

In the merger, each share of First Citizens common stock will be converted into the right to receive, according to each First Citizens shareholder's election, 1.30 shares of BB&T common stock, an amount of cash equal to 1.30 multiplied by the average of the last sale prices of BB&T common stock for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger or a combination of BB&T common stock and cash, as designated by the shareholder in the election form (up to the aggregate cash consideration available to all First Citizens shareholders in the merger). To the extent that total cash elections from First Citizens shareholders exceed the aggregate cash consideration available to all First Citizens shareholders in the merger, First Citizens shares exchanged for the cash election will be reallocated to the stock election on a proportional basis, as described in more detail in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement, as amended, is attached as Appendix A to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsSUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To understand the merger fully and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger, you should read carefully this entire document and the documents to which we refer you. See Where You Can Find More Information on page [].

Holders of First Citizens Common Stock Will Receive Shares of BB&T Common Stock, Cash or a Combination of Cash and Shares of BB&T Common Stock in the Merger (see page).

Under the merger agreement, you will receive one of the following forms of payment of the merger consideration in exchange for each of your shares of First Citizens common stock, as elected by you:

1.30 shares of BB&T common stock the per share stock consideration ;

An amount in cash equal to 1.30 multiplied by the average of the last sale prices of BB&T common stock for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger the per share cash consideration ; or

A combination of cash and BB&T common stock as designated on the election form by the First Citizens shareholders.

BB&T will deliver or mail to you a form of election and instructions for making your election as to the form of consideration you prefer to receive in the merger. The available elections, election procedures and deadline for making elections are described under the heading The Merger Election of the Form of Payment of the Merger Consideration on page . You may elect per share stock consideration with respect to a portion of your shares and per share cash consideration with respect to the remainder of your shares. To be effective, an election form must be properly completed and received by BB&T no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on July 20, 2006. If you do not make an election by the election deadline, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive BB&T common stock.

After the election deadline, the elections made by First Citizens shareholders will be adjusted so that BB&T is not paying cash consideration for more than 25% of the shares of First Citizens common stock outstanding at the close of business on the closing date. As a result, the merger agreement provides rules, which are described under the heading The Merger Allocation of the Merger Consideration on page to allocate the stock and cash forms of merger consideration, based on the elections made by the First Citizens shareholders. Accordingly, if you elect per share cash consideration or a combination of per share cash consideration and per share stock consideration, you may receive cash for a lesser number of shares of First Citizens common stock than you elect. This could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted had you received the exact form of merger consideration you elected. No fractional shares of BB&T common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, cash will be paid instead of any fractional share of BB&T common stock to which you would otherwise be entitled.

The table below shows the closing price of BB&T common stock and the equivalent price per share of First Citizens common stock on January 11, 2006 (the last full NYSE trading day before public announcement of the merger) and on June , 2006 (the last practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus). The equivalent price per share of First Citizens common stock is calculated by multiplying the BB&T per share closing price by the stock exchange ratio of 1.30, which is the number of shares of BB&T common stock that First Citizens shareholders would receive in the merger for each share of First Citizens common stock that they own if they elect the per share stock consideration.

	January 11, 2006	June , 2006
BB&T	$ 41.94
Equivalent Price Per Share of First Citizens Common Stock	$ 54.52

Table of Contents

Because the 1.30 stock exchange ratio is fixed, but the market price of BB&T will fluctuate prior to the merger, the pro forma equivalent price per share of First Citizens common stock will also fluctuate prior to the merger, and you will not know the final equivalent price per share of First Citizens common stock or the amount of per share cash consideration when you vote upon the merger.

Set forth below is a table showing a range of prices for shares of BB&T common stock and the corresponding equivalent value per share of First Citizens common stock that is converted into BB&T common stock that a First Citizens shareholder would receive in the merger for each share of First Citizens common stock. The table does not reflect the fact that cash will be paid instead of fractional shares.

Closing Price of BB&T	Equivalent Price
Common Stock	Per Share of First Citizens Common Stock
50.00	65.00
49.00	63.70
48.00	62.40
47.00	61.10
46.00	59.80
45.00	58.50
44.00	57.20
43.00	55.90
42.00	54.60
41.00	53.30
40.00	52.00
39.00	50.70
38.00	49.40
37.00	48.10
36.00	46.80
35.00	45.50

The table set forth on page shows the relationship between the closing value stock price of BB&T common stock and the total amount of consideration that would be received in exchange for 100 shares of First Citizens common stock, depending on whether the holder of First Citizens stock elected to receive all cash, all stock, or a mix of cash and stock.

Neither First Citizens or BB&T (or their respective Boards of Directors) nor their financial advisors make any recommendation as to whether you should choose BB&T common stock, cash or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock for your shares of First Citizens common stock. You should consult with your own financial advisor about this decision.

BB&T common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BBT. You should obtain current stock price quotations from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. We urge you to obtain information on the market value of BB&T common stock that is more recent than that provided in this proxy statement/prospectus. The merger does not include a price based-termination right or other protection against declines in the market value of BB&T common stock.

Each First Citizens Shareholder Should:

Complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy and return it promptly in the prepaid, pre-addressed envelope provided.

Complete, date and sign the election form that is being separately mailed to you and return it promptly in the prepaid, pre-addressed envelope provided to you with the election form.

Table of Contents

Please do not send in your First Citizens stock certificates at this time. You will receive instructions from BB&T shortly after the merger is completed telling you how to exchange your First Citizens common stock certificates for merger consideration. To be effective, an election form must be properly completed and received by BB&T no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on July 20, 2006.

You Generally Will Not Be Subject to Federal Income Tax on Shares Received in the Merger (page []).

For federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code). As a result, you generally will not recognize any taxable gain or loss on the conversion of your shares of First Citizens common stock into shares of BB&T common stock in the merger. You will be taxed, however, on your gain if you receive any cash (i) in exchange for shares of First Citizens common stock or (ii) instead of any fractional share of BB&T common stock. Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger may vary among shareholders. We urge you to contact your own tax advisor for assistance in understanding fully how the merger will affect you.

BB&T Expects to Continue to Pay Quarterly Dividends.

BB&T currently pays regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.38 per share of its common stock, and, over the past five years, has had a dividend payout ratio typically in the range of 40% to 50% of earnings and a compound annualized dividend growth rate of 11.2%. BB&T has increased its quarterly cash dividend payments for 34 consecutive years. BB&T expects that it will continue to pay quarterly dividends consistent with this payout ratio, but may change that policy based on business conditions, BB&T's financial condition, earnings, regulatory limitations or other factors.

First Citizens Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends Shareholder Approval (page []).

The First Citizens Board of Directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of First Citizens shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

First Citizens Reasons for the Merger (page []).

First Citizens board of directors believes that the merger is in your best interest. The board considered a number of factors in deciding to approve and recommend the terms of the merger agreement to you. These factors included the following:

the value of the consideration to be received by First Citizens shareholders in the merger;

the fact that BB&T common stock is widely held and has an active trading market, whereas, First Citizens stock is relatively illiquid and is not publicly traded;

that BB&T has historically paid cash dividends on its shares of common stock;

financial and other information concerning BB&T and its market area;

the likely impact of the merger on the employees and customers of First Citizens; and the competitive and regulatory environment for community banks generally.

First Citizens board of directors also took into account advice of its financial advisors, Hovde Financial, LLC and Southard Financial, each of whom issued an opinion that the consideration to be received by First Citizens common shareholders in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view.

Table of Contents

First Citizens Board of Directors Received Fairness Opinions from Hovde Financial, LLC and Southard Financial (page [], Appendix B; page [], Appendix C).

First Citizens financial advisors, Hovde Financial, LLC (Hovde) and Southard Financial (Southard), have each given an opinion to the First Citizens Board of Directors that, as of January 10, 2006, and based on and subject to the considerations described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to holders of shares of First Citizens common stock. The full text of the Hovde opinion is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The full text of the Southard opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the opinions carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by each of Hovde and Southard in rendering its fairness opinion. The opinions of each of Hovde and Southard have not been updated prior to the date of this document and does not reflect any change in circumstances after January 10, 2006.

Upon completion of the merger, Hovde will be entitled to a fee equal to approximately $ million based on the last sale price of BB&T common stock as of June , 2006. First Citizens paid Southard a fee of $20,000 for rendering its opinion and reimbursed Southard for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. First Citizens also has agreed to indemnify each of Hovde and Southard against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

First Citizens Shareholders Do Have Dissent and Appraisal Rights (page []).

Under Tennessee law, holders of First Citizens common stock may exercise appraisal rights and, if the merger is consummated and all requirements of Tennessee law are satisfied by holders seeking to exercise such rights, may receive payment equal to the fair value of their shares of First Citizens common stock, determined in the manner set forth in Tennessee law. The procedures which must be followed in connection with the exercise of appraisal rights by dissenting shareholders are described herein under The Merger Appraisal Rights and in Chapter 23 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (TBCA), a copy of which is attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. A shareholder seeking to exercise appraisal rights must deliver to First Citizens, before the shareholder vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting, a written objection to the merger stating that he or she intends to demand payment for his or her shares through the exercise of his or her statutory appraisal rights and must not vote his or her shares in favor of the merger agreement. Failure to take any required step in connection with the exercise of such rights may result in termination or waiver thereof.

First Citizens Shareholders Will Vote on the Merger at the Special Shareholders Meeting to be Held on July 11, 2006 (page []).

The Merger (page []).

If First Citizens shareholders approve the merger agreement, as amended, at the special meeting, subject to the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals, First Citizens will merge into BB&T, with BB&T being the surviving corporation in the merger. First Citizens' banking and other subsidiaries, through which it operates, will become wholly owned subsidiaries of BB&T. We currently expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2006.

We have included the merger agreement, as amended, as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in full, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

A Vote of a Majority of the Outstanding Shares of First Citizens Common Stock Is Required to Approve the Merger (page []).

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock entitled to vote. If you fail to vote or abstain, it will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement. At the record date, the directors and executive officers of First Citizens and their affiliates together owned approximately 46.7% of the First Citizens common stock entitled to vote at the meeting. First Citizens expects that its directors and executive officers who are able to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement will do so, although none of them has entered into any agreements obligating them to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement.

The merger does not require the approval of BB&T's shareholders.

On the record date, there were 2,598,687 shares of First Citizens common stock outstanding. At the meeting, you will have one vote for each share of First Citizens common stock that you owned on the record date.

Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger that Differ From Your Interests (page []).

Some of First Citizens' directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as First Citizens shareholders. In the case of some executive officers and directors of First Citizens, these interests exist because of rights under existing benefit and compensation plans of First Citizens, as well as under employment agreements that Kenneth H. Rayborn, President and Chief Executive Officer of First Citizens, and F. Alan Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of First Citizens, have entered into with Branch Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of BB&T, that will become effective upon completion of the merger. The employment agreements between Messrs. Rayborn and Smith and Branch Bank were a condition of BB&T's entering into the merger agreement. In addition, stock options awarded under First Citizens' stock option plans provide for accelerated vesting upon the completion of the merger and rights of certain directors and executive officers under benefit plans provide for accelerated vesting upon the completion of the merger.

Employment and Consulting Agreements with Branch Bank. First Citizens' President and Chief Executive Officer, Kenneth H. Rayborn, has entered into an employment agreement with Branch Bank. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Rayborn will serve as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank for a term lasting until the earlier of the 12-month anniversary date of the closing of the merger or the date First Citizens' subsidiary banks are merged into Branch Bank. Upon the expiration of his employment term, Mr. Rayborn will relinquish his position as an employee and become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. The maximum term of Mr. Rayborn's employment agreement will be five years, unless the parties agree in writing to extend the term of Mr. Rayborn's agreement.

For his services as an Executive Vice President, Mr. Rayborn will receive a minimum annual base salary of $348,400. In addition, while Mr. Rayborn is employed by Branch Bank, he will be eligible to receive incentive compensation (such as stock options, restricted stock and other equity awards) and employee retirement benefits on the same terms as similarly situated officers of Branch Bank.

When Mr. Rayborn becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank, he will be paid $464,650 annually in exchange for providing consulting services and as consideration for noncompetition and other covenants contained in the employment agreement. As an independent consultant, Mr. Rayborn will not be eligible to participate in any of Branch Bank's employee benefit plans, except for elective coverage under group health plan benefits provided to officers of Branch Bank at a cost no greater than the cost to such officers.

Branch Bank and Mr. Rayborn each will have certain rights to terminate the employment agreement and Mr. Rayborn may be entitled to certain payments following termination. For a complete discussion please see page [].

First Citizens' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, F. Alan Smith, has entered into an employment agreement with Branch Bank. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Smith will serve as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank and Area Manager for Cleveland, Tennessee for a term lasting until Mr. Smith accepts or rejects an offer from Branch Bank to be an Executive Vice President outside of the Cleveland, Tennessee region, which offer must be made and accepted or rejected by the 12-month anniversary of the closing date of the merger. If Mr. Smith accepts the employment offer he will serve in such capacity until the fifth anniversary of the closing date of the merger providing that Mr. Smith would become an independent consultant to Branch Bank if he terminates his employment other than for good reason, or if Branch Bank terminates his employment for just cause or if he dies. If Mr. Smith does not accept the employment offer he will become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. Upon the expiration of his employment term, Mr. Smith will relinquish his position as an employee and become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. The maximum term of Mr. Smith's employment agreement will be five years, unless the parties agree in writing to extend the term of the agreement.

Table of Contents

For his services as an Executive Vice President, Mr. Smith will receive a minimum annual base salary of $220,000. In addition, while Mr. Smith is employed by Branch Bank, he will be eligible to receive incentive compensation (such as stock options, restricted stock and other equity awards) and employee retirement benefits on the same terms as similarly situated officers of Branch Bank.

If Mr. Smith becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank, he will be paid annually at a rate equal to his base salary in effect immediately prior to the time he becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank in exchange for providing consulting services and as consideration for noncompetition and other covenants contained in the employment agreement. As an independent consultant, Mr. Smith will not be eligible to participate in any of Branch Bank's employee benefit plans, except for elective coverage under group health plan benefits provided to officers of Branch Bank at a cost no greater than the cost to such officers.

Branch Bank and Mr. Smith each will have certain rights to terminate the employment agreement and Mr. Smith may be entitled to certain payments following termination. For a complete discussion please see page [].

On the closing date of the merger, as consideration for Mr. Smith agreeing to the noncompetition and other covenants contained in his employment agreement with Branch Bank and as compensation for termination of his current employment agreement with First Citizens, Branch Bank shall pay to Mr. Smith, in a lump sum, the amount of $620,825. On the effective date, that certain Agreement Not to Compete between F. Alan Smith and First Citizens Bancorp dated September 17, 1997 shall be deemed terminated, of no further force and effect and replaced in its entirety by Mr. Smith's employment agreement with Branch Bank.

BB&T also will cause Branch Bank to offer to enter into (i) a three-year employment agreement with K. Edward Rayborn, President and CEO of The Home Bank of Tennessee, (ii) a three-year employment/consulting agreement with George Thorogood, CEO and Vice Chairman of The Bank/First Citizens Bank, and (iii) a two-year employment/consulting agreement with each of Melissa Finnell, Vice President of The Bank/First Citizens Bank, and Kathy Johnson, Sr. Vice President of The Bank/First Citizens.

Board of Directors of Branch Bank. Following completion of the merger, BB&T will cause the Branch Bank Board of Directors to elect Kenneth H. Rayborn to serve on the Branch Bank Board of Directors. Members of the Branch Bank Board of Directors who are not employees of, or under contract with, BB&T or an affiliate are entitled to receive fees for services as a director in accordance with the policies of BB&T as in effect from time to time. During calendar year 2005, with the exception of a few directors, members of the Branch Bank Board of Directors received an annual retainer fee equal to $5,000 and attendance fees equal to $1,000 for each board or committee meeting that the board member attended. So long as Mr. Rayborn's employment agreement remains in effect he will not be eligible to receive these board fees.

Advisory Board. Following completion of the merger, BB&T will ask other members of the First Citizens Board of Directors to serve on the BB&T advisory board serving the region formerly served by First Citizens for such period of time as determined by BB&T. BB&T will pay compensation to such directors for his or her service on the BB&T local advisory board consistent with BB&T's fee policies for advisory board members.

The First Citizens Board of Directors was aware of these and other interests and considered them when it approved and adopted the merger agreement. The material terms and financial provisions of these arrangements are described under the heading Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Officers in the Merger on page [].

BB&T Will Assume First Citizens Stock Options (page []).

When the merger is completed, outstanding options to purchase First Citizens common stock with respect to First Citizens common stock granted to First Citizens employees and directors under First Citizens' equity-based plans will be assumed by BB&T and become options in respect of BB&T common stock (or substitute options to acquire BB&T common stock will be granted). At its election, BB&T may substitute, as of the effective time of the merger, options under the BB&T Corporation 2004 Stock Incentive Plan or any other duly adopted comparable plan for all or a part of the First Citizens stock options, subject to certain conditions provided for in the merger agreement. The number of shares subject to these options (and the exercise price thereof), will be adjusted to reflect the stock exchange ratio. All options awarded to First Citizens employees and directors provide for accelerated vesting upon a transaction such as the merger.

Regulatory Approvals We Must Obtain for the Merger to Occur (page []).

The merger is subject to the approval of, or notice to, certain regulatory authorities, including the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve (Federal Reserve), the Virginia Bureau of Financial Institutions and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. Although BB&T does not know of any reason why it would not obtain all regulatory approvals from these regulators in a timely manner, BB&T cannot be certain when such approvals will be obtained or if they will be obtained.

There Are Other Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived Before BB&T and First Citizens Are Able To Complete the Merger (page []).

A number of other conditions must be met for us to complete the merger, including:

approval of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of First Citizens outstanding common stock;

the continuing accuracy of the parties representations in the merger agreement;

compliance, in all material respects, by each party with its obligations and covenants under the merger agreement;

the continuing effectiveness of the registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the shares of BB&T common stock to be issued in the merger;

the approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of BB&T common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement;

the absence of any order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

The obtaining of required regulatory approvals;

The delivery of the opinion of Rothgerber, Johnson & Lyons LLP to BB&T with respect to certain matters relevant to the merger agreement; and

The delivery to BB&T of certain agreements from affiliates of First Citizens.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (pages []).

We can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger. Either company also can unilaterally terminate the merger agreement if:

the merger is not completed by October 1, 2006;

the shareholders of First Citizens do not approve the merger;

any condition that must be satisfied to complete the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled;

the other company violates, in a material way, any of its representations, warranties or obligations under the merger agreement and the violation is not cured in a timely fashion; or any of the required regulatory approvals are denied, and the time period for appeals and requests for reconsideration have expired. Generally, the company seeking to terminate cannot itself be in violation of the merger agreement in a way that would allow the other party to terminate.

BB&T may also terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the completion of the merger, the First Citizens Board of Directors:

withdraws its recommendation or refuses to recommend, without any adverse conditions or qualifications, to the shareholders of First Citizens that they approve the merger agreement; or recommends the approval of a competing acquisition proposal for First Citizens.

BB&T and First Citizens May Amend the Merger Agreement (page []).

BB&T and First Citizens can agree to amend the merger agreement in any way, except that after the shareholders meeting we cannot amend the agreement to decrease or adversely affect the consideration that you will receive in the merger. Either company can waive any of the requirements of the other company contained in the merger agreement, except that neither company can waive any required regulatory approval. The merger agreement was amended on May 18, 2006 to extend to October 1, 2006 the date on which the merger agreement may be terminated if the merger has not been completed by such date. The merger agreement, as amended, is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

In Some Circumstances First Citizens May Be Required to Pay BB&T a Termination Fee (page []).

Under the limited circumstances described below, First Citizens will be required to pay to BB&T a termination fee of $6 million.

The termination fee would be payable if the merger agreement is terminated for one of the following reasons:

BB&T terminates because First Citizens is in material breach of the merger agreement and such breach is not cured or cannot be cured;

BB&T terminates because prior to the First Citizens shareholders meeting, the First Citizens Board of Directors withdrew or disclosed its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify its recommendation, or refused to recommend, without any adverse conditions or qualifications, to the First Citizens shareholders that they vote to approve the merger, or recommended to First Citizens shareholders that they approve an acquisition of First Citizens by a third party; or Either First Citizens or BB&T terminates because the First Citizens shareholders did not vote to approve the merger agreement.

AND

Prior to such termination an acquisition proposal by a third party with respect to First Citizens has been commenced, publicly proposed or publicly disclosed.

AND

Within 18 months of termination of the merger agreement, First Citizens completes or enters into a definitive agreement with another party with respect to the acquisition of First Citizens.

Edgar Filing: BB&T CORP - Form S-4/A

The termination fee also would be payable by First Citizens to BB&T if:

after receiving an acquisition proposal from a third party, the First Citizens Board does not take action to convene the First Citizens shareholders meeting and/or recommend that First Citizens shareholders adopt the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

within 18 months of termination of the merger agreement, First Citizens completes or enters into a definitive agreement with another party with respect to the acquisition of First Citizens.

The termination fee, which was a condition of BB&T's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, limits the ability of First Citizens to pursue competing acquisition proposals and discourages other companies from offering to acquire First Citizens.

BB&T to Use Purchase Accounting Treatment (page []).

BB&T will account for the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Under the purchase method, BB&T will record, at fair value, the acquired assets and assumed liabilities of First Citizens. To the extent the total purchase price exceeds the fair value of tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired over the liabilities assumed, BB&T will record goodwill. Based on a closing price of $[] of BB&T common stock on the NYSE on [], 2006, management of BB&T estimates that the total merger consideration (including issuance of common stock and assumption of options on common stock) if the closing occurred on such date would be approximately $[] million (based on the number of fully diluted shares of First Citizens outstanding on that date). Utilizing information as of December 31, 2005 estimated goodwill and other intangibles are currently expected to total approximately $100.8 million. BB&T will include in its consolidated results of operations the results of First Citizens' operations after the merger is completed. Due to the fact that the proposed transaction is not material to BB&T, no pro forma financial information is included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Capital Markets Transactions

On June 5, 2006, BB&T entered into an Accelerated Share Repurchase Agreement with Credit Suisse, New York Branch to facilitate BB&T's purchase of 14.0 million shares of its outstanding common stock. The initial purchase price of the shares was $41.76. The transaction was settled on June 7, 2006. This accelerated share repurchase was undertaken to offset the majority of the shares that were issued in connection with the acquisition of Main Street Banks, Inc., which was completed on June 1, 2006.

On June 7, 2006, BB&T Capital Trust II, a statutory trust formed under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Trust"), issued and sold $600 million aggregate principal amount of 6.75% Capital Securities due 2036 (the "Capital Securities"). The Capital Securities were registered by BB&T and the Trust under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to a shelf registration statement on Form S-3. BB&T fully, irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed, on a subordinated basis, payment of amounts due under the Capital Securities to the extent described in the offering documentation. The Trust used the proceeds received in connection with the sale of the Capital Securities to purchase junior subordinated debentures issued by BB&T.

On June 7, 2006, Branch Banking and Trust Company ("Branch Bank"), a wholly owned subsidiary of BB&T, issued and sold $500 million aggregate principal amount of Floating Rate Senior Notes due 2009 (the "Bank Notes"). The Bank Notes were issued pursuant to a Bank Note Program in which Branch Bank and certain of its affiliates may issue senior bank notes with maturities of more than one year from date of issue, senior bank notes with maturities ranging from 7 days to one year from date of issue and subordinated bank notes with maturities from 5 years to 30 years from date of issue.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger agreement. Please also refer to the additional risk factors identified under the heading A Warning About Forward-Looking Information on page and in the periodic reports and other documents of BB&T incorporated by reference into this document and listed under the heading Where You Can Find More Information on page .

The Price of BB&T Common Stock May Decrease Before and After the Merger, Which Would Decrease the Value of the Cash and BB&T Shares Received by First Citizens Shareholders.

On January 11, 2006, the day before the merger was announced, the per share closing price for BB&T common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $41.94. On June , 2006, the most recent practicable date before the mailing of this document, the closing price was $. The price of BB&T common stock may decrease before the merger is completed. The amount of cash or stock that a First Citizens shareholder will receive will be determined based upon the average of the daily high and low per share sales prices of BB&T common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the five full consecutive NYSE trading days ending on the day before the merger is completed. A decrease in the stock price would result in a reduction in the amount of cash and value of shares of BB&T common stock to be received by First Citizens shareholders.

In addition, fluctuations in the price of BB&T common stock will occur after completion of the merger. The trading price of BB&T common stock received by a First Citizens shareholder in connection with the merger, therefore, could be lower than the trading price of BB&T common stock on January 11, 2006; June , 2006 or the closing date of the merger. The market value of BB&T common stock fluctuates based upon general market economic conditions, BB&T's business and prospects and other factors. There is no floor or ceiling on the value of the merger consideration represented by the shares of BB&T common stock to be issued in the merger.

Stockholders May Receive a Form of Consideration Different from What They Elect.

Although each First Citizens shareholder may elect to receive all cash, all BB&T common stock or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock in the merger, BB&T will only pay cash for a maximum of 25% of the outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock. As a result, if more First Citizens shareholders elect to receive cash than this maximum amount, and you choose the all cash election or a combination election, you might receive a portion of your consideration in BB&T common stock. Because you may receive a mix of cash and stock regardless of your election, it will not be possible to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger at the time of making the election.

First Citizens Shareholders Will Receive Shares in the Merger with a Pro Forma Equivalent Tangible Book Value per Share Less than the Tangible Book Value per Share of the Shares they Own Prior to the Merger.

As of March 31, 2006, the tangible net book value per share of First Citizens common stock was $15.85 and the tangible net book value per share of BB&T common stock was $11.56. Giving effect to the exchange ratio of 1.30, and assuming 75% stock consideration, the pro forma equivalent tangible net book value per share of BB&T common stock that will be received by First Citizens shareholders for each share of First Citizens common stock is $11.29, or approximately 28.8% less than the tangible net book value per share of First Citizens common stock.

First Citizens Shareholders Will Receive Shares in the Merger with Basic Earnings per Share Less than the Basic Earnings per Share of the Shares they Own Prior to the Merger.

As of March 31, 2006, the basic earnings per share of First Citizens common stock were $1.64 and the basic earnings per share of BB&T were $0.80.

Table of Contents

Giving effect to the exchange ratio of 1.30 and assuming 75% stock consideration, the per share merger consideration of $55.29 and excluding any potential revenue enhancement opportunities, a shareholder of First Citizens would achieve approximately 52.2% dilution in basic earnings per share as a result of the consummation of the merger.

First Citizens Executive Officers and Directors Have Interests in the Merger in Addition to or Different from Your Interest as a First Citizens Shareholder.

First Citizens board of directors directed the negotiation of the merger agreement with BB&T, approved the merger agreement and is recommending that First Citizens shareholders vote for the merger agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that certain of First Citizens executive officers and directors have economic interests in the merger in addition to the interests that they share with you as a First Citizens shareholder. As described in detail under the heading "The Merger - Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Officers in the Merger" on page 10, there are substantial financial interests to be conveyed to certain executive officers of First Citizens due to the accelerated vesting of First Citizens stock options. In addition, as a condition to BB&T's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, certain executive officers and directors of First Citizens have or will enter into employment and/or consulting agreements with Branch Bank to be effective following the merger. Certain of the directors of First Citizens will serve on a Branch Bank local advisory board following the merger and will receive compensation for such service equal to the compensation they have received from their service on the First Citizens board of directors for two years following the effective date of the merger. See "The Merger - Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Officers in the Merger - Advisory Boards."

The Fairness Opinions Obtained by First Citizens From its Financial Advisors Will Not Reflect Changes in Circumstances Prior to the Merger.

Each of Hovde and Southard, the financial advisors to First Citizens, has delivered a fairness opinion to the Board of Directors of First Citizens. Each of the opinions states that as of January 10, 2006, the exchange ratio in the merger is fair from a financial point of view to First Citizens shareholders. Each of the opinions does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after January 10, 2006, including changes to the operations and prospects of First Citizens or BB&T, changes in general market and economic conditions or other factors. Because First Citizens does not plan to ask Hovde or Southard to update its opinion, the January 10, 2006 opinions may not accurately address the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed.

First Citizens Shareholders Will Not Control BB&T's Future Operations.

Following the merger, First Citizens shareholders in the aggregate will become the owners of approximately []% of the outstanding shares of BB&T common stock. Accordingly, former First Citizens shareholders will not have a significant impact on the election of directors or on whether future BB&T proposals to its shareholders are approved or rejected.

These statements should be read in conjunction with the notices about forward-looking statements made by BB&T in its reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements include the information concerning possible or assumed future results of operations of BB&T or First Citizens set forth under "Summary" and "The Merger Background of and Reasons for the Merger" and statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "believes," "expects," "assumes," "indicates," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "projects," "estimates" or other similar expressions. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page [].

BB&T and First Citizens have made statements in this document and, in the case of BB&T, in other documents to which this document refers regarding estimated earnings per share of BB&T on a stand-alone basis, expected cost savings from the merger, estimated merger or restructuring charges, estimated increases in First Citizens' fee income ratio, the anticipated accretive effect of the merger and BB&T's anticipated performance in future periods. With respect to estimated cost savings and merger or restructuring charges, BB&T has made assumptions about, among other things, the extent of operational overlap between BB&T and First Citizens, the amount of general and administrative expense consolidation, costs relating to converting First Citizens' bank operations and data processing to BB&T's systems, the size of anticipated reductions in fixed labor costs, the amount of severance expense, the extent of the charges that may be necessary to align the companies' respective accounting policies and the costs related to the merger. The realization of cost savings and the amount of merger or restructuring charges are subject to the risk that the foregoing assumptions are inaccurate and actual results may be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Any statements in this document about the anticipated accretive effect of the merger and BB&T's anticipated performance in future periods are subject to risks relating to, among other things, the following possibilities:

expected cost savings from the merger or other previously announced mergers may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of BB&T and its merger partners, including First Citizens, may be greater than expected;

general economic or business conditions, either nationally or regionally, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit;

legislative or regulatory changes, including changes in accounting standards, may adversely affect the businesses in which BB&T and First Citizens are engaged;

the requirement of divestiture of portion of the deposits of the combined company as a condition to regulatory approval of the merger.

adverse changes may occur in the securities markets; and competitors of BB&T and First Citizens may have greater financial resources and develop products that enable such competitors to compete more successfully than BB&T and First Citizens.

Management of each of BB&T and First Citizens believes the forward-looking statements about its company in this document are reasonable; however, shareholders of First Citizens should not place undue reliance on them. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The future results and stock valuations of BB&T following completion of the merger may differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine these results and values are beyond BB&T's and First Citizens' ability to control or predict.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this document and attributable to BB&T or First Citizens or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Neither BB&T nor First Citizens undertakes any obligation to release publicly any revisions to such forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

General

This proxy statement/prospectus is being furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the First Citizens Board of Directors from holders of First Citizens common stock for use at the special meeting of shareholders to be held at the main offices of First Citizens on Tuesday, July 11, 2006 at 9:00 a.m., Eastern time, and at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. At the special meeting of shareholders, holders of First Citizens common stock will be asked to vote upon the following proposals:

approval of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 11, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to Merger Agreement, dated May 18, 2006, referred to together in this proxy statement/prospectus as the merger agreement, between BB&T and First Citizens pursuant to which First Citizens would merge with and into BB&T. In this proxy statement/prospectus, we refer to the Agreement and Plan of Merger as the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement, as amended, is attached hereto as Appendix A;

approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the above proposal; and such other matters as may properly come before the special meeting.

Proxies may be voted on other matters that may properly come before the special meeting, if any, at the discretion of the proxy holders. The First Citizens Board of Directors knows of no such other matters except those incidental to the conduct of the special meeting.

Who Can Vote at the Special Meeting

The First Citizens Board of Directors has fixed the close of business (5:00 p.m., Eastern Time) on June 8, 2006 as the record date for determining the holders of First Citizens common stock entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Only holders of record of First Citizens common stock at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting.

On the record date, there were 2,598,687 shares of First Citizens common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, held by approximately 70 holders of record. Holders of record of First Citizens common stock are entitled to one vote per share on any matter which may properly come before the special meeting. Votes may be cast at the special meeting in person or by proxy.

The presence at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding First Citizens common stock entitled to vote, is necessary to constitute a quorum in order to transact business at the special meeting. However, in the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the special meeting will be adjourned or postponed in order to solicit additional proxies.

Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of a majority of the First Citizens common stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. All votes for or against, as well as all abstentions, will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Approval of the merger agreement will require the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of First Citizens common stock entitled to vote on the record date. In determining whether the proposal to approve the merger agreement has received the requisite number of affirmative votes, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and action on any other matter that is properly presented at the special meeting for consideration of the shareholders require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, failures to vote and abstentions will not be treated as votes cast and, therefore, will have no effect on either the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, or any other matter that is properly presented. The First Citizens Board of Directors is not aware of any other business to be presented at the special meeting other than as described above and other than matters incidental to the conduct of the special meeting.

As noted above, failures to vote and abstentions will have the same effect as votes against the merger agreement. Accordingly, the First Citizens Board of Directors urges you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy and return it promptly in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope or to otherwise vote your shares in another approved manner.

You should not return your stock certificates with your proxy cards. The procedure for surrendering your stock certificates is described under "The Merger Exchange of First Citizens Stock Certificates" on page [].

As of the record date, First Citizens' directors and executive officers and their affiliates may be deemed to be the beneficial owners of approximately 46.7% of the outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock (not including shares that may be acquired upon the exercise of stock options). As of the record date, the directors and officers of BB&T, their affiliates, BB&T and its subsidiaries owned no shares of First Citizens common stock. First Citizens expects that its directors and executive officers who are able to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement will do so, although none of them has entered into any agreements obligating them to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement.

How to Vote in Person

If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the shareholder of record, and you may vote in person at the special meeting. The grant of a proxy on the enclosed proxy card does not preclude a shareholder from voting in person.

How to Vote by Proxy

You may direct how your shares are voted without attending the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by any of the methods described below. For directions on how to vote, please refer to the instructions below and those included on your proxy card. Shareholders of record of First Citizens common stock may submit proxies by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and mailing them in the accompanying pre-addressed envelopes.

How Proxies Work

Shares represented by properly submitted proxies received in time for the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified by such proxies unless the proxies are revoked as described below. If your proxy is properly executed but does not contain voting instructions, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

If other matters are properly presented before the special meeting, the persons named in such proxy will have authority to vote in accordance with their judgment on any other such matters. It is not expected that any matter other than as described in this proxy statement/prospectus will be brought before the special meeting.

How to Revoke a Proxy

You may revoke a proxy at any time prior to your proxy being voted at the special meeting by:

prior to the special meeting, delivering a written notice of revocation bearing a later date or time than the proxy to P.O. Box 3300, Cleveland, Tennessee 37320, Attention: Corporate Secretary;

prior to the special meeting, submitting another proxy by mail or by hand delivery that is later dated and that is properly signed, dated and completed; or oral revocation at the special meeting in person to any of the persons named on the enclosed proxy card. Attendance at the special meeting will not by itself constitute revocation of a proxy; you must specifically revoke as described above.

Solicitation of Proxies

BB&T and First Citizens will each pay 50% of the cost of printing this proxy statement/prospectus, and First Citizens will pay all other costs of soliciting proxies from record and beneficial owners of First Citizens common stock. Directors, officers and other employees of First Citizens or its subsidiaries may solicit proxies personally, by telephone, by facsimile or otherwise. None of these people will receive any special compensation for solicitation activities. First Citizens will arrange with any custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock held of record by such custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, and First Citizens will reimburse these record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

If First Citizens' shareholders vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, the special meeting may be adjourned without notice, other than by an announcement made at the special meeting. Any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow First Citizens shareholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

Participants in the First Citizens Bancorp Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP)

The ESOP trustee, Ms. Elizabeth Harting holds shares of First Citizens common stock for the benefit of the ESOP participants and the beneficiaries of deceased participants. As of the record date, significantly all of these shares are allocated to the accounts of the ESOP participants or their beneficiaries, in the case of deceased participants. As the legal owner of the ESOP's First Citizens common stock shares, the ESOP trustee actually votes these shares as to the approval of the merger agreement. But, if you are an ESOP participant or deceased participant's beneficiary, you can provide confidential voting directions to the ESOP trustee for the shares that are allocated to your ESOP account. To this end, First Citizens has caused to be delivered to you a copy of this proxy statement/prospectus together with a form and instructions for your voting directions for the shares allocated to your account with respect to the approval of the merger agreement. First Citizens has appointed an independent fiduciary for the ESOP for the merger transaction. The independent fiduciary is responsible for assuring that you receive necessary and accurate information in order for you to be fully informed as you consider how to direct the trustee to vote the First Citizens common stock shares allocated to your ESOP account.

If you are an ESOP participant or the beneficiary of a deceased participant, you can direct the trustee to vote FOR approval of the merger agreement, to vote AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement, or to ABSTAIN from voting on the merger agreement with respect to the First Citizens common stock allocated to your ESOP account. You are not entitled to direct the trustee with respect to this stock as to the exercise of dissenters' rights or election of stock, cash or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock in the merger. The deadline for returning your voting directions card to the independent fiduciary is July 7, 2006. The independent fiduciary will review all timely and properly completed voting directions cards and provide the tally of the votes from all of these cards to the trustee. If you do not timely provide your voting directions or if you do not complete your voting directions card as described in the voting instructions for the First Citizens common stock allocated to your ESOP account, the independent fiduciary will direct the ESOP trustee with respect to the vote for these shares in addition to the vote of any First Citizens common stock shares that are held by the trustee for the ESOP but are not allocated as of the record date. In the event that it determines that a voting direction violates the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act or ERISA, the independent fiduciary will direct the ESOP trustee with respect to the vote for these shares. The independent fiduciary will insure the confidentiality of your voting directions so that these directions are not disclosed to First Citizens or any related organization or any officer, director, employee or agent of these organizations, including the ESOP trustee or the ESOP Committee.

Recommendation of the First Citizens Board of Directors

The First Citizens Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, as amended, and believes that the proposed transaction is fair to and in the best interests of First Citizens and its shareholders. The First Citizens Board of Directors unanimously recommends that First Citizens shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. See The Merger Background of and Reasons for the Merger on page []. Members of First Citizens Board of Directors will receive benefits from the merger that are in addition to those received by other First Citizens shareholders. These benefits are described in the Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Officers in the Merger Section beginning on page [].

THE MERGER

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger. This description does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement, as amended, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and incorporated herein by reference. All shareholders are urged to read the appendices in their entirety.

General

The merger agreement, as amended, provides for the merger of First Citizens into BB&T, with BB&T being the surviving corporation in the merger. First Citizens is a Tennessee corporation which is governed by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (TBCA), First Citizens' Articles of Incorporation and First Citizens' Bylaws. BB&T is a North Carolina corporation which is governed by the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (NCBCA), BB&T's Articles of Incorporation and BB&T's Bylaws. On the effective date of the merger, each share of First Citizens common stock then issued and outstanding will be converted into, and exchanged for, the right to receive 1.30 shares of BB&T common stock. Shares held by First Citizens or BB&T, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or as collateral for debts previously contracted, will not be converted to BB&T common stock.

Background of and Reasons for the Merger

Background of the Merger

From time to time over First Citizens' history, its Board of Directors has periodically explored and assessed strategic options available to achieve their ultimate goals of fully utilizing its capital, achieving a competitive return on equity, and maximizing shareholder value. These strategic discussions have included the possibility of accelerating branch openings, acquisitions of smaller institutions by First Citizens, de novo entry into new markets, business combinations involving First Citizens and other equally-sized financial institutions, and a possible sale or merger of First Citizens with a larger regional or national financial institution.

During the course of that process, First Citizens Board of Directors have from time to time employed, met with and received input from consulting and investment banking firms related to First Citizens strategic directions. In this context, in November 2004, Mr. Ken Rayborn, President and CEO of First Citizens Bancorp, and Mr. Alan Smith, President and COO of lead subsidiary The Bank/First Citizens Bank and Executive Vice President of First Citizens Bancorp, being authorized representatives of Bancorp's Board, met with representatives of Hovde Financial. During this meeting, Hovde reviewed with them recent industry events and developments as well as information related to the array of strategic options available to First Citizens.

In December 2004, the board representatives decided it was appropriate to engage an investment banking firm to advise it on its strategic alternatives. Hovde Financial had a detailed knowledge of First Citizens, was extremely familiar with the Tennessee banking market, and had significant knowledge of many potential partners for First Citizens. After considering several nationally recognized investment banking firms, the representatives made the decision to engage Hovde Financial.

As a part of its engagement, Hovde met with First Citizens' representatives and discussed specific strategic alternatives available to First Citizens and additional information regarding the banking industry and market conditions in general. Hovde also discussed bank holding companies that, in its opinion, were a cultural fit, could have an interest in acquiring First Citizens and had the necessary financial resources to carry out the transaction and to obtain regulatory approvals. In early 2005, Hovde, with the assistance of First Citizens' management, completed its due diligence review of First Citizens.

Following that process, Hovde had confidential conversations with several bank holding companies about their potential interest in First Citizens. As a result of these discussions, several of these companies submitted preliminary indications of interest. Hovde provided the board representatives a comparison of the indications of interest, highlighting the differences in pricing and proposal terms, the business and financial performance of each company and assessed the indications of interest in relation to the future value of First Citizens as an independent entity as well as other comparable precedent transactions. After evaluating those indications of interest, giving due consideration to all relevant factors, including the short-term and long-term social and economic interest of First Citizens' employees, customers, shareholders, other constituents and the communities within which it operates, and discussing those results with the Board of Directors, the decision was made to reject all of those proposals and to continue operating independently as in the past.

In June 2005 a representative of Hovde Financial met with Burney Warren, Executive Vice President, Mergers and Acquisitions of BB&T, to discuss a potential transaction. During and following this meeting, it was concluded that there was a mutual interest in proceeding with discussions related to a possible merger between BB&T and First Citizens. It was determined that non-binding negotiations regarding a potential transaction would be commenced among BB&T, First Citizens and Hovde Financial. Between June 2005 and October 2005, Hovde Financial facilitated the exchange of further information between BB&T and First Citizens and additional discussions were had regarding terms of a potential transaction.

From October through December 2005, First Citizens representatives and BB&T representatives had several meetings and telephone conversations to discuss the background, philosophies and corporate culture of the two companies, their strategic directions and their possible interest in pursuing a strategic combination of BB&T and First Citizens and other issues. The parties also discussed the parameters relating to a possible transaction between the two parties, including the form of consideration, the range of value, and the desire for a tax free transaction to the extent the merger consideration would consist of BB&T stock. Between January 6 and January 8, 2006, representatives of BB&T conducted on-site due diligence investigations of First Citizens.

On January 10, 2006, the First Citizens Board of Directors held a special board meeting to discuss the proposed transaction that was attended by First Citizens' outside legal and financial advisors. Messer's Rayborn and Smith reviewed with the First Citizens Board of Directors information regarding BB&T, First Citizens, and the terms of the proposed transaction.

At the January 10, 2006 meeting, Hovde Financial also reviewed with the First Citizens Board of Directors additional information, including financial information regarding BB&T and First Citizens and the transaction, as well as information regarding peer companies and comparable transactions. Hovde Financial rendered to the First Citizens Board of Directors its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and other matters as Hovde Financial considered relevant, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of First Citizens common stock. Southard Financial also rendered to the First Citizens Board of Directors its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and other matters as Southard Financial considered relevant, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of First Citizens common stock.

At the January 10, 2006 special board meeting, legal counsel to First Citizens discussed with the First Citizens Board of Directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions and actions with respect to the proposed transactions and reviewed in detail the legal terms of the proposed merger agreement and the related agreements negotiated between BB&T, First Citizens and their respective legal counsel during December 2005 and January 2006. Following review and discussion among the members of the First Citizens Board of Directors, the First Citizens Board of Directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement with BB&T, subject to final resolution of certain terms contained in the merger agreement and the relevant employment agreements required by BB&T as a part of their proposal.

After the close of regular trading of the NYSE and the NASDAQ on January 11, 2006, and subsequent to the final resolution of certain terms contained in the merger agreement and employment agreements, First Citizens and BB&T and their counsel finalized, executed, and delivered the definitive agreements for the transaction, including the merger agreement and the relevant employment and consulting agreements with Messrs. Rayborn and Smith which were a condition of BB&T's willingness to enter into the merger agreement.

The transaction was announced on January 12, 2006 by a joint press release issued by BB&T and First Citizens before the beginning of trading on the NYSE and the NASDAQ.

First Citizens' Reasons for the Merger

First Citizens' board of directors believes that the merger is advisable and in the best interest of First Citizens and its shareholders. In reaching this determination, First Citizens' board of directors considered a number of factors including, without limitation, the following:

the value of the consideration to be received by First Citizens' shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of First Citizens common stock;

information concerning BB&T's financial condition, results of operations and business prospects;

the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed merger with BB&T;

the opinion of Hovde Financial, LLC that the consideration to be received by First Citizens' shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view;

the opinion of Southard Financial that the consideration to be received by First Citizens' shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view;

the fact that the merger will enable First Citizens' shareholders to exchange their relatively illiquid shares of First Citizens common stock for the shares that are widely held and actively traded, and that the acquisition of BB&T common stock will be tax-free to First Citizens shareholders;

that BB&T has historically paid cash dividends on its common stock;

the likely impact of the merger on the employees and customers of First Citizens;

the competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally and the increased competition brought about by consolidation, deregulation and other factors, as well as the financial size and resources necessary to compete in this environment;

the alternatives to the merger, including remaining an independent institution;

the offer from BB&T was by far the best financial offer in comparison to the preliminary indications of interest that had been previously submitted and the low probability of receiving more favorable offers from other financial institutions in the near future due to the thorough market-testing process undertaken by Hovde on behalf of First Citizens;

the likelihood of the merger being approved by applicable regulatory authorities without undue conditions or delay; and the expanded range of banking services that the merger will allow First Citizens to provide its customers.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes some of the most material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the transaction, the board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations. Individual directors may have given different weights to the specific factors considered in reaching the foregoing determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The First Citizens Board of Directors considered in their analysis of the materials presented by Hovde and Southard all of the factors that did not support a recommendation to the First Citizens shareholders to approve the proposed merger. These factors included the fact that the pro forma equivalent tangible book value per share of BB&T common stock was less than the per share tangible book value of First Citizens common stock and that the pro forma earnings per share of BB&T common stock was less than the earnings per share of First Citizens common stock. Another factor considered by the Board was the absence of any adjustment to the exchange ratio if the market price of BB&T common stock declined prior to the closing of the merger. After careful consideration of the issues described above and the potential short and long-term economic effect on First Citizens shareholders, the First Citizens Board of Directors concluded that the overall potential benefits of the merger outweighed the negative factors.

After carefully considering the acquisition proposal, the board of directors of First Citizens unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby as being the best interests of First Citizens and its shareholders. The board of directors of First Citizens believes that the present banking climate offers an opportune time for shareholders of First Citizens to exchange their shares for BB&T common stock and/or cash at an attractive price. The board of directors of First Citizens unanimously recommends that the shareholders of First Citizens vote FOR the approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

BB&T's Reasons for the Merger

One of BB&T's announced objectives is to pursue in-market and contiguous state acquisitions of banks and thrifts in the $500 million to $15 billion asset size range. BB&T's management believes that the acquisition of

Table of Contents

First Citizens is consistent with this strategy, and will provide BB&T contiguous expansion from its current Knoxville-based markets toward Chattanooga and our Northeast Georgia franchise. The merger also provides BB&T with an opportunity to sell its array of banking and insurance products to First Citizens' client base.

In evaluating the merger, BB&T analyzed the projected financial effects of the merger against established investment criteria that BB&T consistently applies, using the assumptions described below in Assumptions Made By BB&T. BB&T does not require that every individual investment criterion be met, and a failure to meet one of the criteria may be offset or compensated for by favorable results in evaluating other criteria. Overall, giving effect to the failure to meet certain individual criteria and the favorable results in evaluating other criteria, the BB&T Board of Directors determined that its established investment criteria were met. Below are BB&T's eight investment criteria (listed in order of importance) and the projected results of the First Citizens merger with respect to each as presented to BB&T, assuming First Citizens shareholders elect 100% stock consideration:

Criterion: The transaction must be accretive to cash earnings per share by the second full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to cash earnings per share the first full year following the merger.

Criterion: The transaction must be accretive to earnings per share, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, by the third full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive in the first full year following the merger.

Criterion: The projected performance of First Citizens must conform to BB&T's internal rate of return criteria. BB&T's current minimum internal rate of return for this type of investment is 15% or better. BB&T's analysis indicated the projected internal rate of return of First Citizens will be better than 15%.

Criterion: The transaction must be accretive to cash basis return on equity by the third full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to cash basis return on equity in the first full year following the merger.

Criterion: The transaction must be accretive to cash basis return on assets by the third full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to cash basis return on assets in the first full year following the merger.

Criterion: The transaction must be accretive to tangible book value by the fifth full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to tangible book value in the fourth full year following the merger.

Criterion: The combined leverage ratio following the merger must not be below 7%. BB&T's analysis indicated that the combined leverage ratio will remain over 7%.

Criterion: The transaction must create accelerated dividend growth potential for current BB&T shareholders by the fifth full year following the merger. BB&T's analysis indicated that the merger will create accelerated dividend growth in the first full year following the merger.

None of the above information has been updated since the date of the merger agreement. There can be no certainty that actual results will be consistent with the results described above. For more information concerning the factors that could affect actual results, see A Warning About Forward-Looking Information on page [].

In reaching its determination that the merger agreement is fair to, and in the best interests of, BB&T and its shareholders, the BB&T Board of Directors considered the above factors, as well as the following:

The acquisition is consistent with BB&T's strategy of pursuing in-market (Carolinas/Virginia/West Virginia/D.C./Maryland/Georgia/Kentucky/Tennessee/Florida) and contiguous state acquisitions of high quality banks and thrifts.

The acquisition is consistent with past acquisitions that have been successfully executed.

Table of Contents

The transaction will provide BB&T with the following:

the opportunity to sell a broad array of banking and insurance products to First Citizens' client base;

an expanded presence in Tennessee, with its market share rank increasing to seventh from ninth in the state; and an increase in market share rank to first from eighth in the Cleveland, Tennessee metropolitan area.

The terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio, were the result of arms-length negotiations between representatives of First Citizens and representatives of BB&T. The BB&T Board of Directors did not assign any specific weight to the factors in its consideration. The Board collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, in light of the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of the shareholders of BB&T.

Assumptions Made by BB&T

For the purpose of the analysis, described above in BB&T's Reasons for the Merger, BB&T made the following assumptions:

BB&T common stock having a closing price of $41.94 on January 11, 2006;

BB&T's earnings per share (EPS) for 2006 would be in line with the estimate published by First Call Corporation of $3.30;

BB&T's earnings per share for subsequent years are based upon an assumption that income statement and balance sheet growth would be at an annual rate of 10.0%;

First Citizens' 2005 net income estimate is based on pre-tax income of $14.9 million and the 2006 net income estimate reflects approximately 10% growth;

Annual pre-tax cost savings of approximately 35% of First Citizens' 2006 estimated noninterest expense base (realized in the first 12 months of operations following conversion of First Citizens' systems to BB&T's systems);

Income statement and balance sheet growth rates, except for noninterest income, attributable to First Citizens would be 10% in all model years. First Citizens' noninterest income was projected to grow to achieve a fee income ratio of 35% in year seven and at 10% in each year thereafter;

Divestiture of $32.7 million of First Citizens' deposits;

After giving effect to the assumed divestiture, First Citizens' core net interest margin (non-fully taxable equivalent) was estimated at 4.38% in all model years; and

Edgar Filing: BB&T CORP - Form S-4/A

Incurring one-time after-taxes merger-related charges of $11.1 million, net of estimated premium of $1.3 million from divested deposits.

Opinion of Hovde Financial LLC, First Citizens Financial Advisor

General. Hovde has delivered to the Board of Directors of First Citizens its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated January 10, 2006, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of First Citizens is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by First Citizens upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde, dated January 10, 2006, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix B. The shareholders of First Citizens should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The Board of Directors of First Citizens selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

Hovde Financial will receive a fee contingent upon the completion of the merger for services rendered in connection with advising First Citizens regarding the merger including financial advisory services provided to First Citizens. As of the date of the fairness opinion, that fee would have been approximately $1.4 million, and Hovde Financial will receive substantially all of this amount upon the close of the transaction.

Hovde's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of First Citizens as to how the shareholder should vote at the First Citizens shareholder meeting. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this joint statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the Board of Directors of First Citizens by Hovde. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde to the Board of Directors of First Citizens, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Board of Directors of First Citizens and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of First Citizens and BB&T. The analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of First Citizens. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which First Citizens might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde's opinion to the Board of Directors of First Citizens was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Board of Directors of First Citizens in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of First Citizens and BB&T and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the merger agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning First Citizens and BB&T; certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning First Citizens;

certain financial projections prepared by the managements of First Citizens;

certain other information provided to Hovde by members of the senior managements of First Citizens for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of First Citizens, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings expected to be achieved as a result of the merger;

historical market prices and trading volumes for BB&T common stock;

the nature and terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that we considered relevant;

the pro forma ownership of BB&T's common stock by the shareholders of First Citizens relative to the pro forma contribution of First Citizens' assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;

the pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and such other information and factors as we have deemed appropriate.

Hovde also took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations. In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the merger agreement. Hovde also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde by First Citizens were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of First Citizens as to the future financial performance of First Citizens. Hovde has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of First Citizens or BB&T. Hovde assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the publicly available and any other non-public financial information provided to it by First Citizens and BB&T, relied upon the representations and warranties of First Citizens and BB&T made pursuant to the merger agreement, and did not independently attempt to verify any of such information.

Hovde calculated the medians of the following relevant transaction ratios in the Nationwide Merger Group, the Southeastern Merger Group and the Tennessee Merger Group: the percentage of the offer value to the acquired company's total assets, the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's earnings for the twelve months preceding the announcement date of the transaction; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits. Hovde compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at approximately $144.6 million, or $55.29 per First Citizens diluted share. In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde used First Citizens earnings for the twelve months ended September 30, 2005, and First Citizens' tangible book value per share, total assets, and total deposits as of September 30, 2005. The results of this analysis are as follows:

	Total Assets (%)	Offer Value to Tangible Book Value (x)	12 months Preceding Earnings (x)	Ratio of Tangible Book Value Premium to Core Deposits (%)
First Citizens Bancorp	21.1	3.44	17.3	22.5

Southeastern Merger Group median	22.8	2.31	17.3	18.3
Tennessee Merger Group median	19.7	2.41	16.5	13.2

Financial Implications to First Citizens Shareholders

Hovde prepared an analysis of the financial implications of BB&T Corporation's offer to a holder of First Citizens common stock. This analysis indicated that on a pro forma equivalent basis, assuming 75% stock consideration, the per share merger consideration of $55.29 and excluding any potential revenue enhancement opportunities, a shareholder of First Citizens would achieve approximately 26.1% dilution in GAAP earnings per share, approximately 21.3% dilution in cash earnings per share, a decrease in tangible book value per share of approximately 30.4%, and an increase in total book value per share of approximately 20.5% as a result of the consummation of the merger. A second analysis indicated that on a pro forma equivalent basis, assuming 100% stock consideration, the per share merger consideration of $55.29 and excluding any potential revenue enhancement opportunities, a shareholder of First Citizens would achieve approximately 1.6% dilution in GAAP earnings per share, approximately 4.9% accretion in cash earnings per share, a decrease in tangible book value

Contribution Analysis

Hovde Financial prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of total assets, total net loans, total deposits, total equity and tangible equity at September 30, 2005 for First Citizens and for BB&T, trailing four quarters earnings as of September 30, 2005, as well estimated fiscal year 2006 earnings that would be contributed to the combined company on a pro-forma basis by First Citizens and BB&T. This analysis indicated that, in a hypothetical 100% stock transaction, holders of First Citizens common stock would own approximately 0.6% of the pro forma common shares outstanding of BB&T Corporation while contributing a median of 0.6% of the financial components listed above.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

Hovde estimated the present value of all shares of First Citizens common stock by estimating the value of First Citizens' estimated future free cash flow stream beginning in 2005 excluding potential cost savings. Reflecting First Citizens' and Hovde's estimated projections, Hovde assumed free cash flows in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2010 of $0.9 million, $6.9 million, $8.1 million, $9.5 million, $11.0 million, and $12.9 million, respectively. The present value of these free cash flows was calculated based on a discount rate of 14.0%. In order to derive the terminal value of First Citizens' free cash flows stream beyond 2010, Hovde assumed a perpetuity value based on a growth rate into perpetuity of 6.5%. The present value of this perpetuity amount was then calculated based on the discount rate mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders of First Citizens common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a value for First Citizens of approximately $103.5 million in aggregate compared to total merger consideration of $144.6 million.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of First Citizens.

Opinion of Southard Financial, First Citizens Financial Advisor

First Citizens engaged Southard to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger.

Opinion of Southard Financial

On January 10, 2006, Southard rendered to the First Citizens Board of Directors its written opinion (the "Southard Opinion") to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to certain matters stated in such opinion, the consideration to be paid in the merger with BB&T is fair, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of First Citizens, including both stockholders who will receive cash in the merger and those who will remain stockholders of BB&T after the merger. No limitations were imposed by the Board upon Southard with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by them in rendering their opinions.

The full text of the written Southard Opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Appendix C hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the Southard Opinion in its entirety. Southard's opinion is directed to the Board, addresses only the fairness of the consideration to be paid in the Transaction from a financial point of view, and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special shareholders' meeting. The summary of the opinion of Southard set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

As described in its opinion, Southard assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy, completeness and fairness of the information furnished to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Southard for purposes of their opinion. With respect to the information relating to the prospects of First Citizens and BB&T, Southard assumed that such information reflected the best currently available judgments and estimates of the management of First Citizens and BB&T as to the likely future financial performance of First Citizens and BB&T. Southard did not verify through independent inspection or examination the specific assets or liabilities of First Citizens or BB&T. Southard did not make nor were they provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of First Citizens or BB&T. The following is a summary of the material analyses and factors considered by Southard in connection with the Southard Opinion presented to the Board:

Southard is a specialized consulting and valuation firm focusing on providing stock valuations to companies and financial institutions located throughout the United States, or to groups of individuals associated with U.S.-based companies and financial institutions. As part of its line of professional services, Southard specializes in rendering valuation opinions of banks and bank holding companies nationwide. First Citizens selected Southard to serve as its financial advisor based on Southard's reputation, expertise and familiarity with Tennessee-based financial institutions.

As described above, First Citizens authorized the engagement of Southard to render its Southard Opinion. Southard rendered to First Citizens legal counsel its written opinion dated January 10, 2006, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to certain matters stated in the Southard Opinion, the consideration to be paid to First Citizens shareholders in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of First Citizens.

The following summary of the procedures and analyses performed, and assumptions used, by Southard is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Southard Opinion. The Southard Opinion is directed only to the financial terms of the Transaction, and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special shareholders' meeting.

In arriving at the Southard Opinion, Southard reviewed and analyzed, among other things, the following: (i) the financial statements of First Citizens and BB&T and their subsidiaries; (ii) certain other publicly available financial and other information concerning First Citizens and BB&T and their subsidiaries; (iii) publicly available information concerning other banks and bank holding companies, the trading markets for their securities and the nature and terms of certain other transactions relevant to Southard's inquiry; (iv) the competitive and economic outlook for First Citizens and BB&T's trade area; (v) the book value and financial condition of First Citizens and BB&T and their subsidiaries; (vi) the future earnings and dividend paying capacity of First Citizens and BB&T and their subsidiaries; (vii) previous sales of First Citizens and BB&T stock; and (viii) the prevailing market prices for selected banking organizations in Tennessee and the United States. Southard held discussions with senior management of First Citizens concerning First Citizens' past and current operations, financial condition and prospects, as well as the results of recent bank regulatory examinations.

In conducting its review and in arriving at the Southard Opinion, Southard relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to it or publicly available, and did not attempt to independently verify the same. Southard did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the properties of First Citizens or BB&T, nor did it examine any individual loan credit files. For purposes of the Southard Opinion, Southard assumed that the merger will have the tax, accounting and legal effects described in the Proxy Statement and assumed that the transaction would be consummated on a timely basis in the manner presented by First Citizens and BB&T and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

As more fully discussed below, Southard considered such financial and other factors as it deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including among others the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of First Citizens and BB&T, including interest income, interest expense, net interest income, net interest margin, provision for loan losses, non-interest income, non-interest expense, earnings, dividends, internal capital generation, book value, intangible assets, return on assets, return on stockholders' equity, capitalization, the amount and type of non-performing assets, loan losses and the reserve for loan losses, all as set forth in the financial statements for First Citizens and its subsidiaries; and, (ii) the assets and liabilities of First Citizens and its subsidiaries, including the loan investment and mortgage portfolios, deposits, other liabilities, historical and current liability sources and costs and liquidity. Southard also took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and its knowledge of the banking industry generally. The Southard Opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and can be evaluated on the respective dates thereof and the information made available to Southard through such dates.

In connection with rendering the Southard Opinion, Southard performed certain financial analyses, which are summarized below. Southard believes that its analysis must be considered as a whole, and that selecting portions of such analysis and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analysis, could create an incomplete view of the analysis and the processes underlying the Southard Opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In its analyses, Southard made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of First Citizens and BB&T. Any estimates contained in Southard's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals of such companies or necessarily reflect the prices at which such companies or their securities may actually be sold.

Adequacy of Total Price

The key consideration in the fairness opinion is the adequacy of the total price paid by BB&T. Under the terms of the merger, individual First Citizens shareholders may elect to receive for each First Citizens share owned: (1) an amount of cash equal to 1.30 multiplied by the average of the last sale prices of BB&T common stock for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger; (2) the stock election of 1.3 shares of BB&T stock; or, (3) a combination of shares of BB&T stock and cash, subject to the Agreement. The total cash paid to First Citizens shareholders choosing the cash election will be no more than 25% of the total consideration. The analysis presented below is based upon the total consideration to be received by First Citizens, based upon a market price of $42.50 per share for BB&T (near the $42.53 closing price on January 6, 2006). At that share price, the stock exchange election has a per share value of $55.25 ($42.50 times 1.3), or $3.25 per share higher than the cash equivalent price, which was assumed to be $52.00 per share for purposes of the Southard Opinion. Thus, the total consideration as of the date of the Southard opinion is in the range of $143,345,407 (all 2,594,487 First Citizens shares exchanged for shares of BB&T) and $141,237,386 (25% of shares exchanged for cash, 75% for shares of BB&T). The analysis presented below is based upon a deal value of about $142,000,000, or about $54.75 per First Citizens share. It should be noted that options to purchase First Citizens stock will be converted into options to purchase BB&T stock (at the exchange ratio), so no adjustment for option shares is necessary in the analyses presented below.

Analysis of Market Transactions

Based upon the merger terms (total consideration cash equivalent price of $142 million), the merger of First Citizens into BB&T will take place at 17.8 times 2004 earnings (fully-taxable basis), 10.8 times 2005 earnings (fully-taxable basis), 334% of reported September 30, 2005 book value, and 20.7% of consolidated September 30, 2005 assets. The multiples are essentially the same on a fully-diluted basis. Based upon the review conducted by Southard Financial, and given the financial characteristics and performance of First Citizens, the pricing for First Citizens in the merger is within the range of multiples seen in recent acquisitions of banks and bank holding companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Southard Financial prepared a pro-forma discounted cash flow analysis to determine a range of present values of First Citizens assuming First Citizens continued to operate as a stand-alone entity. This range was determined by adding (i) the present value of the estimated future dividend stream that First Citizens could generate over the ten year period from 2006 to 2015 and (ii) the present value of the terminal value of First Citizens common stock at the end of 2015. To determine a projected dividend stream, Southard Financial assumed a maximum equity to assets ratio of 8.0%. Southard Financial used annualized earnings for 2005 (fully taxable equivalent) and assumed annual growth in earnings and assets of between 5% and 10%. The terminal value of First Citizens common stock at the end of the ten-year period was determined by applying a price/earnings multiple of 20 times projected net income for First Citizens in 2015. The dividend stream and terminal value were discounted to the present using discount rates of 13% to 18%, which Southard Financial viewed as appropriate for a company with First Citizens risk characteristics. Using this analysis, the implied value of First Citizens was consistently near or below the estimated merger price.

Liquidity

First Citizens shares are not traded on a public stock exchange. Other than a recent tender offer by First Citizens, there have been no recent transactions in First Citizens stock. Alternatively, BB&T shares are actively and widely traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), BB&T is covered by about 25 market analysts, and BB&T stock is included in the S&P 500 Stock Index. Further, BB&T shares received will be immediately transferable. Thus, the liquidity of First Citizens shareholders making the stock election or the combined election will be significantly enhanced.

Analysis of Alternatives

In evaluating the fairness of the proposed merger to the shareholders of First Citizens, Southard Financial reviewed with First Citizens management the process undertaken by Hovde on behalf of First Citizens whereby confidential conversations were conducted with several bank holding companies about their potential interest in First Citizens as described more fully in the Background of the Merger. As a result of these discussions, several companies submitted preliminary indications of interest. The pending transaction with BB&T was by far the best financial offer in comparison to the preliminary indications of interest that had been previously submitted by other companies. After receiving the offer from BB&T, First Citizens Board did not pursue other offers. The Board determined that it was unlikely that a significantly better offer would be received.

Impact of an Exchange of First Citizens Stock for BB&T Stock

For evaluating the impact of the transaction on those who elect to receive BB&T shares, it was assumed that the transaction consisted of the stock election of 1.3 BB&T shares for each First Citizens share.

Dividend Yield Analysis

In evaluating the impact of the proposed merger on the shareholders of First Citizens, Southard Financial reviewed the dividend paying histories of First Citizens and BB&T. Both First Citizens and BB&T pay dividends to their shareholders. First Citizens dividends have been larger than BB&T dividends, largely due to the S-Corporation status of First Citizens and the need to make distributions to shareholders to pay taxes on earnings. Dividends would likely not be as high if not for this factor. On a comparable basis, after giving effect to corporate taxes on income and taxes on dividends, the impact on the dividends received by First Citizens shareholders is estimated to be neutral.

Earnings Yield Analysis

In evaluating the impact of the proposed merger on the shareholders of First Citizens, Southard Financial determined that the shareholders of First Citizens would have seen a positive impact on earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2005, assuming that the merger had been consummated on January 1, 2005. Thus, the proposed merger is expected to be accretive to earnings per share during the first year following the transaction.

Book Value Analysis

In evaluating the impact of the proposed merger on the shareholders of First Citizens, Southard Financial estimates that the shareholders of First Citizens should experience over a 60% increase in the book value of their investment, based upon the book values of First Citizens and BB&T at September 30, 2005.

Fundamental Analysis

Southard Financial reviewed the financial characteristics of First Citizens and BB&T with respect to profitability, capital ratios, liquidity, asset quality, and other factors. Southard Financial compared First Citizens and BB&T to a universe of publicly traded banks and bank holding companies and to peer groups prepared by the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council. Southard Financial found that the post-merger combined entity will have capital ratios and profitability ratios within the range of those of the peer groups.

Summary of Analyses

The summary set forth does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Southard Financial. The analyses performed by Southard Financial are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may differ significantly from those suggested by such analyses. Southard Financial did not appraise any individual assets or liabilities of First Citizens or BB&T. Throughout the due diligence process, all information provided by First Citizens and third party sources was relied upon by Southard Financial without independent verification.

Accordingly, based on all factors that Southard deems relevant and assuming the accuracy and completeness of the information and data provided, Southard concludes that the total consideration paid to the stockholders in connection with the merger, is fair, from a financial standpoint, to all stockholders of First Citizens, including those stockholders receiving the cash consideration as well as those stockholders of First Citizens who will remain stockholders of BB&T after the merger. It should be noted that the exchange of First Citizens stock for cash, BB&T stock, or some combination of cash and BB&T stock (as outlined in the Agreement) are essentially equivalent for purposes of the Southard opinion. Nevertheless, there are advantages and disadvantages of taking cash versus stock, and the desirability of either is subject to the risk characteristics of the stock and subject to the risk profile of each individual investor.

Prior to its engagement to assist the First Citizens Board and management in connection with their analysis of this potential transaction, Southard had not previously provided valuation or other professional services to First Citizens. Southard has not previously served as a market maker for First Citizens common stock.

First Citizens paid Southard $20,000 for rendering the Southard Opinion. First Citizens also reimbursed Southard for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and agreed to indemnify Southard against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Merger Consideration

Under the merger agreement, you will receive one of the following forms of payment of the merger consideration in exchange for each of your shares of First Citizens common stock (subject to the limitation on total cash payable discussed below):

1.30 shares of BB&T common stock the per share stock consideration ;

An amount in cash equal to 1.30 multiplied by the average of the last sale prices of BB&T common stock for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger the per-share cash consideration ; or

A combination of cash and BB&T common stock as designated on the election form by the First Citizens shareholder.

First Citizens shareholders are entitled to elect to receive the per share stock consideration, the per share cash consideration or any combination of BB&T common stock and cash, in whole share increments with respect to the shareholders shares of First Citizens common stock. In other words, by promptly completing and timely delivering the election form (which BB&T is sending to you separately), you can elect to receive cash for all of your First Citizens shares, BB&T common stock for all of your First Citizens shares, or cash for some of your shares and BB&T common stock for the remainder of your shares (a mixed election). If you elect to receive any cash consideration, you may not receive the amount of cash you elected, as explained below. If you elect to receive all BB&T common stock, you will receive only BB&T common stock as merger consideration, regardless of the decisions of other First Citizens shareholders.

The total amount of cash payable in connection with the merger is limited in that the per-share cash consideration will be paid for a maximum of 25% of the shares of First Citizens common stock exchanged in the merger. In the event the cash to be paid as merger consideration exceeds this limit, the merger agreement provides rules which are described below in Allocation of the Merger Consideration to allocate stock and cash forms of merger consideration based on the elections made by the First Citizens shareholders. Accordingly, you may receive cash for a lesser number of shares of First Citizens common stock than you elected. This could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted had you received the exact form of merger consideration you elected.

No fractional shares of BB&T common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, cash will be paid for any fractional share of BB&T common stock to which any First Citizens shareholder would be entitled upon completion of the merger. The cash paid will be an amount equal to the shareholder s fractional interest multiplied by the average last sale price per share of BB&T Corporation common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger.

Neither First Citizens or BB&T (or their respective Boards of Directors) nor their financial advisors make any recommendation as to whether you should choose BB&T common stock, cash or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock for your shares of First Citizens common stock. You should consult with your own financial advisor about this decision.

BB&T common stock is listed for quotation on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BBT. On January 11, 2006, which was the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger, the price of BB&T common stock closed at $41.94 per share, and on June 1, 2006, the price of BB&T common stock closed at $ _____ per share.

You should be aware that the market value of a share of BB&T common stock will fluctuate, and neither BB&T nor First Citizens can give you any assurance as to what the price of BB&T common stock will be when the merger becomes effective or when certificates for those shares are delivered following surrender in exchange of your certificates for shares of BB&T common stock. We urge you to obtain information on the market value of BB&T common stock that is more recent than that provided in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Summary Comparative Market Prices and Dividends on page _____.

Illustration of Allocation of the Merger Consideration, Assuming No Oversubscription for Cash

The following table illustrates calculations of consideration at different BB&T share prices that would be received by a holder of 100 shares of First Citizens common stock depending on whether the shareholder made a mixed election, an all cash election, or an all stock election.

These calculations assume that there will be no oversubscription for cash. The assumed closing value of the BB&T common stock set forth in the table have been included for representative purposes only. The closing value at the effective time of the merger may be less than $30.00 or more than $50.00. We cannot predict what the closing value for BB&T common stock will be or what the value of the BB&T common stock to be issued in the merger will be at or following the effective time.

Neither First Citizens or BB&T, nor their respective Boards of Directors nor their financial advisors make any recommendation as to whether you should choose BB&T common stock, cash or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock for your shares of First Citizens common stock. You should consult with your own financial advisor about this decision.

Election of the Form of Payment of the Merger Consideration

First Citizens shareholders are entitled to elect to receive the per share stock consideration, the per share cash consideration or any combination of BB&T common stock and cash, in whole share increments with respect to the shareholders' shares of First Citizens common stock (subject to the limitation on total cash payable as described below in Allocation of the Merger Consideration). BB&T will deliver or mail to you a form of election and instructions for making your election as to the form of merger consideration you prefer to receive in the merger, subject to the allocation procedures described below in Allocation of the Merger Consideration. Each holder of First Citizens common stock should complete, date and sign the election form that is being separately mailed to you and return it promptly in the prepaid, pre-addressed envelope provided to you with the election form. If you do not make an election by 5:00 p.m. Eastern time, on July 20, 2006, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive BB&T common stock. A First Citizens shareholder's proper election will be effective for the lesser of the number of his or her shares owned (i) on the election deadline; or (ii) on the effective date of the merger. Furthermore, if a First Citizens shareholder makes a proper mixed election and, on the effective date of the merger, he or she owns some but not all of the shares with respect to which he or she made the proper mixed election, the shares retained will be treated in proportionately the same manner as the mixed election the First Citizens shareholder originally selected in his or her properly submitted election form.

All shareholder elections must be made on the election form to be provided by BB&T. To be effective, an election form must be properly completed, and received by BB&T no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on July 20, 2006 (the election deadline). If a First Citizens shareholder does not make an election by the election deadline, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive BB&T common stock. Elections may be revoked or changed upon written notice to BB&T prior to the election deadline. If a shareholder revokes an election form and does not properly make a new election by the election deadline in respect of the shares of First Citizens common stock covered by the revoked election form, it will be deemed that the holder did not make any election in respect of those shares and will be deemed to have made an election to receive BB&T common stock.

BB&T will have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in an election form, and any good faith decision of BB&T regarding such matters will be binding and conclusive. BB&T WILL NOT BE UNDER ANY OBLIGATION TO NOTIFY ANY PERSON OF ANY DEFECT IN AN ELECTION FORM.

Allocation of the Merger Consideration

The merger agreement limits the aggregate number of shares of First Citizens common stock for which BB&T will pay the per share cash consideration to 25% of the total outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock at the effective time of the merger.

If more than 25% of the total number of shares of First Citizens common stock issued and outstanding have, at the election deadline, been deposited for cash pursuant to all cash elections, mixed elections and dissenting shares, and not withdrawn, BB&T will promptly eliminate, or cause to be eliminated by the exchange agent, from the shares deposited pursuant to all cash elections, a sufficient number of such shares so that the total number of shares remaining on deposit for cash pursuant to all cash elections, mixed elections and dissenting shares does not exceed 25% of the shares of First Citizens common stock issued and outstanding on the effective date. However, in no event will the holders of one hundred (100) or fewer shares of First Citizens common stock of record on the date of the merger agreement who have elected all cash elections be required to have any of their shares of First Citizens common stock converted into BB&T common stock, and the trustees and administrators of the First Citizens ESOP shall not be required to have any of the shares of First Citizens common stock held in such plan converted into BB&T common stock if the appropriate administrator has elected an all cash election.

Subject to the limitations regarding the First Citizens ESOP and holders of 100 or fewer shares of First Citizens common stock discussed above, BB&T will (i) eliminate or cause to be eliminated from the shares of First Citizens common stock deposited pursuant to all cash elections, and (ii) add or cause to be added to the shares of First Citizens common stock deposited for BB&T common stock, such number of whole shares of First Citizens common stock on deposit for cash pursuant to all cash elections as may be necessary so that the total number of shares remaining on deposit for cash pursuant to all cash elections or mixed elections is equal, as nearly as practicable, to 25% of the shares of First Citizens common stock issued and outstanding on the closing date of the merger. In any case where the number of shares of First Citizens common stock to be added for deposit must be adjusted, BB&T will make such adjustment on a pro rata basis in relation to the total number of shares of First Citizens common stock deposited pursuant to all cash elections minus the number of shares so deposited by the holders of 100 or fewer shares of First Citizens common stock and the number of shares so deposited by the trustees or administrators of the First Citizens ESOP.

All shares of First Citizens common stock that are eliminated from the shares of First Citizens common stock deposited for cash shall be automatically converted into BB&T common stock. Notice of such reallocation shall be provided promptly to each shareholder whose shares of First Citizens common stock are reduced from the shares on deposit for cash.

Exchange of First Citizens Stock Certificates

When the merger is completed, without any action on the part of First Citizens or the First Citizens shareholders, shares of First Citizens common stock will be converted into and will represent the right to receive, upon surrender of the certificate representing such shares as described below, the merger consideration described above, including cash instead of any fractional share of BB&T common stock that would otherwise be issued. Promptly after the merger becomes effective, BB&T will deliver or mail to you a form of letter of transmittal and instructions for surrender of your First Citizens stock certificates. When you properly surrender your certificates, or provide other satisfactory evidence of ownership, and return the letter of transmittal duly executed and completed in accordance with its instructions and any other documents as may be reasonably requested, BB&T will promptly deliver to you the merger consideration and cash in lieu of a fractional share, if any, to which you are entitled.

You should not send in your stock certificates until you receive the letter of transmittal and instructions.

After the merger is completed, and until surrendered as described above, each outstanding First Citizens stock certificate will be deemed for all purposes to represent only the right to receive the merger consideration. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash payable as part of the merger consideration. With respect to any First Citizens stock certificate that has been lost or destroyed, BB&T will pay the merger consideration attributable to the shares represented by such certificate upon receipt of a surety bond or other adequate indemnity, as required in accordance with BB&T's standard policy, and evidence reasonably satisfactory to BB&T of ownership of the shares in question. After the merger is completed, First Citizens' transfer books will be closed and no transfer of the shares of First Citizens stock outstanding immediately before the time that the merger becomes effective will be made on BB&T's stock transfer books.

To the extent permitted by law, after the merger becomes effective, you will be entitled to vote at any meeting of BB&T shareholders the number of whole shares of BB&T common stock into which your shares of First Citizens stock are converted, regardless of whether you have exchanged your First Citizens stock certificates for BB&T stock certificates. Whenever BB&T declares a dividend or other distribution on the BB&T common stock which has a record date after the merger becomes effective, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of BB&T common stock issuable under the merger agreement. However, no dividend or other distribution payable to the holders of record of BB&T common stock will be delivered to you until you surrender your First Citizens stock certificate for exchange as described above. Upon surrender of your First Citizens stock certificate, dependent upon your election, the certificate representing BB&T common stock, cash or a combination of cash and BB&T common stock into which your shares of First Citizens stock have been converted, together with cash instead of any fractional share of BB&T common stock to which you would otherwise be entitled and any undelivered dividends, will be delivered and paid to you, without interest.

Effective Date and Time of the Merger

The merger agreement, as amended, provides that the merger will be completed on a date selected by BB&T that is no later than the 30th business day following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the merger (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied on the closing date), provided that such date cannot be past the date any required regulatory approval for the merger would expire or after October 1, 2006; or a later date mutually acceptable to the parties. The merger will become effective at the time and date specified in the articles of merger to be filed with the North Carolina Secretary of State and the Tennessee Secretary of State. Covenants; Conduct of First Citizens and BB&T's Businesses Before the Merger Becomes Effective

Each of First Citizens and BB&T has agreed to use reasonable best efforts in good faith to satisfy the conditions necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Except with the prior written consent of BB&T, until the merger is effective, neither First Citizens nor any of its subsidiaries may:

conduct their businesses other than in the ordinary and usual course;

fail to use reasonable efforts to preserve intact their business organizations and assets and maintain their rights, franchises and existing relations with customers, suppliers, employees and business associates;

voluntarily take any action likely to have an adverse effect upon First Citizens' ability to perform any of its material obligations under the merger agreement;

enter into any new material line of business;

materially change its lending, investment, underwriting, risk, asset liability management or other banking and operating policies, except as required by applicable law, regulation or policies imposed by any governmental authority;

issue any shares of capital stock, other than in connection with the exercise of outstanding options or, consistent with past practice, in connection with awards of restricted stock and stock options to directors, officers, and employees under the First Citizens stock option plans;

incur additional indebtedness other than in the ordinary course of business;

sell or otherwise dispose of any material assets, acquire any material assets or make certain capital expenditures; increase the compensation or fringe benefits of its directors, officers or employees except in a manner consistent with past practice; or declare or pay any dividends or other distributions on capital stock other than quarterly cash dividends in an amount not to exceed the per share amount declared and paid in the most recent regular quarterly cash dividend or as may be necessary to satisfy the quarterly tax liabilities of the First Citizens shareholders through the effective time of the merger (given First Citizens' election to be treated as an S Corporation under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code) as may be estimated by First Citizens in its reasonable discretion consistent with past practice. First Citizens and BB&T will coordinate their dividends pending the merger so that First Citizens shareholders will receive, during the quarter in which the merger becomes effective, a dividend from either BB&T or First Citizens, but not both.

Except with the consent of the other party, until the merger is effective, neither BB&T, First Citizens nor any of their respective subsidiaries may take any action while knowing that such action would or is reasonably likely to adversely affect the desired income tax consequences of the merger or knowingly take any action that is intended or reasonably likely to result in any of its representations or warranties in the merger agreement becoming untrue in any material respect prior to the effective time of the merger, any conditions to consummation of the merger not being satisfied or a material violation of any provision of the merger agreement except, in each case, as may be required by applicable law or regulation.

No Solicitation of Other Acquisition Proposals by First Citizens

First Citizens may not solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any acquisition proposal, except to the extent that the First Citizens Board, after consultation with independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that it is probable that the failure to take such action would be a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Tennessee law and First Citizens' Articles of Incorporation. Upon execution of the merger agreement, First Citizens agreed to immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with any parties other than BB&T with respect to any acquisition proposal and to use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal. First Citizens must promptly advise BB&T of the receipt by First Citizens of any acquisition proposal and the substance thereof (including the identity of the person making such acquisition proposal), and advise BB&T of any material developments with respect to such acquisition proposal promptly.

Table of Contents

Acquisition proposal means any tender or exchange offer, proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving First Citizens or any of its subsidiaries, or any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner a substantial equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets or deposits of, First Citizens or any of its subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Waiver; Amendment; Termination; Expenses

Except with respect to any required regulatory approval, BB&T or First Citizens may at any time (whether before or after approval of the merger agreement by the First Citizens shareholders) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party and may waive:

any inaccuracies of the other party in the representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement or any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement;

compliance with any of the covenants, undertakings or agreements of the other party, or satisfaction of any of the conditions precedent to its obligations, contained in the merger agreement; or the performance by the other party of any of its obligations set out in the merger agreement.

The parties may also mutually amend or supplement the merger agreement in writing at any time. However, no extension, waiver, amendment or supplement which would reduce the merger consideration to be provided to holders of First Citizens common stock upon completion of the merger may be made after the First Citizens shareholders approve the merger agreement. In order to be valid, the waiving party must provide a written waiver to the other party.

The merger agreement, as amended, may be terminated, and the merger may be abandoned:

at any time before the merger becomes effective, by the mutual consent in writing of BB&T and First Citizens;

at any time before the merger becomes effective, by BB&T or First Citizens in the event of either: (i) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; or (ii) a material breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, provided that (A) such breach would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the merger, and (B) the terminating party is not itself in material breach of any provision of the merger agreement;

at any time before the merger becomes effective, by BB&T or First Citizens, if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event that the merger is not consummated by October 1, 2006, except to the extent that the failure of the merger to be consummated arises out of or results from the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement;

by First Citizens or BB&T in the event (i) the approval of any governmental authority required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such governmental authority; (ii) the First Citizens shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the First Citizens shareholders meeting; or (iii) any of the closing conditions have not been met as required by the merger agreement; or by BB&T, if (i) the First Citizens Board of Directors submits the merger agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with any adverse conditions on, or qualifications of, such recommendation for approval; (ii) the First Citizens Board of Directors otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies (or discloses its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify) its recommendation; or (iii) the First Citizens Board of Directors recommends to its shareholders an acquisition proposal other than the merger.

If the merger agreement is terminated pursuant to any of the provisions described above, the merger agreement will become void and have no effect, except that (a) provisions in the merger agreement relating to confidentiality, the termination fee and expenses will survive the termination and (b) a termination for an uncured breach of a covenant or agreement or inaccuracy in a representation or warranty will not relieve the breaching party from liability for that breach or inaccuracy.

Each party will pay the expenses it incurs in connection with the merger agreement and the merger, except the costs (excluding fees and disbursements of counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with the preparation of this proxy statement prospectus and the registration statement (including printing expenses) and Securities and Exchange Commission filing fees and filing fees in connection with regulatory approvals will be paid 50% by BB&T and 50% by First Citizens.

Termination Fee

Under the circumstances described below, First Citizens will be required to pay to BB&T a termination fee of $6 million.

The termination fee would be payable IF the merger agreement is terminated for one of the following reasons:

BB&T terminates because First Citizens is in material breach of the merger agreement and such breach is not cured or cannot be cured;

BB&T terminates because prior to the First Citizens shareholders meeting, the First Citizens Board of Directors withdrew or disclosed its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify its recommendation, or refused to recommend, without any adverse conditions or qualifications, to the First Citizens shareholders that they vote to approve the merger, or recommended to First Citizens shareholders that they approve an acquisition of First Citizens by a third party; or Either First Citizens or BB&T terminates because the First Citizens shareholders did not vote to approve the merger agreement.

AND

Prior to such termination an acquisition proposal by a third party with respect to First Citizens has been commenced, publicly proposed or publicly disclosed.

AND

Within 18 months of termination of the merger agreement, First Citizens completes or enters into a definitive agreement with another party with respect to the acquisition of First Citizens.

The termination fee also would be payable to BB&T IF after receiving an acquisition proposal from a third party, the First Citizens Board does not take action to convene the First Citizens shareholders meeting and/or recommend that First Citizens shareholders adopt the merger agreement;

AND

within 18 months of termination of the merger agreement, First Citizens completes or enters into a definitive agreement with another party with respect to the acquisition of First Citizens.

Edgar Filing: BB&T CORP - Form S-4/A

The termination fee, which was a condition of BB&T's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, limits the ability of First Citizens to pursue competing acquisition proposals and discourages other companies from offering to acquire First Citizens.

Certain Interests of First Citizens Directors and Officers in the Merger

Some of First Citizens directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as First Citizens shareholders. In the case of some executive officers and directors of First Citizens, these interests exist because of rights under existing benefit and compensation plans of First Citizens, as well as under employment agreements that Kenneth H. Rayborn, President and Chief Executive Officer of First Citizens, and F. Alan Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of First Citizens, have entered into with Branch Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of BB&T, that will become effective upon completion of the merger. The employment agreements between each of Messrs. Rayborn and Smith and Branch Bank were a condition of BB&T's willingness to enter into the merger agreement. In addition, all outstanding stock options awarded under First Citizens stock option plans provide for accelerated vesting upon the completion of the merger and rights of certain directors and executive officers under benefit plans provide for accelerated vesting upon the completion of the merger.

New Employment and Consulting Agreements with Branch Bank

First Citizens President and Chief Executive Officer, Kenneth H. Rayborn, has entered into an employment agreement with Branch Bank. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Rayborn will serve as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank for a term lasting until the earlier of the 12-month anniversary date of the closing of the merger or the date First Citizens subsidiary banks are merged into Branch Bank. Upon the expiration of his employment term, Mr. Rayborn will relinquish his position as an employee and become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. The maximum term of Mr. Rayborn's employment agreement will be five years, unless the parties agree in writing to extend the term of the agreement.

During any period that Mr. Rayborn serves as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank, he will perform duties customarily performed by persons with such title. While Mr. Rayborn is employed by Branch Bank, he will receive a minimum annual base salary of $348,400 and will be eligible to receive incentive compensation (such as stock options, restricted stock and other equity awards) on the same terms as similarly situated officers of Branch Bank. As an employee, Mr. Rayborn also will be eligible to receive employee retirement benefits (including deferred compensation) and group employee benefits such as sick leave, vacation, group disability and health, life, and accident insurance and similar indirect compensation that Branch Bank may from time to time extend to similarly situated officers of Branch Bank.

When Mr. Rayborn becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank, he will be paid $464,650 annually in exchange for providing consulting services and as consideration for noncompetition and other covenants contained in the employment agreement. As an independent consultant, Mr. Rayborn will not be eligible to participate in any of Branch Bank's employee benefit plans, except for elective coverage under group health plan benefits provided to officers of Branch Bank at a cost no greater than the cost to such officers.

In the event that, in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Rayborn's employment or consulting relationship is terminated by Branch Bank for just cause, or if Mr. Rayborn voluntarily terminates his employment or consulting relationship, Mr. Rayborn shall have no right to render services or to receive compensation or other benefits under the employment agreement for any period after such termination.

In the event that Branch Bank terminates Mr. Rayborn's employment due to Mr. Rayborn's disability or other than for just cause, or in the event Mr. Rayborn terminates his employment due to a material breach by Branch Bank of the employment agreement that is not remedied by Branch Bank within 30 days following written notice of such breach, Mr. Rayborn will continue to receive his base salary for the remaining period of the employment agreement. In order to receive the termination compensation, Mr. Rayborn must comply with noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidentiality and other covenants in the employment agreement. Mr. Rayborn would continue to participate in Branch Bank's group health plan and group life insurance plan for all periods Mr. Rayborn receives termination compensation. In all events, if Mr. Rayborn were to breach the noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidentiality and other covenants in the employment agreement during the period that he is receiving termination compensation, Mr. Rayborn would not be entitled to receive any further termination compensation or benefits.

First Citizens Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, F. Alan Smith, has entered into an employment agreement with Branch Bank. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Smith will serve as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank and Area Manager for Cleveland, Tennessee for a term lasting until Mr. Smith accepts or rejects an offer from Branch Bank to be an Executive Vice President outside of the Cleveland, Tennessee region, which offer must be made and accepted or rejected by the 12-month anniversary of the closing date of the merger. If Mr. Smith accepts the employment offer he will serve in such capacity until the fifth anniversary of the closing date of the merger providing that Mr. Smith would become an independent consultant to Branch Bank if he terminates his employment other than for good reason, or if Branch Bank terminates his employment for just cause or if he dies. If Mr. Smith does not accept the employment offer he will become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. Upon the expiration of his employment term, Mr. Smith will relinquish his position as an employee and become an independent consultant to Branch Bank. The maximum term of Mr. Smith's employment agreement will be five years, unless the parties agree in writing to extend the term of the agreement.

During any period that Mr. Smith serves as an Executive Vice President of Branch Bank, he will perform duties customarily performed by persons with such title. While Mr. Smith is employed by Branch Bank, he will receive a minimum annual base salary of $220,000 and will be eligible to receive incentive compensation (such as stock options, restricted stock and other equity awards) on the same terms as similarly situated officers of Branch Bank. As an employee, Mr. Smith also will be eligible to receive employee retirement benefits (including deferred compensation) and group employee benefits such as sick leave, vacation, group disability and health, life, and accident insurance and similar indirect compensation that Branch Bank may from time to time extend to similarly situated officers of Branch Bank.

If Mr. Smith becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank, he will be paid annually at a rate equal to his base salary in effect immediately prior to the time he becomes an independent consultant to Branch Bank in exchange for providing consulting services and as consideration for noncompetition and other covenants contained in the employment agreement. As an independent consultant, Mr. Smith will not be eligible to participate in any of Branch Bank's employee benefit plans, except for elective coverage under group health plan benefits.

In the event that, in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Smith's employment or consulting relationship is terminated by Branch Bank for just cause, or if Mr. Smith voluntarily terminates his employment or consulting relationship, Mr. Smith shall have no right to render services or to receive compensation or other benefits under the employment agreement for any period after such termination.

In the event that Branch Bank terminates Mr. Smith's employment due to Mr. Smith's disability or other than for just cause, or in the event Mr. Smith terminates his employment due to a material breach by Branch Bank of the employment agreement that is not remedied by Branch Bank within 30 days following written notice of such breach, Mr. Smith will continue to receive his base salary and annual cash bonuses for the remaining period of the employment agreement, and the cash bonuses will equal the highest amount of cash bonus paid to Mr. Smith during his employment by Branch Bank. Mr. Smith's termination compensation will not include any equity-based compensation and in order to receive the termination compensation, Mr. Smith must comply with noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidentiality and other covenants in the employment agreement. Mr. Smith would continue to participate in Branch Bank's group health plan and group life insurance plan for all periods Mr. Smith receives termination compensation. In all events, if Mr. Smith were to breach the noncompetition, nonsolicitation, confidentiality and other covenants in the employment agreement during the period that he is receiving termination compensation, Mr. Smith would not be entitled to receive any further termination compensation or benefits.

On the closing date of the merger, as consideration for Mr. Smith agreeing to the noncompetition and other covenants contained in his employment agreement with Branch Bank and as compensation for termination of his current employment agreement with First Citizens, Branch Bank shall pay to Mr. Smith, in a lump sum, the amount of $620,825. On the effective date, that certain Agreement Not to Compete between F. Alan Smith and First Citizens Bancorp dated September 17, 1997 shall be deemed terminated, of no further force and effect and replaced in its entirety by Mr. Smith's employment agreement with Branch Bank.

BB&T also will cause Branch Bank to offer to enter into (i) a three-year employment agreement with K. Edward Rayborn, President and CEO of The Home Bank of Tennessee, (ii) a three-year employment/consulting agreement with George Thorogood, CEO and Vice Chairman of The Bank/First Citizens Bank, and (iii) a two-year employment/consulting agreement with each of Melissa Finnell, Vice President of The Bank/First Citizens Bank, and Kathy Johnson, Sr. Vice President of The Bank/First Citizens.

Equity-Based Awards

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, each then outstanding and unexercised stock option to acquire shares of First Citizens common stock will cease to represent the right to acquire or receive shares of First Citizens common stock. Each such stock option will be converted into, and become a right to acquire or receive, the number of shares of BB&T common stock equal to the product of the number of shares of First Citizens common stock subject to such option and the stock exchange ratio, with the exercise price of each converted stock option per share of BB&T common stock equaling the per share exercise price of the First Citizens stock option divided by the stock exchange ratio. See Effect on Employee Benefit Plans and Options Stock Options on page [].

Pursuant to the terms of First Citizens' stock option award agreements with its officers, directors, and employees, stock options subject to such agreements will fully vest and become exercisable upon the effective time of the merger. As of June , 2006, the number of unvested stock options to acquire shares of First Citizens common stock that may become vested and exercisable in connection with the merger is approximately 4,200.

Existing Retirement and Deferred Compensation Plans

Under the terms of the existing First Citizens Bancorp Supplemental Retirement Plan adopted by First Citizens in December 1997, certain directors of First Citizens who qualify as a founding director or a founding director emeritus, upon termination of such director's service as an active member of the First Citizens Board of Directors, would be entitled to receive monthly payments equal to the average monthly amount paid to a director for his services to First Citizens and its subsidiaries. Pursuant to the terms of the plan, the consummation of the merger will constitute a change of control and upon the effective date of the merger the plan will be automatically terminated and four current directors of First Citizens (Mullinax, Rayborn, Dixon, Carroll) and one current director emeritus of First Citizens (Lonas) will each be entitled to receive an amount equal to 35 times the average monthly amount paid to such directors for serving as a directors of First Citizens and its subsidiaries. The aggregate amount payable to the five directors under the plan is $607,615.

Under the terms of the existing Salary Continuation Agreement dated July 19, 2004 between The Bank/First Citizens Bank and Alan Smith, Executive Vice President of First Citizens and President of The Bank/First Citizens Bank, the merger will constitute a change of control and as such Mr. Smith will be fully vested in his right to receive the retirement benefits provided under the agreement. The amount and timing of payment of the annual benefits to be paid to Mr. Smith under the agreement will be determined based upon the timing and circumstances of Mr. Smith's separation of employment after the merger and his annual salary at such time, but which amount will generally be an amount equal to the lesser of (i) 40% of his final salary or (ii) $250,000, payable in monthly payments upon Mr. Smith reaching retirement age.

Board of Directors of Branch Bank

Following completion of the merger, Branch Bank will elect Kenneth H. Rayborn to serve on the Branch Bank Board of Directors. Members of the Branch Bank Board of Directors who are not employees of, or under contract with, BB&T or an affiliate are entitled to receive fees for services as a director in accordance with the policies of BB&T as in effect from time to time. During calendar year 2005, with the exception of a few directors, members of the Branch Bank Board of Directors received an annual retainer fee equal to $5,000 and attendance fees equal to $1,000 for each board or committee meeting that the board member attended. So long as Mr. Rayborn's employment agreement remains in effect he will not be eligible to receive these board fees.

Advisory Boards

Following completion of the merger, BB&T will ask other members of the First Citizens Board of Directors to serve on the BB&T advisory board serving the region formerly served by First Citizens for such period of time as determined by BB&T. BB&T will pay compensation to such directors for his or her service on the BB&T local advisory board consistent with BB&T's fee policies for advisory board members.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Insurance

BB&T has also agreed to indemnify all individuals who are or have been officers, directors or employees of First Citizens or a First Citizens subsidiary before the merger becomes effective from any acts or omissions in such capacities before the merger becomes effective to the extent such indemnification is permitted by law. The merger agreement provides that BB&T will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance covering directors and officers of First Citizens for acts or omissions or alleged acts or omissions occurring before the merger becomes effective for a period of three years from the expiration of the current term of First Citizens' policy. This insurance will provide at least the same coverage and amounts as contained in First Citizens' policy on the date of the merger agreement, unless the annual premium on the policy would exceed 110% of the annual premium payments on First Citizens' policy, in which case BB&T would maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to that amount.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of the material anticipated federal income tax consequences of the merger generally applicable to the shareholders of First Citizens and to BB&T and First Citizens. This summary is not intended to be a complete description of all of the federal income tax consequences of the merger. No information is provided with respect to the tax consequences of the merger under any other tax laws, including applicable state, local and foreign tax laws. In addition, the following discussion may not be applicable with respect to certain specific categories of shareholders, including but not limited to:

corporations, trusts, dealers in securities, financial institutions, insurance companies or tax exempt organizations;

persons who are not United States citizens or resident aliens or domestic entities (partnerships or trusts);

persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax (to the extent that tax affects the tax consequences of the merger), who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting or who are subject to the "golden parachute" provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (to the extent that tax affects the tax consequences of the merger);

holders of options granted by First Citizens, or persons who acquired First Citizens stock pursuant to employee stock options or otherwise as compensation if such shares are subject to any restriction related to employment;

persons who do not hold their shares as capital assets; or persons who hold their shares as part of a hedge , constructive sale , straddle , conversion transaction or other integrated transaction. No ruling has been or will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax effects of the merger. The federal income tax laws are complex, and a shareholder s individual circumstances may affect the tax consequences to the shareholder. Consequently, each First Citizens shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences, including the applicable United States federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences, of the merger to him or her.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally.

In the opinion of Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, PLLC, special tax counsel to BB&T:

the merger will constitute a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

each of BB&T and First Citizens will be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;

no gain or loss will be recognized by BB&T or First Citizens by reason of the merger;

the shareholders of First Citizens who receive solely BB&T common stock in exchange for their First Citizens common stock will recognize no gain or loss for federal income tax purposes;

generally, the shareholders of First Citizens who receive solely cash in exchange for their First Citizens common stock will recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their adjusted tax basis in their First Citizens common stock. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for their First Citizens common stock is greater than one year. Long-term capital gain of a non-corporate holder is generally subject to tax at a maximum federal income tax rate of 15%;

a shareholder of First Citizens who receives both BB&T common stock and cash in exchange for his or her First Citizens common stock will recognize gain, but not loss, for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of the cash received (other than cash received for any fractional share of BB&T common stock) and (ii) the excess of the sum of the fair market value of the shares of BB&T common stock and the amount of cash received in the merger over the shareholder s adjusted tax basis in his or her First Citizens common stock, unless the receipt of cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend in which case the shareholder instead will recognize dividend income in the amount of the cash received;

a shareholder of First Citizens who receives cash instead of a fractional share of BB&T common stock will recognize income, gain or loss as if the shareholder received the fractional share and it was then redeemed for cash in an amount equal to the amount paid by BB&T in respect of the fractional share;

the tax basis in the BB&T common stock received by a First Citizens shareholder (including any fractional share interest deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the tax basis in the First Citizens common stock surrendered in exchange, decreased by the amount of cash received (other than cash received instead of a fractional share of BB&T common stock or cash received that has the effect of a distribution of a dividend) and increased by the amount of gain recognized in such exchange (other than gain recognized with respect to cash received instead of a fractional share of BB&T common stock or dividend recognized with respect to cash received that has the effect of a distribution of a dividend); and the holding period for BB&T common stock received (including any fractional share interest deemed received and redeemed as described below) in exchange for shares of First Citizens common stock will include the period during which the shareholder held the shares of First Citizens common stock surrendered in exchange.

Table of Contents

BB&T will use its reasonable best efforts to cause Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, PLLC to deliver its opinion to First Citizens prior to the mailing of the proxy statement to First Citizens shareholders.

Cash Election. Each holder of First Citizens common stock who elects to receive both BB&T common stock and cash in exchange for the holder's shares of First Citizens common stock will be treated as if (i) he or she first exchanged all of his or her shares of First Citizens common stock solely for BB&T common stock and then (ii) BB&T immediately redeemed a portion of the BB&T common stock in exchange for the cash the holder actually received pursuant to the holder's election. It is possible that the redemption that is deemed to occur could have the effect of a distribution of a dividend, which means that the First Citizens shareholders who elect to receive cash in the merger could recognize dividend income rather than capital gain. A dividend received by a non-corporate shareholder from a domestic corporation currently is subject to federal income tax at a maximum rate of 15%, however, the holder is not allowed to offset or reduce any portion of the dividend income with or by (i) any portion of the holder's tax basis in any of his or her BB&T common stock, (ii) any capital losses realized by the holder or (iii) any capital loss carryover available to the holder. The analysis of whether the receipt of cash in the merger will have the effect of a distribution of a dividend is a complicated analysis that depends on each holder's particular circumstances. EACH HOLDER WHO CONTEMPLATES MAKING AN ELECTION TO RECEIVE CASH IN THE MERGER SHOULD CONSULT HIS OR HER OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE POSSIBILITY THAT ANY PAYMENT TO SUCH HOLDER WILL BE TREATED AS DIVIDEND INCOME.

Dissenters' Rights. Shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights and who receive cash in exchange for their shares of First Citizens common stock will be treated as having received that payment in redemption of their shares. In general, the holder will recognize capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the holder's adjusted tax basis for the shares. If, however, the holder owns, either actually or constructively, any First Citizens common stock that is exchanged in the merger for BB&T common stock, the payment for dissenting shares to the holder could, in certain limited circumstances, be treated as a dividend. A dividend received by a non-corporate shareholder from a domestic corporation currently is subject to federal income tax at a maximum rate of 15%. In general, under the constructive ownership rules of the Code, a holder may be considered to own stock that is owned, and in some cases constructively owned, by certain related individuals or entities, as well as stock that the holder (or related individuals or entities) has the right to acquire by exercising an option or converting a convertible security. Each holder who contemplates exercising dissenters' rights should consult his or her own tax advisor as to the possibility that any payment to such holder will be treated as dividend income.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of BB&T Common Stock. A shareholder of First Citizens who receives cash instead of a fractional share of BB&T common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by BB&T subject to Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a result, a shareholder of First Citizens generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the shares of BB&T common stock allocable to his or her fractional interest. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the shareholder's holding period for such shares is greater than one year. Long-term capital gain of a non-corporate holder is generally subject to federal income tax at a maximum tax rate of 15%.

S Corporation Status. First Citizens is a corporation that is taxed on a modified pass-through basis under the principles of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon the consummation of the merger, First Citizens will cease to be treated as an S corporation and will be required to file a final short-period S corporation corporate income tax return for the period ending on the closing date of the merger. The former holders of First Citizens common stock will include in their individual returns, as appropriate, the items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit realized from First Citizens' final short period.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a holder surrendering shares of First Citizens common stock will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (whether or not the holder also receives BB&T common stock) at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the holder, unless the holder furnishes its taxpayer identification number in the manner prescribed in applicable Treasury Regulations, certifies that such number is correct, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and meets other specified conditions. Penalties apply for failure to furnish correct information and for failure to include reportable payments in income. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. Each holder of First Citizens common stock should consult with his or her own tax advisor as to his or her qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such exemption.

Regulatory Approvals We Must Obtain for the Merger to Occur

The merger is subject to the approval of, or notice to, certain regulatory authorities, including the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve (Federal Reserve), the Virginia Bureau of Financial Institutions and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. Although BB&T does not know of any reason why it would not obtain all regulatory approvals from these regulators in a timely manner, BB&T cannot be certain when such approvals will be obtained or if they will be obtained.

The merger is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve under the Bank Holding Company Act. In considering the approval of the merger, this Act requires the Federal Reserve to review the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of BB&T and First Citizens and their respective subsidiary banks, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Federal Reserve is also required to evaluate whether the merger would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States or otherwise would substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or which in any manner would be in restraint of trade. If the Federal Reserve determines that there are anti-competitive consequences to the merger, it will not approve the transaction unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the proposed transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Where a transaction, such as the merger, is the acquisition by a bank holding company of a bank located in a state other than the home state of the bank holding company (in this case North Carolina), the Act authorizes the Federal Reserve to approve the transaction without regard to whether such transaction is prohibited under state law, as long as the bank holding company is adequately capitalized and adequately managed and certain other limitations are met. BB&T is considered well capitalized and well managed under the Federal Reserve's Regulation Y, and the transaction meets the other limitations.

BB&T also must provide notice of the merger to the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions under Title 45 of the Tennessee Code, which allows a bank holding company, such as BB&T, to acquire a bank in Tennessee, such as First Citizens. When evaluating the merger, the Department will look at the safety and soundness of the acquisition and compliance with the laws of Tennessee.

BB&T also is required to provide notice to the Virginia Bureau of Financial Institutions of the Virginia State Corporation Commission under the bank holding company act provisions of the Virginia Code, which permit an out-of-state bank holding company that controls a Virginia bank, such as BB&T, to acquire banks outside of Virginia, such as First Citizens, if the Bureau approves the transaction. The Bureau is required to approve the transaction if it determines that the transaction would not be detrimental to the safety and soundness of the Virginia bank.

BB&T filed the required applications and notices with the Federal Reserve and the appropriate state banking regulator in Virginia and Tennessee. Although BB&T does not know of any reason why it will not obtain approval from these regulators in a timely manner, BB&T cannot be certain when it will obtain any of them or that it will obtain them at all.

Table of ContentsAccounting Treatment

BB&T will account for the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Under this accounting method, BB&T would record the acquired identifiable assets and liabilities assumed at their fair market value at the time the merger is completed. Any excess of the cost of First Citizens over the sum of the fair values of tangible and identifiable intangible assets less liabilities assumed would be recorded as goodwill. Based on information as of [], management of BB&T estimates that the total merger consideration (including issuance of common stock and assumption of options on common stock) will be approximately $[] million. Utilizing information as of December 31, 2005, estimated goodwill and other intangibles would total approximately $100.8 million. BB&T's reported income would include the operations of First Citizens after the merger. Financial statements of BB&T issued after completion of the merger would reflect the impact of the merger with First Citizens. Financial statements of BB&T issued before completion of the merger would not be restated retroactively to reflect First Citizens' historical financial position or results of operations.

Effect on Employee Benefit Plans and Stock Options*Employee Benefit Plans*

As of the date or dates (the benefit plan determination date), as determined by BB&T with respect to the relevant plans, BB&T will cause First Citizens' ESOP either to be merged with BB&T's 401(k) plan or to be frozen, as determined by BB&T and subject to receipt of applicable governmental approvals. Each employee of First Citizens or any First Citizens subsidiary at the time the merger becomes effective who: (a) is a participant in First Citizens' ESOP; (b) becomes an employee of BB&T or a BB&T subsidiary (a BB&T employer) at the time the merger becomes effective (a transferred employee), and (c) continues in the employment of a BB&T employer until the benefit plan determination date, will be eligible to participate in BB&T's 401(k) plan as of the benefit plan determination date. Any other employee of First Citizens will be eligible to participate in BB&T's 401(k) plan upon complying with the eligibility requirements. All rights to participate in BB&T's 401(k) plan are subject to BB&T's right to amend or terminate the plan. BB&T will maintain First Citizens' ESOP for the benefit of participating employees until the benefit plan determination date. In administering BB&T's 401(k) plan, service with First Citizens and its subsidiaries will be deemed to be service with BB&T for participation and vesting purposes, but not for purposes of benefit accrual. Any compensation earned and deferred by employees of First Citizens in the calendar year of the benefit plan determination date will be recognized by BB&T in the administration of the BB&T 401(k) Plan. If employees of First Citizens were eligible to receive a matching contribution under the First Citizens ESOP, then such First Citizens employees will be eligible to receive any matching contribution provided under the BB&T 401(k) Plan. If employees of First Citizens were not eligible to receive a matching contribution under the First Citizens ESOP, then such First Citizens employees must meet the matching contribution eligibility requirements under the BB&T 401(k) Plan before receiving any matching contribution under the BB&T 401(k) Plan.

Each transferred employee shall also be included in any defined benefit plan sponsored or maintained by any BB&T employer following the effective time of the merger in accordance with the terms of such plan. The transferred employees shall receive credit for service with First Citizens and its subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities to the extent such service was recognized by First Citizens) prior to the effective time of the merger for purposes of participation, eligibility and vesting (but not for purposes of benefit accrual) under such defined benefit plan to the same extent as if such service were with the BB&T employer.

Each transferred employee will be eligible to participate in group hospitalization, medical, dental, life, disability and other welfare benefit plans and programs available to employees of the BB&T employer as of the benefit plan determination date with respect to each such plan or program, conditional upon the transferred employee's being employed by the BB&T employer as of the benefit plan date and subject to complying with eligibility requirements of the respective plans and programs. With respect to any welfare benefit plan or program of First Citizens that the BB&T employer determines, in its sole discretion, provides benefits of the same type or class as a corresponding plan or program maintained by a BB&T employer, the BB&T employer shall continue such First Citizens plan or program in effect for the benefit of the transferred employees so long as they remain eligible to participate and until they shall become eligible to become participants in the corresponding plan or program maintained by the BB&T employer (and, with respect to any such plan or program, subject to complying with eligibility requirements and subject to the right of the BB&T employer to terminate such plan or program). For purposes of administering these plans and programs, service with First Citizens will be deemed to be service with the BB&T employer for the purpose of determining eligibility to participate and vesting (if applicable), but not for the purpose of computing benefits, if any, determined in whole or in part with reference to service.

Except to the extent of commitments in the merger agreement or other contractual commitments specifically made or assumed by BB&T, no BB&T employer will have any obligation arising from the merger to continue any transferred employees in its employ or in any specific job or to provide to any transferred employee any specified level of compensation or any incentive payments, benefits or perquisites. Each transferred employee who is terminated by a BB&T employer subsequent to the effective time of the merger, excluding any employee who has a then existing contract explicitly providing for severance in lieu of severance plan benefits, shall be entitled to severance pay in accordance with the general severance policy of BB&T or of First Citizens as then in effect, if and to the extent that such transferred employee is entitled to severance pay under the applicable policy. Prior to the effective date of the merger, BB&T shall determine which of such severance policies shall be applicable and shall give First Citizens notice thereof, and the selected severance policy shall apply with respect to all transferred employees. Such employee's service with First Citizens will be treated as service with BB&T service for purposes of determining the amount of severance pay, if any, under BB&T's severance policy.

BB&T has agreed to honor all employment agreements, severance agreements and deferred compensation agreements and plans that First Citizens and its subsidiaries have with or in place for their current and former employees and directors and which have been disclosed to BB&T pursuant to the merger agreement, except to the extent any agreements are superseded or terminated when the merger becomes effective or thereafter. Except for the agreements described in the preceding sentence and except as otherwise discussed in this section, the employee benefit plans of First Citizens shall, in the sole discretion of BB&T, be frozen, terminated or merged into comparable plans of BB&T, effective as BB&T shall determine in its sole discretion. BB&T will continue in effect the First Citizens discretionary bonus plan and any other short-term bonus plans of First Citizens (the First Citizens Bonus Arrangements) until the later of (i) the date of completion of conversion of the data services systems of First Citizens and its subsidiaries to the data service systems of BB&T and its subsidiaries, or (ii) the date that former First Citizens executives are made parties to the BB&T Amended and Restated Short Term Incentive Plan (the BB&T Bonus Plan). If any former executive of First Citizens would earn amounts under both the First Citizens Bonus Arrangements and the BB&T Bonus Plan for any calendar year, BB&T shall make appropriate adjustments in the amounts earned under such programs to avoid duplication and to pro-rate the amount earned by such executive under the First Citizens Bonus Arrangements and the BB&T Bonus Plan for the portion of the year in which such executive participated in each such plan.

Stock Options

At the time the merger becomes effective, whether or not then exercisable, each outstanding option to purchase shares of First Citizens Common Stock under the First Citizens stock option plans shall be converted into and become rights with respect to BB&T common stock, and BB&T shall assume each First Citizens stock option in accordance with the terms of the First Citizens stock option plans, except that (i) BB&T and its Compensation Committee shall be substituted for First Citizens and the relevant committee of First Citizens' Board of Directors for purposes of administering the First Citizens stock option plans, (ii) each First Citizens stock option assumed by BB&T may be exercised solely for shares of BB&T common stock, (iii) the number of shares of BB&T common stock subject to each such First Citizens stock option shall be the number of whole shares of BB&T common stock (omitting any fractional share) determined by multiplying the number of shares of First Citizens common stock subject to such First Citizens stock option immediately prior to merger by the stock exchange ratio, and (iv) the per share exercise price under each such First Citizens stock option shall be adjusted by dividing the per share exercise price under each such First Citizens stock option by the stock exchange ratio and rounding up to the nearest cent.

As an alternative, BB&T may, at its election, as of the effective time of the merger substitute options under the BB&T Corporation 2004 Stock Incentive Plan or any other duly adopted comparable plan for all or a part of the First Citizens stock options, subject to the following conditions: (A) the requirements of (iii) and (iv) above shall be met; (B) such substitution shall not constitute a modification, extension or renewal of any of the First Citizens stock options and shall be tax neutral to the option holder; and (C) the substituted options shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions as provided in the First Citizens stock option agreements and the First Citizens stock option plans governing each First Citizens stock option.

BB&T shall cause each grant of a converted or substitute option to any individual who subsequent to the merger will be a director or officer of BB&T (as construed under SEC Rule 16b-3), as a condition to such conversion or substitution, to be approved in accordance with the provisions of Rule 16b-3. Each First Citizens stock option that is an incentive stock option shall be adjusted as required by Section 424 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the related Treasury Regulations, so as to continue as an incentive stock option under Section 424(a) of the Code, and so as not to constitute a modification, extension or renewal of the option within the meaning of Section 424(h) of the Code.

BB&T has reserved and shall continue to reserve adequate shares of BB&T common stock for delivery upon exercise of any converted or substitute options. Within five business days after the completion of the merger, if BB&T has not already done so, BB&T shall file a registration statement on Form S-3 or Form S-8, as the case may be, with respect to the shares of BB&T common stock subject to converted or substitute options and shall use its reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as such converted or substitute options remain outstanding. With respect to those individuals, if any, who subsequent to the merger may be subject to the reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, BB&T shall administer the First Citizens stock option plans assumed pursuant to the merger agreement (or the BB&T option plan, if applicable) in a manner that complies with Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act to the extent necessary to preserve for such individuals the benefits of Rule 16b-3 to the extent such benefits were available to them prior to the merger.

BB&T will deliver to each First Citizens employee who receives converted or substitute options an appropriate notice setting forth the employee's rights with respect to the converted or substitute options.

As of June 8, 2006, options to purchase an aggregate of approximately 30,800 shares of First Citizens common stock may be outstanding at the effective time of the merger. Any shares of First Citizens common stock issued pursuant to the exercise of stock options under the First Citizens stock option plans before the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of BB&T common stock in the same manner as other outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock.

Eligibility to receive stock option grants after the merger will be determined by BB&T in accordance with its plans and procedures and subject to any contractual obligations.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

The shares of BB&T common stock to be issued in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and will be freely transferable, except any shares received by any shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of First Citizens at the effective time of the merger for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Affiliates of First Citizens may sell their shares of BB&T common stock acquired in the merger only in transactions registered under the Securities Act or permitted by the resale provisions of Rule 145 under the Securities Act or as otherwise permitted by the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed affiliates of First

Table of Contents

Citizens generally include individuals or entities that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by or are under common control with First Citizens and include directors and executive officers of First Citizens. In addition, any executive officer or director of First Citizens who becomes an affiliate of BB&T will be required to comply with the resale requirements under Rule 144 of the Securities Act. The restrictions on resales by an affiliate extend also to related parties of the affiliate, including parties related by marriage who live in the same home as the affiliate.

First Citizens has agreed to use its best efforts to cause each of its affiliates to deliver to BB&T a written agreement to the effect generally that he or she will not offer to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of BB&T common stock issued to that person in the merger, except in compliance with the Securities Act and the related rules and regulations.

Appraisal Rights

THIS DISCUSSION IS NOT A COMPLETE STATEMENT OF THE LAW PERTAINING TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS UNDER THE TBCA AND IS QUALIFIED IN FULL BY THE FULL TEXT OF CHAPTER 23 OF THE TBCA, WHICH IS REPRINTED IN ITS ENTIRETY AS APPENDIX D TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS. ALL REFERENCES IN CHAPTER 23 AND IN THIS SUMMARY TO A STOCKHOLDER OR HOLDER ARE TO THE RECORD HOLDER OF THE SHARES OF FIRST CITIZENS COMMON STOCK AS TO WHICH DISSENTERS' RIGHTS ARE ASSERTED.

Holders of First Citizens common stock are entitled to appraisal rights under Chapter 23 of the TBCA. Under the TBCA, record holders of First Citizens common stock who continuously hold such shares through the closing date of the merger, who follow the procedures set forth in Chapter 23 and who do not vote in favor of the merger agreement will be entitled to receive payment of the fair value of their shares of First Citizens common stock as determined by First Citizens. In the event that such record holder believes First Citizens' payment is less than the fair value of the shares, such holder has the right to have the fair value of the shares determined by a Tennessee court, which will include a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by the court. Fair value is exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. The holders are, in such circumstances, entitled to dissenters' rights because they hold stock of constituent corporations to the merger, and may be required by the merger agreement to accept merger consideration in the form of cash consideration.

A person having a beneficial interest in shares of First Citizens common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect the dissenters' rights provided under Chapter 23.

Under Chapter 23, where a proposed merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of the First Citizens special meeting, the notice of such special meeting must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under Chapter 23, and be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 23. This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes the required notice to the record holders of shares of First Citizens common stock, and a copy of Chapter 23 is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D. Any stockholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights should review the following discussion and Appendix D carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of dissenters' rights under the TBCA. A holder of shares of First Citizens common stock wishing to exercise his or her dissenters' rights must take both of the following actions:

The holder must deliver to First Citizens, before the vote on the merger agreement at the First Citizens special meeting is taken, a written notice that reasonably informs First Citizens of the identity of the record holder and the record holder's intent to demand payment of the fair value of the record holder's First Citizens common stock if the merger is effected.

The holder also must not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement or the approval of the merger.

Table of Contents

A proxy or vote against the merger shall not constitute a demand. In addition, mere failure to execute and return a Form of Election to the exchange agent does not constitute a demand. All notices and written demands for payment should be delivered to First Citizens at First Citizens Bancorp, P.O. Box 3300, Cleveland, Tennessee 37320, Attention: Secretary. A HOLDER OF RECORD WHO DOES NOT DELIVER NOTICE TO FIRST CITIZENS BEFORE THE SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING IS NOT ENTITLED TO PAYMENT FOR HIS OR HER SHARES PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 23. INSTEAD, SUCH HOLDER WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ELECTED TO RECEIVE SHARES OF BB&T COMMON STOCK FOR THE SHARES OF FIRST CITIZENS COMMON STOCK HE OR SHE OWNS.

A holder of shares of First Citizens common stock wishing to exercise his or her dissenters' rights must hold his or her shares of record on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and must hold his or her shares continuously through the closing date of the merger. Accordingly, a record holder of shares of First Citizens common stock who is the record holder of First Citizens common stock on the date the written demand for payment is made, but who after such date transfers such stock prior to the completion of the merger, will lose any right to payment in respect of such shares.

Only a holder of record of shares of First Citizens common stock is entitled to assert dissenters' rights for the shares of First Citizens common stock registered in that holder's name. A demand for payment should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as such holder's name appears on such holder's stock certificates. If the shares of First Citizens common stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand should be made in that capacity. If the shares of First Citizens common stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including one or more joint owners, may execute a demand for payment on behalf of a holder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is agent for such owner or owners. A holder of record may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his or her name only if the holder of record dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies First Citizens in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the holder of record asserts dissenters' rights.

If the merger and the merger agreement are approved at the special meeting, within 10 days after such special meeting, First Citizens (or BB&T, in the event the merger has been completed before this notice is sent) must send a notice of the approval and effectiveness of the merger to each person who has properly asserted dissenters' rights under Chapter 23 and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger. The notice must:

state where a payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for shares of First Citizens common stock must be deposited;

provide a form for demanding payment that requires any person asserting dissenters' rights to certify that he or she acquired beneficial ownership of his or her shares of First Citizens common stock before January 12, 2006, the date when the principal terms of the merger were publicly announced;

set a date by which First Citizens (or BB&T, if the merger will be completed by the date to be set) must receive the demand for payment from the holder of record, which date must be within 60 days of the date of the notice; and contain a copy of Chapter 23.

A holder of record sent the notice described in the paragraph above must demand payment, certify that he or she was the beneficial owner of shares before January 12, 2006 and deposit his or her certificates for shares of First Citizens stock in accordance with the notice. A holder taking such action does not lose any other of his or her rights as a holder of shares of First Citizens common stock until those rights are cancelled pursuant to the merger agreement. In the event that the merger is not consummated within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, First Citizens will return the share certificates. A HOLDER OF RECORD WHO DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE TERMS OF THE NOTICE FROM FIRST CITIZENS (OR BB&T) IS NOT ENTITLED TO PAYMENT FOR HIS OR HER SHARES PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 23. INSTEAD, SUCH HOLDER WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ELECTED TO RECEIVE SHARES OF BB&T COMMON STOCK FOR THE SHARES OF FIRST CITIZENS COMMON STOCK HE OR SHE OWNS. A demand for payment may not be withdrawn without First Citizens (or BB&T's, if the merger has been completed) consent.

Under Chapter 23, after receipt of a demand for payment or the effectuation of the merger, whichever is later, BB&T (on behalf of First Citizens, since the merger will have been effected) must pay each holder of record who properly complied with the requirements of the notice from First Citizens the fair value of such holder's shares, with interest accrued from the date of the approval of the merger. The payment, when made, must be accompanied by:

First Citizens' balance sheet, income statement and a statement of changes in shareholder's equity, each as of December 31, 2005, together with the latest available interim financial statements;

a statement of BB&T's estimate of the fair value of a share of its common stock;

an explanation as to how interest was calculated;

a statement that a holder dissatisfied with his or her payment may seek a judicial determination of the fair value of his or her shares in accordance with Chapter 23; and a copy of Chapter 23, if not previously delivered to such shareholder.

If a holder of shares of First Citizens common stock did not own his or her shares on January 12, 2006, First Citizens (or BB&T, if the merger has been completed) may refuse to make any payments pursuant to Chapter 23. If payment is refused, First Citizens (or BB&T) may still pay a holder of record who did not own his or her shares on January 12, 2006, yet wishes to exercise his or her dissenters' rights the fair value of such persons shares, with accrued interest, provided that such holder accepts such payment in full satisfaction of his or her demand for payment.

A holder of record who has exercised his or her dissenters' rights may notify BB&T (rather than First Citizens, since the merger will have been completed) in writing of his or her own estimate of the fair value for his or her shares of First Citizens common stock and the amount of interest due and demand payment of any amounts above what BB&T has paid already under any of the following circumstances:

a holder of record who has exercised his or her dissenters' rights believes that the amount paid by BB&T is less than the actual fair value of his or her shares or that the interest is incorrectly calculated;

BB&T fails to pay the holder of record within 60 days after the date by which a holder of record must demand payment; or the merger is not consummated and First Citizens fails to return the holder's stock certificates

A holder of record waives this right to be paid his or her own estimate of fair value if BB&T is not notified of such demand within 30 days after BB&T has paid, or offered to pay, such holder of record. If the holder of record's demand for payment of his or her own estimate of fair value plus interest has not been settled within 60 days after receiving a demand for payment, BB&T (rather than First Citizens, since the merger will have been completed) must bring a proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in Bradley County, Tennessee to determine the fair value of the holder of record's shares of First Citizens common stock. If BB&T fails to bring such proceeding at all or within the required time period, it must pay the holder's demand for payment. All holders of record whose demands have not been settled must be parties to the proceeding and served with a copy of the petition.

Table of Contents

The court hearing the case has exclusive and plenary jurisdiction. It may appoint one or more persons to receive evidence regarding the fair value of shares of First Citizens common stock and to recommend a decision on fair value to the court. A holder of record party to such proceeding has the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. Each holder of record party to such proceeding is entitled to judgment in the amount, if any, that the court finds such holder's estimate of fair value plus accrued interest exceeds the amount paid by First Citizens. The judgment may be the fair value plus accrued interest of the shares of First Citizens common stock owned by a holder of record who became a beneficial owner after January 12, 2006 and whom First Citizens (or BB&T) determined to withhold payment as described above.

The court shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including compensation and expenses of persons appointed by the court to receive evidence. BB&T shall pay the costs of the proceeding, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the holders of record party to the proceeding to the extent the court finds such individuals acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment. The court may also assess legal and expert fees against either BB&T or the holders of record. If the court finds that the legal fees of one attorney were substantially beneficial to all holders of record party to the suit, but that BB&T should not pay the attorney's fees, the court may have these fees paid out of the amount awarded to all holders of record who benefited.

Merger Strategy

BB&T is a regional financial holding company. The core of its business and franchise was created by the merger-of-equals between BB&T and Southern National Corporation in 1995 and the acquisition of United Carolina Bancshares in 1997. BB&T has maintained a long-term focus on a strategy that includes expanding and diversifying the BB&T franchise in terms of revenues, profitability and asset size. Tangible evidence of this focus is the growth in average total assets, loans and deposits, which have increased over the last five years at compound annual rates of 11.1%, 11.3%, and 11.2%, respectively.

BB&T's growth in business, profitability and market share over the past several years was enhanced significantly by mergers and acquisitions. Management made a strategic decision not to pursue bank or thrift acquisitions during 2004 and 2005, instead focusing on fully integrating recent mergers and improving internal growth. Management intends to resume strategic mergers and acquisitions, including bank and thrift acquisitions primarily within BB&T's existing footprint, and, in fact, has announced plans to acquire two bank holding companies, including First Citizens. BB&T will continue to pursue economically advantageous acquisitions of insurance agencies, asset managers, consumer and commercial finance companies and other strategic opportunities to grow existing product lines and to expand into related financial businesses. BB&T's acquisition strategy is focused on three primary objectives:

to pursue acquisitions of banks and thrifts in the Carolinas, Virginia, Maryland, Washington, D.C., Georgia, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Florida with assets of $500 million to $15 billion, with an informal target of growing approximately 5% of BB&T's assets through acquisition;

to acquire companies in niche markets that provide products or services that can be offered through the existing distribution system to BB&T's current customer base; and to consider strategic nonbank acquisitions in markets that are economically feasible and provide positive long-term benefits. BB&T consummated acquisitions of 53 community banks and thrifts, 77 insurance agencies and 28 nonbank financial services providers over the last 15 years. BB&T expects, in the long-term, to continue to take advantage of the consolidation in the financial services industry and expand and enhance its franchise through mergers and acquisitions. The consideration paid for these acquisitions may be in the form of cash, debt or BB&T stock. The amount of consideration paid to complete these transactions may be in excess of the book value of the underlying net assets acquired, which could have a dilutive effect on BB&T's earnings. In addition, acquisitions often result in significant front-end charges against earnings; however, cost savings and revenue enhancements, especially incident to in-market bank and thrift acquisitions, also are typically anticipated.

Lending Activities

First Citizens' principal business is to accept deposits from the public and to make loans and other investments. The primary source of income generated by First Citizens is the interest earned from both the loan and investment portfolios of its three banking subsidiaries. To develop business, each of the banks relies to a great extent on the personalized approach of its directors and officers, who have extensive business and personal contacts in their respective communities. Each of the banks offers a variety of traditional loan products to its customers, primarily individual consumers and small to medium-sized businesses. For businesses, First Citizens' banking subsidiaries provide term loans, lines of credit, letters of credit, loans for working capital, loans for business expansion and the purchase of equipment and machinery, construction and land development loans for builders and developers and commercial real estate loans. First Citizens' banking subsidiaries offer consumers residential mortgage loans, home equity loans, automobile loans and various other consumer installment loans.

At March 31, 2006, First Citizens' consolidated net loan portfolio was $499.1 million, representing approximately 69% of its total assets. As of such date, First Citizens' consolidated net loan portfolio consisted of 18% commercial loans, 48% real estate secured loans (excluding construction and land development loans), 29% real estate construction and land development loans and 5% installment or consumer loans.

Deposit and Banking Services

Customers of First Citizens' banking subsidiaries are provided with a full complement of traditional banking and deposit products. Each of the three banks is engaged in substantially all of the business operations customarily conducted by independent financial institutions in Tennessee, including the acceptance of checking accounts, savings accounts, money market accounts and a variety of certificates of deposit accounts. The Home Bank also offers trust services.

First Citizens' banking subsidiaries do a substantial amount of business with individuals, as well as with customers in small to medium-sized commercial, industrial and professional businesses. The primary sources of core deposits are residents of the banks' primary market areas and businesses and their employees located in those areas. Each of the banks also obtain deposits through personal solicitation by the bank's officers and directors, direct mail solicitations, and advertisements published in the local media. For the convenience of its customers, each of the banks offers drive-through banking facilities, automated teller machines, direct deposit, night depositories, personalized checks, merchant bank card processing and safe deposit boxes. The banks' services also include cashier's checks, travelers' checks, domestic wire transfers, account research, stop payments, and telephone and internet based transfers between accounts.

Competition

Each of the banks experiences competition in both lending and attracting funds from other commercial banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, pension trusts, mutual funds, insurance companies, mortgage bankers and brokers, brokerage and investment banking firms, asset-based non-bank lenders, government agencies and certain other non-financial institutions, including retail stores, which may offer more favorable financing alternatives than the banks.

The banks also compete with companies located outside of their primary market that provide financial services to persons within these markets. Some of the banks' current and potential competitors have larger customer bases, greater brand recognition, and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than the banks and some of them are not subject to the same degree of regulation as these banks.

Employees

As of May 1, 2006, First Citizens and its subsidiaries employed 185 full-time and 30 part-time employees for a total of 215. Employees of First Citizens and its subsidiaries have a good relationship with First Citizens and the employees are not represented by a collective bargaining agreement.

Ownership of the First Citizens Bancorp Employee Stock Ownership Plan

The trustee of the First Citizens Bancorp Employee Stock Ownership Plan or ESOP holds 346,811, or approximately 13.4%, of the 2,594,487 shares of the outstanding First Citizens common stock. As their legal holder, the ESOP trustee is entitled to vote these shares with respect to the approval of the merger agreement. The laws that apply to the ESOP and the ESOP terms provide that each ESOP participant and the beneficiary or beneficiaries of any deceased participant are entitled to provide confidential voting directions to the ESOP trustee as to the approval of the proposed merger for the shares allocated to his or her ESOP account. As of the record date significantly all of the 346,811 shares held by the trustee are allocated to the ESOP accounts of participants and the beneficiaries of deceased participants. First Citizens has appointed an independent fiduciary for the ESOP for the merger transaction. This independent fiduciary will provide voting directions to the ESOP trustee for any allocated First Citizens common stock share for which participant or beneficiary directions are not received and for any unallocated share of such stock.

Related Party Transactions

Certain directors and executive officers of First Citizens and its subsidiaries, and their related interests, had loans outstanding in the aggregate amounts of approximately $8.5 million at December 31, 2005. These loans were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with other person not affiliated with First Citizens or its subsidiaries and did not involve more than normal risks of collectability or present other unfavorable features. The prohibitions on certain extensions of credit to directors and executive officers contained in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act do not apply to any of these loans.

Under BB&T's Articles of Incorporation, BB&T may issue shares of BB&T preferred stock in one or more series as may be determined by the BB&T Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee. The BB&T Board of Directors or committee thereof may also establish, from time to time, the number of shares to be included in each series and may fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, and may increase or decrease the number of shares of any series without any further vote or action by the shareholders. Any BB&T preferred stock issued may rank senior to BB&T common stock with respect to the payment of dividends or amounts paid upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of BB&T, or both. In addition, any shares of BB&T preferred stock may have class or series voting rights. Under certain circumstances, the issuance of shares of BB&T preferred stock, or merely the existing authorization of the BB&T Board of Directors to issue shares of BB&T preferred stock, may tend to discourage or impede a merger or other change in control of BB&T.

Anti-takeover Provisions

Provisions of the NCBCA and BB&T's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws described below may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and, together with the ability of the BB&T Board of Directors to issue shares of BB&T preferred stock and to set the voting rights, preferences and other terms of BB&T preferred stock, may delay or prevent takeover attempts not first approved by the BB&T Board of Directors. These provisions also could delay or deter the removal of incumbent directors or the assumption of control by shareholders. BB&T believes that these provisions are appropriate to protect the interests of BB&T and its shareholders.

Control Share Acquisition Act

The Control Share Acquisition Act of the NCBCA may make an unsolicited attempt to gain control of BB&T more difficult by restricting the right of specified shareholders to vote newly acquired large blocks of stock. For a description of this statute, see Comparison of the Rights of BB&T Shareholders and First Citizens Shareholders - Anti-takeover Statutes on page [].

Provisions Regarding the BB&T Board of Directors

BB&T's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws permit the removal of directors only for cause. This could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or discourage a third party from acquiring control of BB&T. For a description of these provisions, see Comparison of the Rights of BB&T Shareholders and First Citizens Shareholders-Board of Directors on page [].

Meeting of Shareholders; Shareholders' Nominations and Proposals

Under BB&T's Bylaws, meetings of the shareholders may be called only by the Chief Executive Officer, President, Secretary or the BB&T Board of Directors. Shareholders of BB&T may not request that a special meeting of shareholders be called. This provision could delay until the next annual shareholders' meeting shareholder actions that are favored by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of BB&T.

The procedures governing the submission of nominations for directors and other proposals by shareholders may also have a deterrent effect on shareholder actions designed to result in a change of control in BB&T. See Comparison of the Rights of BB&T Shareholders and First Citizens Shareholders-Shareholder Nominations and Shareholder Proposals on page [].

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF BB&T SHAREHOLDERS AND FIRST CITIZENS SHAREHOLDERS

When the merger becomes effective, holders of First Citizens common stock will become shareholders of BB&T. The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of holders of BB&T common stock and holders of First Citizens common stock. Because BB&T is incorporated under the laws of North Carolina and First Citizens is incorporated under the laws of Tennessee, the differences in the rights of holders of BB&T common stock and those of holders of First Citizens common stock arise from differing provisions of the NCBCA and the TBCA, in addition to differing provisions of their respective Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

The following summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions affecting, and differences between, the rights of holders of BB&T common stock and holders of First Citizens common stock. The identification of specific provisions or differences is not meant to indicate that other equally or more significant differences do not exist. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the NCBCA and the TBCA and the respective governing corporate documents of BB&T and First Citizens, to which the shareholders of First Citizens are referred.

Authorized Capital Stock

BB&T

BB&T's authorized capital stock consists of 1,000,000,000 shares of BB&T common stock, par value $5.00 per share, and 5,000,000 shares of BB&T preferred stock, par value $5.00 per share. BB&T's Articles of Incorporation authorize the BB&T Board of Directors to issue shares of BB&T preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the designation, powers, preferences, and rights of the shares of BB&T preferred stock in each series. As of May 31, 2006, there were 536,346,903 shares of BB&T common stock outstanding, which excludes shares expected to be issued in pending acquisitions. No shares of BB&T preferred stock were issued and outstanding as of that date.

First Citizens

First Citizens' authorized capital stock consists solely of 7,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of June 8, 2006, there were 2,598,687 shares of First Citizens' common stock outstanding.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

BB&T

BB&T's Bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders of BB&T may be called at any time by BB&T's Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Operating Officer, Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

First Citizens

First Citizens' Bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders of First Citizens may be called at any time by the President or the Board of Directors, and shall be called by the President or Secretary at the request in writing of shareholders owning at least 10% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Board of Directors

BB&T

BB&T's Bylaws provide for a board of directors consisting of not less than three nor more than 25 members as determined from time to time by resolution of a majority of the members of the BB&T Board of Directors or by resolution of the shareholders of BB&T. Currently, the BB&T Board of Directors consists of 15 directors. Under BB&T's Bylaws, directors may be removed with or without cause at a properly called shareholders' meeting where the number of votes cast to remove a director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove a director.

of Directors or by resolution of the shareholders of First Citizens. Currently, the First Citizens Board of Directors consists of seven directors. Under First Citizens' Bylaws, directors may be removed with or without cause at a properly called shareholders' meeting where the number of votes cast to remove a director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove a director. Directors may also be removed with cause by a vote of a majority of all directors then in office.

Dividends and Other Distributions

BB&T

The NCBCA prohibits a North Carolina corporation from making any distributions to shareholders, including the payment of cash dividends, that would render it unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or that would result in its total assets being less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if it were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution. The ability of BB&T to pay distributions to the holders of BB&T common stock will depend to a large extent upon the amount of dividends its bank subsidiaries, which are subject to restrictions imposed by regulatory authorities, pay to BB&T. In addition, the Federal Reserve could oppose a distribution by BB&T if it determined that such a distribution would harm BB&T's ability to support its bank subsidiaries.

First Citizens

The TBCA prohibits a Tennessee corporation from making any distribution to shareholders, including the payment of cash dividends, if, after giving effect to the distribution, the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution. First Citizens' ability to pay distributions is likewise dependent upon the amount of dividends it receives from its bank subsidiaries. First Citizens and its bank subsidiaries are subject to similar restrictions imposed by regulatory authorities.

Shareholder Nominations and Shareholder Proposals

BB&T

BB&T's Bylaws establish advance notice procedures for shareholder proposals and the nomination, other than by or at the direction of the BB&T Board of Directors or one of its committees, of candidates for election as directors. BB&T's Bylaws provide that a shareholder wishing to nominate a candidate for election to the BB&T Board of Directors must, in the case of an annual meeting, submit the nomination in writing to the Secretary of BB&T at least 60 days but no more than 90 days in advance of the first anniversary of the notice date of BB&T's proxy statement for the preceding year's annual meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, submit the notification no later than the tenth day following the notice date of such special meeting. The notification must contain biographical information about the candidate and the shareholder's name, shareholdings, and any material interests of the shareholder in the nomination. Nominations that are not made in accordance with the foregoing provisions may be ruled out of order by the presiding officer or the Chairman of the meeting. In addition, a shareholder intending to make a proposal for consideration at a regularly scheduled annual or special meeting of shareholders must notify the Secretary of BB&T within the same timeframe as for director nominations. The notice for a shareholder proposal generally must contain: (a) a brief description of the proposal, (b) the name, address, and shareholdings of the shareholder submitting the proposal, and (c) any material interest of the shareholder in the proposal.

In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), shareholder proposals intended to be included in the proxy statement and presented at a regularly scheduled annual meeting must be received by BB&T at least 120 days before the anniversary of the date that the previous year's proxy statement was first mailed to shareholders. As provided in rules promulgated under the Exchange Act, if the annual meeting date has been changed by more than 30 days from the date of the prior year's meeting, or for special meetings, the proposal must be submitted within a reasonable time before BB&T begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

First Citizens

First Citizens' Bylaws do not establish advance notice procedures for shareholder proposals and the nomination, other than by or at the direction of the First Citizens Board of Directors or one of its committees, of candidates for election as directors. Proposals by First Citizens shareholders are not subject to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

Discharge of Duties; Exculpation and Indemnification

BB&T

The NCBCA requires that a director of a North Carolina corporation discharge his or her duties as a director: (a) in good faith; (b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (c) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation. The NCBCA expressly provides that the duties of a director weighing a change of control situation are not different, nor is the standard of care any higher, than that which is otherwise provided.

BB&T's Articles of Incorporation provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no director of BB&T will have any personal liability for monetary damages for breach of a duty as a director. BB&T's Bylaws require BB&T to indemnify its directors and officers, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, against liabilities arising out of his or her status as a director or officer, excluding any liability relating to activities that were at the time taken known or believed by such person to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of BB&T. The NCBCA permits a corporation to indemnify or agree to indemnify an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent against liability and expenses in any proceeding (including a proceeding brought on behalf of the corporation itself) arising out of their status as such or their activities in any of the foregoing capacities, except for activities which were at the time taken known or believed by him to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the corporation. Further, the NCBCA requires a corporation to indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

First Citizens

The provisions of the TBCA regarding indemnification of directors and officers of a corporation are not materially different from the provisions of the NCBCA regarding the indemnification of directors and officers with respect to BB&T.

Similar to BB&T, First Citizens' Bylaws require First Citizens to indemnify its directors, officers and employees, to the extent permitted by applicable law, against liabilities arising out of his or her status as a director, officer or employee. The TBCA permits a corporation to indemnify or agree to indemnify an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent against liability and expenses in any proceeding (including a proceeding brought on behalf of the corporation itself) arising out of their status as such or their activities in any of the foregoing capacities, except for activities which were at the time taken known or believed by him to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the corporation. Further, the TBCA requires a corporation to indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

Mergers, Share Exchanges and Sales of Assets

BB&T

The NCBCA generally requires that any merger, share exchange or sale of all or substantially all the assets of a corporation other than in the ordinary course of business must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of the issued and outstanding shares of each voting group entitled to vote. Approval of a merger by the shareholders of the surviving corporation is not required in certain instances, however, including a merger in which the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, does not exceed by more than 20% the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger. BB&T is also subject to certain statutory anti-takeover provisions. See Anti-Takeover Statutes below.

First Citizens

The TBCA generally requires that any merger, share exchange or sale of all or substantially all the assets of a corporation other than in the ordinary course of business must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of the issued and outstanding shares of each voting group entitled to vote.

Anti-Takeover Statutes

BB&T

The North Carolina Control Share Acquisition Act applies to BB&T. This Act is designed to give management of publicly-owned North Carolina corporations based within the state more time and greater control in any hostile tender offer. The Act is triggered upon the acquisition by a person of shares of voting stock of a covered corporation that, when added to all other shares beneficially owned by the person, would result in that person holding one-fifth, one-third or a majority of the voting power in the election of directors. Under the Act, the shares acquired that result in the crossing of any of these thresholds have no voting rights until they are conferred by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding voting shares, excluding those shares held by any person involved or proposing to be involved in the acquisition of shares in excess of the thresholds, any officer of the corporation, and any employee of the corporation who is also a director of the corporation. If voting rights are conferred on the acquired shares, all shareholders of the corporation have the right to require that their shares be redeemed at the highest price paid per share by the acquiror for any of the acquired shares.

The North Carolina Shareholder Protection Act requires that certain business combinations with existing shareholders either be approved by a supermajority of the other shareholders or meet certain fair price requirements. Pursuant to a provision in the BB&T Bylaws, BB&T has elected to opt out of the North Carolina Shareholder Protection Act, as permitted by the Act.

First Citizens

The TBCA's Investor Protection Act does not apply to First Citizens because First Citizens is a bank holding company. The TBCA's Business Combination Act does not apply to First Citizens because First Citizens does not have any shares of stock registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The TBCA's Control Share Acquisition Act does not apply to First Citizens because neither First Citizens' Articles of Incorporation nor its Bylaws contain an express declaration that control share acquisitions respecting the shares of First Citizens are governed by and subject to the provisions of the Control Share Acquisition Act. The TBCA's Greenmail Act does not apply to First Citizens because First Citizens does not have any shares of stock registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Table of Contents

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

BB&T

The NCBCA generally requires that any amendment to Articles of Incorporation be proposed by the board of directors. The amendment then must be approved by a majority of the votes cast within each voting group entitled to vote unless another provision of the NCBCA, the Articles of Incorporation, or the board of directors requires a greater vote. BB&T's Bylaws provide that BB&T's Board of Directors has the authority to amend the Bylaws without the assent or vote of the shareholders. The Bylaws also provide that the shareholders of the corporation may amend the Bylaws. The NCBCA provides that unless the Articles of Incorporation or a bylaw adopted by the shareholders provides otherwise, the board of directors may not amend a bylaw approved by the shareholders.

First Citizens

The TBCA generally requires that any amendment to Articles of Incorporation must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights, with some exceptions for minor amendments. First Citizens' Bylaws provide that First Citizens' Board of Directors has the authority to amend the Bylaws without the assent or vote of the shareholders. The Bylaws also provide that the shareholders of the corporation may amend the Bylaws. Under the TBCA, if expressly authorized by the Articles of Incorporation, the shareholders may adopt or amend a bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders than is required by the TBCA. The adoption or amendment of a bylaw that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater. A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders to adopt such a change to quorum or voting requirements may not be adopted, amended, or repealed by the Board of Directors. First Citizens' Articles of Incorporation contain no such provision.

Consideration of Business Combinations

BB&T

BB&T's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not specify any factors to which the BB&T Board of Directors must give consideration in evaluating a transaction involving a potential change in control of BB&T. Further, as stated above, the NCBCA expressly provides that the duties of a director weighing a change of control situation are not different, nor is the standard of care any higher, than that which is otherwise provided.

First Citizens

First Citizens' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not specify any factors to which the First Citizens Board of Directors must give consideration in evaluating a transaction involving a potential change in control of First Citizens.

Shareholders' Rights of Dissent and Appraisal

BB&T

The NCBCA provides that dissenters' rights are not available to the holders of shares of a corporation, such as BB&T, that are either listed on a national securities exchange or held by more than 2,000 record shareholders by reason of a merger, share exchange, or sale or exchange of property unless (a) the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation that issued the shares provide otherwise; or (b) in the case of a merger or share exchange, the holders of the shares are required to accept anything other than (i) cash; (ii) shares in another corporation that are either listed on a national securities exchange or held by more than 2,000 record shareholders; or (iii) a combination of cash and such shares. BB&T's Articles of Incorporation do not authorize any additional dissenters' rights.

Table of Contents

First Citizens

The dissenters' rights provided to a holder of First Citizens common stock under Chapter 23 of the TBCA are described above under the caption "The Merger - Appraisal Rights."

Liquidation Rights

BB&T

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of BB&T, holders of outstanding shares of BB&T common stock are entitled to share, in proportion to their respective interests, in BB&T's assets and funds remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and other liabilities of BB&T.

Because BB&T is a financial holding company, its rights, the rights of its creditors and of its shareholders, including the holders of the shares of any BB&T preferred stock that may be issued, to participate in the assets of any subsidiary upon the latter's liquidation or recapitalization may be subject to the prior claims of (a) the subsidiary's creditors, except to the extent that BB&T may itself be a creditor with recognized claims against the subsidiary, and (b) any interests in the liquidation accounts established by savings associations or savings banks acquired by BB&T for the benefit of eligible account holders in connection with conversion of the savings associations from mutual to stock form.

First Citizens

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of First Citizens, holders of outstanding shares of First Citizens common stock have substantially similar rights as BB&T shareholders.

Because First Citizens is a bank holding company, its rights, the rights of its creditors and of its shareholders to participate in the assets of any subsidiary upon the latter's liquidation or recapitalization may be subject to the prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors, except to the extent that First Citizens may itself be a creditor with recognized claims against the subsidiary.

BB&T may at any time prior to the Effective Time change the method of effecting the Merger (including, without limitation, the provisions of this Article II) if and to the extent it deems such change to be necessary, appropriate or desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of consideration to be issued to holders of FC Stock as provided for in Article III of this Agreement (subject to adjustment as provided in Sections 3.05), (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of FC's shareholders as a result of receiving the Merger Consideration, or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Upon consummation of the Subsidiary Merger, the separate corporate existence of each of the Banks shall cease and BB&T Bank shall survive and continue to exist as a North Carolina state banking corporation. (The Parent Merger and the Subsidiary Merger shall sometimes collectively be referred to herein as the Merger .)

2.03 Effectiveness of the Parent Merger. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VII, the Parent Merger shall become effective upon the occurrence of the filing of articles of merger with the North Carolina Secretary of State in accordance with Section 55-11-05 of the NCBCA and the filing of articles of merger with the Tennessee Secretary of State in accordance with Sections 48-21-107 and 48-21-108 of the TBCA, or such later date and time as may be set forth in such filings (the time the Merger becomes effective on the Effective Date being referred to as the Effective Time).

ARTICLE III

for each share of FC Common Stock (subject to adjustment as set forth in Sections 3.05, the Stock Exchange Ratio); (ii) cash for each share of FC Common Stock at a rate to be determined by multiplying (A) the Stock Exchange Ratio by (B) the average of the last sale price of BB&T Common Stock (as reported on NYSEnet.com or, if not reported thereon, in another authoritative source) for the five (5) trading days immediately preceding the Effective Date (subject to adjustment as set forth in Section 3.05, the Cash Exchange Ratio); or (iii) a combination of such shares of BB&T Common Stock and cash, as more fully set forth in Section 3.01(a)(iii) (collectively, the Merger Consideration).

- (a) Election as to Outstanding FC Common Stock. The FC shareholders will have the following options in connection with the exchange of their FC Common Stock in connection with the Merger:
- (i) AT THE OPTION OF THE HOLDER, all of such holder's FC Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent shall be converted into and become BB&T Common Stock at the Stock Exchange Ratio (such election, the All Stock Election), provided that fractional shares will not be issued and cash (payable by check) will be paid in lieu thereof as provided in Section 3.03; or
- (ii) AT THE OPTION OF THE HOLDER, all of such holder's FC Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent shall be converted into and become cash (payable by check) at the Cash Exchange Ratio (such election, the All Cash Election), provided that, after giving effect to Section 3.01(a)(i), (ii) and (iii) and Section 3.07, in no event shall, in the aggregate, more than twenty-five percent (25%) of such FC Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date be converted into and become cash; or
- (iii) AT THE OPTION OF THE HOLDER, such holder's aggregate number of shares of FC Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent shall be converted into and become any combination of BB&T Common Stock and cash (payable by check) as designated by the shareholder on the Election Form, at the Stock Exchange Ratio and Cash Exchange Ratio, as applicable (such election, the Mixed Election), provided that: (A) after giving effect to Section 3.01(a)(i), (ii) and (iii) and Section 3.07, in no event shall, in the aggregate, more than twenty-five percent (25%) of such FC Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date be converted into and become cash; and (B) fractional shares will not be issued and cash (payable by check) will be paid in lieu thereof as provided in Section 3.03; or
- (iv) IF NO ELECTION (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3.01(d)) IS MADE BY THE HOLDER BY THE ELECTION DEADLINE (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 3.01(d)), all of such holder's shares of FC Common Stock shall be converted into the right to receive BB&T Common Stock at the Stock Exchange Ratio as set forth in Section 3.01(a)(i); provided, however, that fractional shares shall not be issued and cash will be paid in lieu thereof as provided in Section 3.03. Such shares of FC Common Stock shall be allocated by BB&T pro rata among non-electing holders based upon the number of shares of FC Common Stock for which an election has not been received by the Election Deadline in order to ensure that, in the aggregate, no more than twenty-five percent (25%) of such FC Common Stock shall be converted into cash. Notice of such allocation shall be provided promptly to each shareholder whose shares of FC Common Stock are allocated pursuant to this Section 3.01(a)(iv).
- (b) Company-Owned Stock and Shares Held by BB&T. Each share of FC Common Stock held as Company-Owned Stock or held by BB&T immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and retired at the Effective Time and no consideration shall be issued in exchange therefor.
- (c) Outstanding BB&T Common Stock. Each share of BB&T Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and unaffected by the Merger.

The Election Deadline shall be the time, specified by BB&T after consultation with FC, on the last day of the Election Period, after which an Election may not be made.

- (e) Perfection of the Election. An Election shall be considered to have been validly made by a FC shareholder only if the Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 3.04) shall have received an Election Form properly completed and executed by such shareholder prior to the Election Deadline.
- (f) Revocation of Election. Any FC shareholder may at any time prior to the Election Deadline revoke such shareholder's election and submit a new Election Form in accordance with the procedures in Section 3.01(e) by providing written notice that is received by the Exchange Agent by 5:00 p.m., local time for the Exchange Agent, on the business day prior to the Election Deadline. Elections may be similarly revoked if the Effective Date does not occur by August 1, 2006.
- (g) Reduction of Shares Deposited for Cash. If more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of shares of FC Common Stock issued and outstanding have, at the Election Deadline, been deposited for cash pursuant to the All Cash Election, the Mixed Election and Section 3.07, and not withdrawn pursuant to Section 3.01(f), BB&T will promptly eliminate, or cause to be eliminated by the Exchange Agent, from the shares deposited pursuant to the All Cash Election (subject to the limitations described in Section 3.01(g)(iv)), a sufficient number of such shares so that the total number of shares remaining on deposit for cash pursuant to the All Cash Election, the Mixed Election and Section 3.07 does not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the shares of FC Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date. After giving effect to Section 3.01(a)(iv), such elimination will be effected as follows:
 - (i) Subject to the limitations described in Section 3.01(g)(iv), BB&T will eliminate or cause to be eliminated from the shares of FC Common Stock deposited pursuant to the All Cash Election, and will add or cause to be added to the shares of FC Common Stock deposited for BB&T Common Stock pursuant to the All Stock Election, on a pro rata basis in relation to the total number of shares of FC Common Stock deposited pursuant to the All Cash Election minus the number of shares so deposited by the holders described in Section 3.01(g)(iv)(A) and the number of shares so deposited by the trustees or administrators of the FC KSOP, such number of whole shares of FC Common Stock on deposit for cash pursuant to the All Cash Election as may be necessary so that the total number of shares remaining on deposit for cash pursuant to the All Cash Election or the Mixed Election is equal, as nearly as practicable, to twenty-five percent (25%) of the shares of FC Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Effective Date;
 - (ii) All shares of FC Common Stock that are eliminated pursuant to Section 3.01(g)(i) from the shares of FC Common Stock deposited for cash shall be automatically converted into BB&T Common Stock in accordance with Section 3.01(a)(i);
 - (iii) Notice of such reallocation shall be provided promptly to each shareholder whose shares of FC Common Stock are reduced from the shares on deposit for cash pursuant to Section 3.01(g)(i); and
 - (iv) Notwithstanding the foregoing:
 - (A) the holders of one hundred (100) or fewer shares of FC Common Stock of record on the date of this Agreement who have elected the All Cash Election shall not be required to have any of their shares of FC Common Stock converted into BB&T Common Stock;

Table of Contents

(B) the trustees and administrators of the FC KSOP shall not be required to have any of the shares of FC Common Stock held in such plan converted into BB&T Common Stock if the appropriate administrator has elected the All Cash Election.

At the Effective Time, holders of FC Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, shareholders of FC, other than to receive any dividend or other distribution with respect to such FC Common Stock with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time and the consideration provided under this Article III. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of FC or the Surviving Corporation of any shares of FC Stock.

3.03 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, no fractional shares of BB&T Common Stock and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued in the Merger; instead, BB&T shall pay to each holder of FC Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of BB&T Common Stock (after taking into account all Old Certificates (as defined below) delivered by such holder) an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying such fractional share of BB&T Common Stock to which the holder would be entitled by the average of the last sale price of BB&T Common Stock (as reported on NYSEnet.com or, if not reported thereon, in another authoritative source) for the five (5) trading days immediately preceding the Effective Date.

3.04 Exchange Procedures. (a) At or after the Effective Time, BB&T shall cause BB&T Bank (in such capacity, the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of certificates formerly representing shares of FC Common Stock (Old Certificates), to exchange for outstanding shares of FC Common Stock in accordance with this Article III, certificates representing shares of BB&T Common Stock (New Certificates) and an amount of cash necessary to make payments of cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration (together with any dividends or distributions with a record date occurring on or after the Effective Date with respect thereto without any interest on any such cash, dividends or distributions).

(b) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Date, upon the shareholder's delivery to the Exchange Agent of Old Certificates owned by such shareholder representing shares of FC Common Stock (or an indemnity affidavit reasonably satisfactory to BB&T and the Exchange Agent, if any, if such certificates are lost, stolen or destroyed), BB&T shall cause New Certificates into which such shares of FC Common Stock are converted on the Effective Date to be delivered to such shareholder and/or any check in respect of cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration (and in respect of any fractional share interests, dividends or distributions that such shareholder shall be entitled to receive). No interest will be paid on any such cash to be paid in lieu of fractional share interests or in respect of dividends or distributions that any such shareholder shall be entitled to receive pursuant to this Article III.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Exchange Agent nor any party hereto shall be liable to any former holder of FC Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(d) No dividends or other distributions with respect to BB&T Common Stock with a record date occurring on or after the Effective Date shall be paid to the record holder of any unsurrendered Old Certificate representing shares of FC Common Stock converted in the Merger into the right to receive shares of such BB&T Common Stock until the holder thereof receives New Certificates in exchange therefor in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 3.04. After becoming so entitled in accordance with this Section 3.04, the record holder thereof also shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of BB&T Common Stock, and which such holder had the right to receive upon surrender of the Old Certificates.

3.06 Options. (a) On the Effective Date, whether or not then exercisable, each outstanding option to purchase shares of FC Common Stock under the FC Stock Plans (each, a FC Stock Option) shall be converted into and become rights with respect to BB&T Common Stock, and BB&T shall assume each FC Stock Option in accordance with the terms of the FC Stock Plans, except that from and after the Effective Time (i) BB&T and its Compensation Committee shall be substituted for FC and the relevant committee of FC's Board of Directors for purposes of administering the FC Stock Plans, (ii) each FC Stock Option assumed by BB&T may be exercised solely for shares of BB&T Common Stock, (iii) the number of shares of BB&T Common Stock subject to each such FC Stock Option shall be the number of whole shares of BB&T Common Stock (omitting any fractional share) determined by multiplying the number of shares of FC Common Stock subject to such FC Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time by the Stock Exchange Ratio, and (iv) the per share exercise price under each such FC Stock Option shall be adjusted by dividing the per share exercise price under each such FC Stock Option by the Stock Exchange Ratio and rounding up to the nearest cent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, BB&T may, at its election, substitute as of the Effective Time options under the BB&T Corporation 2004 Stock Incentive Plan or any other duly adopted comparable plan (in either case, the BB&T Option Plan) for all or a part of the FC Stock Options, subject to the following conditions: (A) the requirements of (iii) and (iv) above shall be met; (B) such substitution shall not constitute a modification, extension or renewal of any of the FC Stock Options; and (C) the substituted options shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions as provided in the FC Stock Option Agreements and the FC Stock Plans governing each FC Stock Option. Each grant of a converted or substitute option to any individual who subsequent to the Merger will be an officer of BB&T as construed under Commission Rule 16b-3 shall, as a condition to such conversion or substitution, be approved in accordance with the provisions of Rule 16b-3. Each FC Stock Option that is an incentive stock option shall be adjusted as required by Section 424 of the Code, and the Regulations promulgated thereunder, so as to continue as an incentive stock option under Section 424(a) of the Code, and so as not to constitute a modification, extension or renewal of the option within the meaning of Section 424(h) of the Code. BB&T and FC agree to take all necessary steps to effectuate the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.06. BB&T has reserved and shall continue to reserve adequate shares of BB&T Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of any converted or substitute options. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, if it has not already done so, BB&T shall file a registration statement on Form S-3 or Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form), as the case may be, with respect to the shares of BB&T Common Stock subject to converted or substitute options and shall use its reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such converted or substitute options remain outstanding. With respect to those individuals, if any, who subsequent to the Merger may be subject to the reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, BB&T shall administer the FC Stock Plans assumed pursuant to this Section 3.06 (or the BB&T Option Plan, if applicable) in a manner that complies with Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act to the extent necessary to preserve for such individuals the benefits of Rule 16b-3 to the extent such benefits were available to them prior to the Effective Time. FC hereby represents that the FC Stock Plans in their current forms comply with Rule 16b-3 to the extent, if any, required as of the date hereof.

(b) As soon as practicable following the Effective Time, BB&T shall deliver to the participants receiving converted options under the BB&T Option Plan an appropriate notice setting forth such participant's rights pursuant thereto.

(c) Eligibility to receive stock option grants following the Effective Time with respect to BB&T Common Stock shall be determined by BB&T in accordance with its plans and procedures as in effect from time to time, and subject to any contractual obligations.

As of the date hereof, BB&T is not aware of any reason why the approvals set forth in Section 7.01(b) will not be received without the imposition of a condition, restriction or requirement of the type described in Section 7.01(b).

(ii) Subject to the satisfaction of the requirements referred to in the preceding paragraph and expiration of the related waiting periods, and required filings under federal and state securities laws, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not (A) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, or give rise to any Lien, any acceleration of remedies or any right of termination under, any law, rule or regulation or any judgment, decree, order, governmental permit or license, or agreement, indenture or instrument of BB&T or of any of its Subsidiaries or to which BB&T or any of its Subsidiaries or properties is subject or bound, (B) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws (or similar governing documents) of BB&T or any of its Subsidiaries, or (C) require any consent or approval under any such law, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, order, governmental permit or license, agreement, indenture or instrument.

(ii) Since December 31, 2004, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen that, individually or taken together with all other facts, circumstances and events (described in any paragraph of Section 5.04 or otherwise), is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to BB&T, except as disclosed in the BB&T SEC Documents.

(g) Brokerage and Finder's Fees. BB&T has not employed any broker, finder, or agent, or agreed to pay or incurred any brokerage fee, finder's fee, commission or other similar form of compensation in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE VI

COVENANTS

6.01 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of FC and BB&T agrees to use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Merger as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, and shall cooperate fully with the other party hereto to that end.

6.02 Shareholder Approval. FC agrees to take, in accordance with applicable law and the FC Articles and FC Bylaws, all action necessary to convene an appropriate meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon the adoption of this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by FC's shareholders for consummation of the Merger (including any adjournment or postponement, the FC Meeting), as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. The FC Board shall recommend that its shareholders adopt this Agreement at the FC Meeting unless the FC Board, after consultation with independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that it is probable that such recommendation would be a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Tennessee law and FC's Articles.

6.03 Registration Statement. (a) BB&T agrees to prepare, pursuant to all applicable laws, rules and regulations, a registration statement on Form S-4 (the Registration Statement) to be filed by BB&T with the SEC in connection with the issuance of BB&T Common Stock in the Merger (including the proxy statement and prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials of FC constituting a part thereof (the Proxy Statement) and all related documents). FC agrees to cooperate, and to cause its Subsidiaries to cooperate, with BB&T, its counsel and its accountants, in preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement; and provided that FC and its Subsidiaries have cooperated as required above, BB&T agrees to file the Proxy Statement and the Registration Statement (together, the Proxy/Prospectus) with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable. Each of FC and BB&T agrees to use all reasonable efforts to cause the Proxy/Prospectus to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after filing thereof. BB&T also agrees to use all reasonable efforts to obtain, prior to the effective date of the Registration Statement, all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. FC agrees to furnish to BB&T all information concerning FC, its Subsidiaries, officers, directors and shareholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with the foregoing.

(b) Each of FC and BB&T agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (ii) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to the FC shareholders and at the time of the FC Meeting, as the case may be, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or any statement which, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement is made, will be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or which will omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein not false or misleading or necessary to correct any statement in any earlier statement in the Proxy Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto. Each of FC and BB&T further agrees that if it shall become aware prior to the Effective Date of any information furnished by it that would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct the Proxy Statement.

(c) BB&T agrees to advise FC, promptly after BB&T receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of BB&T Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

6.04 Press Releases. Each of FC and BB&T agrees that it will not, without the prior approval of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, issue any press release or written statement for general circulation relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, except as otherwise required by applicable law or regulation or NYSE rules.

6.05 Access; Information. (a) FC agrees that upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, it shall afford BB&T and BB&T's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time to the books, records (including, without limitation, tax returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and to such other information as BB&T may reasonably request and, during such period, it shall furnish promptly to BB&T (i) a copy of each material report, schedule and other document filed by FC pursuant to federal or state securities or banking laws, and (ii) all other information concerning the business, properties and personnel of FC as BB&T may reasonably request.

(b) Each of BB&T and FC agrees that it will not, and will cause its representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.05 (as well as any other information obtained prior to the date hereof in connection with the entering into of this Agreement) for any purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Subject to the requirements of law, each party will keep confidential, and will cause its representatives to keep confidential, all information and documents obtained pursuant to this Section 6.05 (as well as any other information obtained prior to the date hereof in connection with the entering into of this Agreement) unless such information (i) was already known to such party, (ii) becomes available to such party from other sources not known by such party to be bound by a confidentiality obligation, (iii) is disclosed with the prior written approval of the party to which such information pertains or (iv) is or becomes readily ascertainable from published information or trade sources. No investigation by either party of the business and affairs of the other shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to either party's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, FC shall promptly furnish BB&T with copies of all monthly and other interim financial statements produced in the ordinary course of business as the same shall become available.

6.06 Acquisition Proposals. FC agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its Subsidiaries' officers, directors, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any Person relating to, any Acquisition Proposal, except to the extent that the FC Board, after consultation with independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that it is probable that the failure to take such action would be a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Tennessee law and FC's Articles. It shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted prior to the date of this Agreement with any parties other than BB&T with respect to any of the foregoing and shall use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. FC shall promptly advise BB&T following the receipt by FC of any Acquisition Proposal and the substance thereof (including the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal), and advise BB&T of any material developments with respect to such Acquisition Proposal promptly upon the occurrence thereof.

6.07 Affiliate Agreements. Not later than the 15th day prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement, FC shall deliver to BB&T a schedule of each Person that, to the best of its knowledge, is or is reasonably likely to be, as of the date of the FC Meeting, deemed to be an affiliate of FC (each, a FC Affiliate) as that term is used in Rule 145 under the Securities Act. FC shall cause each Person who may be deemed to be a FC Affiliate to execute and deliver to FC on or before the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement an agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. FC shall deliver such executed affiliate agreements to BB&T at the Closing.

6.08 Takeover Laws. No party hereto shall take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and each of them shall take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement from, or, if necessary, challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect. Neither party will take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated hereby not to comply with any Takeover Provisions and each of them will take all necessary steps within its control to make those transactions comply with (or continue to comply with) the Takeover Provisions.

6.09 Reports. Each of FC and BB&T shall file (and shall cause FC's Subsidiaries and BB&T's Subsidiaries, respectively, to file), between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, all reports required to be filed by it with the Securities and Exchange Commission and any other Regulatory Authorities having jurisdiction over such party, and FC shall deliver to BB&T copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. Any financial statements contained in any reports to a Regulatory Authority shall be prepared in accordance with requirements applicable to such reports.

6.10 Exchange Listing. BB&T will use all reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of BB&T Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the Effective Time.

6.11 Regulatory Applications. (a) BB&T and FC and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation, to timely effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party hereto agrees that it will consult with the other party hereto with respect to the obtaining of all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby. Any initial filings with Governmental Authorities shall be made by BB&T as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution hereof but, provided that FC has cooperated as described above, in no event later than ninety (90) days after the date hereof. Subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, each of BB&T and FC shall, to the extent practicable, consult with the other on all material written information submitted to any third party and/or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of such parties agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable.

(b) Each party agrees, upon request, to furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or any of its Subsidiaries to any third party or Governmental Authority.

6.12 Indemnification. (a) Following the Effective Date, BB&T shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present directors, officers and employees of FC and its Subsidiaries (each, an Indemnified Party) against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions occurring on or prior to the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) to the fullest extent that FC is permitted to indemnify (and advance expenses to) its directors, officers and employees under the laws of the State of Tennessee, the FC Articles and the FC Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) For a period of three years from the Effective Time, BB&T shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide that portion of director's and officer's liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of FC or any of its Subsidiaries (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from facts or events that occurred before the Effective Time, on terms no less favorable than those in effect on the date hereof; provided, however, that BB&T may substitute therefor policies providing at least comparable coverage containing terms and conditions no less favorable than those in effect on the date hereof; and provided, further, that officers and directors of FC or any Subsidiary may be required to make application and provide customary representations and warranties to BB&T's insurance carrier for the purpose of obtaining such insurance; and provided, further, in no event shall the annual premium on such policy exceed 110% of the previous year's annual premium payments (the Maximum Amount). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, BB&T shall use its reasonable efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.12(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, shall promptly notify BB&T thereof; provided that the failure so to notify shall not affect the obligations of BB&T under Section 6.12(a) unless and to the extent that BB&T is actually prejudiced as a result of such failure.

(d) If BB&T or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BB&T shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.12.

6.13 Employment Agreements; FC KSOP; Other Employee Benefits. (a) As of the date hereof, BB&T (or its specified Subsidiary) shall enter into five-year employment/consulting agreements with each of Kenneth H. Rayborn and F. Alan Smith (collectively, the Employment/Consulting Agreements), each of which shall become effective on the Effective Date if the Closing occurs as provided in Section 2.04 of this Agreement. Additionally, BB&T (or its specified Subsidiary) will offer (i) three-year employment agreements to each of Leland B. Rymer, J. Nicholas McGuire, Jr., James Quintrell, and K. Edward Rayborn (collectively, the Employment Agreements) and (ii) a three-year employment/consulting agreement to George Thorogood and two-year employment/consulting agreements to Melissa Finnell and Kathy Johnson (collectively, the Consulting Agreements), with each of such Employment Agreements and Consulting Agreements, if accepted, to be executed and become effective on the Effective Date.

(b) Effective on the Benefit Plan Determination Date with respect to the FC KSOP, BB&T shall cause such plan to be merged with the BB&T Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan (the BB&T 401(k) Plan), or to be frozen or to be terminated, in each case as determined by BB&T and subject to and conditional upon the receipt of all applicable regulatory or governmental approvals. Each employee of FC at the Effective Time (i) who is a participant in the FC KSOP, (ii) who becomes an employee of BB&T or of any of its Subsidiaries (the Employer Entity) immediately following the Effective Time, and (iii) who continues in the employment of an Employer Entity until the Benefit Plan Determination Date for the FC KSOP, shall be eligible to participate in the BB&T 401(k) Plan as of the Benefit Plan Determination Date. Any other employee of FC who is employed by an Employer Entity on or after the Benefit Plan Determination Date shall be eligible to be a participant in the BB&T 401(k) Plan upon complying with eligibility requirements. All rights to participate in the BB&T 401(k) Plan are subject to BB&T's right to amend or terminate such plan. Until the Benefit Plan Determination Date, BB&T shall continue in effect for the benefit of participating employees the FC KSOP. For purposes of administering the BB&T 401(k) Plan, service with FC and its Subsidiaries shall be deemed to be service with BB&T for participation and vesting purposes, but not for purposes of benefit accrual. Any compensation earned and deferred by employees of FC in the calendar year of the Benefit Plan Determination Date will be recognized by BB&T in the administration of the BB&T 401(k) Plan. If employees of FC were eligible to receive a matching contribution under the FC KSOP, then such FC employees will be eligible to receive any matching contribution provided under the BB&T 401(k) Plan. If employees of FC were not eligible to receive a matching contribution under the FC KSOP, then such FC employees must meet the matching contribution eligibility requirements under the BB&T 401(k) Plan before receiving any matching contribution under the BB&T 401(k) Plan. Each employee of FC or its Subsidiaries at the Effective Time who becomes an employee immediately following the Effective Time of an Employer Entity is referred to here as a Transferred Employee. Transferred Employees shall be included in any defined benefit plan sponsored or maintained by any Employer Entity following the Effective Time in accordance with the terms of such plan; provided, however, such Transferred Employees shall receive credit for service with FC and its Subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities to the extent such service was recognized by FC) prior to the Effective Time for purposes of participation, eligibility and vesting (but not for purposes of benefit accrual) under such defined benefit plan to the same extent as if such service were with the Employer Entity.

(c) Each Transferred Employee shall be eligible to participate in group hospitalization, medical, dental, life, disability and other welfare benefit plans and programs available to employees of the Employer Entity, subject to the terms of such plans and programs, as of the Benefit Plan Determination Date for each such plan or program, conditional upon the Transferred Employees being employed by an Employer Entity as of such Benefit Plan Determination Date and subject to complying with eligibility requirements of the respective plans and programs. With respect to any welfare benefit plan or program of FC that the Employer Entity determines, in its sole discretion, provides benefits of the same type or class as a corresponding plan or program maintained by an Employer Entity, the Employer Entity shall continue such FC plan or program in effect for the benefit of the Transferred Employees so long as they remain eligible to participate and until they shall become eligible to become participants in the corresponding plan or program maintained by the Employer Entity (and, with respect to any such plan or program, subject to complying with eligibility requirements and subject to the right of the Employer Entity to terminate such plan or program). For purposes of administering the welfare plans and programs subject to this Section 6.13, service with FC shall be deemed to be service with the Employer Entity for the purpose of determining eligibility to participate and vesting (if applicable) in such welfare plans and programs, but not for the purpose of computing benefits, if any, determined in whole or in part with reference to service (except as otherwise provided in Section 6.13(d)).

(d) Except to the extent of commitments herein or other contractual commitments, if any, specifically made or assumed hereunder by BB&T, neither BB&T nor any Employer Entity shall have any obligation arising from the Merger to continue any Transferred Employees in its employ or in any specific job or to provide to any Transferred Employee any specified level of compensation or any incentive payments, benefits or perquisites. Each Transferred Employee who is terminated by an Employer Entity subsequent to the Effective Time, excluding any employee who has a then existing contract explicitly providing for severance in lieu of severance plan benefits, shall be entitled to severance pay in accordance with the general severance policy of BB&T or of FC as then in effect, if and to the extent that such Transferred Employee is entitled to severance pay under the applicable policy. Prior to the Effective Date, BB&T shall determine which of such severance policies shall be applicable and shall give FC notice thereof, and the selected severance policy shall apply with respect to all Transferred Employees. Each Transferred Employee's service with FC shall be treated as service with BB&T for purposes of determining the amount of severance pay, if any, under BB&T's severance policy.

(e) BB&T agrees to honor all employment agreements, severance agreements and deferred compensation agreements that FC and its Subsidiaries have with their current and former employees and directors and which have been Previously Disclosed to BB&T pursuant to this Agreement, except to the extent any such agreements shall be superseded or terminated at the Closing or following the Effective Date. Except for the agreements described in the preceding sentence and except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.13, the employee benefit plans of FC shall, in the sole discretion of BB&T, be frozen, terminated or merged into comparable plans of BB&T, effective as BB&T shall determine in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, BB&T will continue in effect the FC discretionary bonus plan and any other short-term bonus plans of FC (the FC Bonus Arrangements) until the later of (i) the date of completion of conversion of the data services systems of FC and its Subsidiaries to the data service systems of BB&T and its Subsidiaries, or (ii) the date that former FC executives are made parties to the BB&T Amended and Restated Short Term Incentive Plan (the BB&T Bonus Plan). If any former executive of FC would earn amounts under both the FC Bonus Arrangements and the BB&T Bonus Plan for any calendar year, BB&T shall make appropriate adjustments in the amounts earned under such programs to avoid duplication and to pro-rate the amount earned by such executive under the FC Bonus Arrangements and the BB&T Bonus Plan for the portion of the year in which such executive participated in each such plan.

6.14 Notification of Certain Matters. Each of FC and BB&T shall give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein.

6.15 Dividend Coordination. It is agreed by the parties hereto that they will cooperate to assure that as a result of the Merger, during any applicable period, there shall not be a payment of both a BB&T and a FC dividend. The parties further agree that if the Effective Date is at the end of a fiscal quarter, then they will cooperate to assure that the FC shareholders receive the dividend declared by BB&T, if any, rather than the dividend for that period, if any, declared by FC, except for any part of such dividend that is declared by FC for the purpose of satisfying the quarterly tax liabilities of the shareholders of FC through the Effective Time (given FC's election to be treated as an S Corporation under Subchapter S of the Code) as may be estimated by FC in its reasonable discretion and consistent with past practice (with a proportional amount paid to the FC KSOP).

6.16 Advisory Board. Each of the members of FC's Board of Directors will be asked to serve on a BB&T local advisory board for the region formerly served by FC, and BB&T will pay compensation to such directors for their service on such BB&T local advisory board consistent with BB&T's fee policies for advisory board members. In addition, BB&T shall cause the BB&T Bank Board of Directors to elect Kenneth H. Rayborn to the BB&T Bank Board of Directors. BB&T will pay compensation to Mr. Rayborn for his service on such board consistent with BB&T's fee policy for service on such board.

6.17 Tax Treatment. Each of BB&T and FC agrees not to take any actions subsequent to the date of this Agreement that would adversely affect the ability of FC and its shareholders to characterize the Merger as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and each of BB&T and FC agrees to take such action as may be reasonably required, if such action may be reasonably taken to reverse the impact of any past actions that would adversely impact the ability for the Merger to be characterized as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

6.18 No Breaches of Representations and Warranties. Between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, without the written consent of the other party, each of BB&T and FC will not do any act or suffer any omission of any nature whatsoever that would cause any of the representations or warranties made in Article V of this Agreement to become untrue or incorrect in any material respect.

6.19 Consents. Each of BB&T and FC shall use its best efforts to obtain any required consents to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.20 Insurance Coverage. FC shall cause each of the policies of insurance listed in its Disclosure Schedule to remain in effect between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Date.

6.21 Correction of Information. Each of BB&T and FC shall promptly correct and supplement any information furnished under this Agreement so that such information shall be correct and complete in all material respects at all times, and shall include all facts necessary to make such information correct and complete in all material respects at all times, provided that any such correction that may result in a change to a party's Disclosure Schedule shall not be made without the prior written consent of the other party.

6.22 Confidentiality. Except for the use of information in connection with the Registration Statement described in Section 6.03 hereof and any other governmental filings required in order to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, all information (collectively, the Information) received by each of FC and BB&T, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be kept in strictest confidence; provided that, subsequent to the filing of the Registration Statement with the SEC, this Section 6.22 shall not apply to information included in the Registration Statement or to be included in the official Proxy/Prospectus to be sent to the shareholders of FC under Section 6.03. FC and BB&T agree that the Information will be used only for the purpose of completing the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. FC and BB&T agree to hold the Information in strictest confidence and shall not use, and shall not disclose directly or indirectly any of such Information except when, after and to the extent such Information (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than through the failure of FC or BB&T to fulfill its obligations hereunder, (ii) was already known to the party receiving the Information on a nonconfidential basis prior to the disclosure or (iii) is subsequently disclosed to the party receiving the Information on a nonconfidential basis by a third party having no obligation of confidentiality to the party disclosing the Information. It is agreed and understood that the obligations of FC and BB&T contained in this Section 6.22 shall survive the Closing.

6.23 Tax Opinion. Prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement to FC's shareholders as described in Section 6.03 hereof, BB&T shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, PLLC (Womble Carlyle), counsel to BB&T, to deliver to FC an opinion of Womble Carlyle to the effect that the Merger will constitute one or more reorganizations under Section 368 of the Code and that the shareholders of FC will not recognize any gain or loss, except (i) to the extent of any cash received by such shareholders in exchange for shares of FC Common Stock and (ii) with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of BB&T Common Stock. Such opinion will be based, in part, upon such representations and certifications of the officers and/or representatives of BB&T, FC and their respective Subsidiaries reasonably requested by Womble Carlyle.

ARTICLE VIICONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER

7.01 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligation of each of BB&T and FC to consummate the Merger is subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by BB&T and FC prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

- (b) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired and no such approvals shall contain (i) any conditions, restrictions or requirements that the BB&T Board reasonably determines would either before or after the Effective Time have a Material Adverse Effect on BB&T after giving effect to the consummation of the Merger, or (ii) any conditions, restrictions or requirements that are not customary and usual for approvals of such type and that the BB&T Board reasonably determines would either before or after the Effective Date be unduly burdensome.
- (c) No Injunction. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is in effect and prohibits consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.02 Conditions to Obligation of FC. The obligation of FC to consummate the Merger is also subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by FC prior to the Effective Time of each of the following conditions:

- (a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of BB&T set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct, subject to Section 5.02, as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Date as though made on and as of the Effective Date (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of the date of this Agreement or some other date shall be true and correct as of such date), and FC shall have received a certificate, dated the Effective Date, signed on behalf of BB&T by a Senior Executive Vice President or an Executive Vice President of BB&T to such effect.
- (b) Performance of Obligations of BB&T. BB&T shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by BB&T under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and FC shall have received a certificate, dated the Effective Date, signed on behalf of BB&T by a Senior Executive Vice President or an Executive Vice President of BB&T to such effect.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Merger may be abandoned:

- (a) Mutual Consent. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the mutual consent of BB&T and FC.
- (b) Breach. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by BB&T or FC in the event of either: (i) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein (subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.02), which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; or (ii) a breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, provided that (A) such breach (under either clause (i) or (ii)) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the Merger under Article VII, and (B) the terminating party is not itself in material breach of any provision of this Agreement.
- (c) Delay. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by BB&T or FC, if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event that the Merger is not consummated by August 1, 2006, except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated arises out of or results from the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c).
- (d) No Approval. By FC or BB&T in the event (i) the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority or an application therefore shall have been permanently withdrawn at the invitation, request or suggestion of a Governmental Authority; (ii) the FC shareholders fail to adopt this Agreement at the FC Meeting and approve the Merger; or (iii) any of the closing conditions have not been met as required by Article VII hereof.
- (e) Adverse Action. By BB&T, if (i) the FC Board submits this Agreement (or the plan of merger contained herein) to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with any adverse conditions on, or qualifications of, such recommendation for approval; or (ii) the FC Board otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies (or discloses its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify) its recommendation referred to in Section 6.02; or (iii) the FC Board recommends to its shareholders an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger.

8.02 Effect of Termination and Abandonment; Enforcement of Agreement. In the event of termination of this Agreement and the abandonment of the Merger pursuant to this Article VIII, no party to this Agreement shall have any liability or further obligation to any other party hereunder except (i) as set forth in Sections 8.03 and 9.01; and (ii) that termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability or damages for any willful breach of this Agreement giving rise to such termination. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the parties hereto agree that irreparable damage will occur in the event that a party breaches any of its obligations, duties, covenants and agreements contained herein. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled by law or in equity.

8.03 Termination Fee. FC shall pay to BB&T a termination fee in the amount of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) if:

- (i) this Agreement is terminated by BB&T pursuant to Section 8.01(b) or 8.01(e) or by BB&T or FC pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(ii); and prior to such termination, an Acquisition Proposal with respect to FC was commenced, publicly proposed or publicly disclosed; and within 18 months after such termination, FC shall have entered into an agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal or any Acquisition Proposal shall have been consummated; or

(ii) after receiving an Acquisition Proposal, the FC Board does not take action to convene the FC Meeting and/or recommend that FC shareholders adopt this Agreement; and within 18 months after such receipt, FC shall have entered into an agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal or any Acquisition Proposal shall have been consummated.

Upon payment of the fee described in this Section 8.03, FC shall have no further liability to BB&T at law or in equity with respect to such termination under Section 8.01(b), 8.01(d)(ii) or 8.01(f), or with respect to the FC Board's failure to take action to convene the FC Meeting and/or recommend that FC shareholders adopt this Agreement. FC acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, BB&T would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if FC fails to pay timely any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.03 and, in order to obtain such payment, BB&T commences a suit that results in a judgment against FC for the amount payable to BB&T pursuant to this Section 8.03, FC shall pay to BB&T its costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount so payable at the applicable Federal Funds rate.

Board of Directors

First Citizens Bancorp

2305 Keith Street

P.O. Box 3300

Cleveland, TN 37311

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that First Citizens Bancorp, a Tennessee corporation (First Citizens) and BB&T Corporation, a North Carolina corporation (BB&T), are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), to-be-dated on or about January 12, 2005, pursuant to which First Citizens will merge with and into BB&T (the Merger). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meaning attributed to them in the Agreement.

As set forth in Section 3.01 of the Agreement, at the Effective Time each share of First Citizens Common Stock (excluding Company-Owned Stock and shares of First Citizens Common Stock held by BB&T) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted at the election of the holder thereof (in accordance with the election and allocation procedures set forth in Section 3.01(a), (d) and (g)) into either (i) shares of BB&T Common Stock based upon a fixed exchange ratio of 1.30 shares of BB&T Common Stock for each share of First Citizens Common Stock (subject to adjustment as set forth in Sections 3.05, the Stock Exchange Ratio); (ii) cash for each share of First Citizens Common Stock at a rate to be determined by multiplying (A) the Stock Exchange Ratio by (B) the average of the last sale price of BB&T Common Stock (as reported on NYSEnet.com or, if not reported thereon, in another authoritative source) for the five (5) trading days immediately preceding the Effective Date (subject to adjustment as set forth in Section 3.05, the Cash Exchange Ratio); or (iii) a combination of such shares of BB&T Common Stock and cash, as more fully set forth in Section 3.01(a)(iii) (collectively, the Merger Consideration). In aggregate, the total merger consideration to be paid by BB&T to First Citizens will be comprised of 75% in the form of BB&T Common Stock and 25% in the form of cash.

In connection with the Merger and the Agreement, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be paid to the shareholders of First Citizens.

Hovde Financial LLC (Hovde), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. We are familiar with First Citizens, having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in the negotiations leading to, the Agreement.

We were retained by First Citizens to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We will receive compensation from First Citizens in connection with our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. First Citizens has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement;

Table of Contents

January 10, 2006

- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning First Citizens and BB&T;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning First Citizens;
- (iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the managements of First Citizens and BB&T;
- (v) held discussions with members of the senior managements of First Citizens and BB&T for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of First Citizens and BB&T, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;
- (vi) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of BB&T Common Stock;
- (vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (viii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of BB&T's Common Stock by First Citizens' shareholders relative to the pro forma contribution of First Citizens' assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;
- (ix) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and
- (x) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by First Citizens and BB&T and in the discussions with the managements of First Citizens and BB&T. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies and projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of First Citizens and BB&T and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for First Citizens and BB&T are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of First Citizens, BB&T or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of First Citizens, BB&T or any of their respective subsidiaries and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to First Citizens, BB&T and its subsidiaries. In rendering this opinion, BB&T, First Citizens and we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on BB&T or the surviving corporations that would have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporation or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that no change in applicable law or regulation would occur that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of BB&T or any of the surviving corporations after the Merger.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances, as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof, except as otherwise agreed in our engagement letter.

We are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices at which shares of BB&T Common Stock issued in the Merger may trade if and when they are issued or at any future time, nor does our opinion constitute a recommendation to any holder of First Citizens Common Stock as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Agreement at any meeting of holders of Calvary's Common Stock.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of First Citizens and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the holders of First Citizens Common Stock in connection with the Merger if and only if this letter is quoted in full or attached as an Exhibit to such document and this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document.

Subject to the foregoing and based on our experience as investment bankers, our activities and assumptions as described above, and other factors we have deemed relevant, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of First Citizens Common Stock pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of First Citizens.

Sincerely,

/s/ Hovde Financial LLC

Board of Directors

First Citizens Bancorp

Cleveland, Tennessee

RE: Fairness Opinion Relative to Pending Agreement and Plan of Reorganization of First Citizens Bancorp, Cleveland, Tennessee, with BB&T Corporation, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Directors:

The Board of Directors of First Citizens Bancorp (FCB or the Company) retained Southard Financial, in its capacity as a financial valuation and consulting firm, to render its opinion of the fairness, from a financial viewpoint, of the acquisition of FCB by BB&T Corporation (BBT). Southard Financial and its principals have no past, present, or future contemplated financial, equity, or other interest in either FCB or BBT. This opinion is issued based upon financial data as of September 30, 2005 for FCB and BBT.

Southard Financial is a financial valuation consulting firm specializing in the valuation of closely-held companies and financial institutions. Since its founding in 1987, Southard Financial has provided nearly 3,000 valuation opinions for clients in 43 states. Further, Southard Financial provides valuation services for approximately 130 financial institutions annually. Southard Financial is independent of the parties to the merger.

Approach to Assignment

The key consideration in this fairness opinion is the adequacy of the total price paid by BBT. Under the terms of the merger, FCB will receive total consideration of about $141 to $143 million, based upon a market price of $42.50 per share for BBT. FCB shareholders may elect to receive $52.00 per share in cash, a fixed exchange ratio of 1.30 shares of BBT stock for each FCB share, or some combination of cash and BBT stock (no fractional shares will be issued), subject to the constraint that no more than 25% of the total consideration will be in cash. The final amount received by shareholders who elect some allocation other than the default allocation will be determined based upon the overall preferences of FCB shareholders and the aggregate terms of the merger. The approach to this assignment was to consider the following factors:

A review of the financial performance and position of FCB and the value of its common stock;

A review of the financial performance and position of BBT and the value of its common stock;

A review of recent bank merger transactions;

A review of the current and historical market prices of banks and bank holding companies in Tennessee and surrounding states;

A review of the investment characteristics of the common stock of FCB and BBT;

A review of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization between BBT and FCB;

Edgar Filing: BB&T CORP - Form S-4/A

An evaluation of the impact of the merger on the expected return to the current shareholders of FCB; and,

An evaluation of other factors as was considered necessary to render this opinion.

It is Southard Financial's understanding that the merger and resulting exchange of the stock of FCB for the outstanding common stock of BBT constitutes a non-taxable exchange for federal income tax purposes. The exchange of FCB stock for cash may have tax consequences. Because the form of consideration to be received by shareholders of FCB may include a combination of cash and common stock of BBT, the transaction may have tax consequences for all shareholders of FCB.

LIMITATIONS OF ANALYSIS

Although discussions with management and supporting documentation give Southard Financial comfort that its due diligence efforts were appropriate, Southard Financial has not conducted a physical examination of all FCB's properties or facilities and has not obtained or been provided with any formal evaluation of such properties and facilities. Southard Financial has reviewed the financial information and other internal data provided, as well as other publicly available information, and while unable to verify the accuracy and completeness of such data and information, Southard Financial has judged the reasonableness thereof and made certain judgments thereto. The opinion is necessarily based upon market, economic and other considerations as they exist on, and can be evaluated as of the date of this letter.

Further, Southard Financial is not expressing any opinion as to the actual value of the common stock of BBT when issued to FCB's shareholders pursuant to the merger, or the price at which shares of BBT will trade subsequent to the merger.

Numerous factors were considered in the overall review of the proposed merger. The review process included considerations regarding FCB, BBT, and the proposed merger. The major considerations are as follows:

First Citizens Bancorp

Historical earnings and dividend payments;

Outlook for future performance, earnings, and dividends;

Economic conditions and outlook in FCB's market;

The competitive environment in FCB's market;

Comparisons with peer banks and bank holding companies;

Recent minority stock transactions in BBT's common stock; and,

Other such factors as were deemed appropriate in rendering this opinion.

Common Factors

Historical and current bank merger pricing; and,

Current market prices for minority blocks of common stocks of banks and bank holding companies in Tennessee and surrounding states.

Appendix C-3

THE PROPOSED MERGER

The terms of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and the specific pricing of the merger;

Adequacy of the consideration paid to the shareholders of FCB;

The historical dividend payments of BBT and the likely impact on the dividend income of the current shareholders of FCB (equivalency of cash dividends);

The market for minority blocks of BBT common stock; and,

Other such factors as deemed appropriate.

OVERVIEW OF FAIRNESS ANALYSIS

In connection with rendering its opinion, Southard Financial performed a variety of financial analyses. Southard Financial believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering only selected factors could create an incomplete view of the analyses and the process underlying the opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgment and is not susceptible to partial analyses. In its analyses, Southard Financial made numerous assumptions, many of which are beyond the control of FCB and BBT. Any estimates contained in the analyses prepared by Southard Financial are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may vary significantly from such estimates. Estimates of value of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. FAIRNESS OPINION

Based upon the analyses of the foregoing and such matters as were considered relevant, it is the opinion of Southard Financial that the terms of the offer for the acquisition of First Citizens Bancorp by BB & T Corporation pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization are fair, from a financial viewpoint, to the shareholders of First Citizens Bancorp. It should be noted that based upon a market value of $42.50 per share for BBT, the exchange of FCB stock for cash will result in proceeds that are $3.25 per share less than would be received for the exchange into BBT stock. Nevertheless, there are advantages and disadvantages of electing the cash option versus stock option, and the desirability of either is subject to the risk characteristics of the stock and subject to the risk profile of each individual investor.

This opinion is solely for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors, and (except for inclusion in proxy materials to be sent to shareholders of FCB and in necessary regulatory applications) any summary of or reference to the opinion or any other reference to Southard Financial by FCB in connection with the merger will be subject to Southard Financial's prior review and written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The opinion will not be included in summarized form, or referred to in any manner in materials distributed to the public or potential investors of FCB without Southard Financial's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

In accordance with recognized professional ethics, Southard Financial's professional fees for this service are not contingent upon the opinion expressed herein. Thank you for this opportunity to be of service to First Citizens Bancorp.

Sincerely yours,

SOUTHARD FINANCIAL

CHAPTER 23 OF THE TENNESSEE BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT

Chapter 23. Dissenters Rights

Part 1. Right to Dissent and Obtain Payment for Shares

§ 48-23-101. Definitions

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held by a nominee as the record shareholder;
- (2) Corporation means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer;
- (3) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under § 48-23-102 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by part 2 of this chapter;
- (4) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action;
- (5) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action that gave rise to the shareholder's right to dissent until the date of payment, at the average auction rate paid on United States treasury bills with a maturity of six (6) months (or the closest maturity thereto) as of the auction date for such treasury bills closest to such effective date;
- (6) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation; and
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

§ 48-23-102. Shareholders rights

(a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

- (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:
 - (A) If shareholder approval is required for the merger by § 48-21-104 or the charter and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or
 - (B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under § 48-21-105;
- (2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
- (3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one (1) year after the date of sale;

Table of Contents

- (4) An amendment of the charter that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:
- (A) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;
 - (B) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;
 - (C) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;
 - (D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or
 - (E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share, if the fractional share is to be acquired for cash under § 48-16-104; or
- (5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the charter, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.
- (b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), no shareholder may dissent as to any shares of a security which, as of the date of the effectuation of the transaction which would otherwise give rise to dissenters' rights, is listed on an exchange registered under § 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or is a national market system security, as defined in rules promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

§ 48-23-103. Partial dissenters; beneficial owners

- (a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.
- (b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares of any one (1) or more classes held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:
- (1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and
 - (2) Does so with respect to all shares of the same class of which the person is the beneficial shareholder or over which the person has power to direct the vote.

Part 2. Procedure for Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

§ 48-23-201. Notice of shareholders right to dissent

- (a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

Table of Contents

(b) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in § 48-23-203.

(c) A corporation's failure to give notice pursuant to this section will not invalidate the corporate action.

§ 48-23-202. Dissenting shareholders duties

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must:

(1) Deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) Not vote the shareholder's shares in favor of the proposed action. No such written notice of intent to demand payment is required of any shareholder to whom the corporation failed to provide the notice required by § 48-23-201.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

§ 48-23-203. Dissenters' notice

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under § 48-23-102 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of § 48-23-202.

(b) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten (10) days after the corporate action was authorized by the shareholders or effectuated, whichever is the first to occur, and must:

(1) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(3) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not the person asserting dissenters' rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(4) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than one (1) nor more than two (2) months after the date the subsection (a) notice is delivered; and

(5) Be accompanied by a copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to § 48-23-201.

§ 48-23-204. Shareholder demanding payment and depositing share certificates

(a) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in § 48-23-203 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to § 48-23-203(b)(3), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(b) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's share certificates under subsection (a) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

(c) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

(d) A demand for payment filed by a shareholder may not be withdrawn unless the corporation with which it was filed, or the surviving corporation, consents thereto.

§ 48-23-205. Restricting transfer of uncertificated shares

(a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is effectuated or the restrictions released under § 48-23-207.

(b) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

§ 48-23-206. Payments to dissenters

(a) Except as provided in § 48-23-208, as soon as the proposed corporate action is effectuated, or upon receipt of a payment demand, whichever is later, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with § 48-23-204 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of each dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

(b) The payment must be accompanied by:

(1) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under § 48-23-209; and

(5) A copy of this chapter if the corporation has not previously sent a copy of this chapter to the shareholder pursuant to § 48-23-201 or § 48-23-203.

§ 48-23-207. Corporations failure to effectuate proposed action

(a) If the corporation does not effectuate the proposed action that gave rise to the dissenters' rights within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(b) If, after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation effectuates the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under § 48-23-203 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

§ 48-23-208. After-acquired shares; withholding payment

(a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by § 48-23-206 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action.

Table of Contents

(b) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (a), after effectuating the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under § 48-23-209.

§ 48-23-209. Disagreement between dissenter and corporation regarding fair value

(a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate (less any payment under § 48-23-206), or reject the corporation's offer under § 48-23-208 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:

(1) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under § 48-23-206 or offered under § 48-23-208 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(2) The corporation fails to make payment under § 48-23-206 within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment; or

(3) The corporation, having failed to effectuate the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives the dissenter's right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (a) within one (1) month after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

Part 3. Judicial Appraisal of Shares

§ 48-23-301. Commencement of proceeding; parties; jurisdiction; judgment

(a) If a demand for payment under § 48-23-209 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within two (2) months after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the two-month period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(1) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

Table of Contents

(2) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under § 48-23-208.

§ 48-23-302. Costs and attorney fees

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under § 48-23-301 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under § 48-23-209.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable against:

(1) The corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of part 2 of this chapter; or

(2) Either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

PART II. INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Sections 55-8-50 through 55-8-58 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act contain specific provisions relating to indemnification of directors and officers of North Carolina corporations. In general, such sections provide that: (i) a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as such, unless limited by the articles of incorporation, and (ii) a corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he is not wholly successful in such defense if it is determined as provided by statute that the director or officer meets a certain standard of conduct, except that when a director or officer is liable to the corporation or is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him, the corporation may not indemnify him. A director or officer of a corporation who is a party to a proceeding may also apply to a court for indemnification, and the court may order indemnification under certain circumstances set forth in statute. A corporation may, in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by contract or resolution of the board of directors, provide indemnification in addition to that provided by statute, subject to certain conditions.

BB&T's bylaws provide for the indemnification of any director or officer of the registrant against liabilities and litigation expenses arising out of his status as such, excluding: (i) any liabilities or litigation expenses relating to activities that were at the time taken known or believed by such person to be clearly in conflict with the best interest of BB&T or its affiliates and (ii) that portion of any liabilities or litigation expenses with respect to which such person is entitled to receive payment under any insurance policy.

BB&T's articles of incorporation provide for the elimination of the personal liability of each director of the BB&T to the fullest extent permitted by law.

BB&T maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance that, in general, insures: (i) BB&T's directors and officers against loss by reason of any of their wrongful acts and (ii) BB&T against loss arising from claims against the directors and officers by reason of their wrongful acts, all subject to the terms and conditions contained in the policy.

Certain rules of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit the ability of certain depository institutions, their subsidiaries and their affiliated depository institution holding companies to indemnify affiliated parties, including institution directors. In general, subject to the ability to purchase directors and officers liability insurance and to advance professional expenses under certain circumstances, the rules prohibit such institutions from indemnifying a director for certain costs incurred with regard to an administrative or enforcement action commenced by any federal banking agency that results in a final order or settlement pursuant to which the director is assessed a civil money penalty, removed from office, prohibited from participating in the affairs of an insured depository institution or required to cease and desist from or take an affirmative action described in Section 8(b) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(b)).

Item 22. Undertakings

A. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

D. The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to Paragraph (C) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

E. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

F. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

G. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
