Dear Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. shareholders, Bowater Incorporated stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada Inc. exchangeable shares:

The Boards of Directors of Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. and Bowater Incorporated each have unanimously approved a combination of the two companies to form AbitibiBowater Inc., a Delaware corporation. We believe the combination will create a new leader in publication papers an operationally and financially stronger company better able to meet changing customer needs, compete more effectively in an increasingly global market, adapt to lower demand for newsprint in North America and deliver increased value to its stockholders.

Upon completion of the combination, we estimate that former Abitibi shareholders will own approximately 48%, and former Bowater stockholders (including current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will own approximately 52%, of the outstanding equity interests and voting rights of AbitibiBowater (directly or through the ownership of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, which shares are substantially the economic equivalent of AbitibiBowater common stock), and we anticipate that approximately 27,559,356 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will be issued to former Abitibi shareholders (or reserved for issuance to former Abitibi shareholders who receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) and approximately 29,874,901 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will be issued to former Bowater stockholders (or reserved for issuance to holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) in the combination. AbitibiBowater intends to apply to list its common stock on the New York Stock Exchange and the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol ABH and expects that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will remain listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the new symbol AXB.

Abitibi and Bowater will each hold a meeting of their shareholders to consider and vote on proposals related to the combination. Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares have voting rights that are substantially equivalent to those of Bowater common stockholders, including the right to attend and vote on the proposals related to the combination at Bowater's meeting of stockholders. Enclosed are materials containing important information about the combination of Abitibi and Bowater and why we believe the combination is in the best interests of both companies. Because the completion of the combination requires approval both of the Abitibi shareholders and of the Bowater stockholders voting with the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT. We urge you to read the enclosed materials carefully and to promptly vote by following the instructions shown on the appropriate enclosed proxy or voting instruction form.

For a discussion of risk factors that you should consider in evaluating the combination, see the section entitled Risk Factors, beginning on page 38 of this document.

We urge you to vote FOR the proposals related to the combination by promptly submitting your proxy or voting instruction form by signing, dating and returning the appropriate enclosed proxy or voting instruction form in the postage-paid envelope provided, or alternatively, voting by telephone or via the Internet as described in the instructions included on your proxy or voting instruction form. Returning the proxy or voting instruction form does not deprive you of your right to attend the appropriate meeting where the combination will be considered and to vote your shares in person. Thank you for your consideration of this matter and your continued support.

WE ENTHUSIASTICALLY SUPPORT THIS COMBINATION OF OUR COMPANIES AND JOIN WITH OUR BOARDS OF DIRECTORS IN RECOMMENDING THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSALS RELATED TO THE COMBINATION.

Sincerely,

John W. Weaver

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE COMBINATION AND THE MEETINGS

GENERAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: What are Abitibi and Bowater proposing?

A: Abitibi and Bowater are proposing to combine the two companies in a merger of equals to create AbitibiBowater, a Delaware corporation. We refer to the combination as a merger of equals because:

the exchange ratios reflect the approximate respective market capitalizations of Abitibi and Bowater during the period prior to the announcement of the combination with no significant premium received by either company's shareholders, following the combination Abitibi's shareholders and Bowater's stockholders (including the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will collectively have relatively equal ownership of AbitibiBowater, and there will be an equal number of directors from each of Abitibi and Bowater comprising AbitibiBowater's new Board of Directors. On January 29, 2007, Abitibi, Bowater, AbitibiBowater, Alpha-Bravo Merger Sub Inc., a newly formed Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of AbitibiBowater, which we refer to as Merger Sub, and Bowater Canada entered into a combination agreement, providing for the combination of Abitibi and Bowater under AbitibiBowater by means of a merger under Delaware law and a plan of arrangement to be submitted for approval by the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec. On May 7, 2007, Abitibi, Bowater, AbitibiBowater, Merger Sub and Bowater Canada entered into a first amendment to the combination agreement, which we refer to as the first amendment to the combination agreement, in order to provide for a limit on the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that Bowater Canada will issue to eligible Abitibi shareholders. In this document, we refer to the combination agreement described above, as amended by the first amendment to the combination agreement, as the combination agreement, unless otherwise indicated or required by the context in which such reference is made. Following completion of the combination, each of Abitibi and Bowater will continue to exist as subsidiaries of AbitibiBowater.

Q: What are the steps to the combination and what will I receive in the combination?

A: The following steps of the combination and the issuance of consideration in the combination will be carried out in accordance with, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the combination agreement, the plan of arrangement and the other documents referred to in the combination agreement:

Merger Sub will merge with and into Bowater. After completion of the merger, Bowater will be a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater. In the merger, stockholders of Bowater will receive 0.52 of a share of common stock of AbitibiBowater, which we refer to as the Bowater exchange ratio, in exchange for each share of common stock of Bowater they own. We refer to this transaction as the merger. We anticipate that pursuant to the merger AbitibiBowater will issue to the former stockholders of Bowater (or reserve for issuance to current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) approximately 29,874,901 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock.

Except as described in the following sentence, each issued and outstanding Abitibi common share will be transferred to AbitibiBowater in exchange for 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock, which we refer to as the Abitibi exchange ratio. In addition, certain Canadian resident holders of Abitibi common shares may elect to receive, in lieu of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, 0.06261 of a share of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, which will be exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. We refer to this transaction as the arrangement. We cannot predict how many eligible Abitibi shareholders will elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. We anticipate that in the arrangement, AbitibiBowater will issue to the former shareholders of Abitibi (or reserve for issuance to former Abitibi shareholders who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) approximately 27,559,356 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock.

Bowater will cause Bowater Canada to amend its articles of incorporation. We refer to these amendments as the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. The purpose of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment is to:

- i change Bowater Canada's name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,
- i effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio,
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination.

Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to shareholders in connection with the combination, including the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. Shareholders will receive cash, without interest, equal to the shareholder's pro rata portion of the net proceeds after expenses received upon the sale of whole shares representing the accumulation of all fractional interests in the shares to which all shareholders are entitled.

Q: How do the Abitibi and Bowater Boards of Directors recommend that I vote regarding the combination?

A: Abitibi's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Abitibi's shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the special resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement. Bowater's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares vote FOR the approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger.

Q: Why are Abitibi and Bowater proposing to combine?

A: The Abitibi and Bowater Boards of Directors have concluded that the combination offers significant benefits to our shareholders and stockholders. For a discussion of the factors considered by the Abitibi and Bowater Boards of Directors, see The Combination Factors Considered by the Abitibi Board of Directors, and The Combination Factors Considered by the Bowater Board of Directors. AbitibiBowater will have pro forma annual revenues of approximately US$7.8 billion (C$9.1 billion), making it the third largest publicly traded paper and forest products company in North America and the eighth largest in the world. AbitibiBowater's product lines will include newsprint, uncoated and coated commercial printing papers, market pulp and wood products. AbitibiBowater will also be among the world's largest recyclers of newspapers and magazines. AbitibiBowater will own or operate 32 pulp and paper facilities and 35 wood product facilities located mainly in Eastern Canada and the Southeastern U.S. For the year ended December 31, 2006, pro forma combined pulp and paper production capacity was approximately 11.3 million metric tons per year and pro forma combined lumber capacity was approximately 3.1 billion board feet of lumber. The combination is expected to generate approximately US$250 million (C$295 million) of annualized cost synergies within two years from improved efficiencies in such areas as production, selling, general and administrative (SG&A) costs and distribution and procurement, in addition to cost saving initiatives already underway at both companies. For more information, see The Combination Estimated Cost Synergies.

Q: What will be the name of the combined company after the combination?

A: After the completion of the combination, the name of the new public company will be AbitibiBowater Inc.

Q: Are there risks I should consider in deciding whether to vote for the combination?

A: Yes. The combination is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. Before deciding whether to vote for or against the combination, you should carefully consider the risks set forth in Risk Factors and other information included or incorporated by reference in this document.

Q: What is the aggregate amount of change in control, compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that the executive officers, directors, key employees and affiliates of Abitibi and Bowater will receive as a result of the combination?

A: Abitibi: The aggregate amount of change in control, compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that the executive officers, directors, key employees and affiliates of Abitibi could receive as a result of the combination is approximately C$48,216,652. With respect to certain change in control severance benefits, the foregoing amount assumes that each such individual's employment is terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments and benefits. Accordingly, Abitibi's estimates of these amounts are based on a number of assumptions, and are subject to contingencies that may or may not occur; therefore, these estimates may not reflect actual payouts of change in control or severance payments after completion of the combination. For more information, see The Combination Interests of Abitibi's Directors and Management in the Combination.

Bowater: It is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under any change in control or severance agreement between Bowater and its executive officers, directors, key employees or affiliates. The aggregate amount of compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that such individuals could receive as a result of the combination (which does not include change in control payments) is approximately US$12,300,218. The foregoing aggregate amount assumes that, with respect to estimated severance payments, each such individual's employment is terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments or other benefits and, with respect to the vesting of certain restricted stock units, that the combined company attains certain post-combination synergies during the two-year period following the combination. Accordingly, Bowater's estimates of these amounts are based on a number of assumptions, and are subject to contingencies that may or may not occur, including such assumptions and contingencies set forth above, among others; therefore, the estimates may not reflect the actual payouts of change in control or severance payments or other benefits after the completion of the combination. For more information, see The Combination Interests of Bowater's Directors and Management in the Combination and Additional Information Relating to the Bowater Annual Meeting Executive Compensation Severance and Change in Control Arrangements.

Q: What are the Canadian and U.S. federal income tax consequences of the combination to holders of Abitibi common shares and Bowater common stock?

A: Holders of Abitibi Common Shares

Canadian Residents. The exchange of Abitibi common shares for AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares generally will be a taxable event to a Canadian resident shareholder. However, if

United States Residents. As more fully described herein, U.S. holders of Bowater common stock will not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of their exchange of Bowater common stock for AbitibiBowater common stock. For more information, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Consequences to U.S. Holders of Bowater Common Stock.

Canadian Residents. The exchange of Bowater common stock for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock generally will be tax-deferred for Canadian resident holders for Canadian federal income tax purposes. For more information, see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Bowater Stockholders Who Are Residents of Canada.

Q: What are the Canadian federal income tax consequences of the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment?

A: The filing of the proposed Bowater Canada articles of amendment will not have any tax consequences to Canadian residents under Canadian federal income tax laws. For more information, see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

Q: What will happen to stock options and other stock-based awards in the combination?

A: All Abitibi and Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding at the effective time of the combination, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into AbitibiBowater stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards.

The number of shares subject to such converted Abitibi or Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and stock-based awards will be adjusted by multiplying the number of shares subject to such Abitibi or Bowater stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award by 0.06261 in the case of Abitibi, and by 0.52 in the case of Bowater. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing such price by 0.06261 in the case of Abitibi, and by 0.52 in the case of Bowater, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. The stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards to acquire AbitibiBowater common stock will be issued subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the respective Abitibi or Bowater plans pursuant to which each stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award was initially issued but taking into account any changes to such terms and conditions, including acceleration thereof, by reason of the combination agreement or the combination.

Q: What are the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and why are Bowater Canada exchangeable shares being offered to certain Canadian residents in the combination?

A: Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are a separate class of shares of the capital of Bowater Canada, a Canadian subsidiary of Bowater. After consummation of the combination, each Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be substantially the economic equivalent of one share of AbitibiBowater common stock and will be exchangeable at any time for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. In addition, each holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will receive the right, under a voting and exchange trust agreement and pursuant to the terms of the special AbitibiBowater voting stock, to effectively have the ability to cast votes at all AbitibiBowater stockholder meetings along with holders of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and the rights, under a support agreement, to receive dividends, distributions and liquidation entitlements economically equivalent to those rights of an AbitibiBowater common stockholder and to exchange such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of the common stock of AbitibiBowater. For more information, see Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada Bowater Canada's Share Capital Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares. When we refer to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, we mean the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, including these ancillary rights.

The exchangeable share structure will provide an opportunity for shareholders of Abitibi who are eligible shareholders to make a tax election to defer Canadian income tax on any capital gain otherwise arising on the exchange of their Abitibi common shares. By eligible shareholder we mean, pursuant to the Income Tax Act (Canada), which we refer to as the Canadian Tax Act :

a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax under the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act; or a partnership any of whose partners is a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act.

Since the election to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares is only provided to enable Abitibi shareholders to defer Canadian income tax, it is not available to Abitibi shareholders who are neither residents of Canada nor subject to the Canadian Tax Act or to Bowater stockholders.

Q: What limit has been placed on the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will be issued to eligible Abitibi shareholders?

A: The combination agreement was amended as of May 7, 2007 to limit the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that may be issued to eligible Abitibi shareholders in the combination to an amount that, when combined with Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued to current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, is less than 20% of the total voting power of AbitibiBowater. We refer to this limit as the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. The Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is being established as a precaution to ensure that the combination remains tax deferred for U.S. resident holders of Abitibi shares.

In the event that eligible Abitibi shareholders elect to receive more Bowater Canada exchangeable shares than are available pursuant to the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit, the remainder of their shares will be exchanged for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, pro rata to their shareholdings. Based on publicly available information regarding the current shareholdings of Abitibi, we do not expect the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit to have a material effect on the ability of eligible Abitibi shareholders to receive tax deferred treatment on the exchange of their shares under the combination should they so elect. Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to eligible Abitibi shareholders in connection with the combination, including in the event an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder is subject to prorationing as described above. See The Combination Agreement and Related Matters No Fractional Shares. Abitibi shareholders will not have the opportunity to elect to defer Canadian income tax on the exchange of their Abitibi common shares to the extent that they receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock in consideration for such Abitibi common shares as a result of the application of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit.

Q: What percentage of AbitibiBowater will the shareholders of Abitibi and the stockholders of Bowater own?

A: Upon completion of the combination, we estimate that Abitibi's former shareholders and Bowater's former stockholders (including current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will own approximately 48% and 52%, respectively, of the outstanding equity interests and voting rights in AbitibiBowater (in each case, directly or through the ownership of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are substantially the economic equivalent of AbitibiBowater common stock).

Q: What will be the dividend payable on AbitibiBowater common stock and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares after the closing of the combination?

A: Any decision regarding the dividend policies of AbitibiBowater will be determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater following completion of the combination. In addition, the ability of AbitibiBowater to pay dividends may be restricted by the company's credit facilities and other debt instruments, as well as by applicable law. There can be no assurances that AbitibiBowater will pay a dividend or that any dividend, if paid, will be comparable to the historical dividend rate of Bowater prior to the combination. Abitibi does not currently pay dividends.

Q: Where will the AbitibiBowater common stock and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares be listed?

A: AbitibiBowater intends to apply to list its common stock on the New York Stock Exchange and the Toronto Stock Exchange and expects that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will remain listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange. We refer to the New York Stock Exchange as the NYSE and to the Toronto Stock Exchange as the TSX.

The proposed stock symbols for AbitibiBowater are ABH on both the NYSE and the TSX and the proposed new stock symbol for Bowater Canada (after it is renamed AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.) on the TSX is AXB.

Q: When do Abitibi and Bowater expect to complete the combination?

A: Abitibi and Bowater will complete the combination when all of the conditions to completion of the combination have been satisfied or waived. Abitibi and Bowater are working toward satisfying these conditions and completing the combination as quickly as possible. Abitibi and Bowater currently expect to complete the combination in the third quarter of 2007. Because the combination is subject to a number of other conditions, some of which are beyond Bowater's and Abitibi's control, the exact timing cannot be predicted and the combination may not be completed in the third quarter of 2007.

Q: What expenses do Abitibi and Bowater expect to incur in connection with the combination?

A: Abitibi and Bowater each estimate that total cash expenses to be incurred by them, respectively, in connection with the combination will be approximately US$34 million (of which US$12 million and US$4 million have already been paid by Bowater and Abitibi, respectively, as of March 31, 2007). These expenses include investment banking fees, accounting, legal and other advisors' and independent consultants' fees, fees to be incurred in connection with the preparation, printing and mailing of this document, proxy solicitation fees and other out-of-pocket transaction costs. These estimates are based on Abitibi's and Bowater's current expectations and do not include extraordinary or other unforeseen costs that may otherwise arise in connection with the combination.

Q: Where can I find more information about the companies?

A: You can find more information about Abitibi and Bowater from various sources described under "Where You Can Find Additional Information" and about Bowater Canada under "Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada."

Q: Do I need to send in my share certificates now?

A: You are not required to send in your share certificate(s) representing your Abitibi common shares in order to validly cast your vote at the Abitibi Meeting. In addition, if you are either (i) not an eligible shareholder or (ii) an eligible shareholder but you do not wish to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock), then you do not need to send in your share certificate(s) representing your Abitibi common shares nor do you need to complete a letter of transmittal and election form. After the combination is completed, we will send registered holders of Abitibi common shares written instructions for exchanging their share certificates.

However, if you are an eligible shareholder and you would like to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock), you must send in your share certificate(s) representing your Abitibi common shares in addition to the letter of transmittal and election form accompanying this document, duly completed and signed, by 5:00 p.m. (local time) on July 24, 2007 (or, if the Abitibi Meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, before the time the adjourned or postponed Abitibi Meeting is to be reconvened), in order to receive evidence of ownership of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock). If you hold Abitibi common shares that are registered in the name of a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee, you should contact that nominee for instructions about how to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock).

Q: If I want to exercise my stock options, what do I do?

A: You are under no obligation to exercise your Abitibi stock options before the completion of the combination. Abitibi stock options that have not been exercised prior to the effective time will be exchanged in the combination for replacement stock options to acquire shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. If you hold exercisable Abitibi stock options and wish to exercise them to acquire Abitibi common shares in order to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or shares of AbitibiBowater common stock in connection with the plan of arrangement, then you should exercise your stock options through the Human Resources Department at Abitibi or by telephone at the following number: (514) 394-3257 prior to 4:00 p.m. (local time) on July 20, 2007 (or, if the Abitibi Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before 4:00 p.m. (local time) on the fourth business day before the date the adjourned or postponed Abitibi Meeting is to be reconvened).

Q: Am I entitled to dissent or appraisal rights?

A: Yes. Abitibi shareholders are entitled to dissent rights in connection with the adoption of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement. Those Abitibi shareholders who properly exercise their dissent rights will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their shares. If you wish to dissent, you must provide to Abitibi, at the address specified above, a dissent notice prior to 5:00 p.m. (local time) on the business day immediately preceding the Abitibi Meeting. It is important that you strictly comply with this requirement, otherwise your dissent right may not be recognized. You must also strictly comply with the other requirements of the dissent procedure. For more information, see The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights Abitibi.

A: Kingsdale Shareholder Services Inc., which we refer to as Kingsdale, and Innisfree M&A Incorporated, which we refer to as Innisfree, are acting as proxy solicitors for Abitibi. If you have any questions about the combination or about how to vote your shares, and you are an Abitibi shareholder resident in Canada or another country outside the U.S., please call (866) 639-7993 (English/French); banks and brokers call collect at (416) 867-2272. If you are an Abitibi shareholder resident in the U.S., please call (877) 825-8730 (English), (877) 825-8777 (French); banks and brokers call collect at (212) 750-5833.

Q: Are shareholder rights under Delaware law in respect of AbitibiBowater the same as under Canadian law in respect of Abitibi?

A: Although the rights and privileges of stockholders of a Delaware corporation, such as AbitibiBowater, are in many instances comparable to those of shareholders of a corporation organized under the Canada Business Corporations Act, which we refer to as the CBCA, such as Abitibi, there are a number of important differences. For example, the CBCA, contrary to Delaware law, provides an oppression remedy that enables a court to make any order to rectify matters that are oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to or that unfairly disregard the interests of any security holder, director or officer of a corporation governed by the CBCA. Also, dissent rights are available to stockholders of corporations incorporated under the laws of Delaware in more limited circumstances than under the CBCA. In addition, the charter documents of AbitibiBowater will contain important differences from those of Abitibi including, among others, a requirement that certain amendments to the certificate of incorporation of AbitibiBowater, be made only with approval of at least 75% of the voting power of AbitibiBowater stock. For more information, see Comparison of Shareholder and Stockholder Rights.

Q: On what am I being asked to vote?

A: Bowater common stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are being asked to approve the following proposals at the Bowater Meeting:

to elect three directors, each for a term of three years or until the earlier of the due election and qualification of their successors or the consummation of the combination; to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for the 2007 fiscal year; and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Bowater Meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Bowater Meeting.

Q: Who is entitled to vote on each of the proposals?

A: Holders of Bowater common stock and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (through Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as trustee under a voting and exchange trust agreement), as of the record date for the Bowater Meeting are entitled to vote on each of the proposals at the Bowater Meeting. A list of holders is available, upon request, from July 16 through July 26, 2007 from Bowater's Legal Department and will be available at the Bowater Meeting.

The trustee will vote its share of special voting stock in accordance with the provisions of a voting and exchange trust agreement. Under this agreement, each holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares is entitled to instruct the trustee how to vote at the Bowater Meeting. The trustee will cast votes equal to the number of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares not owned by Bowater or its affiliates and as to which the trustee has timely received voting instructions. The Bowater common stockholders and the trustee (acting for the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will vote together as a single class on all matters.

A. Approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of all outstanding shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) entitled to vote at the Bowater Meeting, voting together as a single class.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the total voting power of all outstanding shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Bowater Meeting, voting together as a single class.

The ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP must be approved by an affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of all shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter at the Bowater Meeting, voting together as a single class. As of the record date, Bowater directors and executive officers owned and were entitled to vote 90,954 shares of Bowater common stock and 8,295 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares representing approximately 0.2% of the common stock and 0.2% of the total voting power of all shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock outstanding on that date.

Meeting and voting together as a single class is required to approve and adopt the combination agreement and the merger.

Not returning your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form may also contribute to a failure to obtain a quorum at the Bowater Meeting. Under Bowater's bylaws, holders of shares representing one-third of the total voting power of all outstanding shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) entitled to vote at the Bowater Meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, are necessary to constitute a quorum to take action with respect to that matter at the Bowater Meeting.

If you are not a holder of record and a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee holds your shares in street name and you have instructed such nominee to vote your shares and wish to change your vote, you must follow directions received from such nominee to change those instructions.

You may also revoke or change your proxy or trustee voting instructions by telephone or via the Internet by following the instructions set forth below under Can I vote by telephone or electronically?

Q: Can I vote by telephone or electronically?

A: Yes, in most cases. To vote by telephone, please call the number shown on your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form from a touch-tone telephone and follow the instructions. To vote via the Internet, please go to the website shown on your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form and follow the instructions on the screen. Please note that you will need to refer to the control number indicated on your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form to identify yourself in the electronic voting system. Please also refer to the instructions on your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form for information regarding the deadline for voting your shares by telephone or electronically.

If you hold your shares of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares through a broker or other nominee, you should check your broker voting instruction card or form forwarded to you by such nominee to see which options are available.

Q: If my broker or other nominee holds my shares of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in street name, and I fail to provide a signed broker voting instruction card or form, or to vote by telephone or Internet, will my broker or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A: If your shares of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are held in street name and you do not provide voting instructions to your broker or other nominee, which we refer to as a broker non-vote, your shares will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote. Accordingly, if you do not provide your broker with voting instructions, your shares may be considered present at the Bowater Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but will not be considered to have been voted for approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger. Shares not voted for approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST that proposal. Your broker or other nominee will vote your shares for the election of each of the director nominees and for the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP if you do not provide your broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote for those proposals.

Q: Am I entitled to dissent or appraisal rights in connection with the combination?

A: No. Holders of Bowater common stock and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares do not have dissent or appraisal rights in connection with the combination and the merger; however, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will have dissent rights in connection with the adoption of the special resolution approving the Bowater Canada articles of amendment as described under The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights Bowater Canada.

Q: Do I need to send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the combination is completed, we will send Bowater stockholders of record written instructions for exchanging their stock certificates.

BOWATER CANADA SHAREHOLDER QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: When and where is the Special Meeting of the Bowater Canada shareholders?

A: We will hold the Special Meeting of the shareholders of Bowater Canada Inc. on July 25, 2007, at 9:30 a.m. (local time), at Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth Hotel, Salon St-Laurent, 900 Boulevard René-Lévesque West, Montreal, Quebec, Canada. In this document, we refer to the Special Meeting of the Bowater Canada shareholders as the "Bowater Canada Meeting."

Q: On what am I being asked to vote?

A: Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are being asked to adopt a special resolution at the Bowater Canada Meeting (a copy of which is attached to this document as Schedule B) approving the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment in connection with the combination of Bowater and Abitibi. We refer to this special resolution as the "Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution." See "General Questions and Answers: What are the steps to the combination and what will I receive in the combination?"

Also, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares have the opportunity to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by giving instructions to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, the trustee under a voting and exchange trust agreement. However, in order for holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be able to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by giving instructions to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, they will have to have owned their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on June 8, 2007, the record date fixed in respect of the Bowater Meeting, which is earlier than the June 20, 2007 record date fixed in respect of the Bowater Canada Meeting. If any holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares acquired such shares after June 8, 2007 and remained the owner of such shares on June 20, 2007, then such holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled to vote only on the Bowater Canada articles of amendment at the Bowater Canada Meeting and will not have the right to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by giving instructions to Computershare Trust Company of Canada.

For more information see "Bowater Stockholder Questions and Answers."

Q: What vote is required to approve the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution?

A: Approval of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution will require the affirmative votes of not less than:

66²/3% of the votes cast at the Bowater Canada Meeting by holders of the Bowater Canada common shares and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares voting together as a single class, and 66²/3% of the votes cast at the Bowater Canada Meeting by holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares voting as a separate class.

Table of Contents

All issued and outstanding Bowater Canada common shares are held by a wholly owned subsidiary of Bowater. Bowater will cause all of the Bowater Canada common shares held by its subsidiary to be voted at the Bowater Canada Meeting in favor of the Bowater Canada shareholders resolution approving the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

Each Bowater Canada exchangeable share that is not held by Bowater or its affiliates carries with it the right to one vote with respect to the Bowater Canada shareholders resolution.

Q: What happens if the Bowater Canada shareholders resolution does not receive the required shareholder approval?

A: If Bowater Canada's shareholders do not approve the Bowater Canada shareholders resolution, Bowater and its affiliates will, in accordance with the terms of the combination agreement, cause the redemption of all outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the business day immediately preceding the effective date of the combination. In addition, the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares generally provide that, if Bowater Canada exercises a redemption right or is required to redeem Bowater Canada exchangeable shares upon request by a holder of such shares, then Bowater Canadian Holdings Incorporated, a wholly owned Canadian subsidiary of Bowater, which we refer to as Bowater Canadian Holdings, may avail itself of a pre-emptive call right to purchase such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares from the holder thereof, which right we refer to as the call right of Bowater Canadian Holdings. In such case, the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will receive one share of Bowater common stock in exchange for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share, and each share of Bowater common stock so received will be converted into the right to receive 0.52 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock in the merger.

A redemption or purchase of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may have certain tax consequences to holders, depending on their tax status. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings pursuant to the exercise of its call right will generally realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the purchase price for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If Bowater Canadian Holdings does not exercise its call right and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares instead are redeemed by Bowater Canada, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will generally be deemed to receive a dividend and to have realized either a capital gain or a capital loss depending on the holder's own circumstances. Different consequences may result for a holder that is a corporation. For more information see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares.

Any redemption or exercise of the Bowater Canadian Holdings call right described above will not affect an eligible Abitibi shareholder's ability to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Q: Do I need to send in my share certificates now?

A: No. After the combination is completed, we will send registered holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares written instructions for exchanging their share certificates.

Q: How do I vote on the Bowater Canada shareholders resolution?

A: First, please review the information contained in this document, including the schedules and annexes. The Combination (page 69)

On January 29, 2007, AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater, Bowater Canada and Merger Sub entered into the combination agreement, providing for the combination of Abitibi and Bowater under AbitibiBowater, a newly formed Delaware corporation, by means of a merger under Delaware law and a plan of arrangement to be submitted for approval by the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec. On May 7, 2007, Abitibi, Bowater, AbitibiBowater, Merger Sub and Bowater Canada entered into the first amendment to the combination agreement in order to establish the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. The combination agreement, as amended, is attached as Annex C to this document. We encourage you to read the combination agreement carefully and in its entirety. Following completion of the combination, each of Abitibi and Bowater will continue to exist as subsidiaries of AbitibiBowater. The combination is expected to be completed during the third quarter of 2007.

Upon completion of the combination, in each case subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the combination agreement, the plan of arrangement and applicable law:

Merger Sub will merge with and into Bowater and issued and outstanding shares of Bowater common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock at the Bowater exchange ratio, Bowater will be the surviving corporation in the merger and continue as a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater and the former stockholders of Bowater will become stockholders of AbitibiBowater;

pro ration in the event the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is exceeded (see Special Meeting of Abitibi Shareholders Election to Receive Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares and Exchange of Share Certificates), will be transferred to AbitibiBowater in exchange for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, while shares in respect of which a properly made election has been effected and that are not subject to pro ration in the event the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is exceeded will be transferred in exchange for Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, each at the Abitibi exchange ratio, Abitibi will continue as a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater and the former shareholders of Abitibi will become stockholders of AbitibiBowater or holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares;

Bowater will file the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. The purpose of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment is to:

- i change Bowater Canada s name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,
- i effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share is changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio,
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination; and

All Abitibi and Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into AbitibiBowater stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards. The number of shares subject to such converted Abitibi or Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and stock-based awards will be adjusted by multiplying the number of shares subject to such Abitibi or Bowater stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award by the Abitibi exchange ratio, in the case of Abitibi, and by the Bowater exchange ratio, in the case of Bowater. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing such price by the Abitibi exchange ratio or the Bowater exchange ratio as appropriate, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent.

Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to shareholders in connection with the combination, including the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. Rather, shareholders will receive cash, without interest, equal to the shareholder s pro rata portion of the net proceeds after expenses received upon the sale of whole shares representing the accumulation of all fractional interests in the shares to which all shareholders are entitled.

Recommendations of the Boards of Directors (pages 48, 55 and 64)

Abitibi. At its meeting on January 26, 2007, the Abitibi Board of Directors, after an extensive review and thorough discussion of all facts and issues it considered relevant with respect to the combination, unanimously determined that the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, including the merger and the arrangement, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Abitibi and the shareholders of Abitibi. The Abitibi Board of Directors authorized and approved the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, including the merger and the arrangement, and agreed to recommend that the Abitibi shareholders vote for the adoption of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement at the Abitibi Meeting. Bowater Canada. Bowater Canada's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares vote FOR the adoption of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution approving the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

Opinions of Financial Advisors (pages 81 and 100)

Abitibi. In deciding to approve the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the arrangement, the Abitibi Board of Directors considered the opinions of its financial advisors, CIBC World Markets Inc., which we refer to as "CIBC World Markets," and Credit Suisse (USA) LLC, which we refer to as "Credit Suisse," to the effect that, as of the dates of their opinions, and based upon the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitation on the scope of review set forth in their respective opinions, the Abitibi exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Abitibi common shares. The written opinions of CIBC World Markets and Credit Suisse are attached as Annexes L and M, respectively, to this document. WE ENCOURAGE ABITIBI SHAREHOLDERS TO READ EACH OF THESE OPINIONS CAREFULLY AND IN ITS ENTIRETY.

Bowater. In deciding to approve the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, the Bowater Board of Directors considered the opinions of its financial advisors, Goldman, Sachs & Co., which we refer to as "Goldman Sachs," and UBS Investment Bank, which we refer to as "UBS," to the effect that, as of the dates of their opinions, and based upon the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of review set forth in their respective written opinions, the Bowater exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. The written opinions of Goldman Sachs and UBS are attached as Annexes N and O, respectively, to this document. WE ENCOURAGE BOWATER STOCKHOLDERS AND HOLDERS OF BOWATER CANADA EXCHANGEABLE SHARES TO READ EACH OF THESE OPINIONS CAREFULLY AND IN ITS ENTIRETY.

Interests of Directors and Management in the Combination (pages 95 and 111)

Abitibi. Abitibi shareholders should note that some Abitibi directors and officers have interests in the combination that are different in certain respects from the interests of other Abitibi shareholders generally. As provided in the combination agreement, upon the completion of the combination, seven Abitibi designees (including John W. Weaver, President and Chief Executive Officer of Abitibi) and seven Bowater designees will become members of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors. The combination agreement also provides that Mr. Weaver will become Executive Chairman of AbitibiBowater.

In addition, Mr. Weaver has received a special grant of up to 462,000 restricted share units to which he will be entitled upon the meeting of certain performance targets following the completion of the combination related to the achievement of different levels of synergies.

Ten senior officers of Abitibi, including Mr. Weaver, are covered by severance compensation agreements. These agreements provide for a severance package which includes a lump sum payment equal to one and a half to three times the annual compensation of the terminated officer and other benefits. The severance benefits are payable only upon termination of the officer's employment within two years following a change of control of Abitibi, including upon completion of the combination, whether the termination is made by Abitibi without just cause or by the officer for a good reason, as such terms are defined in the severance compensation agreements.

In addition to a severance compensation agreement on the terms described above, Mr. Weaver also benefits from a severance arrangement with Abitibi, which entitles him to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times his annual compensation, a bonus compensation, group and pension benefits and the right to an early vesting of his stock options. The severance benefits are only payable upon termination of Mr. Weaver's employment without just cause in a circumstance other than a circumstance involving a change of control of Abitibi. In the context of the combination, the Board of Directors of Abitibi has agreed to vary the terms of such severance arrangement to allow Mr. Weaver to be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to three years of annual compensation, less one-half of the compensation paid to Mr. Weaver between the completion of the combination and the termination of his employment, provided that Mr. Weaver remains at the employ of AbitibiBowater for at least two years following the completion of the combination (unless his employment is terminated by AbitibiBowater at an earlier date for any reason other than cause).

Abitibi has introduced an enhanced severance policy for certain designated employees, including certain officers, pursuant to which such employees will be entitled to receive a minimum severance payment ranging from nine to 24 months of such employee's base salary in lieu of the amount to which each would normally be entitled under Abitibi's standard severance policies in case of termination of employment at Abitibi's discretion within two years following the announcement of the combination, other than termination for cause.

The aggregate amount of change in control, compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that the executive officers, directors, key employees and affiliates of Abitibi could receive as a result of the combination is approximately C$48,216,652. With respect to certain change in control severance benefits, the foregoing amount assumes that each such individual's employment is terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments and benefits. Accordingly, Abitibi's estimates of these amounts are based on a number of assumptions, and are subject to contingencies that may or may not occur; therefore, these estimates may not reflect actual payouts of change in control or severance payments after completion of the combination.

Bowater. Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should note that some Bowater directors and officers have interests in the combination that are different in certain respects from the interests of other Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares generally. As provided in the combination agreement, upon the completion of the combination, seven Bowater designees (including David J. Paterson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bowater) and seven Abitibi designees will become members of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors. The combination agreement also provides that Mr. Paterson will become President and Chief Executive Officer of AbitibiBowater.

Bowater Severance Agreements and Change in Control Payments. Most executive officers of Bowater are covered by an employment agreement and all are covered by a change in control agreement. In the event of a termination of employment following the combination, an executive could seek either severance benefits under his employment agreement or change in control benefits under his change in control agreement. However, it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under any change in control or severance agreement between Bowater and its executive officers, directors, key employees or affiliates.

Under each change in control agreement, upon a change in control (as defined in such agreements), if the executive's employment is terminated within 36 months, or if the executive elects to terminate his employment under certain conditions, the executive could be eligible to receive his accrued salary. Unless the executive's termination is for cause, he also could be eligible to receive a prorated annual incentive award and all benefits under Bowater's benefit plans and policies to which he is entitled through his date of termination. In addition, the executive could receive, in lieu of any severance payments provided in any applicable employment agreement and depending on the applicable version of the change in control agreement, an amount equal to the sum of: (a) one to three times the executive's annual base salary; (b) one to three times the highest possible (changed to target in the revised change in control agreements) annual incentive award; (c) one to three times the largest annual contribution that could have been made by Bowater to its savings plans on the executive's behalf; (d) 10% to 30% of the executive's annual base salary (as compensation for certain other benefits lost as a result of the termination of employment); (e) an amount equal to the present value of the additional retirement benefits the executive would have earned for one to three years (assuming the waiver of all vesting requirements); and (f) retiree health care and life insurance.

The change in control agreements also generally provide a terminated executive with: (a) either a cash payment of US$20,000 (to be paid in the currency of his country of residence) or outplacement assistance; (b) a grossed up reimbursement of certain excise taxes that may be levied on excess parachute payments; (c) a waiver of any non-compete obligation; and (d) under certain agreements, the right to receive a lump sum payment equal to the present value of any non-statutory retirement benefits to which the executive is entitled. A terminated executive also would be entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all costs incurred (or to be incurred) in connection with realizing the benefits of the change in control agreement.

Bowater Stock Options and Other Stock-Based Awards. All Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into AbitibiBowater stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards. Bowater's equity compensation plans generally contain change in control provisions that require equity awards to automatically vest and/or be cashed out at an acceleration price upon a change in control. However, it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under the equity compensation plans.

Certain executive officers received awards of restricted stock units which will vest (and be payable in common stock of Bowater) if they remain with Bowater through the closing of the combination (or if the closing of the combination does not occur due to the failure of Bowater and Abitibi to obtain regulatory approval or due to the actions of Abitibi).

In addition, Mr. Paterson has received a special grant of up to 54,200 restricted stock units to which he will be entitled upon the meeting of certain performance targets following the completion of the combination. The vesting of the restricted stock units is contingent upon attaining certain post-combination synergies during the two-year period following consummation of the combination.

Bowater Retention Bonus Plan. Bowater executive officers also may be eligible to receive a retention bonus if they remain with Bowater through the consummation of the combination. The retention bonus is payable as of the date of the consummation of the combination or on the date the combination is cancelled (as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of Bowater). The amount of the retention bonus is 50% of the executive's base salary, plus 50% of a pro rata portion of his target bonus for the year.

Because it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under any change in control or severance agreements between Bowater and its executive officers, directors, key employees or affiliates, the aggregate amount of compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that such individuals could receive as a result of the combination (which does not include change in control payments) is approximately US$12,300,218. The foregoing aggregate amount assumes that, with respect to estimated severance payments, each such individual's employment is terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments or other benefits and, with respect to the vesting of certain restricted stock units, that the combined company attains certain post-combination synergies during the two-year period following the combination. Accordingly, Bowater's estimates of these amounts are based on a number of assumptions, and are subject to contingencies that may or may not occur, including such assumptions and contingencies set forth above, among others; therefore, the estimates may not reflect the actual payouts of change in control or severance payments or other benefits after the completion of the combination. Material Income Tax Consequences of the Combination (pages 157 and 172)

Canadian Tax Consequences to Abitibi Shareholders. The exchange of Abitibi common shares for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will generally be a taxable event to a Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares. Such a shareholder will be considered, at the effective time of the exchange, to have disposed of his or her Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value of the AbitibiBowater common stock acquired by such shareholder on the exchange. As a result, such a shareholder may realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that such proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of his or her Abitibi common shares immediately prior to the exchange and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition.

The exchange of Abitibi common shares for Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will also generally be a taxable event to a Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares. However, eligible shareholders who make a valid joint tax election with Bowater Canada, may obtain a full or partial tax deferral (rollover) of any capital gain otherwise arising upon the exchange. For more information see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

Canadian Tax Consequences to Bowater Stockholders and Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares. The exchange of Bowater common stock for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock generally will be tax-deferred to Canadian resident holders for Canadian federal income tax purposes. The filing of the proposed Bowater Canada articles of amendment will not have any tax consequences for Canadian federal income tax purposes. For more information see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

U.S. Tax Consequences to Abitibi Shareholders. As more fully described herein, U.S. holders of Abitibi common shares will not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of their exchange of Abitibi common shares for AbitibiBowater common stock. For more information see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

U.S. Tax Consequences to Bowater Stockholders. As more fully described herein, U.S. holders of Bowater common stock will not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of their exchange of Bowater common stock for AbitibiBowater common stock. the absence of legal prohibitions on consummating the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement and the absence of injunctions, orders or laws restraining, enjoining or making illegal the completion of the combination;

the receipt of required approvals under the Competition Act (Canada), which we refer to as the Canadian Competition Act, the expiration or termination of all applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, which we refer to as the HSR Act, and the receipt of all approvals and expiration or termination of all waiting periods under antitrust laws of other jurisdictions, except with respect to such other jurisdictions as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater;

the receipt, or deemed receipt, of required notices under the Investment Canada Act (Canada), which we refer to as the Investment Canada Act, on terms and conditions that will not have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater;

the receipt of all consents, approvals and authorizations of any governmental authority required of Abitibi, Bowater or any of their respective subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, other than matters described in the two preceding bullet points, the failure of which to be obtained, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater;

the absence of any termination, cancellation, reduction or failure to renew of any of the tree farm licenses, forest resource licenses, forest resource processing facility licenses, forest management agreements, timber permits, cutting rights or timber licenses located in Quebec held by Abitibi or Bowater, unless such termination, cancellation, reduction, non-renewal or other material change, whether taken individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater;

the effectiveness under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of the registration statement on Form S-4 in which this document is included, any registration statement with respect to Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on any alternative form and the registration statement on Form S-3 with respect to shares of AbitibiBowater common stock issuable upon exchange of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the absence of any stop order suspending such effectiveness;

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

Each of Abitibi's and Bowater's respective obligation to effect the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement is subject to the satisfaction of the following additional conditions by the other party:

(x) certain representations and warranties of the other party (or, in the case of Bowater, of Bowater and Bowater Canada) in the combination agreement regarding organization, standing, corporate power, capitalization, authority, takeover laws (in the case of Bowater) and broker or other financial advisor fees, being true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date (or, if applicable, an earlier specified date) and (y) the other representations and warranties of the other party (or, in the case of Bowater, of Bowater and Bowater Canada) in the combination agreement being true and correct (without giving effect to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifier) as of the closing date (or, if applicable, an earlier specified date), except as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on such other party;

the other party (or, in the case of Bowater, Bowater and Bowater Canada) having performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by the combination agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the closing date, with certain exceptions; and the absence of a material adverse effect on the other party since the date of the combination agreement.

Termination of the Combination Agreement (page 142)

Abitibi and Bowater can jointly agree to terminate the combination agreement at any time. Either company may also terminate the combination agreement, subject to certain restrictions, if:

the combination is not completed on or before January 31, 2008;

a governmental authority of competent jurisdiction whose approval is a condition to the obligations of the parties to complete the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement has denied such approval and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or if any law makes the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited, or if a governmental authority in the United States or Canada has issued an order or taken any other action, in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement;

either the Abitibi shareholder approval or the Bowater stockholder approval is not obtained;

there is a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the combination agreement such that the conditions of the terminating party described above with respect to the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties or compliance by the other party with its covenants and agreements is incapable of being satisfied prior to January 31, 2008;

prior to receipt of the other party's required shareholder or stockholder approval, (x) the other party's Board of Directors has made a change in recommendation or (y) the other party has intentionally and materially breached its obligations under the combination agreement with respect to (1) the filing of this document and the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this document forms a part, (2) the no solicitation covenants, or (3) its obligation to convene its shareholder or stockholder meeting; or prior to receipt of the terminating party's shareholder or stockholder approval, in connection with a superior proposal, (x) the terminating party has complied with the procedures set forth in the combination agreement and (y) immediately prior to such termination the terminating party pays to the other party the termination fee and expense reimbursement.

In the event of termination of the combination agreement, the obligations of Abitibi and Bowater will terminate, except for the provisions relating to confidentiality, payment of fees and expenses and termination of the combination agreement. Except for the foregoing, there will be no liability on the part of either Abitibi or Bowater upon termination of the combination agreement except for liabilities or damages arising from a willful or intentional breach of the combination agreement.

Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement (page 143)

Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to reciprocal provisions for the reimbursement, under certain circumstances, of up to US$12 million of reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the other party incurred in connection with the combination agreement and the payment to the other party, under certain circumstances, of a termination fee of US$28 million.

No Solicitation Covenant (page 136)

The combination agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting Abitibi and Bowater from seeking an alternative transaction. The no solicitation covenant generally prohibits Abitibi and Bowater, as well as their directors, officers, subsidiaries, employees, agents and representatives, from taking any action to solicit an acquisition proposal as further described in The Combination Agreement and Related Matters Covenants No Solicitation. The combination agreement does not, however, prohibit either Abitibi or Bowater or their respective Boards of Directors from considering, and potentially recommending, an unsolicited bona fide written superior proposal from a third party in the circumstances further described in The Combination Agreement and Related Matters Covenants No Solicitation.

U.S. Antitrust Filing. It is a condition to the completion of the combination that the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act expires or early termination is granted. Bowater and Abitibi each filed a Pre-Merger Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on February 14 and February 16, 2007, respectively. The applicable waiting period began on February 16, 2007 and would have expired on March 19, 2007; however, on March 19, 2007, each of Abitibi and Bowater received a request for additional information from the U.S. Department of Justice thereby extending the waiting period to 30 days after Abitibi and Bowater substantially comply with this request for additional information.

Canadian Competition Act. It is a condition to the completion of the combination that Abitibi and Bowater (i) receive an advance ruling certificate or (ii) the waiting period under Part IX of the Canadian Competition Act has expired or been waived by the Commissioner and a letter from the Commissioner or a person authorized by the Commissioner that the Commissioner has determined not to make an application for an order under Section 92 of the Canadian Competition Act in respect of the combination (referred to as a no-action letter) has been received. Abitibi and Bowater each filed a long form notification to the Commissioner on February 19, 2007 and the prescribed waiting period applicable to this filing ended on April 2, 2007. The Commissioner's substantive review continues and Abitibi and Bowater are awaiting completion of this review and obtaining either the advance ruling certificate or no action letter described above.

Investment Canada Act. It is a condition to the completion of the combination that AbitibiBowater (i) receive a notice pursuant to Subsection 21(1) of the Investment Canada Act stating that the combination is likely to be of net benefit to Canada or (ii) the applicable time period for receiving such notice under Subsection 21(1) of the Investment Canada Act will have expired such that the Minister of Industry will be deemed, pursuant to Subsection 21(2) of the Investment Canada Act, to be satisfied that the combination is of net benefit to Canada. AbitibiBowater filed an application under the Investment Canada Act on April 20, 2007 and received confirmation that the filing is complete and the initial 45-day review period has commenced.

Competition Filings in Other Jurisdictions. Abitibi and Bowater submitted a joint filing to the antitrust authorities of Brazil on February 16, 2007, although the approval of this authority is not required to complete the combination. On March 21, 2007, Abitibi and Bowater submitted a joint filing to the Competition Board of Turkey which approved the combination on April 12, 2007. Abitibi and Bowater also may provide notification of the combination to the competition authorities in Greece, but such a filing is not required prior to completion of the combination. It is a condition to the completion of the combination that all waiting periods, approvals, or consents required to be expired, terminated, or obtained prior to the effective time of the combination under applicable antitrust laws other than the HSR Act or the Canadian Competition Act, will have either expired, been terminated or otherwise obtained, as the case may be, except to the extent the failure to obtain such other approvals or consents, or the failure to have such other waiting periods expire or terminate, would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater.

Timber and Water Rights. Abitibi and Bowater are required to obtain the consent of the Minister of Natural Resources of Ontario at least 30 days prior to completion of the combination in respect of the timber cutting rights of Abitibi and Bowater in the Province of Ontario. In addition, Abitibi is required to provide notice to the Minister of Natural Resources and Wildlife and the Minister of the Environment of Quebec within 30 days following the completion of the combination in respect of an agreement granting water rights to Abitibi in the Province of Quebec.

Risk Factors (page 38)

The combination is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in this document. We believe the following are significant risks related to the combination and the future business of AbitibiBowater:

Abitibi and Bowater may experience difficulties in integrating their businesses and AbitibiBowater may not realize the anticipated synergies, efficiencies and cost savings from the combination.

Abitibi and Bowater must obtain governmental and regulatory consents to complete the combination, which, if delayed, not granted or granted with unacceptable conditions, may jeopardize or delay the completion of the combination, reduce the anticipated benefits of the combination or have a material adverse effect on the business of AbitibiBowater.

AbitibiBowater may not pay dividends.

The value of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that you receive in the combination, or of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that existing holders of such shares retain following the combination, may be less than the value of your Abitibi common shares, shares of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as of the date of the combination agreement or the dates of the shareholder meetings.

Certain directors and executive officers of Abitibi and Bowater have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Abitibi and Bowater shareholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, generally.

Because the risks and uncertainties facing each of Abitibi and Bowater may differ, the market price, results of operations and financial condition of AbitibiBowater may be affected by risks and uncertainties different from those currently affecting each of Abitibi and Bowater on a stand-alone basis.

The shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be received by Abitibi shareholders as a result of the combination will have different rights from the Abitibi common shares.

The trading prices of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the AbitibiBowater common stock may not reflect equivalent values.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

Abitibi shareholders who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will experience a delay in receiving shares of AbitibiBowater common stock from the date they request an exchange, which may affect the value of the shares the holder receives in an exchange.

The combination requires Abitibi and Bowater to provide notice to or obtain the consent of certain Canadian provincial governments with respect to their timber rights in such provinces.

Each of Abitibi and Bowater is restricted under the combination agreement from pursuing alternative transactions.

The ability of Abitibi shareholders to receive tax deferred treatment on the exchange of their shares in the combination may be limited by the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit.

AbitibiBowater will face intense competition in the forest products industry and the failure to compete effectively would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

AbitibiBowater will have substantial indebtedness that could adversely affect our financial health and our efforts to reduce this indebtedness may not be successful.

Developments in alternative media could continue to adversely affect the demand for AbitibiBowater's products.

The forest product industry is highly cyclical. Fluctuations in the prices of and the demand for our products could result in smaller profit margins and lower sales volumes.

AbitibiBowater's manufacturing businesses may have difficulty obtaining fiber at favorable prices, or at all.

An increase in the cost of AbitibiBowater's purchased energy, chemicals and other raw materials would lead to higher manufacturing costs, thereby reducing our margins.

Currency fluctuations may adversely affect AbitibiBowater's results of operations and financial condition and changes in foreign currency exchange rates can affect AbitibiBowater's competitive position, selling prices and manufacturing costs.

AbitibiBowater could experience disruptions in operations and/or increased labor costs due to labor disputes.

AbitibiBowater's operations require substantial capital and we may not have adequate capital resources to provide for all of our capital requirements.

AbitibiBowater will be exposed to changes in banking and capital markets and changes in interest rates.

Changes in laws and regulations could adversely affect AbitibiBowater's results of operations.

Changes in the political or economic conditions in Canada, the United States or other countries in which AbitibiBowater's products will be manufactured or sold could adversely affect our results of operations.

AbitibiBowater may be subject to environmental liabilities.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

AbitibiBowater has net liabilities with respect to our pension plans and the actual cost of our pension plan obligations could exceed current provisions.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

During the second quarter of 2007, Abitibi and Bowater continue to experience certain negative trends relating to their respective businesses. Among these trends, demand for newsprint, the companies' principal product, has continued to decrease at approximately the same pace experienced in the first quarter of 2007, resulting in continued downward pressure on newsprint pricing and profitability. According to third party industry estimates, North American demand for newsprint is expected to decline by approximately 9% in 2007. In addition, the Canadian dollar has continued to strengthen relative to the U.S. dollar and is currently approximately US$0.930. Abitibi and Bowater anticipate the confluence of the weakening demand and pricing for newsprint, together with the strengthening Canadian dollar, as well as other unfavorable industry trends, will negatively impact their respective results of operations for the second quarter of 2007 and potentially for the remainder of 2007.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included or incorporated by reference in this document (including the matters addressed in this document in the section Forward-Looking Statements, and the Risk Factors found in Abitibi's Management's Discussion and Analysis for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities on June 7, 2007 and filed on Form 40-F/A with the SEC on June 7, 2007 and in Bowater's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 1, 2007), Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should consider carefully the matters described below in determining whether to vote in favor of the combination, which we believe are all significant risks related to the combination and the future business of AbitibiBowater. By voting in favor of the combination, Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be choosing to invest in AbitibiBowater common stock or in the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares which will be exchangeable for AbitibiBowater common stock upon the consummation of the combination and will be choosing to combine Abitibi's and Bowater's operations.

Risk Factors Relating to the Combination

Abitibi and Bowater may experience difficulties in integrating their businesses and AbitibiBowater may not realize the anticipated synergies, efficiencies and cost savings from the combination.

The success of the combination will depend, in significant part, on AbitibiBowater's ability to realize the anticipated synergies, efficiencies and cost savings from integrating the businesses of Abitibi and Bowater. AbitibiBowater's success in realizing these synergies, efficiencies and cost savings, and the timing of this realization, depend on the successful integration of such businesses and operations. We may not be able to accomplish this integration process smoothly or successfully. The necessity of coordinating geographically disparate organizations and addressing possible differences in corporate and regional cultures and management philosophies may increase the difficulties of integration. The integration of certain operations following the combination will take time and will require the dedication of significant management resources, which may temporarily distract management's attention from the routine business of AbitibiBowater. Employee uncertainty and lack of focus during the integration process may also disrupt the business of AbitibiBowater. In addition, restrictions on the exchange of competitively sensitive information between Abitibi and Bowater have precluded a complete evaluation of these anticipated synergies and efficiencies.

Even if Abitibi and Bowater are able to integrate such businesses and operations successfully, there can be no assurance that this integration will result in the realization of the full benefits of synergies, efficiencies and cost savings that Abitibi and Bowater currently expect from this integration or that these benefits will be achieved within the time frame or in the manner anticipated. For example, the elimination of duplicative costs may not be possible or may take longer than anticipated, or the benefits from the combination may be offset by the costs incurred in integrating the businesses and operations or adverse conditions imposed by regulatory authorities on the combined business in connection with granting approval for the combination. If we do not realize our anticipated synergies and efficiencies, in the amounts or in the time frame expected, or if our management cannot integrate successfully the operations of our two companies, our business and results of operations will be adversely affected.

Abitibi and Bowater must obtain governmental and regulatory consents to complete the combination, which, if delayed, not granted or granted with unacceptable conditions, may jeopardize or delay the completion of the combination, reduce the anticipated benefits of the combination or have a material adverse effect on the business of AbitibiBowater.

Completion of the combination is conditioned on the receipt of certain governmental authorizations, consents, orders, no action letters and approvals, including, among others, the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act, the expiration or waiver of the applicable waiting period under the Canadian Competition Act as well as a "No Action" letter (on acceptable terms) from the Commissioner of Competition, which we refer to as the "Commissioner," approval by the Minister of Industry under the Investment Canada Act and certain other governmental consents and approvals, including with respect to

Canadian provincial timber and water rights. If Abitibi and Bowater do not receive such required approvals, or do not receive them on terms that satisfy the conditions set forth in the combination agreement, then neither company will be obligated to complete the combination.

The governmental authorities from which the companies will seek these approvals have broad discretion in administering the governing regulations. As a condition to approving the combination or taking other required actions, such authorities may impose requirements, limitations or costs on the conduct of AbitibiBowater's business or require concessions from the parties. These requirements, limitations, costs or concessions could jeopardize or delay the completion of the combination or may reduce the anticipated benefits of the combination. Further, no assurance can be given that the required consents, orders, no action letters and approvals will be obtained or that the required conditions to closing will be satisfied, and, if all required consents, orders, no action letters and approvals are obtained and the conditions to the completion of the combination are satisfied, no assurance can be given as to the terms, conditions and timing of such approvals. If Abitibi and Bowater agree to any material requirements, limitations, costs or concessions in order to obtain any consents, actions or approvals required to complete the combination, these requirements, limitations, costs or concessions could adversely affect the two companies' ability to integrate their operations or reduce the anticipated benefits of the combination. This could result in a failure to complete the combination or have a material adverse effect on the business and results of operations of AbitibiBowater.

AbitibiBowater may not pay dividends.

Abitibi and Bowater have historically maintained differing dividend practices, with Bowater paying a quarterly dividend of US$0.20 in each quarter since the first quarter of 1996, while Abitibi has not paid dividends since July 2006. The combination agreement provides that, prior to the completion of the combination, Bowater will continue to pay its regular, quarterly dividend consistent with past practices, unless otherwise required by the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of Bowater or by applicable law. Any decision regarding the dividend policies of AbitibiBowater will be determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater following completion of the combination. In addition, the ability of AbitibiBowater to pay dividends may be restricted by the company's credit facilities or other debt instruments, as well as by applicable law. There can be no assurance that AbitibiBowater will pay a dividend or that any dividend, if paid, will be comparable to the historical dividend rate of Bowater prior to the combination.

The value of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that you receive in the combination, or of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that existing holders of such shares retain following the combination, may be less than the value of your Abitibi common shares, shares of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as of the date of the combination agreement or the dates of the shareholder meetings.

The Abitibi and Bowater exchange ratios are fixed and there will be no adjustment for changes in the market price of Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares prior to the consummation of the combination. None of the parties are permitted to terminate the combination agreement and abandon the combination solely because of changes in the market price of the Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

There may be a significant amount of time between the dates when the Abitibi shareholders, the Bowater stockholders and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares vote at their respective meetings and the date on which the combination is completed. As a result, the relative or absolute prices of Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may vary significantly between the dates of the combination agreement, this document, the meetings and the completion of the combination. These variations may be caused by, among other factors, changes in the businesses, operations, results and prospects of the companies, market expectations of the likelihood that the combination will be completed and the timing of its completion, the prospects for our post-combination operations, the effect of any conditions or restrictions imposed on or proposed with respect to AbitibiBowater by governmental authorities and general market and economic conditions.

In addition, it is impossible to accurately predict the market price of the AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares after the completion of the combination. Accordingly, the prices of Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the dates of the meetings may not be indicative of their prices immediately prior to the completion of the combination or the price of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares after the combination is completed.

Certain directors and executive officers of Abitibi and Bowater have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Abitibi and Bowater shareholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, generally.

Some of the directors of Abitibi and Bowater, and the executive officers of Abitibi and Bowater who provided information and recommendations to their respective Boards of Directors relating to the combination, have employment, indemnification and severance benefit arrangements and other benefits payable upon a change in control of Abitibi or Bowater, rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance, or expected positions in the Board of Directors or management of AbitibiBowater, that provide them with interests in the combination that may differ from Abitibi and Bowater shareholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, generally. The receipt of compensation or other benefits referred to above by Abitibi's or Bowater's executive officers in connection with the combination may make it more difficult for AbitibiBowater to retain their services after the combination, or require AbitibiBowater to expend additional sums to continue to retain their services. Abitibi shareholders and Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should be aware of these interests when considering the recommendations of their respective Boards of Directors in connection with the combination. See The Combination Interests of Abitibi's Directors and Management in the Combination and The Combination Interests of Bowater's Directors and Management in the Combination.

Because the risks and uncertainties facing each of Abitibi and Bowater may differ, the market price, results of operations and financial condition of AbitibiBowater may be affected by risks and uncertainties different from those currently affecting each of Abitibi and Bowater on a stand-alone basis.

The shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issuable to holders of Abitibi common shares and Bowater common stock in the combination will represent an interest in the combined operations of Abitibi and Bowater. For a discussion of the businesses of Abitibi and Bowater and of certain risks and uncertainties facing each company, see the documents incorporated by reference in this document and referred to under Where You Can Find Additional Information as well as the risk factors described below under Risk Factors Relating to the Businesses and Operations of the Combined Entity After Consummation of the Combination.

The shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be received by Abitibi shareholders as a result of the combination will have different rights from the Abitibi common shares.

Following completion of the combination, Abitibi shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Abitibi, a corporation governed under the CBCA, but will instead be stockholders of AbitibiBowater, a Delaware corporation. There will be important differences between the current rights of Abitibi shareholders and the rights to which such shareholders will be entitled as stockholders of AbitibiBowater. For example, the CBCA provides an oppression remedy that enables a court to make any order, whether interim or final, to rectify matters that are oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to or that unfairly disregard the interests of any security holder, director or officer of a corporation governed by the CBCA whereas there is no oppression remedy available to stockholders of corporations incorporated under the laws of Delaware, such as AbitibiBowater. Also, dissent rights are available to stockholders of corporations incorporated under the laws of Delaware in more limited circumstances than under the CBCA. In addition, the charter documents of AbitibiBowater will contain important differences from those of Abitibi including, among others, a requirement that certain amendments to the certificate of incorporation of AbitibiBowater, including amendments relating to the authorized capital of the company, the size and classification of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors, removal of directors, business combinations and Board committees, be made only with approval of at least 75% of the voting power of AbitibiBowater stock.

These supermajority voting requirements may restrict the ability of AbitibiBowater to issue additional equity securities or otherwise to pursue transactions that may be beneficial to AbitibiBowater. See Comparison of Shareholder and Stockholder Rights for a discussion of the different rights associated with Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock and AbitibiBowater common stock.

The trading prices of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the AbitibiBowater common stock may not reflect equivalent values.

Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will have dividend, liquidation and voting entitlements that are substantially economically equivalent to the rights of holders of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. We expect the AbitibiBowater common stock to be listed on the NYSE and the TSX and we expect the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issuable to Abitibi shareholders to be listed on the TSX. Because these are separate listings on different exchanges, the trading prices of the AbitibiBowater common stock on the NYSE and the TSX and of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the TSX may not reflect equivalent values after taking into account the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar and the U.S. dollar or the differences in the trading volumes of such shares on the two exchanges. This may result in holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares having to exchange their shares for AbitibiBowater common stock in order to maximize the value of their investment prior to a sale. Such exchange of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for AbitibiBowater common stock will generally result in a taxable disposition for Canadian income tax purposes. Holders of such shares will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent the fair market value of the AbitibiBowater common stock received in the exchange exceeds (or is exceeded by) the cost for tax purposes of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (less any reasonable costs of disposition). See Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

Abitibi shareholders who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will experience a delay in receiving shares of AbitibiBowater common stock from the date they request an exchange, which may affect the value of the shares the holder receives in an exchange.

Abitibi shareholders who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in the arrangement and later request to receive AbitibiBowater common stock in exchange for their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will not receive AbitibiBowater common stock until 10 to 15 business days after the applicable request is received. During this 10 to 15 business day period, the market price of AbitibiBowater common stock may increase or decrease. Any such increase or decrease would affect the value of the consideration to be received by such a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares upon a subsequent sale of the AbitibiBowater common stock received in the exchange.

The combination may require Abitibi and Bowater to provide notice to or obtain the consent of certain Canadian provincial governments with respect to their timber rights in such provinces.

The combination may be deemed to constitute a change of control under certain of Abitibi's and Bowater's forest licenses and forest management agreements and, in such a case, Abitibi and Bowater may be required to provide notice to or obtain the consent of certain provincial governments with respect to the timber rights in such provinces. The forestry legislation of certain Canadian provinces provides that the relevant Minister of Natural Resources, in the event of a change of control, may change the amount of allocated wood and territories under forest licenses granted thereunder. There can be no assurance that, following the combination, AbitibiBowater will not experience a reduction in its allocated cutting rights under such provincial forestry legislation. In the event AbitibiBowater does experience a reduction, AbitibiBowater's results of operations, financial condition and cash flow could be materially adversely affected.

Furthermore, recent Supreme Court of Canada decisions have confirmed that the federal and provincial governments in Canada have a duty to consult with, and in certain circumstances, seek to accommodate, aboriginal groups whenever there is a reasonable prospect that a government's decision may adversely affect an aboriginal group's interests in relevant land and resources that are the subject of the decision. It is not clear under such decisions if provincial governments have a duty to consult with relevant aboriginal groups in connection with the combination. If the provincial governments do consult with certain of such groups, the consultation process could result in delays, constrain access to the timber or give rise to additional costs. In addition, if the governments do not adequately discharge their obligations this could result in litigation. Any reduction in the amount of allocated wood and territories under Abitibi's and Bowater's forest licenses and forest management agreements or the refusal to transfer such forest licenses and forest management agreements could have a material adverse effect on the business and results of operations of AbitibiBowater.

Each of Abitibi and Bowater is restricted in the combination agreement from pursuing alternative transactions.

The combination agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting Abitibi and Bowater from seeking an alternative transaction, and it generally subjects the ability of each party to recommend or pursue an unsolicited alternative transaction to the payment to the other party of a termination fee of US$28 million and the reimbursement of the other party's expenses, to a maximum amount of US$12 million. Further, in certain circumstances where one party's shareholders fail to approve the combination at a time when an alternative transaction has been proposed, that party may be required to reimburse the other party's expenses up to the US$12 million limit and, if that party within the following 12 months either consummates an alternative transaction or enters into an agreement for an alternative transaction that is later consummated, that party may be required to pay the other party the termination fee of US$28 million. See The Combination Agreement and Related Matters Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement. These provisions may have the effect of preventing each of Abitibi and Bowater from attracting proposals for alternative transactions that, in the absence of these obligations to reimburse expenses and pay the termination fee, would have been more favorable to such party's shareholders from a financial point of view.

The ability of Abitibi shareholders to receive tax deferred treatment on the exchange of their shares in the combination may be limited by the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit.

Under the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit, the number of exchangeable shares that may be issued to eligible Abitibi shareholders in the combination is limited to an amount that, when combined with Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued to current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, is less than 20% of the total voting power of AbitibiBowater. In the event that eligible Abitibi shareholders elect to receive more Bowater Canada exchangeable shares than are available pursuant to the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit, the remainder of their shares will be exchanged for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, pro rata to their shareholdings. Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to eligible Abitibi shareholders in connection with the combination, including in the event an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder is subject to prorationing as described above. See The Combination Agreement and Related Matters No Fractional Shares. Abitibi shareholders will not have the opportunity to elect to defer Canadian income tax on the exchange of their Abitibi common shares to the extent that they receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock in consideration for such Abitibi common shares as a result of the application of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit.

Risk Factors Relating to the Businesses and Operations of the Combined Entity after the Consummation of the Combination

AbitibiBowater will face intense competition in the forest products industry and the failure to compete effectively would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

AbitibiBowater will compete with numerous forest products companies, some of which have greater financial resources than AbitibiBowater will have. There has been a continued trend towards consolidation in the forest products industry, leading to new global producers. These global producers are typically large, well-capitalized companies that may have greater flexibility in pricing and financial resources for marketing, investment and expansion than AbitibiBowater will have. The markets for our products are all highly competitive. Actions by competitors can affect our ability to sell our products and can affect the volatility of the prices at which our products are sold. While the principal basis for competition is price, AbitibiBowater will also compete on the basis of customer service, quality and product type. There has also been an increasing trend toward consolidation among AbitibiBowater's customers. With fewer customers in the market for AbitibiBowater's products, its negotiation position with these customers could be weakened.

In addition, our industry is capital intensive, which leads to high fixed costs. Some of our competitors may be lower-cost producers in some of the businesses in which we operate. Global newsprint capacity, particularly Chinese and European newsprint capacity, has been increasing, which is expected to result in lower prices, volumes or both for our exported products. We believe that new hardwood pulp capacity at South American pulp mills has unit costs that are significantly below those of our hardwood kraft pulp mills. Other actions by competitors, such as reducing costs or adding low-cost capacity, may adversely affect our competitive position in the products we manufacture and, consequently, our sales, operating income and cash flows. We may not be able to compete effectively and achieve adequate levels of sales and product margins. If we are unable to compete effectively, such failure would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

AbitibiBowater will have substantial indebtedness that could adversely affect our financial health and our efforts to reduce this indebtedness may not be successful.

AbitibiBowater will have a significant amount of indebtedness. As of March 31, 2007, AbitibiBowater had outstanding total debt on a pro forma basis of US$5,505 million, of which US$269 million would have been secured debt, and shareholders' equity of US$2,143 million. Our substantial amount of debt could have important negative consequences. For example, it could:

limit our ability to obtain additional financing, if needed, for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, debt service requirements or other purposes;

increase our vulnerability to adverse economic and industry conditions; require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flows from operations to make payments on our debt;

reduce funds available for operations, future business opportunities or other purposes; limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and our industry; and place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that have less debt.

AbitibiBowater's credit facilities, the indentures governing its various notes, debentures and other debt securities and the terms and conditions of its other indebtedness may permit AbitibiBowater or its subsidiaries to incur or guarantee additional indebtedness, including secured indebtedness in some circumstances. To the extent AbitibiBowater incurs additional indebtedness, some or all of the risks discussed above will increase.

Developments in alternative media could continue to adversely affect the demand for AbitibiBowater's products.

Trends in advertising, electronic data transmission and storage and the Internet could have further adverse effects on traditional print media, including our products and those of our customers, but neither the timing nor the extent of those trends can be predicted with certainty. Our newspaper, magazine and catalog publishing customers may increasingly use, and compete with businesses that use, other forms of media and advertising and electronic data transmission and storage, including television and the Internet, instead of newsprint, coated paper, uncoated specialty papers or other products made by us. The North American and global economies and the demand for certain of our products weakened significantly over the course of the last several years. For example, industry statistics indicate that North American newsprint consumption has been declining. We believe that this decline in demand could continue due to conservation measures taken by publishers, reduced North American newspaper circulation, less space devoted to advertising and substitution to other uncoated mechanical grades. As a result of such competition, both Abitibi and Bowater have experienced decreased demand for some of their existing pulp and paper products in North America. As the use of these alternatives grows, demand for pulp and paper products is likely to further decline in North America.

These changing industry conditions could influence us to idle or permanently close individual machines or entire mills and incur impairment charges. Already as a result of this reduction in demand, Abitibi proceeded with permanent closures of the Sheldon, Texas and Port-Alfred, Quebec newsprint mills in 2004, the Kenora, Ontario and Stephenville and Newfoundland newsprint mills in 2005, and indefinitely idled the Lufkin, Texas paper mill in 2003 and the Fort William, Ontario commercial printing paper mill in 2007. Bowater continues to curtail newsprint production at its Thunder Bay, Ontario mill and coated paper production at its converting facility. If market conditions continue to worsen, it may be necessary to curtail production or permanently shut down machines or facilities. Curtailments or shutdowns could result in goodwill or asset write-downs at the affected facilities and could negatively impact our cash flows and materially affect our results of operations and financial condition.

The forest product industry is highly cyclical. Fluctuations in the prices of and the demand for our products could result in smaller profit margins and lower sales volumes.

The forest product industry is highly cyclical. Historically, economic and market shifts, fluctuations in capacity and changes in foreign currency exchange rates have created cyclical changes in prices, sales volume and margins for our products. Most of our paper products will be commodities that are widely available from other producers and even our commercial printing paper will be susceptible to these fluctuations. Because our commodity products will have few distinguishing qualities from producer to producer, competition for these products is based primarily on price, which is determined by supply relative to demand. The overall levels of demand for the products AbitibiBowater will manufacture and distribute and, consequently, our sales and profitability, reflect fluctuations in levels of end-user demand, which depend in part on general economic conditions in North America and worldwide, as well as competition from electronic substitution. See Developments in alternative media could continue to adversely affect the demand for AbitibiBowater's products.

AbitibiBowater's manufacturing businesses may have difficulty obtaining fiber at favorable prices, or at all.

Fiber is the principal raw material used by AbitibiBowater, comprising, on a pro forma basis for 2006, approximately 33% of cost of sales, excluding depreciation, amortization and cost of timber harvested. We will use both virgin fiber (wood chips and logs) and recycled fiber (old newspapers and magazines) as fiber sources for our paper mills. Wood fiber is a commodity and prices historically have been cyclical. The primary source for wood fiber is timber. Environmental litigation and regulatory developments have caused, and may cause in the future, significant reductions in the amount of timber available for commercial harvest in the United States and Canada. In addition, future domestic or foreign legislation, litigation advanced by aboriginal groups and litigation concerning the use of timberlands, the protection of endangered species, the promotion of forest health and the response to and prevention of catastrophic wildfires could also affect timber supplies. Availability of harvested timber may further be limited by factors such as fire and fire prevention, insect infestation, disease, ice storms, wind storms, flooding and other natural and man-made causes, thereby reducing supply and increasing prices. Wood fiber pricing is subject to market influences and our cost of wood fiber may increase in particular regions due to market shifts. Pricing of recycled fiber has recently been increasing. For example, prices of old newspapers have increased from an average of US$88 per ton in December of 2006 to US$100 per ton on February 1, 2007, and to US$130 per ton on March 1, 2007. We believe that these price increases are related to expanding paper and packaging capacity in Asia, as well as strong North American demand, and that prices may remain at elevated levels. Any sustained increase in fiber prices would increase AbitibiBowater's operating costs and AbitibiBowater may be unable to increase prices for our products in response.

Although AbitibiBowater believes that the balance of fiber supply between our internal sources and the open market is adequate to support our current wood products and paper and pulp production requirements, there is no assurance that access to fiber will continue at the same levels achieved in the past. The cost of softwood fiber and the availability of wood chips may be affected. If AbitibiBowater's cutting rights pursuant to the forest licenses or forest management agreements of Abitibi and Bowater are reduced or if any third-party supplier of wood fiber stops selling or is unable to sell wood fiber to AbitibiBowater, our financial condition and operating results would suffer.

An increase in the cost of AbitibiBowater's purchased energy, chemicals and other raw materials would lead to higher manufacturing costs, thereby reducing our margins.

AbitibiBowater's operations will consume substantial amounts of energy such as electricity, natural gas, fuel oil, coal and wood waste. We will buy energy and raw materials, including chemicals, wood, recovered paper and other raw materials, primarily on the open market. The prices for raw materials and energy are volatile and may change rapidly, directly affecting our results of operations. The availability of raw materials and energy may also be disrupted by many factors outside our control, adversely affecting our operations. Energy comprised approximately 17% of cost of sales, excluding depreciation, amortization and cost of timber harvested for AbitibiBowater's business on a pro forma basis during 2006. Energy prices, particularly for electricity, natural gas and fuel oil, have been volatile in recent years and prices for 2005 and 2006 exceeded historical averages. As a result, fluctuations in energy prices will impact AbitibiBowater's manufacturing costs and contribute to earnings volatility. Additionally, AbitibiBowater will be a major user of renewable natural resources such as water and wood. Accordingly, significant changes in climate and agricultural diseases or infestation could affect our financial condition and results of operations. The volume and value of timber that we can harvest or purchase may be limited by factors such as fire and fire prevention, insect infestation, disease, ice storms, wind storms, flooding, other weather conditions and other causes. As is typical in the industry, we do not maintain insurance for any loss to our standing timber from natural disasters or other causes. Also, AbitibiBowater can provide no assurance that we will be able to maintain our rights to utilize water or to renew them at conditions comparable to those currently in effect.

For AbitibiBowater's commodity products, the relationship between industry supply and demand for these products, rather than changes in the cost of raw materials, will determine our ability to increase prices. Consequently, AbitibiBowater may be unable to pass along increases in our operating costs to our customers. Any sustained increase in energy, chemical or raw material prices without any corresponding increase in product pricing would reduce our operating margins and potentially require us to limit or cease operations of one or more of our machines.

Currency fluctuations may adversely affect AbitibiBowater's results of operations and financial condition and changes in foreign currency exchange rates can affect AbitibiBowater's competitive position, selling prices and manufacturing costs.

AbitibiBowater will compete with North American, European and Asian producers in most of our product lines. AbitibiBowater's products will be sold and denominated in U.S. dollars, Canadian dollars and selected foreign currencies. A substantial portion of AbitibiBowater's manufacturing costs will be denominated in Canadian dollars. In addition to the impact of product supply and demand, changes in the relative strength or weakness of the U.S. dollar may also affect international trade flows of these products. A stronger U.S. dollar may attract imports into North America from foreign producers, increase supply and have a downward effect on prices, while a weaker U.S. dollar may encourage U.S. exports and increase manufacturing costs that are in Canadian dollars or other foreign currencies. Variations in the exchange rates between the U.S. dollar and other currencies, particularly the Euro and the currencies of Canada, Sweden, Finland and certain Asian countries, will significantly affect our competitive position compared to many of our competitors. Also, if the Canadian dollar remains strong for an extended period of time, it could influence the foreign exchange rate assumptions that AbitibiBowater uses in our evaluation of goodwill impairment and, consequently, result in goodwill impairment charges.

AbitibiBowater will be particularly sensitive to changes in the value of the Canadian dollar versus the U.S. dollar. The impact of these changes will depend primarily on our production and sales volume, the proportion of our production and sales that occur in Canada, the proportion of our financial assets and liabilities denominated in Canadian dollars, our hedging levels and the magnitude, direction and duration of changes in the exchange rate. We expect exchange rate fluctuations to continue to impact costs and revenues; however, we cannot predict the magnitude or direction of this effect for any quarter, and there can be no assurance of any future effects.

AbitibiBowater could experience disruptions in operations and/or increased labor costs due to labor disputes.

We expect to be the largest employer in the Canadian pulp and paper sector and to have the sector's largest representation by unions. A significant number of our collective bargaining agreements with respect to our newsprint and commercial printing paper operations in Eastern Canada will expire on the same date in 2009. In Canada, the largest employer has traditionally acted as a pattern setter for the sector. While relationships with the various unions generally have been good, as is the case with any negotiation, AbitibiBowater may not be able to negotiate acceptable new agreements, which could result in strikes or work stoppages by affected employees. Renewal of collective bargaining agreements could also result in higher wage or benefit costs. Therefore, AbitibiBowater could experience a disruption of our operations or higher ongoing labor costs which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

AbitibiBowater's operations require substantial capital and we may not have adequate capital resources to provide for all of our capital requirements.

AbitibiBowater's businesses are capital intensive and require that we regularly incur capital expenditures in order to maintain our equipment, increase our operating efficiency and comply with environmental laws. If AbitibiBowater's available cash resources and cash generated from operations are not sufficient to fund our operating needs and capital expenditures, AbitibiBowater would have to obtain additional funds from borrowings or other available sources or reduce or delay our capital expenditures. AbitibiBowater may not be able to obtain additional funds on terms as favorable as those available to Abitibi or Bowater individually, or obtain financing at all. In addition, AbitibiBowater's debt service obligations will reduce our available cash flows. If AbitibiBowater cannot maintain or upgrade our equipment as we require, we may become unable to manufacture products that compete effectively in one or more of our product lines.

AbitibiBowater will be exposed to changes in banking and capital markets and changes in interest rates.

AbitibiBowater will require both short-term and long-term financing to fund our operations, including capital expenditures. Changes in banking or capital markets, or to our credit rating, could affect the cost or availability of financing. In addition, we are exposed to changes in interest rates with respect to (i) our floating rate debt and (ii) the interest rate of any new debt issues. Changes in the capital markets or prevailing interest rates can increase or decrease the cost or availability of financing.

Changes in laws and regulations could adversely affect AbitibiBowater's results of operations.

AbitibiBowater will be subject to a variety of foreign, federal, state, provincial and local laws and regulations dealing with trade, employees, transportation, taxes, timber and water rights and the environment. Changes in these laws or regulations or their interpretations or enforcement have required in the past, and could require in the future, substantial expenditures by us and adversely affect our results of operations. For example, changes in environmental laws and regulations have in the past, and could in the future, require us to spend substantial amounts to comply with restrictions on air emissions, wastewater discharge, waste management and landfill sites, including remediation costs. Environmental laws are becoming increasingly stringent. Consequently, our compliance and remediation costs could increase materially.

Changes in the political or economic conditions in Canada, the United States or other countries in which AbitibiBowater's products will be manufactured or sold could adversely affect our results of operations.

AbitibiBowater will manufacture products in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and South Korea and sell products throughout the world. Paper prices are tied to the health of the economies of North and South America, Asia and Europe, as well as to paper inventory levels in these regions. The economic and political climate of each region has a significant impact on our costs and the prices of, and demand for, our products. Changes in regional economies or political instability, including acts of war or terrorist activities, can affect the cost of manufacturing and distributing our products, pricing and sales volume, directly affecting our results of operations. Such changes could also affect the availability or cost of insurance.

AbitibiBowater may be subject to environmental liabilities.

AbitibiBowater will be subject to a wide range of general and industry-specific laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment, including those governing air emissions, wastewater discharges, harvesting, the storage, management and disposal of hazardous substances and waste, the clean-up of contaminated sites, landfill operation and closure obligations, forestry operations and endangered species habitat and health and safety matters. As an owner and operator of real estate and manufacturing and processing facilities, we may be liable under environmental laws for cleanup and other costs and damages, including tort liability and damages to natural resources, resulting from past or present spills or releases of hazardous or toxic substances on or from our current or former properties. We may incur liability under these laws without regard to whether we knew of, were responsible for, or owned the property at the time of, any spill or release of hazardous or toxic substances on or from our property, or at properties where we arranged for the disposal of regulated materials. Claims may arise out of currently unknown environmental conditions or aggressive enforcement efforts by governmental or private parties.

AbitibiBowater has net liabilities with respect to our pension plans and the actual cost of our pension plan obligations could exceed current provisions.

On a pro forma basis, as of December 31, 2006, AbitibiBowater's defined benefit pension plans were under-funded by an aggregate of US$940 million on a financial accounting basis. Abitibi and Bowater used different measurement dates and assumptions in determining their combined pension plan obligations. Our future funding obligations for the defined benefit pension plans depend upon changes to the level of benefits provided by the plans, the future performance of assets set aside in trusts for these plans, the level of interest rates used to determine minimum funding levels, actuarial data and experience and any changes in government laws and regulations. Any adverse change to any of these factors may require AbitibiBowater to increase our cash contributions to our pension plans and those additional contributions could have a material adverse effect on our cash flows and results of operations.

Non-Registered Shareholders

The names of the shareholders whose shares are held in the name of a broker or another nominee will not appear on the list of shareholders of Abitibi. If you are not a registered Abitibi shareholder, in order to vote you must obtain the materials relating to the Abitibi Meeting from your broker or other nominee (if you did not receive such materials with this document), complete the broker voting instruction form sent to you by such nominee and follow the directions of the broker or other nominee with respect to voting procedures.

In accordance with National Instrument 54-101 adopted by the Canadian securities administrators entitled Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer, Abitibi is distributing copies of the materials related to the Abitibi Meeting to the clearing agencies and other nominees for distribution to non-registered holders. All such nominees must forward the material related to the Abitibi Meeting to non-registered holders and often use a service company (such as ADP Investor Communications in Canada) to permit you, if you are not a registered shareholder, to direct the voting of the Abitibi common shares which you beneficially own. If you are a non-registered Abitibi shareholder, you may revoke voting instructions which have been given to a nominee at any time by written notice to such nominee.

Voting Securities and Principal Holders of Securities

On the Abitibi record date, there were outstanding 440,174,994 Abitibi common shares. Each Abitibi common share carries the right to one vote.

To the knowledge of Abitibi management, the only shareholder that, as of the Abitibi record date, owned beneficially, or exercised control or direction over, more than 10% of the total outstanding Abitibi common shares was Quebecor Inc., which is the registered holder of 44,821,024 Abitibi common shares representing approximately 10.18% of the outstanding Abitibi common shares.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

Abitibi and Bowater will equally bear the expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies from Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares; and Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to share equally the out-of-pocket expenses related to the printing and filing of this document. Abitibi and Bowater have retained Kingsdale and its affiliate Innisfree, proxy solicitation firms, for assistance in connection with the solicitation of proxies in Canada and the United States and anticipate paying a fee not exceeding C$160,000 plus additional charges related to telephone calls and other services. with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Abitibi common shares held of record by these persons and Abitibi may reimburse them for their reasonable transaction and clerical expenses.

Solicitation of proxies may also be made by mail, in person, or by telephone, email, Internet, facsimile or other means of communication, by Abitibi's directors, officers and employees, who will receive no additional compensation for these services, but will be reimbursed for any transaction expenses incurred by them in connection with these services.

Dissenting Shareholder Rights

Under the provisions of the interim order, registered Abitibi shareholders will have the right to dissent with respect to the arrangement and the Abitibi shareholders' resolution. If the arrangement becomes effective, a registered Abitibi shareholder who dissents will be entitled to be paid the fair value of its Abitibi common shares by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada, at AbitibiBowater's option. This right to dissent is described in this document and in the plan of arrangement which is attached to this document as Annex E. If you want to dissent in respect of the arrangement and the Abitibi shareholders' resolution, you must provide a written dissent notice to Abitibi's Secretary at Abitibi-Consolidated Inc., 1155 Metcalfe Street, Suite 800, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3B 5H2, Attention: Secretary, facsimile number (514) 394-3644, not later than 5:00 p.m. (local time) on the business day immediately preceding the Abitibi Meeting (or any adjournment or postponement of the Abitibi Meeting). If you do not strictly comply with this requirement, you could lose your right to dissent. This requirement is different from the statutory dissent procedures of the CBCA, which would permit a dissent notice to be provided at or prior to the Abitibi Meeting. For more information regarding your right to dissent, see "The Combination - Dissenting Shareholder Rights - Abitibi."

Exercise of Stock Options

If you hold exercisable Abitibi stock options and wish to exercise them to acquire Abitibi common shares in order to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or shares of AbitibiBowater common stock in connection with the plan of arrangement (or a combination of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares), then you should exercise your stock options through the Human Resources Department at Abitibi or by telephone at the following number: (514) 394-3257 prior to 4:00 p.m. (local time) on July 20, 2007 (or, if the Abitibi Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before 4:00 p.m. (local time) on the fourth business day before the date the adjourned or postponed Abitibi Meeting is to be reconvened). Upon completion of the arrangement, all unexercised Abitibi stock options will be automatically converted into AbitibiBowater stock options.

Election to Receive Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares and Exchange of Share Certificates

Accompanying this document is a letter of transmittal and election form which is being delivered only to holders of Abitibi common shares. Any use of the mail to transmit a share certificate and a letter of transmittal and election form is at your risk. If you mail these documents, we recommend that you use registered mail, with return receipt requested, properly insured.

You should properly complete, sign and return the letter of transmittal and election form, together with your share certificate or certificates for your Abitibi common shares and all other documents identified in the letter of transmittal and election form to Computershare Trust Company of Canada at the address specified on the last page of the form by no later than 5:00 p.m. (local time) on July 24, 2007 (or, if the Abitibi Meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, before the time the adjourned or postponed Abitibi Meeting is to be reconvened), to enable you to elect to obtain, in respect of each such share, at your option:

- (a) 0.06261 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, with Bowater Canada exchangeable shares being subsequently exchangeable at any time for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, or

- (b) 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock, or

- (c) a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, provided that the total number of shares you receive under the arrangement shall not exceed the number of Abitibi common shares you currently hold multiplied by the Abitibi exchange ratio.

Only holders of Abitibi common shares that are eligible shareholders may elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. For more information, see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

If you (i) are a holder of Abitibi common shares, (ii) have not exercised dissent rights, (iii) are an eligible shareholder and (iv) have returned, prior to the election deadline, the completed letter of transmittal and election form together with your Abitibi common share certificate(s) and all other required documents, you will receive, on or after the effective date of the Abitibi arrangement, in respect of each of your Abitibi common shares, 0.06261 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share (or such lesser number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as specified by you in the election form in the event you opt to receive a combination of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock as described above, unless the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is exceeded, in which event the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will be issued to all electing eligible Abitibi shareholders will be subject to pro ration).

If you (i) are a holder of Abitibi common shares, (ii) have not exercised dissent rights and (iii) are not an eligible shareholder, you will receive, on or after the effective date of the arrangement, in respect of each of your Abitibi common shares, 0.06261 of a share of common stock of AbitibiBowater upon returning the completed letter of transmittal, together with your Abitibi common share certificate(s) and all other required documents.

If a letter of transmittal and election form is not returned prior to the election deadline or an election is not effectively made, you will be deemed to have elected to receive 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock in respect of each of your Abitibi common shares.

If you hold Abitibi common shares that are registered in the name of a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee, you should contact that nominee for instructions about how to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of AbitibiBowater Common Stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares).

Eligible shareholders of Abitibi may also elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares by following the procedures for book-based transfer, provided that a confirmation of the book-based transfer of such shares through the CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc., which we refer to as CDS, on-line tendering system into the depository's account at CDS, is received by the depository at its office in Toronto prior to 5:00 p.m. (local time) on July 24, 2007 (or, if the Abitibi Meeting is adjourned or postponed, 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, before the time the adjourned or postponed Abitibi Meeting is to be reconvened). The depository has established an account at CDS for the purpose of the combination. Any financial institution that is a participant in CDS may cause CDS to make a book-based transfer of an eligible holder's Abitibi common shares into the depository's account in accordance with CDS procedures for such transfer. Delivery of Abitibi common shares through the CDS book based transfer system will constitute a valid election to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Abitibi shareholders, through their respective CDS participants, who utilize CDSX, the CDS on-line system, to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares through a book-based transfer of their holdings into the depository's account with CDS are deemed to have completed the letter of transmittal and election form and therefore such instructions received by the depository are considered as a valid election to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in accordance with the terms of the plan of arrangement.

Computershare Trust Company of Canada will act as depository for the purpose of deposits of letters of transmittal and election forms and its address in Toronto is 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario Canada M5J 2Y1. Abitibi shareholders with questions about the deposit procedures also may contact Computershare Trust Company of Canada toll-free at (888) 982-8769.

There will be a limit on the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that Bowater Canada will issue to eligible Abitibi shareholders, which we refer to as the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. For these purposes, the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is equal to: (i) 20% multiplied by the aggregate of (x) the number of Abitibi common shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination multiplied by the Abitibi exchange ratio (y) the number of shares of Bowater common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination multiplied by the Bowater exchange ratio, and (z) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination but after giving effect to the share consolidation that will occur upon filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment; minus (ii) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination but after giving effect to the share consolidation that will occur upon filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

In the event that eligible Abitibi shareholders elect to receive an aggregate number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that exceeds the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit described above, then the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will be issued to each electing eligible Abitibi shareholder shall be determined by multiplying the total number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to such shareholder by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to all eligible Abitibi shareholders that elected to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. In these circumstances, AbitibiBowater will issue to each electing eligible Abitibi shareholder a number of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock equal to the difference between (i) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder and (ii) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will actually be issued to such shareholder following the prorationing described above. Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to eligible Abitibi shareholders in connection with the combination, including in the event an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder is subject to prorationing as described above. See The Combination Agreement and Related Matters No Fractional Shares.

Based on publicly available information regarding the current shareholdings of Abitibi, we believe that it is unlikely that eligible Abitibi shareholders will be limited in their ability to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. However, the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is necessary to ensure that the combination is tax deferred for U.S. resident holders of Abitibi common shares.

Share Certificates

At or promptly after the effective time of the arrangement, Bowater Canada will deposit with Computershare Trust Company of Canada, for the benefit of holders of Abitibi common shares who will receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in connection with the arrangement, certificates representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued in the plan of arrangement upon exchange of the Abitibi common shares. Upon surrender to the depository of a certificate which, immediately prior to the effective time of the arrangement, represented one or more Abitibi common shares together with other required documents, you will receive a certificate representing that number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares which you are entitled to receive under the arrangement.

If your certificate representing Abitibi common shares has been destroyed, lost or mislaid, you should contact Computershare Trust Company of Canada, who acts as Abitibi's transfer agent and registrar, at 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5J 2Y1, or toll free at (800) 564-6253, regarding the issuance of a replacement certificate upon your satisfying any requirements imposed by Abitibi in connection with the issuance of the replacement certificate.

Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as of the Bowater record date are entitled to vote through Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as trustee, which will vote its share of Bowater special voting stock in accordance with the provisions of a voting and exchange trust agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, each holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as of the Bowater record date is entitled to instruct the trustee how to vote at Bowater stockholder meetings. The trustee will cast votes equal to the number of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares not owned by Bowater or its affiliates and as to which the trustee has timely received voting instructions from the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as of the Bowater record date. For further details on the voting and exchange trust agreement, please see Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement.

Solicitation of Proxies

Abitibi and Bowater will equally bear the expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies from Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares; and Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to share equally the out-of-pocket expenses related to the printing and filing of this document. Abitibi and Bowater have retained Kingsdale and its affiliate Innisfree, proxy solicitation firms, for assistance in connection with the solicitation of proxies in Canada and the United States and anticipate paying a fee not exceeding C$160,000 plus additional charges related to telephone calls and other services. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Bowater common stock held of record by these persons, and Bowater may reimburse them for their reasonable transaction and clerical expenses.

Solicitation of proxies may also be made by mail, in person, or by telephone, email, Internet, facsimile or other means of communication, by Bowater's directors, officers and employees, who will receive no additional compensation for these services, but will be reimbursed for any transaction expenses incurred by them in connection with these services.

You should not send in any Bowater or Bowater Canada share certificates with your proxy card or trustee voting instruction form. A letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of your Bowater and Bowater Canada share certificates will be mailed to you as soon as practicable after completion of the combination.

Attending the Bowater Meeting

If you are a beneficial owner of Bowater common stock held by a broker, bank or other nominee, you will need proof of ownership to be admitted to the Bowater Meeting. A recent brokerage or benefit plan statement or a letter from a bank or broker are examples of proof of ownership. If you want to vote your Bowater common stock held in nominee name in person, you must get a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank, or other nominee that holds your shares.

If you are a registered holder or holder of record of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and plan to attend the Bowater Meeting, you must instruct the trustee to give you or your designee a proxy to personally exercise the voting rights attached to your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in order to attend the Bowater Meeting and vote in person. The trustee will give you a proxy card.

Tabulation of Votes

Bowater has appointed The Bank of New York to serve as inspector of the Bowater Meeting. The Bank of New York will independently tabulate affirmative and negative votes and abstentions.

Dissent or Appraisal Rights

Holders of Bowater common stock and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares do not have dissent or appraisal rights in connection with the combination or the merger; however, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will have dissent rights in connection with the Bowater Canada articles of amendment as described under "The Combination - Dissenting Shareholder Rights - Bowater Canada."

SPECIAL MEETING OF BOWATER CANADA SHAREHOLDERS

The accompanying Bowater Canada proxy form is solicited on behalf of Bowater Canada's management for use at the Special Meeting of Bowater Canada shareholders. In this document, we refer to the Special Meeting of the Bowater Canada shareholders as the Bowater Canada Meeting.

Date, Time and Place of the Bowater Canada Meeting

The Bowater Canada Meeting is scheduled to be held as follows:

Date: July 25, 2007

Time: 9:30 a.m. (local time)

Place: Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth Hotel, Salon St-Laurent, 900 Boulevard René-Lévesque West, Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Purpose of the Bowater Canada Meeting

At the Bowater Canada Meeting, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be asked to:

1. consider and, if deemed advisable, adopt, with or without variation, a special resolution in the form set forth in Schedule B to this document, approving the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment in order to:

change Bowater Canada's name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,

effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share is changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio, amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination; and

2. transact such other business as may properly come before the Bowater Canada Meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Bowater Canada Meeting.

If Bowater Canada's shareholders do not approve the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution, Bowater and its affiliates will, in accordance with the terms of the combination agreement, cause the redemption of all outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the business day immediately preceding the effective date of the combination. In addition, the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares generally provide that, if Bowater Canada exercises a redemption right or is required to redeem Bowater

Canada exchangeable shares upon request by a holder of such shares, then Bowater Canadian Holdings may avail itself of its call right. In such case, the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will receive one share of Bowater common stock in exchange for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share, and each share of Bowater common stock so received will be converted into the right to receive 0.52 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock in the merger.

A redemption or purchase of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may have certain tax consequences to holders, depending on their tax status. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings pursuant to the exercise of its call right will generally realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the purchase price for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If Bowater Canadian Holdings does not exercise its call right and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares instead are redeemed by Bowater Canada, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will generally be deemed to receive a dividend and to have realized either a capital gain or a capital loss depending on the holder's own circumstances. Different consequences may result for a holder that is a corporation. For more information see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares.

Any redemption or exercise of the Bowater Canadian Holdings call right described above will not affect an eligible Abitibi shareholder's ability to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Further details regarding the Bowater Canada articles of amendment are provided under the section Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment.

Recommendation of the Bowater Canada Board of Directors

BOWATER CANADA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT HOLDERS OF BOWATER CANADA EXCHANGEABLE SHARES VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE BOWATER CANADA SHAREHOLDERS' RESOLUTION APPROVING THE FILING OF THE BOWATER CANADA ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT. The Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution is attached as Schedule B to this document.

Record Date and Entitlement to Vote

Bowater Canada's Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on June 20, 2007 as the record date for determining holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Bowater Canada Meeting, which we refer to as the Bowater Canada record date. As of the Bowater Canada record date, there were 1,202,738 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Bowater Canada Meeting.

Although in most circumstances the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares do not carry the right to vote at Bowater Canada shareholder meetings, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled to vote at the Bowater Canada Meeting because the proposed Bowater Canada articles of amendment effect changes to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares also will have the opportunity to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by instructing Computershare Trust Company of Canada, the trustee for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, how to vote their shares on such matters. However, in order for holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be able to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by giving instructions to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, they will have to have owned their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the Bowater record date, which is earlier than the Bowater Canada record date. If a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares acquired such shares after the Bowater record date and remained the owner of such shares on the Bowater Canada record date, then such holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled to vote only on the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution approving the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment at the Bowater Canada Meeting and will not have the right to vote on the combination at the Bowater Meeting by giving instructions to Computershare Trust Company of Canada. See Annual Meeting of Bowater Stockholders.

Table of Contents

Bowater Canada will prepare, within ten days after the Bowater Canada record date, a list of the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares entitled to vote at the Bowater Canada Meeting. The list of holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be available for inspection at the offices of Computershare Trust Company of Canada, Bowater Canada's registrar and transfer agent, at 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5J 2Y1, during usual business hours.

Registered Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

If you are a registered holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares at the close of business (local time) on the Bowater Canada record date, you are entitled to attend the Bowater Canada Meeting in person or by proxy and to cast one vote for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share held by you on the Bowater Canada record date.

Non-Registered Shareholders

The names of holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are held in the name of a broker or another nominee will not appear on the list of holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If you are not a registered holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, in order to vote you must obtain the materials relating to the Bowater Canada Meeting from your broker or other nominee (if you did not receive such materials with this document), complete the broker voting instruction form sent to you by such nominee and follow the directions of the nominee with respect to voting procedures.

In accordance with National Instrument 54-101 adopted by the Canadian securities administrators entitled Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer, Bowater Canada is distributing copies of the materials related to the Bowater Canada Meeting to the clearing agencies and nominees for distribution to non-registered holders. Nominees must forward the material related to the Bowater Canada Meeting to non-registered holders and often use a service company (such as ADP Investor Communications in Canada) to permit you, if you are not a registered holder, to direct the voting of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares which you beneficially own. If you are a non-registered holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, you may revoke voting instructions which have been given to a nominee at any time by written notice to the nominee.

Voting Shares and Principal Holders of Shares

As of the Bowater Canada record date, there were issued and outstanding (i) 86,844,900 Bowater Canada common shares; and (ii) 5,989,385 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. Bowater Canadian Holdings holds all of the issued and outstanding Bowater Canada common shares.

Of the 5,989,385 issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, 4,786,647 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are held by Bowater Canadian Holdings. Under the support agreement entered into among Bowater, Bowater Canadian Holdings and Bowater Canada, Bowater Canadian Holdings has agreed not to vote any of its Bowater Canada exchangeable shares with respect to any matter and it has also agreed that it will appoint or cause to be appointed proxy holders with respect to all Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by it and its affiliates for the sole purpose of attending each meeting of holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in order to be counted as part of the quorum for each such meeting.

Each Bowater Canada common share carries with it the right to one vote on all matters to come before the Bowater Canada Meeting. Each Bowater Canada exchangeable share that is not held by Bowater or any of its affiliates carries with it the right to one vote with respect to the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution authorizing the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment described above and, with respect to such other matters that may come before the Bowater Canada Meeting, solely to the extent required by applicable law.

Quorum and Votes Required

At any subsequent reconvening of the Bowater Canada Meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as the proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the Bowater Canada Meeting, except for any proxies that have been effectively revoked or withdrawn prior to the subsequent meeting.

A proxy nominee need not be a Bowater Canada shareholder. If the holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares is a corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity, it must execute the proxy form by an officer or properly appointed attorney.

Abitibi and Bowater will equally bear the expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies from Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares; and Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to share equally the out-of-pocket expenses related to the printing and filing of this document. Abitibi and Bowater have retained Kingsdale and its affiliate Innisfree, proxy solicitation firms, for assistance in connection with the solicitation of proxies in Canada and the United States and anticipate paying a fee not exceeding C$160,000 plus additional charges related to telephone calls and other services. Solicitation of proxies may also be made by mail, in person, or by telephone, email, Internet, facsimile or other means of communication, by Bowater Canada's directors, officers and employees, who will receive no additional compensation for these services, but will be reimbursed for any transaction expenses incurred by them in connection with these services.

THE COMBINATION

General

On January 29, 2007, AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater, Bowater Canada and Merger Sub entered into the combination agreement, providing for the combination of Abitibi and Bowater under AbitibiBowater, a newly formed Delaware corporation, by means of a merger under Delaware law and a plan of arrangement to be submitted for approval by the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec. Following completion of the combination, each of Abitibi and Bowater will continue to exist as subsidiaries of AbitibiBowater.

Upon completion of the combination, in each case subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the combination agreement, the plan of arrangement and applicable law:

Merger Sub will be merged with and into Bowater, with Bowater continuing as the surviving corporation, and the issued and outstanding shares of Bowater common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock at the Bowater exchange ratio;

issued and outstanding Abitibi common shares, other than shares in respect of which a properly made election to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares has been effected and that are not subject to pro ration in the event the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is exceeded (see Special Meeting of Abitibi Shareholders Election to Receive Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares and Exchange of Share Certificates), will be transferred to AbitibiBowater in exchange for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, while shares in respect of which a properly made election has been effected and that are not subject to pro ration in the event the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is exceeded will be transferred in exchange for Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, each at the Abitibi exchange ratio; and

Bowater will file the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. The purpose of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment is to:

- i change Bowater Canada's name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,
- i effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share is changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio,
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and
- i amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination.

We anticipate that pursuant to the merger AbitibiBowater will issue to the former stockholders of Bowater (or reserve for issuance to current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) approximately 29,874,901 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. We cannot predict how many eligible Abitibi shareholders will elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. We anticipate that, pursuant to the arrangement, AbitibiBowater will issue to the former shareholders of Abitibi (or reserve for issuance to former Abitibi Shareholders who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) approximately 27,559,356 shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to shareholders in connection with the combination, including the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. Rather, shareholders will receive cash, without interest, equal to the shareholder's pro rata portion of the net proceeds after expenses received upon the sale of whole shares representing the accumulation of all fractional interests in the shares to which all shareholders are entitled.

Background of the Combination

In pursuing their strategies for enhancing stockholder value, each of Abitibi and Bowater has regularly considered opportunities for business combinations, joint ventures and other strategic and commercial relationships with third parties. Over the last several years, both companies management and Boards of Directors have focused on their companies' long-term ability to successfully compete in the highly competitive global paper industry and thus have considered whether an appropriate business combination would provide an increase in scale that would enable them to more effectively address market demands, achieve cost and operating efficiencies, diversify their portfolio of products and obtain other benefits. The companies' consideration of such a combination was fostered in large measure by the negative market dynamics facing both of them in North America. In recent years, the strengthening of the Canadian dollar has negatively impacted both companies' profitability and financial strength while other North American market challenges, in particular the trends towards continued declines in newsprint demand coupled with the growing threat of imports from low-cost regions, show little signs of being reversed.

Under the aegis of its corporate development team, Abitibi has had for a number of years a formal process pursuant to which management identifies various growth opportunities for Abitibi's businesses as well as the key business risks and challenges facing Abitibi and the actions required to realize such opportunities and protect against or manage such risks. The results of this analysis are reviewed with the Abitibi Board and updated on a regular basis throughout the year in fulfillment of the Abitibi Board's mandate to review and approve, on an annual basis, Abitibi's three-year strategic plan and annual business plan.

At its February 28, 2006 meeting, the Abitibi Board met to, among other things, discuss Abitibi's strategic initiatives for 2006. Management explored with the Board a wide range of alternatives, including acquisitions or divestitures of assets or businesses, a redeployment of certain of Abitibi's hydroelectric assets, and various joint ventures and business combinations, notably, a potential combination with Bowater. An overview of the various alternatives was presented, reviewed and considered by the Abitibi Board, which authorized management to pursue its consideration of certain of the initiatives, including a combination with Bowater. In conjunction with its consideration of its strategic alternatives, Abitibi began consulting with outside financial and legal advisors.

In June 2006, Messrs. David J. Paterson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bowater, Arnold M. Nemirow, then Chairman of Bowater, and John W. Weaver, President and Chief Executive Officer of Abitibi, held an introductory meeting at which a range of topics was discussed, including the possibility of a combination of the two companies. This discussion was exploratory in nature.

Also in June 2006, Abitibi engaged McCarthy Tétrault LLP and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP to advise it with respect to Canadian and U.S. regulatory matters and engaged CIBC World Markets as its financial advisor.

In July 2006, Abitibi engaged Credit Suisse as its financial advisor.

On July 25, 2006, the Abitibi Board held another quarterly meeting at which the Abitibi 2006 strategic plan was reviewed, including, among various alternatives, the potential combination with Bowater. This initiative was discussed in greater detail and Mr. Weaver updated the Board on the contact that had been recently established with Mr. Paterson. He indicated that regulatory counsel had been hired in Canada and the United States to advise Abitibi with respect to this potential transaction and that he expected to have further contacts with Bowater in August. He reviewed some of the potential advantages of such a project, including anticipated synergies, the possibility of an enhanced platform for expansion, a widened product offering and the optimization of capital spending. This initiative was favorably received by the Abitibi Board in light of its potential financial and strategic benefits and management was authorized to continue its work in that respect.

In August 2006, Bowater indicated that it would not pursue discussions with Abitibi at that time pending a strategic review by the Bowater Board.

Throughout the period from July 2006 through December 2006, Bowater continued to consider a wide range of strategic alternatives with third parties, including acquisitions of assets or businesses and sales or distributions of certain of its businesses, and members of senior management had informal discussions with their counterparts at other paper companies. Bowater's Board of Directors was regularly updated on the status of these discussions. These discussions did not advance beyond intermediate stages in respect of transactions that would have precluded a combination with Abitibi. In August 2006, Bowater commenced discussions with a paper producer regarding a possible transaction in which Bowater would acquire the paper producer and possibly either sell or spin-off its newsprint assets. However, due to significant tax and structuring issues that would have made execution difficult and potentially adversely impact shareholder value, as well as significantly differing views as to the parties' respective valuations, the parties determined not to proceed with discussions regarding a possible transaction. During this period, Bowater also explored the potential sale of certain of its newsprint assets to another newsprint manufacturer. These discussions were terminated in January 2007.

In conjunction with its consideration of its strategic alternatives, Bowater began consulting with outside financial and legal advisors. Bowater's financial advisors in connection with its overall consideration of various strategic alternatives during the latter half of 2006 were Goldman Sachs and The Levin Group LLP. In addition, Bowater engaged UBS to act as an additional financial advisor in connection with the potential Abitibi transaction due in large measure to the firm's familiarity with both companies and the advice it rendered during Bowater's initial consideration of a transaction with Abitibi in July 2006. Troutman Sanders LLP was engaged to advise Bowater as its corporate counsel with respect to the company's overall consideration of various strategic alternatives during the second half of 2006. Bowater also engaged Ogilvy Renault LLP to advise it with respect to Canadian corporate and regulatory matters in connection with its possible alternatives. In addition, Bowater engaged Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP to advise it regarding U.S. regulatory matters related to the consideration of its strategic alternatives.

On September 27, 2006, at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Bowater Board, Bowater's senior management updated the Board on the strategic implications as well as the possible benefits and risks of a potential business combination with Abitibi. The Bowater Board was supportive of management's proposal to undertake an analysis of such a combination and, if warranted following such analysis, re-engaging in discussions with Abitibi to explore a possible transaction.

In early October 2006, Mr. Paterson contacted Mr. Weaver to determine whether Abitibi would be interested in revisiting their earlier discussions concerning the possibility of a business combination. Abitibi retained Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP as its Canadian legal counsel for corporate matters and broadened the mandate of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP to include U.S. corporate matters. On October 19, 2006, Abitibi and Bowater entered into a mutual confidentiality agreement, which contained customary standstill provisions and related agreements regarding the sharing of information between the parties.

On October 23, 2006, representatives of Abitibi and Bowater held a conference call to discuss the retention of a third-party consultant to assist in the parties' analysis of a potential transaction.

On October 24, 2006, the Abitibi Board was informed that discussions with Bowater had been re-activated and that confidentiality agreements had been signed. Mr. Weaver indicated that an evaluation of the potential synergies from the transaction was required in the context of a proposed merger of equals and recommended that a third-party consultant be retained to assist with the analysis by management of Abitibi and Bowater of such potential synergies. The Abitibi Board discussed the relative strengths of Bowater's and Abitibi's operations and agreed that management should pursue discussions with Bowater.

On October 26, 2006, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson briefly met at an industry conference in Florida and had preliminary, high-level discussions regarding valuation, possible transaction structures and the potential operational synergies that could be attained by such a combination. In general, both Messrs. Weaver and Paterson agreed that a stock-for-stock merger of equals concept had mutual strategic benefits for both companies. However, both were adamant that, in order to move forward, the potential operational synergies of the transaction had to be substantial and expected to be readily achievable within a limited time period. Messrs. Weaver and Paterson also agreed that no significant financial or legal diligence by the two companies would commence until both Abitibi and Bowater were satisfied with a synergies analysis of the two companies' operations.

On October 31, 2006, the two companies jointly engaged a third party consultant to assist with the analysis by management of Abitibi and Bowater of the potential operational synergies. The engagement provided that the consultant would employ a "clean team" approach, in which competitively sensitive data would be provided by each party to a team of analysts who had not worked for either Abitibi or Bowater and such data, and the resulting analysis, would be subject to a range of protective measures to ensure that neither party's competitively sensitive data was shared with the other party.

Between October 31 and November 2, 2006, representatives of both companies and their respective counsel held several conference calls to discuss progress regarding the analysis of potential operating synergies. On November 6, 2006, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson further discussed these matters in a telephone conversation.

Beginning in late October and early November, both companies independently worked with the third party consultant and provided the consultant with data necessary for its analysis of potential operational synergies. On November 20, representatives of the consultant met with Bowater's transaction team in Greenville, South Carolina to discuss the consultant's analysis. On November 22, 2006, the same representatives of the consultant met with Abitibi's management team to discuss the consultant's analysis. The consultant's analysis confirmed to Abitibi's management that its own assessment of the synergies that could be derived from the combination was reasonable.

After the meetings with the consultant, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson spoke by telephone and were in agreement that the analysis of potential synergies was sufficiently compelling to warrant moving forward with their consideration of a possible transaction. Mr. Paterson briefed the Bowater Board of Directors, which authorized its management team to continue exploring a potential business combination.

On November 28, 2006, counsel to Abitibi provided counsel to Bowater with an outline of potential structures for a transaction and issues arising from such structures.

On November 30, 2006, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson, together with their respective senior management teams and outside legal counsel, met in Washington, D.C. to discuss a timeline for completing a transaction as well as to agree to a process for commencing a detailed due diligence review. At this organizational meeting, the parties discussed several concepts and structures for the proposed business combination, exchanged high-level information concerning the two companies and the implementation of a cross-border merger of equals. The companies' outside regulatory counsel also discussed the proposed transaction and the current regulatory landscape.

Also on November 30, 2006, counsel to Abitibi and counsel to Bowater held a conference call regarding each company's outstanding indebtedness and the implications of various transaction structures for such indebtedness.

Following their Washington meeting on November 30, Abitibi and Bowater, together with their respective financial and legal representatives, commenced work on organizing a detailed due diligence process. The parties developed a comprehensive diligence work plan and began taking steps to implement an electronic data room to facilitate the parties' diligence reviews.

On December 1, 2006, at a special telephonic meeting of the Bowater Board, Bowater management again updated the Board on the status of the various strategic alternatives then under consideration. Management provided the Bowater Board with the latest indication of interest it had received from another newsprint manufacturer regarding the potential purchase of certain of Bowater's newsprint assets. Mr. Paterson explained to the Board the terms of the indication of interest and weighed the relative benefits and risks that such a transaction presented. The Bowater Board discussed the opportunities and strategic implications of the transaction in light of continued decreases in North American newsprint demand. However, the Bowater Board expressed concern regarding the parties' differing views as to the valuation of Bowater's newsprint assets. In addition, and notwithstanding the valuation differences, management and the Bowater Board discussed, among the other execution risks related to such a transaction, whether it was the most favorable alternative to its stockholders in light of the significant tax leakage that would result from the sale. During this call with the Board, Mr. Paterson also updated the directors on the status of the potential combination with Abitibi and of the progress of Bowater's due diligence process. The Bowater Board further discussed, at a high level, possible exchange ratios, the current Abitibi management team, possible governance structures and U.S. and Canadian regulatory considerations. At the end of the call, the Bowater Board directed management to continue working on the company's two strategic alternatives and to continue to keep the Board appropriately apprised.

During the period from December 1 through December 14, 2006, discussions regarding the key terms and conditions of a combination between Abitibi and Bowater commenced. Significant areas of negotiation included the relative valuation of the two companies and the percentage of ownership Abitibi shareholders and Bowater stockholders would have in a resulting combined entity. Further, the structure of the transaction and the domicile of the surviving corporation were discussed at length. In early December, the two companies' regulatory counsel jointly retained economic consultants to analyze the potential transaction and its competitive implications.

On December 5, 2006, the Abitibi and Bowater transaction teams provided Messrs. Weaver and Paterson with a telephonic update on their progress since their Washington organizational meeting on November 30. The status of individual work streams such as legal and financial diligence as well as structuring alternatives for the proposed combination were discussed. Messrs. Weaver and Paterson also received an update on regulatory considerations from outside counsel. Over the following week, counsel to Abitibi and Bowater had a number of telephone conversations to discuss these matters and to prepare for a meeting of the transaction teams scheduled for December 14, 2006.

On December 12, 2006, at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Abitibi Board, Abitibi's management updated the Board on the status of various strategic alternatives then under consideration and Mr. Weaver updated the Board on the status of the negotiations between Abitibi and Bowater. Mr. Weaver informed the Abitibi Board of management's findings, based in part on analyses developed by the third-party consultant, with respect to the potential operational synergies that could be derived from the combination. Mr. Weaver also reviewed possible exchange ratios and valuations methodologies, proposed timeline and other main negotiation issues. The Board confirmed that management should pursue discussions with Bowater.

On December 14, 2006, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson, together with their respective transaction teams, met in New York. At this meeting, Abitibi's and Bowater's regulatory counsel discussed the regulatory aspects of a potential combination. Structuring alternatives for the combination, including the pros and cons of such alternatives, were also discussed at length by the parties. Additionally, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson and their respective Chief Financial Officers, Messrs. Pierre Rougeau and William G. Harvey, met privately to discuss their views as to their companies' respective valuations and the governance and management structure of the resulting entity. During this private discussion, it became clear that there was a difference of opinion in the parties' respective positions regarding valuation, with Abitibi's management team expressing the general view that Abitibi should be valued higher, in part because Abitibi was the larger of the merging companies and, therefore, under a contribution analysis, Abitibi shareholders should receive a greater portion of the combined entity than what was being proposed by Bowater management. However, Bowater's position was that the most appropriate method of valuation was to use the companies' relative market performance over a recent period, such as a 20-day trailing average of the parties' closing stock prices on the NYSE prior to the announcement of the transaction. Although the meeting ended without a resolution, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson agreed to consult with their respective Boards, management teams and financial advisors regarding an appropriate valuation methodology. Following this meeting, Mr. Weaver updated the Abitibi Board on the status of the discussions with Bowater.

On December 15, 2006, at a special telephonic meeting of the Bowater Board, Bowater management again updated the Board on the status of the discussions with Abitibi and the open issues requiring resolution in order to proceed. Over the next several days, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson, as well as Messrs. Rougeau and Harvey had telephone conversations concerning the financial terms of the potential business combination.

On December 20, 2006, Messrs. Rougeau and Harvey, as well as the companies' respective financial advisors, met in New York to discuss potential exchange ratios and valuation methodologies, transaction structure and the domicile for the resulting corporation in the combination. The discussions were at a general level and no agreements were reached.

In late December, Messrs. Weaver and Paterson had telephone conversations regarding valuation and governance issues and the two agreed to meet after the Christmas holidays in the hope of resolving these key issues.

Also in late December, Mr. Paterson met with the party that was then considering the purchase of certain of Bowater's newsprint assets. During this meeting, the potential purchaser expressed continued interest in pursuing a transaction, but did not increase the cash consideration it was willing to pay for the assets.

On December 29, 2006, Messrs. Weaver, Rougeau, Paterson and Harvey met in Jacksonville, Florida to try to resolve key outstanding valuation and governance issues. At this meeting, Abitibi reaffirmed its position that the companies' valuation should not be based on a short-term trailing average as advocated by Bowater, but a methodology largely based on a contribution analysis. Accordingly, Mr. Weaver suggested a transaction in which both companies' shareholders would receive equal ownership percentages in the resultant company. Mr. Paterson, however, indicated that although he remained supportive of a transaction based on a merger of equals concept, any such transaction must provide Bowater stockholders with at least 52% of the ownership of the combined entity. The parties also discussed the possibility of using a fixed exchange ratio or, in the alternative, a floating ratio subject to collars. During this meeting, the parties were unable to resolve the combination's economic framework and agreed to again consult with their respective Boards of Directors and financial advisors.

During the December 29 meeting, the parties also discussed governance issues. It was agreed, subject to definitive Board approval by both companies' Boards of Directors, that the resulting company's senior management team would be selected, to the extent reasonably practicable, equally from both companies and that the resulting company's Board of Directors would have equal representation. Messrs. Weaver and Paterson also discussed their respective roles and responsibilities going forward. Mr. Weaver suggested that he serve as the Chief Executive Officer or Executive Chairman of the resulting entity and that Mr. Paterson serve as the President and Chief Operating Officer or Chief Executive Officer. The two men discussed the oversight roles commensurate with these titles and the division of responsibilities relating to operations and manufacturing, sales and corporate matters. Messrs. Weaver and Paterson also discussed possible locations for the headquarters of the combined company as well as a regional operations and sales office for the new company's manufacturing functions. Possible names of the combined company were also discussed.

At a special meeting of the Abitibi Board held by telephone on January 4, 2007, Mr. Weaver and other members of management updated the Abitibi Board on a number of on-going Abitibi initiatives, including the proposed combination. Mr. Weaver reviewed the status of the most recent discussions in relation to the combination and outlined the various proposals under discussion with respect to board representation from both companies, the management and organizational structure of the combined entity, the name of the combined entity, the location of the combined entity's head office, the need for a regional operations and sales office in the U.S., the domicile of the combined entity and whether it could report in U.S. dollars and under U.S. GAAP, the various shareholder approval requirements with respect to the proposed combination, the respective roles and responsibilities of Messrs. Weaver and Paterson in the combined entity as well as the various valuation methodologies that could be used to arrive at an appropriate exchange ratio. The consequences and respective merits of each proposal were reviewed and discussed as well as the necessity to develop the appropriate integration plan to deliver the synergies expected from the combination. The Board indicated that the respective roles and responsibilities of Messrs. Weaver and Paterson would be agreed upon, subject to the full Boards' definitive approvals, by representatives from the Boards of both of Abitibi and Bowater at a meeting to be arranged between the Abitibi Chair, Mr. Jacques Bougie, another Abitibi director, Mr. John A. Tory, and two Bowater directors.

At a special telephonic meeting of the Bowater Board held on January 5, 2007, Bowater management again updated the Board regarding the two strategic alternatives then under consideration: the proposed combination with Abitibi and the potential sale of certain newsprint assets. With respect to the Abitibi transaction, management asked Bowater's U.S. regulatory counsel to provide the Board with an overview of the regulatory aspects of a potential combination of the companies. The Bowater Board discussed, among other topics, the characteristics of the companies combined shareholder base, structuring considerations and the domicile of the combined company. Management concluded its presentation by providing the Board with detailed financial and operating statistics on Abitibi based on publicly available information. Thereafter, the Board and management discussed the strategic rationale for the possible combination as well as the risks and opportunities of the transaction, including the importance of a comprehensive integration plan to ensure that the anticipated operational synergies from the transaction were captured. Mr. Paterson also explained to the Board the parties' then-current positions regarding valuation and potential exchange ratios that could possibly resolve those issues.

Bowater management then presented to the Bowater Board the latest information on the potential sale of certain Bowater newsprint assets. Mr. Paterson described his recent meeting with the potential buyer of the assets and expressed his disappointment that the party had not increased its offer and that the offer was most likely its best and final proposal. Management then reviewed the execution risks of this transaction and the significant tax issues that impacted the deal's overall value. The Board considered that continued discussions regarding the sale of the company's newsprint assets were time consuming and posed a likelihood of further distracting key management from running the company during a critical period. Moreover, the Board noted that further consideration of this transaction could disrupt the Abitibi process which, at that point, the Board believed to present the greatest opportunity to increase stockholder value. Accordingly, the Bowater Board determined that the newsprint asset sale was not sufficiently attractive to warrant continued negotiations and directed management to cease further work on the project. In light of this decision, and given the potential benefits of the Abitibi combination as well as the progress being made by the respective management teams on the key terms of a combination, the Bowater Board authorized management to continue negotiating with Abitibi to determine whether an agreement could ultimately be reached.

After January 5, 2007, Abitibi, Bowater and their respective advisors intensified their due diligence activities, communications coordination and preparation of draft definitive documentation. In addition, on or around January 8, Mr. Richard B. Evans, a Bowater director, called Mr. Bougie, Abitibi's Chair, to discuss the status of the negotiations as well as governance and other issues related to the potential transaction.

On January 11, 2007, the parties' respective transaction teams, including Messrs. Weaver and Paterson, met in Washington, D.C. to discuss a range of issues in connection with the proposed transaction, including structuring options, governance and regulatory issues. During this meeting, Messrs. Weaver, Rougeau, Paterson and Harvey also met privately and reached several understandings, subject to their Boards' definitive approval, on various open issues. The parties agreed that the combined company's headquarters would reside in Montreal, Canada, with a regional U.S. manufacturing and newsprint customer service office in the southeastern U.S. The size of the combined company's board of directors was also tentatively established at 14 directors, with seven selected from each company inclusive of both companies' chief executive officers. Potential titles and responsibilities for Messrs. Weaver and Paterson in the combined company and possible names of the combined company were further discussed as well.

On January 12, 2007, the Abitibi Board held a special meeting to review a number of transactions involving acquisitions and divestitures of assets and to review the status of the proposed combination with Bowater. Abitibi's Canadian legal advisors on the transaction, Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP, began with a presentation to the Board regarding its fiduciary obligations in connection with considering the proposed combination. The Abitibi Board was apprised by Mr. Weaver of the status of the parties' discussions regarding the combination, including related governance issues. Management made a detailed presentation with respect to Bowater's business, financial and statistical information, results of operations and financial condition, as well as with respect to the financial and strategic impact of the combination, including anticipated synergies, the combined entity's market capitalization, product and asset mix, balance sheet and credit profile. A detailed analysis of the rationale for the combination was also reviewed by the Board together with the respective companies' trading statistics and other merger of equals precedent business combinations. Finally, management presented its views on valuation, including a preliminary implied exchange ratio analysis, a contribution analysis and other valuation considerations. After discussion of the outstanding issues, the Board agreed that Abitibi should continue to move forward in its negotiations with Bowater, subject to satisfactory resolution of all outstanding issues, including the appropriate exchange ratio for the combination.

On January 13, 2007, Abitibi's corporate legal advisors on the transaction, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP provided Bowater's outside corporate legal advisors, Troutman Sanders LLP and Ogilvy Renault LLP, with a draft combination agreement. From January 18 until its execution on January 29, 2007, the parties' legal advisors engaged in negotiations regarding the combination agreement, the plan of arrangement and the other transaction documents. Significant points of discussion included structuring and the domicile of the combined company, the parties' interim operating covenants, conditions to closing and the amount and triggers for payment of termination fees and expenses.

On January 16, 2007, the parties' respective transaction teams, including Messrs. Weaver and Paterson, met in New York for management presentations and to complete business and operational due diligence. Also at that meeting, Messrs. Weaver, Paterson, and for a portion of the meeting, Messrs. Rougeau and Harvey, met privately in an attempt to resolve outstanding issues regarding transaction structure, governance issues and the exchange ratio for the transaction. As part of the discussions on that day, Mr. Weaver proposed to Mr. Paterson an exchange ratio that would result in Abitibi shareholders owning 48% of a combined company and Bowater stockholders (including holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) owning 52% of a combined company.

The Bowater Board met at a specially called meeting in New York on January 19, 2007 and received reports from management on the status of the discussions with Abitibi. In addition, the Board received presentations from management on the preliminary results of its due diligence investigations on the business and operations of Abitibi. Bowater's financial advisors also provided a detailed analysis of the anticipated financial effects of the combination. The Bowater Board, with the financial advisors excused from the discussion, was further advised by its regulatory counsel regarding the U.S. and Canadian regulatory approvals that would be necessary to complete the combination. The Board was also presented with a detailed summary of the initial terms of the combination agreement by Troutman Sanders LLP and Ogilvy Renault LLP. Lastly, the Board was advised by legal counsel with respect to its fiduciary obligations in connection with considering and approving the combination agreement. During the course of the meeting, the Board considered, among other matters, the two companies' strategic fit, potential dilution/accretion to Bowater stockholders, the parties' respective stock prices, the social and governance issues in combining the two companies and the valuation risks and credit rating impacts of the transaction. After a lengthy discussion of the foregoing considerations, management recommended, and the Bowater Board then agreed, to move forward with negotiations with Abitibi.

Later on January 19, 2007, Mr. Paterson informed Mr. Weaver that Bowater could accept the exchange ratio proposed by Mr. Weaver on January 16, 2007, subject to the resolution of remaining issues between the parties and final approval of their respective Boards of Directors.

On January 20, 2007, the Abitibi Board held a special telephonic meeting during which Mr. Weaver updated the Board on the most recent discussions with Bowater. He reported that progress had been made with respect to the negotiation of the exchange ratio as well as the domicile of the combined company. He explained the necessity to obtain Abitibi shareholder approval to the extent the jurisdiction of the combined entity would be Delaware. Mr. Weaver explained that the choice of structure ultimately would be dictated by a number of considerations, such as required shareholder and governmental approvals in Canada and the U.S., market perceptions, financial flexibility and tax considerations, including the fact that the parties wished to provide a tax-deferred transaction for shareholders of both companies in Canada and the U.S. The merits and drawbacks of the proposed structure and combination were reviewed and discussed with the Board. Mr. Weaver then reviewed in more detail the contents of his discussions with Mr. Paterson with respect to their respective responsibilities and roles in the combined company as well as their shared responsibilities. The Board also considered the proposed terms and conditions relating to Abitibi's or Bowater's ability to terminate their agreement after announcement of the transaction and the possible range of termination fees that could be negotiated. Finally, the Board received an update on regulatory matters.

At the request of the companies' Boards of Directors, over the January 20 weekend, representatives of both Boards met in Florida to discuss and resolve, subject to the full Boards' definitive approvals, the governance of the combined entity. Messrs. Bougie and Tory, from Abitibi met with Mr. Arthur R. Sawchuk, Bowater's lead independent director and Mr. Evans, a Bowater director. As part of these meetings, the directors agreed on the respective roles and responsibilities of Messrs. Weaver and Paterson in the combined entity as well as the new entity's board size and composition. Mr. Paterson flew to Florida on January 21, 2007 to meet with Messrs. Bougie and Tory and to discuss their agreement as to his and Mr. Weaver's proposed functions in the merged company. Likewise, on January 22, 2007, Mr. Weaver traveled to New York to meet with Messrs. John A. Rolls, Bruce W. Van Saun and Togo D. West. Later on January 22, there was a telephonic meeting of the Bowater Board in which Messrs. Sawchuk, Evans and Rolls updated the rest of the Board on the weekend's progress as well as their meeting with Mr. Weaver earlier in the day. Also, on January 22, 2007, there was a telephonic meeting of the Abitibi Board in which Messrs. Bougie and Tory updated the other members of the Board on their weekend meetings with the Bowater Board representatives and with Mr. Paterson.

Between January 22 and January 25, 2007, the transaction teams had multiple exchanges regarding the final structure for the combination and exchanged several drafts of the transaction documents to reflect the parties' final agreement on the proposed structure, governance and termination fees, as well as the exchange ratio with respect to the combination.

On January 26, 2007, the Abitibi Board held a special meeting in Montreal to consider the proposed combination. Canadian corporate counsel reiterated its advice to the Board with respect to its fiduciary obligations and Mr. Weaver updated the Board on the status of final discussions. Mr. Weaver and other members of management reviewed the proposed transaction with the Board and reported specifically on the synergies, regulatory and tax aspects of the combination, including the tax impact on Abitibi and on Abitibi's Canadian and U.S. shareholders. The Board then received a detailed presentation of the terms of the combination agreement and the plan of arrangement from Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison. The financial advisors of Abitibi, CIBC World Markets and Credit Suisse, provided the Board with their respective verbal opinions that, based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, matters, procedures, limitations and qualifications that would be set forth in their written opinions and on the basis of the information they had reviewed to date, the proposed exchange ratio to be received by the holders of Abitibi common shares in the combination was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Management concluded by presenting its formal recommendation to the Board and reiterating the strategic rationale for the recommendation. The Abitibi Board then held an in-camera session, in the absence of management and its advisors. Following further discussions, the Abitibi Board unanimously determined that the combination agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the agreement were advisable, fair and in the best interest of Abitibi and the Abitibi shareholders, authorized and approved the arrangement and the other transactions contemplated in the combination agreement and resolved to recommend that Abitibi shareholders adopt the shareholders resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement at the Abitibi Meeting, the whole subject to the approval of the combination by the Bowater Board at its upcoming January 27, 2007 special Board meeting.

On January 27, 2007, the Board of Directors of Bowater held a telephonic meeting to consider the proposed combination. Mr. Paterson and other members of management reviewed the proposed transaction with the Board and reiterated the strategic reasons for the transaction. Management also made final presentations regarding the results of its business and operational due diligence investigations and the financial and strategic implications of the proposed combination. The shareholder approval process for both companies was also reviewed. During the meeting, Goldman Sachs and UBS rendered their respective opinions that, as of the date of the meeting and based upon and subject to the factors, assumptions, matters, procedures, limitations and qualifications set forth in such opinions, the proposed exchange ratio to be received by the holders of Bowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in the combination was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The Board was also presented with a detailed presentation of the final terms of the combination agreement and its related agreements by Troutman Sanders LLP and Ogilvy Renault LLP. The Board was also advised by counsel with respect to its fiduciary obligations in connection with considering and approving the combination agreement and its related agreements as well as other aspects of applicable law. Following further discussion, the Bowater Board, among other things, unanimously approved the combination agreement, declared the combination advisable and in the best interests of the Bowater stockholders and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and resolved to recommend that Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares vote to approve and adopt the combination agreement and the merger.

Between January 27 and January 29, 2007, the transaction teams held numerous telephone conversations and exchanged numerous drafts of transaction documents in order to produce final agreements for execution by the parties.

The combination agreement was signed by the parties early in the morning of January 29, 2007. Before the opening of trading on the NYSE and the TSX on January 29, 2007, Abitibi and Bowater issued a joint press release announcing the combination.

Factors Considered by the Abitibi Board of Directors

At its meeting on January 26, 2007, the Abitibi Board of Directors, after an extensive review and thorough discussion of all facts and issues it considered relevant with respect to the combination, concluded unanimously that the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, including the merger and the arrangement, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Abitibi and the shareholders of Abitibi. The Abitibi Board of Directors authorized and approved the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, including the merger and the arrangement, and agreed to recommend to the shareholders of Abitibi that they vote in favor of adoption of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement at the Abitibi Meeting. The Abitibi Board of Directors unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution approving the plan of arrangement and the combination agreement.

In reaching their conclusion, the members of the Abitibi Board of Directors relied on their personal knowledge of Abitibi and the industry in which it is involved and on the advice of management and Abitibi's legal and financial advisors. The Abitibi Board of Directors also reviewed the information provided by Abitibi and its advisors. The Abitibi Board of Directors considered numerous factors to be in favor of the combination, including, among others, the following:

anticipated synergies from the combination resulting in cost savings and other benefits over time, estimated by management and based in part on analyses developed by an independent third-party consultant to be approximately US$250 million (C$295 million) of annualized cost synergies within two years, which would be in addition to cost-saving measures already being implemented by Bowater and Abitibi separately (for more information, see "The Combination - Estimated Cost Synergies");

the opinions provided by each of CIBC World Markets and Credit Suisse orally on January 26, 2007 and subsequently confirmed in writing on January 29, 2007, each to the effect that, as of the date of the opinions and based upon the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review set forth in the opinions, the 0.06261 Abitibi exchange ratio in the combination was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Abitibi common shares (the full text of the written opinions of CIBC World Markets and Credit Suisse setting forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review in connection with the opinions are attached as Annexes L and M, respectively, to this document);

the current economic, industry and market trends affecting each of Abitibi and Bowater in their respective markets, including those which favor efficient consolidation to improve domestic and global competitiveness;

the all-share consideration offered in connection with the combination provides Abitibi's shareholders with an opportunity to participate in the ownership of a larger, financially stronger company that is expected to be better positioned to respond to opportunities and developments in an industry in which efficiency and global competitiveness are of critical importance;

the proposed governance of AbitibiBowater, including that:

the structure of the combination, which effectively permits Abitibi shareholders who are eligible shareholders to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and make a valid tax election to defer Canadian income tax at the time of the combination;

the combination is expected to be effected on a deferred basis for U.S. federal income tax purposes for shareholders of Abitibi that are U.S. persons;

the approval process for the combination, including the requirement for the approval of holders of 66²/₃% of the votes cast at the Abitibi Meeting by holders of Abitibi common shares and the requirement for the Superior Court of Quebec to approve the arrangement and to issue a final order concerning its approval and the approval of holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding Bowater common stock and the Bowater special voting stock (representing the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) voting as a single class;

The Abitibi Board of Directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors concerning the combination, including the following:

the risk that the estimated synergies will not be achieved in the expected time frame or at all;

the problems inherent in combining the operations of two large companies, including the possibility that management may be distracted from regular business concerns by the need to integrate operations, unforeseen difficulties in integrating operations and systems, problems assimilating and retaining employees and potential adverse short-term effects on operating results of AbitibiBowater;

the timing of receipt and the terms of approvals and actions from relevant governmental and regulatory authorities, including the possibility of delay in obtaining satisfactory approvals or the imposition of unfavorable terms, conditions or concessions on the approvals;

AbitibiBowater will have unconventional provisions in its charter documents imposing a supermajority stockholder voting requirement (75% of issued and outstanding AbitibiBowater common stock) for certain matters, including for certain business combination transactions and the amendment of certain charter provisions;

AbitibiBowater will be limited in the number of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock available for issuance (thus limiting its flexibility for certain corporate actions such as raising additional capital by way of stock issuances or concluding acquisitions in consideration of AbitibiBowater stock) and that limit can only be amended in accordance with the supermajority approval described above;

in a merger of equals, the Abitibi exchange ratio would not provide shareholders of Abitibi with a significant premium to the market price of Abitibi's common shares at the date on which the combination was announced; and the interests that certain Abitibi executive officers and directors may have with respect to the combination in addition to their interests as Abitibi shareholders.

The Abitibi Board of Directors believed that, overall, the potential benefits of the combination to Abitibi and Abitibi's shareholders outweighed these risks and negative factors.

Financial Analyses

In preparing its opinion, CIBC World Markets performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of CIBC World Markets' analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the CIBC World Markets opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its conclusion in the CIBC World Markets opinion, CIBC World Markets considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole. Furthermore, CIBC World Markets believes that selecting any portion of its analyses or the factors it considered, without considering all analyses and factors as a whole, could create a misleading and incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, CIBC World Markets considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Abitibi, Bowater and AbitibiBowater. Any estimates contained in CIBC World Markets' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. Further, no company, transaction or business used in CIBC World Markets' analyses, as a comparison, is identical to Abitibi, or Bowater, their businesses or the combination, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in CIBC World Markets' analyses and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, the analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which Abitibi common shares and Bowater common stock actually may be valued or the prices at which their shares may actually trade in the marketplace. Accordingly, such analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

CIBC World Markets was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific form or amount of consideration offered to holders of Abitibi common shares pursuant to the combination, which consideration was determined through negotiation between Abitibi and Bowater. The decision to enter into the combination and related transactions was solely that of the Board of Directors of Abitibi and Bowater. The CIBC World Markets opinion and CIBC World Markets' related financial analyses were among many factors considered by the Abitibi Board of Directors in its evaluation of the combination and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Abitibi Board of Directors or Abitibi's management with respect to the combination or the Abitibi exchange ratio.

With respect to the other selected data that was reviewed by Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse was advised and assumed that for purposes of its analyses and opinion, such information represented a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the relative future financial performance of Abitibi and Bowater.

With respect to the estimates provided to Credit Suisse by the managements of Abitibi and Bowater of the cost savings and other benefits expected to result from the combination, Credit Suisse was advised by the managements of Abitibi and Bowater, and Credit Suisse assumed, that such estimates were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Abitibi and Bowater as to such cost savings and other benefits and that such estimates would be realized in the times and the amounts indicated to Credit Suisse. Credit Suisse also assumed, with Abitibi's consent, that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the AbitibiBowater common stock would be identical in all respects material to its analyses. Credit Suisse also relied, with Abitibi's consent and without independent verification, upon the estimates of Abitibi and Bowater as to their anticipated utilization of their respective tax attributes. Credit Suisse assumed that certain assets of Abitibi and Bowater will be sold, and that Abitibi will acquire certain assets of an existing partnership and the interests of a minority partner, at the times and in the amounts described to Credit Suisse by managements of Abitibi and Bowater. Credit Suisse assumed that the exchange of Abitibi common shares will be treated as a tax-free exchange for eligible Canadian holders of Abitibi common shares who elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and all U.S. holders of Abitibi common shares pursuant to the Canadian Tax Act and the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, as applicable. Credit Suisse was also not provided with certain information concerning Abitibi and Bowater that Abitibi reasonably considered to be subject to attorney/client privilege or competitively sensitive. Credit Suisse was advised, and assumed, that such information would not adversely affect its analyses or its opinion in any material respect. Credit Suisse assumed, with Abitibi's consent, that, in the course of obtaining any U.S. or Canadian regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the combination, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Abitibi, Bowater or Bowater Canada or the contemplated benefits of the combination, and that the combination will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the combination agreement and the related plan of arrangement, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof.

In addition, Credit Suisse was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Abitibi, Bowater or Bowater Canada, nor was Credit Suisse furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Credit Suisse's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Abitibi common shares of the Abitibi exchange ratio and did not address any other aspect or implication of the combination or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the combination or otherwise. Credit Suisse's opinion was necessarily based upon information made available to it as of the date of the opinion and financial, economic, market and other conditions, including currency exchange rates, as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of the opinion. Credit Suisse did not express any opinion as to what the actual value of the AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, as applicable, would be when issued to the holders of Abitibi common shares pursuant to the combination or the prices at which shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will trade at any time. Credit Suisse's opinion did not address the relative merits of the combination as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to Abitibi, nor did it address Abitibi's underlying business decision to effect the combination. Credit Suisse was not requested to, and did not, solicit third party indications of interest in acquiring all or any part of Abitibi.

Financial Analyses

In preparing its opinion, Credit Suisse performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of Credit Suisse's analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Credit Suisse's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Credit Suisse made qualitative judgments with respect to the analyses and factors that it considered. Credit Suisse arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis. Accordingly, Credit Suisse believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, Credit Suisse considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Abitibi, Bowater and AbitibiBowater. No company, transaction or business used in Credit Suisse's analyses, as a comparison, is identical to Abitibi, or Bowater, their businesses or the combination, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in Credit Suisse's analyses and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Credit Suisse's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Credit Suisse was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific form or amount of consideration payable in the combination, which consideration was determined through negotiation between Abitibi and Bowater, and the decision to enter into the combination and related transactions was solely that of the Board of Directors of Abitibi and Bowater. Credit Suisse's opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by the Abitibi Board of Directors in its evaluation of the combination and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Abitibi Board of Directors or Abitibi's management with respect to the combination or the Abitibi exchange ratio.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses reviewed with the Abitibi Board of Directors in connection with Credit Suisse's opinion dated January 29, 2007. Certain of the financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Credit Suisse's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Credit Suisse's financial analyses.

For purposes of Credit Suisse's analyses and this summary, (1) the term "implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference range" refers to the range, indicated by Credit Suisse's analyses for a particular methodology, of the percentage of the pro forma combined company that is to be owned by Abitibi shareholders following consummation of the combination and (2) the combination has been assumed to provide that Abitibi shareholders will own 48% of the pro forma combined company.

Selected Companies Analysis - Street Estimates. Credit Suisse reviewed certain estimated trading multiples described below for Abitibi, Bowater and selected publicly traded companies that Credit Suisse deemed to be comparable to Abitibi and Bowater. In order to evaluate the exchange ratio provided for in the combination, Credit Suisse then considered a range of enterprise values for Abitibi and Bowater implied by a selected range of these trading multiples. Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to Abitibi or Bowater, the companies included were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations that for purposes of this analysis may be considered similar to certain operations of Abitibi and Bowater.

Based on publicly available research estimates, public filings and other publicly available information, Credit Suisse reviewed certain financial and stock market information for each of Abitibi, Bowater and the following five selected publicly traded companies in the paper and forest products industry, which we refer to as the "Street Estimates." The selected companies chosen were Catalyst Paper Corporation, International Paper Company, Norske Skogindustrier ASA, UPM-Kymmene Corporation and Weyerhaeuser Company.

Credit Suisse reviewed, among other things, enterprise values (calculated as market value, based on closing stock prices on January 24, 2007, plus net debt and certain other adjustments) of the selected companies as multiples of calendar year 2007 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, which we refer to as "EBITDA." Credit Suisse noted that certain adjustments were made to each of the enterprise values of each of the selected companies to account for certain tax refunds, pension contributions, acquisitions and divestitures not in the ordinary course of business. Credit Suisse then applied a range of selected multiples of calendar year 2007 estimated EBITDA derived from the selected companies to corresponding data, based on Street Estimates, of Abitibi and Bowater.

This selected companies analysis, based on the Street Estimates, indicated a range of enterprise value multiples with an average multiple of 7.8x. Based on this analysis, Credit Suisse calculated ranges of estimated enterprise values for Abitibi and Bowater of US$3,716 million to US$4,770 million and US$3,327 million to US$4,271 million, respectively, from which implied equity value ranges were derived. This analysis indicated an implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference range of 6.4% to 33.8%, as compared to the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination.

Selected Companies Analysis - Management Budget. Credit Suisse applied a range of selected multiples for calendar year 2007 estimated EBITDA derived from the selected companies (the same range utilized above in "Selected Companies Analysis - Street Estimates") to corresponding data, based on the selected financial forecasts of Abitibi and Bowater for calendar year 2007, provided to Credit Suisse by the managements of Abitibi and Bowater.

ranges were derived. This analysis indicated an implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference range up to 27.7%, as compared to the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination.

Credit Suisse reviewed, among other things, the price per ton of daily capacity implied by the transaction values in the selected transactions. Operating and financial data used in the selected transactions analysis were based on publicly available information. Credit Suisse made certain adjustments to the enterprise values of several of the target companies. With respect to the transactions identified under the Newsprint category referred to above, the estimated range of price per ton of daily capacity implied by these transactions was US$120 to US$546, with an average of US$279. The Contribution Metrics for calendar year 2005 were based on the publicly available filings of Abitibi and Bowater, and estimated Contribution Metrics for calendar years 2006, 2007 and 2008 were based on the Street Estimates. Credit Suisse noted that the EBITDA and interest components of the Contribution Metrics were adjusted to reflect the status of certain pension plans, other post-employment benefit plans and certain other adjustments, which we refer to as the EBITDA and interest adjustments, and that the enterprise values of Abitibi and Bowater were adjusted to reflect the status of certain pension plans and other post-employment benefit plans as well as net operating loss carry-forwards, tax credits and certain other adjustments, which we refer to as the enterprise value adjustments.

Credit Suisse performed this contribution analysis in order to evaluate how the relative contribution of Abitibi to the combined company, based on the Contribution Metrics, compared to the percentage of total equity in AbitibiBowater that holders of Abitibi common shares would receive as a result of the combination.

Based on the Street Estimates regarding the various Contribution Metrics, the relative contributions of Abitibi to the combined company, indicated an implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference range of 28.9% to 52.5%, with a mean implied Abitibi ownership percentage of 40.5% and a median implied Abitibi ownership percentage of 39.2%, as compared to the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination.

Credit Suisse performed the historical stock trading analysis in order to analyze the consideration to be received by Abitibi shareholders in relation to certain historical prices of the Abitibi common shares and to provide the Abitibi board with information with respect to the relative historical share prices of Abitibi common shares and Bowater common stock. Credit Suisse calculated implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference ranges resulting from such historical trading prices. Credit Suisse noted that the converted per share price of Abitibi common shares to U.S. currency was based on the actual closing currency exchange rate for each trading day.

The high and low historical trading prices for the Abitibi common shares and the Bowater common stock yielded an implied Abitibi ownership percentage reference range of 45.8% to 49.1%, as compared to the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination.

Potential Synergies. Based upon estimates of the potential annual synergies resulting from the combination and the costs to achieve such synergies that, in each case, were prepared by the managements of Abitibi and Bowater, based in part on analyses developed by an independent third-party consultant, and provided to Credit Suisse by the managements of Abitibi and Bowater, Credit Suisse analyzed the potential values to Abitibi shareholders of such synergies. Credit Suisse applied a 5.0x multiple and a 8.1x multiple (which 8.1x multiple represented the blended enterprise value to 2007E EBITDA multiple for Abitibi and Bowater) to calculate a range of potential synergy values to Abitibi shareholders of US$300 million to US$1,394 million based on the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination. Credit Suisse performed the discounted cash flow analysis of the annual potential synergies to evaluate the present value of the range of such potential synergies to Abitibi's shareholders. Credit Suisse also performed a discounted cash flow analysis of potential annual synergies using discount rates of 10% and 12% and terminal value EBITDA multiples (terminal value represents an estimate of the aggregate value of future cash flows attributable to the annual potential synergies subsequent to the projected period) of 5.0x and 8.1x (which 8.1x multiple represented the blended enterprise value to 2007E EBITDA multiple for Abitibi and Bowater) which implied potential synergy values of US$463 million to US$656 million based on the Abitibi ownership percentage of 48% provided for in the combination.

Miscellaneous. Abitibi selected Credit Suisse based on Credit Suisse's qualifications, experience and reputation, and its familiarity with Abitibi and its business. From time to time, Credit Suisse and its affiliates have in the past provided, are currently providing and may in the future provide, investment banking and other financial services to Abitibi and AbitibiBowater, and have in the past provided, and may in the future provide, such services to Bowater, for which Credit Suisse and its affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. Credit Suisse is a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities and provides investment banking advice and other financial services. In the ordinary course of its business, Credit Suisse and its affiliates may acquire, hold or sell, for its and its affiliates' own accounts and the accounts of customers, debt, equity and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of Abitibi, Bowater and AbitibiBowater. Neither Credit Suisse nor its affiliates are currently providing any investment banking or other financial services directly to Bowater or any of its respective affiliates in connection with the combination. Abitibi has agreed to pay Credit Suisse a fee of US$10 million for its financial advisory services in connection with the combination, of which US$1 million became payable upon delivery of Credit Suisse's opinion, US$2 million became payable upon the execution of the combination agreement and the remainder of which is contingent upon completion of the combination. Abitibi also has agreed to reimburse Credit Suisse for its reasonable expenses, including the fees and expenses of legal counsel and any other advisor retained by Credit Suisse. In addition, Abitibi has agreed to indemnify Credit Suisse and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under the United States federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Interests of Abitibi's Directors and Management in the Combination

In considering the recommendation of the Abitibi Board of Directors to vote for the combination, Abitibi shareholders should be aware that Mr. Weaver, members of the Abitibi management team and, to the extent described below, the other members of the Abitibi Board of Directors have agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the combination that differ from those of Abitibi shareholders generally. The Abitibi Board was aware of these agreements and arrangements during its deliberations on the merits of the combination and in determining to recommend to the Abitibi shareholders that they vote in favor of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution.

As provided in the combination agreement, upon the completion of the combination, seven Abitibi designees (including John W. Weaver, President and Chief Executive Officer of Abitibi) will become members of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors. The combination agreement also provides that Mr. Weaver will become Executive Chairman of AbitibiBowater. For a description of the governance arrangements applicable following completion of the combination, see Governance and Management of AbitibiBowater after Completion of the Combination.

Mr. Weaver has received a special grant of 385,000 restricted share units to which he will be entitled upon the meeting of certain performance targets following the completion of the combination related to the achievement of levels of synergies. Mr. Weaver may earn a lesser or greater number of restricted share units to the extent a lesser or greater level of synergies is achieved, as follows:

Synergies	US$200M	US$250M	US$300M
Percentage Vested	80%	100%	120%
Restricted Share Units Vested	308,000	385,000	462,000

Thus, the potential value of the restricted share units upon payout could range from C$0 to C$1,432,200 (assuming for such payout a stock price of C$3.10, which was the closing stock price of Abitibi on April 24, 2007).

Ten of Abitibi's senior officers, including Mr. Weaver, are covered by severance compensation agreements. These agreements provide for a severance package which includes a lump sum payment equal to one and a half to three times the annual compensation of the terminated officer and for the granting of various group and/or pension benefits. Certain of these agreements also provide for the early vesting, and/or the compulsory repurchase by Abitibi, of stock options of Abitibi and the payment of amounts in consideration of non-compete covenants. The severance benefits are payable only upon termination of the officer's employment within two years following a change of control of Abitibi, including upon completion of the combination, whether the termination is made by Abitibi without just cause or by the officer for a good reason, as such terms are defined in the severance compensation agreements.

In addition to a severance compensation agreement on the terms described above, Mr. Weaver also benefits from a severance arrangement with Abitibi, which entitles him to receive a lump sum payment equal to 3 times his annual compensation, a bonus compensation, group and pension benefits and the right to an early vesting of his stock options. The severance benefits are only payable upon termination of Mr. Weaver's employment without just cause in a circumstance other than a circumstance involving a change of control of Abitibi. In the context of the combination, the Board of Directors of Abitibi has agreed to vary the terms of such severance arrangement to allow Mr. Weaver to be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to three years of annual compensation, less one-half of the compensation paid to Mr. Weaver between the completion of the combination and the termination of his employment, provided that Mr. Weaver remains in the employ of AbitibiBowater for at least two years following the completion of the combination (unless his employment is terminated by AbitibiBowater at an earlier date for any reason other than cause). The change in control, compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that the executive officers of Abitibi could receive under the severance compensation agreements and Mr. Weaver's severance arrangement described above, as a result of a termination of employment at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such payments and benefits would be as follows:

	C$	C$	C$	C$	C$	C$	C$	C$

(1) Severance amounts are equal to three times the annual salary and bonus of each officer.

(2) Benefit amounts are estimated based on the assumption that each officer will retain benefits for a three year period. Such benefits include: car; medical exams; financial planning; and health care benefits.

(3) Additional pension liabilities calculated based on discount rate of 5.19% and GAM94 mortality table and on a termination/retirement on August 1, 2007.

(4) All restricted shares units previously granted become vested and have been valued for this purpose based on a per share price of C$3.10 at April 24, 2007, and assuming maximum performance payout of 100%.

- (5) The value of the accelerated vesting of outstanding stock options is based on the excess of the fair market value of the Abitibi shares subject to the options over the aggregate exercise price of such options. As of April 24, 2007, all of the options are out of the money.
- (6) These deferred share units are an accumulation of annual incentives that the officer has elected to defer, which are paid only upon the termination of such officer's employment. Calculations are based on a per share price of C$3.10 at April 24, 2007
- (7) The amounts reported have been expressed in Canadian dollars converted at the exchange rate on April 24, 2007 of C$1.1229 = US$1.00.

The following executive officers will be eligible to receive retention bonuses if they remain with Abitibi through the consummation of the combination. A portion of the retention bonuses are payable as of the date of the consummation of the combination and the remainder are payable in February 2008, assuming the combination is consummated in 2007. The retention bonuses include a special bonus in recognition of the services provided by the executive officers in connection with the signing of the combination agreement, and a retention bonus in recognition of the increased responsibilities and workload of the executive officers in connection with the completion of the combination. No retention bonuses will be paid unless the combination is consummated. The approximate amounts of the retention bonuses expected to be paid to the executive officers are as follows:

Alain Grandmont	$169,200
Thor Thorsteinson	$169,200
Yves Laflamme	$116,000
Paul Planet	$138,000
Total :	$979,288

Abitibi has introduced an enhanced severance policy for certain designated employees, including certain officers, pursuant to which such employees will be entitled to receive a minimum severance payment ranging from nine to 24 months of such employee's base salary in lieu of the amount to which each would normally be entitled under Abitibi's standard severance policies in case of termination of employment at Abitibi's discretion within two years following the announcement of the combination, other than a termination for cause.

The aggregate amount of change in control, compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that the executive officers, directors, key employees and affiliates of Abitibi could receive in the aggregate as a result of the combination is approximately C$48,216,652, taking into account the arrangements described above and certain enhanced severance benefits payable to Abitibi's key employees. With respect to certain change in control severance benefits, the foregoing amount assumes that each such individual's employment was terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments and benefits.

Indemnification and Insurance

The combination agreement provides that AbitibiBowater will:

honor all indemnification agreements between Abitibi and its current and former directors, officers or employees in effect prior to the completion of the combination;

honor all indemnification provisions in the certificate of amalgamation and bylaws of Abitibi and not amend in an adverse manner any of those provisions for six years following completion of the combination; and maintain in effect, if available, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering persons currently covered under Abitibi's policy with respect to events arising prior to the completion of the combination on terms no less favorable to those applicable to the current directors and officers of Abitibi.

Factors Considered by the Bowater Board of Directors

At its meeting on January 27, 2007, after due consideration, the Bowater Board of Directors unanimously:

determined and declared that the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement were consistent with and in furtherance of the long-term business strategy of Bowater and were in the best interests of Bowater and its stockholders, and that the terms of the combination, including the Bowater exchange ratio, were fair to the stockholders of Bowater from a financial point of view; approved the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and the arrangement; and recommended that Bowater stockholders and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares vote for the approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger of Merger Sub with and into Bowater, resulting in Bowater becoming a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater.

In approving the combination agreement and making these determinations and recommendations, the Bowater Board of Directors consulted with Bowater management as well as outside legal counsel and financial advisors and considered a number of factors. This discussion of the information and factors considered by the Bowater Board of Directors in making its decision is not intended to be exhaustive but includes all material factors considered by the Bowater Board of Directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the combination and the complexity of these matters, the Bowater Board of Directors did not find it useful to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, individual members of the Bowater Board of Directors may have given different weight to different factors.

The Bowater Board of Directors considered the following positive factors, among others, relating to the combination:

anticipated synergies and efficiencies from the combination resulting in cost savings and other benefits over time, estimated by management and based in part on analyses developed by an independent third-party consultant to be approximately US$250 million (C$295 million) of annualized cost synergies within two years, which would be in addition to cost-saving measures already being implemented by Bowater and Abitibi separately (for more information, see The Combination Estimated Cost Synergies);

the Board's belief that AbitibiBowater would be a leader in the publication papers industry, stronger both operationally and financially, and better able to meet changing customer needs, compete more effectively in an increasingly global market, adapt to lower demand for newsprint in North America and deliver increased value to its stockholders;

the Board's belief that AbitibiBowater would have a more efficient manufacturing platform as compared to Bowater on a stand-alone basis, thereby allowing it to bring its customers better product quality, new product innovation and improved logistical flexibility;

the financial analysis of Goldman Sachs and UBS presented to the Bowater Board of Directors on January 27, 2007 and the opinions of Goldman Sachs and UBS delivered to the Bowater Board of Directors and confirmed by delivery of a written opinion of Goldman Sachs dated January 29, 2007, and a written opinion of UBS dated as of January 27, 2007, that as of the respective dates of such opinions, and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations described in such opinions, the Bowater exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater common stock and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding at the date of the opinion (the full text of the opinions setting forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinions, are attached as Annexes N and O to this document);

the all-share consideration offered in connection with the combination would provide Bowater stockholders (including the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) with an opportunity to participate in the ownership of a larger, financially stronger company that is expected to be better positioned to respond to opportunities and developments in an industry in which efficiency and global competitiveness are of critical importance;

the relative percentage ownership of former Bowater stockholders (including holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) in AbitibiBowater as compared to former Abitibi shareholders;

the proposed composition of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors, including the fact that David J. Paterson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bowater, would be President and Chief Executive Officer of AbitibiBowater, that 50% of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors would consist of individuals selected from among the Bowater Board of Directors, and that one such director would serve as co-lead outside director of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors;

the approval process for the combination, including the requirement for the approval of 66²/₃% of the votes cast at the Abitibi Meeting by holders of Abitibi common shares and the requirement for the Superior Court of Quebec to approve the arrangement and to issue a final order concerning its approval and the approval of holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding Bowater common stock and the Bowater special voting stock (representing the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) voting as a single class;

the provisions included in the AbitibiBowater organizational documents that ensure that the chairman and chief executive officer positions cannot be changed prior to the third annual meeting of AbitibiBowater following completion of the combination without a supermajority vote of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors; and the jurisdiction of incorporation of AbitibiBowater.

The Bowater Board of Directors considered the following negative factors relating to the combination:

the risk that anticipated synergies and efficiencies may not be achieved in the expected time frame in whole or in part;

the problems inherent in merging the operations of two large companies, including the possibility that management may be distracted from regular business concerns by the need to integrate operations, unforeseen difficulties in integrating operations and systems, problems assimilating and retaining employees, and potential adverse short-term effects on operating results of AbitibiBowater; and the timing of receipt and the terms of approvals and actions from relevant governmental authorities, including the possibility of delay in obtaining satisfactory approvals or the imposition of unfavorable terms or conditions on the approvals.

The Bowater Board of Directors also considered the following factors relating to the combination:

that the headquarters of AbitibiBowater will be in Montreal, although AbitibiBowater would have a significant and continuing presence in the United States;

the review and analysis of each of Abitibi's and Bowater's business, financial condition, earnings, risks and prospects, including Bowater's increased weighting in the North American newsprint market segment as well as enhanced Canadian operations, resulting from the combination of Bowater's business with that of Abitibi;

the historical market prices and trading information with respect to the shares of Bowater common stock and of Abitibi common shares;

the comparisons of historical financial measures for Bowater and Abitibi, including earnings, return on capital and cash flows, and comparisons of historical operational measures for Bowater and Abitibi;

current industry, economic and market conditions, and the prospects of further restructuring and consolidation in the newsprint market segment specifically;

other potential strategic alternatives, with or without other potential partners, which were, or may have been, available to Bowater;

the interests that certain Bowater executive officers and directors may have with respect to the combination in addition to their interests as Bowater stockholders; and the expectation that U.S. holders of Bowater common stock generally will not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of their exchange of Bowater common stock for AbitibiBowater common stock.

The Bowater Board of Directors believed that, overall, the potential benefits of the combination to Bowater and Bowater's stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outweighed the risks.

Opinions of Bowater's Financial Advisors

The Bowater Board of Directors engaged Goldman Sachs and UBS to act as its financial advisors in connection with the combination. The Bowater Board of Directors selected Goldman Sachs and UBS because each firm is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the combination. Bowater benefited both from the combined expertise of the two firms, which collaborated in performing the financial analyses relating to their opinions, and the separate opinions rendered by each firm which demonstrated each firm's independent conclusion, as further described herein, that as of the date of its opinion, the Bowater exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding as of the date of its opinion. The Board of Directors of Bowater considered the qualifications and reputations of both Goldman Sachs and UBS in considering that it could rely on the opinions of Goldman Sachs and UBS, notwithstanding that a portion of the fees payable to Goldman Sachs and UBS are contingent upon the consummation of the combination.

Opinion of Goldman, Sachs & Co.

Goldman Sachs rendered its oral opinion to the Bowater Board of Directors, that was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated as of January 29, 2007, that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the Bowater exchange ratio pursuant to the combination agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated January 29, 2007, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex N hereto. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Bowater Board of Directors in connection with the Bowater Board of Directors' consideration of the combination. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Bowater common stock or outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should vote with respect to the combination.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

the combination agreement;

annual reports to stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Bowater for the five fiscal years ended December 31, 2005; annual reports to shareholders of Abitibi filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities for the five fiscal years ended December 31, 2005; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Bowater; certain interim reports to shareholders of Abitibi filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities; certain other communications from Bowater and Abitibi to their respective stockholders and shareholders; certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the management of Bowater; certain estimates for Abitibi prepared by the management of Abitibi; certain financial estimates for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the respective managements of Bowater and Abitibi utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007; and estimates of certain cost savings and operating synergies to result from the combination prepared by the managements of Bowater and Abitibi and based in part on analyses developed by an independent third-party consultant.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior management of Bowater and Abitibi regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the combination and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Bowater and Abitibi. In addition, Goldman Sachs reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the shares of Bowater common stock and the Abitibi common shares, compared certain financial and stock market information for Bowater and Abitibi with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the paper and forest products sector and other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

Goldman Sachs relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering the opinion described above. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed, with Bowater's consent, that:

the financial analyses and forecasts for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the management of Bowater that are referred to in the seventh bullet point above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Bowater;

the estimates of certain cost savings and operating synergies referred to above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Bowater and Abitibi;

each Bowater Canada exchangeable share outstanding as of the date of Goldman Sachs' opinion was the equivalent of a share of Bowater common stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Bowater common stock, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law;

the new Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be issued to the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding as of the date of Goldman Sachs' opinion would preserve for such holders the additional tax deferral features referred to above; and each new Bowater Canada exchangeable share would be, when issued, the equivalent of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be issued in the combination, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law.

Goldman Sachs assumed that the financial analyses and forecasts for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the management of Bowater that are referred to in the seventh bullet point in the list of items reviewed by Goldman Sachs, including the estimates of cost savings and operating synergies referred to above, would be realized. Goldman Sachs further assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the combination would be obtained without any adverse effect on AbitibiBowater, Bowater, Abitibi or Bowater Canada or on the expected benefits of the combination in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Bowater or Abitibi or any of their respective subsidiaries nor was Goldman Sachs furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Bowater to engage in the combination nor did Goldman Sachs express any opinion as to the prices at which any of the AbitibiBowater common stock, the Bowater common stock, the Abitibi common shares, the outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or the new Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will trade at any time.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates, as part of their investment banking business, are continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and other transactions as well as for estate, corporate and other purposes. Goldman Sachs has acted as financial advisor to Bowater in connection with, and has participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the combination. In addition, Goldman Sachs has provided services to Bowater and Abitibi from time to time. Other than Goldman Sachs engagement as Bowater's co-financial advisor in connection with the combination and the investment banking fees to be paid to Goldman Sachs under that engagement, Goldman Sachs has not received any fees for investment banking services to Bowater during the past two years and there are no future material arrangements currently contemplated between Goldman Sachs and Bowater. Goldman Sachs may also provide investment banking services to Abitibi/Bowater, Bowater and Abitibi in the future. In connection with the above-described services, Goldman Sachs has received, and may receive, compensation.

Goldman Sachs is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman Sachs and its affiliates may provide such services to Bowater, Abitibi and their respective affiliates, may actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of Bowater, Abitibi and Bowater Canada for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions of such securities.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated July 1, 2006, Bowater engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with the combination. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, Bowater has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee for its services as financial advisor equal to 0.36% of the sum of the value of Bowater's fully-diluted common equity as of the completion of the combination and the total principal amount of Bowater's indebtedness for borrowed money as set forth on Bowater's then most recent consolidated balance sheet as of the completion of the combination. Based on the estimated value of Bowater's fully-diluted common equity as of May 4, 2007, using the closing price per share of Bowater common stock on May 4, 2007 of US$22.22 and taking stock options into account using the treasury stock method, and the total principal amount of Bowater's indebtedness for borrowed money as of March 31, 2007, the aggregate transaction fee earned by Goldman Sachs would be approximately US$12.8 million. Approximately US$3.2 million of Goldman Sachs' fee was payable upon the announcement of the combination and the remainder will be payable upon, and is contingent upon, consummation of the combination. In addition, Bowater has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the United States federal securities laws.

Opinion of UBS Investment Bank

UBS rendered its opinion to the Bowater Board of Directors that, as of January 27, 2007, and based upon and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations described in the opinion, the Bowater exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding as of the date of UBS' opinion.

The full text of the opinion of UBS, dated January 27, 2007, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex O hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The opinion of UBS was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding as of the date of the opinion, of the Bowater exchange ratio and did not address any other aspect of the combination or any related transaction. The opinion of UBS also did not address the relative merits of the combination as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might have been available with respect to Bowater or Bowater's underlying business decision to effect the combination or any related transaction. UBS provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Bowater Board of Directors in connection with the Bowater Board of Directors consideration of the combination. The UBS opinion is not a recommendation to any holder of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as to how such holder should vote or act with respect to the combination or any related transaction. Holders of Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are encouraged to read UBS opinion carefully in its entirety. conducted discussions with members of the senior managements of Bowater and Abitibi concerning the businesses and financial prospects of Bowater and Abitibi; considered certain pro forma effects of the combination on the financial statements of AbitibiBowater for calendar years 2007, 2008 and 2009 and certain pro forma effects of the combination relative to the projected earnings per share of Bowater common stock for calendar years 2008 and 2009 on a stand-alone basis; reviewed the combination agreement; and conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered such other information, as UBS deemed necessary or appropriate.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

In connection with its review, with the consent of the Bowater Board of Directors, UBS did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information reviewed by UBS for the purpose of its opinion and, with the consent of the Bowater Board of Directors, relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, with the consent of the Bowater Board of Directors, UBS did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bowater or Abitibi, nor was it furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. UBS assumed, at the direction of the Bowater Board of Directors, that:

the financial forecasts and estimates for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the management of Bowater that are referred to in the third and fourth bullet points above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Bowater as to the future performance of Bowater and Abitibi;

the estimates of synergies to result from the combination referred to above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Bowater and Abitibi;

each outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share was the equivalent of a share of Bowater common stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Bowater common stock, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law;

the new Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be issued to the holders of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares would preserve for such holders the additional tax deferral features referred to above; and

each new Bowater Canada exchangeable share would be, when issued, the equivalent of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be issued in the combination, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law.

In addition, UBS assumed, with the approval of the Bowater Board of Directors, that the financial forecasts and estimates for Bowater and Abitibi prepared by the management of Bowater referred to in the third and fourth bullet points in the list of items reviewed by UBS and the estimates of synergies to result from the combination referred to above and reviewed by UBS would be achieved at the times and in the amounts projected. UBS also assumed, with the consent of the Bowater Board of Directors, that the combination would qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a transfer of property described in Section 351 of the Code. UBS' opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to UBS as of, the date of its opinion.

UBS' opinion did not address the relative merits of the combination or any related transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might have been available with respect to Bowater or Bowater's underlying business decision to effect the combination or any related transaction. UBS' opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Bowater common stock or outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as to how such holder should vote or act with respect to the combination or any related transaction. At the direction of the Bowater Board of Directors, UBS was not asked to, nor did it, offer any opinion as to the terms, other than the Bowater exchange ratio to the extent expressly specified in its opinion, of the combination agreement or any related documents or the form of the combination or any related transaction. UBS expressed no opinion as to what the value of AbitibiBowater common stock or new Bowater Canada exchangeable shares would be when issued pursuant to the combination or the prices at which AbitibiBowater common stock, Bowater common stock, Abitibi common shares, outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or new Bowater Canada exchangeable shares would trade at any time. In rendering its opinion, UBS assumed, with the consent of the Bowater Board of Directors, that:

the final executed form of the combination agreement did not differ in any material respect from the draft that UBS had examined; the parties to the combination agreement would comply with all the material terms of the combination agreement; and the combination would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the combination agreement without any adverse waiver or amendment of any material term or condition thereof.

UBS also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the combination would be obtained without any material adverse effect on AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater, Bowater Canada and/or the combination. UBS was not authorized to solicit and did not solicit indications of interest in a business combination with Bowater from any party.

Under the terms of UBS' engagement, Bowater agreed to pay UBS a fee for its services equal to 0.24% of the sum of the value of Bowater's fully-diluted common equity as of the completion of the combination and the total principal amount of Bowater's indebtedness for borrowed money as set forth on Bowater's then most recent consolidated balance sheet as of the completion of the combination. Based on the estimated value of Bowater's fully-diluted common equity as of May 4, 2007, using the closing price per share of Bowater common stock on May 4, 2007 of US$22.22 and taking stock options into account using the treasury stock method, and the total principal amount of Bowater's indebtedness for borrowed money as of March 31, 2007, the aggregate transaction fee earned by UBS would be approximately US$8.5 million. US$2 million of UBS' fee was payable by Bowater in connection with UBS' rendering its fairness opinion and the remainder of UBS' fee is contingent upon consummation of the combination. In addition, Bowater has agreed to reimburse UBS for its reasonable expenses, including fees and disbursements of its counsel, and to indemnify UBS against liabilities, including liabilities under the United States federal securities laws, relating to or arising out of its engagement as financial advisor to Bowater.

UBS, as part of its investment banking and financial advisory business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, strategic transactions, corporate restructurings, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

In the past, UBS and its affiliates have provided investment banking services to Bowater and Abitibi unrelated to the proposed combination, for which UBS and its affiliates have received compensation. In addition to UBS' engagement as Bowater's co-financial advisor in connection with the combination and the investment banking fees to be paid to UBS under that engagement, UBS has received approximately US$1.1 million of fees for investment banking services to Bowater during the past two years. There are no future material arrangements currently contemplated between UBS and Bowater. In addition, as of the date of UBS' opinion, UBS or an affiliate was a participant in a credit facility of Bowater for which it had received and continued to receive fees and interest payments.

In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers, securities of Bowater, Abitibi and/or Bowater Canada and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Financial Analyses used by Goldman Sachs and UBS

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by Goldman Sachs and UBS to the Bowater Board of Directors in connection with rendering the independent opinions described above. The following summary does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by either Goldman Sachs or UBS or all of the factors considered by either Goldman Sachs or UBS in connection with their respective opinions. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs and UBS. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of the financial analyses of Goldman Sachs and UBS. In connection with rendering the independent opinions described above, Goldman Sachs and UBS collaborated in performing each of the financial analyses summarized below. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before January 26, 2007 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Relative Trading Ratio Analysis. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated historical daily trading ratios by dividing the closing prices of Abitibi common shares by the closing price, on each corresponding date, of shares of Bowater common stock over the three-year period ending on January 26, 2007, the last trading day prior to the execution of the combination agreement to provide background information on the prices at which Bowater common stock and Abitibi common shares have historically traded. For perspective on the relative prices at which Bowater common stock and Abitibi common shares have historically traded, Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated the average of these historical daily trading ratios for the ten-trading day, twenty-trading day, one-month, two-month, three-month, six-month, one-year and three-year periods ended January 26, 2007, and derived an implied exchange ratio of shares of Bowater common stock per Abitibi common share based on these historical average daily trading ratios. In addition, for each of these periods Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated adjusted average trading ratios, representing the applicable historical trading exchange ratio multiplied by 0.52, the Bowater exchange ratio, in order to derive an implied exchange ratio of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock per Abitibi common share based on these historical average daily trading ratios. For perspective on the estimated percentage of AbitibiBowater common stock to be owned by former Bowater stockholders as a result of the combination, based on the relative exchange ratio in the combination of 0.12040 shares of Bowater common stock per Abitibi common shares (which exchange ratio equates to 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock per Abitibi common share), Goldman Sachs and UBS then calculated the implied percentage, based on these historical average daily trading ratios, of the outstanding common stock of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination that would be held by the former holders of Bowater common stock. The following table presents the results of these calculations:

Period	Average Trading Ratio (Shares of Bowater common stock per Abitibi common share)	Adjusted Average Trading Ratio (Shares of AbitibiBowater common stock per Abitibi common share)	Implied Ownership of AbitibiBowater by Bowater stockholders (including holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares)
3-Year	0.1426	0.0742	47.8%
1-Year	0.1271	0.0661	50.6%
6-Month	0.1169	0.0608	52.7%
3-Month	0.1129	0.0587	53.6%
2-Month	0.1116	0.0580	53.9%
1-Month	0.1165	0.0606	52.8%
20 Trading Day	0.1173	0.0610	52.6%
10 Trading Day	0.1187	0.0617	52.3%
January 26, 2007	0.1189	0.0618	52.3%

Goldman Sachs and UBS reviewed the implied ownership percentages of AbitibiBowater common stock by Bowater stockholders for the average trading ratios calculated for each period described above. Goldman Sachs and UBS compared these percentages to the expected 52% ownership of AbitibiBowater common stock by Bowater stockholders following the combination.

Relative Enterprise Value Multiples Analysis. For perspective on the relative valuations of Bowater and Abitibi, Goldman Sachs and UBS compared certain valuation multiples of Bowater to the corresponding valuation multiples of Abitibi. For each of Bowater and Abitibi, Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated its enterprise value as of January 26, 2007, by summing the value of its common equity, calculated by multiplying the closing price per share of its common stock on January 26, 2007 by the number of its fully diluted common shares outstanding, including vested restricted stock and using the treasury stock method for stock options, plus net debt, calculated as total debt at book value, less cash and cash equivalents, plus book value of minority interest. In addition, to compare the valuation multiples of Bowater and Abitibi that are implied by the relative exchange ratio in the combination of 0.12040 shares of Bowater common stock per Abitibi common share (which exchange ratio equates to 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock per Abitibi common share), Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated an implied enterprise value for Abitibi as of January 26, 2007 using the US$2.67 price per Abitibi common share implied by the closing price per share of Bowater common stock of US$22.15 on January 26, 2007 multiplied by 0.12040. For each of Bowater and Abitibi, Goldman Sachs and UBS then calculated the following multiples:

enterprise value as a multiple of EBITDA for calendar year 2006; enterprise value as a multiple of annual average EBITDA for calendar years 2004-2006; enterprise value as a multiple of estimated EBITDA for each of calendar years 2007 and 2008; and enterprise value as a multiple of estimated EBITDA for calendar year 2007 utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007.

Table of Contents

Historical EBITDA utilized by Goldman Sachs and UBS for purposes of this analysis was based on information provided by the managements of Bowater and Abitibi and excluded non-recurring items. Estimated EBITDA for Bowater and Abitibi for 2007 and 2008 using Bowater management's pricing assumptions and estimated EBITDA for Bowater and Abitibi for 2007 using third party pricing assumptions, were provided by the management of Bowater. The following table presents the results of these calculations:

	Bowater	Abitibi	Abitibi
Enterprise Value (1/26/07) / EBITDA	at Market	at Market	at Offer
2006A	9.8x	9.8x	9.8x
2004-2006 Average	8.9x	9.1x	9.1x
2007E (management)	8.4x	8.1x	8.2x
2007E (management with third party pricing)	8.0x	7.7x	7.7x
2008E (management)	7.6x	7.3x	7.3x

Goldman Sachs and UBS compared the valuation multiples for Abitibi based on the implied enterprise value of Abitibi in the combination to the valuation multiples for Abitibi based on the enterprise value of Abitibi as of January 26, 2007, and to the valuation multiples for Bowater based on the enterprise value of Bowater as of January 26, 2007.

Contribution Analysis. To compare how the relative contribution of Bowater to AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination, based on the various measurement factors described below, compared to the percentage of AbitibiBowater common stock to be received by holders of Bowater common stock as a result of the combination, Goldman Sachs and UBS performed a relative contribution analysis to compare the relative historical and estimated future financial operating implied contributions of Bowater and Abitibi to AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination on a percentage basis based on:

EBITDA for calendar years 2004, 2005 and 2006, estimated EBITDA for calendar years 2007 and 2008 using Bowater management's pricing assumptions and estimated EBITDA for calendar year 2007 utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007; and EBITDA less capital expenditures for calendar years 2004, 2005 and 2006, estimated EBITDA less capital expenditures for calendar years 2007 and 2008 using Bowater management's pricing assumptions and estimated EBITDA less capital expenditures for calendar year 2007 utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007.

Goldman Sachs and UBS applied the relative EBITDA and EBITDA less capital expenditures contribution percentages for Bowater and Abitibi for each period to the aggregate enterprise value calculated for Bowater and Abitibi as of January 26, 2007, and then subtracted the respective net debt of each of Bowater and Abitibi from the implied enterprise value for each to derive an ascribed allocation of AbitibiBowater equity to Bowater stockholders as a percentage of total AbitibiBowater equity, which is presented in the table below under the heading Corresponding Bowater Equity Allocation. Historical EBITDA and EBITDA less capital expenditures utilized by Goldman Sachs and UBS for purposes of the contribution analysis were based on information provided by the managements of Bowater and Abitibi and excluded non-recurring items. Estimated EBITDA for Bowater and Abitibi for 2007 and 2008 using Bowater management's pricing assumptions and estimated EBITDA for 2007 using third party pricing assumptions, were provided by the management of Bowater. For each of these analyses, Abitibi financial information was converted into U.S. dollars using exchange rates of 0.7698, 0.8260, 0.8817, 0.85 and 0.85 U.S. dollars per Canadian dollar for 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008, respectively. The contribution analysis that Goldman Sachs and UBS performed did not reflect any synergies, purchase accounting adjustments or combination-related costs resulting from the consummation of the combination.

Goldman Sachs and UBS reviewed the ascribed percentage allocation to Bowater stockholders of the total equity of AbitibiBowater for each set of relative EBITDA and EBITDA less capital expenditures contribution percentages. Goldman Sachs and UBS compared these percentages to the expected 52% ownership of AbitibiBowater common stock by Bowater stockholders following the combination.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Goldman Sachs and UBS analyzed the potential difference in value between a share of Bowater common stock without giving effect to the combination and the 0.52 shares of common stock of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination to be issued in exchange for each share of Bowater common stock in the combination. In connection with this analysis, Goldman Sachs and UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis to determine the present value of the future unlevered after-tax cash flows of each of Bowater and Abitibi using estimates for each company for fiscal years 2007 through 2009 prepared by the management of Bowater. Goldman Sachs and UBS also performed a discounted cash flow analysis to determine the present value of the future estimated after-tax synergies (based on the synergy estimates referred to above), net of cost to achieve.

Bowater. Goldman Sachs and UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis on Bowater using estimates for fiscal years 2007 through 2009 prepared by the management of Bowater. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated present values as of January 1, 2007 of unlevered after-tax free cash flows for Bowater for fiscal years 2007 through 2009 using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 10.5%. The estimates of annual unlevered after-tax cash flows of Bowater used by Goldman Sachs and UBS did not include annual estimates for periods after December 31, 2009. Accordingly, for purposes of their analysis, Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated an assumed value, as of December 31, 2009, of the unlevered after-tax cash flows for all periods after December 31, 2009. This assumed value is referred to as the terminal value. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated a range of terminal values for Bowater as of the end of fiscal year 2009 based on multiples ranging from 5.5 to 7.0 times estimated EBITDA for fiscal year 2009. The calculated terminal values were then discounted back to January 1, 2007, using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 10.5%. For any combination of discount rate and calculated terminal value, the sum of the present value of the unlevered after-tax free cash flows of Bowater and the present value of the terminal value results in an implied enterprise value for Bowater. For each combination of discount rate and calculated terminal value, Goldman Sachs and UBS deducted from the implied enterprise value of Bowater derived through the discounted cash flow analysis described above Bowater's actual net debt as of December 31, 2006 to calculate an implied equity value of Bowater for that discount rate and calculated terminal value. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated an implied equity value per share of Bowater common stock as the implied equity value of Bowater divided by Bowater's fully diluted common shares outstanding, including vested restricted stock and using the treasury stock method for stock options. At the direction of the management of Bowater, Goldman Sachs and UBS excluded any potential benefit from the impact of net operating losses for tax purposes from the discounted cash flow analysis of Bowater due to uncertainty on the part of the management of Bowater as to the timing of future utilization of such net operating losses. This analysis indicated a range of implied present values per share of Bowater common stock of approximately US$18 to US$31.

Abitibi. Goldman Sachs and UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis on Abitibi using estimates for fiscal years 2007 through 2009 prepared by the management of Bowater. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated present values as of January 1, 2007 of unlevered after-tax free cash flows for Abitibi for 2007 through 2009 using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 10.5%. The estimates of annual unlevered after-tax cash flows of Abitibi used by Goldman Sachs and UBS did not include annual estimates for periods after December 31, 2009. Accordingly, for purposes of their analysis, Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated a terminal value of the future cash flows of Abitibi as of December 31, 2009. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated a range of terminal values for Abitibi as of the end of fiscal year 2009 based on multiples ranging from 5.5 to 7.0 times estimated EBITDA for fiscal year 2009. The calculated terminal values were then discounted back to January 1, 2007, using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 10.5%. For any combination of discount rate and calculated terminal value, the sum of the present value of the unlevered after-tax free cash flows of Abitibi and the present value of the terminal value results in an implied enterprise value for Abitibi. For each combination of discount rate and calculated terminal value, Goldman Sachs and UBS deducted from the implied enterprise value of Abitibi derived through the discounted cash flow analysis described above Abitibi's actual net debt as of December 31, 2006 to calculate an implied equity value of Abitibi for that discount rate and calculated terminal value. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated an implied equity value per common share of Abitibi as the implied equity value of Abitibi, divided by Abitibi's fully diluted common shares outstanding using the treasury stock method for stock options. At the direction of the management of Bowater, Goldman Sachs and UBS excluded any potential benefit from the impact of net operating losses for tax purposes from the discounted cash flow analysis of Abitibi due to uncertainty on the part of the management of Bowater as to the timing of future utilization of such net operating losses. This analysis indicated a range of implied present values per Abitibi common share of approximately US$1.25 to US$3.50.

Synergies. Goldman Sachs and UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis as of January 1, 2007, of the after-tax estimated synergies referred to above, net of cost to achieve, to be realized from and after 2008 as a result of the completion of the combination, which for this analysis was assumed to occur on December 31, 2007. For periods subsequent to 2010, Goldman Sachs and UBS assumed a growth rate into perpetuity of between 0.0% and 2.0% of the after-tax synergies estimated for 2010. Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated a range of present values as of January 1, 2007 of the estimated after-tax synergies, net of estimated cost to achieve, using discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 10.5%, of approximately US$1.3 billion to US$1.8 billion.

Pro Forma for the Combination Including Synergies. For each combination of discount rate and terminal value multiple, Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated an implied present value of equity of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination and estimated synergies equal to the sum of:

the implied equity value of Bowater derived from the discounted cash flow analysis of Bowater for such combination of discount rate and terminal value multiple;

the implied equity value of Abitibi derived from the discounted cash flow analysis of Abitibi for such combination of discount rate and terminal value multiple; and the present value of the after-tax estimated synergies referred to above, net of estimated cost to achieve, to be realized from the combination for such discount rate and assuming a growth rate into perpetuity of 1.0% for periods subsequent to 2010 of the after-tax synergies estimated for 2010.

Goldman Sachs and UBS calculated a range of implied present values of equity per share of the common stock of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination and estimated synergies equal to the implied present values of equity of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination and estimated synergies divided by the expected number of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock expected to be outstanding following the combination. In order to compare the implied present value of the AbitibiBowater common stock to be issued per share of Bowater common stock to the implied present value per share of Bowater common stock, Goldman Sachs and UBS multiplied each point in the range by 0.52, the Bowater exchange ratio. The following table presents the results of this comparison:

2009 Terminal EBITDA Multiple ⁽¹⁾	Illustrative Present Value of Equity per Share of Bowater common stock of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the Combination and Estimated Synergies			Percentage DCF Value Accretion to Bowater Stand-alone DCF Value
	Discount Rate			Discount Rate
	9.5%	10.0%	10.5%	9.5%	10.0%	10.5%
5.5x	US$ 30.07	US$ 28.34	US$ 26.73	57.0%	53.5%	50.3%
6.0x	US$ 34.83	US$ 33.04	US$ 31.37	50.2%	47.1%	44.4%
6.5x	US$ 39.60	US$ 37.75	US$ 36.01	45.3%	42.7%	40.3%
7.0x	US$ 44.37	US$ 42.45	US$ 40.65	41.8%	39.4%	37.3%

Pro Forma Combination Analysis. Goldman Sachs and UBS prepared a pro forma analysis for calendar years 2008 and 2009 to analyze the potential financial impact of the combination. Goldman Sachs and UBS prepared this analysis using estimates of net income for Bowater and for AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination, in each case prepared by management of Bowater. For calendar years 2008 and 2009, Goldman Sachs and UBS compared estimated net income for Bowater, on a stand-alone basis, divided by Bowater's fully diluted common shares outstanding to estimated net income per share of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination, including synergies before estimated cost to achieve. For comparison purposes, the estimated net income per share of AbitibiBowater pro forma for the combination, including synergies before estimated cost to achieve, was calculated to reflect the net income of AbitibiBowater per share of Bowater common stock (taking into account the Bowater exchange ratio). Based on this analysis, Goldman Sachs and UBS concluded that, based on the assumptions and estimates provided by the management of Bowater, the combination would be accretive to Bowater's earnings per share in each of 2008 and 2009.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth herein, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the opinions of Goldman Sachs and UBS. In arriving at their respective fairness determinations, Goldman Sachs and UBS each separately considered the results of all of their analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by them. Rather, Goldman Sachs and UBS each separately made their respective determinations as to fairness on the basis of their experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of their analyses.

Goldman Sachs and UBS prepared the analyses described herein for purposes of providing their respective opinions to the Bowater Board of Directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of Bowater common stock and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding as of the date of their opinions, of the Bowater exchange ratio. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Bowater, Abitibi, AbitibiBowater, Goldman Sachs, UBS or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasted.

The Bowater exchange ratio was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Bowater and Abitibi and was approved by Bowater's Board of Directors. Goldman Sachs and UBS provided advice to Bowater during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs and UBS did not, however, recommend any specific exchange ratio to Bowater or its Board of Directors or that any specific exchange ratio constituted the only appropriate exchange ratio for the combination.

As described above, the respective opinions of Goldman Sachs and UBS to the Bowater Board of Directors were one of many factors taken into consideration by the Bowater Board of Directors in making its determination to approve the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement. The summary contained herein does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs and UBS in connection with their respective fairness opinions and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion of Goldman Sachs and the opinion of UBS, attached as Annexes N and O, respectively.

Interests of Bowater's Directors and Management in the Combination

In considering the recommendation of the Bowater Board of Directors to vote for the adoption of the combination agreement, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should be aware that members of the Bowater Board of Directors and members of the Bowater management team have agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the combination that differ from those of Bowater stockholders generally. The Bowater Board of Directors was aware of these agreements and arrangements during its deliberations on the merits of the combination and in determining to recommend to the Bowater stockholders that they vote for the adoption of the combination agreement.

As provided in the combination agreement, upon the completion of the combination, seven Bowater designees (including David J. Paterson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bowater) will become members of the AbitibiBowater Board of Directors. The combination agreement also provides that Mr. Paterson will become President and Chief Executive Officer of AbitibiBowater. For a description of the governance arrangements applicable following completion of the combination, see Governance and Management of AbitibiBowater after Completion of the Combination.

Severance Agreements and Change in Control Payments

Most of the executive officers of Bowater are covered by an employment agreement and all are covered by a change in control agreement. In the event of a termination of employment following the combination, an executive could seek either severance benefits under his employment agreement or change in control benefits under his change in control agreement. However, it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under any change in control or severance agreement between Bowater and its executive officers, directors, key employees or affiliates.

The change in control agreements provide that, upon a change in control (as defined in such agreements), if the executive's employment is terminated within 36 months (except for a termination due to death, disability, or for cause (defined as gross negligence or willful misconduct that has not been cured or conviction of a felony, which action has a demonstrable and material adverse effect upon Bowater)), or if the executive elects to terminate his employment either (i) for good reason or (ii) under Mr. Monahan's change in control agreement, during a 30-day period after the first anniversary of the combination, the executive could be eligible to receive his accrued salary. Unless the executive's termination is for cause, he also could be eligible to receive a prorated annual incentive award and all benefits under Bowater's benefit plans and policies to which he is entitled through his date of termination.

In addition, the executive could be eligible to receive, in lieu of any severance payments provided in any applicable employment agreement and depending on the applicable version of the change in control agreement, an amount equal to the sum of: (a) one to three times the executive's annual base salary; (b) one to three times the highest possible (changed to target in the revised change in control agreements) annual incentive award; (c) one to three times the largest annual contribution that could have been made by Bowater to its savings plans on the executive's behalf; (d) 10% to 30% of the executive's annual base salary (as compensation for certain other benefits lost as a result of the termination of employment); (e) an amount equal to the present value of the additional retirement benefits the executive would have earned for one to three years (assuming the waiver of all vesting requirements); and (f) retiree health care and life insurance.

The change in control agreements define "good reason" as: (a) an adverse change in the executive's status, title, position or responsibilities (including a change in reporting relationships); or (b) failure to pay or provide the executive the salary and benefits, in the aggregate, at least comparable to those to which he was previously entitled; or (c) the reduction of the executive's salary as in effect of the date of the change in control; or (d) Bowater's failure to obtain from any successor its assumption of the change in control agreement; or (e) the relocation of the executive's principal office to a location more than 35 miles from its location immediately prior to the change in control or a substantial increase in the executive's travel obligations following the change in control.

The change in control agreements also generally provide a terminated executive with: (a) either a cash payment of US$20,000 (to be paid in the currency of the country of his residence) or outplacement assistance; (b) a grossed up reimbursement of certain excise taxes that may be levied on excess parachute payments; (c) a waiver of any non-compete obligation; and (d) under certain agreements, the right to receive a lump sum payment equal to the present value of any non-statutory retirement benefits to which the executive is entitled. A terminated executive also would be entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all costs incurred (or to be incurred) in connection with realizing the benefits of the change in control agreement.

Stock Options and Other Stock Based Awards

Mr. Paterson has received a special grant of up to 54,200 restricted stock units to which he will be entitled upon the meeting of certain performance targets following the completion of the combination. The vesting of the restricted stock units is contingent upon attaining certain post-combination synergies during the two-year period following consummation of the combination. The restricted stock units will vest with respect to (1) all 54,200 shares upon the achievement of documented synergies of at least US$300 million; (2) 45,100 shares upon the achievement of documented synergies of at least US$250 million; and (3) 36,100 shares upon the achievement of documented synergies of at least US$200 million, as set forth in the table below:

Restricted Share Units Vested	36,100	45,100	54,200

Thus, the potential value of the restricted stock units upon payout could range from US$0 to US$1,156,628 (assuming for such payout a stock price of US$21.34, which was the closing stock price of Bowater on May 1, 2007).

All Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into AbitibiBowater stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards. Bowater's equity compensation plans generally contain change in control provisions that require equity awards to automatically vest and/or be cashed out at an acceleration price upon a change in control. However, it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under the equity compensation plans.

The following executive officers also have received awards of restricted stock units which will vest if they remain with Bowater through the closing of the combination (or if the closing of the combination does not occur due to the failure of Bowater and Abitibi to obtain regulatory approval or due to the actions of Abitibi):

(1) Based upon the May 1, 2007 Bowater common stock price of US$21.34.

Retention Bonus Plan

Bowater executive officers also may be eligible to receive a retention bonus if they remain with Bowater through the consummation of the combination. The retention bonus is payable as of the date of the consummation of the combination or on the date the combination is cancelled (as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of Bowater). The amount of the retention bonus is 50% of the executive's base salary, plus 50% of a pro rata portion of his target bonus for the year. The approximate amounts of the retention bonuses expected to be paid to the executive officers are as follows:

	Estimated Retention Bonus

William G. Harvey	177,625
Joseph B. Johnson	94,241

(1) Converted from Canadian dollars to US dollars using an exchange rate of US$0.9018.

Because it is the position of Bowater that the combination does not constitute a change in control under any change in control or severance agreements between Bowater and its executive officers, directors, key employees or affiliates, the aggregate amount of compensatory and severance payments and other benefits that such individuals could receive as a result of the combination (which does not include change in control payments) is approximately US$12,300,218. For additional information regarding potential severance payments, see Additional Information Relating to the Bowater Annual Meeting Executive Compensation Severance and Change in Control Arrangements. The foregoing aggregate amount assumes that, with respect to estimated severance payments, each such individual's employment is terminated at or following the consummation of the combination under circumstances entitling them to receive such severance payments or other benefits and, with respect to the vesting of certain restricted stock units, that the combined company attains certain post-combination synergies during the two-year period following the combination. Accordingly, Bowater's estimates of these amounts are based on a number of assumptions, and are subject to contingencies that may or may not occur, including such assumptions and contingencies set forth above, among others; therefore, the estimates may not reflect the actual payouts of change in control or severance payments or other benefits after the completion of the combination.

Indemnification and Insurance

The combination agreement provides that AbitibiBowater will:

honor all indemnification agreements between Bowater and its current and former directors, officers or employees in effect prior to the completion of the combination;

honor all indemnification provisions in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bowater and not amend in an adverse manner any of those provisions for six years following completion of the combination; and maintain in effect, if available, directors and officers liability insurance covering persons currently covered under Bowater's policy with respect to events arising prior to the completion of the combination on terms no less favorable to those applicable to the current directors and officers of Bowater.

Indemnification Agreements

Bowater has also entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers. Each indemnification agreement is substantially identical and establishes certain terms as to indemnification and payment of expenses by Bowater.

AbitibiBowater Executive Compensation Arrangements

The compensation arrangements for executive officers of AbitibiBowater have not yet been determined and will be subject to the approval of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater, as such committee will be constituted upon completion of the combination.

Under the combination agreement, for a period of twelve months following the completion of the combination, the employees of Abitibi, Bowater and their respective subsidiaries will, subject to certain exceptions, receive employee benefits that are, in the aggregate (considering all employees generally), substantially similar to the employee benefits provided to such employees immediately prior to the completion of the combination. This obligation does not extend to equity-based benefits plans or similar arrangements, and any such plans or arrangements will not be taken into account in determining whether employee benefits are substantially similar in the aggregate.

Estimated Cost Synergies

The combination is expected to generate approximately US$250 million of annualized cost synergies within two years from improved efficiencies in such areas as production, selling, general and administrative (SG&A) costs and distribution and procurement, in addition to cost saving initiatives already underway at both companies. Specific areas targeted for realization of cost savings include:

Production

- i improvement of asset performance and fixed costs
- i enhancement of production networks and capital spending

- i reductions of changeovers and waste

SG&A

- i lower fixed overhead costs
- i consolidation of functions

Table of Contents

i regionalization of mill-level SG&A

Distribution

i enhancement of distribution facilities and timberland-mill and mill-customer pairings
 i improvement of distribution performance

Procurement

i consolidation of raw materials collection
 i negotiation of volume discounts

AbitibiBowater's success in realizing these synergies, efficiencies and cost savings, and the timing of this realization, depend on the successful integration of such businesses and operations. We may not be able to accomplish this integration process smoothly or successfully. The necessity of coordinating geographically disparate organizations and addressing possible differences in corporate and regional cultures and management philosophies may increase the difficulties of integration. The integration of certain operations following the combination will take time and will require the dedication of significant management resources, which may temporarily distract management's attention from the routine business of AbitibiBowater. Employee uncertainty and lack of focus during the integration process may also disrupt the business of AbitibiBowater. In addition, restrictions on the exchange of competitively sensitive information between Abitibi and Bowater have precluded a complete evaluation of these anticipated synergies and efficiencies.

Even if Abitibi and Bowater are able to integrate such businesses and operations successfully, there can be no assurance that this integration will result in the realization of the full benefits of synergies, efficiencies and cost savings that Abitibi and Bowater currently expect from this integration or that these benefits will be achieved within the time frame or in the manner anticipated. For example, the elimination of duplicative costs may not be possible or may take longer than anticipated, or the benefits from the combination may be offset by the costs incurred in integrating the businesses and operations or adverse conditions imposed by regulatory authorities on the combined business in connection with granting approval for the combination. If we do not realize our anticipated synergies and efficiencies, in the amounts or in the time frame expected, or if our management cannot integrate successfully the operations of our two companies, our business and results of operations will be adversely affected.

Court Approval of the Arrangement and Completion of the Combination

Under the CBCA, the arrangement requires court approval. Prior to the mailing of this document, Abitibi obtained an interim order from the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec, providing for the calling and holding of the Abitibi Meeting and other procedural matters. A copy of each of the interim order, the notice of application for a final order and other supporting materials is attached as Annex D.

Subject to the approval of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution by the Abitibi shareholders at the Abitibi Meeting and the approval of the Bowater stockholders and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares of the merger and the combination agreement at the Bowater Meeting, the hearing in respect of a final order is expected to take place on or about August 6, 2007 at 9:15 a.m. (local time) at the Montreal courthouse at 1 Notre Dame Street East, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

If you are an Abitibi shareholder who wishes to appear or be represented and to present evidence or arguments, you must serve and file a notice of appearance as set forth in the notice of application for the final order and satisfy any other requirements of the court. The court will consider, among other things, the fairness and reasonableness of the arrangement. The court may approve the arrangement in any manner the court may direct, subject to compliance with any terms and conditions the court deems fit.

Assuming the final order is granted and the other conditions to closing contained in the combination agreement are satisfied or waived, it is anticipated that the following will occur consecutively:

a certificate of merger and all other filings or recordings for Bowater will be filed with the secretary of state of the State of Delaware;

the Bowater Canada articles of amendment will be filed with the Director under the CBCA and a certificate of amendment will be issued giving effect to the Bowater Canada articles of amendment; articles of arrangement for Abitibi will be filed with the Director under the CBCA and a certificate of arrangement issued to give effect to the arrangement; and the various other documents necessary to complete the transactions contemplated under the combination agreement will be executed and delivered.

If Bowater Canada's shareholders do not approve the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment at the Bowater Canada Meeting, Bowater will cause the early redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares immediately prior to the consummation of the combination. A redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares means that current holders of Bowater exchangeable shares will be required to exchange their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of Bowater common stock, which may have certain tax consequences to such holders depending on their status. These holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will then hold Bowater common stock which will be exchanged for AbitibiBowater common stock. See Material Income Tax Consequence of the Combination Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations to Bowater Stockholders and Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares.

The closing of the combination will take place on the second business day after the date on which all closing conditions have been satisfied or waived (other than any conditions which by their terms cannot be satisfied until the closing date) or any other time agreed to in writing by all of the parties to the combination agreement.

Regulatory Matters

Each party to the combination agreement has agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the combination agreement, to use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, stock exchange listings and other applications and other documents necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement. However, the parties to the combination agreement are not required to enter into any settlement, agreement or other arrangement with any governmental authority or private party in connection with the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement or to divest or otherwise hold or maintain separate assets or properties if such would reasonably be expected, in either case, to substantially diminish the benefits reasonably expected to be derived by the parties from consummating the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement.

U.S. Antitrust Filing

Under the HSR Act, the combination may not be completed until notifications have been given and required information and materials have been furnished to and reviewed by the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has expired or been terminated. Under the HSR Act, the combination may not be completed until 30 days after the initial filing (unless early termination of this waiting period is granted) or, if the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission issues a request for additional information, 30 days after Abitibi and Bowater have substantially complied with that request for additional information (unless this period is shortened by a grant of early termination or voluntarily extended by the parties).

It is a condition to the completion of the combination that the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act expires or early termination is granted. Bowater and Abitibi each filed a Pre-Merger Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on February 14 and February 16, 2007, respectively. The applicable waiting period began on February 16, 2007 and would have expired on March 19, 2007; however, on March 19, 2007, each of Abitibi and Bowater received a request for additional information from the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, which we refer to as a second request. This second request extends the waiting period during which the combination may not be consummated to 30 days after Abitibi and Bowater have each substantially complied with the second request. Both Abitibi and Bowater intend to respond to the second request and to work toward a closing of the combination in the third quarter of 2007.

After the statutory waiting periods, and even after the completion of the combination, U.S. federal or state governmental authorities could seek to challenge the combination as they deem necessary or desirable in the public interest.

Canadian Competition Act

The Canadian Competition Act requires that parties to certain combinations that exceed specified size thresholds provide to the Commissioner of Competition prior notice of, and information relating to, the combination. Parties to the combination must await the expiration of a prescribed waiting period prior to being able to complete the combination unless the Commissioner has (1) issued an advance ruling certificate under Section 102 of the Canadian Competition Act advising the parties that the combination will not be challenged under Section 92 of the Canadian Competition Act or (2) waived the notification obligation under Section 113(c) of the Canadian Competition Act.

It is a condition to the completion of the combination that Abitibi and Bowater (i) receive an advance ruling certificate or (ii) the waiting period under Part IX of the Canadian Competition Act has expired or been waived by the Commissioner and a letter (on acceptable terms) from the Commissioner or a person authorized by the Commissioner that the Commissioner has determined not to make an application for an order under Section 92 of the Canadian Competition Act in respect of the combination (referred to as a no-action letter) has been received.

Abitibi and Bowater each filed a long form notification to the Commissioner on February 19, 2007 and the prescribed waiting period applicable to this filing ended on April 2, 2007. If Abitibi and Bowater choose to proceed to complete the combination prior to the Commissioner completing her substantive review and the Commissioner believes she requires additional time to complete her substantive review, she can apply to the Competition Tribunal for an interim order seeking to prevent closing of a transaction for up to 60 additional days. The Competition Tribunal is a specialized tribunal established to deal with certain matters under the Competition Act, including mergers, and to which the Commissioner may apply to challenge a merger before consummation on an interim and/or permanent basis if her substantive review raises competition concerns which are not addressed on a consent basis, or for a period of three years after consummation if it is determined that the combination lessens or prevents, or is likely to lessen or prevent, competition substantially. Abitibi and Bowater have been advised that the time required by the Commissioner to complete her substantive review of the combination will extend beyond the end of the statutory waiting period which terminated on April 2, 2007.

Investment Canada Act

Certain acquisitions of control of Canadian businesses by non-Canadians are subject to review under the Investment Canada Act. If an acquisition is reviewable pre-closing, the acquiror must submit an application for review with prescribed information to Industry Canada and, before the acquisition may be completed, the Minister of Industry must determine that the investment is likely to be of net benefit to Canada. When making this determination, the Minister may consider any proposed undertakings offered by the prospective acquiror in connection with the Minister's review under the Investment Canada Act. The Minister has an initial 45-day period to make his determination. The Minister may unilaterally extend the period for a further 30 days by giving notice to the prospective acquiror and the review period may be further extended by agreement of the Minister and the prospective acquiror. In almost all cases, the Minister will compel the parties to submit undertakings requiring certain commitments regarding the Canadian portion of the business in order to become satisfied that the investment will likely be of net benefit to Canada.

It is a condition to the completion of the combination that AbitibiBowater (i) receive a notice pursuant to Subsection 21(1) of the Investment Canada Act stating that the combination is likely to be of net benefit to Canada or (ii) the applicable time period for receiving such notice under Subsection 21(1) of the Investment Canada Act will have expired such that the Minister will be deemed, pursuant to Subsection 21(2) of the Investment Canada Act, to be satisfied that the combination is of net benefit to Canada. AbitibiBowater filed an application for review under the Investment Canada Act on April 20, 2007, and on June 4, 2007, the Minister extended the initial review for an additional 30 days.

Competition Filings in Other Jurisdictions

Abitibi and Bowater submitted a joint filing to the antitrust authorities of Brazil on February 16, 2007, although the approval of this authority is not required to complete the combination. On March 21, 2007, Abitibi and Bowater submitted a joint filing to the Competition Board of Turkey, which approved the combination on April 12, 2007. Abitibi and Bowater also may notify the competition authorities in Greece about the combination, but such a filing is not required prior to completion of the combination. It is a condition to the completion of the combination that all waiting periods, approvals, or consents required to be expired, terminated, or obtained prior to the effective time of the combination under applicable antitrust laws other than the HSR Act or the Canadian Competition Act, will have either expired, been terminated or otherwise obtained, as the case may be, except to the extent the failure to obtain such other approvals or consents, or the failure to have such other waiting periods expire or terminate, would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Abitibi or Bowater.

Timber and Water Rights

The Crown Forest Sustainability Act in Ontario and the regulations promulgated under such statute provide that Abitibi and Bowater are required to obtain the consent of the Minister of Natural Resources of Ontario at least 30 days prior to completion of the combination in respect of the timber cutting rights of Abitibi and Bowater.

Abitibi is required to provide notice to the Minister of Natural Resources and Wildlife and the Minister of the Environment of Quebec within 30 days following the completion of the combination in respect of an agreement granting water rights to Abitibi in the Province of Quebec. Pursuant to the agreement granting such water rights, the Minister of Natural Resources and Wildlife and the Minister of the Environment of Quebec may, in their discretion, approve such change of control and maintain the rights granted under the agreement or terminate such agreement upon notice to Abitibi.

Dividend Information

The most recent quarterly dividend declared by Bowater was US$0.20 per common share payable on July 2, 2007. Bowater Canada declared a quarterly cash dividend to holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in the same amount with the same payable date. Abitibi does not currently pay dividends.

The combination agreement provides that, prior to the completion of the combination, Bowater will continue to pay its regular, quarterly dividend consistent with past practices, unless otherwise required by the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of Bowater or by applicable law.

Table of Contents

Any decision regarding the dividend policies of AbitibiBowater will be determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater following completion of the combination. In addition, the ability of AbitibiBowater to pay dividends may be restricted by the company's credit facilities or other debt instruments, as well as by applicable law. There can be no assurance that AbitibiBowater will pay a dividend or that any dividend, if paid, will be comparable to the historical dividend rate of Bowater prior to the combination.

Pro Forma Economic Ownership of AbitibiBowater

Upon the completion of the combination, we estimate that Abitibi's former shareholders and Bowater's former stockholders (together with holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will own approximately 48% and 52%, respectively, of the outstanding economic interests and voting rights in AbitibiBowater (either directly or through the ownership of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are substantially the economic equivalent of AbitibiBowater common stock).

Accounting Treatment

AbitibiBowater will account for the combination using the purchase method of accounting under U.S. GAAP. Although the combination of Abitibi and Bowater is a merger of equals, U.S. GAAP requires that one of the two companies in the transaction be designated as the acquiror for accounting purposes. Based on a preliminary review of the applicable accounting standards, we have determined that Bowater is the acquiror solely for accounting purposes. The purchase price will be allocated to Abitibi's identifiable assets and liabilities based on their estimated fair market values at the date of the completion of the combination, and any excess of the purchase price over those fair market values will be accounted for as goodwill. Final valuations of property, plant and equipment, and intangible and other assets have not yet been completed as management has not yet obtained the fair value report from the third-party independent valuation firm it has retained. The completion of the valuation work could result in significantly different amortization expenses and balance sheet classifications. After completion of the combination, the results of operations of Abitibi will be included in the consolidated annual and interim financial statements of AbitibiBowater which will be prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Stock Exchange Listings

Bowater and Abitibi have agreed to use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to:

cause the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be issued pursuant to the arrangement and the merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE and the TSX before the completion of the combination, subject to official notice of issuance and regulatory approval;

cause the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock to be issued upon exchange of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and upon exercise of replacement options to purchase AbitibiBowater common stock to be approved for listing on the NYSE and the TSX before the completion of the combination, subject to official notice of issuance and regulatory approval; and cause the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be issued in the arrangement to be conditionally approved for listing on the TSX before the completion of the combination.

AbitibiBowater intends to apply to list its common stock on the NYSE and the TSX under the symbol ABH and expects that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will remain listed on the TSX under the new symbol AXB.

Issue and Resale of Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock and Exchangeable Shares Received in the Combination

United States

AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued in the combination will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act, except for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued to any person that is, or is expected to be, an affiliate of AbitibiBowater, Abitibi or Bowater, as applicable, for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Persons that may be deemed to be affiliates of AbitibiBowater, Abitibi or Bowater for such purposes generally include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, AbitibiBowater, Abitibi or Bowater, respectively, and include the directors and executive officers of AbitibiBowater, Abitibi and Bowater, respectively. The combination agreement requires each of Abitibi and Bowater to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its affiliates, and each intends to require any person who would be an affiliate of AbitibiBowater, to execute a written agreement with AbitibiBowater to the effect that they will not transfer any AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in the combination, except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or in a transaction not required to be registered under the Securities Act.

This document does not cover resales of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received by any person upon completion of the combination, and no person is authorized to make any use of this document in connection with any resale.

The issuance of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to holders of Abitibi common shares, to be delivered under the plan of arrangement, will not be registered under the Securities Act. The Bowater Canada exchangeable shares issued in connection with the plan of arrangement will be issued in reliance upon the exemption available under Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act. Section 3(a)(10) exempts securities issued in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities from the general requirement of registration where the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of the securities have been approved by any court or authorized governmental entity, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of exchange at which all persons to whom the securities will be issued have the right to appear and to whom adequate notice of the hearing has been given. The court is authorized to conduct a hearing to determine the fairness of the terms and conditions of the plan of arrangement, including the proposed issuance of securities in exchange for other outstanding securities. On June 13, 2007, the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec issued the interim order and, subject to the approval of the plan of arrangement by the Abitibi shareholders, a hearing for the Court's final order on the fairness of the arrangement will be held on or about August 6, 2007 at 9:15 a.m. (local time) by the Superior Court of Quebec, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec.

The resale of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in connection with the combination will not be subject to any restrictions other than customary restrictions with respect to holders who are members of control blocks.

Ongoing Canadian Reporting Obligations

Upon completion of the combination, AbitibiBowater will be a reporting issuer (or have equivalent status) in all of the Canadian provinces and territories. Under the U.S.-Canadian Multijurisdictional Disclosure System, AbitibiBowater will be permitted to satisfy its Canadian statutory and financial reporting obligations, including in respect of insider reporting, by complying with applicable U.S. securities laws so long as certain conditions are satisfied, including that following the completion of the combination, AbitibiBowater files with the relevant Canadian securities regulatory authorities copies of its reports and other materials filed with the SEC. Bowater Canada is a reporting issuer (or has equivalent status) in all the Canadian provinces and territories. As an exchangeable security issuer, Bowater Canada is exempt from Canadian statutory financial and reporting requirements, provided certain conditions are satisfied. Insiders of Bowater Canada will also be generally exempt from Canadian insider reporting requirements with respect to transactions made on Bowater Canada exchangeable shares provided a number of the conditions to the availability of the exemption from Canadian reporting requirements are also satisfied. Reports filed by insiders of AbitibiBowater with the SEC will disclose beneficial ownership of common stock of AbitibiBowater and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Each of Abitibi and Bowater intends to apply to the securities regulatory authorities in Canada to cease to be a reporting issuer upon completion of the combination.

Treatment of Stock Options and Stock-Based Awards

All Abitibi and Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding at the Effective Time, as defined below, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards with respect to AbitibiBowater common stock. The number of shares subject to such converted stock options, stock appreciation rights and stock-based awards will be adjusted by multiplying the number of shares subject to such Abitibi or Bowater stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award by the Abitibi exchange ratio, in the case of Abitibi, and by the Bowater exchange ratio, in the case of Bowater. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the converted stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing such price by the Abitibi exchange ratio or the Bowater exchange ratio as appropriate, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. The stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards to acquire AbitibiBowater common stock will be issued subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the respective Abitibi or Bowater plans pursuant to which each stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award was initially issued but taking into account any changes to such terms and conditions, including acceleration of exercise rights, by reason of the combination agreement or the combination.

Dissenting Shareholder Rights

Abitibi

If you are a registered holder of Abitibi common shares, in accordance with the interim order issued by the Superior Court of Quebec, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec, you will have the right to dissent from the Abitibi shareholders' resolution. If the arrangement becomes effective and you properly dissent from the Abitibi shareholders' resolution in compliance with Section 190 of the CBCA and the interim order, you will be entitled to be paid by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada, at AbitibiBowater's option, the fair value of the Abitibi common shares you hold, determined as of the close of business on the day before the Abitibi shareholders' resolution is adopted.

If you want to dissent, you must dissent for all your shares of the relevant class. If you hold shares on behalf of one or more beneficial owners, you are allowed to dissent only for all the shares you hold on behalf of any one beneficial owner that are registered in your name.

Under Section 190 of the CBCA, you may dissent only for shares that are registered in your name. In many cases, people beneficially own shares that are registered either:

in the name of a nominee, such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer, broker, trustee or administrator of registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered educational savings plans and similar plans and their nominees, as these terms are defined under the Canadian Tax Act; or in the name of a clearing agency in which the nominee participates, such as The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or The Depository Trust Company.

If you want to dissent and your shares are registered in someone else's name, you must contact your nominee and either:

instruct your nominee to exercise the dissent rights on your behalf (which, if the shares are registered in the name of a clearing agency, will require that the shares first be re-registered in your nominee's name); or instruct your nominee to re-register the shares in your name, in which case you will have to exercise your dissent rights directly.

In other words, if your shares are registered in someone else's name, you will not be able to exercise your dissent rights directly unless the shares are re-registered in your name.

If you want to dissent in respect of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution, you must provide a written dissent notice to Abitibi's Secretary at Abitibi-Consolidated Inc., 1155 Metcalfe Street, Suite 800, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3B 5H2, Attention: Secretary, facsimile number (514) 394-3644, not later than 5:00 p.m. (local time) on the business day immediately preceding the Abitibi Meeting (or any adjournment or postponement of the Abitibi Meeting). If you do not strictly comply with this requirement, you could lose your right to dissent. This requirement is different from the statutory dissent procedures of the CBCA, which would permit a dissent notice to be provided at or prior to the Abitibi Meeting.

If you send a dissent notice, you still have the right to vote at the Abitibi Meeting. However, the CBCA provides in effect, that if you send a dissent notice and then vote in favor of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution, you will no longer be considered a dissenting shareholder with respect to the shares voted in favor of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution. You must either vote against the Abitibi shareholders' resolution or abstain from voting, including if you do not return or complete a proxy form or broker voting instruction form, in order to dissent.

The CBCA does not provide (and Abitibi will not assume) that a vote against the Abitibi shareholders' resolution or an abstention constitutes a dissent notice. Similarly, if you give someone a proxy to vote for the Abitibi shareholders' resolution and then revoke the proxy, your revocation does not constitute a dissent notice. However, if you want to dissent, you should revoke any proxy that instructs the proxy holder to vote for the Abitibi shareholders' resolution to prevent the proxy holder from voting your shares in favor of the Abitibi shareholders' resolution and causing you to forfeit your dissent rights. For instructions on revoking a proxy, see Special Meeting of Abitibi Shareholders Revocation of Proxies.

If you dissent, Abitibi is required to notify you that the Abitibi shareholders' resolution has been adopted within ten days after Abitibi's shareholders adopt the resolution. Abitibi is not required to send you a notice if you vote for the Abitibi shareholders' resolution or withdraw your dissent notice.

If you dissent, you must send Abitibi (to its Secretary at the address above) a written demand for payment within 20 days after you receive Abitibi's notice that the Abitibi shareholders' resolution has been adopted. If you do not receive that notice, you must send a written demand for payment within 20 days after you learn that the Abitibi shareholders' resolution has been adopted. Your demand for payment must contain:

your name and address;

the number of Abitibi common shares in respect of which you are dissenting; and a demand for payment of the fair value of those shares.

Within 30 days of sending a demand for payment, you must send Abitibi (to its Secretary at the address above) the certificates representing your dissenting shares. If you do not send in your certificates, you forfeit your right to dissent. The Abitibi transfer agent will endorse on your share certificates a notice that you are a dissenting shareholder and will then send the certificates back to you.

After you send your demand for payment, you will no longer have any rights as an Abitibi shareholder other than the right to be paid the fair value of your shares unless:

you withdraw your demand for payment before Abitibi makes a written offer to pay;

Abitibi does not make you a timely written offer to pay and you withdraw your demand for payment; or Abitibi's Board of Directors revokes the Abitibi shareholders' resolution.

In all three cases described above, your rights as a shareholder will be reinstated, and in the first two cases, your shares will be subject to the arrangement if it has been completed.

Under the plan of arrangement, if you duly exercise your dissent rights and are ultimately determined to have the right to be paid the fair value of your Abitibi common shares, you will be deemed to have transferred your shares to Abitibi at the effective time of the arrangement. If you exercise your dissent rights but are ultimately determined for any reason not to have the right to be paid the fair value of your shares, you will be deemed to have participated in the arrangement like any non-dissenting shareholder who is deemed, under the plan of arrangement, to have elected to receive AbitibiBowater common stock.

If you dissent, within seven days after the later of the effective date of the arrangement and the date when Abitibi receives your demand for payment, Abitibi is required to send you an offer to pay for your shares. That offer must be in an amount that Abitibi's Board of Directors considers to be the fair value of the shares. Abitibi must also send you a statement with the offer to pay showing how the fair value was determined. Every offer to pay for a dissenting shareholder's shares must be on the same terms. Abitibi must pay for your shares within ten days after you accept the offer to pay, but the offer of Abitibi to pay you will lapse if your acceptance is not received within 30 days after it has made the offer to pay.

If you do not accept the offer or if Abitibi fails to make you an offer to pay after you have sent your demand for payment, Abitibi may apply to the Superior Court of Quebec to fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders. If Abitibi decides to apply to the Superior Court of Quebec to fix the fair value, it must do so within 50 days after the effective date of the arrangement or within any longer period that the court allows. If Abitibi fails to apply to the Superior Court of Quebec, you may apply to the Superior Court of Quebec for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days or within any longer period that the court allows. You are not required to give security for the costs of applying to the Superior Court of Quebec.

If Abitibi, you or another dissenting shareholder applies to the Superior Court of Quebec, all dissenting shareholders whose shares have not been purchased by Abitibi will be joined as parties and will be bound by the court's decision. Abitibi will be required to notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of the shareholder's right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. The Superior Court of Quebec may determine whether any person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court will then fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders. The Superior Court of Quebec may, in its discretion, appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the shares of the dissenting shareholders. The Superior Court of Quebec will render a final order against Abitibi in favor of each dissenting shareholder and for the amount of the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares. The Superior Court of Quebec may, in its discretion, allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the effective date of the arrangement until the date of payment.

This is a summary of the dissenting shareholder provisions of the plan of arrangement and the CBCA, which are technical and complex. Complete copies of the plan of arrangement and Section 190 of the CBCA are attached as Annexes E and P, respectively, to this document. If you want to dissent, we recommend that you seek legal advice because, if you fail to comply strictly with the provisions of the plan of arrangement and the CBCA, you could forfeit your dissent rights.

The Canadian federal income tax consequences to a holder of Abitibi common shares who exercises dissent rights and who receives fair value for the holder's shares from Abitibi will be different from the consequences to a holder who participates in the arrangement. For more information see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

Bowater

Holders of Bowater common stock do not have dissent or appraisal rights in connection with the combination or the merger.

Bowater Canada

If you are a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, in accordance with section 190 of the CBCA, you will have the right to dissent from the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution approving the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and you will be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares owned by you, determined as of the close of business on the day before the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution is adopted.

If you want to dissent, you must dissent for all your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If you hold Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on behalf of one or more beneficial owners, you are allowed to dissent only for all the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares you hold on behalf of any one beneficial owner that are registered in your name.

Under Section 190 of the CBCA, you may dissent only for shares that are registered in your name. In many cases, people beneficially own shares that are registered either:

in the name of a nominee, such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer, broker, trustee or administrator of registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered educational savings plans and similar plans and their nominees, as these terms are defined under the Canadian Tax Act; or in the name of a clearing agency in which the nominee participates, such as The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or The Depository Trust Company.

If you want to dissent and your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are registered in someone else's name, you must contact your nominee and either:

instruct your nominee to exercise the dissent rights on your behalf (which, if the shares are registered in the name of a clearing agency, will require that the shares first be re-registered in your nominee's name); or instruct your nominee to re-register the shares in your name, in which case you will have to exercise your dissent rights directly.

In other words, if your shares are registered in someone else's name, you will not be able to exercise your dissent rights directly unless the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are re-registered in your name.

If you want to dissent in respect of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution, you must provide a written dissent notice to Bowater Canada at 1000 de la Gauchetière Street West, Suite 2820, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3B 4W5, Attention: Secretary, at or before the time fixed for the Bowater Canada Meeting.

If you send a dissent notice, you still have the right to vote at the Bowater Canada Meeting. However, the CBCA provides in effect, that if you send a dissent notice and then vote in favor of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution, you will no longer be considered a dissenting shareholder with respect to the shares voted in favor of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution. You must vote against the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution or abstain from voting, including if you do not return or complete a proxy form or broker voting instruction form, to dissent.

The CBCA does not provide (and Bowater Canada will not assume) that a vote against the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution constitutes a dissent notice. Similarly, if you give someone a proxy to vote for the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution and then revoke the proxy, your revocation does not constitute a dissent notice. However, if you want to dissent, you should revoke any proxy that instructs the proxy holder to vote for the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution to prevent the proxy holder from voting your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in favor of the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution and causing you to forfeit your dissent rights. For instructions on revoking a proxy, see Special Meeting of Bowater Canada Shareholders Revocation of Proxies.

If you dissent, Bowater Canada is required to notify you that the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution has been adopted within ten days after Bowater Canada's shareholders adopt the Bowater Canada special resolution. Bowater Canada is not required to send you a notice if you vote for the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution or withdraw your dissent notice.

If you dissent, you must send to Bowater Canada (to its Secretary at the address above) a written demand for payment within 20 days after you receive Bowater Canada's notice that the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution has been adopted. If you do not receive that notice, you must send a written demand for payment within 20 days after you learn that the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution has been adopted. Your demand for payment must contain:

your name and address;

the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in respect of which you are dissenting; and a demand for payment of the fair value of those Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Within 30 days of sending a demand for payment, you must send to Bowater Canada (to its Secretary at the address above) the certificates representing your dissenting Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If you do not send in your certificates, you forfeit your right to dissent. The transfer agent for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will endorse on your share certificates a notice that you are a dissenting shareholder and will then send the certificates back to you.

After you send your demand for payment, you will no longer have any rights as a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares other than the right to be paid the fair value of your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares unless:

you withdraw your demand for payment before Bowater Canada makes a written offer to pay;

Bowater Canada does not make you a timely written offer to pay and you withdraw your demand for payment; or Bowater Canada's Board of Directors revokes the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution.

In all three cases described above, your rights as a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be reinstated, and in the first two cases, your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be changed by the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

If you dissent, within seven days after the later of the effective date of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and the date when Bowater Canada receives your demand for payment, Bowater Canada is required to send you an offer to pay for your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. That offer must be in an amount that Bowater Canada's Board of Directors considers to be the fair value of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. Bowater Canada must also send you a statement with the offer to pay showing how the fair value was determined. Every offer to pay for a dissenting shareholder's shares must be on the same terms. Bowater Canada must pay for your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares within ten days after you accept the offer to pay, but the offer of Bowater Canada to pay you will lapse if your acceptance is not received within 30 days after it has made the offer to pay.

If you do not accept the offer or if Bowater Canada fails to make you an offer to pay after you have sent your demand for payment, Bowater Canada may apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (or to a court having jurisdiction in the province where the dissenting shareholder resides if Bowater Canada carries on business in that province) to fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders. If Bowater Canada decides to apply to a court to fix the fair value, it must do so within 50 days after the effective date of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment or within any longer period that the court allows. If Bowater Canada fails to apply to a court, you may apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (or to a court having jurisdiction in the province where you reside if Bowater Canada carries on business in that province) for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days or within any longer period that the court allows. You are not required to give security for the costs of applying to a court.

If Bowater Canada, you or another dissenting shareholder applies to a court, all dissenting shareholders whose Bowater Canada exchangeable shares have not been purchased by Bowater Canada will be joined as parties and will be bound by the court's decision. Bowater Canada will be required to notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of the shareholder's right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. The court may determine whether any person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court will then fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders. The court may, in its discretion, appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the shares of the dissenting shareholders. The court will render a final order against Bowater Canada in favor of each dissenting shareholder and for the amount of the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares. The court may, in its discretion, allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the effective date of the arrangement until the date of payment.

This is a summary of the dissenting shareholder provisions of the CBCA, which are technical and complex. Section 190 of the CBCA is reproduced in its entirety at Annex P to this document. If you want to dissent, we recommend that you seek legal advice because, if you fail to comply strictly with the provisions of the CBCA, you could forfeit your dissent rights.

The Canadian federal income tax consequences to a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who exercises dissent rights and who receives fair value for the holder's Bowater Canada exchangeable shares from Bowater Canada will be different from the consequences to a holder who does not exercise dissent rights. For more information, see Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Dissenting Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares.

If you are a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and you decide to exercise your dissent rights under the CBCA in accordance with the foregoing, you should note that, upon receiving payment of the fair value of your Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, whether upon acceptance by an offer made by Bowater Canada or following the determination by a court, you will not have any continued economic or voting interest in

Bowater nor any economic or voting interest in AbitibiBowater, and you will lose any possibility of deferring the payment of tax on any capital gains you may have on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in respect of which you dissent. See Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares.

In addition, the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares permit the Board of Directors of Bowater Canada, upon the proposal of a transaction involving a change of control of Bowater, such as the combination, to declare an early redemption date for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and to require all holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to exchange their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of Bowater common stock prior to the consummation of the combination. If, in the opinion of Bowater, a significant number of holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exercise their dissent rights, Bowater may cause the Board of Directors of Bowater Canada to declare an early redemption date and require all holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to exchange their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of Bowater common stock prior to the consummation of the combination. A redemption or purchase of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may have certain tax consequences to holders, depending on their tax status. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings pursuant to the exercise of its call right will generally realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the purchase price for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If Bowater Canadian Holdings does not exercise its call right and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares instead are redeemed by Bowater Canada, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will generally be deemed to receive a dividend and to have realized either a capital gain or a capital loss depending on the holder's own circumstances. Different consequences may result for a holder that is a corporation. Certain Litigation

On June 18, 2007, The Levin Group, L.P. filed a complaint against Bowater in the Supreme Court of New York, New York County, asserting claims for breach of contract and related claims relating to certain advisory services purported to have been provided by the plaintiff in connection with the combination. The complaint seeks damages of no less than US$70 million, related costs and such other relief as the court deems just and proper. The management of Bowater believes this claim is entirely without merit and intends to contest this matter vigorously.

THE COMBINATION AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the combination agreement, and related provisions of the plan of arrangement and certain other related matters. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the combination agreement and the plan of arrangement, which are incorporated by reference in their entirety and attached to this document as Annexes C and E, respectively. We encourage you to read the combination agreement and the plan of arrangement in their entirety.

Form of the Combination

The Merger

At the Effective Time, as defined below, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the combination agreement, and in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which we refer to as the DGCL, Merger Sub, a newly formed and wholly owned subsidiary of AbitibiBowater, will be merged with and into Bowater, with Bowater continuing as the surviving corporation. In the merger, issued and outstanding shares of Bowater common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock at the Bowater exchange ratio. Also in the merger, the single share of special voting stock of Bowater, through which the trustee for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exercises voting rights on behalf of holders of such exchangeable shares pursuant to the voting and exchange trust agreement, will be exchanged for a substantially identical share of special voting stock of AbitibiBowater.

The Arrangement

At the Effective Time, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the plan of arrangement, and except as described in the following sentence, issued and outstanding Abitibi common shares will be transferred to AbitibiBowater in exchange for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock at the Abitibi exchange ratio. Pursuant to the plan of arrangement, any eligible shareholder of Abitibi may elect to receive, in lieu of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (or a combination of AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares), also at the Abitibi exchange ratio, which will be exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock.

The Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment

At the Effective Time, and in accordance with the procedures described below under Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment, Bowater will file the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. The purpose of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment is to:

change Bowater Canada's name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,

effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share is changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio, amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination.

If Bowater Canada's shareholders do not approve the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment at the Bowater Canada Meeting, Bowater will cause the early redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares immediately prior to the consummation of the combination. A redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares means that current holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be required to exchange their Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of Bowater common stock, which may have certain tax consequences to them depending on their status. Such holders will then hold Bowater common stock which will be exchanged for AbitibiBowater common stock if the combination is approved. See Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination.

Treatment of Stock Options and Stock-Based Awards

All Abitibi and Bowater stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding at the Effective Time, as defined below, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards with respect to AbitibiBowater common stock. The number of shares subject to such converted stock options, stock appreciation rights and stock-based awards will be adjusted by multiplying the number of shares subject to such Abitibi or Bowater stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award by the Abitibi exchange ratio, in the case of Abitibi, and by the Bowater exchange ratio, in the case of Bowater. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the converted stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing such price by the Abitibi exchange ratio or the Bowater exchange ratio as appropriate, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. The stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards to acquire AbitibiBowater common stock will be issued subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the respective Abitibi or Bowater plans pursuant to which each stock option, stock appreciation right or stock-based award was initially issued but taking into account any changes to such terms and conditions, including acceleration of exercise rights, by reason of the combination agreement or the combination.

Exchangeable Share Elections

Each person who, at or prior to the election deadline of 5:00 p.m. (local time) at the place of deposit on the date that is two business days prior to the date of the Abitibi Meeting, is a holder of record of Abitibi common shares and who is an eligible shareholder will be entitled, with respect to all or a portion of such shares, to make an election at or prior to the election deadline to receive (i) Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, (ii) shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, in exchange for such holder's Abitibi common shares or (iii) a combination of AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, on the basis set forth in the plan of arrangement and in accordance with such arrangements and procedures as will be agreed upon in good faith by AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater, and related parties, including the form of the letter of transmittal and election form containing the elections and the procedures governing transmittal accompanying this document. By an eligible shareholder, we mean: (a) a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax under the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act; or (b) a partnership any of whose partners is a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act. For further details on the procedure to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, see Special Meeting of Abitibi Shareholders Election to Receive Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares and Exchange of Share Certificates.

On May 7, 2007, Abitibi, Bowater, AbitibiBowater, Merger Sub and Bowater Canada entered into the first amendment to the combination agreement. The purpose of the first amendment to the combination agreement was to provide for a limit on the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that Bowater Canada will issue to eligible Abitibi shareholders, which we refer to as, the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. The Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit was established to ensure that the combination is tax deferred for U.S.

resident holders of Abitibi common shares. For these purposes, the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is equal to: (i) 20% multiplied by the aggregate of (x) the number of Abitibi common shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination multiplied by the Abitibi exchange ratio (y) the number of shares of Bowater common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination multiplied by the Bowater exchange ratio, and (z) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination but after giving effect to the share consolidation that will occur upon filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment; minus (ii) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the combination but after giving effect to the share consolidation that will occur upon filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

In the event that eligible Abitibi shareholders elect to receive an aggregate number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that exceeds the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit described above, then the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will be issued to each electing eligible Abitibi shareholder shall be determined by multiplying the total number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to such shareholder by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to all eligible Abitibi shareholders that elected to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. In these circumstances, AbitibiBowater will issue to each electing eligible Abitibi shareholder a number of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock equal to the difference between (i) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares otherwise issuable to an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder and (ii) the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that will actually be issued to such shareholder following the prorationing described above. Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to eligible Abitibi shareholders in connection with the combination, including in the event an electing eligible Abitibi shareholder is subject to prorationing as described above. See below No Fractional Shares.

Based on publicly available information regarding the current shareholdings of Abitibi, we believe that it is unlikely that eligible Abitibi shareholders will be limited in their ability to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. However, the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit is necessary to ensure that the combination is tax deferred for U.S. resident holders of Abitibi common shares.

No Fractional Shares

Neither AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will issue fractional shares to shareholders in connection with the combination, including the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and the application of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. Rather, shareholders will receive cash, without interest, equal to the shareholder's pro rata portion of the net proceeds after expenses received upon the sale of whole shares representing the accumulation of all fractional interests in the shares to which all shareholders are entitled.

Closing and Effective Time

Closing

The closing of the combination will take place on the second business day after the date on which all closing conditions have been satisfied or waived (other than any conditions which by their terms cannot be satisfied until the closing date, but subject to the satisfaction or, where permitted, waiver of those conditions as of the closing date) or another time as agreed to in writing by the parties. At the closing, the following will be deemed to have occurred consecutively:

Bowater will cause a certificate of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL;

Bowater Canada will cause the Bowater Canada articles of amendment to be filed in accordance with the CBCA; and Abitibi will cause articles of arrangement to be filed in accordance with the CBCA.

Effective Time

The merger, the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and the arrangement will become effective upon the effective time as set forth in the certificate of merger and in the plan of arrangement, and which we refer to as the Effective Time, in the following order: (1) the merger, (2) the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and (3) the arrangement.

Formation of AbitibiBowater and Merger Sub

Abitibi and Bowater have caused AbitibiBowater and Merger Sub to be organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. Abitibi and Bowater each own 50% of the capital stock of AbitibiBowater and AbitibiBowater owns 100% of the capital stock of Merger Sub. Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to take, and to cause AbitibiBowater to take, in each case prior to the Effective Time, but effective as of the Effective Time, all requisite action:

to cause the certificate of incorporation of AbitibiBowater to be substantially in the form of, and with the content provided in, Annex I to this document; to cause a certificate of designation with respect to the special voting stock of AbitibiBowater, substantially in the form of, and with the content provided in, Annex K to this document, to be duly adopted and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware; to cause the bylaws of AbitibiBowater to be substantially in the form of, and with the content provided in, Annex J to this document; and to provide any stockholder approvals required with respect to AbitibiBowater or Merger Sub in connection with the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement.

Representations and Warranties

The combination agreement contains reciprocal representations and warranties made by and to Abitibi and Bowater. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the combination agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by Abitibi and Bowater in connection with negotiating the terms of the combination agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information.

Representations made by and to Abitibi and Bowater in the combination agreement relate to, among other things:

the proper organization or amalgamation, valid existence, good standing and corporate or similar power of each party and its subsidiaries;

the ownership by each party of its subsidiaries;

each party's capitalization;

the corporate authorization of the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, the due execution and enforceability of the combination agreement and actions of such party's Board of Directors with respect to the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement;

the accuracy of information supplied for inclusion in securities filings in connection with the combination, including in this document;

the absence of undisclosed liabilities;

the absence of any material adverse effect and certain other changes or events since September 30, 2006; the absence of certain litigation and investigations;

material contracts;

compliance with laws;

environmental matters;

labor relations and other employment matters;

pension and employee benefits compliance matters;

tax matters;

stockholder votes required in connection with the combination; and in the case of Bowater, certain matters relating to Bowater Canada and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Certain of the representations and warranties made by Abitibi and Bowater are qualified as to materiality or material adverse effect. For purposes of the combination agreement, material adverse effect means, with respect to Abitibi or Bowater, as the case may be, any change, effect, event, occurrence or development which individually, or in the aggregate:

is or would reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the business, assets, financial condition, liabilities or results of operations of such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; provided that none of the following may be deemed, either alone or in combination, to constitute, and none of the following may be taken into account in determining whether something has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect:

any change, effect, event, occurrence or development in the financial, securities or capital markets or the economy in general which does not disproportionately impact such party and its subsidiaries compared to other similarly situated companies (by size or otherwise) operating in the principal industries and geographic areas in which such party and its subsidiaries operate;

any change, effect, event, occurrence or development in the industries in which such party or any of its subsidiaries operates in general which does not disproportionately impact such party and its subsidiaries compared to other similarly situated companies (by size or otherwise) operating in the principal industries and geographic areas in which such party and its subsidiaries operate;

any change in the demand or pricing for paper or wood products; with certain exceptions, the performance of obligations under the combination agreement (other than any obligation to operate in the ordinary course of business);

any change, effect, event, occurrence or development in the currency markets or currency fluctuations generally, including any change in the exchange rate between the Canadian and U.S. dollars;

any change, effect, event, occurrence or development resulting from or relating to any change in the market price of crude oil, natural gas or related hydrocarbons or other sources of energy or the market prices of other raw materials used by such party or any of its subsidiaries;

with certain exceptions, any change, effect, occurrence or development resulting from or relating to the announcement of the execution of the combination agreement or the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement; or any change in the trading prices of such party's equity securities, by itself, (it being understood that the foregoing will not prevent a party from asserting that any change, event, occurrence, effect or development that may have contributed to or caused such change in trading prices independently constitutes a material adverse effect); or is or would reasonably be expected to impair in any material respect the ability of such party (or, in the case of Bowater, Bowater or Bowater Canada) to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement or to perform its obligations under the combination agreement.

The representations and warranties of each of the parties to the combination agreement will expire upon the Effective Time.

Covenants

Conduct of Business. The combination agreement contains reciprocal covenants of Abitibi and Bowater concerning the operation of their businesses between the date of the combination agreement and the Effective Time. Each party has agreed that, during such period, such party will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, carry on its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice and, to the extent consistent with the conduct of its business in the ordinary course, use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its current business organizations, keep available the services of its current officers, employees and consultants and preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees, distributors and others having business dealings with it. In addition to and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of Abitibi and Bowater has agreed that, during such period, subject to certain exceptions or as otherwise expressly permitted or required pursuant to the combination agreement, such party will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without the other party's prior written consent (which consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed):

declare, set aside or pay any dividends on, or make any other distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) in respect of, any of its capital stock, other than dividends or distributions by a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary or, in the case of Bowater, regular, quarterly dividends on Bowater common stock of US$0.20 per share, which regularly quarterly dividend will be paid consistent with past practices, unless otherwise required by the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of Bowater or by applicable law;

split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its capital stock;

No Solicitation. Each of Abitibi and Bowater has agreed that it will not, and that it will cause its representatives not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit or otherwise knowingly encourage or facilitate any inquiries or the making by any third party of any proposal or offer with respect to a purchase, merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, business combination, liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization or similar transaction involving 20% or more of the consolidated assets of such party (including by means of a transaction with respect to securities of such party or its subsidiaries) or 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity securities of such party. Any such proposal or offer, other than with respect to a transaction permitted by the covenants described above under Conduct of Business, is referred to in this document as an Acquisition Proposal.

Each of Abitibi and Bowater has further agreed that it will not, and that it will cause its representatives not to, in each case except as permitted below:

engage in any negotiations or discussions with, or provide any confidential information or data to, any third party relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or otherwise knowingly encourage or facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal;

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, neither Abitibi nor Bowater is prohibited from:

complying with certain requirements of applicable law;

engaging in negotiations with or, subject to certain restrictions, providing confidential information to, a third party who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal, but in each case only if:

- i the Abitibi shareholder approval or the Bowater stockholder approval, as applicable, has not yet been obtained;
- i the Board of Directors of such party determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that failure to take the foregoing action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and
- i the Board of Directors of such party determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) that the relevant Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal, as defined below;

either making a change in recommendation or, concurrent with the termination of the combination agreement and payment of the termination fee described below under Termination Fee and Expenses, entering into an agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, but in each case only if, prior to taking such action:

- i such party is in compliance with the provisions described under this section;
- i the Board of Directors of such party has determined in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal after giving effect to all of the adjustments which may be offered by the other party as described below;
- i such party has notified the other party in writing, at least five business days in advance of such change in recommendation or termination (which period will be extended by an additional three business days following any change in financial terms or other material terms of the relevant Acquisition Proposal) that it is considering taking such action, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and the identity of the person making such Superior Proposal and delivering certain required information to the other party; and
- i during such five business day period (as extended, if applicable), such party has negotiated, and made its financial and legal advisors available to negotiate, with the other party should the other party elect to propose adjustments in the terms and conditions of the combination agreement such that, after giving effect to such amendments, such Acquisition Proposal no longer constitutes a Superior Proposal.

The term Superior Proposal means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal with respect to a party that the Board of Directors of such party concludes in good faith, after consultation with financial advisors and outside legal counsel is (i) more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of the party receiving the proposal and (ii) fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on a timely basis; provided that for purposes of this definition, Acquisition Proposal has the meaning set forth above, except that the references in that definition to 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity securities of such party are deemed to be references to a majority of all outstanding shares of each class of equity securities of such party and references to 20% or more of the consolidated assets of such party are deemed to be references to all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of such party.

Each of Abitibi and Bowater is required to notify the other party promptly (but in any event within 24 hours) if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, any of its representatives, indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such person and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers and providing, promptly and in any event within one business day of receipt thereof, a copy of all documentation setting forth the terms of any such inquiry, proposal or offer, and thereafter is required to keep the other party informed, on a reasonably current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposals or offers and the status of any such discussions or negotiations (including by delivering any further documentation of the type referred to above).

Commercially Reasonable Efforts. Each party to the combination agreement has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement.

Governmental Approvals. Each party to the combination agreement has agreed that, if any objections are asserted by any governmental authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, or if any action is instituted by any governmental authority or any private party challenging any of the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, each party will use its commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any such objections or action. Notwithstanding any other provision of the combination agreement, however, the parties are not required to enter into any settlement, agreement or other arrangement with any governmental authority or private party in connection with the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement or to divest or otherwise hold or maintain separate assets or properties if such would reasonably be expected, in either case, to substantially diminish the benefits reasonably expected to be derived by the parties from consummating the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement.

Director and Officer Matters. From and after the Effective Time, AbitibiBowater will assume and/or fulfill, as applicable, and will cause Abitibi or Bowater, as applicable, and/or their respective successors to fulfill and honor in all respects their respective obligations pursuant to any indemnification agreements between Abitibi or Bowater, as applicable, and their respective current or former directors, officers or employees in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time and any indemnification provisions under Abitibi's bylaws, Bowater's certificate of incorporation or Bowater's bylaws, each as in effect on the date of the combination agreement. AbitibiBowater will also, subject to certain conditions, pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any applicable action, suit or proceeding to each such indemnified party to the fullest extent permitted under such documents and applicable law. AbitibiBowater will cause Abitibi and Bowater and/or their respective successors not to amend, repeal or otherwise modify the provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification contained in Abitibi's bylaws, Bowater's certificate of incorporation or Bowater's bylaws as in effect on the date of the combination agreement for a period of six years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights under such documents of individuals who, immediately prior to the Effective Time, were directors or officers of Abitibi or Bowater, as applicable, unless such modification is required by law. For a period of six years after the Effective Time, AbitibiBowater will, or will cause Abitibi, Bowater and/or their respective successors to, maintain in effect, if available, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who are currently covered by Abitibi's or Bowater's, as applicable, directors' and officers' liability insurance policy with respect to claims arising from actions or omissions that occurred on or before the Effective Time (including in connection with the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) on terms no less favorable to the beneficiaries of such policies than those applicable to persons covered as of the date of the combination agreement.

State Takeover Laws. Each of Abitibi, Bowater and their respective Boards of Directors are required to grant such approvals and take all actions necessary so that no fair price, moratorium, control share acquisition or other similar anti-takeover statute or regulation (including Section 203 of the DGCL) is or may become applicable to the combination agreement or to the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement.

Employee Benefits Matters. For a period of twelve months following the Effective Time, the employees of Abitibi, Bowater and their respective subsidiaries, as of the Effective Time (other than employees whose terms and conditions of employment are governed by a collective bargaining agreement, the terms and conditions of which will be respected by AbitibiBowater, Abitibi and Bowater) who remain in the active employment of AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater and/or their respective subsidiaries, after the Effective Time, will be required to receive employee benefits that are, in the aggregate (considering all employees generally), substantially similar to the employee benefits provided to such employees immediately prior to the Effective Time. This obligation does not extend to equity-based benefits plans or similar arrangements and any such plans or arrangements will not be taken into account in determining whether employee benefits are substantially similar in the aggregate. The employee benefits covenants contained in the combination agreement are not intended to be an amendment to any employee benefit plan or to establish any right or obligation enforceable by third parties.

Covenants Regarding Exchangeable Shares. AbitibiBowater has agreed that, following the Effective Time and while any Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are outstanding, AbitibiBowater will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Bowater Canada (or any successor thereto as the issuer of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) will continue to be a taxable Canadian corporation and a public corporation within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act and AbitibiBowater will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange in Canada within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act.

AbitibiBowater has further agreed that, so long as any outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are owned by any person other than Bowater or any of its affiliates, AbitibiBowater will not, and will cause its affiliates not to, take any action relating to a plan or agreement of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, merger, consolidation, continuation, change of residence, amalgamation, restructuring, recapitalization or other material reorganization of Bowater Canada or its successors or Bowater Canadian Holdings or its successors, as the case may be, that results, prior to a redemption date (as that term is defined in the provisions that apply to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares), in (1) the recognition under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) of any accrued gain on a holder's Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, recognition of which was deferred on the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, (2) dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares being ineligible for the dividend gross-up and tax credit under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) for individuals resident in Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act and the inter-corporate dividend deduction under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) for corporations resident in Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, or (3) dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares being subject to withholding tax (other than withholding tax imposed under the laws of Canada or the United States or a state, province, territory or other political subdivision thereof).

AbitibiBowater and Bowater will be required to indemnify and hold holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares harmless from and against any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, judgments, damages, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses (including interest, penalties and reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees and disbursements) which are made against or incurred by such holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in their capacity as shareholders of Bowater Canada primarily as a result of, arising out of or relating to the fact that Bowater Canada has been or is an operating subsidiary of Bowater rather than a special purpose vehicle.

Tax Matters. From and after the date of the combination agreement and until the Effective Time, each party (i) will be required to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify, and will not, without the prior written consent of the parties, knowingly take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could prevent the merger from qualifying, as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) will be required to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the merger and the arrangement, taken together, to qualify, and will not, without the prior written consent of the parties, knowingly take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could prevent the merger and the arrangement from qualifying, as an exchange described in Section 351 of the Code. Following the Effective Time, and consistent with any such consent, neither AbitibiBowater nor any of its subsidiaries, nor any of its affiliates, may knowingly take any action or cause any action to be taken which would cause the merger to fail to so qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code or the merger and the arrangement, taken together to fail to so qualify as an exchange described in Section 351 of the Code.

Governance of AbitibiBowater. Immediately following the Effective Time, the members of the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater and each committee of the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater will be determined as set forth in the form of bylaws of AbitibiBowater set forth in Annex J to this document, and each member of such Board of Directors or committee thereof will serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. Immediately following the Effective Time, the individuals named in the form of bylaws of AbitibiBowater will have the positions at AbitibiBowater as set forth therein, until the earlier of their resignation or removal and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. In addition, certain other agreements of Abitibi and Bowater with respect to AbitibiBowater at the Effective Time are set forth in the form of bylaws of AbitibiBowater, including, among other things, matters relating to headquarters location, U.S. regional manufacturing and sales office and customer service locations.

the receipt of all consents, approvals and authorizations of any governmental authority required of Abitibi, Bowater or any of their respective subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, other than matters described in the two preceding bullet points, the failure of which to be obtained or taken, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material

Bowater Canada not having been liquidated, dissolved or wound up and having remained solvent, and no bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceeding having been commenced against Bowater Canada.

Amendment

Subject to applicable law and the interim order of the Superior Court of Quebec, at any time prior to the effective time, Abitibi and Bowater may amend the combination agreement by written agreement authorized by their respective Boards of Directors. Termination

Abitibi and Bowater may terminate the combination agreement by mutual agreement. In addition, either Abitibi or Bowater may terminate the combination agreement prior to the Effective Time if any of the following occurs:

the combination is not completed on or before January 31, 2008, which we refer to as the Termination Date, except that the right to terminate the combination agreement under this provision will not be available to any party whose breach or failure to fulfill any obligation of the combination agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the combination to occur on or before the Termination Date;

a governmental authority of competent jurisdiction whose approval is a condition to the obligations of the parties to complete the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement has denied such approval and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or if any law makes the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited, or if a governmental authority in the United States or Canada has issued an order or taken any other action, in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement, which order or other action is final and nonappealable, except that the right to terminate the combination agreement under this provision will not be available to any party whose failure to comply with or failure to fulfill any obligation of the combination agreement has been a principal cause of, or resulted in, such action;

either the Abitibi shareholder approval or the Bowater stockholder approval is not obtained upon a vote taken at the relevant meeting;

upon a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the combination agreement such that the conditions of the terminating party described above with respect to accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties or compliance by the other party with its covenants and agreements is incapable of being satisfied prior to the Termination Date;

prior to receipt of the other party's required shareholder or stockholder approval if (x) the other party's Board of Directors has made a change in recommendation or (y) the other party has intentionally and materially breached its obligations under the combination agreement with respect to (1) the filing of this document and the registration statement on Form S-4 in which this document is included, (2) the no solicitation covenants described above under Covenants No Solicitation or (3) its obligation to convene its shareholder or stockholder meeting; or

In the event of termination of the combination agreement, the obligations of Abitibi and Bowater will terminate, except for the provisions relating to confidentiality, the payment of fees and expenses and termination of the combination agreement. Except for the foregoing, there will be no liability on the part of either Abitibi or Bowater upon termination of the combination agreement except for liabilities or damages arising from a willful or intentional breach of the combination agreement.

Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement

Abitibi and Bowater have agreed to reciprocal provisions for the reimbursement, under certain circumstances, of up to US$12 million of reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the other party incurred in connection with the combination agreement and the payment to the other party, under certain circumstances, of a termination fee of US$28 million. We refer to the party obligated to pay under these provisions as the paying party and the party entitled to receive such payment as the receiving party.

The paying party will reimburse the receiving party's expenses, up to a maximum of US$12 million, if:

one of the following events occurs:

- i the paying party exercises its right to terminate the combination agreement unilaterally following the Termination Date;
- i either the paying party or the receiving party exercises its right to terminate the combination agreement based on the failure of stockholders voting at the paying party's meeting to grant the required shareholder or stockholder approval; or

and, following the date of the combination agreement and prior to the termination of the combination agreement (or, in the case of the second bullet point above, prior to the paying party's shareholder or stockholder meeting), an Acquisition Proposal in respect of the paying party shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated to the shareholder or stockholders of the paying party.

If any expense reimbursement becomes due and payable and, within 12 months following the termination of the combination agreement, the paying party enters into a binding agreement to effect an Acquisition Proposal that is later consummated, or an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the paying party is consummated, then the paying party will be required to pay the termination fee of US$28 million to the receiving party.

The paying party would also be required to pay the termination fee and expense reimbursement to the receiving party if:

the receiving party exercises its right to terminate the combination agreement based on (x) the other party's Board of Directors having made a change in recommendation or (y) the other party having intentionally and materially breached its obligations under the combination agreement with respect to (1) the filing of this document and the registration statement on Form S-4 in which this document is included, (2) the no solicitation covenants described above under Covenants No Solicitation or (3) its obligation to convene its shareholder or stockholder meeting; or the paying party exercises its right to terminate the combination agreement in connection with a Superior Proposal.

Fees and Expenses

All fees and expenses incurred in connection with the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement will be paid by AbitibiBowater if the merger and the arrangement are consummated. Except as described above under Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the combination agreement and the transactions contemplated by the combination agreement will be paid by the party incurring such expenses if the merger and the arrangement are not consummated; provided that Abitibi and Bowater will share equally all out-of-pocket expenses (other than the fees and expenses of attorneys, accountants, investment bankers and other advisors) incurred in respect of (i) the printing, filing and mailing of this document (including any related preliminary materials) and any amendments or supplements thereto and (ii) certain filing fees in connection with obtaining required governmental approvals.

Bowater Canada issued additional Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to certain of the former shareholders of Alliance Forest Products Inc., in connection with the implementation of the acquisition by Bowater of Alliance Forest Products in 2001. Bowater Canada's sole material assets consist of the shares of the capital of Bowater Canadian Forest Products Inc. (formerly Avenor).

Bowater Canada's head office is located at 1000 de la Gauchetière Street West, Suite 2820, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3B 4W5.

The Bowater Canada preferred shares are redeemable at the option of Bowater Canada any time at C$100 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. There are currently no Bowater Canada preferred shares issued and outstanding.

Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

The Bowater Canada exchangeable shares rank prior to the Bowater Canada common shares, the Bowater Canada preferred shares and any other shares ranking junior to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Bowater Canada, whether voluntary or involuntary.

date and payment date for dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are the same as that for the corresponding dividends on the shares of Bowater common stock.

Certain Restrictions. Except as provided in the next sentence, Bowater Canada may not at any time without the approval of the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares as set forth below under Amendment and Approval :

pay any dividend on the Bowater Canada common shares, the Bowater Canada preferred shares, or any other shares ranking junior to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, other than stock dividends payable in Bowater Canada common shares or any such other shares ranking junior to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, as the case may be;

redeem, purchase or make any capital distribution in respect of the Bowater Canada common shares, the Bowater Canada preferred shares, or any other shares ranking junior to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares;

redeem or purchase any other shares of Bowater Canada ranking equally with the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares with respect to the payment of dividends or on any liquidation distribution; or issue any Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or any other shares of Bowater Canada ranking equally with, or superior to, the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares other than by way of stock dividends to the holders of such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

The restrictions in the above clauses do not apply if all the dividends on the outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares corresponding to dividends declared and paid to date on the shares of Bowater common stock have been declared and paid in full on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Liquidation of Bowater Canada. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Bowater Canada or any other proposed distribution of the assets of Bowater Canada among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled, subject to applicable law, to receive a liquidation amount equal to the current market price of a share of Bowater common stock on the last business day prior to the liquidation date (and which amount will be satisfied by Bowater Canada causing the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share held), plus the right to receive unpaid dividends on Bowater Canada exchangeable shares having a record date prior to the liquidation date.

On or after the liquidation date, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may surrender certificates representing such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, together with such other documents as may be required to effect the transfer of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares under the CBCA or the bylaws of Bowater Canada or by the transfer agent, at Bowater Canada's registered office or the office of the transfer agent. Upon receipt of the certificates and other documents and subject to the exercise by Bowater Canadian Holdings of its liquidation call right, which is described below. Bowater Canada will deliver the liquidation amount to such holder at the address recorded in the securities register or hold the liquidation amount for pick up by the holder at Bowater Canada's registered office or the office of the transfer agent, as specified by Bowater Canada in a notice to such holders.

Upon the occurrence of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Bowater Canada or other distribution of assets of Bowater Canada among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, Bowater Canadian Holdings will have the liquidation call right to purchase all but not less than all of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares then outstanding at a purchase price per share equal to the liquidation amount and, upon the exercise of this liquidation call right, the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be obligated to sell such shares to Bowater Canadian Holdings.

The purchase by Bowater Canadian Holdings of all of the outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares upon the exercise of the liquidation call right will occur on the liquidation date.

Upon the occurrence of a Bowater Canada insolvency event, (as this term is defined in the voting and exchange trust agreement), the trustee under the voting and exchange trust agreement on behalf of the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will have the right to require Bowater to purchase any or all of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares then outstanding (other than Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by Bowater or its affiliates, including Bowater Canadian Holdings) for an amount per share to be satisfied by the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock. See Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement.

Retraction of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares by Holders. Holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled at any time to retract (i.e., to require Bowater Canada to redeem) any or all Bowater Canada exchangeable shares owned by them and to receive a retraction price equal to the current market price of a share of Bowater common stock on the last business day prior to the retraction date (and which amount will be satisfied by Bowater Canada causing the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share held), plus the right to receive unpaid dividends on Bowater Canada exchangeable shares having a record date prior to the retraction date, subject to the retraction call right of Bowater Canadian Holdings described below. Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may effect such retraction by presenting to Bowater Canada or its transfer agent a certificate or certificates representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares which the holder desires to have Bowater Canada redeem, together with such other documents and instruments as may be required under the CBCA or the bylaws of Bowater Canada or by the transfer agent, and a duly executed retraction request (i) specifying that the holder desires to have the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares redeemed by Bowater Canada, (ii) stating the retraction date on which the holder desires to have Bowater Canada redeem such retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, provided that the retraction date is not less than ten business days nor more than 15 business days after the date on which the retraction request is received by Bowater Canada and further provided that, in the event that no such business day is specified by the holder in the retraction request, the retraction date will be deemed to be the 15th business day after the date on which the retraction request is received by Bowater Canada, and (iii) acknowledging the retraction call right of Bowater Canadian Holdings to purchase all but not less than all the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares directly from the holder and that the retraction request will be deemed to be a revocable offer by the holder to sell the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to Bowater Canadian Holdings in accordance with the retraction call right on the terms and conditions described below.

Upon receipt by Bowater Canada of a retraction request, Bowater Canada will promptly notify Bowater and Bowater Canadian Holdings of the retraction request. In order to exercise its retraction call right, Bowater Canadian Holdings must provide Bowater Canada with a call notice within five business days of notification to Bowater Canadian Holdings by Bowater Canada of the receipt by Bowater Canada of the retraction request. If Bowater Canadian Holdings delivers the call notice within five business days, and provided that the retraction request is not revoked by the holder in the manner described below, Bowater Canada will not redeem the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and Bowater Canadian Holdings will purchase from such holder and such holder will sell to Bowater Canadian Holdings on the retraction date the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for the retraction price. In the event that Bowater Canadian Holdings does not deliver a call notice within the five business day period, and provided that the retraction request is not revoked by the holder in the manner described below, Bowater Canada will redeem the retracted Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the retraction date for the retraction price.

A holder of retracted shares may, by notice in writing given by the holder to Bowater Canada before the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the retraction date, withdraw its retraction request, in which event such retraction request will be null and void and the revocable offer constituted by the retraction request to sell the retracted shares to Bowater Holdings will be deemed to have been revoked.

If, as a result of solvency provisions of applicable law, Bowater Canada is not permitted to redeem all Bowater Canada exchangeable shares tendered by a retracting holder, Bowater Canada will redeem only those Bowater Canada exchangeable shares tendered by the holder (rounded down to a whole number of shares) as would not be contrary to such provisions of applicable law. The holder of any Bowater Canada exchangeable shares not redeemed by Bowater Canada or purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings as a consequence of such applicable law will be deemed to have required Bowater to purchase such unretracted shares in exchange for shares of Bowater common stock on the retraction date pursuant to the optional exchange right. See Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement Optional Exchange Right in Case of Bowater Canada Insolvency Event.

Redemption of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares. Subject to applicable law and the exercise by Bowater Canadian Holdings of the redemption call right, which is described below, on the redemption date, Bowater Canada will redeem all but not less than all of the then outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for a redemption price equal to the current market price of a share of Bowater common stock on the last business day prior to the redemption date (and which amount will be satisfied by Bowater Canada causing the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share held), plus the right to receive unpaid dividends on Bowater Canada exchangeable shares having a record date prior to the redemption date. Bowater Canada will, at least 60 days prior to the redemption date provide the registered holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares with written notice of the proposed redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares by Bowater Canada (except in the case of an acquisition of control of Bowater as described in the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, in which case, in the event the directors of Bowater Canada elect to redeem the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, the notice will be provided the number of days prior to the redemption date as the directors of Bowater Canada determine to be reasonably practicable under the circumstances). On or after the redemption date, upon the holder's presentation and surrender of the certificates representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and such other documents as may be required at the office of the transfer agent or the registered office of Bowater Canada, Bowater Canada will deliver the redemption price to the holder at the address of the holder recorded in the securities register or hold the redemption price for pick up by the holder at the registered office of Bowater Canada or the office of the transfer agent as specified in the written notice.

Notwithstanding a proposed redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares by Bowater Canada on the redemption date, pursuant to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, Bowater Canadian Holdings is entitled to exercise a redemption call right to purchase on such redemption date all but not less than all of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares then outstanding in exchange for the redemption price and, upon the exercise of the redemption call right, the holders thereof will be obligated to sell such shares to Bowater Canadian Holdings. If Bowater Canadian Holdings exercises the redemption call right, Bowater Canada's right to redeem the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the redemption date will terminate.

Purchase for Cancellation. Subject to applicable law, Bowater Canada may at any time and from time to time purchase for cancellation all or any part of the outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares at any price by tender to all the holders of record of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares then outstanding or through the facilities of any stock exchange on which the exchangeable shares are listed or quoted. If in response to an invitation for tenders, more Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to Bowater Canada than Bowater Canada is prepared to purchase, the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be purchased by Bowater Canada shall be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata according to the number of shares tendered by each holder who submits a tender to Bowater Canada, provided that when shares are tendered at different prices, the pro rating shall be effected (disregarding fractions) only with respect to the shares tendered at the price at which more shares were tendered than Bowater Canada is prepared to purchase after Bowater Canada has purchased all the shares tendered at lower prices. If part only of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares shall be purchased, holders will receive, at the expense of Bowater Canada, a new share certificate representing the balance of such shares.

Voting Rights. The holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are not entitled as such to receive notice of or to attend any meeting of the shareholders of Bowater Canada or to vote at any such meeting, except as required by the provisions of the CBCA.

Amendment and Approval. The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may be added to, changed or removed but only with the approval of the holders thereof. Any such approval or any other approval or consent to be given by the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be sufficiently given if given in accordance with applicable law and subject to a minimum requirement that such approval be evidenced by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast thereon at a meeting of the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares duly called and held at which holders of at least 25% of the outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are present or represented by proxy. In the event that no such quorum is present at such meeting within one-half hour after the time appointed therefor, then the meeting will be adjourned to such date (not less than five days later) and to such time and place as may be designated by the chairman of such meeting and the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares present or represented by proxy at the adjourned meeting may transact the business for which the meeting was originally called. At the adjourned meeting, a resolution passed by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the votes cast thereon will constitute the approval or consent of the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Actions by Bowater Canada under the Support Agreement. Under the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, Bowater Canada has agreed to take all such actions and do all such things as are necessary or advisable to perform and comply with, and to ensure the performance and compliance by Bowater with, all provisions of the support agreement applicable to Bowater.

Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment

The purpose of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment, a copy of which is attached as Annex F to this document, is to:

change Bowater Canada's name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.,

effect a share consolidation with the result that each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share is changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, which is the same exchange ratio as the Bowater exchange ratio, amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to extend the date prior to which the directors of Bowater Canada may not, unless there are fewer than 500,000 Bowater Canada exchangeable shares outstanding or there is a proposed change-in-control transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater, cause the redemption of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, from June 30, 2008 to June 30, 2018, and amend the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to clarify that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, instead of being exchangeable for shares of Bowater common stock, and to make other conforming changes required to give effect to the combination.

Effecting the Bowater Canada articles of amendment is one of the implementation steps of the combination, together with the merger of Merger Sub with and into Bowater under the DGCL and the arrangement relating to Abitibi under the CBCA.

If Bowater Canada's shareholders do not approve the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution, Bowater and its affiliates will, in accordance with the terms of the combination agreement, cause the redemption of all outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares on the business day immediately preceding the effective date of the combination. In addition, the provisions governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares generally provide that, if Bowater Canada exercises a redemption right or is required to redeem Bowater Canada exchangeable shares upon request by a holder of such shares, then Bowater Canadian Holdings may avail itself of its call right. In such case, the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will receive one share of Bowater common stock in exchange for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share, and each share of Bowater common stock so received will be converted into the right to receive 0.52 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock in the merger.

A redemption or purchase of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares may have certain tax consequences to holders, depending on their tax status. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings pursuant to the exercise of its call right will generally realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the purchase price for the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If Bowater Canadian Holdings does not exercise its call right and the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are redeemed by Bowater Canada, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will generally be deemed to receive a dividend and to have realized either a capital gain or a capital loss depending on the holder's own circumstances. Different consequences may result for a holder that is a corporation. For more information see "Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Combination - Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares."

Any redemption or exercise of the Bowater Canadian Holdings call right described above will not affect an eligible Abitibi shareholder's ability to elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Bowater has agreed, subject to obtaining the final order of the Superior Court of Quebec and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions contained in the combination agreement, to, on or prior to the date of closing, cause the directors of Bowater Canada, Bowater Canadian Holdings, and Bowater to amend or amend and restate the voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement, each as described under "Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement - Amendments to the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement" in order to give effect to the combination and the Bowater Canada articles of amendment.

AbitibiBowater has agreed, subject to obtaining the final order of the Superior Court of Quebec and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions contained in the combination agreement, to, on or prior to the date of closing, adopt and become a party to the amended and restated voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement and to issue to the trustee under the voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement the one share of special voting stock of AbitibiBowater.

Bowater's obligations to cause (i) the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and (ii) the amendment and restatement of the voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement are conditional upon all other conditions to the closing of the combination having been satisfied or waived. To that end, the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution set forth in Schedule B to this document specifically authorizes the directors of Bowater Canada not to effect the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment and to revoke the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution in the event it is reasonably apparent to the directors of Bowater Canada that the combination will not be consummated.

Stock Exchange Listing

Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are currently listed on the TSX under the stock symbol "BWX." Bowater Canada intends to apply to the TSX to list such additional Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issuable in connection with the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment (including its change of name to AbitibiBowater Canada Inc.), the combination and the Abitibi arrangement and to change its symbol to "AXB."

Table of Contents

Bowater Canada also entered into a support agreement dated as of July 24, 1998 in connection with the acquisition by Bowater of Avenor Inc. In this document, we refer to this agreement as the support agreement.

The following is a summary description of the material provisions of the voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement as currently in effect. For a description of changes to these provisions that will be effected in connection with the combination see Amendments to the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement below.

Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement

Voting Rights. Pursuant to the voting and exchange trust agreement, Bowater has issued one share of special voting stock to a trustee for the benefit of the holders (other than Bowater or its affiliates) of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. The special voting stock has a number of votes, which may be cast by the trustee at any meeting at which Bowater stockholders are entitled to vote, equal to the number of outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (other than shares held by Bowater or its affiliates) for which it has timely received instructions from the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Each holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (other than Bowater or its affiliates) on the record date for any meeting of the Bowater stockholders at which Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are entitled to be voted is entitled to instruct the trustee to exercise one of the votes attached to the special voting stock for such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. The trustee will exercise each vote attached to the special voting stock only as directed by the relevant holder and, in the absence of instructions from a holder as to voting, the trustee will not have voting rights with respect to such votes. A holder may, upon instructing the trustee, obtain a proxy from the trustee entitling the holder to vote directly at the relevant Bowater stockholder meeting the votes attached to the special voting stock to which the holder is entitled.

The trustee will send to the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares the notice of each meeting at which the Bowater stockholders are entitled to vote, together with the related meeting materials and a statement as to the manner in which the holder may instruct the trustee to exercise the votes attaching to the special voting stock, at the same time as Bowater sends such notice and materials to the Bowater stockholders. The trustee will also send to the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares copies of all information statements, interim and annual financial statements, reports and other materials sent by Bowater to the Bowater stockholders at the same time as such materials are sent to the Bowater stockholders. To the extent such materials are provided to the trustee by Bowater, the trustee will also send to the holders all materials sent by third parties to Bowater stockholders generally, including dissident proxy circulars and tender and exchange offer circulars, as soon as possible after such materials are first sent to Bowater stockholders.

All rights of a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to exercise votes attached to the special voting stock will cease upon the exchange of all of such holder's Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for shares of Bowater common stock.

Optional Exchange Right in Case of Bowater Canada Insolvency Event. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Bowater Canada insolvency event, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be entitled, subject to the provisions of the voting and exchange trust agreement, to instruct the trustee to exercise the optional exchange right with respect to any or all of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by such holder, thereby requiring Bowater to purchase such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares from the holder. As soon as practicable following the occurrence of a Bowater Canada insolvency event or any event that may, with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both, become a Bowater Canada insolvency event, Bowater Canada and Bowater will give written notice thereof to the trustee under the voting and exchange trust agreement. As soon as practicable after receiving such notice, the trustee will then notify each holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares of such event or potential event and will advise the holder of its rights with respect to the optional exchange right described above.

The purchase price payable by Bowater for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share to be purchased under the optional exchange right will be satisfied by the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock to the holder thereof plus unpaid dividends having a record date prior to the exchange date.

If, as a result of solvency provisions of applicable law, Bowater Canada is unable to redeem all of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares tendered for retraction by a holder in accordance with the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, the holder will be deemed to have exercised the optional exchange right with respect to the unredeemed Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and Bowater will be required to purchase such shares from the holder in the manner set forth above.

Automatic Exchange on Liquidation of Bowater. In the event Bowater is liquidated, Bowater will be required to purchase each outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share (other than Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by Bowater or its affiliates) on the fifth business day prior to the date Bowater is effectively liquidated for a purchase price to be satisfied by the delivery of one share of Bowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share purchased plus unpaid dividends having a record date prior to the exchange date.

Support Agreement

Bowater, Bowater Canadian Holdings and Bowater Canada have entered into the support agreement. Pursuant to the support agreement, Bowater has made the following covenants regarding the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares:

Bowater will not declare or pay any dividend on the Bowater common stock unless (a) Bowater Canada immediately thereafter declares or pays, as the case may be, an equivalent dividend on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and (b) Bowater Canada has sufficient money or other assets or authorized but unissued securities available to enable the due declaration and the due and punctual payment, in accordance with applicable law, of an equivalent dividend on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares;

Bowater will advise Bowater Canada in advance of the declaration of any dividend on the shares of Bowater common stock and take other actions reasonably necessary to ensure that the declaration date, record date and payment date for dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are the same as that for any corresponding dividends on the shares of Bowater common stock;

Bowater will ensure that the record date for any dividend declared on the shares of Bowater common stock is not less than ten business days after the declaration date of such dividend; and Bowater will take all actions and do all things reasonably necessary or desirable to enable and permit Bowater Canada, in accordance with applicable law, to pay the liquidation amount, the retraction price or the redemption price (as such terms are defined in the support agreement) to the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Bowater Canada, a retraction request by a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or a redemption of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares by Bowater Canada, as the case may be.

The support agreement also provides that Bowater will not, without the prior approval of Bowater Canada and the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares:

distribute additional shares of Bowater common stock, securities convertible therefor or rights to subscribe therefor or other property, assets or other securities of Bowater to the holders of all or substantially all outstanding shares of Bowater common stock, unless the same or an economically equivalent distribution on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares is made simultaneously, or subdivide, consolidate, reclassify, or otherwise change the then outstanding shares of Bowater common stock or effect a transaction, such as a merger or reorganization, which changes or affects the shares of

Bowater common stock, unless the same or an economically equivalent change is simultaneously made with respect to, or in the rights of the holders of, the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

The directors of Bowater Canada will determine in good faith and in its sole discretion economic equivalence for the purpose of any event described above. The directors of Bowater Canada are satisfied that, assuming the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment, the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will receive economically equivalent consideration as holders of shares of Bowater common stock under the combination. In the event of any proposed tender offer, share exchange offer, issuer bid, take-over bid or similar transaction (other than a purchase of shares of Bowater common stock by Bowater, Bowater Canadian Holdings or Bowater Canada pursuant to Rule 10b-18 of the Exchange Act) affecting the shares of Bowater common stock, Bowater will use reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary or desirable to enable holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to participate in such transaction to the same extent and on an economically equivalent basis as the holders of shares of Bowater common stock.

The support agreement also provides that, as long as any outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are owned by any person or entity other than Bowater or any of its affiliates, Bowater will, unless approval to do otherwise is obtained from the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, remain the direct or indirect beneficial owner of all issued and outstanding voting shares of Bowater Canada and Bowater Canadian Holdings.

With the exception of changes for the purpose of (i) adding covenants for the protection of the holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, (ii) making certain necessary amendments or (iii) curing ambiguities or clerical errors (provided, in each case, that the Bowater Board of Directors and the Board of Directors of each of Bowater Canada and Bowater Canadian Holdings are of the opinion that such amendments are not prejudicial to the interests of the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares), the support agreement may not be amended without the approval of the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Under the support agreement, each of Bowater and Bowater Canadian Holdings have agreed with Bowater Canada not to exercise, and to prevent their affiliates from exercising, any voting rights attached to the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares owned by Bowater or Bowater Canadian Holdings or their affiliates on any matter considered at meetings of holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (including any approval sought from such holders in respect of matters arising under the support agreement).

Amendments to the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement

Pursuant to the combination agreement, Bowater has agreed and undertaken that it will, and it will cause Bowater Canadian Holdings and Bowater Canada, on or prior to the consummation of the combination and subject to obtaining the final order in respect of the arrangement in respect of Abitibi, to amend or amend and restate each of the voting and exchange agreement and the support agreement in order to give effect to the Bowater Canada articles of amendment. Furthermore, subject to obtaining the final order and on or prior to the consummation of the combination, AbitibiBowater has agreed and undertaken to become a party to the amended and restated voting and exchange agreement and support agreement.

The directors of Bowater Canada are satisfied that the proposed amendments to and the restatements of the voting and exchange trust agreement and the support agreement are not prejudicial to the interests of the holders of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

Copies of the proposed forms of amended and restated support agreement and amended and restated voting and exchange trust agreement are attached as Annexes G and H, respectively, to this document.

Table of ContentsMATERIAL CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE COMBINATION

The following is a summary of the material Canadian federal income tax consequences under the Canadian Tax Act, generally applicable to Abitibi shareholders, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who, for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, and at all relevant times, hold their Abitibi common shares, shares of Bowater common stock, Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, as the case may be, as capital property and deal at arm's length with, and are not and will not be affiliated with, any of Abitibi, Bowater, Bowater Canada or AbitibiBowater. This summary does not apply to an Abitibi shareholder or Bowater stockholder with respect to whom AbitibiBowater or Bowater, respectively, is or will be a foreign affiliate within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act.

Abitibi common shares, shares of Bowater common stock, Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will generally be considered to be capital property to a shareholder unless the shares are held in the course of carrying on a business of trading or dealing in securities, acquired in a transaction considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade or considered to be mark-to-market property for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act. Certain Abitibi shareholders who are residents of Canada for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, and whose Abitibi common shares might not otherwise qualify as capital property, may be entitled to make an irrevocable election in accordance with Subsection 39(4) of the Canadian Tax Act to have their Abitibi common shares and every Canadian security (as defined in the Canadian Tax Act) owned by such Abitibi shareholder in the taxation year of the election and in all subsequent taxation years deemed to be capital property. Where an Abitibi shareholder makes an election with Bowater Canada under section 85 of the Canadian Tax Act in respect of Abitibi common shares, as described below, the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received under the arrangement in exchange for such Abitibi common shares will not be Canadian securities to such holder for this purpose and therefore will not be deemed to be capital property under Subsection 39(4) of the Canadian Tax Act. Abitibi shareholders who do not hold their Abitibi common shares as capital property and Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who do not hold their shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, as the case may be, as capital property should consult their own tax advisors regarding their particular circumstances.

This summary is based on the Canadian Tax Act and the regulations thereunder and the published administrative practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency, which we refer to in this document as the CRA, all in effect as of the date of this document. This summary takes into account all proposed amendments to the Canadian Tax Act and the regulations thereunder that have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof and assumes that such proposed amendments will be enacted substantially as proposed. However, no assurance can be given that such proposed amendments will be enacted in the form proposed, or at all. This summary does not take into account or anticipate any other changes in law or any changes in CRA administrative practices and policies, whether by judicial, governmental or legislative action or decision, nor does it take into account other federal or any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations, which may differ from the material Canadian federal income tax consequences described herein. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from the CRA to confirm the tax consequences of any of the transactions described herein and accordingly no assurance can be given that the CRA will not assert a position contrary to one or more positions reflected in the summary below.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed to be, legal, business or tax advice to any particular Abitibi shareholder. This summary does not take into account your particular circumstances and does not address consequences that may be particular to you. Therefore, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the particular consequences of the combination and the arrangement to you.

In particular, this summary does not take into account the mark-to-market rules in the Canadian Tax Act applicable to securities held by financial institutions, special rules in the Canadian Tax Act applicable to insurers carrying on business in Canada and elsewhere that are not Canadian residents for the purpose of the Canadian Tax Act or the Income Tax Application Rules applicable to Abitibi shareholders who have held their Abitibi common shares continuously since December 31, 1971 (or are deemed to have done so under those rules) and to Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who have held their shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, as the case may be, continuously since December 31, 1971 (or are deemed to have done so under those rules). Holders to which these rules apply should consult their own tax advisors.

For the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, all amounts relating to the acquisition, holding or disposition of securities (including dividends, adjusted cost base and proceeds of disposition) must be expressed in Canadian dollars; amounts denominated in United States dollars must be converted into Canadian dollars based on the prevailing United States dollar exchange rate generally at the time such transactions arise.

Abitibi Shareholders Who Are Residents of Canada

The following section of the summary is applicable to a holder of Abitibi common shares who, for the purpose of the Canadian Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty, is or is deemed to be a resident of Canada at all relevant times. We refer to such a shareholder as a Canadian resident shareholder or a Canadian resident holder.

Non-Rollover (Taxable) Transaction

The following is a summary of the tax consequences to a Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares (i) who is not eligible to make the rollover election, or (ii) who does not make a valid rollover election with Bowater Canada in respect of such Abitibi common shares.

Exchange of Abitibi Common Shares for Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock. The exchange of Abitibi common shares for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will generally be a taxable event to a Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares. Such a shareholder will be considered, at the effective time of the exchange, to have disposed of the Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock acquired by such shareholder on the exchange. As a result, such a shareholder may realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that such proceeds of disposition exceeds (or are less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of his or her Abitibi common shares immediately prior to the exchange and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Exchange of Abitibi Common Shares for Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares (and Ancillary Rights). An Abitibi shareholder who elects to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares under the arrangement will also receive the ancillary rights connected to such shares, which ancillary rights are described under Description of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Share Documents and Other Information Relating to Bowater Canada. An Abitibi shareholder will be required to account for the ancillary rights in determining the proceeds of disposition of his or her Abitibi common shares and the cost of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in consideration therefor. AbitibiBowater is of the view that the ancillary rights have nominal fair market value. This determination of value is not binding on the CRA and it is possible that the CRA could take a contrary view.

Unless a valid rollover election is made, the exchange of Abitibi common shares for Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (and ancillary rights) will generally be a taxable event to a Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares. Such a shareholder will be considered, at the effective time of the exchange, to have disposed of the Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the sum of (i) the fair market value of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (including any fractional share that under the arrangement will be disposed of for cash) acquired by such shareholder on the exchange and (ii) the fair market value of the ancillary rights acquired by such shareholder on the exchange. As a result, such a shareholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that such proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of his or her Abitibi common shares immediately prior to the exchange and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

The cost to such a shareholder of:

Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in exchange for the Abitibi common shares will be equal to the fair market value of the Abitibi common shares at the effective time of the exchange multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the fair market value at the effective time of the exchange of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received on the exchange and the denominator of which is the aggregate fair market value at the effective time of the exchange of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the ancillary rights received on the exchange; and the ancillary rights received in exchange for the Abitibi common shares will be equal to the fair market value of the Abitibi common shares at the effective time of the exchange multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the fair market value at the effective time of the exchange of the ancillary rights received on the exchange and the denominator of which is the aggregate fair market value at the effective time of the exchange of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and the ancillary rights received on the exchange.

Rollover Transaction

A Canadian resident holder of Abitibi common shares (i) who elects to receive consideration that includes Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (and ancillary rights) in exchange for Abitibi common shares, (ii) who is eligible to make an election under Subsection 85(1) or Subsection 85(2) of the Canadian Tax Act, as described below under the heading Rollover Election, and which we refer to as a rollover election, and (iii) who makes a valid rollover election with Bowater Canada in respect of any Abitibi common shares, may obtain a full or partial tax deferral (rollover) of any capital gain otherwise arising on the exchange of Abitibi common shares, depending on the adjusted cost base to the eligible shareholder of the Abitibi common shares at the time of the exchange, the number of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, the fair market value of any ancillary rights received in exchange for the Abitibi common shares and the amount elected by the eligible shareholder to be the proceeds of disposition of the Abitibi common shares.

Eligible Shareholders. Bowater Canada will only make an election with an eligible shareholder. For this purpose, an eligible shareholder means: (a) a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax under the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act; or (b) a partnership any of whose partners is a person who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, other than a person who is exempt from tax for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act by virtue of Subsection 149(1) of the Canadian Tax Act.

Exchange Limitations on Eligible Shareholders. An eligible shareholder will not be entitled to make a rollover election with respect to the portion of his or her Abitibi common shares that are exchanged for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock (instead of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) as a result of the application of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit. For a description of the tax consequences arising from the exchange of Abitibi common shares for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, see Non-Rollover (Taxable) Transaction above.

Rollover Election. Bowater Canada will make a joint election under Subsection 85(1) or Subsection 85(2), as applicable, of the Canadian Tax Act (and the corresponding provisions of any applicable provincial tax legislation) in respect of particular Abitibi common shares, with a shareholder who is an eligible shareholder who elects to receive consideration that includes Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (and ancillary rights), and at the amounts elected by such beneficial owner of Abitibi common shares, subject to the limitations under the Canadian Tax Act and in the arrangement. The comments made herein with respect to such elections are provided for general assistance only. The law in this area is complex and contains numerous technical requirements. Eligible shareholders wishing to make the tax election should consult their own tax advisors.

Elected Amount. An eligible shareholder may elect an amount which, subject to certain limitations contained in the Canadian Tax Act and in the arrangement, will be treated as the proceeds of disposition of the Abitibi common shares held by such eligible shareholder. The limitations imposed by the Canadian Tax Act are that the amounts elected in respect of the exchange of the Abitibi common shares, to which the rollover election applies may not be:

less than the fair market value of the ancillary rights received on the particular exchange; less than the lesser of (i) the adjusted cost base to the eligible shareholder of the Abitibi common shares, and (ii) the fair market value of the Abitibi common shares; and greater than the fair market value of the Abitibi common shares;

in each case, determined at the effective time of the exchange. In addition to the foregoing limitations, the arrangement provides that the elected amount cannot be less than the sum of (i) the fair market value of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in consideration for the Abitibi common shares, and (ii) the fair market value of the ancillary rights received on the exchange.

If the amount elected in the rollover election is greater than the permissible maximum amount or is less than the permissible minimum amount, the elected amount is deemed to be such permissible maximum or minimum amount. The amount elected by an eligible shareholder, as modified by such limitations, is referred to herein as the Elected Amount.

Tax Treatment to Holders of Abitibi Common Shares. Where an eligible shareholder and Bowater Canada make a valid rollover election in respect of the holder's Abitibi common shares, the tax treatment to such shareholder will generally be as follows:

the Abitibi common shares of the eligible shareholder will be deemed to have been disposed of for proceeds of disposition equal to the Elected Amount;

such shareholder will not realize a capital gain (nor a capital loss), provided that the elected amount is equal to the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of his or her Abitibi common shares immediately before the exchange and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition;

a capital gain (or a capital loss) will be realized, however, to the extent that the elected amount exceeds (or is less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of his or her Abitibi common shares immediately prior to the exchange and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition (for a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss);

the cost to such shareholder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares received in exchange for the Abitibi common shares will be equal to the elected amount, minus the fair market value at the effective time of the exchange of the ancillary rights acquired on the exchange; and the cost to such shareholder of any ancillary rights received in exchange for the Abitibi common shares will be equal to their fair market value at the effective time of the exchange.

Procedure for Making an Election. In order to make a rollover election, the eligible shareholder must provide to Bowater Canada, at the address indicated in the rollover election package (which may be obtained by mail from the depositary and is also available via the Internet on AbitibiBowater's website at <http://www.abitibibowater.com>), two signed copies of the applicable tax election forms within 90 days following the effective date of the arrangement, duly completed with (i) the details of the number of Abitibi common shares transferred in respect of which the eligible shareholder is making a rollover election, (ii) the applicable Elected Amounts for the shares and (iii) the details of the consideration received for the shares.

An eligible shareholder interested in making the rollover election should so indicate on the letter of transmittal and election form that is accompanying this document and a tax election package, consisting of the relevant CRA and Quebec tax election forms and a letter of instructions, will be sent by mail to such shareholder if he so elects. A tax election package may also be obtained by mail from the depositary or via the Internet on AbitibiBowater's website at <http://www.abitibowater.com>.

Additional Provincial or Territorial Election Forms. Certain provincial or territorial jurisdictions may require that a separate joint election be filed for provincial or territorial income tax purposes. Bowater Canada will also make a joint election with an eligible shareholder under the provisions of the relevant provincial or territorial income tax law with similar effect to section 85 of the Canadian Tax Act, subject to the same limitations as described herein. Eligible shareholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine whether separate election forms must be filed with any provincial or territorial taxing authority and to determine the procedure for filing any such separate election form. It will be the sole responsibility of each eligible shareholder who wishes to make such an election to obtain the appropriate provincial or territorial election forms and to submit such forms to Bowater Canada for execution at the same time as the federal election forms.

Execution by Bowater Canada of Election Forms. Subject to the election forms complying with the provisions of the applicable income tax law and the arrangement, Bowater Canada will sign the tax election forms submitted by an eligible shareholder that appear correct and complete, and return them to the eligible shareholder within 90 days of their receipt. Bowater Canada, in its sole discretion, may choose to sign and return an election form even if such form is received more than 90 days following the effective date of the arrangement, but Bowater Canada will have no obligation to do so. With the exception of signing and returning the properly completed election forms it receives, Bowater Canada assumes no responsibility for making any tax election, and compliance with the requirements for a valid election will be the sole responsibility of the eligible shareholder making the election. Neither Bowater Canada nor the transfer agent will be responsible for the proper completion or filing of any election form, except for Bowater Canada's obligation to sign and return properly completed election forms which are received by Bowater Canada within 90 days following the effective date of the arrangement, within 90 days of receipt by Bowater Canada. Neither Abitibi, AbitibiBowater nor Bowater Canada will be responsible or liable for any taxes, interest, penalties, damages or expenses resulting from the failure by anyone to properly complete or file an election form in the form and manner and within the time prescribed by the Canadian Tax Act (or the corresponding provisions of any applicable provincial tax legislation).

Filing of Election Forms. In order for the CRA or any provincial tax authority to accept a tax election form without a late filing penalty being paid by an eligible shareholder, the election forms, duly completed and executed by both the eligible shareholder and Bowater Canada must be received by the appropriate tax authorities on or before the earliest due date for the filing of either Bowater Canada's or the eligible shareholder's income tax return for the taxation year in which the exchange takes place. The tax election form generally must, in the case of an eligible shareholder who is an individual (other than a trust), be received by the tax authorities by April 30, 2008. Eligible shareholders are strongly advised to consult their own tax advisors as soon as possible respecting the deadlines applicable to their own particular circumstances. However, regardless of such deadlines, properly completed tax election forms must be received by Bowater Canada at the address set out in the tax election package (which may be obtained by mail from the depositary and is also available via the Internet on AbitibiBowater's website at <http://www.abitibibowater.com>) within 90 days following the effective date of the arrangement. Any eligible shareholder who does not ensure that Bowater Canada has received the properly completed tax election forms within 90 days following the effective date of the arrangement may not be able to benefit from the rollover provisions of the Canadian Tax Act and any applicable provincial tax legislation.

Call Rights. AbitibiBowater is of the view that the liquidation call rights, retraction call rights and redemption call rights granted by Abitibi shareholders who acquire the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares have only a nominal fair market value and accordingly no amount should be allocated to such call rights. This determination of value is not binding on the CRA and it is possible that the CRA could take a contrary view. Provided that this view with respect to the value of such call rights is correct, the granting of the call rights will not result in any material adverse income tax consequences to an Abitibi shareholder who acquires Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. However, should the CRA challenge this view and ultimately succeed in establishing that the call rights have a fair market value in excess of a nominal amount, Abitibi shareholders who acquire Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will realize a capital gain in an amount equal to the fair market value of the call rights. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss below.

Exchange of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares for Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock. At the effective time of the exchange, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (including any fractional shares) will transfer such shares to Bowater Canadian Holdings in exchange for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock (including any fractional shares). Such shareholder will be considered (i) to have disposed of such exchangeable shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value at that time of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock (including any fractional shares) acquired in exchange therefor, (ii) to realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the fair market value at that time of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock acquired on the exchange exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base of such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and (iii) to have acquired the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock (including any fractional shares) at a cost equal to the fair market value of such common stock at the time of the exchange.

Receipt of Cash for Fractional Shares. The arrangement provides that share certificates for fractional stock of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and fractional Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will not be issued to Abitibi shareholders in connection with the arrangement. Under the arrangement, an Abitibi shareholder entitled to a fraction of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will receive a cash payment from the depositary on the sale of such fractional share and an Abitibi shareholder entitled to a fractional share of the AbitibiBowater common stock will receive a cash payment from the depositary from the sale of such fractional share.

An Abitibi shareholder will be considered to have received proceeds of disposition equal to the amount of cash received from the depositary for any fractional share of the AbitibiBowater common stock and for any fractional Bowater Canada exchangeable share. To the extent such proceeds of disposition of such fractional share exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of the fractional Bowater Canada exchangeable share or fractional share of the AbitibiBowater common stock, as the case may be, immediately before the disposition, a capital gain (or a capital loss) will result. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Disposition of Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock

The disposition or deemed disposition of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will generally be a taxable event to a shareholder. On such disposition, such shareholder will be considered to realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition of such common stock exceed (or are less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, immediately prior to the disposition and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss

Generally, a shareholder is required to include in computing its income for a taxation year 50% of the amount of any capital gain, which we refer to as the taxable capital gain. A shareholder may deduct 50% of the amount of any capital loss, which we refer to as the allowable capital loss, realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized by the shareholder in such year, subject to and in accordance with rules contained in the Canadian Tax Act. Any allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains for the year of disposition generally may be carried back up to three taxation years or carried forward indefinitely and deducted against taxable capital gains in such other years to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Canadian Tax Act.

Capital gains realized by a shareholder who is an individual or trust, other than certain specified trusts, may give rise to alternative minimum tax under the Canadian Tax Act.

A shareholder that is a Canadian-controlled private corporation, as defined in the Canadian Tax Act, and which we refer to as a CCPC, may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6²/₃% on its aggregate investment income for the year which will include an amount in respect of taxable capital gains.

If the holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share or of an Abitibi common share is a corporation, the amount of any capital loss realized on a disposition or deemed disposition of such share may be reduced by the amount of dividends received or deemed to have been received by it on such share to the extent and under circumstances prescribed by the Canadian Tax Act. Similar rules may apply where a corporation is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of a trust that owns such shares or where a trust or partnership of which a corporation is a beneficiary or a member is itself a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of a trust that owns any such shares. Shareholders to whom these rules may be relevant should consult their own tax advisors.

Dividends on Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock

Individuals. In the case of a holder of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock who is an individual, dividends received or deemed to be received by the shareholder on such stock will be required to be included in computing the shareholder's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and will not be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules in the Canadian Tax Act.

Corporations. In the case of a holder of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock that is a corporation, dividends received or deemed to be received by the shareholder on such stock will be required to be included in computing the shareholder's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and generally will not be deductible in computing the shareholder's taxable income. A shareholder that is a Canadian-controlled private corporation may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6²/₃% on such dividends.

Any United-States non-resident withholding tax on such dividends generally will be eligible to be credited against the holder's income tax or deducted from income subject to certain limitations under the Canadian Tax Act.

Dividends on Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

Individuals. In the case of a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who is an individual (including most trusts), dividends received or deemed to be received on such exchangeable shares by the shareholder are required to be included in computing the individual's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and are subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules generally applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations.

Corporations. In the case of a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that is a corporation, dividends received or deemed to be received on such exchangeable shares are required to be included in computing the corporation's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and, subject to the special rules and limitations described below, such dividends will normally be deductible in computing the corporation's taxable income.

In the case of a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that is a private corporation (as defined in the Canadian Tax Act) or any other corporation controlled or deemed to be controlled by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), such shareholder will generally be liable to pay a refundable tax under Part IV of the Canadian Tax Act of 33¹/₃% on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing such shareholder's taxable income. A CCPC may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6²/₃% on dividends received or deemed to be received on such exchangeable shares if such dividends are not deductible in computing taxable income.

In the case of a corporate holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that is a specified financial institution, dividends on such shares will not be deductible in computing the shareholder's taxable income unless either: (i) such shareholder did not acquire such Bowater Canada exchangeable shares in the ordinary course of the business carried on by it; or (ii) at the time the dividend is received or deemed to be received, the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange in Canada (which currently includes the TSX) and such shareholder, either alone or together with persons with whom such shareholder does not deal at arm's length and, in certain cases, either directly or through a trust or partnership of which such shareholder or other person is a beneficiary or member, respectively, does not own more than 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares.

A corporation will, in general, be a specified financial institution for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act if it is a bank, a trust company, a credit union, an insurance corporation, a corporation whose principal business is the lending of money to persons with whom the corporation is dealing at arm's length or the purchasing of debt obligations issued by such persons or a combination thereof, a prescribed corporation, or a corporation controlled by or related to such entities.

The Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are taxable preferred shares and short-term preferred shares for the purpose of the Canadian Tax Act. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that receives or is deemed to receive dividends on such shares will not be subject to the 10% tax under Part IV.1 of the Canadian Tax Act.

Redemption, Exchange and Disposition of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

A shareholder will be considered to have disposed of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (i) on a redemption (including pursuant to a retraction request) of such exchangeable shares by Bowater Canada and (ii) on an acquisition of such exchangeable shares by Bowater Canadian Holdings or AbitibiBowater. However, the Canadian federal income tax consequences of the disposition for the holder will differ depending on whether the event giving rise to the disposition is a redemption or an acquisition. A shareholder who exercises the right to require the redemption of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by giving a retraction request cannot control whether such exchangeable share will be acquired by Bowater Canadian Holdings under the retraction call right or redeemed by Bowater Canada; however, the shareholder will be notified if Bowater Canadian Holdings chooses not to exercise the retraction call right, in which case the shareholder may cancel the retraction request and retain the Bowater Canada exchangeable share.

Redemption or Retraction by Bowater Canada

On a redemption (including pursuant to a retraction request) of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canada, a shareholder will generally be deemed to receive a dividend equal to the amount by which the redemption proceeds exceed the paid-up capital (for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act) of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share so redeemed. On the redemption, the holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be considered to have disposed of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share for proceeds of disposition equal to the redemption proceeds less the amount of the deemed dividend. A holder will realize a capital loss (or a capital gain) equal to the amount by which the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share, and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) the proceeds of disposition. For this purpose, the redemption proceeds of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be equal to the sum of (i) the fair market value at the time of the redemption of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock received by the shareholder, and (ii) the amount of all declared but unpaid dividends, if any, on the Bowater Canada exchangeable share.

The deemed dividend will be subject to the tax treatment described under Dividends on Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

In the case of a shareholder that is a corporation, in some circumstances, all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Purchase by Bowater Canadian Holdings, AbitibiBowater or Other Disposition

On the acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings or AbitibiBowater for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or on any other disposition or deemed disposition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by a shareholder, other than a redemption (including pursuant to a retraction request), a shareholder will generally be considered to realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the total of (i) the adjusted cost base of such exchangeable share to the shareholder and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition. For this purpose, the proceeds of disposition in respect of an acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings or AbitibiBowater will be equal to the sum of (i) the fair market value at the time of the exchange of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, and (ii) the amount of all declared but unpaid dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable share. The acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings or AbitibiBowater will not result in a deemed dividend. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

The cost of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock received by a holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share on the redemption or retraction of such exchangeable share by Bowater Canada or on the acquisition of such exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings or AbitibiBowater will be equal to the fair market value of such Bowater Canada exchangeable share at the time of such event.

On October 18, 2000, the Minister of Finance announced that the Department of Finance would consider future amendments to the Canadian Tax Act to allow holders of shares of a Canadian corporation to exchange such shares for shares of a non-Canadian corporation on a tax-deferred basis. It is possible that, in certain circumstances, these contemplated amendments, if enacted into law, could in the future allow a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to exchange such shares for AbitibiBowater common stock on a tax-deferred basis. No specifics have been announced regarding these contemplated amendments and in particular with respect to the various requirements that would have to be satisfied in order to permit a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to exchange such shares on a tax deferred basis or whether these requirements could be satisfied in the circumstances.

Foreign Investment Entity Draft Legislation

Draft legislation regarding the taxation of investments in foreign investment entities was released on November 9, 2006. In general, where the draft legislation applies, a holder of an interest in a foreign investment entity will be required to either (i) include in (or deduct from) income on an annual basis any increase (or decrease) in the value of that interest or (ii) include in income annually, an imputed return at the prescribed rate on the designated cost of such interest. A corporation is not a foreign investment entity if the carrying value of all of its investment property is not greater than one-half of the carrying value of all of its property or if its principal undertaking is the carrying on of a business that is not an investment business within the meaning of those terms in the draft legislation. AbitibiBowater is of the view that it should not be a foreign investment entity but no assurance can be given to that effect. In any event, in general, the proposed rules will not apply to shares of AbitibiBowater common stock so long as such shares qualify as an arm's length interest under the Canadian Tax Act and it is reasonable to conclude that the holder has no tax avoidance motive in respect of such shares. No assurance can be given that the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares or the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will qualify as arm's length interests and shareholders should consult their own tax advisors in this respect.

Foreign Property Information Reporting

In general, a specified Canadian entity, as defined in the Canadian Tax Act, for a taxation year or fiscal period whose total cost amount of specified foreign property, as defined in the Canadian Tax Act, at any time in the year or fiscal period exceeds C$100,000, is required to file an information return for the year or period disclosing prescribed information, including the cost amount, any dividends received in the year, and any gains or losses realized in the year, in respect of such property. With some exceptions, a taxpayer resident in Canada in a year is a specified Canadian entity. Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, ancillary rights and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will constitute specified foreign property to a shareholder. Accordingly, holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and/or of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock should consult their own advisors regarding compliance with these rules.

Dissenting Abitibi Shareholders

A dissenting Abitibi shareholder is entitled, if the arrangement becomes effective, to be paid by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada, at AbitibiBowater's option, the fair value of Abitibi common shares held by the dissenting shareholder. For a description of the dissent rights of an Abitibi shareholder, see The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights Abitibi.

Upon the receipt of a payment by Abitibi, a dissenting shareholder will be deemed to receive a taxable dividend equal to the amount, if any, by which the amount paid by Abitibi (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds the paid-up capital (for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act) of such shareholder's Abitibi common shares. Such dissenting shareholder will also be considered to have disposed of the Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received by such shareholder from Abitibi, less the amount of the deemed dividend and interest awarded by a court. As a result, such dissenting shareholder will also realize a capital loss (or a capital gain) equal to the amount by which the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to the shareholder of the Abitibi common shares and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) such proceeds of disposition.

Upon the receipt of a payment by Bowater Canada, a dissenting shareholder will be considered to have disposed of the Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received by such shareholder from Bowater Canada (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court). As a result, such dissenting shareholder will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which such proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to the shareholder of its Abitibi common shares and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition.

Any interest awarded to a dissenting shareholder by a court will generally be includable in such shareholder's income for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Abitibi Shareholders Who Are Non-Residents of Canada

The following section of the summary is applicable to a holder of Abitibi common shares who, for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty, and at all relevant times, is not, and is not deemed to be, a resident of Canada and does not, and is not deemed to, use or hold Abitibi common shares, or shares of AbitibiBowater common stock in, or in the course of, carrying on a business in Canada. Such a shareholder is hereinafter referred to as a non-resident shareholder.

Dispositions of Abitibi Common Shares and Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

A non-resident shareholder for whom Abitibi common shares or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are not taxable Canadian property will not be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act on the disposition of such shares. Generally, Abitibi common shares and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will not be taxable Canadian property to a non-resident shareholder at a particular time provided that (i) the shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the TSX and the NYSE) at that time, (ii) the non-resident shareholder, persons not dealing at arm's length with the non-resident shareholder and the non-resident shareholder together with such persons have not owned 25% or more of the Abitibi common shares at any time during the 60-month period ending at the particular time, and (iii) such shares are not deemed to be taxable Canadian property to the non-resident shareholder under the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act.

Dissenting Abitibi Non-Resident Shareholders

A dissenting non-resident shareholder of Abitibi is entitled, if the arrangement becomes effective, to be paid by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada, at Abitibi's option, the fair value of Abitibi common shares held by the dissenting shareholder. For a description of the dissent rights of an Abitibi shareholder, see The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights Abitibi. The Canadian federal income tax consequences to a dissenting non-resident shareholder of Abitibi are different depending on whether the payment is made by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada. Such a dissenting Abitibi shareholder cannot control whether the payment will be made by Abitibi or by Bowater Canada.

Upon the receipt of a payment by Abitibi, a dissenting non-resident shareholder will be deemed to receive a dividend and to realize a capital loss (or capital gain) as described above under the heading Abitibi Shareholder Residents of Canada Dissenting Abitibi Shareholders. Any deemed dividends (and any interest) paid to such a non-resident shareholder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. For example, under the Canada-U.S. treaty, the withholding tax rate is generally reduced to 15% in respect of a dividend and to 10% in respect of interest paid to a person who is the beneficial owner of the dividend or interest, as the case may be, and who is resident in the United States for purposes of the Canada-U.S. treaty.

Upon the receipt of a payment by Bowater Canada, a dissenting shareholder will be considered to have disposed of the Abitibi common shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received from Bowater Canada (other than in respect of interest awarded by a court). A non-resident dissenting shareholder for whom shares of Abitibi are not taxable Canadian property, as described above under the heading Dispositions of Common Shares of Abitibi and Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares, will not be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act on the disposition of such shares. Any interest paid to such a non-resident shareholder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

Bowater Stockholders Who Are Residents of Canada

The following section of the summary is applicable to a holder of shares of Bowater common stock who, for the purpose of the Canadian Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty, is or is deemed to be a resident of Canada at all relevant times.

Foreign Merger

The merger of Merger Sub with and into Bowater will be a foreign merger for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, and may be on either a tax-deferred basis or on a taxable basis for Canadian tax purposes. A holder (other than a dissenting holder) who wishes to exchange its shares of Bowater common stock in the merger on a tax-deferred basis will be deemed to have disposed of the shares of Bowater common stock for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate adjusted cost base of those shares of Bowater common stock immediately before the merger and to have acquired the shares of Abitibi/Bowater common stock at a cost equal to such adjusted cost base. To achieve this tax deferral the holder is not required to take any further action. A holder (other than a dissenting holder) who wishes to exchange its shares of Bowater common stock on the merger on a taxable basis is required to elect for the rules in the Canadian Tax Act pertaining to foreign mergers not to apply to the merger. The election must be made in the holder's Canadian federal income tax return for the taxation year of the holder in which the merger occurs.

Table of Contents

If a holder elects that the rules in the Canadian Tax Act pertaining to foreign mergers do not apply to the merger, the holder will not be eligible for any tax deferral on the Bowater merger. In that case, the holder will be considered to have disposed of its shares of AbitibiBowater common stock for proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value at that time of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock acquired in exchange for such shares. The holder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the fair market value at that time of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock acquired on the exchange, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares of Bowater common stock. The cost to a holder of the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock acquired on this exchange will be equal to the fair market value at the time of the exchange of such shares of AbitibiBowater common stock.

For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Dividends on Shares of AbitibiBowater Common Stock

Individuals. In the case of a holder of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock who is an individual, dividends received or deemed to be received by the shareholder on such stock will be required to be included in computing the shareholder's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and will not be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules in the Canadian Tax Act.

Corporations. In the case of a holder of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock that is a corporation, dividends received or deemed to be received by the shareholder on such stock will be required to be included in computing the shareholder's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and generally will not be deductible in computing the shareholder's taxable income. A shareholder that is a Canadian-controlled private corporation may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6²/₃% on such dividends.

Any United-States non-resident withholding tax on such dividends generally will be eligible to be credited against the holder's income tax or deducted from income subject to certain limitations under the Canadian Tax Act.

Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares Who Are Residents of Canada

The following section of the summary is applicable to a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who, for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty is or is deemed to be a resident of Canada at all relevant times.

Consequences of Filing Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment

Effecting and filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment will not cause a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act, except that where cash is received for any fractional Bowater Canada exchangeable share on the consolidation of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, a holder of such shares will be considered to have received proceeds of disposition equal to the amount of such cash. To the extent such proceeds of disposition of such fractional shares exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base to such shareholder of the fractional Bowater Canada exchangeable share immediately before the disposition, a capital gain (or capital loss) will result. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Redemption or Purchase of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

If the Bowater Canada shareholders' resolution approving the filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment does not receive the required shareholder approval, Bowater will cause the directors of Bowater Canada to establish the business day immediately preceding the effective date of the combination as the redemption date for the then issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and to proceed with the redemption of all Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are issued and outstanding on such redemption date in accordance and compliance with the share provisions applicable to and governing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares (subject to the exercise of the redemption call right held by Bowater Canadian Holdings). A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares whose shares are redeemed by Bowater Canada or whose shares are purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings upon the exercise of the redemption call right will receive (i) one share of Bowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share held by such holder, plus (ii) the right to receive the full amount when paid of all unpaid dividends on the holder's Bowater Canada exchangeable shares prior to the redemption date. A holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares cannot control whether such exchangeable shares will be acquired by Bowater Canadian Holdings under the redemption call right or redeemed by Bowater Canada.

Redemption by Bowater Canada. On a redemption of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canada, a shareholder will generally be deemed to receive a dividend equal to the amount by which the redemption proceeds exceed the paid-up capital (for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act) of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share so redeemed. On the redemption, the holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be considered to have disposed of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share for proceeds of disposition equal to the redemption proceeds less the amount of the deemed dividend. A holder will realize a capital loss (or a capital gain) equal to the amount by which the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable share, and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) the proceeds of disposition. For this purpose, the redemption proceeds of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be equal to the sum of (i) the fair market value at the time of the redemption of a share of Bowater common stock, and (ii) the amount of all declared but unpaid dividends, if any, on the Bowater Canada exchangeable share.

The deemed dividend will be subject to the tax treatment described under Dividends on Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

In the case of a shareholder that is a corporation, it is possible that in some circumstances all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Purchase by Bowater Canadian Holdings. On the acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings pursuant to its redemption call right, a shareholder will generally be considered to realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the total of (i) the adjusted cost base of such Bowater Canada exchangeable share to the shareholder and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition. For this purpose, the proceeds of disposition in respect of an acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings will be equal to the sum of (i) the fair market value at the time of the purchase of Bowater Canadian Holdings of a share of Bowater common stock, and (ii) the amount of all declared but unpaid dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable share. The acquisition of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings will not result in a deemed dividend. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

The cost of shares of Bowater common stock received by a holder of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share on the redemption of such exchangeable share by Bowater Canada or on the acquisition of such exchangeable share by Bowater Canadian Holdings will be equal to the fair market value of such Bowater Canada exchangeable share at the time of such event.

Dissenting Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

A dissenting holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable share may be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by such dissenting shareholder. For a description of the dissent rights of a Bowater Canada exchangeable shareholder, see The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights Bowater Canada.

Table of Contents

Upon the receipt of a payment from Bowater Canada, a dissenting holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be deemed to receive a taxable dividend equal to the amount by which the amount paid by Bowater Canada (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds the paid-up capital (for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act) of such holder's Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. Such dissenting holder will also be considered to have disposed of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received by such holder from Bowater Canada, less the amount of the deemed dividend and interest awarded by a court. As a result, such dissenting holder will also realize a capital loss (or a capital gain) equal to the amount by which the sum of (i) the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares; and (ii) any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) such proceeds of disposition. The deemed dividend is subject to the tax treatment described under Dividends on Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares except that, in the case of a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that is a corporation, it is possible that in some circumstances all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Any interest awarded to a dissenting Bowater Canada shareholder by the court will be includable in such holder's income for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and losses, see Taxation of Capital Gain or Capital Loss.

Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares Who Are Not Residents of Canada

The following section of the summary is applicable to a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who, for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act and at all relevant times, is not and is not deemed to be, a resident of Canada and does not, and is not deemed to, use or hold Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares in, or in the course of, carrying on business in Canada.

Consequences of Filing Bowater Canada Articles of Amendment

Effecting and filing the Bowater Canada articles of amendment will not cause a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares to be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act, except that where cash is received for any fractional share on the consolidation of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares, the holder thereof will be considered to have received proceeds of disposition equal to the amount of such cash. A non-resident shareholder for whom Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are not taxable Canadian property (as defined below) will not be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act on any capital gain realized on the disposition of such shares.

Redemption or Purchase of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

If the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are redeemed or purchased as set out under Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares Who Are Residents of Canada - Redemption or Purchase of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares, a holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares who is not a resident of Canada will realize a deemed dividend and/or a capital gain or loss as set out under that heading. Any deemed dividend paid to such non-resident will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. For example, under the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention (1980), which we refer to as the Canada-U.S. Treaty, the withholding rate is generally reduced to 15% in respect of a dividend paid to a person who is the beneficial owner of the dividend and who is resident in the U.S. for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Treaty.

A non-resident shareholder for whom Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are not taxable Canadian property will not be subject to tax under the Canadian Tax Act on any capital gain realized on the disposition of such shares. Generally, Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will not be taxable Canadian property to a non-resident shareholder at a particular time provided that (i) the shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the Toronto Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange) at that time, (ii) the non-resident shareholder, persons not dealing at arm's length with the non-resident shareholder and the non-resident shareholder together with such persons have not owned 25% or more of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares at any time during the 60-month period ending at the particular time, and (iii) such shares are not deemed to be taxable Canadian property to the non-resident shareholder under the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act.

Dissenting Non-Resident Holders of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

A dissenting holder of Bowater Canada exchangeable share may be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares held by such dissenting shareholder. For a description of the dissent rights of a Bowater Canada exchangeable shareholder, see "The Combination Dissenting Shareholder Rights - Bowater Canada."

Upon the receipt of a payment by Bowater Canada, a dissenting non-resident shareholder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be deemed to receive a dividend and to realize a capital gain (or capital loss) as described above under the heading "Bowater Canada Shareholders Resident in Canada - Dissenting Bowater Canada Shareholders" above. Any deemed dividends (and any interest) paid to such a non-resident shareholder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. For example, under the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention (1980) (the "Canada-U.S. Treaty"), the withholding tax rate is generally reduced to 15% in respect of a dividend paid to a person who is the beneficial owner of the dividend, and who is resident in the U.S. for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Treaty.

An amount paid in respect of interest awarded by the court to a non-resident shareholder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. For example, under the Canada-U.S. Treaty, the withholding tax rate is generally reduced to 10% in respect of interest paid to a person who is the beneficial owner of the interest and who is resident in the U.S. for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Treaty.

A capital gain realized by a dissenting non-resident shareholder of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will be subject to Canadian tax only if such shares are "taxable Canadian property" as described above under the heading "Redemption or Purchase of Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares."

Eligibility for Investment in Canada - Qualified Investments

Bowater Canada exchangeable shares and shares of AbitibiBowater common stock will be "qualified investments" under the Canadian Tax Act for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans (RRSPs), registered retirement income funds (RRIFs), deferred profit sharing plans (DPSPs) or registered education savings plans (RESPs), as defined in the Canadian Tax Act, provided that such shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the TSX and the NYSE).

Ancillary rights received by holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares will not be "qualified investments" for trusts governed by RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs or DPSPs. As described above, AbitibiBowater is of the view that ancillary rights have only nominal value. This determination of value is not binding on the CRA and it is possible that the CRA could take a contrary view. On the basis that the fair market value of the ancillary rights is nominal, there should be no material adverse tax consequences to trusts governed by RRSPs, RRIFs or DPSPs as a result of acquiring or holding such ancillary rights. However, RESPs holding such ancillary rights may realize material adverse consequences and should consult their own tax advisors on this matter.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE COMBINATION

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders and non-U.S. Holders, each as defined below, of Abitibi common shares and Bowater common stock that receive AbitibiBowater common stock in the combination.

For these purposes, a U.S. Holder means:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust, if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income, regardless of its source.

A Non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. Holder.

This summary is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, the regulations promulgated under the Code, court decisions and published rulings of the Internal Revenue Service (which we refer to as the IRS) currently in effect and does not take into account the possible effect of future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions. It is not intended as a complete analysis of all possible tax considerations relevant to the combination. Future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions may significantly change the conclusions expressed in this summary, and any such changes or decisions may have a retroactive effect with respect to the combination.

This summary does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder that holds Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock other than as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular stockholder subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws including (except where expressly stated otherwise): banks or certain trusts; brokers or dealers in securities or currencies; financial institutions; insurance companies; investors in a pass-through entity; mutual funds; regulated investment companies; real estate investment trusts; tax-exempt organizations; persons holding the Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock as part of a hedging, integrated, conversion, wash or constructive sale transaction or a straddle or synthetic security; traders in securities that have elected the mark-to-market method of accounting for securities; persons liable for alternative minimum tax; persons who acquired Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock in a compensatory transaction; persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; persons who acquired their Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock through the exercise of options, or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan; a person owning 10% or more of the voting shares of Abitibi or Bowater; a Non-U.S. Holder who is or has previously been engaged in the conduct of a trade or business in the United States; a controlled foreign corporation; a foreign personal holding company; a passive foreign investment company or a U.S. expatriate.

If a partnership holds Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any partners of a partnership holding Abitibi common shares or Bowater common stock are urged to consult their tax advisors.

This summary does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the combination and does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the combination. Accordingly, each Abitibi and Bowater holder is strongly urged to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences of the combination to the holder.

The following discussion is not binding on the IRS. None of Abitibi, Bowater or AbitibiBowater has requested a ruling from the IRS with respect to any of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the combination, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not disagree with or challenge any of the conclusions described below.

Consequences to U.S. Holders of Abitibi Common Shares

In the opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, special tax counsel to Abitibi, for U.S. Holders of Abitibi common shares, the arrangement and the merger, together as the combination, will constitute a tax-free exchange described in Section 351 of the Code, which will have the following consequences:

U.S. Holders of Abitibi common shares will recognize no gain or loss as a result of exchanging their Abitibi common shares for AbitibiBowater common stock in the combination, except with respect to any gain from cash received in lieu of fractional shares of AbitibiBowater common stock;

A U.S. Holder's aggregate tax basis in the AbitibiBowater common stock received in the combination will equal (1) the aggregate tax basis of the U.S. Holder's Abitibi common shares surrendered in the combination, less (2) the amount of cash received, if any, in lieu of a fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock, plus (3) any gain recognized; and

The holding period of AbitibiBowater common stock received in the combination by a U.S. Holder of Abitibi common shares will include the holding period of the U.S. Holder's Abitibi common shares exchanged for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A U.S. Holder of Abitibi common shares who receives cash instead of a fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock will recognize gain equal to the lesser of the cash received or the total gain realized in the combination. A U.S. Holder of Abitibi common shares will realize gain, if any, to the extent that the total value of the AbitibiBowater common stock received plus the amount of cash received in exchange for such U.S. Holder's Abitibi common shares exceeds such U.S. Holder's basis in its Abitibi common shares. However, a U.S. Holder of Abitibi common shares will not recognize any loss on the combination.

Any gain recognized will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder's holding period in the Abitibi common shares is greater than 12 months as of the date of the combination. For non-corporate Holders, this long-term capital gain will be taxed at a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. Short-term capital gains are taxed at ordinary income rates.

Consequences to U.S. Holders of Bowater Common Stock

In the opinion of Troutman Sanders LLP, special tax counsel to Bowater, for U.S. Holders of Bowater common stock, the merger will constitute a reorganization described in Section 368(a) of the Code, which will have the following tax consequences:

U.S. Holders of Bowater common stock will recognize no gain or loss as a result of exchanging their Bowater common stock for AbitibiBowater common stock in the merger, except with respect to any gain from cash received instead of a fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock;

A U.S. Holder's aggregate tax basis in the AbitibiBowater common stock received in the merger (before reduction for the basis in any fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock for which cash is received) will equal the aggregate adjusted tax basis in the Bowater common stock surrendered in the merger; and

The holding period of the AbitibiBowater common stock received in the merger by a U.S. Holder of Bowater common stock will include the holding period of the U.S. Holder's Bowater common stock surrendered in the merger.

Table of ContentsCash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A U.S. Holder of Bowater common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis that the U.S. Holder would have had in the fractional share. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder's holding period for the fractional share of AbitibiBowater common stock (as determined above) would have been more than 12 months at the time of the merger. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate taxpayers are currently taxed at a maximum federal income tax rate of 15%. Short-term capital gains are taxed at ordinary income rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitation.

Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Ownership of AbitibiBowater Common StockDividends Received by Non-U.S. Holders on AbitibiBowater Common Stock

Dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder of AbitibiBowater common stock will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. Under the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention, dividends from U.S. sources distributed to persons that are residents of Canada for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention are currently subject to a maximum withholding rate of 15%. However, dividends that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business by the Non-U.S. Holder within the United States (or, where a tax treaty applies, are attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the Non-U.S. Holder) are not subject to the withholding tax, provided certain certification and disclosure requirements are satisfied. Instead, those dividends are subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in the same manner as if the Non-U.S. Holder were a U.S. person as defined under the Code. Any effectively connected dividends received by a foreign corporation may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. A Non-U.S. Holder will be required to satisfy certification requirements to claim treaty benefits or otherwise claim a reduction of, or exemption from, the U.S. withholding tax described above.

Gain or Loss on Disposition of AbitibiBowater Common Stock

Any gain realized on the disposition of AbitibiBowater common stock will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States or, if a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a permanent establishment of the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States; in the case of gain recognized by an individual Non-U.S. Holder, the individual is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of disposition and other conditions set forth in the Code are met; or AbitibiBowater is or has been a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time within the shorter of the five-year period preceding such disposition or such Non-U.S. Holder's holding period.

An individual Non-U.S. Holder described in the first bullet point in the list immediately above will be subject to tax on the net gain derived from the sale under regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates. An individual Non-U.S. Holder described in the second bullet point in the list immediately above will be subject to a flat 30% tax (or such lower rate as may be provided by an applicable income tax treaty) on the gain derived from the sale, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses, even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States. If a Non-U.S. Holder that is a foreign corporation falls under the first bullet point in the list immediately above, it will be subject to tax on its net gain in the same manner as if it were a U.S. person as defined under the Code and, in addition, may be subject to the branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits or at such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

AbitibiBowater believes it is not currently and does not anticipate becoming a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If AbitibiBowater nevertheless constituted a United States real property holding corporation at a relevant time, a Non-U.S. Holder who at no time actually or constructively owned more than 5% of the AbitibiBowater common stock would not be subject to United States federal income or withholding tax on the relevant gain or the proceeds of sale, provided that the AbitibiBowater common stock was regularly traded on an established securities market within the meaning of the applicable regulations.

United States Federal Estate Tax. AbitibiBowater common stock held by an individual Non-U.S. Holder at the time of death will be included in that Holder's gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes, unless an applicable estate tax treaty provides otherwise.

Dividends Received by Non-U.S. Holders on Bowater Canada Exchangeable Shares

Bowater Canada does not intend to withhold any amounts in respect of U.S. withholding tax from dividends paid with respect to Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. However, no statutory, judicial or administrative authority exists that directly addresses the U.S. federal income tax treatment of dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. If dividends on the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares were determined to constitute income from U.S. sources, Non-U.S. Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares likely would be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a rate of 30%, or such lower rate as provided by an applicable income tax treaty. Under the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention, dividends from U.S. sources distributed to persons that are residents of Canada for purposes of the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention are currently subject to a maximum withholding rate of 15%. Holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares would be required to provide proper certification to Bowater Canada establishing eligibility for the 15% withholding rate applicable to dividends under the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, information reporting requirements may apply to cash payments received instead of fractional shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, the amount of dividends paid to a holder of AbitibiBowater common stock, or to the proceeds received by a holder from the sale or exchange of AbitibiBowater common stock, unless the holder is eligible for an exemption. Backup withholding may be imposed (currently at a 28% rate) on the above payments if a holder (1) fails to provide a taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status or (2) fails to report in full dividend and interest income. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER AND STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS

Upon completion of the combination, Abitibi shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Abitibi but instead will hold shares of AbitibiBowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares that are substantially economically equivalent to the AbitibiBowater common stock, and Bowater stockholders will no longer be stockholders of Bowater but instead will be stockholders of AbitibiBowater.

Canadian law and Abitibi's articles of amalgamation and bylaws govern Abitibi and its relations with its shareholders. Delaware law and Bowater's certificate of incorporation and bylaws govern Bowater and its relations with its stockholders. Delaware law and AbitibiBowater's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will govern AbitibiBowater and its relations with its stockholders.

Although the rights and privileges of stockholders of a Delaware corporation are, in many instances, comparable to those of shareholders of a corporation organized under the CBCA, there are several differences. The following is a summary of the material differences in the rights of holders of Abitibi common shares, Bowater common stock and AbitibiBowater common stock. These differences arise from the differences between Delaware law and the CBCA and between the Abitibi articles of amalgamation and bylaws and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of each of Bowater and AbitibiBowater. This summary is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Delaware law, the CBCA and the governing corporate instruments of Abitibi, Bowater and AbitibiBowater.

Dividends	The articles of amalgamation of Abitibi provide that, subject to the prior rights of the holders of the Class A Preferred Shares and any other shares of Abitibi ranking senior to the Common Shares with respect to priority in the payment of dividends, the holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to receive any dividends declared by the Board of Directors of Abitibi and Abitibi shall pay dividends thereon, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Abitibi.	Same as AbitibiBowater, except that the Bowater bylaws provide that the Board of Directors may declare dividends on any class or series of stock of Bowater at any regular or special meeting. Bowater has paid consecutive quarterly dividends of US$0.20 per share of Common Stock during 2006.	The AbitibiBowater certificate of incorporation provides with respect to Serial Preferred Stock that the Board of Directors shall determine the dividend rate or rates to which the shares of such series shall be entitled and whether dividends shall be cumulative and, if so, the date or dates from which dividends shall accumulate, and the quarterly dates on which dividends, if declared, shall be payable.

Dividends (Continued)			Any decision regarding the dividend policies of AbitibiBowater will be determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater following completion of the combination.
Sources of Dividends	Under the CBCA, dividends may be declared at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Abitibi may pay dividends unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that (1) Abitibi is, or would after such payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due or (2) the realizable value of Abitibi's assets would, as a result of the dividend, be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes of shares.	Same as AbitibiBowater.	Delaware law provides that dividends may be paid by a Delaware corporation either out of (1) surplus or (2) in case there is no surplus, out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, except when the capital is diminished to an amount less than the aggregate amount of capital represented by issued and outstanding stock having a preference on the distribution of assets.

Remedy
(Continued)	The oppression remedy provides the court with very broad and flexible powers to intervene in corporate affairs to protect shareholders and other complainants. While conduct that is in breach of fiduciary duties of directors or that is contrary to the legal right of a complainant will normally trigger the court's jurisdiction under the oppression remedy, the exercise of that jurisdiction does not depend on a finding of a breach of those legal and equitable rights. Furthermore, the court may order a corporation to pay the interim expenses of a complainant seeking an oppression remedy, but the complainant may be held accountable for interim costs on final disposition of the complaint (as in the case of a derivative action as described in Shareholder Derivative Actions see below).

Table of ContentsADDITIONAL INFORMATION RELATING TO THE BOWATER ANNUAL MEETING*General Information

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Bowater will be held on July 26, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. (local time) in the Peachtree Auditorium of the Bank of America Plaza, 600 Peachtree Street N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30308. At the Bowater Meeting, stockholders will consider and vote upon three proposals. Information with respect to each proposal is set forth below and elsewhere in this document. This section of the document is addressed only to Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. For purposes of this section of the document only, the terms the company, we, our, and us and similar terms refer to Bowater only.

Proposal No. 1 Approval and Adoption of the Combination Agreement and the Merger

As discussed in detail in this document, at the Bowater Meeting, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are considering and voting to approve and adopt the combination agreement and the merger. Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares should carefully read this document in its entirety for more information concerning the combination agreement and the merger. In particular, Bowater stockholders and holders of Bowater Canada exchangeable shares are directed to the combination agreement which is attached as Annex C to this document. The Bowater Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the combination agreement and the merger.

Approval and adoption of the combination agreement and the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of all outstanding shares of Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) entitled to vote at the Bowater Meeting and voting together as a single class.

Proposal No. 2 Election of Directors

The Bowater Board of Directors is divided into three classes: Class I, Class II and Class III. Each class consists as nearly as possible of one-third of the total number of directors, and one class is elected each year for a three-year term. The term of our Class II directors expires in 2007, and the successors elected at the Bowater Meeting will serve for a term of three years or until the earlier of the due election and qualification of their successors or the consummation of the combination. The terms of our Class I and Class III directors expire in 2008 and 2009, respectively. On January 1, 2007, Arnold M. Nemirow, our former Chairman and Class II director, retired. Bowater would like to thank Mr. Nemirow for his years of service to Bowater.

In order to comply with the provisions of Bowater's articles and bylaws prohibiting any one class of directors from having more than one director more than any other class, Bowater's Board of Directors has nominated current Class I director Richard B. Evans, whose current term as a director expires at Bowater's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, for election as a Class II director at the Bowater Meeting. Arthur R. Sawchuk, also a Class II director nominee, will turn age 72 during 2007. Bowater's bylaws contain a mandatory retirement provision requiring directors to resign at age 72. However, the bylaws permit the Board to waive this requirement when it determines that such action is in the best interests of Bowater. Accordingly, Bowater's Board of Directors has waived the mandatory retirement age provision as it applies to Mr. Sawchuk in order that Mr. Sawchuk can assist the company in the transition associated with the Abitibi combination. The waiver is valid until January 31, 2008.

In the event and upon consummation of the combination, each of the directors of Bowater will be replaced by the directors of Merger Sub, as the Board of Directors of the surviving corporation in the merger. In addition, upon consummation of the combination, Bowater will become a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater. Further information about the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater following the combination can be found in the section entitled Governance and Management of AbitibiBowater after Completion of the Combination.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the total voting power of the Bowater common stock and Bowater special voting stock (representing the Bowater Canada exchangeable shares) present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Bowater Meeting, voting together as a single class. In the election of directors, votes may be cast for, or votes may be withheld from, each nominee. Abstentions may not be specified with respect to the election of directors.

Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Introduction

The primary objectives of our executive compensation program are to provide competitive, performance-based compensation that enables us to attract and retain key individuals and to motivate our executives to achieve the Company's short- and long-term goals. The program is designed to reward the achievement of goals that are aligned with the interests of our stockholders in order to enhance stockholder value.

The following discussion provides an overview and analysis of our executive compensation program as it relates principally to our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the other Named Executive Officers as listed in the Summary Compensation Table below. The discussion and analysis describes the role of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the HRCC or the Committee) of our Board of Directors, the different elements that we employ in our executive compensation program, the purposes and objectives of these elements and the manner in which we determine our compensation structure (including changes to this structure implemented during 2006 and early 2007).

Board Process

The Committee approves all compensation and awards to executive officers, which include the Chief Executive and Chief Financial Officers and all the executive officers who report directly to the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee and the Nominating and Governance Committee review the performance and compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and, following discussions with him, and, where the Committee deems it appropriate, the HRCC's advisor (described below), establish his compensation level. For the remaining executive officers, the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President of Human Resources make recommendations to the Committee. With respect to equity compensation awarded to others, the Committee grants restricted stock units and stock options generally based upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Executive Vice President of Human Resources.

The Committee has, as part of its charter, the authority to select and retain its own independent advisor to provide advice on the competitiveness and appropriateness of compensation programs for the company's Chief Executive Officer and top executive officers. This advice may from time to time include, but will not necessarily be limited to, base salaries, short- and long-term incentives, pensions, benefits, perquisites, employment and change of control provisions, analysis of performance factors used to determine incentive awards and payouts, and related pay-for-performance analysis.

Until mid-year 2006, Mercer Human Resources Consulting (Mercer) served in this capacity. At that time the lead advisor to the HRCC, Kenneth Hugessen, left Mercer to form an independent firm providing advice exclusively to compensation committees. After due consideration, the HRCC decided to retain Hugessen Consulting Inc. (HCI) as its independent advisor. HCI serves at the Committee's pleasure and the HRCC approves all work and associated fees paid to HCI and will review HCI's performance at least annually. The HCI mandate is exclusively with the HRCC, and it will not solicit work from management of the company. Furthermore HCI will not accept any work from management without the express consent of the chairman of the HRCC.

During the first five months of 2006, Mercer's assignments included (a) review of the compensation policies and levels of a representative group of companies in our industry, (b) advice concerning the design of the 2006 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan, and (c) advice concerning compensation packages for the retiring CEO and the new CEO. During the second part of the year, HCI was engaged to provide (a) a review of proposed changes to the Annual Incentive Plan for 2007, (b) advice concerning executive compensation disclosure under the updated SEC requirements, (c) review of director compensation, (d) analysis of a possible stock option exchange program, (e) consultation services concerning the design of the stock ownership guidelines, and (f) advice concerning termination of the Mid-Term Incentive Plan and the substitution of replacement equity awards. HCI provided advice on each of these matters; however, the HRCC ultimately makes all decisions related to our executive compensation program.

Selection and Use of Peer Group Companies

To stay competitive, we seek to ensure that compensation paid to our executives is consistent with market levels in our industry. To help us make this assessment, we consider compensation policies and levels of a representative group of companies in our industry. In January 2006, with the assistance of our advisor, we reviewed the compensation principles and methodologies of the various compensation programs of similar companies in our industry. We use executive compensation benchmarking as part of our compensation philosophy, under which collective target compensation levels for our executives should be set at the median (50th percentile) of the peer group. The actual total direct compensation levels should be above median when our financial performance is superior to the median performance of the peer group and below median when our financial performance is inferior to the median financial performance of the peer group.

Table of Contents

The peer group we used for executive compensation benchmarking includes 16 companies in the forestry and paper products/paper packaging industries (based on GICS industry code) that are similar to Bowater in size and scope of operations. The peer group consists of the following companies:

International Paper Company	Louisiana-Pacific Corporation
Smurfit-Stone Container Corporation	Bemis Company, Inc.
MeadWestvaco Corp.	Graphic Packaging Corporation
Temple-Inland Inc.	Packaging Corporation of America
Abitibi-Consolidated Inc.	Rock-Tenn Company
Domtar Inc.	Potlatch Corporation
Sealed Air Corporation	Caraustar Industries, Inc.
Sonoco Products Company	Wausau Paper Corp.

This group includes all the companies in the Dow Jones Paper Products Group except for Pope & Talbot Inc. and Neenah Paper, Inc. (which were excluded because of their smaller size).

Key Principles and Elements for Compensation of Executive Officers

Our executive compensation program is designed to attract, motivate and retain key executives who directly impact Bowater's long-term success and the creation of stockholder value. In determining executive compensation, we follow these four principles:

Performance-based: Our executive compensation levels reflect company, business unit and individual results based on specific quantitative and qualitative objectives established at the start of each financial year in keeping with our short-term, mid-term and long-term strategic objectives.

Aligned with stockholder interests: Our executive compensation programs were designed with the goal of aligning executives interests with those of our stockholders. Specifically, our annual incentive plan incorporates short-term financial and operational performance goals, the attainment of which will enhance stockholder value. Further, the grant of equity awards in the form of both stock options and restricted stock units, coupled with the stock ownership guidelines requiring senior executives to own stock with a value equal to a specified multiple of their base salaries, insure that the executives have a substantial ownership interest consistent with those of our stockholders.

Market competitive: Our compensation for executives is designed to be competitive with compensation of executives of comparable peer companies and to take into consideration company and business unit results relative to the results of peers.

Individual considerations: Our compensation levels are also designed to reflect individual factors such as scope of responsibility, experience and performance against individual measures.

The key elements of our 2006 executive compensation program were (i) base salary and benefits, (ii) cash incentive compensation, (iii) long-term incentive awards and (iv) severance and change in control arrangements. The different elements have distinct purposes within the company's overall compensation plan, as described below:

Base salary and benefits are designed to be a fixed element of compensation competitive with market benchmarks.

Cash incentive compensation under the Annual Incentive Plan is designed to focus executives on objectives approved by the HRCC for a particular year, divisional goals and, beginning in 2007, individual goals set by the HRCC or management.

Long-term incentive awards, such as stock options and restricted stock units (RSUs) granted under the stockholder-approved stock option and restricted stock plans, focus executives' efforts on goals within the recipients' control that the HRCC believes are necessary to ensure the long-term success of the company, as reflected in increases to the company's stock prices over a period of several years.

Severance and change in control arrangements are designed to facilitate the company's ability to attract and retain executives as the company competes for executive talent in a marketplace where such protections are commonly offered. The severance benefits provide benefits to ease an employee's transition because of an unexpected employment termination by the company due to on-going changes in the company's employment needs. The change in control benefits encourage employees to remain focused on the company's business in the event of rumored or actual fundamental corporate changes.

The company's financial, operating and stock performance over the last four years has reflected, in part, the weak cyclical conditions of the industry. The company's pay-for-performance framework has in turn resulted in total earned pay that is below target for senior executives generally; for example, no bonuses were paid in 2003, no cash incentive awards were made in 2005, no payouts under our Mid-Term Incentive Plan have been made since its inception in 2003 and all outstanding exercisable option awards are underwater. Nevertheless, the Committee is sensitive to retention issues and to providing award opportunities for executives that will continue to provide incentive for the achievement of performance goals, especially relative to factors that are within management's control such as some of the performance goals under our Annual Incentive Plan discussed below.

Allocation among Elements of Compensation

We believe that the mix of base salary and benefits, cash incentive compensation, long-term incentive awards and severance and change in control arrangements provided to our Named Executive Officers is consistent with competitive practice. In allocating compensation among these elements, we believe that the compensation of our Named Executive Officers—generally those executives having the greatest ability to influence Bowater's performance—should be predominately performance-based and long-term in nature, while lower levels of management should receive a greater portion of their compensation in annual incentives and base salary. The 2006 compensation opportunity for the Named Executive Officers consisted of approximately one-third fixed pay (predominately salary and retirement benefits) and two-thirds variable pay, of which approximately 30% is delivered through cash incentive compensation and 70% through long-term equity compensation. The salary is determined by reference to a salary grade that reflects the 50th percentile of pay by companies in our peer group for similar jobs. The target cash incentive compensation is determined as a percentage of the mid-point of the salary range by salary grade, which percentage is determined by reference to practices among companies in our peer group and the HRCC's judgment. The target value of the long-term incentive compensation is then determined by subtracting the target value of the cash compensation (salary plus annual cash incentive) from the total direct compensation amount paid by companies in our peer group to similar employees.

2007 Changes

For 2007 and thereafter, we have eliminated our Mid-Term Incentive Plan (which is described below under the heading "Mid-Term Incentive Plan") and have, as a replacement, increased the annual equity awards. As discussed in more detail below, we believe that the operation of the Mid-Term Incentive Plan and the criteria under which awards were to be made under that plan, were ineffective incentive mechanisms because of the plan's reliance on the performance of our stock price compared to that of our peers as opposed to measures that reward operational success in a difficult business environment. We have also changed our philosophy regarding base salaries and will provide base salary increases for senior executives only under one or more of the following circumstances: (i) assumption of significantly greater responsibility, (ii) outstanding achievement that leads to improved profitability and/or (iii) to adjust a base salary that is considerably below 50th percentile pay for similar positions in our industry.

Base Salary

We seek to provide our senior management with a level of assured cash compensation in the form of base salary that recognizes competitive market practice within our industry as well as the executives' professional status and accomplishments. Our executive officers' salaries were generally set to be competitive with executive compensation at comparable companies considering the scope of the individual's responsibilities relative to the responsibilities of executives at comparable companies. For 2006, the Committee granted several salary increases in connection with promotions but the generally applied increases were approximately 2.5%. For 2007, the Committee increased base salaries 3% for two executive officers and 4% for one executive officer, in each case to move their compensation closer to the midpoint for their internal salary grades. The base salary for each named executive officer is shown on the Summary Compensation Table. As mentioned above, base salary growth in 2007 and beyond will be strongly linked to performance and will not occur on a regularly scheduled basis.

Retirement Plans

Until December 31, 2006, we maintained a traditional defined benefit pension plan. Subsequent to that time no new participants were added to the plan and the benefits under that plan for existing participants who were younger than 55 and whose age and years of service totaled less than 70 were frozen. We replaced that plan with increased contributions to our 401(k) plan pursuant to which we match employee contributions up to 4% per employee and up to 6.5% as an automatic company contribution. In addition, we instituted a supplemental retirement plan for all non-grandfathered US-based employees above a certain salary grade level. Pursuant to this plan, we contribute 10% (12% for the CEO) of each eligible senior executive's compensation. Additional details regarding the supplemental retirement plan and the different retirement plans applicable to each of the Named Executive Officers are provided following the Pension Benefits table below.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

The company provides its Named Executive Officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that the HRCC believes are reasonable and consistent with its overall compensation program. The HRCC annually reviews the level of perquisites and other personal benefits provided to Named Executive Officers.

For 2006, the executive perquisites included financial planning (up to US$5,000), tax return preparation (up to US$1,250), estate planning (US$1,400 every three years), dining club membership (US$1,200 yearly), air travel club (US$300) and the cost of an executive physical (up to US$800). Beginning on January 1, 2007, all executive perquisites were eliminated except for reimbursement for tax preparation and a comprehensive physical, up to a combined maximum of US$5,000, for executives at the senior vice president level and above. We believe that good tax preparation assistance by experts reduces the chance of error and adverse publicity for the company. We also want to encourage our senior management to seek appropriate medical care.

Senior management also participates in Bowater's other benefit plans on the same terms as other employees. These plans include medical and dental insurance, life insurance and charitable gift matching (limited to US$1,000 per employee per year). Relocation benefits also are reimbursed under a standard company policy.

Cash Incentive Compensation2006 ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN

We provide annual cash incentive compensation through our Annual Incentive Plan. The purpose of the plan is to provide an incentive to the executives to meet pre-established short-term financial and operational performance goals. The plan is administered by the HRCC and payments under the plan are entirely within the discretion of the HRCC. In this regard, even if all of the performance goals of the plan are achieved, the HRCC, in its discretion, may elect to pay out less than, more than or none of what would be payable under the Plan based on factors it may deem relevant at the time.

The Annual Incentive Plan for 2006 set performance goals for five different metrics: (i) return on net assets (RONA), (ii) return on capital spending (ROCS), (iii) operating unit performance, (iv) cost reduction and (v) sales goals. With respect to each of these metrics, the company set a target goal and a performance threshold, the achievement of which would be a prerequisite for earning an award under the plan for that metric.

Each of the Named Executive Officers is assigned an annual goal for the amount of incentive compensation he should receive under the plan, expressed in terms of a percentage of his base salary. This amount is fixed based upon the executive's salary grade at 40%, 45% or 50% of base salary, except that the 2006 incentive compensation goal for Mr. Paterson, although set at 68%, was guaranteed to be no less than US$374,000 pursuant to his employment contract. Each executive could earn a maximum payout of two times his percentage goal based on salary grade if the goals are substantially exceeded. For example, the maximum award for the Chief Financial Officer, who has a 45% goal based on salary grade, would be 200% times 45% times base salary, or 90% of base salary.

Because awards under the plan are based on the achievement of goals with respect to five different metrics, some of which may be achieved while others are not, the HRCC prioritized the achievement of each goal by assigning a weighted value to each, with the specific weight varying among the executives based on their job functions. The weights add to 100% for each executive and combine to form the total performance goal for the year.

The following table shows the incentive compensation goal for 2006 for each of the Named Executive Officers, the performance target for each metric, the assigned weight for achieving such goal and the amounts actually paid to each executive under the plan.

- (1) No payments were earned under the RONA metric since the performance threshold of 2.6% was not met.
- (2) Mr. Paterson received the guaranteed minimum payment set forth in his employment agreement. See CEO Compensation Mr. Paterson's Compensation below for a description of the terms of Mr. Paterson's employment agreement.
- (3) Messrs. Nemirow, Newman and Steuart retired from the company during 2006 and were therefore not eligible for 2006 annual cash incentives.
- (4) Converted from Canadian to U.S. dollars at a conversion rate based upon date of payment (US$0.8567).

The five performance measures and the results for 2006 are more fully described below:

RONA, defined as operating income less an incremental 38% tax rate divided by average net assets, is a measure of evaluating earnings in the context of the resources required to generate them. The performance target was established at 3.5% with a threshold of 2.6% and the maximum payout was capped at the 7.0% level and a requirement for positive earnings. Because we did not satisfy the threshold requirement, no executive officer received any payout under this metric.

ROCS targets were established to reflect our priority to spend capital dollars on the highest return capital projects. Based on all approved capital projects in 2006, the ROCS performance target was set at 15.8% with a threshold of 12.3% and the maximum payout was capped at the 21.8% level. We achieved 13.2% ROCS, resulting in a 26% payout of this performance goal.

Operating unit performance goals were established to reflect our desire to improve performance in the areas of safety, productivity, quality and cost reduction. Operating unit performance is directly aligned with our gainsharing programs for company employees not eligible to participate in the Annual Incentive Plan. The four factors identified above drive the gainsharing payout at the mill, division level, and the corporate level. The maximum that can be earned by gainsharing participants is 5% of pay. Each factor yields a maximum of 35 points. A 3% gainsharing payout, which is our targeted performance level in the Annual Incentive Plan, is earned at the 75 point threshold, a 4% payout is earned at the 100 point threshold and an additional 1% opportunity is based upon the requirement that points are earned in each category and all points in excess of 100 add 0.025% (e.g., $40 \times 0.025\% = 0.01$ or 1%). The target payout of 3% was earned if 60% of the maximum opportunity of 5% was achieved.

- i Mr. Harvey's bonus reflected 104% of the operating unit performance target.
- i Mr. Monahan's bonus reflected 120% of the operating unit performance target.
- i Mr. Ellington's bonus reflected 78% of the operating unit performance target.
- i Mr. Morris' bonus reflected 187% of the operating unit performance target.

We set a cost reduction target of US$80 million with a threshold of US$60 million and the maximum payout was capped at US$100 million. We achieved a cost reduction of US$116.7 million, which resulted in a 200% payout of this performance goal.

Product sales performance goals were established to reflect our focus on improving operating efficiencies through optimizing product mix and reducing sales and distribution costs. The sales goals varied for each Named Executive Officer depending upon the officer's responsibilities in that product area. The four product areas are newsprint, coated and specialty paper, pulp and lumber. The target goals varied by product and were as follows:

i Newsprint

Develop initiatives to reduce Bowater's costs (target of US$6 million), customers' cost (target of US$1.5 million), improve product mix (target of US$2 million), reduce freight costs (target of US$1.5 million), and reduce agent commissions (target of US$0.5 million). The overall target of US$11.5 million was exceeded as actual performance was US$28.3 million, 147% of target.

- i Coated and Specialty Papers Attain volume and profitability targets by product, shift product and customer mix to achieve higher profitability by US$12.4 million, sell all additional tonnage generated by the Calhoun machine conversion and maintain Bowater's price against Industry Benchmark Price. Actual performance was 134% of target.
- i Pulp Manage days supply of inventory (target is 20 days), increase percent of sales volume sold to the North American market (target is 65% of total sales), increase percent of total product sold to consumer end use segment (target is 48%), achieve EBITDA per ton goals set relative to the performance of peers (target is US$37 above industry peers). Actual performance was 148% of target.
- i Lumber Group and individual goals related to the improvement of price, on-time shipping, inventory level, sales volume, systems enhancement and client satisfaction.

As discussed above, some of the performance thresholds were met or exceeded, while others were not met. In accordance with the bonus formula, the executives were entitled to the bonus amounts shown on the table above. The HRCC had the discretion to reduce or eliminate these bonuses. However, consistent with the policy of paying for performance when targets are achieved even if the Company's overall financial performance is poor, the HRCC determined to make the awards as earned by the Named Executive Officers according to the applicable bonus formula.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN FOR 2007

The 2007 Annual Incentive Plan will focus on the following performance metrics: free cash flow (target is the 2007 budgeted amount), operating unit performance (target is 60%), return on net assets (target is 1.56%), and sales performance. A significant emphasis is being placed on the generation of free cash flow to reduce corporate debt. Operating unit performance is also weighted to reflect the importance of improving our position as a low cost, efficient producer. A 40% holdback feature will be added to the plan in 2007, linking individual performance to measurable key objectives set at the start of the performance period. The holdback will permit senior management discretion (and, in the case of the CEO, the Board, and for other Named Executive Officers, the CEO) in the allocation of earned incentive dollars, such that some participants may receive more than the so-called "earned bonus" for their salary grade level while others will receive less or possibly no award. A table showing the goals and weighting of each is shown below.

Named Executive Officers ⁽¹⁾	Free Cash Flow	Operating Unit Performance	RONA	Sales Performance	Individual Performance vs. Key Objectives
	(2007 Forecast)	(60%)	(1.56%)
Mr. Paterson	50%	30%	10%	10%	40% Holdback
Mr. Harvey	50%	30%	10%	10%	40% Holdback
Mr. Monahan	40%	40%	10%	10%	40% Holdback
Mr. Ellington	35%	15%	10%	40%	40% Holdback

MID-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

We adopted a Mid-Term Incentive Plan (MTIP) in 2003 to provide long-term performance-based compensation. The MTIP had rolling three-year plan cycles, the first of which ran from January 1, 2003, to December 31, 2005. The MTIP was designed to link rewards of key executives to the performance of Bowater's common stock as compared to peers (relative total stockholder return) (TSR) and to encourage the generation of cash flow from operations.

Table of Contents

In order to simplify the executive compensation structure, we decided to terminate the MTIP as of December 31, 2006. No awards were earned under the 2003-2005 or 2004-2006 MTIP cycles. The combination of Bowater's business mix (heavy exposure to the newsprint market) and cost exposure to the volatile Canadian dollar severely limited the number of meaningful comparators for purposes of the relative TSR comparisons used under the MTIP. Consequently, the MTIP had become of minimal motivational value as the plan was unresponsive to the company's success at meeting the particular business challenges that confront the company, including declining newsprint consumption, an unfavorable Canadian exchange rate and worldwide overcapacity. To substitute for the MTIP, the Committee decided to increase the annual equity awards by 45% to encourage retention of key management and to focus attention on successfully meeting the challenges associated with profitable operations in the newsprint, specialty and coated papers, lumber products, and pulp segments, by rewarding operational success rather than stock performance. This also simplified the executive compensation structure making it easier for executives to identify the equity award as aligning their long-term interests with the stockholders. This increase was reflected in the 2007 equity awards made by the Committee in January 2007. This substitution is being done on a dollar for dollar basis, with no increase in the overall target level of compensation.

Long-Term Incentive Awards

Historically, the primary form of equity compensation that we awarded executives consisted of nonqualified stock options. We selected this form because of the well established and generally favorable accounting and tax treatments and the near universal expectation by employees in the industry that they would receive stock options. More recently, however, in response to both our own operating environment and recent pressure from institutional stockholders and the investment community generally to use fewer options (principally resulting from extensive media coverage of abusive practices with respect to stock options by public companies), we began reassessing how equity as a compensation tool could be better aligned with our stockholders' interests. Moreover, beginning in 2006 the accounting treatment for stock options changed as a result of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), making the accounting treatment of stock options less attractive. As a result, we examined the desirability of granting restricted stock units to employees, particularly members of senior management, and concluded that replacing our MTIP and a significant portion of our options with restricted stock units would allow us to capture certain benefits while providing an equally motivating form of incentive compensation and continuing to align the interests of our executives with those of our stockholders. It would also permit the company to issue fewer shares, thereby reducing potential dilution.

We adopted a new approach to equity compensation based upon a combination of nonqualified stock options and restricted stock units for the 2006 equity awards. As compared to prior equity awards, we included more restricted stock unit awards and fewer options, longer vesting schedules and performance vesting for a portion of the restricted stock unit awards to senior executives.

EQUITY AWARD SCHEDULE

With the exception of significant promotions and new hires, we generally make equity awards to executive officers at the Committee's first meeting each year following the availability of the financial results for the prior year. The equity grants were made on January 30, 2007 for the 2007 fiscal year. The 2006 grants were delayed until May 10, 2006, because the 2006 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan was approved by stockholders on that date.

The January schedule was selected because it enables the Committee to consider prior year performance and expectations for the current year. The awards also are made as early as practicable in the year in order to maximize the positive incentive component associated with the awards. The Committee's schedule is determined several months in advance, and the proximity of any awards to earnings announcements or other market events is coincidental.

In establishing award levels, we generally do not consider the equity ownership levels of the recipients or prior awards that are fully vested. It is our belief that competitors in our industry who might be interested in hiring our employees would not place a value on the extent of equity ownership in Bowater and, accordingly, to remain competitive in the marketplace we cannot afford to have our future actions influenced by the extent of employee ownership or the number of fully vested grants.

We grant equity awards to executive officers based on dollar values computed for each salary grade. For 2006 and thereafter, the dollar value was determined to transition executives from 2005 grant levels toward levels that would result in total compensation for each salary grade that approximated the total compensation received at peer companies at the 50th percentile. For stock options, the dollar values are determined using the Black-Scholes valuation methodology based on the average of the high and low stock price on the date of grant. For the Named Executive Officers, the awards in 2006 were allocated 37.5% to stock options and 62.5% to restricted stock unit awards of which one-half had performance-based vesting and one-half had time-based vesting. For 2007, to reflect changes in competitive practice, the awards to the Named Executive Officers were allocated 15% to stock options (25% for the CEO), and 85% to restricted stock units (75% for the CEO). The 2006 equity awards made to the Named Executive Officers are shown on the Summary Compensation and the Grants of Plan-Based Awards tables.

STOCK OPTIONS

The 2006 and 2007 nonqualified stock option awards have a three-year service-based vesting schedule. The 2006 awards provide for cliff vesting (the stock option awards vest in full at the end of the three-year vesting period) while the 2007 awards provide for ratable vesting (the stock option awards vest in 1/3 increments at the end of each year during the three-year vesting period). The award agreements provide that the options will vest in full prior to the end of the regularly scheduled three-year vesting period for employees who are employed on the date of a change in control, as defined in the 2006 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan. The agreements also provide that in the event of death, disability, involuntary termination without cause or retirement, the executive is entitled to (i) under the 2006 award agreements, a prorated award based upon the portion of the vesting period the executive is an active employee, and (ii) under the 2007 award agreements, immediate vesting. Under the award agreements, the option exercise period will terminate no later than the 10-year anniversary of the date of grant or, if earlier, two years after the employee's termination of employment by reason of death, five years after retirement or disability, or 90 days after termination of employment for other reasons. Consistent with our past practice, the options will be canceled upon termination of employment for cause.

RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS

The restricted stock unit awards provide for the transfer of shares to the employees as of the date of vesting. No dividends are payable prior to vesting in the shares. At the time of vesting, the employee will receive a lump sum payment equal to the amount of the dividends paid on or after the grant date and prior to the vesting date. One-half of each of the 2006 restricted stock unit awards to Named Executive Officers has a service-based three-year cliff vesting schedule while all of the 2007 equity awards have a service-based three-year ratable vesting schedule.

The remaining portion of the 2006 restricted stock unit awards will vest if certain performance targets are met. If we have cumulative positive earnings per share during the three-year period beginning January 1, 2006 and ending December 31, 2008 (that is, if our cumulative net earnings for the three-year period are positive), the total awards will vest. If we have positive earnings per share for any one calendar year during the three-year period, one-third of the respective award will vest for each such year. Earnings per share and net earnings will be as reflected in our published financial statements. No vesting will occur until certification by the Committee that the performance targets have been met. The 2007 restricted stock unit awards did not include performance vesting because of the pending combination with Abitibi and the difficulty of framing a meaningful performance goal.

Under the terms of the award agreements, vesting will be accelerated for executives who are employed on the date of a change in control as defined in the 2006 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan. They also provide that in the event of death, disability, involuntary termination without cause or retirement, the executive is entitled to (i) for all 2006 awards (except the awards in lieu of bonus described below) a prorated award based upon the portion of the vesting period the executive is an active employee, vesting immediately and (ii) for 2007 awards and the 2006 awards in lieu of bonus, 100% immediate vesting (except that the 2006 awards in lieu of bonus provide for a prorated vesting in the event of retirement). For the performance-based awards, a grantee is only entitled to a prorated award if the three-year cumulative net earnings are positive.

Restricted stock units were also used to compensate participants for bonus amounts earned under the 2005 Annual Incentive Plan, subject to a two-year service-based cliff vesting schedule. Performance against goals resulted in a substantial bonus for the 2005 period but after careful deliberation, the Board of Directors elected to grant restricted stock units instead in order to conserve the cash reserves of the company.

STOCK OWNERSHIP GUIDELINES

We adopted new stock ownership guidelines on November 8, 2006. These guidelines are for senior executives and directors and are a way to better align their financial interests with those of stockholders. Senior executives are required to own stock with a value equal to a specified multiple of their base salaries. The requisite multiples are five for the chief executive officer and two for executives who report directly to the CEO. Directors are expected to own stock having a value equal to three times the annual retainer. The ownership requirement must be satisfied through Bowater common stock or Bowater Canada exchangeable shares owned outright or through Bowater benefit plans and restricted stock or stock unit awards (not stock options). As of March 31, 2007, all but one of our directors and, of our Named Executive Officers, Messrs. Ellington and Morris had satisfied the new stock ownership guidelines. Our senior executives and directors receive a portion of their compensation in the form of equity awards which will help all covered individuals comply fully with these new guidelines by February 1, 2010.

CEO Compensation

Mr. Nemirow became Chief Executive Officer of the company in 1995 and became Chairman of the Board in 1996. He retired as the company's President and Chief Executive Officer on April 30, 2006. Since May 1, 2006, Mr. Paterson has served as the company's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Nemirow's 2006 Compensation

Mr. Nemirow continued to receive his 2005 base salary through April 30, 2006. He did not receive an Annual Incentive Award for 2005 or 2006.

On May 1, 2006, Mr. Nemirow retired and, in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement and the applicable retirement plans, he received a lump sum payment of US$11,558,802, in lieu of a life retirement income of US$900,000 per annum which would otherwise have been payable to him under the executive retirement plans. In addition to this lump sum, he also received an additional payment of US$69,195 on November 1, 2006. He will also receive a monthly annuity payment of US$2,727.38 from the qualified retirement plan. He received a distribution from the nonqualified savings plan of US$165,443 on November 1, 2006.

Effective as of May 1, 2006, we entered into an agreement with Mr. Nemirow regarding his service during the remainder of 2006 as non-executive chairman of the Board and his services to Bowater as a consultant for a two-year period thereafter. Under the consulting agreement, Mr. Nemirow was to receive US$50,000 per month for his services during the board service period and US$50,000 per month for his services during the consulting period. He did not receive any compensation or fees to which a non-employee director would otherwise have been entitled. He was reimbursed for the cost of an off-site office and administrative support during the board service period. On May 21, 2007, Mr. Nemirow's consulting agreement was amended as of May 31, 2007 to provide for a lump sum payment of the remaining US$1,000,000 due to Mr. Nemirow thereunder and to release Bowater from certain terms relating to his employment with Bowater and the consulting agreement.

Mr. Nemirow's change in control agreement was amended such that if a defined change in control occurred as a result of the execution of a letter of intent or a definitive agreement during the board service period, he would receive upon closing of the transaction three times the annualized fee payable to him as non-executive chairman (US$1.8 million) plus any excise taxes due as a result of such payment.

The agreement also contains non-competition, confidential information, and independent contractor and release provisions.

Mr. Paterson's Compensation

Effective as of May 1, 2006, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Paterson to be our President and Chief Executive Officer. For 2006, Mr. Paterson's annual base salary was set at US$825,000. Under the company's Annual Incentive Plan, he is eligible for an annual bonus with a target payout equal to 68% of his base salary and a maximum payout of 136% of his base salary. For the year ending December 31, 2006, he was guaranteed a bonus of US$374,000 (target) payable in 2007.

We also granted Mr. Paterson 50,000 restricted stock units. This grant was made partly in recognition of various equity and cash forfeitures incurred by Mr. Paterson as a result of entering into our employment agreement. The shares vest in full after the earlier of one year or the termination of Mr. Paterson's employment by the company without cause or by Mr. Paterson for good reason.

In addition, we granted Mr. Paterson options to purchase 250,000 shares of our common stock. The exercise price of the options was US$27.425, the average of the high and low trading prices of Bowater common stock on the date of grant, May 1, 2006. The options vest ratably over three years and have a ten-year exercise term. The options also are subject to the terms and conditions that apply generally to unexercised options previously granted by the company.

The combined value of these equity awards at the time the grants were made was approximately US$3.4 million, or two times the annual grant value made to the CEO under the company's ongoing equity grant policy.

The Committee determined to make these equity grants after careful consideration of

- (i) competitive pay data on peer company equity grant levels,
- (ii) the need to provide an inducement to Mr. Paterson to accept the company's offer of employment, and
- (iii) in the belief that providing the CEO with a substantial initial equity interest would create an immediate alignment of financial interest between the company and the CEO.

During the term of the agreement, Mr. Paterson will be entitled to receive perquisites and participate in incentive and benefit plans that we generally provide for our senior executives. If Mr. Paterson's employment is terminated for reasons other than death, disability, retirement or cause, he will receive a lump sum severance payment equal to twice his base salary at the time of termination plus between two and three times the last annual bonus paid to him.

The employment agreement provides for a change in control agreement similar to the change of control agreements with other senior executives. If Mr. Paterson is eligible for both a severance payment under the employment agreement and a payment under the change of control agreement, he may elect which of those payments he will receive.

The employment agreement also contains noncompetition, nonsolicitation and nondisclosure provisions.

Table of Contents

In negotiating the terms of Mr. Paterson's employment agreement, we considered data supplied by our advisor concerning CEO compensation at peer companies, the past compensation paid to Mr. Nemirow for his services as CEO and Mr. Paterson's prior compensation history.

Deductibility of Compensation Section 162(m)

In order to maintain flexibility to attract and retain qualified executives, we may allow for compensation that is not deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). We did not pay any non-deductible compensation in 2006.

Severance and Change in Control Arrangements*Severance Benefits*

We believe that companies should provide reasonable severance benefits to employees. With respect to senior management, these severance benefits should reflect the fact that it may be difficult for employees to find comparable employment within a short period of time. Severance benefits should also assist in disentangling the company from the former employee as soon as practicable. For instance, while it is possible to provide salary continuation to an employee during the job search process, which in some cases may be less expensive than a lump sum severance payment, we prefer to pay a lump sum severance payment in order to most cleanly sever the relationship as soon as practicable.

Where the termination is without cause or the employee terminates employment for good reason (applies only in the case of Mr. Paterson), our employment agreements with the Named Executive Officers provide for benefits equal to two years of base salary plus between two and three times the amount of the last bonus paid. The vesting of certain equity awards is accelerated in the event of an involuntary termination without cause. In addition, a terminated employee is entitled to receive any benefits that he otherwise would have been entitled to receive under our 401(k) plan, pension plan and supplemental retirement plans, although those benefits are not increased or accelerated. We believe that these severance benefits are similar to the general practice among comparable companies, although we have not conducted a study to confirm this. Where an employee is entitled to severance benefits under traditional severance provisions and a change in control provision, he may elect which of these payments he will receive.

Based upon a hypothetical termination date of December 31, 2006, the severance benefits under the employment agreements for the Named Executive Officers would have been as follows:⁽¹⁾

	Paterson	Harvey	Monahan⁽²⁾	Ellington	Morris
Base Salary (2x)	US$ 1,650,000	US$ 730,000	US$ 895,908	US$ 670,000	US$ 686,600
Base Salary	US$ 825,000	US$ 365,000	US$ 447,954	US$ 335,000	US$ 343,300
Bonus (3x)⁽³⁾	US$ 1,122,000	US$ 445,500	US$ 671,931	US$ 626,997	US$ 624,900
Bonus	US$ 374,000	US$ 148,500	US$ 223,977	US$ 208,999	US$ 208,300
Total	US$ 2,772,000	US$ 1,175,000	US$ 1,567,839	US$ 1,296,997	US$ 1,311,500

(1) Messrs. Nemirow, Steuart and Newman terminated their employment with the company during 2006. Messrs. Steuart and Newman both received severance payments in accordance with the terms of their employment agreements of US$1,868,392 and US$1,944,143, respectively. Mr. Newman received an additional payment of US$255,857 in exchange for a release of all claims against the company. Mr. Nemirow did not receive a severance payment.

(2) Converted from Canadian to U.S. dollars using an exchange rate of US$0.8818.

(3) For all but Mr. Paterson and Mr. Monahan, the bonus is based on the 2005 earned cash incentive awards under our Annual Incentive Plan, which was actually awarded in the form of restricted stock units. Mr. Paterson's employment agreement calls for a 2006 bonus of US$374,000. Mr. Monahan's employment agreement calls for the severance bonus payment to be calculated on the basis of his target incentive which is 50% of base salary.

The accelerated equity awards would be 250,000 options and 50,000 restricted stock units for Mr. Paterson; 5,775 options and 8,626 restricted stock units for Mr. Harvey; 6,640 options and 13,201 restricted stock units for Mr. Monahan; 4,370 options and 10,192 restricted stock units for Mr. Ellington; and 5,020 options and 10,506 restricted stock units for Mr. Morris.

The definition of cause varies among different employment agreements with members of senior management. For all of the Named Executive Officers except for the CEO, cause is defined as gross negligence or willful misconduct either in the course of employment or which has a material adverse effect on the Corporation or the executive's ability to perform adequately and effectively his duties. Under Mr. Paterson's employment agreement, cause also is defined as conviction of (or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to) a felony. Under Mr. Paterson's agreement, good reason generally will exist where his position or compensation has been decreased or where he has been required to relocate.

Change in Control Benefits

It is our belief that the interests of stockholders will be best served if the interests of our senior management are aligned with them, and providing change in control benefits should eliminate, or at least reduce, the reluctance of senior management to pursue potential change in control transactions that may be in the best interests of stockholders.

We revised our policy toward change in control benefits in January 2005. Prior to that date, we had awarded change in control agreements to all executives from the mill manager level up. The agreements provided severance benefits approximately equal to three times all compensation. In 2005, 37 executives were covered by change in control agreements, which exceeded generally accepted norms. Since January 2005, it has been our policy to grant change in control agreements (containing less favorable terms than the old agreements) only at the highest executive levels. Further, when an executive with a more favorable change in control agreement receives a promotion, he or she is required to sign a new change in control agreement containing less favorable terms. Today only 28 executives are covered by change in control agreements, of which eighteen have the revised (less favorable) version.

Each Named Executive Officer is a party to a change in control agreement which continues until his employment is terminated and all obligations thereunder have been satisfied. Following a change in control of Bowater, if the executive's employment is terminated within 36 months (except for a termination due to death, disability, or for cause (defined as gross negligence or willful misconduct that has not been cured or conviction of a felony, which action has a demonstrable and material adverse effect upon Bowater)), or if the executive elects to terminate his employment either (a) for good reason or (b) only under Mr. Monahan's agreement, during a 30-day period after the first anniversary of the change in control, the executive will receive his accrued salary. Unless the executive's termination is for cause, he also will receive a prorated annual incentive award and all benefits under Bowater's benefit plans and policies to which he is entitled through his date of termination.

In addition, the Named Executive Officer will receive, in lieu of any severance payments provided in any applicable employment agreement and depending on the applicable version of the change in control agreement, an amount equal to the sum of: (a) three times the executive's annual base salary; (b) three times the target (highest possible in Mr. Monahan's agreement) annual incentive award; (c) three times the largest annual contribution that could have been made by Bowater to its savings plans on the executive's behalf; (d) 30% of the executive's annual base salary (as compensation for certain other benefits lost as a result of the termination of employment); (e) an amount equal to the present value of the additional retirement benefits the executive would have earned for three years; and (f) retiree health care and life insurance.

The change in control agreements define a change in control as occurring if: (a) any person becomes beneficial owner of an amount of Bowater stock representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of Bowater's then outstanding voting securities, unless the Board has approved the acquisition of up to 50% of these securities or the person has filed a Schedule 13G indicating the person's intent to hold the securities for investment; (b) less than 50% of the total membership of the Board are continuing directors (as defined in the change in control agreements); or (c) Bowater's stockholders approve a merger, consolidation or reorganization of Bowater, or an agreement for the sale or other disposition of substantially all of Bowater's assets unless at least 50% of the voting power of the resulting entity is still owned by previous Bowater shareholders or at least 50% of the board of directors of the resulting entity are previous Bowater directors.

The change in control agreements define "good reason" as: (a) an adverse change in the executive's status, title, position or responsibilities (including a change in reporting relationships); or (b) failure to pay or provide the executive the salary and benefits, in the aggregate, at least comparable to those to which he was previously entitled; or (c) the reduction of the executive's salary as in effect of the date of the change in control; or (d) Bowater's failure to obtain from any successor its assumption of the change in control agreement; or (e) the relocation of the executive's principal office to a location more than 35 miles from its location immediately prior to the change in control or a substantial increase in the executive's travel obligations following the change in control.

The change in control agreements also generally provide a terminated executive with: (a) either a cash payment of US$20,000 (to be paid in the currency of his country of residence) or outplacement assistance; (b) a grossed up reimbursement of certain excise taxes that may be levied on excess parachute payments; (c) a waiver of any non-compete obligations; and (d) under certain agreements, the right to receive a lump sum payment equal to the present value of any non-statutory retirement benefits to which the executive is entitled. A terminated executive will also be entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all costs incurred (or to be incurred) in connection with realizing the benefits of the change in control agreement.

All of our equity compensation plans provide that awards will be automatically vested upon a change in control. Some of the equity compensation plans provide for a cash out of the equity awards at an acceleration price.

Based upon a hypothetical change in control date of August 1, 2007, the change in control termination benefits for our Chief Executive Officer and the other Named Executive Officers would be as follows:⁽¹⁾

	Paterson	Harvey	Monahan⁽²⁾	Morris	Ellington
	(US$)	(US$)	(US$)	(US$)	(US$)

(1) Messrs. Newman and Stuart would not be eligible for change in control benefits because they were no longer employed by the company at year end.

(2) Converted from Canadian to US dollars using an exchange rate of US$0.9018.

(3) Based on the May 1, 2007 Bowater common stock price of US$21.34.

If the company has positive earnings per share for any one calendar year during the three-year period, one-third of the respective award will vest for each such year. The performance measure was not met in 2006; therefore, no compensation expense was recognized in 2006 for the performance-based restricted stock units.
- (9) Represents restricted stock units awarded in 2006, in the discretion of the HRCC, in lieu of cash incentive awards previously earned by the executive under the 2005 Annual Incentive Plan. - (10) Mr. Newman and Mr. Steuart retired in 2006. Upon their retirement, they forfeited 2,592 and 1,184, respectively, of the service-based restricted stock units, and 10,024 and 4,572, respectively, of non-qualified stock options.

The cash incentive compensation awarded to each Named Executive Officer under the Annual Incentive Plan for 2006 is set forth in the Summary Compensation table under non-equity incentive plan compensation. The target and maximum amounts that could have been awarded under the plan are set forth in the Grants of Plan-Based Awards table. A detailed discussion of each executive officer's target goals under the five performance metrics and the actual amounts earned by each executive officer under the plan is provided under Cash Incentive Compensation 2006 Annual Incentive Plan.

The restricted stock unit awards granted to each executive officer in 2006 included a mix of service-based and performance-based awards. One-half of the restricted stock unit awards have a service-based three-year ratable vesting schedule and the remaining restricted stock unit awards vest if certain performance targets are met. In addition, the HRCC made a discretionary grant of restricted stock units in 2006 in lieu of cash incentive awards previously earned by the executive under the 2005 Annual Incentive Plan. Stock options are granted to executives at the discretion of the HRCC based on performance and competitive market practices. A detailed discussion of the terms of the equity awards is provided under Long-Term Incentive Awards.

The discussion of the material terms of the pension benefits plans available to each executive officer is provided under the Pension Benefits table below.

Employment Agreements

Each Named Executive Officer is party to an employment agreement (collectively, the Agreements). Each Agreement continues until death, disability, retirement or written notice of termination by either Bowater or the executive. In the event of a change in control, as defined in the Change of Control Agreements (CIC Agreements) described below, the term of the Agreements continues for not less than three years unless the executive terminates his employment for other than good reason (as defined in the CIC Agreements). The Agreements provide for payment to each executive of an annual base salary and for the executive's participation in Bowater's various bonus and benefit plans in effect from time to time while the Agreements are in effect. In the event the executive's employment is involuntarily terminated for reasons other than death, disability, retirement or cause (defined in the Agreements as gross negligence or willful misconduct by the executive either in the course of his employment or that has a material adverse effect on Bowater or on the executive's ability to perform his duties adequately and effectively), the Agreements provide for payments equal to two years of annual base salaries and annual incentive awards, plus a prorated annual incentive award for the year of termination. Mr. Nemirow's Agreement provides that, for purposes of determining the benefits due under Bowater's benefits plans, he will receive credit for continuous employment at an accelerated rate.

Pension Benefits

The table below shows the present value of accumulated benefits payable to each of the Named Executive Officers, including the number of years of service credited to each, under the Qualified Plan, the Equalization Plan and the Supplemental Plan for the six Named Executive Officers based in the U.S., and under the Registered Plan and the Supplemental Plan for the two Named Executive Officers based in Canada (Mr. Monahan and Mr. Steuart). The benefits were determined using the interest rate and mortality rate assumptions consistent with those used in the company's financial statements.

- (1) The accrued benefit amounts shown in the Pension Benefits table above were measured as of September 30, 2006, using a 6.00% (5.1% for the Canadian benefits) discount rate and the RP2000 mortality table projected to 2006 with white collar adjustments. Benefits were calculated assuming retirement at age 60 or current age, if greater, for US executives, age 65 for Mr. Monahan and at age 60.5 for Mr. Steuart.
- (2) The Last Measurement Year under the company's benefit plans included the period between October 1, 2005 through September 30, 2006. See footnote 16 to the company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, included in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K originally filed with the SEC on March 1, 2007 for more information.

Retirement benefits are payable under the following plans: a qualified plan covering all salaried employees, which provides pension benefits based on earnings and service (the Qualified Plan); a nonqualified benefits restoration plan, which provides a make-up of qualified plan benefits limited by the imposition of statutory Internal Revenue Code limitations (the Equalization Plan); and a nonqualified supplemental plan covering designated senior executives including the Named Executive Officers (the Supplemental Plan), which provides benefits in addition to those under the other two plans. The three plans combine to provide a retirement benefits package to our executive officers that is competitive with our peers and reduces the impact of certain provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that limit the maximum benefits that may accrue under the Qualified Plan. The definition of compensation under these three plans includes those categories of compensation under the salary and bonus headings in the Summary Compensation Table and does not include compensation in any of the other headings of the Summary Compensation Table.

Bowater's US defined benefit pension plans are underfunded by US$157 million measured as of September 30, 2006. The Bowater qualified plans (including the Qualified Plan) are partially funded whereas the Bowater non-qualified plans (including the Equalization Plan and Supplemental Plan) are unfunded. The level of funding of the Bowater qualified plans varies over time and it is expected that the current level of underfunding would be lower than as of September 30, 2006. The underfunding of the Bowater qualified plans does not impact the level of the benefits paid under the plans, as long as the plans are not terminated. The unfunded status of the Bowater non-qualified plans does not impact the level of the benefits paid under the non-qualified plans as long as Bowater (or AbitibiBowater, upon completion of the combination) has sufficient general assets to pay the benefits.

The Qualified Plan provides an age 65 retirement benefit equal to 52.5% of a participant's final average monthly compensation, proportionately reduced for each year of benefit service less than 35 years minus 50% of his primary Social Security benefit, proportionately reduced for each year of service less than 35 years. The plan allows for an unreduced early retirement benefit at age 62 if the participant has accrued more than 10 years of service. The plan also provides for a reduced early retirement benefit if the participant has attained age 50 and completed at least 10 years of service. The early retirement reduction is 4.5% per year before age 62.

The Supplemental Plan provides an age 60 retirement benefit (if the participant has at least 10 years of service) equal to 2.5% of the participant's final average monthly compensation for each year of service up to 20 years of service plus 1% of the participant's final average monthly compensation for each year of service greater than 20 and up to 30 years of service minus any other benefit payable to the participant from the other two plans. Participants are allowed to retire before age 60 if they are allowed to retire under the Qualified Plan. The retirement benefit is reduced by 1/2% per month before age 60. The HRCC has discretion to grant extra years of credited service under the Supplemental Plan in special situations.

The Supplemental Plan provides for vesting of accrued benefits in the event of a change in control followed by termination of employment of a covered employee not for cause. The Equalization Plan described above provides that in the event of a change in control, each participant in the plan will become 100% vested in his accrued benefits.

The Supplemental Plan and the Equalization Plan provide for lump sum distributions. The lump sum distributions will be computed based on an interest rate set by a Board committee in the year prior to the year of distribution and, if the participant is unmarried at the time the distribution is made, will be calculated as if the participant were married and his or her spouse was three years younger than the participant.

As of December 31, 2006, Mr. Ellington is the only Named Executive Officer who is currently eligible to retire under any of the plans described above. He is eligible to retire under all three plans. Mr. Newman retired on December 1, 2006 and has received US$2,278,903 under the Supplemental Plan, US$1,550,854 under the Equalization Plan and US$4,995 under the Qualified Plan, for a total of US$3,834,752 in pension benefits since he began receiving payments on December 1, 2006.

Mr. Paterson was not covered by any of the plans described above in 2006.

Effective January 1, 2007 the Qualified Plan, Equalization Plan and the Supplemental Plan were all frozen to new entrants and to certain current employees and replaced by a qualified defined contribution plan and a non-qualified defined contribution plan. The qualified defined contribution plan provides maximum employer contributions of 2.5% to 6.5% of earnings depending on the age and service of the participant. The non-qualified defined contribution plan provides a make-up of qualified plan contributions limited by the imposition of statutory Code limitations plus an additional employer contribution of 10% (12% for the CEO) of earnings. Mr. Paterson, Mr. Harvey and Mr. Morris will be covered by the new defined contribution plans effective January 1, 2007 while Mr. Ellington will continue to accrue service under the prior plans.

As of December 31, 2006, the individuals listed in the Pension Benefits Table above had the following final average earnings and credited number of years of service: Mr. Ellington: US$489,779, 19.5 years; Mr. Harvey: US$371,704, 15.4 years; Mr. Morris: US$460,922, 19.8 years.

Mr. Nemirow was covered by the Qualified Plan, the Equalization Plan and a special agreement providing for enhanced accruals and additional years of service in the Supplemental Plan. Mr. Nemirow accrued a benefit equal to 2.5% of his final average earnings for his years of service greater than 20 and up to 30 years. Under the terms of his employment agreement, he was also credited with two years of service for each of his first 10 years of participation in the Supplemental Plan. The additional years of service granted to Mr. Nemirow provided him with an additional lump sum benefit of US$5,475,000 at retirement.

Named Executive Officers Resident in Canada

Mr. Monahan and Mr. Stewart reside in Canada.

Each of Mr. Monahan and Mr. Stewart will receive retirement benefits from a partially funded registered plan (together, the Registered Plans) and an unfunded Supplemental Plan (together, the Supplemental Plans). Both plans are based on years of service and earnings, which include categories of compensation under the salary and bonus headings in the Summary Compensation Table. Bowater's Canadian defined benefit pension plans are underfunded by US$260 million measured as of September 30, 2006. The Bowater registered plans (including the Registered Plans) are partially funded whereas the Bowater non-registered plans (including the Supplemental Plans) are unfunded. The level of funding of the Bowater registered plans varies over time and it is expected that the current level of underfunding would be lower than as of September 30, 2006. The underfunding of the Bowater registered plans does not impact the level of the benefits paid under the Registered Plans, as long as the plans are not terminated. The unfunded status of the Bowater non-registered plans does not impact the level of the benefits paid under the Supplemental Plans, as long as Bowater (or AbitibiBowater, upon completion of the combination) has sufficient general assets to pay the benefits. Certain Supplemental Plan benefits are secured by a letter of credit.

Upon completion of 15 years of service with Bowater and a predecessor company, on February 1, 2009, Mr. Monahan will be entitled to a total unreduced pension for each year of service before 2003, equal to 2% of his best average earnings (1.5% on the portion of the earnings that is covered by his Registered Plan - currently US$43,700). In the event of retirement before February 1, 2009, Mr. Monahan's total pension for service before 2003 would be reduced by 0.417% for each month that retirement precedes age 65.

For each year of service since January 1, 2003, Mr. Monahan is entitled to a total unreduced pension from age 65 equal to 2% of best average earnings (1.6% on the portion of the earnings that is covered by his Registered Plan - currently US$43,700). In the event of retirement before age 65, the pension for service since January 1, 2003 would be reduced actuarially.

The pensions described above for Mr. Monahan are payable for life subject to a five-year guarantee. Best average earnings are based on the best consecutive 60 months and include base salary and bonuses.

As of December 31, 2006, Mr. Monahan earned 12.92 years of credited service with Bowater; his best average earnings are US$693,829 (C$808,564).

Mr. Steuart retired on December 31, 2006 and is receiving since January 1, 2007 pension benefits from a registered plan and from an unfunded supplemental plan.

For his service with Bowater, Mr. Steuart was entitled to a total pension equal to 2% per year of service multiplied by final average pay, which is defined as the average base salary for the 36 months preceding retirement plus 50% of the average incentive target. The incentive component in the final average pay represents 18% of base salary for service before 1999 and 25% of base salary for service after 1998. For his service with prior employers recognized under both the registered plan and the supplemental plan, Mr. Steuart is entitled to a total pension equal to 1.6% per year of recognized service multiplied by final average pay.

Mr. Steuart was entitled to unreduced pension benefits as he retired after attaining age 60. His pension benefits are payable for life, with 60% continuing to his surviving spouse following his death.

As of December 31, 2006, Mr. Steuart earned 13.33 years of service with Bowater and 23.67 years of service with prior employers for which he receives credit under his Registered Plan and his Supplemental Plan; his final average pay is US$545,544 (C$635,758) for years of service before 1999, and US$577,906 (C$673,472) for years of service after 1998. Mr. Steuart's lifetime retirement benefits for the years of service with Bowater amount to US$25,426 (C$29,630) per year from his Registered Plan, plus US$125,230 (C$145,939) per year from his Supplemental Plan. Mr. Steuart also receives a bridge benefit payable until age 65 from his Registered Plan of US$3,350 (C$3,904) for his service with Bowater. For his prior service, Mr. Steuart receives retirement benefits of US$45,130 (C$52,593) per year from his Registered Plan plus US$161,449 (C$188,148) from his Supplemental Plan. Mr. Steuart also receives a bridge benefit payable until age 65 from his Registered Plan of US$5,444 (C$6,344) for his prior service.

Benefits were calculated assuming retirement at age 65 for Mr. Monahan and on January 1, 2007 at age 60.5 for Mr. Steuart.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation

The following table shows information with respect to the Bowater Incorporated Compensatory Benefits Plan. With the exception of contributions on behalf of Mr. Paterson, as of December 31, 2006 all amounts under the plan were invested in Bowater common stock, which lost value during 2006.

(1) The amounts shown are reported under the All Other Compensation column in the Summary Compensation Table.

(2) Mr. Paterson's benefit was not contributed to the plan until January 1, 2007, at which time the investment restriction to Bowater stock was eliminated. The Bowater Incorporated Compensatory Benefits Plan provided eligible employees with employer matching contributions that they did not receive under the tax-qualified Bowater Incorporated Savings Plan due to Internal Revenue Code limitation. All of the contribution amounts were treated as if invested in Bowater stock.

Table of Contents

As of January 1, 2007, the Compensatory Benefits Plan was amended and restated as the Bowater Incorporated Supplemental Retirement Savings Plan (the Supplemental Savings Plan) and offered several new features. It provides that:

If the employee participates in the tax-qualified savings plan and cannot receive the full employer match under the plan because of Code limitations, the employee will receive the remainder of the match in the Supplemental Savings Plan.

Similarly, if the employee cannot receive the full employer automatic contribution (ranging from 2.5% to 6.5% of earnings depending on age and service of participants), the employee will receive the remainder of the automatic contribution in the Supplemental Savings Plan.

Executives in salary grade 33 and above (including Messrs. Paterson, Harvey and Morris) who are not eligible to participate in the tax-qualified defined benefit plan, will receive an additional employer contribution of 10% of base salary plus bonus (12% for the CEO) and can elect to defer a portion (up to 50%) of base salary.

Employees will have expanded hypothetical investment options mirroring the same options offered under the tax-qualified savings plan.

Investment elections can be changed at any time.

The Supplemental Savings Plan pays any amounts due in a lump sum upon separation from service for any reason or disability.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires Bowater's directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders to file reports of holdings and transactions in Bowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares with the SEC. Based on a review of Section 16(a) reports received by Bowater and written representations from its directors and executive officers, Bowater believes that all of its executive officers, directors and 10% shareholders have made all filings required to be made under Section 16(a) on a timely basis for 2006.

Bowater has adopted a written Code of Conduct specifically applicable to the board of directors. Among other things, the Directors' Code of Conduct sets forth Bowater's policies with regard to the review and approval of conflicts of interest or related party transactions. The guidelines apply to transactions in which a director's personal interest is adverse to, or may appear to be adverse to, the interests of the company as a whole. The guidelines provide that, with respect to any such transaction, (1) a director shall recuse him or herself from any company board decision involving another firm or company with which the director is affiliated and (2) directors may not receive a personal benefit from a person or firm which is seeking to do business or to retain business with the company, unless such a relationship is fully disclosed by the interested director and approved by the vote of the directors disinterested in the transaction. The board, acting through the disinterested directors, considered each of the transactions discussed in the preceding two paragraphs and determined that they were in compliance with the guidelines. Bowater has also adopted Corporate Governance Principles, applicable to all employees, which requires any employee to report potential conflicts of interest to the board of directors for review.

Corporate Governance

Bowater has long believed that good corporate governance is critical in ensuring shareholder value. For many years, a substantial majority of Bowater's directors have been independent, and Bowater's Audit Committee, Human Resources and Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee have included only independent members. Some of the more significant aspects of Bowater's corporate governance, which complies with the standards established by the SEC and the NYSE include the following:

Independent Directors

Historically, a majority of Bowater's directors have been independent as defined by the NYSE's listing standards, and Bowater's formal policies require a majority of independent directors.

Traditionally, Bowater's independent directors (all directors except Mr. Paterson) have held formal executive sessions at least annually without the presence of management directors or executive officers. Mr. Sawchuk as Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee, has been chosen to preside at these meetings. If independent directors include any directors who are not independent under applicable NYSE listing standards, the independent directors will meet separately at least annually.

The Board has determined that Directors Evans, Giffin, Harkin, Ménard, Rolls, Sawchuk, Van Saun and West, a substantial majority of directors, are independent directors as defined in the listing standards of the NYSE. As part of this determination, which included consideration of the relationships described under

Transactions with Related Persons above, the Board found that none of these directors has a material relationship with Bowater. Bowater's corporate governance principles include the Board's determination that the following categories of relationships are not material and will not impair a director's independence:

Owning less than five percent of the equity of, or being a director of, another company that does business with Bowater where the annual sales to, or purchases from, Bowater are less than five percent of the annual revenues of either company;

Ownership of less than five percent of the equity of, or being an executive officer or director of, an unaffiliated company that is indebted to Bowater (or to which Bowater is indebted) where the total amount of either company's indebtedness to the other is less than five percent of the total consolidated assets of either company; and

Serving as an officer, director or trustee of a charitable organization, where Bowater's charitable contributions to the organization are less than two percent of that organization's total annual charitable receipts, or US$20,000 per year, whichever is less (and excluding Bowater's match of charitable contributions by employees, officers and directors).

Board Committees

The charters of the Audit Committee, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Governance Committee comport with the NYSE's listing standards.

The Audit Committee, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Governance Committee are composed solely of independent directors as defined by the NYSE's listing standards.

The charters for Bowater's Audit Committee, Human Resources and Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee are available at Bowater's website (<http://www.bowater.com>) or upon request from Bowater's Legal Department.

Audit Committee

All Audit Committee members are financially literate, and the Board has determined that at least one member is an audit committee financial expert under applicable SEC regulations.

Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm report directly to the Audit Committee, which controls their engagement.

The Audit Committee pre-approves the provision of all audit and non-audit services by Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee has established a procedure for the confidential and anonymous reporting of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The Audit Committee, through its chair or another member designated by the chair, meets with management and the independent registered public accounting firm quarterly, in separate executive sessions if deemed necessary, to review Bowater's financial statements and significant findings based upon the auditors' review procedures.

Corporate Governance Principles

Bowater's Board of Directors has adopted corporate governance principles, which are available at Bowater's website (<http://www.bowater.com>) or upon request from Bowater's Legal Department. The purpose of Bowater's corporate governance principles is to provide a structure within which the Board of Directors and management can pursue Bowater's objectives for the benefit of its shareholders and supervise its management.

Table of Contents

The corporate governance principles outline the Board's responsibilities and the interplay among the Board and its committees in furthering Bowater's overall objectives. The principles note the Board's role in advising management on significant issues facing Bowater and in reviewing and approving significant actions by Bowater. In addition, the principles highlight principal roles of certain of the Board's committees, including:

the selection and evaluation of senior executive officers (including the Chief Executive Officer) by the Board, the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, including succession planning;

the administration of executive compensation and director compensation by the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, with reliance on the Nominating and Governance Committee's assessment of executive performance and annual assessment of Board and committee effectiveness;

the selection and oversight of independent auditors and oversight of public financial reporting by the Audit Committee; and the evaluation of candidates for Board membership and the oversight of the structure and practices of the Board, the committees and corporate governance matters in general by the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Bowater's corporate governance principles also include, among other things:

general qualifications for Board membership, including independence requirements (with, among other things, the categorical standards for Board determinations of independence); director responsibilities, including Board and shareholder meeting attendance and advance review of meeting materials; provisions for director access to management and independent advisors and for director orientation and continuing education; and an outline of management's responsibilities, including production of financial reports and disclosures, implementation and monitoring of internal controls and disclosure controls and procedures, development, presentation and implementation of strategic plans, and setting a strong ethical tone at the top.

Bowater has adopted a code of business conduct that applies to all of Bowater's North American employees, including Bowater's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, principal accounting officer and Controller. The Board has a separate Board of Directors Code of Conduct, which contains provisions specifically applicable to Directors. The code of business conduct and the Board of Directors Code of Conduct are available on Bowater's website (<http://www.bowater.com>) or upon request from Bowater's Legal Department. Bowater will disclose amendments to its code of business conduct or its Board of Directors Code of Conduct and any waivers of their provisions with respect to its Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, principal accounting officer and Controller on its website within four business days following the date of the amendment or waiver.

Description of Board Committees

Audit Committee. This committee met six times in 2006. Its purposes and responsibilities include:

monitoring the integrity of Bowater's financial reporting process and systems of internal controls, including reviewing Bowater's accounting policies and systems of internal controls and internal auditing procedures, and reviewing Bowater's earnings press releases, quarterly financial statements and the scope and results of Bowater's annual audit;

monitoring the independence and qualifications of Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm, including approving the non-audit services rendered by Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm and considering the effect of such services on the independence of such auditors;

monitoring the performance of Bowater's internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm, including appointing, retaining or replacing the independent registered public accounting firm; monitoring Bowater's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, including establishing and maintaining procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints or concerns regarding accounting or auditing matters; and providing an open avenue of communication among Bowater's Board of Directors, management, independent registered public accounting firm and internal auditors.

The Board has determined that each of the Audit Committee members is independent under applicable standards of the SEC and the NYSE, and no Audit Committee member serves on the audit committee for more than three other public companies. The Board has also determined that Messrs. Rolls and Van Saun are audit committee financial experts as defined by the SEC. For further information concerning the work of the Audit Committee, see Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

Executive Committee. This committee did not meet during 2006. It meets periodically to make decisions between meetings of the Board under authority delegated by the Board of Directors.

Finance Committee. This committee met three times in 2006. It reviews and oversees Bowater's financial affairs. The committee also provides financial oversight and direction of Bowater's pension and savings plans, including approving the selection of trustees and the amount of contributions to be made by Bowater under these plans. In addition, the committee reviews and approves the adoption of actuarial and accounting methods and assumptions under these plans and reviews the action of management in establishing investment policy and administering the plans.

Human Resources and Compensation Committee. This committee met six times in 2006. Each member of this committee is independent as defined in the NYSE's listing standards. This committee's purposes and responsibilities include:

evaluating Bowater's compensation structure, including the evaluation and approval of compensation for Bowater's executive officers and directors; and evaluating and approving the adoption, amendment and termination of equity-based plans for Bowater's executive officers, and administering executive bonus plans and awards and stock option plans and grants under the plans.

Nominating and Governance Committee. This committee met five times in 2006. Each member of this committee is independent as defined in the NYSE's listing standards. This committee's purposes and responsibilities include:

advising the Board with respect to the organization, membership and function of the Board and the structure, membership and operation of committees, including the identification, selection or recommendation of Board members and of Board nominees for the annual meetings of stockholders; and developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance principles and policies applicable to Bowater.

Bowater expects its directors to regularly attend Board meetings, meetings held by committees on which the directors sit, and annual and special meetings of Bowater's stockholders. The Board of Directors met eleven times during 2006. During 2006, each director attended at least 80% of the aggregate of the Board meetings held during that director's service and of the meetings of committees on which that director served. Eight of the nine directors serving at that time attended Bowater's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Selection and Evaluation of Board Candidates

The Board and the Nominating and Governance Committee are responsible for evaluating candidates and nominating directors and members of Board committees. The Nominating and Governance Committee identifies and recommends qualified director candidates to the Board. In making its recommendations to the Board, the committee considers the appropriate mix of skills and characteristics required to best fill the needs of the Board at a given point in time. The committee recommends candidates to the Board that will result in the Board being composed of at least a majority of independent directors. The committee seeks candidates that possess the following general qualifications:

High personal and professional ethics, integrity and values;

An inquiring and independent mind;

Practical wisdom, vision and mature judgment;

Substantial training and experience at the policy making level in business, government, or education;

Expertise that is useful to Bowater and complementary to the background and experience of other Board members, so that an optimum balance of expertise among members on the Board can be achieved and maintained;

Table of Contents

Willingness and ability, in light of other business and personal commitments, to devote the required amount of time to diligently fulfill the duties and responsibilities of Board membership;

Commitment to serve on the Board over a period of years to develop knowledge about Bowater's operations;

Involvement only in activities or interests that do not create a conflict that violates any applicable law or regulation or interferes with the proper performance of the duties and responsibilities of Board membership;

A strong sense of partnership and the ability to work well with others; and Capacity and desire to represent the balanced best interests of Bowater's shareholders as a whole.

The committee endeavors to find candidates who each have recent experience as a member of the Board of at least one other company, preferably a publicly-held reporting company. In addition, to the extent possible, the committee seeks candidates whose election would result in the Board being composed of at least one Board member with each of the following specific areas of expertise/experience:

Professional services (e.g., attorneys; investment bankers; university professors);

Politics/government relations;

Management/operating experience (e.g., as a CEO, COO or senior manager); or Financial/accounting experience (e.g., as a CFO, CFA, CPA or analyst).

The committee considers candidates that have been properly and timely proposed for nomination or recommended as a prospective nominee by shareholders, but the committee has the sole discretion to recommend the candidates as nominees for Board approval. The requirements and procedures for shareholder nominations and shareholder recommendations for candidates to be considered for nomination are summarized in Proposals by Stockholders below.

The Nominating and Governance Committee identifies and evaluates nominees for directors based on the recommendations of a variety of sources, including referrals from shareholders, independent directors, the Chief Executive Officer, third party search firms, advisors and representatives of Bowater, or other third parties. The committee retained a third party search firm in 2006. As is generally the case when the committee retains a third-party search firm, the firm assisted in identifying and evaluating potential nominees, including the conduct of background checks and interviews, and Bowater paid for the services rendered.

Communication with Board of Directors

Bowater has implemented a policy to facilitate communication with Bowater's Board of Directors. Under the policy, shareholders and other interested parties may communicate with the entire board of directors, any individual director, or independent directors as a group, by writing to the director or directors at the address of Bowater's corporate headquarters. The communications will be summarized by the office of Bowater's Corporate Secretary, which will circulate the summary and communication to the chair of the nominating committee. The Secretary's office will disregard solicitations, duplicative, harassing or frivolous communications, bulk mail, and other types of communications as the Board may specify from time to time. Details about this policy, including the manner in which Bowater determines those communications that will be forwarded to the directors, are available at Bowater's website (<http://www.bowater.com>) or upon request from Bowater's Legal Department.

Director Compensation

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

Each director who is not a Bowater employee (an Outside Director) is entitled to receive an annual retainer of US$35,000, a fee of US$1,500 per day for each Board meeting attended, and a fee of US$1,000 per day for each Board committee meeting attended. As of January 1, 2007 each Committee Chair will receive an additional annual retainer of US$10,000 for the Audit Committee, and US$5,000 for the other committees. Each director is also reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in attending meetings. In addition, in 2006 Bowater provided contributions of up to US$1,000 dollars per year to match donations by each director (as well as by all employees generally) to educational or cultural institutions. In 2006, Bowater contributed a total of US$1,000 to match donations by Outside Directors pursuant to this program. This matching program is designed to encourage charitable giving. Accordingly, Bowater does not consider these matching contributions to be compensation or perquisites, either for Outside Directors or employees.

On May 9, 2006, each director then serving was granted 1,450 restricted stock units (Restricted Stock Units) under Bowater s 2004 Non-Employee Director Stock Unit Plan. The Directors Stock Unit Plan provides for settlement of the Restricted Stock Units in cash upon the director s ceasing to be an outside director of Bowater or in two equal installments on April 30, 2007 and on April 30, 2008.

Deferred Compensation Plan for Outside Directors

Bowater s Deferred Compensation Plan for Outside Directors (the Deferred Plan) permits Outside Directors to elect irrevocably to defer receipt of all or a part of their annual retainer and meeting fees. Compensation that a director has elected to defer under the Deferred Plan can be allocated to a cash account, a Bowater common stock account or both accounts, in increments of 10%, as elected by the director. Deferred compensation allocated to stock is credited to directors stock accounts on the date the deferred compensation would otherwise have been payable. The number of shares credited equals the dollar amount of the compensation deferred divided by 95% of the closing price on the day of deferral (i.e., a 5% discount) and includes fractional shares. Whenever dividends are paid on shares of Bowater common stock, each participant s stock account will be credited with additional shares having an undiscounted value equal to the amount of the dividend paid on a single share of such stock, multiplied by the number of shares of Bowater common stock, including fractional shares, credited to the participant s account on the dividend record date. Deferred compensation that is allocated to a cash account will be credited on the date on which such compensation would have been payable. Amounts credited to a Deferred Plan cash account will accrue interest on the average monthly balance of that account at a rate equal to the rate for the Fixed Income Fund maintained for Bowater s Savings Plan (the Savings Plan). Outside Directors can elect to transfer balances between the cash and stock accounts subject to certain conditions set forth in the Deferred Plan, but they may not otherwise transfer shares in their stock accounts prior to the distribution of the shares upon their departure from the Board. Participants in the Deferred Plan may elect to have their Deferred Plan accounts distributed to them in Bowater common stock or cash either (a) as soon as possible after they cease to be Outside Directors or in a stated number of years thereafter or (b) in either five or ten installments. All the Outside Directors have accounts under the Deferred Plan.

Retirement Plan for Outside Directors

In March 2005, the Board of Directors adopted a resolution to replace the Retirement Plan for Outside Directors (the Retirement Plan), described below, with a stock-based plan in order to better align compensation with stockholder interests. The new stock-based plan includes an annual grant of US$15,000 worth of stock-based units (Stock-based Deferred Fee Units) for each year of future service (the Deferred Fee Plan). The value of the Stock-based Deferred Fee Units will be paid to an Outside Director upon termination of service on the Board provided the Outside Director has served at least five years. Outside Directors who had less than five years of service as of March 21, 2005 (five directors) began their participation in the Deferred Fee Plan in May 2005 and their accrued benefits under the Retirement Plan were frozen as of that date. Outside Directors with more than five years of service (two of the current directors) were allowed to choose whether to continue to participate in the Retirement Plan or to participate in the new Deferred Fee Plan. One director elected to be covered under the new Deferred Fee Plan and one director elected to continue to participate in the Retirement Plan. As of August 31, 2006, the frozen interests under the Retirement Plan for all directors covered by the Deferred Fee Plan were converted into additional stock-based units under that plan.

Table of Contents

Only one of Bowater's Outside Directors, Mr. Sawchuk, currently has an interest in the Retirement Plan. The Retirement Plan provides for retirement benefits equal to 10% of the participant's annualized retainer at the termination of service multiplied by the participant's years of service as an Outside Director of Bowater, up to a maximum of ten years or the number of years as of the date the benefit was frozen. The benefit will be paid in a lump sum. Normal retirement benefits may begin at age 65 after the completion of five or more years of service, although early retirement is permitted (with Bowater's consent) upon attaining age 55 and completing five years of service. Participants who elect early commencement of benefit payments after retirement receive a reduced benefit. The Retirement Plan provides that a participant who was an Outside Director immediately prior to a change in control of Bowater and who is removed from, or not re-nominated to, his or her directorship by reason of the change in control is entitled to the early retirement benefits provided by the plan regardless of whether the plan requirements for early retirement have been satisfied. The calculation of these benefits will include fees paid for attending Board and committee meetings for the year preceding the change in control.

Table of Contents

The Stock Awards granted to each individual director are comprised of Restricted Stock Units and Stock-based Deferred Fee Units (see discussions of the applicable plans above under Director Compensation). Restricted Stock Units represent the right to receive a cash payment equal to the fair market value of a share of Bowater stock on the unit's vesting date (the date the unit becomes payable). Every year each non-employee director receives a grant of 1,450 units. The vesting date is either the date the director no longer serves on the Board, or one-half on the first anniversary of the grant date and one-half on the second anniversary of the grant date, in accordance with the director's prior election. Stock-based Deferred Fee Units (one unit equals the value of one share of Bowater stock) are granted annually in an amount equal to US$15,000 based on the fair market value of Bowater stock on the date of grant. Stock-based Deferred Fee Units are vested after five years of service. In summary, each director received the following number of Restricted Stock Units and Stock-based Deferred Fee Units:

Director Stock Awards

Richard B. Evans	586	1,450	2,036
Gordon D. Giffin	586	1,450	2,036
Ruth R. Harkin	586	1,450	2,036
L. Jacques Ménard	586	1,450	2,036

Arthur R. Sawchuk	n/a	1,450	1,450
Bruce W. Van Saun	586	1,450	2,036
Togo D. West, Jr.	586	1,450	2,036

The total value of the Restricted Stock Units and Stock-based Deferred Fee Units awarded in 2006 shown under Stock Awards on the Director Compensation table above was computed in accordance with the valuation assumptions used for the company's financial statements, which takes into account length of service during the year, the applicable vesting schedule and the accrual of dividends, which varies for each director.

The amounts shown under Change in Pension Value and Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Earnings represent (for all directors except Mr. Sawchuk) the 5% discount on Bowater stock that applies to the amounts deferred by the directors to the deferred stock account under the Company's Deferred Fee Plan. This amount is considered to be above market earnings. Mr. Sawchuk and Ms. Harkin did not defer any cash compensation to the stock account under the Company's Deferred Fee Plan and therefore did not receive any Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Earnings. Mr. Sawchuk is the only director still covered by the Retirement Plan. The value of his pension accrual (US$37,208) is shown under the Change in Pension Value and Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Earnings column.

Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors

The following report does not constitute soliciting material and is not considered filed or incorporated by reference into any other filing by Bowater under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, which is available at Bowater's website (<http://www.bowater.com>) or upon request from Bowater's Legal Department. The Audit Committee is currently comprised of four Outside Directors, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are independent as defined under the listing standards of the NYSE and new standards of the SEC adopted under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The Board of Directors has determined that Audit Committee Chairman John A. Rolls and Mr. Bruce W. Van Saun are each an audit committee financial expert as defined by the SEC.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee has:

Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006, with Bowater's management and Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP;

Discussed with KPMG LLP the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standard No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees; and

Received from KPMG LLP written disclosures regarding auditor independence and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussion with Audit Committees, and discussed with the firm its independence from Bowater and its management.

Based on the review and discussions described above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in Bowater's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, for filing with the SEC.

All members of the Audit Committee concur in this report.

Proposal No. 3 Appointment of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors, acting through the Audit Committee, appointed KPMG LLP as independent registered public accounting firm for Bowater to audit its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007. KPMG LLP currently serves Bowater and its subsidiaries as independent registered public accounting firm. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the Bowater Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

The table below and the accompanying footnotes set forth the fees paid by Bowater to its independent registered public accounting firm KPMG LLP for the periods and in the categories indicated.

Audit Fees and Services	Fiscal 2006 (US$ in thousands)	Fiscal 2005 (US$ in thousands)
Audit Fees	$ 3,290	$ 3,000
Audit-Related Fees ⁽¹⁾	$ 325	$ 263
Tax Fees ⁽²⁾	$ 56	$ 182
All Other Fees ⁽³⁾	$ 80	$ 155
Total Fees for all Services	$ 3,751	$ 3,600

(1) Audit-Related Fees in 2006 and 2005 consisted principally of fees for audits of financial statements of certain employee benefit plans and other attestation engagements.

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

- (2) Tax Fees consisted of fees for tax compliance (US$158,000 in 2005 and US$38,000 in 2006) and for tax planning and consulting (US$24,000 in 2005 and US$18,000 in 2006).
- (3) All Other Fees in 2005 consisted principally of fees for sustainable forest audits in Canada and an information technology security assessment. All Other Fees in 2006 consisted principally of fees for sustainable forest audits in Canada and annual report translation.

Bowater's Audit Committee has adopted a policy requiring that the Audit Committee pre-approve all audit and non-audit services (including audit-related, tax and other services) performed by Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm, and the Audit Committee pre-approved all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by KPMG LLP since May 6, 2003. Under policies and procedures adopted by the Audit Committee, the terms and fees of the annual audit services engagement are subject to approval by the Audit Committee prior to the rendering of the services. The Audit Committee also reviews and approves non-audit services prior to the rendering of the services. The Audit Committee may not approve the provision of non-audit services that the SEC prohibits independent auditors from performing for their audit clients or that are otherwise inconsistent with the independent auditor's independence. The Audit Committee is required to establish annually a budget for services to be performed by Bowater's independent accountants, and Bowater's management is required to track the independent auditor's fees against the budget and report at least annually to the committee.

Bowater's Chief Financial Officer, Controller or other officer designated by the Board must submit, jointly with the independent registered public accounting firm, requests for the independent registered public accounting firm to provide services to the Audit Committee that require pre-approval. Each request must include a statement as to whether both the independent registered public accounting firm and the submitting officer view the provision of the requested services as consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The request must be sufficiently detailed to enable the Audit Committee to precisely identify the services requested. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to its chair or one or more other committee members but not to Bowater's management. Any committee members with delegated authority must report all pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining KPMG LLP's independence. The results of the vote will be considered when appointing an independent accounting firm in 2007.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the ratification of KPMG LLP as Bowater's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007.

Proposals by Stockholders

A stockholder who wished to present a proposal for inclusion in Bowater's proxy materials relating to the 2007 Bowater Annual Meeting (i.e., in this document) must have submitted his or her proposal on or before December 10, 2006 to Bowater's Secretary, 55 East Camperdown Way, Post Office Box 1028, Greenville, South Carolina 29602-1028. The proxy statement for our 2006 Annual Meeting stated that any stockholder proposal for the 2007 Bowater Annual Meeting that is not intended to be included in these proxy materials must have been received by January 10, 2007 for it to be considered timely. However, because the 2007 Bowater Annual Meeting is being held more than 30 days after the one-year anniversary of our 2006 Annual Meeting, in order for a stockholder proposal to be considered timely for the 2007 Bowater Annual Meeting, we must have received it a reasonable time prior to the mailing of this document, as opposed to January 10, 2007. Based on a June 25, 2007 mailing date of this document, we have designated May 12, 2007 as the date by which a proposal must have been received in order to be considered timely. Stockholders submitting proposals for inclusion in the proxy statement and proxy card must comply with the proxy rules under the Exchange Act, and all stockholders submitting proposals must comply with the bylaw requirements described below.

Bowater's bylaws require timely advance written notice of stockholder nominations of director candidates to be presented at an annual meeting of stockholders. The bylaws provide that for director nominations by stockholders, 120 days advance written notice be delivered to Bowater's Secretary (at the address indicated above). The notice must be given, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to Bowater's Secretary no later than: (a) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting (although as described above, this deadline was designated as May 12, 2007 for the 2007 Bowater Annual Meeting); and (b) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors, the close of business on the seventh day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to stockholders. A copy of the bylaws is available upon request to Bowater's Secretary at the address indicated above. For director nominations, the notice is required to contain the following:

the name and address of the nominating stockholder and the person or persons being nominated; the class and number of shares held of record, held beneficially and represented by proxy by the nominating stockholder as of the meeting's record date (if established) and as of the date of the notice;

a representation by the nominating stockholder that he or she intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice;

a description of all arrangements and understandings between the nominating stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming them) pursuant to which the nomination is being made by the stockholder;

all other information regarding each proposed nominee that would have been required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC had the nominee been nominated by Bowater's Board of Directors; and the consent in writing of each proposed nominee to serve as a director of Bowater if elected.

In the case of recommendations by stockholders for candidates to be considered for director nomination by the Bowater Nominating and Governance Committee, Bowater's policy is to require that advance written notice be delivered to Bowater's Secretary (at the address indicated above). The timing and content requirements for these recommendations are the same as those for director nominations by stockholders, which are described above.

NOTE TO CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

Organization and Business

AbitibiBowater Inc. was originally incorporated on January 25, 2007 as Alpha-Bravo Holdings Inc., and the Certificate of Incorporation was amended on January 29, 2007 to change the name to AbitibiBowater Inc. (AbitibiBowater). AbitibiBowater was formed by Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. (Abitibi) and Bowater Incorporated (Bowater) to become the ultimate parent in the planned combination of Abitibi and Bowater.

Formation of Subsidiary

On January 25, 2007, Alpha-Bravo Merger Sub Inc. (Merger Sub) was incorporated and is wholly owned by AbitibiBowater. Merger Sub was formed solely to facilitate the planned combination of Abitibi and Bowater.

Significant Developments

On January 29, 2007, AbitibiBowater, Abitibi, Bowater, Merger Sub (a wholly owned subsidiary of AbitibiBowater) and Bowater Canada Inc., a Canadian subsidiary of Bowater, entered into a combination agreement and agreement and plan of merger (as amended as of May 7, 2007), providing for the combination of Abitibi and Bowater under AbitibiBowater, by means of a merger under Delaware law and a plan of arrangement under Canadian law to be submitted for approval by the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec. Upon completion of the combination, each of Abitibi and Bowater will become a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater.

ANNEX B

OF ABITIBIBOWATER

On January 29, 2007, AbitibiBowater Inc. ("AbitibiBowater"), a newly formed Delaware corporation, Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. ("Abitibi"), Bowater Incorporated ("Bowater"), Alpha-Bravo Merger Sub Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of AbitibiBowater, and Bowater Canada Inc. ("Bowater Canada"), a Canadian subsidiary of Bowater, entered into a combination agreement and agreement and plan of merger, providing for the combination of Abitibi and Bowater under AbitibiBowater, by means of a merger under Delaware law and a plan of arrangement under Canadian law to be submitted for approval by the Superior Court, District of Montreal, Province of Quebec. Upon completion of the combination, each of Abitibi and Bowater will become a subsidiary of AbitibiBowater. See "The Combination" for a summary of the various transaction steps that will occur upon the consummation of the combination.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheets give effect to the combination as if it had occurred on March 31, 2007. The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of earnings give effect to the combination as if it had occurred on the first day of the periods presented. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information includes adjustments directly attributable to the combination. The pro forma adjustments are described in the accompanying notes and are based upon available information and assumptions that are factually supportable, including the consummation of the combination.

This unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is for illustrative and informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have been realized had the combination actually taken place at the dates indicated, and does not purport to be indicative of future financial position or operating results. Actual adjustments may differ from the pro forma adjustments. Future operating results may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma financial information presented below due to various factors including those described under "risk factors" relating to the combination elsewhere in this document.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements of Abitibi and Bowater and the notes thereto incorporated by reference as described under "Where You Can Find Additional Information."

AbitibiBowater will account for the combination using the purchase method of accounting under U.S. GAAP. Although the combination of Abitibi and Bowater is a merger of equals, U.S. GAAP requires that one of the two companies in the transaction be designated as the "acquirer" for accounting purposes. Based on a preliminary review of the applicable accounting standards, AbitibiBowater has determined that Bowater is the "acquirer" solely for accounting purposes. As of the date of this document, AbitibiBowater has not completed the detailed valuation studies necessary to determine the required estimates of the fair value of the assets and liabilities of Abitibi acquired or assumed. However, as indicated in Note 2 of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, AbitibiBowater has made certain adjustments to the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of Abitibi. These adjustments reflect certain preliminary estimates of fair value necessary to prepare the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Table of ContentsNotes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information of AbitibiBowater*Note 1: Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheets give effect to the combination as if it had occurred on March 31, 2007. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of earnings give effect to the combination as if it had occurred on January 1, 2006, the first day of AbitibiBowater's fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information includes adjustments directly attributable to the combination. The pro forma adjustments are described in the accompanying notes and are based upon available information and assumptions that are factually supportable, including the consummation of the combination.

AbitibiBowater's unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information was prepared using the purchase method of accounting with respect to the combination, with Bowater being treated as the acquirer solely for accounting purposes. Immediately following the consummation of the combination, AbitibiBowater will be an independent public company. Unless otherwise stated, all amounts shown in this section are in U.S. dollars and in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Bowater's historical consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and are presented in U.S. dollars. Abitibi's historical consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP and are presented in Canadian dollars. Canadian GAAP differs in certain significant respects from U.S. GAAP. Abitibi's unaudited consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2007 and its unaudited consolidated statement of earnings for the three months ended March 31, 2007 were reconciled to U.S. GAAP. As disclosed in Note 29 to Abitibi's audited consolidated financial statements filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities on SEDAR on June 7, 2007 and contained in its report on Form 40-F/A filed with the SEC on June 7, 2007, Abitibi's historical consolidated statement of earnings for the year ended December 31, 2006 was reconciled to U.S. GAAP. The adjustments to U.S. GAAP were used to prepare the historical Abitibi financial information in the accompanying pro forma condensed combined financial information. For pro forma purposes, these U.S. GAAP financial statements were also translated from Canadian dollars to U.S. dollars using the period-end rate for the balance sheet and the average of the monthly average rates during the period for the statements of earnings, based on the Federal Reserve Bank of New York noon rate. See Where You Can Find Additional Information.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information assumes that AbitibiBowater's acquisition has been accounted for in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations (SFAS No. 141) and that the resulting goodwill and other intangible assets are accounted for in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangibles Assets (SFAS No. 142). The total purchase price is allocated to the tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on AbitibiBowater's preliminary estimates of their fair values. Changes are expected as valuations of certain tangible and intangible assets and liabilities are finalized. As a result, actual fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed and related operating results, including actual cost of sales, depreciation, amortization expense, interest expense and income tax expense, could differ materially from those reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included herein.

In preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, a preliminary review was undertaken to identify differences between Abitibi's accounting policies and financial statement presentation and those used by Bowater where the impact was potentially material and could be reasonably estimated. The accounting policies and presentation used in the preparation of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information are those set out in the audited historical consolidated financial statements of Bowater for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the notes thereto incorporated by reference in this document. Further accounting policy and presentation differences may be identified after the consummation of the combination.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information do not reflect operational and administrative cost savings or synergies that AbitibiBowater estimates may be achieved as a result of the combination, or non-recurring, one-time costs or gains that may be incurred or received as a direct result of the combination. Additionally, allocation of the purchase price to liabilities related to potential reorganizations, restructurings, and severance and retention programs have not been reflected in this initial purchase price allocation because such amounts are not currently known or cannot be reasonably estimated.

Bowater's stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards with respect to AbitibiBowater common stock at the exchange ratio of 0.52. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the converted stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing the price by the Bowater exchange ratio.

Note 2: Pro Forma Adjustments to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheets to Reflect the Combination

Purchase Price

Since no quoted market price yet exists for the shares of AbitibiBowater common stock, we have used the share price of Bowater (as Bowater is deemed the acquirer for accounting purposes) to calculate the pro forma purchase price. A fixed exchange ratio has been used for the exchange of both Abitibi shares and Bowater shares. For each share of Abitibi common stock outstanding, Abitibi shareholders will have the right to receive 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock and certain eligible Abitibi shareholders will have the right to elect to receive 0.06261 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share (or a combination of the foregoing). For each share of Bowater common stock outstanding, Bowater stockholders will have the right to receive 0.52 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock. Under the purchase method of accounting, the fair value of the total consideration was determined using an average of Bowater's closing share prices beginning two days before and ending two days after January 29, 2007, the date on which the combination agreement was signed and announced. The Bowater exchange ratio was applied to this average share price, resulting in a price of US$48.79 per issued share.

Abitibi's stock options, stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into options, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards with respect to AbitibiBowater common stock at the exchange ratio of 0.06261. Similarly, the exercise price of the converted stock options or base price of the stock appreciation rights will be adjusted by dividing the price by the Abitibi exchange ratio. The fair value of Abitibi's vested and unvested stock options was estimated utilizing the Black-Scholes model and the per share purchase price of US$48.79 discussed above. For pro forma purposes, the fair value of vested and unvested equity awards is included as additional purchase price. A final valuation of the unvested stock options will be calculated at the closing date of the combination utilizing the Black-Scholes model and the per share price as of the closing date and will be deducted from the purchase price. The amount allocated to the pro forma purchase price for stock options may change materially depending on the number of unvested stock options outstanding at the closing date. The fair value of the unvested stock options, calculated at the closing date, will be allocated to the post-acquisition period and recognized as compensation expense over the remaining requisite service periods.

AbitibiBowater has performed a preliminary valuation to determine the fair value for the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of Abitibi. AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation considered the identification and the determination of fair value of identifiable intangible assets such as, but not limited to, water rights, cutting rights, non-contractual customer relationships, patents and trademarks. AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation of potential intangible assets has identified fair value for water rights. We do not expect to allocate any separate value to cutting rights as the cutting rights and the underlying depreciable assets would be recognized together as a single asset for financial reporting purposes since the cutting rights cannot be sold, transferred, licensed, rented or exchanged apart from the related assets and have similar useful lives as the related assets. Additionally, we do not expect to allocate any value to patents and trademarks as we expect any value to be assigned to such assets to be de minimis. Most of our products are commodities that are widely available from other producers and have few distinguishing qualities and functional characteristics from producer to producer. Competition for our products in our industry is based primarily on price, which is determined by supply relative to demand. Our preliminary valuation of non-contractual customer relationships indicated that these relationships may have an immaterial value; however, this analysis is subject to finalization. Identification of additional identifiable intangible assets is preliminary and subject to finalization.

The initial fair value estimates of the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of Abitibi are preliminary and subject to finalization. AbitibiBowater's preliminary purchase price allocation resulted in excess purchase price over the preliminary estimate of fair value of net identifiable assets acquired. Identification of additional intangible assets and/or finalization of the fair value of the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities and the purchase price allocation could result in a change to such amounts, including the excess in purchase price over the preliminary estimate of fair value of net identifiable assets acquired. AbitibiBowater is unable at this time to estimate the amount by which goodwill or intangible assets might change.

AbitibiBowater has not currently identified any significant contingencies. However, contingencies associated with the combination could be identified and will be taken into consideration in the finalization of the purchase price allocation. Any increase in liabilities would result in an increase in the amount preliminarily allocated to goodwill. AbitibiBowater is unable at this time to estimate the amount by which goodwill might change.

Table of ContentsA Inventories

To increase inventories to fair value less costs to sell to reflect the preliminary purchase price accounting allocation. This non-cash inventory purchase accounting adjustment may impact cost of sales during the first quarter after the closing of the combination, during which time the finished goods inventory on hand on the date of the combination will be consumed. Due to the non-recurring nature of this adjustment, this amount has not been reflected as a pro forma adjustment in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of earnings.

B Other current assets

To eliminate prepaid expenses related to Abitibi's capitalized costs for secondary and tertiary roads to conform to Bowater's accounting policy for expense recognition. The associated amortization expense has not been eliminated from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of earnings as this amount approximates the annual expense of secondary and tertiary roads.

C Fixed assets, net and Intangibles

AbitibiBowater has performed a preliminary valuation to determine the fair value for the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities for Abitibi. AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation resulted in the fair value of fixed assets of $4,053 million, which resulted in a step-up of $700 million over historical book value. An estimated useful life of 15 years has been used for the fixed assets.

AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation of potential intangible assets has identified fair value for water rights in Canada. A preliminary fair value of $704 million for water rights has been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet. This resulted in a fair value purchase price adjustment of $309 million. In Canada, water rights are generally owned by the provincial governments, which also have the right to control water levels. Abitibi has agreements with different governmental authorities in Canada to have rights to use water in order to produce power mainly to be consumed in its pulp and paper manufacturing process. Generally, terms of these agreements vary from 10 to 50 years and are generally renewable, under certain conditions, for additional periods well ahead of the expiration date, while in certain occasions, water rights are granted without expiration dates. Management believes that AbitibiBowater generally will be able to continue meeting the conditions for future renewals. We have assigned an expected useful life of 40 years, which corresponds to the related hydroelectric power plants' expected useful lives.

We do not expect to allocate any separate value to cutting rights, patents or trademarks. Upon finalization of the fair value of the intangible assets, a minimal value may be assigned to non-contractual customer relationships. Although AbitibiBowater is unable at this time to estimate a fair value amount that would be allocated to non-contractual customer relationships, for pro forma sensitivity analysis purposes, a value of $100 million and a 15-year expected useful life would have the following impact (in millions of U.S. dollars, except for per share data):

	Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet	Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statement of Earnings for the	Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statement of Earnings for the

The identification and the determination of fair value for intangible assets is subject to finalization. Finalization of the fair value of the tangible and intangible assets could result in a change in these amounts and the pro forma calculation of depreciation and amortization expense.

D Goodwill

To eliminate historical goodwill of Abitibi ($1,086 million) as the value of acquired goodwill is required to be reduced to zero in the preliminary purchase price accounting allocation. This adjustment also reflects the recording of goodwill of $444 million (including $12 million of transaction costs already capitalized by Bowater), which represents the preliminary excess purchase price over net identifiable assets acquired pending the finalization of our valuation of tangible and intangible assets and liabilities.

E Taxes

To tax effect the purchase price allocation pro forma adjustments ($319 million). Actual amounts may differ from the pro forma amounts presented upon finalization of the purchase price allocation and closing of the combination. Additionally, AbitibiBowater has reclassified Abitibi's deferred income tax assets ($302 million) to deferred income tax liabilities, as the net amount on a pro forma basis is a long-term liability.

F Other assets

To eliminate $32 million of deferred debt issuance costs of Abitibi for purposes of the preliminary purchase price allocation.

G Long-term debt and short-term bank debt

To reclass amounts outstanding under Abitibi's revolving facilities ($269 million) from long-term debt, net of current installments, to short-term bank debt to harmonize to Bowater's presentation. Upon completion of the combination, AbitibiBowater will review its future utilization of the revolving facilities and related presentation in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

H Transaction costs

Bowater will incur approximately $34 million of direct transaction costs and Abitibi will incur approximately $34 million of transactions costs. The unrecorded portions at March 31, 2007 are recognized as accrued liabilities.

I Abitibi long-term debt

To adjust fixed rate long-term debt to fair value based on quoted market prices from a financial institution on March 31, 2007. The fair value of the variable rate long-term debt approximates fair value. The fair value of long-term debt will be remeasured at the closing of the combination and the fair value may change materially.

J Other long-term liabilities

Certain of Abitibi's hydroelectric power facilities have long-term supply power agreements with third parties. These agreements are at specific rates for the duration of the contracts. AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation of the long-term supply power agreements resulted in the recording of a liability of $162 million for contract pricing terms that are unfavorable compared with current market terms. The unfavorable contract liabilities are presented under Other long-term liabilities and are amortized over the remaining contractual period of the long-term supply power agreements, which vary between 5 to 40 years.

- Upon completion of the combination, Bowater shareholders will receive 0.52 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock, par value of US$1.00, for each share of Bowater common stock they own and upon filing of the Bowater Canada articles of amendment, each issued and outstanding Bowater Canada exchangeable share will be changed into 0.52 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, no par value, which will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. Bowater treasury stock will be canceled upon completion of the combination.
- Upon completion of the combination, Abitibi shareholders will receive 0.06261 of a share of AbitibiBowater common stock, par value of US$1.00, for each share of Abitibi common stock they own. Subject to the Bowater Canada exchangeable share limit, Canadian residents who meet certain qualifications can elect to instead receive 0.06261 of a Bowater Canada exchangeable share, no par value, which will become exchangeable for shares of AbitibiBowater common stock for each Bowater Canada exchangeable share they own or a combination of shares of AbitibiBowater common stock and Bowater Canada exchangeable shares. For purposes of this pro forma information, we assumed that all Abitibi shareholders will elect to receive shares of AbitibiBowater common stock. AbitibiBowater is unable to determine at this time how many Abitibi shareholders, if any, will elect to receive Bowater Canada exchangeable shares instead of AbitibiBowater common stock.

Table of ContentsNote 3: Pro Forma Adjustments to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statements of Earnings to Reflect the Combination*L Cost of sales*Pension, post-retirement and post-employment benefits

To adjust for pension, post-retirement and post-employment expenses beginning January 1, 2006 to reflect the fair value of Abitibi's benefit plans. Expense reduction resulting from the elimination of the actuarial gains and losses and prior service costs associated with Abitibi's benefit plans has been allocated to cost of sales and to selling and administrative expenses representing an estimated split of the costs between these two financial statement captions. The purchase price expense reduction to cost of sales and selling and administrative expense was $16 million and $2 million for three months ended March 31, 2007, respectively, and $64 million and $8 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, respectively. Upon consummation of the combination, the assets and liabilities associated with Abitibi's pension, post-retirement and post-employment benefits will be remeasured, resulting in further adjustments to the related expenses. AbitibiBowater is unable at this time to estimate the amount of that adjustment. Obligations for pension and other post-retirement benefits have been determined based upon preliminary actuarial assessments.

Long-term power supply agreements

AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation of the long-term supply power agreements at its hydroelectric power facilities resulted in the recording of a liability of $162 million for contract pricing terms that are unfavorable when compared to current market terms. The remaining contractual term of the long-term supply power agreements varies between 5 to 40 years. This purchase price adjustment results in a pro forma expense reduction to cost of sales of $9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and $34 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Finalization of the fair value of the tangible and intangible assets could result in a change in these amounts and the pro forma calculation impacting our cost of sales.

M Depreciation and amortization

AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation resulted in the fair value of fixed assets of $4,053 million, which resulted in a step-up of $700 million over historical book value. An estimated useful life of 15 years has been used to calculate depreciation expense, which results in pro forma depreciation expense reductions of $22 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and $104 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

AbitibiBowater's preliminary valuation of potential intangible assets has identified fair value for water rights. A preliminary fair value of $704 million for water rights has been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheets. This resulted in a fair value purchase price adjustment of $309 million. We have assigned an expected useful life of 40 years, which results in pro forma amortization expense adjustments of $1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and $4 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Finalization of the fair value of the tangible and intangible assets could result in a change in these amounts and the pro forma calculation of depreciation and amortization expense.

N Mill closure and other elements

Represents the reclassification of Abitibi's mill closure and other elements to cost of sales and net gain on the disposition of assets to conform to Bowater's presentation.

O Debt discount

To record the amortization of discount on long-term debt resulting from recording assumed Abitibi debt at its estimated fair value.

Table of Contents

P Deferred debt issuance costs

Represents the reversal of amortization of deferred debt issuance costs related to debt recognized in Abitibi's historical consolidated financial statements.

Q Financial expenses

Represents the reclassification of Abitibi's financial expenses which include interest expense, interest income, and other expenses to interest expense and other income, net to conform with Bowater's presentation.

R Earnings from equity method investments

Represents the reclassification of Abitibi's earnings from equity method investments, which are presented net of tax, to other income, net and income tax (provision) benefit to conform to Bowater's presentation.

S Income Taxes

To tax effect the purchase price accounting allocation pro forma adjustments using the combined statutory rates in effect in the relevant jurisdictions.

T Transaction costs

Abitibi recorded $9 million of transaction costs in mill closure and other elements, which was reclassified to cost of sales, in the three months ended March 31, 2007. These costs have been eliminated as they are non-recurring and directly related to the transaction.

U Diluted earnings per share

For the calculation of diluted earnings per share for AbitibiBowater for the year ended December 31, 2006, no adjustments to net income are necessary to compute net income per basic and diluted share. The dilutive effect of potentially diluted securities is calculated using the treasury stock method. All of Abitibi's and Bowater's stock options were excluded from the calculation of diluted loss per share as the impact would have been anti-dilutive. Bowater has 62,463 restricted shares that are potentially dilutive on a pro forma basis. Applying the Bowater exchange ratio of 0.52 of a share results in AbitibiBowater dilutive securities of 32,481. This results in an adjustment of less than 0.1 million to the basic weighted-average number of common shares outstanding of 57.4 million, resulting in diluted common shares outstanding of 57.4 million.

(a) Bowater shall, subject to the terms of this Agreement, as soon as reasonably practicable: (1) convene and hold the Bowater Meeting for the purpose of submitting to the holders of the Bowater Common Stock and the holders of Exchangeable Shares the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the Merger, for their consideration (and, with respect to an annual general meeting, if applicable, for any other purpose as may be set out in the notice for such meeting); (2) cause ExchangeCo to convene and hold the ExchangeCo Meeting for the purpose of submitting to the holders of Exchangeable Shares for their consideration the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment and, in the event the holders of the Exchangeable Shares do not approve the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment at the ExchangeCo Meeting by the requisite majority, (x) cause the directors of ExchangeCo to establish the Business Day immediately preceding the day on which the Effective Time occurs as the Redemption Date for the then issued and outstanding Exchangeable Shares (as the term Redemption Date is defined in the share provisions applicable to and governing the Exchangeable Shares) and to proceed with the redemption of all Exchangeable Shares that are issued and outstanding on such Redemption Date in accordance and compliance with the share provisions applicable to and governing the Exchangeable Shares; and (y) cause CallCo, in its capacity as sole shareholder of ExchangeCo, following the redemption of all then issued and outstanding Exchangeable Shares, to approve the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment and cause ExchangeCo to file the Articles of Amendment giving effect to the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event prior to the Effective Time;

(b) Bowater shall, subject to obtaining the Final Order and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions herein contained in favor of each party, on or prior to, the Closing Date, cause the directors of ExchangeCo, CallCo and Bowater to amend or amend and restate the Exchangeable Share Support Agreement and the Voting Trust and Exchange Agreement in order to give effect to the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment; and

SECTION 2.06 Interim Order. The notice of motion for the application referred to in Section 2.04(a) shall request that the Interim Order provide:

(a) for the class of persons to whom notice is to be provided in respect of the Arrangement and the ACI Meeting and for the manner in which such notice is to be provided;

(b) that, subject to the approval of the Court, the requisite approval for the Arrangement Resolution shall be 66²/₃% of the votes cast on the Arrangement Resolution by holders of ACI Common Shares, present in person or by proxy at the ACI Meeting (such that each holder of ACI Common Shares is entitled to one vote for each ACI Common Share held) (such approvals described in this Section 2.06(b), the ACI Shareholder Approval);

(c) that, in all other respects, the terms, restrictions and conditions of the ACI Bylaws and ACI Articles, including quorum requirements and all other matters, shall apply in respect of the ACI Meeting;

(d) for the grant of the Dissent Rights; and

(e) for the notice requirements with respect to the presentation of the application to the Court for a Final Order.

SECTION 2.07 Closing. On the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable Law) of the conditions (excluding conditions that, by their terms, cannot be satisfied until the Closing Date, but subject to the satisfaction or, where permitted, waiver of those conditions as of the Closing Date) set forth in ARTICLE VIII, and unless another time or date is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto (the Closing Date), (i) ACI shall cause the Articles of Arrangement to be filed with the Director, (ii) Bowater shall cause a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger), in such form as required by, and executed and acknowledged by the parties in accordance with, the relevant provisions of the DGCL, to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and shall cause to be made all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL in connection with the Merger, and (iii) ExchangeCo shall file Articles of Amendment giving effect to the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment to be filed with the Director. The Merger, the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment and the Arrangement shall become effective upon the Effective Time in the following order: (1) the Merger, (2) the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment and (3) the Arrangement. The closing of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Arrangement will take place at the offices of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019, on the Closing Date, unless another date or place is agreed to in writing by Bowater and ACI.

SECTION 2.08 Joint Proxy Statement; Meetings; Change in Recommendation.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, ACI, Bowater and ExchangeCo shall complete the Joint Proxy Statement together with any other documents required by the Securities Laws or other applicable Law in connection with the ACI Meeting, the Bowater Meeting and the ExchangeCo Meeting. ACI and Bowater shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to have the Joint Proxy Statement cleared, if applicable, by the SEC and any other applicable Governmental Authority. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Parent shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, the Form S-4), in which the Joint Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus, in connection with the registration under the 1933 Act of the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock and Exchangeable Shares in the Arrangement. Each of Parent, ACI and Bowater shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the 1933 Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and, prior to the effective date of the Form S-4, Parent shall take all action reasonably required (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified or filing a general consent to service of process) to be taken under any applicable state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock and Exchangeable Shares in the Arrangement. As promptly as practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or such clearance and effectiveness of the Form S-4, ACI and Bowater shall, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, cause the Joint Proxy Statement and other documentation required in connection with the ACI Meeting, the Bowater Meeting and the ExchangeCo Meeting to be sent contemporaneously to (x) in the case of ACI, each holder of ACI Common Shares as of the record date fixed in respect of the ACI Meeting and filed as required by the Interim Order and applicable Law, (y) in the case of Bowater, each holder of Bowater Common Stock and each holder of Exchangeable Shares as of the record date fixed in respect of the Bowater Meeting, as required by applicable Law and (z) in the case of ExchangeCo, each holder of Exchangeable Shares as of the record date fixed in respect of the ExchangeCo Meeting, as required by applicable Law. Prior to the date of the initial filing of the Joint Proxy Statement the parties may mutually agree to file a separate proxy statement/prospectus of Bowater or management circular of ACI or ExchangeCo in lieu thereof. If the issuance of Exchangeable Shares in the Arrangement is eligible for an exemption from registration under the 1933 Act, or if such registration may be effected by means of an alternative form to the Form S-4 (an Alternative Form), and in either case such exemption or Alternative Form represents a more efficient method for effecting the issuance of the Exchangeable Shares, then the parties shall cooperate in good faith to permit such issuance to be made under such exemption from registration or under such Alternative Form. In each case described in the immediately preceding sentence, the parties shall cooperate with respect to such actions in a manner consistent with Section 2.10.

(b) Subject to Section 6.05, ACI and its Board of Directors shall (i) take all lawful action to solicit in favor of the ACI Shareholder Approval, (ii) recommend to all holders of ACI Common Shares that they vote in favor of this Agreement and the Arrangement and the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby and (iii) not withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify (or publicly propose to or publicly state that it intends to withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify) in any manner adverse to Bowater such recommendation or take any other action or make any other public statement in connection with the ACI Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (any of the actions in clause (iii), a Change in ACI Recommendation). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of ACI may make a Change in ACI Recommendation in accordance with Section 6.05(b). In connection with a Change in ACI Recommendation, ACI may amend or supplement the Joint Proxy Statement, or separate management circular filed pursuant to Section 2.08(a) (including by incorporation by reference) pursuant to a Qualifying Amendment to effect such a Change in ACI Recommendation.

(c) Subject to Section 6.05, Bowater and its Board of Directors shall (i) take all lawful action to solicit in favor of the Bowater Stockholder Approval and in favor of the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment by the holders of Exchangeable Shares at the ExchangeCo Meeting, (ii) recommend to holders of Bowater Common Stock and to holders of Exchangeable Shares that they vote in favor of the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the Merger, (iii) recommend to holders of Exchangeable Shares that they vote in favor of the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment, and (iv) not withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify (or publicly propose to or publicly state that it intends to withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify) in any manner adverse to ACI such recommendation or take any other action or make any other public statement in connection with the Bowater Meeting or the ExchangeCo Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (any of the actions in clause (iii), a Change in Bowater Recommendation and, together with a Change in ACI Recommendation, a Change in Recommendation). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of Bowater may make a Change in Bowater Recommendation in accordance with Section 6.05(b). In connection with a Change in Bowater Recommendation, Bowater may amend or supplement the Joint Proxy Statement, or separate proxy statement filed pursuant to Section 2.08(a) (including by incorporation by reference) pursuant to a Qualifying Amendment to effect such a Change in Bowater Recommendation.

(d) Any Change in Recommendation shall not be interpreted as rescinding the approval of this Agreement by the Boards of Directors of each of ACI and Bowater or any other approval of the Board of Directors of ACI or Bowater, including in any respect that would have the effect of causing any corporate takeover statute or other similar statute to be applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, ACI and Bowater shall each use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to cause the ACI Meeting, the Bowater Meeting and the ExchangeCo Meeting to be held on the same date. Each of ACI and Bowater shall not adjourn, postpone or cancel (or propose for adjournment, postponement or cancellation) the ACI Meeting, the Bowater Meeting or the ExchangeCo Meeting, as applicable, without the other party's prior written consent, in each case, except as may be required (i) by applicable Law or an Order, (ii) in order to solicit and obtain the requisite vote of its stockholders or shareholders, as the case may be, (iii) for quorum purposes or (iv) to enable ACI or Bowater, as applicable, to comply with its obligations under Section 6.05(b).

SECTION 2.09 Additional Securities Matters.

(a) Parent, Bowater and ExchangeCo shall each use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all Orders required from the applicable Governmental Authorities to permit (i) the issuance and first resale of the Exchangeable Shares and Parent Common Stock issued pursuant to the Arrangement, and (ii) the issuance and first resale of the Parent Common Stock to be issued from time to time upon exchange of the Exchangeable Shares and upon the exercise of the Parent Stock Options, in each case without further qualification with or approval of or the filing of any document including any registration statement, prospectus or similar document, or the taking of any proceeding with, or the obtaining of any further Order or consent from, any Governmental Authority under any Securities Laws or other Laws or pursuant to the rules and regulations of any regulatory authority administering such Laws, or the fulfillment of any other legal requirement in any applicable jurisdiction (other than, with respect to such first resales, any restrictions on transfer by reason of, among other things, such first resale constituting a control distribution or the holder effecting such first resale being an affiliate of ACI, Bowater or ExchangeCo for purposes of Securities Laws and other customary qualifications for such Orders).

(b) Parent, ACI and Bowater shall each use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the approval of the NYSE and the TSX for the listing of the Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or upon exercise of Parent Stock Options or exchange of the Exchangeable Shares, subject to notice of issuance, such listings to be effective prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Parent and ExchangeCo shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the approval of the TSX for the listing of the Exchangeable Shares to be issued to holders of ACI Common Shares in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, such listing to be effective prior to or as of the Effective Time.

(d) Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor form or, if Form S-8 is not available, other appropriate forms) (the Form S-8) in order to register under the 1933 Act the Parent Common Stock to be issued from time to time after the Effective Time upon the exercise of Parent Stock Options, stock appreciation rights with respect to shares of Parent Common Stock (Parent SARs) and rights or awards with respect to shares of Parent Common Stock (Parent Stock-Based Awards), and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as promptly as practicable, but in any event within five (5) days after the Effective Time, and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for the period of time that the Parent Stock Options, Parent SARs and Parent Stock-Based Awards remain outstanding and may be exercised.

(e) Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-3 (or any successor form or, if Form S-3 is not available, other appropriate forms) (the Form S-3) in order to register under the 1933 Act the Parent Common Stock to be issued from time to time after the Effective Time upon exchange of Exchangeable Shares, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective at or prior to the Effective Time and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for the period of time that such Exchangeable Shares remain outstanding.

SECTION 2.10 Cooperation in Filings.

(a) Each of Parent, Bowater and ACI shall cooperate in the preparation, filing and mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement and the Form S-4. Each of Bowater and ACI shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other party copies of any written comments and advise the other party of any oral comments with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement, the Form S-4, the Form S-3 and the Form S-8, received from the SEC, the Canadian Securities Regulatory Authorities or any other Governmental Authority. The parties shall cooperate and provide one another with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Joint Proxy Statement, the Form S-4, the Form S-3, the Form S-8 and any amendments or supplements thereto prior to filing such with the SEC, the Canadian Securities Regulatory Authorities and/or each other applicable Governmental Authority, and will provide one another with a copy of all such filings made. Each party will advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Form S-4, the Form S-3 or the Form S-8 has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of any of the Parent Common Stock or the Exchangeable Shares for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC, the Canadian Securities Regulatory Authorities or any other Governmental Authority for amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement or the Form S-4, the Form S-3 or the Form S-8.

(b) Each of Bowater and ACI shall furnish to the other and to Parent all such information concerning it and its stockholders or shareholders (or the holders of Exchangeable Shares) as may reasonably be required (and, in the case of its stockholders or shareholders or those of ExchangeCo, available to it) for the effectuation of the actions described in Section 2.08 and Section 2.09 and the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.10.

(c) Each of Bowater and ACI shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Joint Proxy Statement, the Form S-4, the Form S-3 and the Form S-8 complies as to form with all applicable Securities Laws.

(d) Bowater and ACI shall each promptly notify the other if, at any time before the Effective Time, it becomes aware that the Joint Proxy Statement or any other document described in Section 2.09 or any application for any Order described in Section 2.09 contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading in light of the circumstances in which they are made, or that otherwise requires an amendment or supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement or such other document or application. In any such event, each of Parent, Bowater and ACI shall cooperate in the preparation of a supplement or amendment to the Joint Proxy Statement or such other document or application, as required and as the case may be, and, if required, shall cause the same to be distributed to stockholders of Bowater or shareholders of ACI or ExchangeCo, respectively, and/or filed with the relevant Governmental Authorities.

(e) In the event the parties mutually agree to file a separate proxy statement of Bowater, management circular of ExchangeCo and management circular of ACI pursuant to Section 2.08(a), each of ACI and Bowater, except, in each case, for a Qualifying Amendment, (i) shall give to the other the reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the preliminary management circulars and separate proxy statement, as applicable, and all subsequent forms or versions of or amendments thereto and shall take into consideration and include all of the other party's reasonable comments to each version of or amendment to such management circulars or proxy statement and (ii) shall not file or submit the preliminary or any subsequent forms or versions of or amendments to the management circulars or proxy statement, as applicable, without the prior consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), except as required by applicable Law.

SECTION 2.11 Execution of Transaction Documents. At the Effective Time, each of Parent, Bowater and ExchangeCo shall execute and deliver each of the Transaction Documents to which they are to be made a party at the Effective Time.

ARTICLE III

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE CONSTITUENT

CORPORATIONS; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

SECTION 3.01 Effect on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any shares of the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Bowater (Bowater Common Stock), or any shares of capital stock of Parent or Merger Sub:

(a) Capital Stock of Merger Sub. Each issued and outstanding share of capital stock of Merger Sub shall be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock, Parent-Owned Stock and ACI and Bowater Owned Stock. Each share of Bowater Common Stock that is owned by Parent, Bowater, ACI or any of their respective wholly owned Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Bowater Common Stock. Subject to Section 3.02(e), each share of Bowater Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 3.01(b)) shall be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable Parent Common Stock equal to the Bowater Exchange Ratio (the Bowater Merger Consideration). At the Effective Time, all shares of Bowater Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Bowater Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 3.01(c) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented any such shares of Bowater Common Stock (each, a Certificate) shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Bowater Merger Consideration, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e), in each case to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such Certificate in accordance with Section 3.02(b), without interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding Parent Common Stock, Bowater Common Stock, ACI Common Shares or Exchangeable Shares shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class, by reason of the occurrence or record date of any stock dividend, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction, then the Bowater Exchange Ratio shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such action.

(d) Exchange of Bowater Special Preferred Stock. Pursuant to the amendment to the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement contemplated in Section 2.05(b), the one issued and outstanding share of Bowater Special Preferred Stock shall be cancelled and replaced by one share of Parent Special Preferred Stock having the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions set forth in the Parent Certificate of Designation.

(a) Exchange Agent. At the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or cause the Surviving Corporation to deposit with a bank or trust company designated by Parent and reasonably satisfactory to ACI and Bowater (the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock in the aggregate amount equal to the number of shares into which shares of Bowater Common Stock have been converted. In addition, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, as necessary from time to time after the Effective Time, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e). All shares of Parent Common Stock, dividends and distributions deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 3.02(a) shall hereinafter be referred to as the Bowater Exchange Fund.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of a Certificate whose shares of Bowater Common Stock were converted into the right to receive shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e): (i) a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and which shall be in customary form and contain customary provisions) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the certificates representing shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e). Each holder of record of one or more Certificates shall, upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of such Certificate or Certificates, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, be entitled to receive in exchange therefor: (i) a certificate or certificates representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates surrendered by such holder) to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c), (ii) any dividends or distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and (iii) cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e), and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Bowater Common Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of Bowater, a certificate representing the proper number of shares of Parent Common Stock may be issued in accordance with this Section 3.02(b) to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered if such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the transfer or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of Parent that such Taxes have been paid or are not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.02(b), each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 3.01(c), any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e). No interest shall be paid or will accrue on any payment to holders of Certificates pursuant to the provisions of this ARTICLE III.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Parent Common Stock with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock that the holder thereof has the right to receive upon the surrender thereof, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 3.02(e), in each case until the holder of such Certificate shall have surrendered such Certificate in accordance with this ARTICLE III. Following the surrender of any Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificate representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock and the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional Parent Share to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.02(e) and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock.

(d) No Further Ownership Rights in Bowater Common Stock. The shares of Parent Common Stock issued upon conversion of the shares of Bowater Common Stock in accordance with the terms hereof and the payment of such dividends or other distributions as are payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and such cash in lieu of any fractional shares as is payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e) upon the surrender of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this ARTICLE III shall be deemed to have been in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Bowater Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificates, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by Bowater on the shares of Bowater Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time. At the close of business on the day on which the Effective Time occurs, the share transfer books of Bowater shall be closed, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the share transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of the shares of Bowater Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificate is presented to the Surviving Corporation for transfer, it shall be canceled against delivery of and exchanged as provided in this ARTICLE III.

(i) No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividends or other distributions of Parent shall relate to such fractional share interests and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of Parent.

(ii) As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the excess of (x) the number of full shares of Parent Common Stock delivered to the Exchange Agent by Parent pursuant to Section 3.02(a) over (y) the aggregate number of full shares of Parent Common Stock to be distributed to holders of Bowater Common Stock pursuant to Section 3.02(c) (such excess being herein called the Excess Shares). Following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of Bowater Common Stock, shall sell the Excess Shares at then prevailing prices on the NYSE, all in the manner provided in paragraph (iii) of this Section 3.02(e).

(iii) The sale of the Excess Shares by the Exchange Agent shall be executed on the NYSE through one or more member firms of the NYSE and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. The Exchange Agent shall use all reasonable efforts to complete the sale of the Excess Shares as promptly following the Effective Time as, in the Exchange Agent's reasonable judgment, is practicable consistent with obtaining the best execution of such sales in light of prevailing market conditions. Until the proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the former holders of Bowater Common Stock, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in trust for the holders of Bowater Common Stock (the Excess Shares Trust). Parent shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out-of-pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation, of the Exchange Agent incurred in connection with such sale of the Excess Shares. The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Excess Shares Trust to which each holder of Bowater Common Stock shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate proceeds comprising the Excess Shares Trust by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such holder of Bowater Common Stock is entitled (after taking into account all shares of Bowater Common Stock held at the Effective Time by such holder) and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all holders of Bowater Common Stock are entitled.

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding clauses (ii) and (iii), Parent may elect, at its option, to pay to each holder of a Certificate an aggregate amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all shares of Bowater Common Stock formerly represented by all Certificates surrendered by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by (B) the product of (x) the Bowater Exchange Ratio multiplied by (y) the per share closing price of shares of Bowater Common Stock on the last trading day immediately prior to the Closing Date, as such price is reported on the NYSE Composite Transaction Tape, as applicable, (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets or such other source as the parties shall agree in writing).

(v) Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, no shares of Bowater Common Stock that are owned by a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent shall be entitled to receive cash pursuant to this Section 3.02(e) and no such shares will be taken into account in determining the amount of cash to which any other holder is entitled pursuant to this Section 3.02(e).

(f) Termination of the Bowater Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Bowater Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of the Certificates for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand, and any holders of the Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this ARTICLE III shall thereafter look only to Parent for, and Parent shall remain liable for, payment of their claim for shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e) in accordance with this ARTICLE III.

(g) No Liability. None of Parent, Merger Sub, ACI, Bowater, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any shares of Parent Common Stock, dividends or other distributions from the Bowater Exchange Fund properly delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificate shall not have been surrendered prior to three years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which any shares of Parent Common Stock (and any dividends or other distributions payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 3.02(e)) would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority), any such shares (and any dividends or other distributions payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 3.02(e)) shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

(h) Investment of Bowater Exchange Fund. The Exchange Agent shall invest the cash included in the Bowater Exchange Fund as directed by Parent. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to and be income of Parent. If for any reason (including losses on any investments) the cash in the Bowater Exchange Fund shall be insufficient to fully satisfy all of the payment obligations to be made in cash by the Exchange Agent hereunder, Parent shall promptly deposit cash into the Bowater Exchange Fund in an amount which is equal to the deficiency in the amount of cash required to fully satisfy such cash payment obligations.

(i) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate shares of Parent Common Stock, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.02(c) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 3.02(e), in each case pursuant to this ARTICLE III.

Neither ACI nor any Subsidiary or Commonly Controlled ACI Entity has any Contract, whether formal or informal, to create any additional material benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement of the nature described above or to amend any existing ACI Benefit Plan. Each ACI Benefit Plan that is an employee pension benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(2) of ERISA) or a Canadian registered or unregistered pension plan is sometimes referred to herein as an ACI Pension Plan and each ACI Benefit Plan that is an employee welfare benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) or a Canadian group insurance, group benefit or employee benefit plan is sometimes referred to herein as an ACI Welfare Plan. Terms defined in this Section 5.13(a) by reference to the meaning given to such term in a provision of ERISA refer to all plans, programs, policies or Contracts that fall within such meaning, regardless of whether the plan, program, policy or Contract in question is itself subject to ERISA.

(b) ACI has provided to Bowater current, complete and accurate copies of (1) each ACI Benefit Plan (or, with respect to any unwritten ACI Benefit Plans, accurate descriptions thereof), (2) with respect to each ACI Benefit Plan, for the two most recent years (A) annual reports on Form 5500 or other annual information return required to be filed with the IRS or any other Governmental Authority (if any such report was required) and all schedules and attachments thereto, (B) all other material reports, returns and similar documents filed or required to be filed with any Governmental Authority and all schedules and attachments thereto, (C) audited financial statements (if any such statements exist or were required) and all schedules and attachments thereto, and (D) actuarial valuation reports (if any such reports exist or were required) and all schedules and attachments thereto; provided that if no actuarial valuation report was required to be performed during such period, ACI shall provide the most recently completed actuarial valuation report, (3) the most recent summary plan description or employee booklet for each ACI Benefit Plan for which such summary plan description or employee booklet is required or exists as of the date of this Agreement, (4) each trust Contract and insurance or group annuity Contract relating to any ACI Benefit Plan, and (5) with respect to each ACI Benefit Plan, the most recent favorable IRS determination letter or letter from a Canadian Governmental Authority confirming registration or continued registration, to the extent applicable.

(c) Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, (1) each ACI Benefit Plan has been established, maintained and administered in accordance with its terms and all applicable Law and Orders, and (2) ACI, its Subsidiaries and all ACI Benefit Plans are in compliance with the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and all other Laws applicable to ACI Benefit Plans and the terms of all collective bargaining Contracts.

(d) Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, each of the ACI Benefit Plans subject to Code Section 409A has been administered in good faith compliance with the applicable requirements of Code Section 409A, IRS Notice 2005-1, IRS Notice 2006-79 and the proposed regulations issued thereunder. Each ACI Stock Option was granted with an exercise price per share equal to or greater than the per share fair market value (as such term is used in Code Section 409A and the proposed regulations and other Department of Treasury interpretive guidance issued thereunder) of ACI Common Shares underlying such ACI Stock Option on the grant date thereof. Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, there are no Taxes due or accrued because of Code Section 409A and the proposed regulations and other Department of Treasury interpretive guidance issued thereunder.

(e) All ACI Pension Plans intended to be qualified within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code have received favorable determination letters from the IRS, to the effect that such ACI Pension Plans are so qualified and exempt from federal income Taxes under Sections 401(a) and 501(a), respectively, of the Code, no such determination letter has been revoked (nor, to the Knowledge of ACI, has revocation been threatened) and no event has occurred since the date of the most recent determination letter relating to any such ACI Pension Plan that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the qualification of such ACI Pension Plan or materially increase the costs relating thereto or require security under Section 307 of ERISA. ACI has provided to Bowater a complete and accurate list of all amendments to any ACI Pension Plan as to which a favorable determination letter has not yet been received or, in the case of a Canadian ACI Pension Plan, for which registration has not been confirmed. All the ACI Pension Plans intended or required to be qualified under applicable non-U.S. Laws are so qualified and no such registration in Canada has been revoked or, to the Knowledge of ACI, has revocation been threatened.

(f) Neither ACI nor any Commonly Controlled ACI Entity has, during the six-year period ending on the date hereof, maintained, contributed to or been required to contribute to any ACI Pension Plan that is subject to Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code or any corresponding or similar provisions of any other non-U.S. Law relating to plan termination, or any multiemployer plan as defined in Section 3(37) or 4001(a)(3) of ERISA or any multi-employer plan within the meaning of applicable Canadian provincial pension and benefits Laws. Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, neither ACI nor any Commonly Controlled ACI Entity has any unsatisfied liability under Title IV of ERISA or any corresponding or similar provisions of any other non-U.S. Law. To the Knowledge of ACI, no condition exists that presents a material risk to ACI or any Commonly Controlled ACI Entity of incurring a material liability under Title IV of ERISA or any corresponding or similar provisions of any other non-U.S. Law. The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation has not instituted proceedings under Section 4042 of ERISA to terminate any ACI Benefit Plan and, to the Knowledge of ACI, no condition exists that presents a material risk that such proceedings will be instituted. No event has occurred, and to the Knowledge of ACI no condition exists, that would be reasonably expected to subject ACI, any Subsidiary or Commonly Controlled ACI Entity or any ACI Benefit Plan, to any Tax, fine, Lien, penalty or other liability imposed by ERISA, the Code or other applicable Law with respect to any ACI Benefit Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA. All contributions under the ACI Pension Plans that are required to have been made as of the date hereof in accordance with the terms of the ACI Pension Plans and applicable Law and Orders have been timely made or, if not yet due, have been reflected in the ACI consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian GAAP.

(g) Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, (1) all reports, returns and similar documents with respect to all ACI Benefit Plans required to be filed with any Governmental Authority or distributed to any ACI Benefit Plan participant have been duly and timely filed or distributed, (2) none of ACI or any of its Subsidiaries has received notice of and, to the Knowledge of ACI, there are no Actions by any Governmental Authority with respect to, termination, wind-up, partial termination or partial wind-up proceedings or other claims (except claims for benefits payable in the normal operation of the ACI Benefit Plans), suits or proceedings against or involving any ACI Benefit Plan or asserting any rights or claims to benefits under any ACI Benefit Plan that are pending or threatened that could reasonably be expected to give rise to any material liability, (3) to the Knowledge of ACI, there are not any facts that could give rise to any liability in the event of any such Action and (4) no written or oral communication has been received from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation in respect of any ACI Benefit Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA, or from any other Governmental Authority in respect of any ACI Benefit Plan, in connection with the transactions contemplated herein.

(h) Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, (1) all contributions, premiums and benefit payments under or in connection with the ACI Benefit Plans that are required to have been made as of the date hereof in accordance with the terms of the ACI Benefit Plans and applicable Law and Orders have been timely made or, if not yet due, have been reflected in the ACI consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian GAAP, (2) no ACI Pension Plan subject to ERISA has an accumulated funding deficiency (as such term is defined in Section 302 of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code), whether or not waived, (3) all ACI Benefit Plans that are required to be funded are fully funded on both a going-concern and a solvency or termination basis in accordance with applicable Law, Orders, past practice and generally accepted accounting principles in the applicable jurisdiction and, with respect to all other ACI Benefit Plans, adequate reserves therefor have been established on the accounting statements of ACI or the applicable Subsidiary to the extent so required; and (4) no liability or obligation of ACI or its Subsidiaries exists with respect to any ACI Benefit Plans that has not been disclosed in the consolidated financial statements of ACI included in the ACI Public Documents in accordance with Canadian GAAP.

(i) With respect to each ACI Benefit Plan, except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect, (1) there has not occurred any prohibited transaction (within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) in which ACI or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective employees, or, to the Knowledge of ACI, any trustee, administrator or other fiduciary of such ACI Benefit Plan, or any agent of the foregoing, has engaged that could reasonably be expected to subject ACI or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective employees, or any such trustee, administrator or other fiduciary, to the Tax or penalty on prohibited transactions imposed by Section 4975 of the Code or the sanctions imposed under Title I of ERISA and (2) neither ACI, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective employees nor, to the Knowledge of ACI, any trustee, administrator or other fiduciary of any ACI Benefit Plan nor any agent of any of the foregoing, has engaged in any transaction or acted in a manner, or failed to act in a manner, that could reasonably be expected to subject ACI or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective employees or, to the Knowledge of ACI, any such trustee, administrator or other fiduciary, to any liability for breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or any other applicable Law with respect to ACI Benefit Plans. There have been no withdrawals or improper use or transfer of funds or assets of any ACI Benefit Plan.

(j) Subject to any restrictions in applicable collective bargaining agreements, each ACI Welfare Plan may be amended or terminated (including with respect to benefits provided to retirees and other former employees) without liability to ACI or any of its Subsidiaries at any time after the Effective Time, which liability would reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect. Each of ACI and its Subsidiaries complies with the applicable requirements of Section 4980B(f) of the Code, Sections 601-609 of ERISA or any corresponding or similar provisions of any state, local or non-U.S. Law with respect to each ACI Benefit Plan that is a group health plan, as such term is defined in Section 5000(b)(1) of the Code or such state or non-U.S. Law, except for such non-compliance as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect. Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has any material obligations for health or life insurance benefits to retired or former employees or their respective beneficiaries or dependents under any ACI Benefit Plan (other than for continuation coverage required under Section 4980B(f) of the Code).

(k) None of the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the Arrangement or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement (alone or in conjunction with any other event, including as a result of any termination of employment prior to, on or following the Effective Time) will (1) entitle any ACI Personnel to notice, indemnity in lieu of notice, severance or termination pay, (2) accelerate the time of payment or vesting, or trigger any payment or funding (through a grantor trust or otherwise) of, compensation or benefits under, increase the amount payable or trigger any other material obligation pursuant to, any ACI Benefit Plan, (3) result in any breach or violation of, or a default under, any ACI Benefit Plan or (4) result in payments under any ACI Benefit Plan that would not be deductible under Section 280G of the Code or under any equivalent provisions of the Canadian Tax Act or (5) create or increase any liability under any ACI Benefit Plan that is a multiemployer plan within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA or a multi-employer plan within the meaning of applicable Canadian provincial pension and benefits Laws.

(l) Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has any liability or obligations, including under or on account of an ACI Benefit Plan, arising out of the hiring of persons to provide services to ACI or any of its Subsidiaries and treating such persons as consultants or independent contractors and not as employees of ACI or any of its Subsidiaries, except for such liabilities or obligations that individually or in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect.

(m) There is no Contract, plan or arrangement covering any person in the U.S. that, individually or in the aggregate, could give rise to the payment of any amount that would not be deductible by ACI or any of its Subsidiaries by reason of Section 162(m) of the Code. No material deduction by ACI or any of its Subsidiaries in respect of any applicable employee remuneration (within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code) has been disallowed or is subject to disallowance by reason of Section 162(m) of the Code or is subject to disallowance under any equivalent provisions of the Canadian Tax Act.

(n) None of the ACI Personnel is entitled to receive any additional payment from ACI or any of its Subsidiaries or Bowater by reason of the excise Tax required by Section 4999(a) of the Code being imposed on such person.

No Governmental Authority has given written notice of its intention to assert any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes against ACI or any of its Subsidiaries. No claim in writing has been made against ACI or any of its Subsidiaries by any Governmental Authority in a jurisdiction where ACI and its Subsidiaries do not file Tax Returns that ACI or such Subsidiary is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction. Code, filing consolidated federal income tax returns of which ACI is the common parent) under Treasury Regulation § 1.1502-6, Treasury Regulation § 1.1502-78 or any similar state, local or foreign Laws, as a transferee or successor, or otherwise.

(h) ACI and its Subsidiaries have each withheld (or will withhold) from their respective employees, independent contractors, creditors, stockholders and third parties, and timely paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority, proper and accurate amounts in all material respects for all periods ending on or before the Closing Date in compliance with all Tax withholding and remitting provisions of applicable Law. ACI and its Subsidiaries have each complied in all material respects with all Tax information reporting provisions under applicable Law.

(i) Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has constituted a distributing corporation or a controlled corporation (within the meaning of Section 355(a)(1)(A) of the Code) in a distribution of shares qualifying for tax-free treatment under Section 355 of the Code (i) in the two years prior to the date of this Agreement or (ii) in a distribution that could otherwise constitute part of a plan or series of related transactions (within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code) in conjunction with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(j) Any adjustment of Taxes of ACI or any of its Subsidiaries made by any Governmental Authority, which adjustment is required to be reported to the appropriate state, local, or foreign taxing authorities, has been so reported.

(k) Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has executed or entered into a closing agreement under Section 7121 of the Code or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Laws, and neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to any private letter ruling of the IRS or comparable ruling of any other Governmental Authority.

(m) The NOLs of ACI and its Subsidiaries as set forth in Section 5.14(m) of the ACI Disclosure Schedule are not subject to any limitation under Section 111 of the Canadian Tax Act or under Section 382 or 384 of the Code or otherwise. There are no Actions pending or, to the Knowledge of ACI, threatened against, with respect to or in limitation of the NOLs, including any limitations under Section 111 of the Canadian Tax Act or under Sections 382 or 384 of the Code (other than limitations incurred in connection with transactions contemplated by this Agreement).

(n) ACI and each of its Subsidiaries have disclosed on their Tax Returns each position taken on such a Tax Return that could give rise to a substantial understatement of Tax within the meaning of Section 6662 of the Code or any similar provision of applicable Law, and is in possession of supporting documentation as may be required under any such provision.

SECTION 5.15 Title to Properties.

(a) ACI and each of its Subsidiaries has good, valid and marketable fee simple title to, or valid leasehold or sublease interests or other comparable contract rights, as applicable, in or relating to all real property owned, leased or subleased by ACI or any of its Subsidiaries (the ACI Real Property) and all other tangible assets necessary for the conduct of its business as currently conducted, except as have been disposed of in the ordinary course of business, free and clear of all Liens, except for defects in title, recorded easements, restrictive covenants and other encumbrances of record that individually or in the aggregate have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect. Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has received or provided any written notice of any event or occurrence that has resulted or could result (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) in a default with respect to any Lease, which defaults individually or in the aggregate have had or would reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect.

(b) All buildings, structures, fixtures, building systems and equipment included in the ACI Real Property (the ACI Structures) are in reasonably good condition and repair in all material respects and sufficient for the operation of the business of ACI, subject to reasonable wear and tear and subject to replacements and upgrades of fixed assets, except for such failures that individually or in the aggregate has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect.

Upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, the ACI shall own or have the right to use all ACI Intellectual Property on the same terms and conditions as the ACI and its Subsidiaries enjoyed prior to such transactions.

Neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries is in breach or default, and neither ACI nor any of its Subsidiaries has taken any action or failed to take any action which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a breach or default, or permit a termination or modification of any of the insurance policies of ACI or its Subsidiaries, except in each case for such breaches, defaults, terminations or modifications that individually or in the aggregate have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have an ACI Material Adverse Effect.

(a) Each of ACI and Bowater agrees that it shall not, and it shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of it or its Subsidiaries to, and that it shall direct and cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit or otherwise knowingly encourage or facilitate any inquiries or the making by any third party (other than the other party hereto and/or its Subsidiaries and their respective representatives) (a Third Party) of any proposal or offer with respect to a purchase, merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, business combination, liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization or similar transaction involving 20% or more of the consolidated assets of ACI or Bowater (including by means of a transaction with respect to securities of such party or its Subsidiaries) or 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity securities of ACI or Bowater (any such proposal or offer being hereinafter referred to as an Acquisition Proposal), it being understood that none of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or set forth in Section 6.01 of the Bowater Disclosure Schedule or Section 6.02 of the ACI Disclosure Schedule, as applicable, shall be deemed to constitute an Acquisition Proposal). Each of ACI and Bowater further agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, except as permitted by Section 6.05(b) (i) engage in any negotiations or discussions with, or provide any confidential information or data to, any Third Party relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or otherwise knowingly encourage or facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) waive, amend or otherwise modify any confidentiality, standstill or similar obligation of any Third Party or (iv) execute or enter into, or publicly propose to accept or enter into an agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, including a letter of intent, agreement in principle, option agreement, merger agreement, acquisition agreement or other agreement (whether binding or not) in furtherance of an Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement to the extent permitted by Section 6.05(b)).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.05(a), nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent ACI or Bowater, or their respective Boards of Directors, from (A) complying with Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the 1934 Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal and, in the case of ACI and its Board of Directors, from complying with Section 99 of the Securities Act (Ontario) and similar provisions of the Securities Laws of each of the other provinces and territories of Canada (it being understood that any such communication constituting a Change in Recommendation shall be made in compliance with Section 2.08 and this Section 6.05) or from calling and holding a meeting of the holders of ACI Common Shares requisitioned by such shareholders pursuant to Section 143 of the CBCA; (B) providing information in response to a request therefor by a Third Party who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal if the Board of Directors of ACI or Bowater, as the case may be, receives from the Third Party so requesting such information an executed confidentiality agreement on terms no less favorable in the aggregate to the disclosing party than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreements (but which need not have a standstill agreement) and so long as any information provided to such Third Party that has not previously been provided to ACI or Bowater is concurrently provided to ACI and/or Bowater; (C) effecting a Change in Recommendation in respect of an Acquisition Proposal; (D) engaging in any negotiations or discussions (including solicitation of a revised Acquisition Proposal) with any Third Party who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal or (E) (i) in the case of ACI, concurrently with the termination of this Agreement by ACI in accordance and compliance with Section 9.01(j) and following payment by ACI of the Termination Fee and the Expenses of Bowater to Bowater pursuant to Section 9.03(b)(iv), entering into an agreement with respect to an Acquisition

Proposal or any agreement referred to in clause (iv) of the second sentence of Section 6.05(a) with respect to an Acquisition Proposal or (ii) in the case of Bowater, concurrently with the termination of this Agreement by Bowater in accordance and compliance with Section 9.01(k) and following payment by Bowater of the Termination Fee and the Expenses of ACI to ACI pursuant to Section 9.03(c)(iv), entering into any agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement referred to in clause (iv) of the second sentence of Section 6.05(a) with respect to an Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that neither ACI nor Bowater shall take any of the foregoing actions unless:

(i) in each such case referred to in clause (B) or (D), (1) the ACI Shareholder Approval or the Bowater Stockholder Approval, as applicable, has not yet been obtained, (2) the Board of Directors of ACI or Bowater, as the case may be, determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel that failure to take the foregoing action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law (including the duty of care), and (3) the Board of Directors of ACI or Bowater, as the case may be, determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal; and

(ii) in each case referred to in clause (C) or (E) above, prior to ACI or Bowater, as the case may be, effecting a Change in Recommendation with respect to an Acquisition Proposal or a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(j) or Section 9.01(k), as applicable, (1) the ACI Shareholder Approval or the Bowater Stockholder Approval, as applicable, shall not have been obtained, (2) such party shall be in compliance with the provisions of this Section 6.05, (3) the Board of Directors of such party shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal after giving effect to all of the adjustments which may be offered by the other party pursuant to clause (5) below, (4) such party shall have notified the other party in writing, at least five Business Days in advance of such Change in Recommendation or termination (it being understood that any change in financial terms or other material terms of the relevant Acquisition Proposal shall extend such period by an additional three Business Days from the date of receipt of the revised Acquisition Proposal containing such changed financial terms) that it is considering taking such action, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and the identity of the person making such Superior Proposal and delivering the documents and information required to be delivered pursuant to Section 6.05(c), and (5) during such five Business Day period (as extended, if applicable), such party shall have negotiated, and shall have made its financial and legal advisors available to negotiate, with the other party should the other party elect to propose adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement such that, after giving effect thereto, such Acquisition Proposal no longer constitutes a Superior Proposal. As used herein, Superior Proposal means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal with respect to a party that the Board of Directors of such party concludes in good faith, after consultation with financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is (i) more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders or shareholders, as the case may be, of the party receiving the proposal and (ii) fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on a timely basis; provided that for purposes of this definition, Acquisition Proposal shall have the meaning set forth above, except that the references in the definition thereof to 20% or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity securities of ACI or Bowater shall be deemed to be references to a majority of all outstanding shares of each class of equity securities of ACI or Bowater and references to 20% or more of the consolidated assets of ACI or Bowater shall be deemed to be references to all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of ACI or Bowater .

(c) Each of ACI and Bowater shall notify Bowater, in the case of ACI, and ACI, in the case of Bowater, promptly (but in any event within 24 hours) if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, any of its representatives, indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such person and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers and providing, promptly and in any event within one (1) Business Day of receipt thereof, a copy of all documentation setting forth the terms of any such inquiry, proposal or offer, and thereafter shall keep Bowater, in the case of ACI, and ACI, in the case of Bowater, informed, on a reasonably current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposals or offers and the status of any such discussions or negotiations (including by delivering any further documentation of the type referred to above).

(d) Each of ACI and Bowater shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. Each of Bowater and ACI shall promptly request each person that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement in connection with its consideration of acquiring it or any of its Subsidiaries to return or destroy all confidential information heretofore furnished to such person by or on behalf of it or any of its Subsidiaries.

ARTICLE VII

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

SECTION 7.01 Confidentiality; Access to Information and Certain Tax Matters.

(a) Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge that ACI and Bowater have previously executed a Confidentiality Agreement and, along with certain other parties, a Supplemental Confidentiality and Joint Defence Agreement, each dated as of October 18, 2006 (together, the Confidentiality Agreements), which Confidentiality Agreements will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) Access to Information. Each of Bowater and ACI will (and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to) afford the other party and its accountants, counsel and other representatives reasonable access during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice, to its properties, books, records, Contracts and personnel during the period prior to the Effective Time to obtain all information concerning its business, properties, results of operations and personnel, as may be reasonably requested. No information or knowledge obtained by any party in any investigation pursuant to this Section 7.01(b) will affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty contained herein or the conditions to the obligations of the parties to consummate the Arrangement. Notwithstanding the foregoing and in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Confidentiality Agreements, (i) either party may restrict the foregoing access to the extent that any Law (including Laws relating to the exchange of information and all applicable antitrust, competition and similar Laws, and attorney-client and other privileges) applicable to such party requires such party or its Subsidiaries to restrict or prohibit such access and (ii) nothing herein shall require any party to disclose information to the extent such information would result in a waiver of attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or similar privilege or violate any confidentiality obligation of such party existing as of the date hereof (provided that such party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to permit such disclosure to be made in a manner consistent with the protection of such privilege or to obtain any consent required to permit such disclosure to be made without violation of such confidentiality obligations, as applicable). The parties will hold any information obtained pursuant to this Section 7.01(b) in confidence in accordance with, and otherwise subject to, the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreements.

(c) Post-Effective Time Covenants. Following the Effective Time and while any Exchangeable Shares (other than any Exchangeable Shares owned by Bowater or any of its Affiliates) are outstanding, (1) Parent will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that ExchangeCo (or any successor thereto as the issuer of the Exchangeable Shares) will continue to be a taxable Canadian corporation and a public corporation within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act (as of the Effective Time and any modifications of such definitions which are consistent with the general principle thereof), and (2) Parent will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Exchangeable Shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange in Canada within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act (as of the Effective Time and any modifications of such definition which are consistent with the general principle thereof). This covenant shall survive the Effective Time.

(d) Tax-Deferred Transaction. None of Bowater, CallCo or ExchangeCo shall take any action which could reasonably be expected to prevent the exchange of ACI Common Shares for consideration that includes Exchangeable Shares under the Arrangement by the validly-electing Canadian resident holders of ACI Common Shares who make and file a valid tax election under subsection 85(1) or (2) of the Canadian Tax Act as described and on the terms set forth in the Plan of Arrangement from being treated as a tax deferred transaction for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act if such holders are otherwise eligible for such treatment.

(e) Actions Affecting Exchangeable Shares. So long as any outstanding Exchangeable Shares are owned by any person other than Bowater or any of its Affiliates, Parent shall not, and agrees to cause its Affiliates to not, take any action relating to a plan or agreement of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, merger, consolidation, continuation, change of residence, amalgamation, restructuring, recapitalization or other material reorganization of ExchangeCo or its successors or CallCo or its successors, as the case may be, that results, prior to a Redemption Date (as that term is defined in the share provisions that apply to the Exchangeable Shares), in (1) the recognition under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) of any accrued gain on a holder's Exchangeable Shares, recognition of which was deferred on the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (2) dividends on the Exchangeable Shares being ineligible for the dividend gross-up and tax credit under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) for individuals resident in Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act and the inter-corporate dividend deduction under the Canadian Tax Act (or the provincial equivalent) for corporations resident in Canada for purposes of the Canadian Tax Act, or (3) dividends on the Exchangeable Shares being subject to withholding tax (other than withholding tax imposed under the Laws of Canada or the United States or a state, province, territory or other political subdivision thereof). This covenant shall survive the Effective Time. References in this clause to the Canadian Tax Act shall be to the Canadian Tax Act as of the Effective Time and any modifications thereof which are consistent with the general principle thereof.

SECTION 7.02 Commercially Reasonable Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including Section 6.05), each party will use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law to consummate the Arrangement and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, applications and other documents necessary to consummate the Arrangement and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03 Governmental Approvals.

(a) As soon as may be reasonably practicable after the execution of this Agreement, ACI and Bowater each shall (i) file with the United States Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) Notification and Report Forms relating to the transactions contemplated herein as required by the HSR Act, (ii) file with the Commissioner a pre-merger notification as required by Part IX of the Competition Act and/or request an ARC, and (iii) file comparable merger notification forms required by the merger notification or control Laws of any other applicable jurisdiction, which ACI and Bowater reasonably determine to be necessary. ACI and Bowater each shall promptly (a) supply the other with any information (other than privileged information) which may be required in order to effectuate such filings and (b) supply any additional information (other than privileged information) which reasonably may be required by the FTC, the DOJ, the Commissioner or the competition or merger control authorities of any other jurisdiction. As soon as reasonably practicable, Bowater shall file, in cooperation with ACI, with the Investment Review Division of Industry Canada (IRD), an application for review and any supplemental information (other than privileged information) which may be required in connection therewith pursuant to the ICA and the ICA Approval, which filings will comply with the requirements of the ICA. ACI will provide Bowater with such information and documents as is required in connection with such application.

(b) If any objections are asserted by any Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, or if any Action is instituted by any Governmental Authority or any private party challenging any of the transactions contemplated hereby, each party hereto shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any such objections or Action.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contrary in this Agreement, the parties shall not be required to enter into any settlement, agreement, or other arrangement with any Governmental Authority or private party in connection with the Arrangement and the other transactions contemplated herein or to divest or otherwise hold or maintain separate assets or properties if such would reasonably be expected, in either case, to substantially diminish the benefits reasonably expected to be derived by the parties from consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 7.04 Indemnification, Exculpation and Insurance. From and after the Effective Time, Parent will assume and/or fulfill, as applicable, and will cause ACI or Bowater, as applicable, and/or their respective successors to fulfill and honor in all respects their respective obligations pursuant to any indemnification agreements between ACI or Bowater, as applicable, and their respective current or former directors, officers or employees (the Indemnified Parties) in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time and any indemnification provisions under the ACI Bylaws, Bowater Certificate or Bowater Bylaws, each as in effect on the date hereof (and shall also pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action, suit or proceeding to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted under such documents and applicable Law, upon receipt from the Indemnified Party to whom expenses are advanced of the undertaking to repay such advances if indemnification is subsequently found by a court of competent jurisdiction, which finding is no longer subject to appeal or further proceedings, that such person is not entitled to indemnification). Parent shall cause ACI and Bowater and/or their respective successors to not amend, repeal or otherwise modify the provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification contained in the ACI Bylaws, the Bowater Charter or the Bowater Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who, immediately prior to the Effective Time, were directors or officers of ACI or Bowater, as applicable, unless such modification is required by Law. For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, Parent will, or will cause ACI, Bowater and/or their respective successors to, maintain in effect, if available, directors and officers liability insurance covering those persons who are currently covered by ACI s or Bowater s, as applicable, directors and officers liability insurance policy with respect to claims arising from actions or omissions that occurred on or before the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) on terms no less favorable to the beneficiaries thereof than those applicable to persons currently covered. This Section 7.04 is intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, the Indemnified Parties referred to herein, their heirs and personal representatives.

SECTION 7.05 Public Announcements. ACI and Bowater shall consult with each other before issuing, and give each other the opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Arrangement, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as such party may reasonably conclude is required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange. The parties agree that the initial press release to be issued with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be in the form heretofore agreed to by the parties.

SECTION 7.06 Affiliates; Section 16 Matters.

(a) Promptly following the mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement, ACI and Bowater shall provide to Parent a list of those persons who may be deemed to be, in ACI s or Bowater s, as applicable, reasonable judgment, affiliates of ACI or Bowater, as applicable, within the meaning of Rule 145 promulgated under the 1933 Act. Each of ACI and Bowater shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each such person to deliver to Parent at least 30 days prior to the Closing Date a written affiliate agreement in a form to be reasonably agreed to by ACI and Bowater.

(b) The Board of Directors of ACI and Bowater shall, prior to the Effective Time, take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate pursuant to Rule 16b-3(d) and Rule 16b-3(e) under the 1934 Act to exempt under Rule 16b-3 under the 1934 Act (i) the exchange of ACI Common Shares or Bowater Common Stock for Parent Common Stock, (ii) the conversion or exchange of ACI Stock Options or Bowater Stock Options into or for Parent Stock Options and (iii) the acquisition of shares of Parent Common Stock and options to purchase Parent Common Stock pursuant to the terms of this Agreement by officers or directors of ACI or Bowater who may become an officer or director of Parent subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act.

SECTION 7.07 Governance of Parent. Immediately following the Effective Time, the members of the Board of Directors of Parent and each committee of the Board of Directors of Parent will be determined as set forth in Schedule 7.07 and each member of such Board of Directors or committee thereof will serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. Immediately following the Effective Time, the individuals named in Schedule 7.07 will have the positions at Parent as set forth therein, until the earlier of their resignation or removal and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. In addition, certain other agreements of ACI and Bowater with respect to Parent at the Effective Time are set forth in Schedule 7.07, including, among other things, headquarters location, U.S. regional manufacturing and sales office and customer service locations.

SECTION 7.08 Indemnification of Holders of Exchangeable Shares. Parent and Bowater shall indemnify and hold holders of Exchangeable Shares harmless from and against any claims, demands, actions, causes of action, judgments, damages, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses (including interest, penalties and reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees and disbursements) which are made against or incurred by such holders of Exchangeable Shares in their capacity as shareholders of ExchangeCo primarily as a result of, arising out of or relating to the fact that ExchangeCo has been or is an operating subsidiary of Bowater rather than a special purpose vehicle.

SECTION 7.09 Parent Common Stock. Parent shall reserve from its authorized capital stock such number of shares of Parent Common Stock as may be required to be issued from time to time upon the exchange of the Exchangeable Shares or upon the exercise from time to time of the Parent Stock Options and such shares of Parent Common Stock shall be duly and validly issued by Parent, fully paid and non-assessable and free of preemptive rights, encumbrances, charges and liens on their respective dates of issue.

SECTION 7.10 Solvency of ExchangeCo. Parent and Bowater covenant and agree in favor of ExchangeCo that, prior to the Effective Time and thereafter for so long as any Exchangeable Shares are owned by any person other than Bowater or its Affiliates, Parent and Bowater shall give due regard to taking such necessary action within their control (taking into account the interests of the holders of Exchangeable Shares) to ensure that at all times during such period ExchangeCo shall meet the solvency tests under the CBCA prescribed in respect of the declaration or payment of dividends and the redemption of its shares (provided Parent and Bowater meet any such comparable tests at such time).

SECTION 7.11 Stockholder Litigation. Each Party shall give the other Party the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Parent, Bowater or ACI and/or their respective directors relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without the other Parties' prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

SECTION 7.12 Takeover Laws. Each of Bowater, ACI and their respective Boards of Directors shall grant such approvals and take all actions necessary so that no fair price, moratorium, control share acquisition or other similar anti-takeover statute or regulation (including Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law) (each a Takeover Statute) is or may become applicable to this Agreement or the Arrangement or to the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

SECTION 7.13 Employee Matters.

(a) For a period of twelve months following the Effective Time, the employees of ACI, Bowater and their respective Subsidiaries, as of the Effective Time (other than employees whose terms and conditions of employment are governed by a collective bargaining agreement, the terms and conditions of which shall be respected by Parent, ACI and Bowater) who remain in the active employment of Parent, ACI, Bowater and/or their respective Subsidiaries, after the Effective Time (the Continuing Employees) shall receive employee benefits that are, in the aggregate (considering all employees generally), substantially similar to the employee benefits provided to Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided that neither Parent, nor ACI, nor Bowater, nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall have any obligation to issue, or adopt any plans or arrangements providing for the issuance of, shares of capital stock, warrants, options, stock appreciation rights or other rights in respect of any shares of capital stock of any entity or any securities convertible or exchangeable into such shares pursuant to any such plans or arrangements; provided, further, that no plans or arrangements of Parent, ACI, Bowater or any of their respective Subsidiaries providing for such issuance shall be taken into account in determining whether employee benefits are substantially similar in the aggregate.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as requiring, and none of Parent, ACI or Bowater shall take any action that would have the effect of requiring Parent, ACI or Bowater to continue any specific employee benefit plans or to continue the employment of any specific person.

(c) Parent shall, and shall cause ACI and Bowater and their respective Subsidiaries to, recognize the service of each Continuing Employee as if such service had been performed with Bowater, ACI or their respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, with respect to any plans or programs in which Continuing Employees are eligible to participate after the Effective Date, except, in each case, to the extent such treatment would result in duplicative benefits (i) for purposes of eligibility to participate, eligibility for early retirement and vesting (but not for benefit accrual unless required by applicable Law) under any defined benefit pension plan, (ii) for purposes of eligibility for, and amount of, vacation, (iii) for purposes of eligibility and participation under any health or welfare plan (other than any post-employment health or post-employment welfare plan), (iv) for purposes of eligibility for, and amount of, any company matching contributions, and (v) unless covered under another arrangement with or of Parent, ACI, Bowater or their respective Subsidiaries, for benefit determination purposes under any severance plan.

(d) With respect to any welfare plan (as such term is defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) maintained by Parent, ACI or Bowater after the Effective Time in which Continuing Employees first participate after the Effective Time (a Subsequent Plan), Parent shall, and shall cause ACI and Bowater to, (i) waive all limitations as to preexisting condition exclusions with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees to the extent such preexisting condition exclusions were satisfied or did not apply to such employees under the welfare plans maintained by Bowater and its Subsidiaries or ACI and its Subsidiaries, as applicable, in which the Continuing Employee participated in immediately prior to his participation in the Subsequent Plan (a Prior Plan), provided if any insured Subsequent Plan does not allow for the waiver of such preexisting condition exclusion, such preexisting condition exclusion shall not be required to be waived, and (ii) provide each Continuing Employee with credit for any co-payments, deductibles and waiting periods paid or credited in satisfying any analogous deductible, out-of-pocket, or waiting period requirements to the extent applicable under any Subsequent Plans to the extent credited under the Prior Plans; provided, however, that Parent, Bowater, ACI, or their respective Subsidiaries, as appropriate, for each Continuing Employee, may apply any amounts credited toward any lifetime maximum provisions under a Prior Plan toward any analogous lifetime maximum provisions under a Subsequent Plan.

(e) Parent shall, and shall cause ACI and Bowater to, provide each Continuing Employee whose employment is involuntarily terminated other than for cause (as customarily defined prior to the Effective Time by Bowater or ACI, as applicable) within the twelve-month period following the Effective Time with severance pay and severance benefits that are no less favorable than the severance pay and severance benefits that would have been provided to such Continuing Employee under the terms of the Bowater Benefit Plans or ACI Benefit Plans, as applicable, in which such Continuing Employee participated (or which otherwise applied to such Continuing Employee) immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(f) Without limiting the generality of (a), (c), (d) and (e) above, Parent shall, and shall cause ACI and Bowater and their respective Subsidiaries to, comply with all applicable Law and directives relating to employees and employee benefits matters applicable to Continuing Employees.

(g) The provisions of this Section 7.13 are for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement and nothing herein, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person (including for the avoidance of doubt any current or former employees, directors, or independent contractors of any of Parent, ACI, Bowater or any of their respective Subsidiaries), other than the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns, any legal or equitable or other rights or remedies (with respect to the matters provided for in this Section 7.13) under or by reason of any provision of this Agreement.

(h) No provision of the Agreement is (A) intended, nor shall it be considered, to be an amendment to any Parent, ACI or Bowater Benefit Plan; or (B) intended to cause a right or obligation which is enforceable by a participant or beneficiary of any Parent, ACI or Bowater Benefit Plan (or to any future plan or arrangement) to a specific level of compensation or to a specific benefit. For the avoidance of doubt, any amendment to any Parent, ACI or Bowater Benefit Plan (or to any future plan or arrangement) shall occur only in accordance with its terms and shall be pursuant to actions taken which are independent of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any continuing obligation hereunder.

SECTION 7.14 Tax Matters. From and after the date of this Agreement and until the Effective Time, each party (i) shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and shall not, without the prior written consent of the parties, knowingly take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could prevent the Merger from qualifying, as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger and the Arrangement, taken together, to qualify, and shall not, without the prior written consent of the parties, knowingly take any actions or cause any actions to be taken which could prevent the Merger and the Arrangement from qualifying, as an exchange described in Section 351 of the Code. Following the Effective Time, and consistent with any such consent, neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor any of its Affiliates, shall knowingly take any action or cause any action to be taken which would cause the Merger to fail to so qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code or the Merger and the Arrangement, taken together to fail to so qualify as an exchange described in Section 351 of the Code.

SECTION 7.15 Certain Information.

(a) For each of Bowater Specified Personnel and each disqualified individual (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.280G-1), Bowater shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide to ACI, within 30 days after signing of this Agreement, (A) the amount of taxable compensation for the 2002 through 2006 (inclusive) calendar years (including accurate Form W-2 information for such calendar years for each Bowater Specified Personnel who received a W-2), and (B) annual base salary as of the date hereof, actual bonus earned for the 2004 and 2005 and 2006 calendar years and target annual bonus for the 2006 and 2007 calendar years.

(d) No Orders. No Order or Law entered, enacted, promulgated, enforced or issued by any court or other Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall be in effect which restrains or enjoins the consummation of the Arrangement or makes the Arrangement or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal.

(n) Amendments to Exchangeable Share Support Agreement and Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. The Exchangeable Share Support Agreement and the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement shall have each been amended or amended and restated to reflect the Exchangeable Share Provision Amendment substantially in the form of, and with the content provided in, Exhibit G hereto and to include Parent as a party and signatory thereto, provided, however, that neither Bowater nor ACI shall be entitled to rely on this condition precedent to the extent that it is in breach of its obligations hereunder in respect of the implementation of such amendments or amendments and restatement, as the case may be.

(o) Dissent Rights. The holders of no more than 12% of all of the issued and outstanding ACI Common Shares shall have exercised their Dissent Rights (and not lost or withdrawn such rights) in respect of the Arrangement.

ARRANGEMENT

2.1 Binding Effect

This Plan of Arrangement, within the meaning of section 192 of the CBCA, will become effective at, and be binding at and after, the Effective Time on (i) ACI, (ii) Parent, Bowater, CallCo and ExchangeCo, (iii) all holders and all beneficial owners of ACI Common Shares, (iv) all holders and all beneficial owners of Exchangeable Shares and Parent Options from time to time, (v) all holders of ACI Stock Options and ACI Share-Based Awards and (vi) all holders and beneficial owners of Parent Common Stock received in exchange for Exchangeable Shares or on the exercise of Parent Options.

2.2 Arrangement

Edgar Filing: BOWATER INC - Form DEF 14A

- (a) each Parent Elected Share will be transferred by the holder thereof to Parent in exchange for the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the ACI Exchange Ratio, and such transfer shall be reflected in the register of holders of ACI Common Shares and to the register of holders of Parent Common Stock accordingly;

- (b) each Exchangeable Elected Share will be transferred by the holder thereof to ExchangeCo in exchange for the number of Exchangeable Shares equal to the ACI Exchange Ratio, and such transfer shall be reflected in the register of holders of ACI Common Shares and to the register of holders of Exchangeable Shares accordingly;

- (c) each ACI Stock Option shall be exchanged with Parent for an option (a Parent Option) to purchase a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of the ACI Exchange Ratio multiplied by the number of ACI Common Shares subject to such ACI Stock Option. Such Parent Option shall provide for an exercise price per share of Parent Common Stock equal to the exercise price per share of such ACI Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by the ACI Exchange Ratio. If the foregoing calculation results in a Parent Option of a particular holder being exercisable for a total number of shares of Parent Common Stock that includes a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock, then the total number of shares of Parent Common Stock subject to such Parent Option shall be rounded to the nearest whole number of Parent Common Stock and the total exercise price for the Parent Option will be appropriately adjusted by the exercise price of the fractional share of Parent Common Stock. The term to expiry, conditions to and manner of exercising, and all other terms and conditions of a Parent Option will otherwise be unchanged, and any document or agreement previously evidencing an ACI Stock Option shall thereafter evidence and be deemed to evidence such Parent Option;
- (d) at the Effective Time, each right of any kind, contingent or accrued, to receive ACI Common Shares or benefits measured by the value of a number of ACI Common Shares, and each award of any kind consisting of ACI Common Shares, granted under the employee and director stock plans of ACI (the ACI Stock Plans) (including restricted stock, restricted stock units, deferred stock units and dividend equivalents), other than ACI Stock Options (each, an ACI Share-Based Award), whether vested or unvested, which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to represent a right or award with respect to ACI Common Shares and shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into a right or award with respect to shares of Parent Common Stock (a Parent Stock-Based Award), on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under ACI Share-Based Awards (but taking into account any changes thereto, including the acceleration thereof, provided for in ACI Stock Plans, in any award agreement or in such ACI Share-Based Award by reason of this Plan of Arrangement or the transactions contemplated hereby). The number of shares of Parent Common Stock subject to each such Parent Stock-Based Award shall be equal to the number of ACI Common Shares subject to ACI Share-Based Awards, multiplied by the ACI Exchange Ratio (with the resulting product rounded to the nearest whole share). All dividend equivalents credited to the account of each holder of a ACI Share-Based Award as of the Effective Time shall remain credited to such holder's account immediately following the Effective Time, subject to adjustment in accordance with the foregoing; and
- (e) as soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall deliver to the holders of ACI Stock Options and ACI Share-Based Awards appropriate notices setting forth such holders' rights pursuant to the respective ACI Stock Plans and agreements evidencing the grants of such ACI Stock Options and ACI Share-Based Awards, and stating that such ACI Stock Options and ACI Share-Based Awards and agreements have been assumed by Parent and shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions (subject to the adjustments required by this Section 2.2 after giving effect to the Arrangement and the terms of ACI Stock Plans).

2.3 Share-Based Awards

Prior to the Effective Time, ACI shall take all necessary action for the adjustment of ACI Share-Based Awards under this Section 2.3. Parent shall reserve for issuance a number of shares of Parent Common Stock at least equal to the number of shares of Parent Common Stock that will be subject to Parent Options and Parent Stock-Based Awards as a result of the actions contemplated by this Plan of Arrangement.

2.4 Elections

- (a) Each person who, at or prior to the Election Deadline, is a holder of record of ACI Common Shares and who is neither a Non-Resident of Canada nor a Tax Exempt Shareholder, will be entitled, with respect to all or a portion of such shares, to make an election at or prior to the Election Deadline to receive (i) Exchangeable Shares or (ii) shares of Parent Common Stock, in exchange for such holder's ACI Common Shares, on the basis set forth herein and in accordance with such arrangements and procedures as will be agreed upon in good faith by Parent, Bowater, Merger Sub, CallCo, ExchangeCo and ACI, including the form of the Letter of Transmittal and Election Form containing the elections and the procedures governing transmittal.

- (b) Each ACI Common Share held by a holder who is either a Non-Resident of Canada or a Tax Exempt Shareholder or in respect of which an effective election pursuant to Section 2.4(a) has not been made (other than ACI Common Shares held by Dissenting Shareholders who are ultimately entitled to be paid the fair value of the ACI Common Shares held by them) will be deemed to be a Parent Elected Share and will receive the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of the total number of ACI Common Shares held by that holder multiplied by the ACI Exchange Ratio on the basis set forth herein.

2.5 Exchangeable Share Limit

In the event that the aggregate number of Exchangeable Shares that would, but for this Section 2.5, be issued to holders of ACI Common Shares pursuant to Section 2.2 exceeds the Exchangeable Share Limit, then the number of Exchangeable Shares to be issued to any holder shall be determined by multiplying the total number of Exchangeable Shares otherwise issuable to such holder by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Exchangeable Share Limit, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Exchangeable Shares otherwise issuable to all holders; and such holder shall be deemed to have elected to receive a number of shares of Parent Common Stock for their ACI Common Shares equal to the number of Exchangeable Shares that, but for this Section 2.5, such holder would have received, less the actual number of Exchangeable Shares such holder receives pursuant to this Section 2.5. No fractional shares shall be issued to holders of ACI Common Shares in the event that the Exchangeable Share Limit is exceeded and any shares issued pursuant to the procedure set forth in this Section 2.5 shall be subject to the procedure set forth in Section 4.6.

2.6 Adjustments to ACI Exchange Ratio

The ACI Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted to reflect fully the effect of any stock split, reverse split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Parent Common Stock or ACI Common Shares other than stock dividends paid in lieu of ordinary course dividends), consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization or other like change that affects all outstanding Parent Common Stock, Bowater Common Stock or ACI Common Shares occurring after the date of the Combination Agreement and prior to the Effective Time.

RIGHTS OF DISSENT

3.1 Rights of Dissent

Holders of ACI Common Shares may exercise rights of dissent with respect to such shares pursuant to and in the manner set forth in section 190 of the CBCA and this Section 3.1 (the Dissent Rights) in connection with the Arrangement; provided that, (i) notwithstanding subsection 190(5) of the CBCA, the written objection to the Arrangement Resolution referred to in subsection 190(5) of the CBCA must be received by ACI not later than 5:00 p.m. (Montreal time) on the Business Day immediately preceding the ACI Meeting. Holders of ACI Common Shares who duly exercise such rights of dissent and who:

- (a) are ultimately determined to be entitled to be paid fair value for their ACI Common Shares shall be deemed to have transferred such ACI Common Shares to ACI for cancellation on the Effective Date prior to any of the steps described in Section 2.2 hereof; or

- (b) are ultimately determined not to be entitled, for any reason, to be paid fair value for their ACI Common Shares shall be deemed to have participated in the Arrangement on the same basis as a non-dissenting holder of ACI Common Shares and shall receive a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the number of ACI Common Shares held by the holder multiplied by the ACI Exchange Ratio;

but in no case shall Parent, Bowater, ExchangeCo, CallCo, ACI or any other person be required to recognize such holders as holders of ACI Common Shares after the Effective Time, and the names of such holders of ACI Common Shares shall be deleted from the register of holders of ACI Common Shares at the Effective Time; and (ii) notwithstanding subsection 190(3), holders of ACI Common Shares who duly exercise such rights of dissent shall be paid fair market value by either ACI or ExchangeCo, at Parent's option; and (iii) notwithstanding subsection 190(16), any application made by any holder of ACI Common Shares shall be made to the Court.

CERTIFICATES AND FRACTIONAL SHARES

4.1 Exchange Agent

At the Effective Time, ExchangeCo and Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, certificates representing that number of whole Exchangeable Shares and that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock to be delivered pursuant to the Arrangement upon the exchange of ACI Common Shares. In addition, Parent and ExchangeCo shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, as necessary from time to time after the Effective Time, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof. All Exchangeable Shares, shares of Parent Common Stock, dividends and distributions deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 4.1 shall hereinafter be referred to as the ACI Exchange Fund.

4.2 Certificates Representing Exchangeable Shares

At or promptly after the Effective Time, ExchangeCo shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of ACI Common Shares who will receive Exchangeable Shares in connection with the Arrangement, certificates representing that number of whole Exchangeable Shares to be delivered pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof upon the exchange of ACI Common Shares (the ACI ExchangeCo Certificates). Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent for cancellation of an ACI ExchangeCo Certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented ACI Common Shares that were exchanged for Exchangeable Shares under the Arrangement, together with such other documents and instruments as would have been required to effect the transfer of the shares formerly represented by such ACI ExchangeCo Certificate under the CBCA and the articles and by-laws of ACI, and such additional documents and instruments as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require, the holder of such surrendered ACI ExchangeCo Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and the Exchange Agent shall deliver to such holder, a certificate representing that number (rounded down to the nearest whole number) of Exchangeable Shares which such holder has the right to receive (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.4 hereof and any cash in respect of a fractional interest in a share pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof, in each case less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof), and the ACI ExchangeCo Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of ACI Common Shares that is not registered in the transfer records of ACI, a certificate representing the proper number of Exchangeable Shares may be issued to the transferee if the certificate representing such ACI Common Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 4.2, each ACI ExchangeCo Certificate shall be deemed at all times after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender (i) the certificate representing Exchangeable Shares as contemplated by this Section 4.2, (ii) a cash payment in respect of any fractional interest in a share as contemplated by Section 4.6 hereof and (iii) any dividends or distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid or payable with respect to such shares as contemplated by Section 4.4 hereof, in each case less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof.

Table of Contents4.3 Certificates Representing Parent Common Stock

At or promptly after the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of ACI Common Shares who will receive shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Arrangement, certificates representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock issued pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof in exchange for outstanding ACI Common Shares (the ACI Parent Certificates and, together with the ACI ExchangeCo Certificates, the Share Certificates). Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent for cancellation of an ACI Parent Certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented ACI Common Shares that were exchanged for shares of Parent Common Stock under the Arrangement, together with such other documents and instruments as would have been required to effect the transfer of the shares formerly represented by such ACI Parent Certificate under the CBCA and the articles and by-laws of ACI, and such additional documents and instruments as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require, the holder of such surrendered ACI Parent Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and the Exchange Agent shall deliver to such holder, a certificate representing that number (rounded down to the nearest whole number) of shares of Parent Common Stock which such holder has the right to receive (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.4 hereof and any cash in respect of a fractional interest in a share pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof, in each case less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof), and the certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of ACI Common Shares that is not registered in the transfer records of ACI, a certificate representing the proper number of shares of Parent Common Stock may be issued to the transferee if the certificate representing such ACI Common Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 4.3 hereof, each certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented ACI Common Shares that were exchanged for shares of Parent Common Stock shall be deemed at all times after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender (i) the certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock as contemplated by this Section 4.3 hereof, (ii) a cash payment in respect of a fractional interest in a share as contemplated by Section 4.6 hereof and (iii) any dividends or distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid or payable with respect to such shares as contemplated by Section 4.4 hereof, in each case less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof.

4.4 Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares

No dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Shares with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Share Certificate with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Shares that the holder thereof has the right to receive upon the surrender thereof, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof, in each case until the holder of such Share Certificate shall have surrendered such Share Certificate in accordance with this Article 4. Following the surrender of any Share Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificate representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock or whole Exchangeable Shares issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock or whole Exchangeable Shares and the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Share to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock or whole Exchangeable Shares.

4.5 No Further Ownership Rights in ACI Common Shares

The shares of Parent Common Stock and Exchangeable Shares issued upon conversion of the ACI Common Shares in accordance with the terms hereof and the payment of such dividends or other distributions as are payable pursuant to Section 4.3 and such cash in lieu of any fractional shares as is payable pursuant to

Table of Contents

Section 4.6 hereof upon the surrender of Share Certificates in accordance with the terms of this Article 4 shall be deemed to have been in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the ACI Common Shares formerly represented by such Share Certificates, subject, however, to ACI's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by ACI on the ACI Common Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time. At the close of business on the day on which the Effective Time occurs, the share transfer books of ACI shall be closed, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the share transfer books of ACI of the ACI Common Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Share Certificate is presented to ACI for transfer, it shall be canceled against delivery thereof and exchanged as provided in this Article 4.

4.6 No Fractional Shares

No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Share Certificates, no dividends or other distributions of Parent or ExchangeCo shall relate to such fractional share interests and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of Parent or ExchangeCo.

As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the excess of (x) the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock delivered to the Exchange Agent by Parent pursuant to Section 4.1 hereof over (y) the aggregate number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock to be distributed to holders of ACI Common Shares pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof (such excess being herein called the Excess Parent Shares). Following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of ACI Common Shares, shall sell the Excess Parent Shares at then prevailing prices on the NYSE, all in the manner provided in this Section 4.6 hereof.

The sale of the Excess Parent Shares by the Exchange Agent shall be executed on the NYSE through one or more member firms of the NYSE and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. The Exchange Agent shall use all reasonable efforts to complete the sale of the Excess Parent Shares as promptly following the Effective Time as, in the Exchange Agent's reasonable judgment, is practicable and consistent with obtaining the best execution of such sales in light of prevailing market conditions. Until the proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the former holders of ACI Common Shares, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in trust for the holders of ACI Common Shares (the Excess Parent Shares Trust). Parent shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out of pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation, of the Exchange Agent incurred in connection with such sale of the Excess Parent Shares. The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Excess Parent Shares Trust to which each holder of ACI Common Shares shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate proceeds comprising the Excess Parent Shares Trust by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such holder of ACI Common Shares is entitled (after taking into account all ACI Common Stock held at the Effective Time by such holder which were exchanged for shares of Parent Common Stock) and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all holders of ACI Common Shares who exchanged such shares for shares of Parent Common Stock are entitled.

As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the excess of (x) the number of whole Exchangeable Shares delivered to the Exchange Agent by ExchangeCo pursuant to Section 4.1 hereof over (y) the aggregate number of whole Exchangeable Shares to be distributed to holders of ACI Common Shares pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof (such excess being herein called the Excess Exchangeable Shares). Following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of ACI Common Shares, shall sell the Excess Exchangeable Shares all in the manner provided in this Section 4.6.

The sale of the Excess Exchangeable Shares by the Exchange Agent shall be executed by private sale (or by way of sale through the facilities of the TSX). The Exchange Agent shall use all reasonable efforts to complete the sale of the Excess Exchangeable Shares as promptly following the Effective Time as, in the Exchange Agent's reasonable judgment, is practicable and consistent with obtaining the best execution of such sales in light of prevailing market conditions. Until the proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the former holders of ACI Common Shares, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in trust for the holders of ACI Common Shares (the Excess Exchangeable Shares Trust). ExchangeCo shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out of pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation, of the Exchange Agent incurred in connection with such sale of the Excess Exchangeable Shares. The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Excess Exchangeable Shares Trust to which each holder of ACI Common Shares shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate proceeds comprising the Excess Exchangeable Shares Trust by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such holder of ACI Common Shares is entitled (after taking into account all ACI Common Stock held at the Effective Time by such holder which were exchanged for Exchangeable Shares) and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all holders of ACI Common Shares who exchanged such shares for Exchangeable Shares are entitled.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, ExchangeCo or Parent, respectively, shall be entitled to deposit cash with the Exchange Agent to enable the Exchange Agent to make cash payments provided for in this Section 4.6, in which case the Exchangeable Shares or Parent Common Stock, as the case may be, that would otherwise be sold by the Exchange Agent will be surrendered to ExchangeCo or Parent or no such shares will be issued.

4.7 Termination of the ACI Exchange Fund

Any portion of the ACI Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of the Share Certificates for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent and ExchangeCo, pro rata in the proportion of undistributed Parent Elected Shares to ExchangeCo Elected Shares, upon demand, and any holders of the Share Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this Article 4 shall thereafter look only to Parent and ExchangeCo for, and Parent and ExchangeCo shall remain liable for, payment of their claim for shares of Parent Common Stock, Exchangeable Shares, any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof in accordance with this Article 4.

4.8 No Liability

None of Parent, ExchangeCo, CallCo, ACI or Bowater, or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any shares of Parent Common Stock, Exchangeable Shares, dividends or other distributions from the ACI Exchange Fund properly delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Share Certificate shall not have been surrendered prior to three years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which any shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchangeable Shares (and any dividends or other distributions payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof) would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority), any such shares (and any dividends or other distributions payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof) shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent or ExchangeCo as the case may be, free and clear of all claims, rights, interest or liens of any person previously entitled thereto.

4.9 Investment of ACI Exchange Fund

The Exchange Agent shall invest the cash included in the ACI Exchange Fund as directed by Parent and ExchangeCo, in proportion to the amounts represented by the Parent Elected Shares to the ExchangeCo Elected Shares. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to and be income of Parent and ExchangeCo, respectively. If for any reason (including losses on any investments) the cash in the ACI

Table of Contents

Exchange Fund shall be insufficient to fully satisfy all of the payment obligations to be made in cash by the Exchange Agent hereunder, Parent and ExchangeCo shall promptly deposit cash into the ACI Exchange Fund in an amount which is equal to the deficiency in the amount of cash required to fully satisfy such cash payment obligations, pro rata in the proportion of Parent Elected Shares to ExchangeCo Elected Shares .

4.10 Lost Share Certificates

If any Share Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Share Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or ExchangeCo, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent or ExchangeCo may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Share Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Share Certificate shares of Parent Common Stock, Exchangeable Shares any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to Section 4.3 hereof and cash in lieu of any fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 4.6 hereof, in each case pursuant to this Article 4.

4.11 Withholding Rights

Parent, ACI, ExchangeCo, or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the Arrangement such amounts as Parent, ACI, ExchangeCo or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of federal, provincial or state or local or other Law of any applicable country or jurisdiction. To the extent that amounts are so deducted, withheld and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Authority by Parent, ACI, ExchangeCo or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Plan of Arrangement as having been paid to the holder of Share Certificates in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, ExchangeCo or the Exchange Agent.

CERTAIN RIGHTS OF CALLCO TO ACQUIRE EXCHANGEABLE SHARES

5.1 CallCo Call Rights

By virtue of this Plan of Arrangement and the Exchangeable Share Provisions, each holder of ACI Common Shares who receives Exchangeable Shares under this Plan of Arrangement, and the assignees from time to time of such Exchangeable Shares, shall be subject to the Liquidation Call Right and the Redemption Call Right of CallCo as referred to in the Exchangeable Share Provisions and, for the purposes of this Plan of Arrangement, set out in Sections 5.2 and 5.3 hereof. Capitalized terms used in Sections 5.2 and 5.3 hereof and not otherwise defined in this Plan of Arrangement shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Exchangeable Share Provisions. In addition, such holders and their assignees as aforesaid shall be subject to all other rights of CallCo contained in the Exchangeable Share Provisions, including, without limitation, the Retraction Call Right (as defined in the Exchangeable Share Provisions).

5.2 CallCo Liquidation Call Right

- (a) CallCo shall have the overriding right (the Liquidation Call Right), in the event of and notwithstanding the proposed liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of ExchangeCo pursuant to Article 5 of the Exchangeable Share Provisions, to purchase from all but not less than all of the holders of Exchangeable Shares on the Liquidation Date all but not less than all of the Exchangeable Shares held by each such holder on payment by CallCo of an amount per share equal to (i) the Current Market Price (as defined in the Exchangeable Share Provisions) of a share of Parent Common Stock on the last Business Day prior to the Liquidation Date, which shall be satisfied in full by causing to be delivered to such holder one share of Parent Common Stock, plus (ii) the right to receive the full amount when paid

of all unpaid dividends on such Exchangeable Share for which the record date has occurred prior to the Liquidation Date (collectively, the Liquidation Call Purchase Price). In the event of the exercise of the Liquidation Call Right by CallCo, each holder shall be obligated to sell all the Exchangeable Shares held by the holder to CallCo on the Liquidation Date on payment by CallCo to the holder of the Liquidation Call Purchase Price for each such share.

- (b) To exercise the Liquidation Call Right, CallCo must notify ExchangeCo and ExchangeCo's transfer agent (the Transfer Agent), as agent for the holders of Exchangeable Shares, of CallCo's intention to exercise such right at least 45 days before the Liquidation Date in the case of a voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of ExchangeCo and at least five Business Days before the Liquidation Date in the case of an involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of ExchangeCo. The Transfer Agent will notify the holders of Exchangeable Shares as to whether or not CallCo has exercised the Liquidation Call Right forthwith after the expiry of the period during which the same may be exercised by CallCo. If CallCo exercises the Liquidation Call Right, then on the Liquidation Date, CallCo will purchase and the holders will sell all of the Exchangeable Shares then outstanding for a price per share equal to the Liquidation Call Purchase Price.
- (c) For the purposes of completing the purchase of the Exchangeable Shares pursuant to the Liquidation Call Right, CallCo shall deposit with the Transfer Agent, on or before the Liquidation Date, certificates representing the aggregate number of shares of Parent Common Stock deliverable by CallCo in payment of the total Liquidation Call Purchase Price and shall waive any rights to receive any dividends which represent the amount of the remaining portion, if any, of the total Liquidation Call Purchase Price, less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof. Provided that CallCo has complied with the immediately preceding sentence, on and after the Liquidation Date, the rights of each holder of Exchangeable Shares will be limited to receiving such holder's proportionate part of the total Liquidation Call Purchase Price payable by CallCo (which, in the case of unpaid dividends, if any, shall be satisfied by the payment thereof by ExchangeCo on the payment date for such dividends) upon presentation and surrender by the holder of certificates representing the Exchangeable Shares held by such holder and the holder shall on and after the Liquidation Date be considered and deemed for all purposes to be the holder of the shares of Parent Common Stock to which it is entitled. Upon surrender to the Transfer Agent of a certificate or certificates representing Exchangeable Shares, together with such other documents and instruments as may be required to effect a transfer of Exchangeable Shares under the CBCA and the by-laws of ExchangeCo and such additional documents and instruments as the Transfer Agent may reasonably require, the holder of such surrendered certificate or certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and the Transfer Agent on behalf of CallCo shall deliver to such holder, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock to which the holder is entitled and on the applicable dividend payment date a cheque or cheques payable at par at any branch of the bankers of ExchangeCo in Canada in payment of the remaining portion, if any, of the total Liquidation Call Purchase Price less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof. If CallCo does not exercise the Liquidation Call Right in the manner described above, on the Liquidation Date the holders of the Exchangeable Shares will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the liquidation price otherwise payable by ExchangeCo in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of ExchangeCo pursuant to Article 5 of the Exchangeable Share Provisions.

5.3 CallCo Redemption Call Right

- (a) CallCo shall have the overriding right (the Redemption Call Right), notwithstanding the proposed redemption of the Exchangeable Shares by ExchangeCo pursuant to Article 7 of the Exchangeable Share Provisions, to purchase from all but not less than all of the holders of Exchangeable Shares on the Redemption Date all but not less than all of the Exchangeable Shares held by each such holder on payment by CallCo to the holder of an amount per share equal to (i) the Current Market Price (as defined in the Exchangeable Share Provisions) of a share of Parent Common Stock on the last Business Day prior to the Redemption Date, which shall be satisfied in full by causing to be delivered to such holder one share of Parent Common Stock plus (ii) the right to receive the full amount when paid of all unpaid dividends on such Exchangeable Share for which the record date has occurred prior to the Redemption Date (collectively, the Redemption Call Purchase Price). In the event of the exercise of the Redemption Call Right by CallCo, each holder shall be obligated to sell all the Exchangeable Shares held by the holder to CallCo on the Redemption Date on payment by CallCo to the holder of the Redemption Call Purchase Price for each such share.

- (b) To exercise the Redemption Call Right, CallCo must notify the Transfer Agent, as agent for the holders of Exchangeable Shares, and ExchangeCo of CallCo's intention to exercise such right at least 60 days before the Redemption Date, except in the case of a redemption occurring as a result of an acquisition of Control of Parent (as defined in the Exchangeable Share Provisions) in which case CallCo shall notify the Transfer Agent and ExchangeCo on or before the Redemption Date. The Transfer Agent will notify the holders of the Exchangeable Shares as to whether or not CallCo has exercised the Redemption Call Right forthwith after the expiry of the period during which the same may be exercised by CallCo. If CallCo exercises the Redemption Call Right, on the Redemption Date CallCo will purchase and the holders will sell all of the Exchangeable Shares then outstanding for a price per share equal to the Redemption Call Purchase Price.
- (c) For the purposes of completing the purchase of the Exchangeable Shares pursuant to the Redemption Call Right, CallCo shall deposit with the Transfer Agent, on or before the Redemption Date, certificates representing the aggregate number of shares of Parent Common Stock deliverable by CallCo in payment of the total Redemption Call Purchase Price and shall waive any rights to receive any dividends which represent the amount of the remaining portion, if any, of the total Redemption Call Purchase Price less any amounts withheld pursuant to Section 4.11 hereof. If CallCo does not exercise the Redemption Call Right in the manner described above, on the Redemption Date the holders of the Exchangeable Shares will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the redemption price otherwise payable by ExchangeCo in connection with the redemption of the Exchangeable Shares pursuant to Article 7 of the Exchangeable Share Provisions.

DIVIDENDS

3.1 A holder of an Exchangeable Share shall be entitled to receive and the Board of Directors shall, subject to applicable law, on each AbitibiBowater Dividend Declaration Date, declare a dividend on each Exchangeable Share:

(a) in the case of a cash dividend declared on the AbitibiBowater Common Shares, in an amount in cash for each Exchangeable Share in U.S. dollars or the Canadian Dollar Equivalent thereof on the AbitibiBowater Dividend Declaration Date of the cash dividend declared on each AbitibiBowater Common Share;

(b) in the case of a stock dividend declared on the AbitibiBowater Common Shares to be paid in AbitibiBowater Common Shares, in such number of Exchangeable Shares for each Exchangeable Share as is equal to the number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares to be paid on each AbitibiBowater Common Share; or

(c) in the case of a dividend declared on the AbitibiBowater Common Shares in property other than cash or AbitibiBowater Common Shares, in such type and amount of property for each Exchangeable Share as is the same as or economically equivalent to (to be determined by the Board of Directors as contemplated by Section 3.5 hereof) the type and amount of property declared as a dividend on each AbitibiBowater Common Share.

Such dividends shall be paid out of money, assets or property of AbitibiBowater Canada properly applicable to the payment of dividends, or out of authorized but unissued shares of AbitibiBowater Canada, as applicable.

3.2 Cheques of AbitibiBowater Canada payable at par at any branch of the bankers of AbitibiBowater Canada shall be issued in respect of any cash dividends contemplated by Section 3.1(a) hereof and the sending of such a cheque to each holder of an Exchangeable Share shall satisfy the cash dividend represented thereby unless the cheque is not paid on presentation. Certificates registered in the name of the registered holder of Exchangeable Shares shall be issued or transferred in respect of any stock dividends contemplated by Section 3.1(b) hereof and the sending of such a certificate to each holder of an Exchangeable Share shall satisfy the stock dividend represented thereby. Such other type and amount of property in respect of any dividends contemplated by Section 3.1(c) hereof shall be issued, distributed or transferred by AbitibiBowater Canada in such manner as it shall determine and the issuance, distribution or transfer thereof by AbitibiBowater Canada to each holder of an Exchangeable Share shall satisfy the dividend represented thereby. No holder of an Exchangeable Share shall be entitled to recover by action or other legal process against AbitibiBowater Canada any dividend that is represented by a cheque that has not been duly presented to AbitibiBowater Canada's bankers for payment or that otherwise remains unclaimed for a period of six years from the date on which such dividend was payable.

3.3 The record date for the determination of the holders of Exchangeable Shares entitled to receive payment of, and the payment date for, any dividend declared on the Exchangeable Shares under Section 3.1 hereof shall be the same dates as the record date and payment date, respectively, for the corresponding dividend declared on the AbitibiBowater Common Shares.

3.5 The Board of Directors shall determine, in good faith and in its sole discretion (with the assistance of such reputable and qualified independent financial advisors and/or other experts as the Board of Directors may require), economic equivalence for the purposes of Section 3.1(c) hereof, and each such determination shall be conclusive and binding on AbitibiBowater Canada and its shareholders. In making each such determination, the following factors shall, without excluding other factors determined by the Board of Directors to be relevant, be considered by the Board of Directors:

- (a) in the case of any stock dividend or other distribution payable in AbitibiBowater Common Shares, the number of such shares issued in proportion to the number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares previously outstanding;
- (b) in the case of the issuance or distribution of any rights, options or warrants to subscribe for or purchase AbitibiBowater Common Shares (or securities exchangeable for or convertible into or carrying rights to acquire AbitibiBowater Common Shares), the relationship between the exercise price of each such right, option or warrant and the current market value (as determined by the Board of Directors in the manner above contemplated) of an AbitibiBowater Common Share;
- (c) in the case of the issuance or distribution of any other form of property (including without limitation any shares or securities of AbitibiBowater of any class other than AbitibiBowater Common Shares, any rights, options or warrants other than those referred to in Section 3.5(b) above, any evidence of indebtedness of AbitibiBowater or any assets of AbitibiBowater), the relationship between the fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors in the manner above contemplated) of such property to be issued or distributed with respect to each outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Share and the current market value (as determined by the Board of Directors in the manner above contemplated) of an AbitibiBowater Common Share; and
- (d) in all such cases, the general taxation consequences of the relevant event to holders of Exchangeable Shares to the extent that such consequences may differ from the taxation consequences to holders of AbitibiBowater Common Shares as a result of differences between taxation laws of Canada and the United States (except for any differing consequences arising as a result of differing marginal taxation rates and without regard to the individual circumstances of holders of Exchangeable Shares).

For purposes of the foregoing determinations, the current market value of any security listed and traded or quoted on a securities exchange shall be the weighted average of the daily trading prices of such security during a period of not less than 20 consecutive trading days ending not more than five trading days before the date of determination on the principal securities exchange on which such securities are listed and traded or quoted; provided, however, that if in the opinion of the Board of Directors the public distribution or trading activity of such securities during such period does not create a market which reflects the fair market value of such securities, then the current market value thereof shall be determined by the Board of Directors, in good faith and in its sole discretion (with the assistance of such reputable and qualified independent financial advisors and/or other experts as the board may require), and provided further that any such determination by the Board of Directors shall be conclusive and binding on AbitibiBowater Canada and its shareholders.

The restrictions in Section 4.1(a), 4.1(b), 4.1(c) and 4.1(d) above shall not apply if all dividends on the outstanding Exchangeable Shares corresponding to dividends declared and paid to date on the AbitibiBowater Common Shares shall have been declared and paid in full on the Exchangeable Shares.

DISTRIBUTION ON LIQUIDATION

5.1 In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of AbitibiBowater Canada or any other distribution of the assets of AbitibiBowater Canada among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, a holder of Exchangeable Shares shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to receive from the assets of AbitibiBowater Canada in respect of each Exchangeable Share held by such holder on the effective date (the Liquidation Date) of such liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, before any distribution of any part of the assets of AbitibiBowater Canada among the holders of the Common Shares, the Preferred Shares or any other shares ranking junior to the Exchangeable Shares, an amount per share (the Liquidation Amount) equal to:

On and after the Liquidation Date, the holders of the Exchangeable Shares shall cease to be holders of such Exchangeable Shares and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of holders in respect thereof, other than the right to receive their proportionate part of the total Liquidation Amount, unless payment of the total Liquidation Amount for such Exchangeable Shares shall not be made upon presentation and surrender of share certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders shall remain unaffected until the total

Upon such deposit being made, the rights of the holders of Exchangeable Shares after such deposit shall be limited to receiving their proportionate part of the total Liquidation Amount (in each case less any amounts withheld on account of tax required to be deducted and withheld therefrom) for such Exchangeable Shares so deposited, against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them, respectively, in accordance with the foregoing provisions. Upon such payment or deposit of the total Liquidation Amount, the holders of the Exchangeable Shares shall thereafter be considered and deemed for all purposes to be holders of the AbitibiBowater Common Shares delivered to them or the custodian on their behalf.

For the purposes of completing a purchase pursuant to the Retraction Call Right, Bowater Canadian Holdings shall deposit with the Transfer Agent, on or before the Retraction Date, certificates representing AbitibiBowater Common Shares and shall waive any rights to receive any dividends which represent the amount of the remaining portion, if any, of the total Purchase Price (in each case less any amounts withheld on account of tax required to be deducted and withheld therefrom by Bowater Canadian Holdings). In the event that Bowater Canadian Holdings does not deliver an Bowater Canadian Holdings Call Notice within such five Business Day period, and provided that the Retraction Request is not revoked by the holder in the manner specified in Section 6.7, AbitibiBowater Canada shall redeem the Retracted Shares on the Retraction Date and in the manner otherwise contemplated in this Article 6.

6.4 AbitibiBowater Canada or Bowater Canadian Holdings as the case may be, shall deliver or cause the Transfer Agent to deliver to the relevant holder, at the address of the holder recorded in the securities register of AbitibiBowater Canada for the Exchangeable Shares or at the address specified in the holder's Retraction Request or by holding for pick-up by the holder at the registered office of AbitibiBowater Canada or at any office of the Transfer Agent as may be specified by AbitibiBowater Canada by notice to the holders of Exchangeable Shares, certificates representing the AbitibiBowater Common Shares (which shares shall be duly issued as fully paid and non-assessable and shall be free and clear of any lien, claim or encumbrance) registered in the name of the holder or in such other name as the holder may request in payment of the total Retraction Price or the total Purchase Price, as the case may be, and on the applicable dividend payment date a cheque payable at par at any branch of the bankers of AbitibiBowater Canada in payment of the remaining portion, if any, of the total Retraction Price or the total Purchase Price, as the case may be (in each case less any amounts withheld on account of tax required to be deducted and withheld therefrom), and such delivery of such certificates and cheque on behalf of AbitibiBowater Canada or by Bowater Canadian Holdings, as the case may be, or by the Transfer Agent shall be deemed to be payment and shall satisfy and discharge all liability for the total Retraction Price or total Purchase Price, as the case may be, to the extent that the same is represented by such share certificates and cheque (plus any tax deducted and withheld therefrom and remitted to the proper tax authority), unless such cheque is not paid on due presentation.

6.5 On and after the close of business on the Retraction Date, the holder of the Retracted Shares shall cease to be a holder of such Retracted Shares and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a holder in respect thereof, other than the right to receive his proportionate part of the total Retraction Price or total Purchase Price, as the case may be, unless upon presentation and surrender of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, payment of the total Retraction Price or the total Purchase Price, as the case may be, shall not be made as provided in Section 6.4, in which case the rights of such holder shall remain unaffected until the total Retraction Price or the total Purchase Price, as the case may be, has been paid in the manner hereinbefore provided. On and after the close of business on the Retraction Date, provided that presentation and surrender of certificates and payment of the total Retraction Price or the total Purchase Price, as the case may be, has been made in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the holder of the Retracted Shares so redeemed by AbitibiBowater Canada or purchased by Bowater Canadian Holdings shall thereafter be considered and deemed for all purposes to be a holder of the AbitibiBowater Common Shares delivered to it.

6.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 6, AbitibiBowater Canada shall not be obligated to redeem Retracted Shares specified by a holder in a Retraction Request to the extent that such redemption of Retracted Shares would be contrary to solvency requirements or other provisions of applicable law. If AbitibiBowater Canada believes that on any Retraction Date it would not be permitted by any of such provisions to redeem the Retracted Shares tendered for redemption on such date, and provided that Bowater Canadian Holdings shall not have exercised the Retraction Call Right with respect to the Retracted Shares, AbitibiBowater Canada shall only be obligated to redeem Retracted Shares specified by a holder in a Retraction Request to the extent of the maximum number that may be so redeemed (rounded down to a whole number of shares) as would not be contrary to such provisions and shall notify the holder at least two Business Days prior to the Retraction Date as to the number of Retracted Shares which will not be redeemed by AbitibiBowater Canada. In any case in which the redemption by AbitibiBowater Canada of Retracted Shares would be contrary to solvency requirements or other provisions of applicable law, AbitibiBowater Canada shall redeem Retracted Shares in accordance with Section 6.2 of these share provisions on a pro rata basis and shall issue to each holder of Retracted Shares a new certificate, at the expense of AbitibiBowater Canada, representing the Retracted Shares not redeemed by AbitibiBowater Canada pursuant to Section 6.2 hereof. Provided that the Retraction Request is not revoked by the holder in the manner specified in Section 6.7, the holder of any such Retracted Shares not redeemed by AbitibiBowater Canada pursuant to Section 6.2 of these share provisions as a result of solvency requirements of applicable law shall be deemed by giving the Retraction Request to require AbitibiBowater to purchase such Retracted Shares from such holder on the Retraction Date or as soon as practicable thereafter on payment by AbitibiBowater to such holder of the Purchase Price for each such Retracted Share, all as more specifically provided in the Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement.

6.7 A holder of Retracted Shares may, by notice in writing given by the holder to AbitibiBowater Canada before the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Retraction Date, withdraw its Retraction Request, in which event such Retraction Request shall be null and void and, for greater certainty, the revocable offer constituted by the Retraction Request to sell the Retracted Shares to Bowater Canadian Holdings shall be deemed to have been revoked.

7.1 Subject to applicable law, and provided Bowater Canadian Holdings has not exercised the Redemption Call Right, AbitibiBowater Canada shall on the Redemption Date redeem the whole of the then outstanding Exchangeable Shares for an amount per share equal to (a) the Current Market Price of an AbitibiBowater Common Share on the last Business Day prior to the Redemption Date, which shall be satisfied in full by AbitibiBowater Canada causing to be delivered to each holder of Exchangeable Shares one AbitibiBowater Common Share for each Exchangeable Share held by such holder, plus (b) the right to receive the full amount when paid of all unpaid dividends thereon for which the record date has occurred prior to the Redemption Date (collectively, the Redemption Price).

7.2 In any case of a redemption of Exchangeable Shares under this Article 7, AbitibiBowater Canada shall, at least 60 days before the Redemption Date, send or cause to be sent to each holder of Exchangeable Shares a notice in writing of the redemption by AbitibiBowater Canada or the purchase by Bowater Canadian Holdings under the Redemption Call Right, as the case may be, of the Exchangeable Shares held by such holder, provided, however, that in the event of a redemption of the Exchangeable Shares at the election of the Board of Directors (or a purchase by Bowater Canadian Holdings as a result thereof) upon a transaction being proposed that would result in Control of AbitibiBowater being acquired by any Person, AbitibiBowater Canada shall cause such notice to be sent at least the number of days prior to the Redemption Date established by the Board of Directors as the Board of Directors determines to be reasonably practicable under the circumstances, provided further, however, that in each case the accidental failure or omission to give such notice to fewer than 10% of the holders of the Exchangeable Shares shall not affect the validity of such notice of redemption. In either case, such notice shall set out the formula for determining the Redemption Price or the Redemption Call Purchase Price, as the case may be, the Redemption Date and, if applicable, particulars of the Redemption Call Right.

7.3 On or after the Redemption Date and subject to the exercise by AbitibiBowater Holdings of the Redemption Call Right, AbitibiBowater Canada shall cause to be delivered to the holders of the Exchangeable Shares to be redeemed the Redemption Price for each such Exchangeable Share upon presentation and surrender at the registered office of AbitibiBowater Canada or at any office of the Transfer Agent as may be specified by AbitibiBowater Canada in such notice of the certificates representing such Exchangeable Shares, together with such other documents and instruments as may be required to effect a transfer of Exchangeable Shares under the Canada Business Corporations Act and the by-laws of AbitibiBowater Canada and such additional documents and instruments as the Transfer Agent may reasonably require. Payment of the total Redemption Price for such Exchangeable Shares shall be made by delivery to each holder, at the address of the holder recorded in the securities register of AbitibiBowater Canada or by holding for pick-up by the holder at the registered office of AbitibiBowater Canada or at any office of the Transfer Agent as may be specified by AbitibiBowater Canada in such notice, on behalf of AbitibiBowater Canada of certificates representing AbitibiBowater Common Shares (which shares shall be duly issued as fully paid and non-assessable and shall be free and clear of any lien, claim or encumbrance) and on the applicable dividend payment date a cheque of AbitibiBowater Canada payable at par at any branch of the bankers of AbitibiBowater Canada in respect of the full amount of any unpaid dividends comprising part of the total Redemption Price (in each case less any amounts withheld on account of tax required to be withheld and remitted therefrom by AbitibiBowater Canada). On and after the Redemption Date, the holders of the Exchangeable Shares called for redemption shall cease to be holders of such Exchangeable Shares and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of holders in respect thereof, other than the right to receive their proportionate part of the total Redemption Price, unless payment of the total Redemption Price for such Exchangeable Shares shall not be made upon presentation and surrender of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders shall remain unaffected until the total Redemption Price has been paid in the manner hereinbefore provided. AbitibiBowater Canada shall have the right at any time after the sending of notice of its intention to redeem the Exchangeable Shares as aforesaid to deposit or cause to be deposited the total Redemption Price of the Exchangeable Shares so called for redemption, or of such of the said Exchangeable Shares represented by certificates that have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption, in a custodial account with any chartered bank or trust company in Canada named in such notice (less any amounts withheld on account of tax required to be withheld and remitted therefrom by AbitibiBowater Canada). Upon the later of such deposit being made and the Redemption Date, the Exchangeable Shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be redeemed and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or Redemption Date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving their proportionate part of the total Redemption Price for such Exchangeable Shares so deposited, against presentation and surrender of the said certificate held by them, respectively, in accordance with the foregoing provisions. Upon such payment or deposit of the total Redemption Price, the holders of the Exchangeable Shares shall thereafter be considered and deemed for all purposes to be holders of the AbitibiBowater Canada Shares delivered to them or the custodian on their behalf.

PURCHASE FOR CANCELLATION

8.1 Subject to applicable law and the articles of AbitibiBowater Canada, AbitibiBowater Canada may at any time and from time to time purchase for cancellation all or any part of the outstanding Exchangeable Shares at any price by tender to all the holders of record of Exchangeable Shares then outstanding or through the facilities of any stock exchange on which the Exchangeable Shares are listed or quoted at any price per share together with an amount equal to all declared and unpaid dividends thereon for which the record date has occurred prior to the date of purchase. If in response to an invitation for tenders under the provisions of this Section 8.1, more Exchangeable Shares are tendered at a price or prices acceptable to AbitibiBowater Canada than AbitibiBowater Canada is prepared to purchase, the Exchangeable Shares to be purchased by AbitibiBowater Canada shall be purchased as nearly as may be pro rata according to the number of shares tendered by each holder who submits a tender to AbitibiBowater Canada, provided that when shares are tendered at different prices, the pro rating shall be effected (disregarding fractions) only with respect to the shares tendered at the price at which more shares were tendered than AbitibiBowater Canada is prepared to purchase after AbitibiBowater Canada has purchased all the shares tendered at lower prices. If part only of the Exchangeable Shares represented by any certificate shall be purchased, a new certificate for the balance of such shares shall be issued at the expense of AbitibiBowater Canada.

- (ii) issue or distribute rights, options or warrants to the holders of all or substantially all of the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares entitling them to subscribe for or to purchase AbitibiBowater Common Shares (or securities exchangeable for or convertible into or carrying rights to acquire AbitibiBowater Common Shares); or unless the economic equivalent on a per share basis of such rights, options, securities, shares, evidences of indebtedness or other assets is issued or distributed simultaneously to holders of the Exchangeable Shares; provided that, for greater certainty, the above restrictions shall not apply to any securities issued or distributed by AbitibiBowater in order to give effect to and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, and in accordance with, the Plan of Arrangement.

- (b) AbitibiBowater will not without the prior approval of AbitibiBowater Canada and the prior approval of the holders of the Exchangeable Shares given in accordance with Section 10.2 of the Share Provisions:

- (i) subdivide, redivide or change the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares into a greater number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares; or
- (ii) reduce, combine, consolidate or change the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares into a lesser number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares; or
- (iii) effect an AbitibiBowater Share Exchange Transaction, unless the same or an economically equivalent change shall simultaneously be made to, or in the rights of the holders of, the Exchangeable Shares.

- (c) AbitibiBowater will ensure that the record date for any event referred to in section 2.7(a) or 2.7(b) above, or (if no record date is applicable for such event) the effective date for any such event, is not less than 10 days after the date on which such event is declared or announced by AbitibiBowater (with contemporaneous notification thereof by AbitibiBowater to AbitibiBowater Canada, Bowater Holdings and Bowater).
- (d) The Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada shall determine, in good faith and in its sole discretion (with the assistance of such reputable and qualified independent financial advisors and/or other experts as the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada may require), economic equivalence for the purposes of any event referred to in section 2.7(a) or 2.7(b) above and each such determination shall be conclusive and binding on AbitibiBowater. In making each such determination, the following factors shall, without excluding other factors determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada to be relevant, be considered by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada:

- (i) in the case of any stock dividend or other distribution payable in AbitibiBowater Common Shares, the number of such shares issued in proportion to the number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares previously outstanding;
- (ii) in the case of the issuance or distribution of any rights, options or warrants to subscribe for or purchase AbitibiBowater Common Shares (or securities exchangeable for or convertible into or carrying rights to acquire AbitibiBowater Common Shares), the relationship between the exercise price of each such right, option or warrant and the current market value (as determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada in the manner above contemplated) of a AbitibiBowater Common Share;
- (iii) in the case of the issuance or distribution of any other form of property (including without limitation any shares or securities of AbitibiBowater of any class other than AbitibiBowater Common Shares, any rights, options or warrants other than those referred to in section 2.7(d)(ii) above, any evidences of indebtedness of AbitibiBowater or any assets of AbitibiBowater), the relationship between the fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada in the manner above contemplated) of such property to be issued or distributed with respect to each outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Share and the current market value (as determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada in the manner above contemplated) of a AbitibiBowater Common Share;
- (iv) in the case of any subdivision, redivision or change of the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares into a greater number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares or the reduction, combination, consolidation or change of the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares into a lesser number of AbitibiBowater Common Shares or an AbitibiBowater Share Exchange Transaction, the effect thereof upon the then outstanding AbitibiBowater Common Shares; and
- (v) in all such cases, the general taxation consequences of the relevant event to holders of Exchangeable Shares to the extent that such consequences may differ from the taxation consequences to holders of AbitibiBowater Common Shares as a result of differences between taxation laws of Canada and the United States (except for any differing consequences arising as a result of differing marginal taxation rates and without regard to the individual circumstances of holders of Exchangeable Shares).

For purposes of the foregoing determinations, the current market value of any security listed and traded or quoted on a securities exchange shall be the weighted average of the daily trading prices of such security during a period of not less than 20 consecutive trading days ending not more than five trading days before the date of determination on the principal securities exchange on which such securities are listed and traded or quoted; provided, however, that if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada the public distribution or trading activity of such securities during such period does not create a market which reflects the fair market value of such securities, then the current market value thereof shall be determined by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada, in good faith and in its sole discretion (with the assistance of such reputable and qualified independent financial advisors and/or other experts as the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada may require), and provided further that any such determination by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater Canada shall be conclusive and binding on AbitibiBowater.

ensuring that appropriate dividends are paid or other distributions are made by AbitibiBowater Canada, or subdivisions, redivisions or changes are made to the Exchangeable Shares, in order to implement the required economic equivalent with respect to the AbitibiBowater Common Shares and Exchangeable Shares as provided for in this section 2.7.

- 2.8 Tender Offers. In the event that a tender offer, share exchange offer, issuer bid, take-over bid or similar transaction with respect to AbitibiBowater Common Shares (an Offer) is proposed by AbitibiBowater or is proposed to AbitibiBowater or its shareholders and is recommended by the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater, or is otherwise effected or to be effected with the consent or approval of the Board of Directors of AbitibiBowater, AbitibiBowater will use its reasonable efforts expeditiously and in good faith to take all such actions and do all such things as are necessary or desirable to enable and permit holders of Exchangeable Shares to participate in such Offer to the same extent and on an economically equivalent basis as the holders of AbitibiBowater Common Shares, without discrimination. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, AbitibiBowater will use its reasonable efforts expeditiously and in good faith to ensure that holders of Exchangeable Shares may participate in all such Offers without being required to retract Exchangeable Shares as against AbitibiBowater Canada (or, if so required, to ensure that any such retraction shall be effective only upon, and shall be conditional upon, the closing of the Offer and only to the extent necessary to tender or deposit to the Offer). Nothing herein shall affect the rights of AbitibiBowater Canada to redeem or Bowater Holdings to purchase Exchangeable Shares, as applicable, in the event of an acquisition of Control of AbitibiBowater.
- 2.9 Ownership of Outstanding Shares. Without the prior approval of AbitibiBowater Canada and the prior approval of the holders of the Exchangeable Shares given in accordance with Section 10.2 of the Share Provisions, AbitibiBowater covenants and agrees in favour of AbitibiBowater Canada that, as long as any outstanding Exchangeable Shares are owned by any person or entity other than AbitibiBowater or any of its Affiliates, AbitibiBowater will be and remain the direct or indirect beneficial owner of all issued and outstanding voting shares in the capital of AbitibiBowater Canada and Bowater Holdings.
- 2.10 AbitibiBowater and Affiliates Not to Vote Exchangeable Shares. Each of AbitibiBowater and Bowater Holdings covenants and agrees that it will appoint and cause to be appointed proxyholders with respect to all Exchangeable Shares held by it and its Affiliates for the sole purpose of attending each meeting of holders of Exchangeable Shares in order to be counted as part of the quorum for each such meeting. Each of AbitibiBowater and Bowater Holdings further covenants and agrees that it will not, and will cause its Affiliates not to, exercise any voting rights which may be exercisable by holders of Exchangeable Shares from time to time pursuant to the Share Provisions or pursuant to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act (or any successor or other corporate statute by which AbitibiBowater Canada may in the future be governed) with respect to any Exchangeable Shares held by it or by its Affiliates in respect of any matter considered at any meeting of holders of Exchangeable Shares.
- 2.11 Rule 10b-18 Purchases. For certainty, nothing contained in this Amended and Restated Support Agreement, including without limitation the obligations of AbitibiBowater contained in Section 2.8 hereof, shall limit the ability of AbitibiBowater, Bowater Holdings or AbitibiBowater Canada to make a Rule 10b-18 Purchase of AbitibiBowater Common Shares pursuant to Rule 10b-18 of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any successor provisions thereof.

In any such event, AbitibiBowater Canada hereby agrees with the Trustee and in favour of the Beneficiary promptly to forward or cause to be forwarded to the Trustee all relevant materials delivered by the Beneficiary to AbitibiBowater Canada or to the transfer agent of the Exchangeable Shares (including without limitation, a copy of the retraction request delivered pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Share Provisions) in connection with such proposed redemption of the Retracted Shares and the Trustee will thereupon exercise the Exchange Right with respect to the Retracted Shares that AbitibiBowater Canada is not permitted to redeem and will require AbitibiBowater to purchase such shares in accordance with the provisions of this Article 5.

In the exercise of such rights, powers, duties and authorities the Trustee shall have (and is granted) such incidental and additional rights, powers, duties and authority not in conflict with any of the provisions of this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement as the Trustee, acting in good faith and in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, may deem necessary, appropriate or desirable to effect the purpose of the Trust. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section 7.2, the Trustee has such a material conflict of interest, the validity and enforceability of this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of the existence of such material conflict of interest. If the Trustee contravenes the foregoing provisions of this section 7.2, any interested party may apply to the Ontario Court of Justice (General Division) for an order that the Trustee be replaced as Trustee hereunder.

7.4 Books and Records. The Trustee shall keep available for inspection by AbitibiBowater, Bowater Holdings and AbitibiBowater Canada, at the Trustee's principal corporate trust office in Toronto, Ontario and Montréal, Québec, correct and complete books and records of account relating to the Trust created by this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement, including without limitation, all relevant data relating to mailings and instructions to and from Beneficiaries and all transactions pursuant to the Exchange Right and the Automatic Exchange Rights. 7.6 Indemnification Prior to Certain Actions by Trustee. The Trustee shall exercise any or all of the rights, duties, powers or authorities vested in it by this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement at the request, order or direction of any Beneficiary upon such Beneficiary furnishing to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred by the Trustee therein or thereby, provided that no Beneficiary shall be obligated to furnish to the Trustee any such security or indemnity in connection with the exercise by the Trustee of any of its rights, duties, powers and authorities with respect to the AbitibiBowater Special Voting Share pursuant to Article 4, subject to section 7.15, and with respect to the Exchange Right pursuant to Article 5, subject to section 7.15, and with respect to the Automatic Exchange Rights pursuant to Article 5.

7.7 Action of Beneficiaries. No Beneficiary shall have the right to institute any action, suit or proceeding or to exercise any other remedy authorized by this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement for the purpose of enforcing any of its rights or for the execution of any trust or power hereunder unless the Beneficiary has requested the Trustee to take or institute such action, suit or proceeding and furnished the Trustee with the security or indemnity referred to in section 7.6 and the Trustee shall have failed to act within a reasonable time thereafter. In such case, but not otherwise, the Beneficiary shall be entitled to take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction such as the Trustee might have taken; it being understood and intended that no one or more Beneficiaries shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights hereby created by any such action, or to enforce any right hereunder or the Voting Rights, the Exchange Rights or the Automatic Exchange Rights except subject to the conditions and in the manner herein provided, and that all powers and trusts hereunder shall be exercised and all proceedings at law shall be instituted, had and maintained by the Trustee, except only as herein provided, and in any event for the equal benefit of all Beneficiaries.

Whenever such evidence relates to a matter other than the Voting Rights or the Exchange Right or the Automatic Exchange Rights or the taking of any other action to be taken by the Trustee at the request or on the application of AbitibiBowater, Bowater Holdings and/or AbitibiBowater Canada, and except as otherwise specifically provided herein, such evidence may consist of a report or opinion of any solicitor, attorney, auditor, accountant, appraiser, valuer, engineer or other expert or any other person whose qualifications give authority to a statement made by him, provided that if such report or opinion is furnished by a director, officer or employee of AbitibiBowater, Bowater Holdings and/or AbitibiBowater Canada it shall be in the form of an Officer's Certificate or a statutory declaration.

Each statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report furnished to the Trustee as evidence of compliance with a condition provided for in this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement shall include a statement by the person giving the evidence:

- (a) declaring that he has read and understands the provisions of this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement relating to the condition in question;
- (b) describing the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which he based the statutory declaration, certificate, statement or opinion; and

7.11 Investment of Moneys Held by Trustee. Unless otherwise provided in this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement, any moneys held by or on behalf of the Trustee which under the terms of this Amended and Restated Trust Agreement may or ought to be invested or which may be on deposit with the Trustee or which may be in the hands of the Trustee may be invested and reinvested in the name or under the control of the Trustee in securities in which, under the laws of the Province of Ontario and the Province of Québec, trustees are authorized to invest trust moneys, provided that such securities are stated to mature within two years after their purchase by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall so invest such moneys on the written direction of AbitibiBowater Canada. Pending the investment of any moneys as hereinbefore provided, such moneys may be deposited in the name of the Trustee in any chartered bank in Canada or, with the consent of AbitibiBowater Canada, in the deposit department of the Trustee or any other loan or trust company authorized to accept deposits under the laws of Canada or any province thereof at the rate of interest then current on similar deposits.

In so refusing, the Trustee may elect not to exercise any Voting Rights, Exchange Rights or Automatic Exchange Rights subject to such conflicting claims or demands and, in so doing, the Trustee shall not be or become liable to any person on account of such election or its failure or refusal to comply with any such conflicting claims or demands. The Trustee shall be entitled to continue to refrain from acting and to refuse to act until:

ANNEX I

FORM OF
CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
ABITIBIBOWATER INC.

AbitibiBowater Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware (the Corporation), hereby certifies as follows:

1. The name of the Corporation is AbitibiBowater Inc. The original Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was filed with the Secretary of State under the name of Alpha-Bravo Holdings Inc. on January 26, 2007. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was amended on January 29, 2007 to change the name of the Corporation to AbitibiBowater Inc. (as amended, the Original Certificate of Incorporation).
2. The amendments to the Original Certificate of Incorporation herein certified have been duly adopted in accordance with Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) and by the written consent of stockholders in accordance with Section 228 of the DGCL.
3. This Amended Restated Certificate of Incorporation amends and restates the Certificate of Incorporation of this Corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the DGCL, to read as herein set forth in full:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is AbitibiBowater Inc.

SECOND: The address of the Corporation s registered office is 1209 Orange Street, City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware 19801; and the name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.

THIRD: The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

FOURTH: The total number of shares of stock which the Corporation is authorized to issue is One Hundred Ten Million (110,000,000), consisting of Ten Million (10,000,000) shares of Serial Preferred Stock, $1.00 par value, and One Hundred Million (100,000,000) shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value.

FIFTH: (A) Subject to applicable provisions of law and to the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, authority is hereby expressly granted to and vested in the Corporation s Board of Directors (the Board), to the extent permitted by and upon compliance with the provisions set forth in the law of the State of Delaware, to issue Serial Preferred Stock from time to time in one or more series, each series to have such powers, designations, preferences and rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be determined and stated prior to the issuance of any shares of any such series in and by a resolution or resolutions of the Board authorizing the issuance of such series, including without limitation:

- (1) The number of shares to constitute such series and the distinctive designation thereof;
- (2) The dividend rate or rates to which the shares of such series shall be entitled and whether dividends shall be cumulative and, if so, the date or dates from which dividends shall accumulate, and the quarterly dates on which dividends, if declared, shall be payable;
- (3) Whether the shares of such series shall be redeemable, the limitations and restrictions in respect of such redemptions, the manner of selecting shares of such series for redemption if less than all shares are to be redeemed, and the amount per share, including the premium, if any, which the holders of shares of such

series shall be entitled to receive upon the redemption thereof, which amount may vary at different redemption dates and may be different in respect of shares redeemed through the operation of any retirement or sinking fund and in respect of shares otherwise redeemed;

(4) Whether the holders of shares of such series shall be entitled to receive, in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, an amount equal to the dividends accumulated and unpaid thereon, whether or not earned or declared, but without interest;

(5) Whether the shares of such series shall be subject to the operation of a purchase, retirement or sinking fund and, if so, whether such fund shall be cumulative or non-cumulative, the extent to which and the manner in which, such fund shall be applied to the purchase or redemption of the shares of such series for retirement or other corporate purposes, and the terms and provisions in respect of the operation thereof;

(6) Whether the shares of such series shall be convertible into, or exchangeable for, shares of stock of any other class or series of the same class, and if so convertible or exchangeable, the price or prices or the rate or rates of conversion or exchange and the method, if any, of adjusting the same;

(7) The voting powers, if any, of the shares of such series in addition to the voting powers provided by law; and

(8) Any other powers, designations, preferences and rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions, not inconsistent with law or the provisions of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

(B) All shares of any one series of Serial Preferred Stock shall be identical with each other in all respects, except that in respect of any series entitled to cumulative dividends, shares of such series issued at different times may differ as to the dates from which such dividends shall be cumulative.

SIXTH: The number of directors on the Board shall be not less than nine nor more than fifteen, and the number shall be nine if at any time the By-Laws do not fix the number of directors. The Board shall be and is divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III. No one class shall have more than one director more than any other class. If a fraction is contained in the quotient arrived at by dividing the authorized number of directors by three, then if such fraction is one-third, the extra director shall be a member of Class III, and if such fraction is two-thirds, one of the extra directors shall be a member of Class III and one of the extra directors shall be a member of Class II, unless otherwise provided for from time to time by resolution of the Board. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot except as and to the extent provided by the By-Laws of the Corporation.

Each director shall serve for a term ending on the date of the third annual meeting of stockholders following the annual meeting at which such director was elected; provided, however, that each initial director in Class I shall serve for a term ending on the date of the annual meeting next following the date hereof; each initial director in Class II shall serve for a term ending on the date of the second annual meeting following the date hereof; and each initial director in Class III shall serve for a term ending on the date of the third annual meeting following the date hereof.

In the event of any increase or decrease in the authorized number of directors, (i) each director then serving as such shall nevertheless continue as director of the class of which he is a member until the expiration of his current term, or his prior death, retirement or resignation, and (ii) the newly created or eliminated directorships resulting from such increase or decrease shall be apportioned by the Board among the three classes of directors so as to ensure that no one class has more than one director more than any other class. To the extent possible consistent with the foregoing rule, any newly created directorships shall be added to those classes whose terms of office are to expire at the latest dates following such allocation, and any newly eliminated directorships shall be subtracted from those classes whose terms of office are to expire at the earliest dates following such allocation, unless otherwise provided for from time to time by resolution of the Board. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained herein, each director shall serve until a successor is elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal.

SEVENTH: A director may be removed only for cause, and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of seventy-five percent (75%) of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. No reduction in the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his term.

EIGHTH: Any vacancies in the Board occurring for any reason, and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors, may be filled only by the Board, acting by (i) a vote of at least a majority of the remaining directors then in office, though less than a quorum, if no Acquiring Stockholder (as defined herein) has become such in the twelve months immediately preceding the occurrence of such vacancy or the creation of such new directorship, or (ii) a vote of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Continuing Directors (as defined herein) then in office, though less than a quorum, if an Acquiring Stockholder has become such in the twelve months immediately preceding the occurrence of such vacancy or the creation of such new directorship. Each director so chosen shall hold office until the next election of directors of the class for which such director shall have been chosen, and until his successor is duly elected and shall qualify, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute.

NINTH: (A) For the purpose of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) Acquiring Stockholder shall mean any Person (other than the Corporation or any Subsidiary) who or which is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than five percent (5%) of the voting power of the outstanding Voting Stock.

Acquiring Stockholder shall include any and all Affiliates and Associates of an Acquiring Stockholder, and any party with which an Acquiring Stockholder or its Affiliates or Associates have any understanding, agreement, or arrangement, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of Voting Stock, and the shares of Voting Stock beneficially owned by an Acquiring Stockholder shall include any shares beneficially owned by any such Affiliate or Associate and any such party.

Acquiring Stockholder shall also include the predecessors, successors or assigns of any Acquiring Stockholder or its Affiliates or Associates. For the purposes of determining whether a Person is an Acquiring Stockholder, the number of shares of Voting Stock deemed to be outstanding shall include shares deemed beneficially owned by an Acquiring Stockholder or its Affiliates or Associates but shall not include any other shares which may be issuable to any other Person pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon exercise of conversion rights, warrants or options, or otherwise.

(2) Affiliate shall mean any Person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with another Person.

(3) Associate shall mean (i) any corporation or organization (other than the Corporation or any Subsidiary) of which a Person is an officer or partner or is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of ten percent (10%) or more of any class of equity securities, (ii) any trust or other estate in which such Person has a substantial beneficial interest or as to which such Person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, and (iii) any relative or spouse of such Person, or any relative of such spouse, who has the same residence as such Person or who is a director or officer of the Corporation or any of its parents or Subsidiaries.

(4) A Person shall be a beneficial owner of any Voting Stock (i) which such Person beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or (ii) which such Person has the right to acquire (whether such right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time) upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options or otherwise.

(5) The term Business Combination shall mean any of the following transactions:

(a) any merger or consolidation of the Corporation of any Subsidiary with any Acquiring Stockholder irrespective of which entity is the survivor; or

(b) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions), to or with any Acquiring Stockholder of any properties or assets of the Corporation or any Subsidiary, having an aggregate fair market or book value, whichever is greater, equal to twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the total assets reflected on a balance sheet of the Corporation as of a date no earlier than ninety (90) days prior to any such transaction; or

(c) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions), to or with the Corporation or a Subsidiary, of any properties or assets of an Acquiring Stockholder having an aggregate fair market or book value, whichever is greater, equal to twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the total assets reflected on a balance sheet of the Corporation as of a date no earlier than ninety (90) days prior to any such transaction; or

(d) the issuance, transfer or delivery by the Corporation or a Subsidiary of stock or other securities of the Corporation or of any Subsidiary (in one transaction or a series of transactions) to or with any Acquiring Stockholder (except any issuance, transfer or delivery made to security holders of the Acquiring Stockholder generally); or

(e) the issuance, transfer or delivery by an Acquiring Stockholder of stock or other securities of such Acquiring Stockholder (in one transaction or a series of transactions) to or with the Corporation or a Subsidiary (except in any issuance, transfer or delivery made to security holders of the Acquiring Stockholder generally); or

(f) the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation proposed by or on behalf of an Acquiring Stockholder; or

(g) any reclassification of securities (including any reverse stock split), or recapitalization of the Corporation, or any merger or consolidation of the Corporation with any of its Subsidiaries or any other transaction (whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an Acquiring Stockholder) which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class of equity or convertible securities of the Corporation or any Subsidiary which is directly or indirectly owned by any Acquiring Stockholder; or

(h) any agreement, arrangement, contract or understanding which provides, in whole or in part, for any of the transactions described in this subsection (5).

(6) Continuing Director means any member of the Board who is not an Affiliate or Associate of the Acquiring Stockholder and was a member of the Board prior to the time that the Acquiring Stockholder became an Acquiring Stockholder, and any other director who is not an Affiliate or Associate of the Acquiring Stockholder and is specifically approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the Continuing Directors on the Board at the time of such director's initial election to the Board.

(7) Control shall mean the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

(8) Person means any corporation, partnership, association, trust, business entity, estate or individual; two or more Persons who act together for the purpose of acquiring, holding or disposing of securities of this Corporation shall be deemed to be one Person.

(9) Subsidiary means any Person of which a majority of any class of equity security is beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation; provided, however, that for the purposes of the definition of Acquiring Stockholder, the term Subsidiary shall mean only a Person of which a majority of each class of equity security is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation.

(10) Voting Stock means the then outstanding shares of all classes of capital stock of the Corporation which are entitled to vote for the election of directors of the Corporation.

(B) In addition to any affirmative vote required by law or this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, and except as provided in Section (C) below, any Business Combination shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of the Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. Such affirmative vote shall be required notwithstanding the fact that no vote may be required or that a lesser percentage may be specified by law or in any agreement with any national securities exchange or otherwise.

(C) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Section (B) above shall not be applicable if any of the following conditions are satisfied with respect to any particular Business Combination.

(1) The Business Combination shall have been approved in writing by a majority of the Continuing Directors.

(2) The Business Combination shall have been approved by a duly adopted resolution of the Board prior to the acquisition by the Acquiring Stockholder of more than 5% of the voting power of the Voting Stock.

(3) The Business Combination is solely between the Corporation and another Person of which 50% or more of the outstanding stock or other relevant equity interests entitled to vote in an election of directors is owned by the Corporation.

(D) A majority of the Continuing Directors shall have the power and duty to determine, for purposes of this Article and on the basis of information known to them:

(1) Whether the proposed Business Combination is within the scope of this Article; and

(2) Whether a stockholder is an Acquiring Stockholder.

Such determination, if made in good faith, shall be binding upon all parties.

(E) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to relieve any Acquiring Stockholder from any fiduciary obligation imposed by law. Nothing herein shall be construed to impose any fiduciary duty, obligation or responsibility on the Board or any member thereof to approve any Business Combination or recommend its adoption or approval to the stockholders of the Corporation, nor limit, prohibit or otherwise restrict in any manner the Board or any member thereof with respect to evaluations of or actions and responses taken with respect to such Business Combination, other than as required by applicable law.

(F) To the maximum extent permissible under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, stockholders of the Corporation shall be entitled to the statutory appraisal rights provided therein, notwithstanding any exception otherwise provided therein, with respect to any Business Combination involving the Corporation and any Acquiring Stockholder or Affiliate of an Acquiring Stockholder which, pursuant to this Article, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total voting power of all outstanding shares of Voting Stock of the Corporation.

TENTH: In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board is expressly authorized, subject, however, to other applicable provision in this Certificate of Incorporation, to designate by resolution or resolutions passed by a majority of the whole board, one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation, which, to the extent provided in said resolution or resolutions or in the By-Laws of the Corporation, shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may have power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation or as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board. The foregoing notwithstanding, any delegation to a committee of the power of the Board to take such actions as would require a greater than majority vote or a specified vote of a specified class of the directors in order for the Board itself to adopt such actions must be made by such greater than majority vote or such specified vote of the specified class of directors.

ELEVENTH: (A) In order to induce officers, directors, employees or agents of this Corporation to serve or continue to serve as its officers or directors, or to serve or to continue to serve at the request of this Corporation as director or officer of another corporation, in consideration of such service this Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each such person now or hereafter so serving from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which he may be or become subject to reason of his now hereafter being or having heretofore been a director or officer of this Corporation, or by reason of having served as a director or officer of another corporation or enterprise at the request of this Corporation, by reason of his alleged acts or omissions as director or officer as aforesaid, and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with defending against any such claims or liabilities, to the full extent permitted in Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or any successor statute. The foregoing right of indemnification shall in no way be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such officer or director may be entitled, under any By-Law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(B) To the full extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, a director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

(C) Any amendment, modification or repeal of this Article ELEVENTH shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such amendment, modification or repeal.

TWELFTH: No action shall be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation except at an annual or special meeting of stockholders.

THIRTEENTH: (A) New By-Laws of the Corporation may be adopted or the By-Laws of the Corporation may be amended or repealed by a vote of either a majority of the directors of the Corporation or a majority of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the Corporation; provided, however, that any By-Laws concerning the election or removal of directors, the range of the number of directors, the exact number of directors within such range or the method of fixing either such range or the exact number of directors within such range, the classification of the Board, the filling of vacancies on the Board, the requirement that all stockholder action must be taken at an annual or special meeting, the calling of special meetings of the stockholders, or the method of adopting, amending or repealing of By-Laws may not be amended, adopted or repealed, nor shall any other By-Law be amended, adopted or repealed which will have the effect of modifying or permitting the circumvention of such By-Laws, unless such adoption, amendment or repeal is approved by the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Continuing Directors (where such adoption, amendment or repeal may be effected by the Board) or by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the Corporation. The foregoing notwithstanding, in case of any irreconcilable inconsistency between this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Corporation, provisions in this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation shall prevail.

(B) The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereinafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred to stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions set forth in Articles FOURTH, FIFTH, SIXTH, SEVENTH, EIGHTH, NINTH, the last sentence of Article TENTH, TWELFTH and this Article THIRTEENTH may not be repealed or amended in any respect, nor may any cumulative voting provisions be amended, adopted or repealed which would have the effect of modifying or permitting circumvention of such provisions, unless such repeal, amendment or adoption is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has caused this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to be duly executed in its corporate name by its duly authorized officer.

These Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "By-Laws") of AbitibiBowater Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"), shall become effective upon the closing (the "Closing") of the transactions contemplated by that certain Combination Agreement and Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 29, 2007 (as amended, the "Combination Agreement"), among the Corporation, Bowater Incorporated ("Bowater"), Alpha-Bravo Merger Sub Inc., Bowater Canada Inc. and Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. ("Abitibi").

ARTICLE I

Meetings of Stockholders

Section 1.1. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Corporation's stockholders for the election of directors and for such other matters as may be properly brought before the stockholders' meeting shall be held in each year on such date and at such time and place either within or without the State of Delaware as shall be determined by resolution of the Corporation's Board of Directors (the "Board").

Any business properly brought before an annual meeting of stockholders may be transacted at that meeting. To be properly brought before an annual meeting, the business must be (i) specified in the written notice of the meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board or otherwise brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board, or (ii) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given written notice of the proposed business, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Corporation, such that the Secretary shall receive such notice at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting or not later than ten (10) days after notice or public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting shall be given or made to stockholders, whichever date shall be earlier. Subject to Section 1.11 of these By-Laws, any such notice shall set forth the following as to each item of business the stockholder shall propose to bring before the annual meeting:

- (a) a description of such item of business and the reasons for conducting it at such meeting and, in the event that such item of business shall include a proposal to amend either the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the text of the proposed amendment;
- (b) the name and address of the stockholder proposing such item of business;
- (c) the class and number of shares held of record, held beneficially and represented by proxy by such stockholder as of the record date for the meeting (if such a date has been established) and as of the date of such notice and a representation that the stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such item of business; and
- (d) any material interest of the stockholder in such item of business.

Only business that shall have been properly brought before an annual meeting of stockholders in accordance with these By-Laws shall be conducted at such meeting, and the officer or other person presiding over the meeting as provided in Section 1.5 of these By-Laws shall refuse to permit any business to be brought before such meeting that shall not have been properly brought before it in accordance with these By-Laws.

Section 1.2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called only by the Board, the Chairman (as defined in Section 4.1), the President and CEO (as defined in Section 4.1), or a committee of the Board which has been duly designated by the Board and whose powers and authority, as provided in a resolution of the Board or in these By-Laws, include the power to call such meetings, and special meetings may not be called by any other person or persons. Each such call shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. The place of the meeting may be any place stated in the call, within or outside the State of Delaware.

Section 1.3. Notice of Meetings. Notice of each annual or special meeting of the stockholders stating the place, day and hour thereof and the purposes for which the meeting is to be held shall be given in the manner specified by Section 7.3 by the Secretary (or by a person designated for the purpose either by the Secretary or by the person or persons calling the meeting or by the Board), not less than ten (10) or more than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting, except that where the matter to be acted on is a merger or consolidation of the Corporation, or a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of its assets, such notice shall be given not less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days prior to such meeting.

Section 1.4. Action; Quorum. No action shall be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation except at an annual or special meeting of stockholders. At any meeting of the stockholders, unless otherwise provided by law or by the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of shares of stock of the Corporation representing at least one-third of the voting power of the stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote upon a question to be considered at the meeting, present in person or by proxy, shall be necessary to and shall constitute a quorum for the consideration of such question. If at any time the Corporation has outstanding shares of stock (contingent vote shares) the voting power of which is dependent upon the receipt by the record holder of such contingent vote shares of instructions from holders of securities of a subsidiary of the Corporation, then for purposes of determining the voting power of the stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote upon a question to be considered at the meeting, the record holder of such contingent vote shares shall be deemed to have received instructions from each holder of such subsidiary securities entitled to provide such instructions, and for the purposes of determining the voting power of the shares of stock present in person or by proxy at such meeting, such contingent vote shares shall only have the voting power to which they would otherwise be entitled based on the instructions actually received by such record holder. If, however, a meeting of stockholders cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken of the time and place of the adjourned meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. In case of a meeting for the election of directors, such meeting may be adjourned only from day to day or for such longer periods, not exceeding fifteen (15) days each, until such directors have been elected. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted had a quorum been present at the time originally fixed for the meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 1.5. Organization. Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairman, or in his or her absence by the President and CEO, or in his or her absence by a Vice President, or in the absence of the foregoing persons by a chairperson designated by the Board, or in the absence of such designation by a chairperson chosen at the meeting. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his or her absence the chairperson of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Each stockholder having the right to vote shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to vote in person or by proxy; and unless otherwise provided by statute or the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each outstanding share registered in its name on the books of the Corporation as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting.

Each proxy shall be in writing, executed by the stockholder giving the proxy or by his attorney thereunto authorized, or by a facsimile or other electronic means, filed with the Secretary of the Corporation, but no proxy shall be voted after three (3) years from its date, unless the proxy expressly provides for a longer period. A proxy, unless coupled with an interest, shall be revocable at will, notwithstanding any other agreement or any provision in the proxy to the contrary, but the revocation of a proxy shall not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the Secretary of the Corporation. A proxy shall not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker unless, before the vote is counted or the authority is exercised, written notice of such death or incapacity is given to the Secretary of the Corporation.

Section 1.7. Fixing Date for Determination of Stockholders of Record. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders of any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. If no record date is fixed, then (i) the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and (ii) the record date for determining stockholders of record for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting in which case notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 1.8. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of meeting or (ii) during ordinary business hours at the principal place of business of the Corporation. The list of stockholders must also be open to examination at the meeting as required by applicable law. Except as otherwise provided by law, the stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list of stockholders or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 1.9. Inspectors of Election. The Corporation may, and shall if required by law, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors of election, who may be employees of the Corporation, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof and to make a written report thereof. The Corporation may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector so appointed or designated is able to act at a meeting of stockholders, the person presiding at the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath to execute faithfully the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. Such certification and report shall specify such other information as may be required by law. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots cast at any meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, the inspectors may consider such information as is permitted by applicable law. No person who is a candidate for an office at an election may serve as an inspector at such election.

Section 1.10. Conduct of Meetings. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting by the person presiding over the meeting. The Board may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board, the person presiding over any meeting of stockholders shall have the right and authority to convene and to adjourn the meeting, to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such presiding person, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board or prescribed by the presiding person of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to stockholders of record of the Corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as the presiding person of the meeting shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. The presiding person at any meeting of stockholders, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the meeting, shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a matter or business was not properly brought before the meeting and if such presiding person should so determine, such presiding person shall so declare to the meeting and any such matter or business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted or considered. Unless and to the extent determined by the Board or the person presiding over the meeting, meetings of stockholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.

Section 1.11. Notification of Nominations. Subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of stock having a preference over the Corporation's common stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, nominations for the election of directors may be submitted to the Corporation's Nominating Committee (as defined in Section 3.3) by the Board or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors at a meeting may nominate persons for election as directors only if written notice of the intent of such stockholder to make such nomination shall be given, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the appropriate member of the Nominating Committee not later than (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors, the close of business on the seventh (7th) day following the date on which notice of such meeting shall first be given to stockholders. The Nominating Committee or the officer or other person presiding over the meeting as provided in Section 1.5 of these By-Laws shall refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure.

We have not been provided with any detailed forecasts or projections concerning the future financial performance of Abitibi, Bowater or Parent. However, with respect to any information extracted from any budget or other financial information provided to us and relied upon in our analysis, we have assumed (subject to the exercise of our professional judgment) that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the most reasonable assumptions, estimates and judgements of the Company's management, having regard to the Company's plans, financial condition and prospects. Without limiting the foregoing, we have not completed site visits to Abitibi's or Bowater's properties and have not met with Abitibi's or Bowater's independent auditors and we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and fair presentation of the audited financial statements of Abitibi and Bowater and the reports of the auditors thereon. Members of the Board:

You have asked us to advise you with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock, no par value (Company Common Stock), of Abitibi-Consolidated Inc. (the Company), of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) set forth in the Combination Agreement and Agreement and Plan of Merger Agreement dated January 29, 2007 (the Combination Agreement) and the related Plan of Arrangement under Section 192 of the Canada Business Corporations Act, as amended (the Plan of Arrangement), and, together with the Combination Agreement, the Implementing Documents), among Abitibi-Bowater Holdings Inc. (Parent), the Company, Bowater Incorporated (Bowater), Abitibi-Bowater Merger Sub Inc. a wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of the Parent (Merger Sub) and Bowater Canada Inc., a wholly owned Canadian subsidiary of Bowater (Exchange Co). The Implementing Documents provide for the combination of the Company and Bowater in a merger of equals transaction (the Combination). Pursuant to the Implementing Documents (i) each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, other than shares of Company Common Stock held by Dissenting Shareholders (as defined in the Plan of Arrangement), will be exchanged for either 0.06261 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Parent Common Stock) of Parent, or at the option of holders of Company Common Stock who are resident in Canada and not exempt from tax for purposes of the Income Tax (Canada) Act (Canadian Resident Shareholders), 0.06261 shares of common stock, (Exchange Co Common Stock) of Exchange Co, and (ii) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Bowater and each outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share (Bowater Common Stock) of Bowater will be converted into the right to receive 0.52000 of a share of Parent Common Stock. Pursuant to the Implementing Documents, the holders of shares of Company Common Stock and Bowater Common Stock will receive shares of Parent Common Stock constituting, after giving effect to the exchange of all issued and outstanding shares of Exchange Co, an aggregate of approximately 48% and 52%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock on the closing date of the Combination. Each share of Exchange Co Common Stock will, at the option of the holder thereof, be exchangeable into one share of Parent Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Exchangeable Share Provisions (as such term is defined the Plan of Arrangement). The respective number of shares of Parent Common Stock and Exchange Co Common Stock to be received in exchange for each share of Company Common Stock is hereinafter collectively referred to as the Exchange Ratio .

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the Implementing Documents, as well as certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company and Bowater. We have also reviewed certain other information relating to the Company and Bowater, including certain information prepared by and provided to us by managements of the Company and Bowater regarding their respective business and prospects (Management Estimates) and certain publicly available estimates and forecasts (and sensitivities thereto discussed with the Company's management) relating to the business and prospects of each of the Company and Bowater prepared by certain research analysts (the Adjusted Street Estimates), and, together with the Management Estimates, the Selected Data), and have met with the managements of the Company and Bowater to discuss the business and prospects of the Company and Bowater, respectively. We have also reviewed certain estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the Combination, as prepared and provided to us by the managements of the Company and Bowater. We have also considered certain financial and stock market data of the Company and Bowater, and we have compared that data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses we deemed similar to those of the Company and Bowater, and we have considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and other transactions that have been effected or announced. We also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria that we deemed relevant.

In connection with our review, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of the foregoing information and have relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. The Company and Bowater have informed us that the Company and Bowater do not have, and therefore we have not been provided with or reviewed, any financial forecasts with respect to the future financial performance of the Company's or Bowater's respective businesses for any period beyond 2007. With respect to the financial forecasts for the Company and Bowater for 2007 included in the Selected Data, the managements of the Company and Bowater have advised us, and we have assumed, that such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of the Company and Bowater as to the future financial performance of the Company and Bowater, respectively. With respect to the other Selected Data that we have reviewed, you have advised us, and we have assumed that, for purposes of our analyses and this opinion, they represent a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the relative future financial performance of the Company and Bowater. With respect to the estimates provided to us by the managements of the Company and Bowater of the cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the Combination, we have been advised by the managements of the Company and Bowater, and we have assumed, that such estimates have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of the Company and Bowater as to such cost savings and other combination benefits and will be realized in the times and the amounts indicated thereby. We have also assumed, with your consent, that shares of Exchange Co Common Stock and Parent Common Stock are identical in all respects material to our analyses. We have also relied, with your consent and without independent verification, upon the estimates of the Company and Bowater as to their anticipated utilization of their respective tax attributes. We have assumed that certain assets of the Company and Bowater will be sold, and that the Company will acquire certain assets of an existing partnership and the interests of a minority partner, at the times and in the amounts described to us by managements of the Company and Bowater. You have informed us, and we have assumed, that the exchange of shares of Company Common Stock will be treated as a tax-free exchange for Canadian Resident Shareholders that elect to receive shares of Exchange Co Common Stock and all U.S. holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Income Tax (Canada) Act, as applicable. We were also not provided with certain information concerning the Company and Bowater that the Company reasonably considered to be subject to attorney/client privilege or competitively sensitive. We have been advised, and have assumed, that such information would not adversely affect our analyses or this opinion in any material respect. We have also assumed, with your consent, that, in the course of obtaining any U.S. or Canadian regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Combination, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, Bowater or Exchange Co or the contemplated benefits of the Combination, and that the Combination will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Implementing Documents without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. In addition, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company, Bowater or Exchange Co, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Our opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock of the Exchange Ratio and does not address any other aspect or implication of the Combination or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Combination or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information made available to us as of the date hereof and financial, economic, market and other conditions, including currency exchange rates, as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to the actual value of the shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchange Co Common Stock, as applicable, when issued to the holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Combination or the prices at which shares of Parent Common Stock or Exchange Co Common Stock will trade at any time. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Combination as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to the Company, nor does it address the Company's underlying business decision to effect the Combination. We were not requested to, and did not, solicit third party indications of interest in acquiring all or any part of the Company.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Combination and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Combination. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities and other matters arising out of our engagement. From time to time, we and our affiliates have in the past provided, are currently providing and may in the future provide, investment banking and other financial services to the Company and Parent, and have in the past, and may in the future provide, such services to Bowater, for which we have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. We are a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as providing investment banking advice and other financial services. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may acquire, hold or sell, for our and our affiliates own accounts and the accounts of customers, debt, equity and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of the Company, Bowater and Parent.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Combination and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed Combination.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

Pursuant to the Agreement (the following and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement being referred to collectively as the Transaction): (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Bowater (the Merger); (ii) each issued and outstanding share of Bowater Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.52000 (the Bowater Exchange Ratio) of a share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Parent Common Stock), of Parent; (iii) immediately prior to the Merger each Outstanding Exchangeable Share will be converted into a fraction of a new exchangeable share, no par value (New Exchangeable Shares), of ExchangeCo equal to the Bowater Exchange Ratio or, in certain circumstances, immediately prior to the Merger the Outstanding Exchangeable Shares will be redeemed in accordance with their terms; and (iv) each issued and outstanding common share, no par value (ACI Common Stock), of ACI will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, 0.06261 (the ACI Exchange Ratio) of a share of Parent Common Stock or a fraction of a New Exchangeable Share equal to the ACI Exchange Ratio. Each Outstanding Exchangeable Share is currently exchangeable into one share of Bowater Common Stock and, following the Transaction, each New Exchangeable Share will be exchangeable into one share of Parent Common Stock. As a result of the Transaction, Bowater and ACI will become wholly owned subsidiaries of Parent.

We have acted as financial advisor to Bowater in connection with, and have participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Transaction. We expect to receive fees for our services in connection with the Transaction, the principal portion of which are contingent upon consummation of the Transaction, and Bowater has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In addition, we have provided services to Bowater and ACI from time to time. We also may provide investment banking services to Parent, Bowater and ACI in the future. In connection with the above-described services we have received, and may receive, compensation.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and its affiliates may provide such services to Bowater, ACI and their respective affiliates, may actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of Bowater, ACI and ExchangeCo for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions of such securities.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; annual reports to stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Bowater for the five fiscal years ended December 31, 2005; annual reports to shareholders of ACI filed with Canadian securities regulatory authorities for the five fiscal years ended December 31, 2005; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Bowater; certain interim reports to shareholders of ACI filed with Canadian securities regulatory authorities; certain other communications from Bowater and ACI to their respective stockholders; certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Bowater prepared by its management and certain financial analyses and forecasts for ACI prepared by the management of Bowater (collectively, the Bowater Management Forecasts); certain estimates for ACI prepared by its management; certain financial forecasts and estimates for Bowater and ACI prepared by management of Bowater and ACI utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007; and certain cost savings and operating synergies projected by the management of Bowater and ACI to result from the Transaction (the Synergies). We also have held discussions with members of the senior management of Bowater and ACI regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Transaction and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Bowater and ACI. In addition, we have reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the shares of Bowater Common Stock and the shares of ACI Common Stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for Bowater and ACI with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the paper and forest products sector specifically and other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as we considered appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that: (i) the Bowater Management Forecasts have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Bowater; (ii) the Synergies have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Bowater and ACI; (iii) each Outstanding Exchangeable Share is the equivalent of a share of Bravo Common Stock, with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Bravo Common Stock, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law; (iv) the New Exchangeable Shares to be issued to the holders of Outstanding Exchangeable Shares will preserve for such holders the additional tax deferral features referred to above; and (v) each New Exchangeable Share will be, when issued, the equivalent of a share of Parent Common Stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Transaction, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law. We have assumed that the Bowater Management Forecasts, including the Synergies, will be realized. We further have assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on Parent, Bowater, ACI or ExchangeCo or on the expected benefits of the Transaction in any way meaningful to our analysis. In addition, we have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Bowater or ACI or any of their respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Bowater to engage in the Transaction, nor are we expressing any opinion as to the prices at which shares of any of Parent Common Stock, Bowater Common Stock, ACI Common Stock, Outstanding Exchangeable Shares or New Exchangeable Shares will trade at any time. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of Bowater in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Bowater Common Stock or Outstanding Exchangeable Shares should vote with respect to such Transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Bowater Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Bowater Common Stock and the holders of Outstanding Exchangeable Shares.

Very truly yours,

The Board of Directors

Bowater Incorporated

55 East Camperdown Way

P.O. Box 1028

Greenville, South Carolina 29602

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Bowater Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (Bowater), is considering a transaction (the Transaction) whereby Bowater will enter into a business combination with Abitibi Consolidated Inc., a corporation amalgamated under the laws of Canada (ACI), as a result of which Bowater and ACI will become wholly-owned subsidiaries of Alpha-Bravo Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation formed by Bowater and ACI for purposes of the Transaction (Parent). Pursuant to the terms of a Combination Agreement and Agreement and Plan of Merger (including the Plan of Arrangement attached thereto), draft dated as of January 27, 2007 (the Agreement), by and among Parent, ACI, Bowater, Alpha-Bravo Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and Bowater Canada Inc., a corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada and a subsidiary of Bowater (ExchangeCo): (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Bowater (the Merger); (ii) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value of $1.00 per share, of Bowater (Bowater Common Stock), will be converted into the right to receive 0.52000 (the Bowater Exchange Ratio) of a share of common stock, par value $0.01, of Parent (Parent Common Stock); (iii) immediately prior to the Merger each issued and outstanding exchangeable share, no par value, of ExchangeCo (Outstanding Exchangeable Shares) will be converted into a fraction of a new exchangeable share, no par value, of Bowater Canada (New Exchangeable Shares) equal to the Bowater Exchange Ratio or, in certain circumstances, immediately prior to the Merger the Outstanding Exchangeable Shares will be redeemed in accordance with their terms; and (iv) each issued and outstanding common share, no par value, of ACI (ACI Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive for each share of ACI Common Stock, at the election of the holder thereof, 0.06261 (the ACI Exchange Ratio) of a share of Parent Common Stock or a fraction of a New Exchangeable Share equal to the ACI Exchange Ratio. Each Outstanding Exchangeable Share is currently exchangeable into one share of Bowater Common Stock and, following the Transaction, each New Exchangeable Share will be exchangeable into one share of Parent Common Stock. The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater Common Stock and the holders of Outstanding Exchangeable Shares, of the Bowater Exchange Ratio.

UBS Securities LLC (UBS) has acted as financial advisor to Bowater in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for its services, a portion of which is payable in connection with this opinion and a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. In the past, UBS and its affiliates have provided investment banking services to Bowater and ACI unrelated to the proposed Transaction, for which UBS and its affiliates have received compensation. In addition, UBS or an affiliate is a participant in a credit facility of Bowater for which it has received and continues to receive fees and interest payments. In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers, securities of Bowater, ACI and/or ExchangeCo and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction or any related transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Bowater or Bowater's underlying business decision to effect the Transaction or any related transaction. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Bowater Common Stock or Outstanding Exchangeable Shares as to how such holder should vote or act with respect to the Transaction or any related transaction. At your direction, we have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the terms, other than the Bowater Exchange Ratio to the extent expressly specified herein, of the Agreement or any related documents or the form of the Transaction or any related transaction. We express no opinion as to what the value of Parent Common Stock or New Exchangeable Shares will be when issued pursuant to the Transaction or the prices at which Parent Common Stock, Bowater Common Stock, ACI Common Stock, Outstanding Exchangeable Shares or New Exchangeable Shares will trade at any time. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that (i) the final executed form of the Agreement does not differ in any material respect from the draft that we have examined, (ii) the parties to the Agreement will comply with all the material terms of the Agreement and (iii) the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any adverse waiver or amendment of any material term or condition thereof. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any material adverse effect on Parent, ACI, Bowater, ExchangeCo and/or the Transaction. We have not been authorized to solicit and have not solicited indications of interest in a business combination with Bowater from any party.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Bowater and ACI; (ii) reviewed the current and historical market prices of Bowater Common Stock and ACI Common Stock; (iii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of Bowater that were provided to us by Bowater and not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by the management of Bowater; (iv) reviewed certain financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of ACI that were provided to us by Bowater and not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by the management of Bowater (such forecasts and estimates, together with the forecasts and estimates referred to in clause (iii) above, the Bowater Management Forecasts); (v) reviewed certain financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of ACI that were provided to us by Bowater and ACI and not publicly available, including estimates prepared by the management of ACI; (vi) reviewed certain financial analyses and forecasts relating to Bowater and ACI prepared by the managements of Bowater and ACI utilizing certain third-party pricing assumptions for 2007; (vii) reviewed certain estimates of synergies that were provided to us by Bowater and not publicly available, including estimates of synergies prepared by the managements of Bowater and ACI (the Synergies); (viii) conducted discussions with members of the senior managements of Bowater and ACI concerning the businesses and financial prospects of Bowater and ACI; (ix) considered certain pro forma effects of the Transaction on the financial statements of Parent for calendar years 2007, 2008 and 2009 and certain pro forma effects of the Transaction relative to the projected earnings per share of Bowater Common Stock for calendar years 2008 and 2009 on a standalone basis; (x) reviewed the Agreement; and (xi) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered such other information, as we deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with our review, with your consent, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information reviewed by us for the purpose of this opinion and have, with your consent, relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, with your consent, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bowater or ACI, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We have assumed, at your direction, that (i) the Bowater Management Forecasts have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Bowater as to the future performance of Bowater and ACI; (ii) the Synergies have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Bowater and ACI; (iii) each Outstanding Exchangeable Share is the equivalent of a share of Bowater Common Stock, with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Bowater Common Stock, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law; (iv) the New Exchangeable Shares to be issued to the holders of Outstanding

Exchangeable Shares will preserve for such holders the additional tax deferral features referred to above; and (v) each New Exchangeable Share will be, when issued, the equivalent of a share of Parent Common Stock with respect to all economic and voting matters incident to the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Transaction, except for certain additional tax deferral features under Canadian tax law. In addition, we have assumed, with your approval, that the Bowater Management Forecasts and the Synergies will be achieved at the times and in the amounts projected.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that the Transaction will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a transfer of property described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Bowater Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Bowater Common Stock and the holders of Outstanding Exchangeable Shares.

This opinion is provided for the benefit of the Board of Directors in connection with, and for the purpose of, its consideration of the Transaction.

Very truly yours,

(4) A dissenting shareholder may only claim under this section with respect to all the shares of a class held on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the dissenting shareholder.

Objection 190(5)

(5) A dissenting shareholder shall send to the corporation, at or before any meeting of shareholders at which a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is to be voted on, a written objection to the resolution, unless the corporation did not give notice to the shareholder of the purpose of the meeting and of their right to dissent.

Payment 190(14)

(14) Subject to subsection (26), a corporation shall pay for the shares of a dissenting shareholder within ten days after an offer made under subsection (12) has been accepted, but any such offer lapses if the corporation does not receive an acceptance thereof within thirty days after the offer has been made.

(15) Where a corporation fails to make an offer under subsection (12), or if a dissenting shareholder fails to accept an offer, the corporation may, within fifty days after the action approved by the resolution is effective or within such further period as a court may allow, apply to a court to fix a fair value for the shares of any dissenting shareholder.

Parties 190(19)

(19) On an application to a court under subsection (15) or (16),

(a) all dissenting shareholders whose shares have not been purchased by the corporation shall be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court; and

(b) the corporation shall notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of their right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

Powers of court 190(20)

(20) On an application to a court under subsection (15) or (16), the court may determine whether any other person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders.

(22) The final order of a court shall be rendered against the corporation in favour of each dissenting shareholder and for the amount of the shares as fixed by the court.

Interest 190(23)

(23) A court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the date the action approved by the resolution is effective until the date of payment.

Notice that subsection (26) applies 190(24)

(24) If subsection (26) applies, the corporation shall, within ten days after the pronouncement of an order under subsection (22), notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

Effect where subsection (26) applies 190(25)

(25) If subsection (26) applies, a dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within thirty days after receiving a notice under subsection (24), may

- (b) retain a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.

Limitation 190(26)

(26) A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
