BARCLAYS OBTAINS DNB CONSENT FOR MERGER WITH ABN AMRO

The Board of Directors of Barclays PLC (Barclays) announces that Barclays has today received a Declaration of No Objection (DNO) from the Netherlands Ministry of Finance, in conjunction with De Nederlandsche Bank N.V. (DNB) in respect of the proposed merger with ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO).

On 14 May 2007 Barclays filed an application for a DNO with the DNB in connection with its offer for the shares of ABN AMRO (the Offer). Further to a recommendation from the DNB, the Netherlands Minister of Finance today issued a DNO in respect of the Offer. The DNO is deemed to commence when the Offer becomes unconditional.

The DNO contains specific instructions and limitations which are consistent with Barclays existing plans. The Directors of Barclays believe that Barclays will have no difficulty complying with these requirements. The instructions and limitations are summarised as follows:

Within two months of commencement of the DNO Barclays will submit to the DNB a detailed integration and project organisation plan relating to the merger with ABN AMRO. Barclays will report to the DNB on its project organisation and the execution of its integration plan on a monthly basis.

Barclays has also undertaken not to make any material changes to the organisation set-up of ABN AMRO until the DNB has assessed the integration plan referred to above. Barclays will also ensure that there is sufficient preservation of knowledge in the Management Board and Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

Barclays will submit to the DNB within 30 days of commencement of the DNO an adjusted Contingency Liquidity Plan for ABN AMRO, taking into account the size and commitments of the new organisation.

John Varley, the CEO of Barclays, said:

We welcome the response of the Ministry of Finance and DNB and appreciate their detailed consideration of our application over the last three months. The granting of the DNO is an important milestone in our proposed merger with ABN AMRO. The progress we have made in respect of regulatory and competition filings demonstrates the high degree of deliverability and certainty which the Barclays Offer provides ABN AMRO shareholders. The DNO instructions are in line with our existing plans and we anticipate no difficulty in complying with these requirements.

This is an announcement within the meaning of Article 9b paragraph 1 of the Dutch Securities Market Supervision Decree (Besluit toezicht effectenverkeer 1995).
