Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In connection with the resignation of Michael E. McGrath described in Item 5.02 below, on July 30, 2007 Mr. McGrath and i2 Technologies, Inc. (i2 or the Company) entered into an Agreement (the Resignation Agreement) and Mr. McGrath executed a general release in favor of i2 and certain other persons (the General Release). Copies of the Resignation Agreement and the General Release are attached as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively.

Pursuant to the Resignation Agreement, Mr. McGrath resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of i2 effective July 30, 2007. Under the terms of the Resignation Agreement, until October 31, 2007 Mr. McGrath will remain employed by i2 as the Company s CEO Emeritus. Mr. McGrath agreed that he shall resign from his position as CEO Emeritus on October 31, 2007. Mr. McGrath shall not be an officer of the Company and his only duties and responsibilities as CEO Emeritus shall be to assist the Board of Directors, as requested or directed by the Board, in identifying, selecting, recruiting and interviewing candidates to fill the position of CEO on a permanent basis and in respect of such other strategic matters as may be determined from time to time by the Board in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may terminate Mr. McGrath s employment as CEO Emeritus prior to October 31, 2007 for cause or if Mr. McGrath breaches or violates any of the terms of the Resignation Agreement or the General Release.

Pursuant to the Resignation Agreement, the Company agreed to pay Mr. McGrath (i) the sum of $150,000, $10,000 of which is to be paid as consideration for Mr. McGrath s execution of the General Release, and (ii) a base salary equal to $20,000 per month through and until October 31, 2007, payable in accordance with the Company s normal payroll practices. The Resignation Agreement also provides for the continuation of Mr. McGrath s entitlements under Section 1.5.2 of the Employment Agreement dated February 27, 2005 between Mr. McGrath and the Company (as amended, the Employment Agreement) as well as Mr. McGrath s vested stock option awards. Section 1.5.2 of the Employment Agreement provides, in relevant part, that following a voluntary termination of Mr. McGrath s employment with the Company Mr. McGrath s vested equity instruments shall be exercisable until the later of (a) the 15th day of the third month following the 90th day after the date of such voluntary termination, or (b) December 31 of the calendar year in which occurs the 90th day after the date of such voluntary termination (provided that any unexercised equity instrument shall be cancelled upon the expiration of the stated term of such equity instrument). All of the foregoing benefits are contingent upon Mr. McGrath s compliance with the terms of the Resignation Agreement and the effectiveness of the General Release.

Mr. McGrath is subject to certain confidentiality, non-disparagement, standstill, non-compete and non-solicitation obligations under the terms of the Resignation Agreement.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Except as contemplated by Item 1.01 above, the Company and Mr. McGrath agreed that the Resignation Agreement and an Employee Proprietary Information Agreement executed by Mr. McGrath on or about February 27, 2005 supersede and terminate the Employment Agreement.

The Employment Agreement provided for Mr. McGrath to serve as i2 s Chief Executive Officer and President for a term expiring December 31, 2007, renewable for successive one-year terms by mutual agreement of the Company and Mr. McGrath. Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. McGrath received a salary equivalent to $600,000 per annum. Mr. McGrath could also receive incentive bonuses, which would only be payable at the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Employment Agreement required i2 to provide weekly private jet transportation for Mr. McGrath to and from his residence in Maine, to pay reasonable housing expenses for Mr. McGrath in Dallas, Texas (not to exceed $5,000 per month) and to pay rental car expenses during Mr. McGrath s employment term (not to exceed $1,200 per month). i2 also was required to gross-up the taxable portion of any rental car expenses.

Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. McGrath initially received a restricted stock grant of 50,000 shares of i2 common stock, an option to purchase 230,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $9.01 and an additional option to purchase 190,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $7.60. In addition, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors subsequently granted Mr. McGrath an option to purchase 480,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $13.82. Mr. McGrath has exercised 24,255 of his stock options, and the remainder of the grants are fully vested.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 31, 2007, i2 announced the resignation of Michael E. McGrath as President and CEO of i2, effective on July 30, 2007. The Company had previously announced in May that Mr. McGrath was expected to retire from i2 by the end of the year. Mr. McGrath continues as an i2 director.

i2 also announced that, effective July 30, 2007, Dr. Pallab K. Chatterjee, i2's executive vice president solutions operations and chief delivery officer, was appointed interim CEO of i2.

Dr. Chatterjee, who is 56 years old, joined i2 in January 2000 as chief operating officer and held numerous leadership positions with the Company before assuming the role of executive vice president solutions operations and chief delivery officer in February 2006. From 1976 until joining i2, Dr. Chatterjee served in several key executive officer positions with Texas Instruments, including senior vice president and chief information officer.
