To the Managers named in Schedule I hereto

for the Underwriters named in Schedule III hereto

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc., an exempted company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the Company), proposes to issue and sell to the several underwriters named in Schedule III hereto (the Underwriters), for whom you are acting as managers (the Managers), and the shareholder of the Company (the Selling Shareholder) named in Schedule II hereto proposes to sell to the several Underwriters, the number of ordinary shares, $0.01 par value per share, of the Company set forth on Schedule II hereto (the Firm Shares). The Company also proposes to issue and sell, and the Selling Shareholder proposes to sell, to the several Underwriters not more than the number of additional ordinary shares, $0.01 par value per share, set forth in Schedule II hereto (the Additional Shares) if and to the extent that you, as Managers of the offering, shall have determined to exercise, on behalf of the Underwriters, the right to purchase such ordinary shares granted to the Underwriters in Section 3 hereof. The Firm Shares and the Additional Shares are hereinafter collectively referred to as the Shares. The ordinary shares, $0.01 par value per share, of the Company to be outstanding after giving effect to the sales contemplated hereby are hereinafter referred to as the Ordinary Shares. The Company and the Selling Shareholder are hereinafter sometimes collectively referred to as the Sellers. If the firm or firms listed in Schedule III hereto include only the Managers listed in Schedule I hereto, then the terms Underwriters and Managers as used herein shall each be deemed to refer to such firm or firms.

The Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) a registration statement, including a prospectus, (the file number of which is set forth in Schedule I hereto) on Form F-3, relating to the securities (the Shelf Securities), including the Shares, to be issued from time to time by the Company. The registration statement as amended to the date of this Agreement, including the information (if any) deemed to be part of the registration statement at the time of effectiveness pursuant to Rule 430A or Rule 430B under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), is hereinafter referred to as the Registration Statement, and the related prospectus covering the Shelf Securities dated July 9, 2007, in the form first used to confirm sales of the Shares (or in the form first made available to the Underwriters by the Company to meet requests of purchasers pursuant to Rule 173 under the Securities Act) is hereinafter referred to as the Basic Prospectus. The Basic Prospectus, as supplemented by the prospectus supplement specifically relating to the Shares in the form first used to confirm sales of the Shares

(or in the form first made available to the Underwriters by the Company to meet requests of purchasers pursuant to Rule 173 under the Securities Act) is hereinafter referred to as the Prospectus, and the term preliminary prospectus means any preliminary form of the Prospectus. For purposes of this Agreement, free writing prospectus has the meaning set forth in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, Time of Sale Prospectus means the preliminary prospectus together with the free writing prospectuses, if any, each identified in Schedule I hereto, and broadly available road show means a bona fide electronic road show as defined in Rule 433(h)(5) under the Securities Act that has been made available without restriction to any person. As used herein, the terms Registration Statement, Basic Prospectus, preliminary prospectus, Time of Sale Prospectus and Prospectus shall include the documents, if any, incorporated by reference therein. The terms supplement, amendment, and amend as used herein with respect to the Registration Statement, the Basic Prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, any preliminary prospectus or free writing prospectus shall include all documents subsequently filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), that are deemed to be incorporated by reference therein.

(b) The Registration Statement has become effective; no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement is in effect, and no proceedings for such purpose are pending before or, to the knowledge of the Company, are threatened by the Commission. If the Registration Statement is an automatic shelf registration statement as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, the Company is a well-known seasoned issuer (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) eligible to use the Registration Statement as an automatic shelf registration statement and the Company has not received notice that the Commission objects to the use of the Registration Statement as an automatic shelf registration statement.

(c) (i) Each document, if any, filed or to be filed pursuant to the Exchange Act and incorporated by reference in the Time of Sale Prospectus or the Prospectus complied or will comply when so filed in all material respects with the Exchange Act and the applicable rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, (ii) each part of the Registration Statement, when such part became effective, did

(d) The Company is not an ineligible issuer in connection with the offering pursuant to Rules 164, 405 and 433 under the Securities Act. Any free writing prospectus that the Company is required to file pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act has been, or will be, filed with the Commission in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act and the applicable rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder. Each free writing prospectus that the Company has filed, or is required to file, pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act or that was prepared by or behalf of or used or referred to by the Company complies or will comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act and the applicable rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder. (l) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries, nor, to the knowledge of the Company, any of their respective affiliates, has taken any action which is designed to or which has constituted or which might have been reasonably expected to cause or result in stabilization or manipulation of the price of any security of the Company in connection with the offering of the Shares.

(m) The execution and delivery by the Company of, and the performance by the Company of its obligations under, this Agreement will not contravene any (i) provision of applicable law or (ii) the memorandum of association or articles of association or other organizational documents of the Company or (iii) any agreement or other instrument binding upon the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or (iv) any judgment, order or decree of any governmental body, agency or court having jurisdiction over the Company or any subsidiary, except, in the case of clauses (iii) and (iv) for such contraventions as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, and no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or qualification with, any governmental body or agency is required for the performance by the Company of its obligations under this Agreement, except such as may be required by the securities or Blue Sky laws of the various states in connection with the offer and sale of the Shares.

(n) There has not occurred any material adverse change, or any development involving a prospective material adverse change, in the condition, financial or otherwise, or in the earnings, business or operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, from that set forth in the Time of Sale Prospectus.

(o) The statements contained in (A) the Time of Sale Prospectus and the Prospectus under the captions Description of Share Capital, Taxation, Enforceability of Civil Liabilities, and Underwriting (other than the statements in the Time of Sale Prospectus and the Prospectus based upon information relating to any Underwriter furnished to the Company in writing by such Underwriter through the Managers expressly for use therein, it being understood and agreed that the only such information is that described in Section 10(a)), (B) the Registration Statement in Item 8 under the caption Indemnification of Directors and Officers and (C) the Annual Report on Form 20-F for the period ended December 29, 2006 in Item 10 under the caption Memorandum and Articles of Association, are accurate in all material respects and present fairly the information purported to be described therein.

The Selling Shareholder is not prompted by any information concerning the Company or its subsidiaries which is not set forth in the Time of Sale Prospectus and the Prospectus to sell its Shares pursuant to this Agreement.

(f) (i) Each part of the Registration Statement, when such part became effective, did not contain and each such part, as amended or supplemented, if applicable, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (ii) the Registration Statement as of the date hereof does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (iii) the Registration Statement and the Prospectus comply and, as amended or supplemented, if applicable, will comply in all material respects with the Securities Act and the applicable rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, (iv) the Time of Sale Prospectus does not, and at the time of each sale of the Shares in connection with the offering when the Prospectus is not yet available to prospective purchasers and at the Closing Date (as defined in Section 5), the Time of Sale Prospectus, as then amended or supplemented by the Company, if applicable, will not, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, (v) each broadly available road show, if any, when considered together with the Time of Sale Prospectus, does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading and (vi) the Prospectus does not contain and, as amended or supplemented, if applicable, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that the representations and warranties set forth in this paragraph 2(f) are limited to statements or omissions made in reliance upon information relating to the Selling Shareholder furnished to the Company in writing by the Selling Shareholder expressly for use in the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale Prospectus, the Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto.

3. Agreements to Sell and Purchase. Each Seller, severally and not jointly, hereby agrees to sell to the several Underwriters the number of Firm Shares set forth in Schedule II hereto opposite its name, and each Underwriter, upon the basis of the representations and warranties herein contained, but subject to the conditions hereinafter stated, agrees, severally and not jointly, to purchase from such Sellers, the number of Firm Shares set forth in Schedule III hereto opposite its name at the purchase price set forth in Schedule I hereto (the Purchase Price ).

On the basis of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, and subject to its terms and conditions, each Seller agrees, severally and not jointly, to sell to the several Underwriters up to the number of Additional Shares set forth in Schedule II hereto opposite its name, and the Underwriters shall have the right to purchase, severally and not jointly, up to the number of Additional Shares set forth in Schedule I hereto at the Purchase Price. Any exercise notice shall specify the number of Additional Shares to be purchased by the Underwriters and the date on which such shares are to be purchased. Each purchase date must be at least one business day after the written notice is given and may not be earlier than the closing date for the Firm Shares nor later than ten business days after the date of such notice. Additional Shares may be purchased as provided in Section 5 hereof solely for the purpose of covering over-allotments made in connection with the offering of the Firm Shares. On each day, if any, that Additional Shares are to be purchased (an Option Closing Date ), (a) each Seller agrees, severally and not jointly, to sell the number of Additional Shares (subject to such adjustments to eliminate fractional shares as you may determine) that bears the same proportion to the total number of Additional Shares to be sold on such Option Closing Date as the number of Firm Shares set forth on Schedule II opposite the name of such Seller bears to the total number of Firm Shares and (b) each Underwriter agrees, severally and not jointly, to purchase the number of Additional Shares (subject to such adjustments to eliminate fractional shares as you may determine) that bears the same proportion to the total number of Additional Shares to be purchased on such Option Closing Date as the number of Firm Shares set forth in Schedule III hereto opposite the name of such Underwriter bears to the total number of Firm Shares.

Each Seller hereby agrees that, without the prior written consent of the Managers identified in Schedule I, it will not, during the restricted period set forth in Schedule I hereto, (1) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Ordinary Shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Ordinary Shares; (2) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the Ordinary Shares, whether any such transaction described in clause (1) or (2) above is to be settled by delivery of Ordinary Shares or such other securities, in cash or otherwise; or (3) file any registration statement with the Commission relating to the offering of any Ordinary Shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Ordinary Shares.

In addition, the Selling Shareholder, agrees that, without the prior written consent of the Managers, it will not, during the 90-day restricted period, make any demand for, or exercise any right with respect to, the registration of any Ordinary Shares or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Ordinary Shares. The Selling Shareholder consents to the entry of stop transfer instructions with the Company's transfer agent and registrar against the transfer of any Shares held by the Selling Shareholder except in compliance with the foregoing restrictions.

4. Public Offering. The Sellers are advised by you that the Underwriters propose to make a public offering of their respective portions of the Shares as soon after the Registration Statement and this Agreement have become effective as in your judgment is advisable. The Company is further advised by you that the Shares are to be offered to the public upon the terms set forth in the Prospectus.

5. Payment and Delivery. Payment for the Firm Shares to be sold by each Seller shall be made to such Seller in Federal or other funds immediately available in New York City on the closing date and time set forth in Schedule I hereto, or at such other time on the same or such other date, not later than the fifth business day thereafter, as may be designated in writing by you. The time and date of such payment are hereinafter referred to as the Closing Date.

Payment for any Additional Shares shall be made to such Seller in Federal or other funds immediately available in New York City, against delivery of such Additional Shares for the respective accounts of the several Underwriters at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date specified in the corresponding notice described in Section 3 or at such other time on the same or on such other date, in any event not later than the tenth business day thereafter, as may be designated in writing by you.

The Firm Shares and the Additional Shares shall be registered in such names and in such denominations as you shall request in writing not later than one full business day prior to the Closing Date or the applicable Option Closing Date, as the case may be, for the respective accounts of the several Underwriters, with any transfer taxes payable in connection with the transfer of the Shares to the Underwriters duly paid, against payment of the Purchase Price therefor.

6. Conditions to the Underwriters' Obligations. The several obligations of the Underwriters are subject to the following conditions:

(a) Subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and prior to the Closing Date:

(i) there shall not have occurred any downgrading, nor shall any notice have been given of any intended or potential downgrading or of any review for a possible change that does not indicate the direction of the possible change, in the rating accorded any of the securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries by any nationally recognized statistical rating organization, as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 436(g)(2) under the Securities Act; and

(ii) there shall not have occurred any change, or any development involving a prospective change, in the condition, financial or otherwise, or in the earnings, business or operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, from that set forth in the Time of Sale Prospectus as of the date of this Agreement that, in your judgment, is material and adverse and that makes it, in your judgment, impracticable to market the Shares on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Time of Sale Prospectus.

(b) The Underwriters shall have received on the Closing Date a certificate, dated the Closing Date and signed by an executive officer of the Company, to the effect set forth in Section 6(a)(i) above and to the effect that the representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement are true and correct as of the Closing Date and that the Company has complied with all of the agreements and satisfied all of the conditions on its part to be performed or satisfied hereunder on or before the Closing Date.

The officer signing and delivering such certificate may rely upon the best of his or her knowledge as to proceedings threatened.

- (h) The Company shall have filed the Prospectus with the Commission (including the information required by Rule 430A under the Securities Act) in the manner and within the time period required by Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act; or the Company shall have filed a post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement containing the information required by such Rule 430A, and such post-effective amendment shall have become effective.
- (i) All material required to be filed by the Company pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act shall have been filed with the Commission within the applicable time periods prescribed for such filings under such Rule 433.
- (j) No stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, or any post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement, shall be in effect and no proceedings for such purpose pursuant to Rule 401(g)(2) or pursuant to Section 8A under the Securities Act shall have been instituted or threatened by the Commission.

(k) The Shares shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE, and satisfactory evidence of such actions shall have been provided to the Managers.

(l) The Underwriters shall have received, on each of the date hereof and the Closing Date, a letter dated the date hereof or the Closing Date, as the case may be, in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, from Ernst & Young LLP, independent public accountants, containing statements and information of the type ordinarily included in accountants' comfort letters to underwriters with respect to the financial statements and certain financial information contained in the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale Prospectus and the Prospectus; provided that the letter delivered on the Closing Date shall use a cut-off date not earlier than the date hereof.

(m) The lock-up agreements, each substantially in the form of Exhibit E hereto, between you and the executive officers and directors of the Company relating to sales and certain other dispositions of Ordinary Shares or certain other securities, delivered to you on or before the date hereof, shall be in full force and effect on the Closing Date.

The several obligations of the Underwriters to purchase Additional Shares hereunder are subject to the delivery to you on the applicable Option Closing Date of such documents as you may reasonably request with respect to the good standing of the Company, the due authorization and issuance of the Additional Shares to be sold on such Option Closing Date and other matters related to the issuance of such Additional Shares.

7. Covenants of the Company. The Company covenants with each Underwriter as follows:

(a) To furnish to you, without charge, a signed copy of the Registration Statement (including exhibits thereto) and to deliver to each of the Underwriters during the period mentioned in Section 7(e) or 7(f) below, as many copies of the Time of Sale Prospectus, the Prospectus and any supplements and amendments thereto or to the Registration Statement as you may reasonably request.

(b) Before amending or supplementing the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale Prospectus or the Prospectus, to furnish to you a copy of each such proposed amendment or supplement and not to file any such proposed amendment or supplement to which you reasonably object, and to file with the Commission within the applicable period specified in Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act any prospectus required to be filed pursuant to such Rule.

(c) To furnish to you a copy of each proposed free writing prospectus to be prepared by or on behalf of, used by, or referred to by the Company and not to use or refer to any proposed free writing prospectus to which you reasonably object.

(d) Not to take any action that would result in an Underwriter or the Company being required to file with the Commission pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act a free writing prospectus prepared by or on behalf of the Underwriter that the Underwriter otherwise would not have been required to file thereunder.

(e) If the Time of Sale Prospectus is being used to solicit offers to buy the Shares at a time when the Prospectus is not yet available to prospective purchasers and any event shall occur or condition exist as a result of which it is necessary to amend or supplement the Time of Sale Prospectus in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances, not misleading, or if any event shall occur or condition exist as a result of which the Time of Sale Prospectus conflicts with the information contained in the Registration Statement then on file, or if, in the opinion of counsel for the Underwriters, it is necessary to amend or supplement the Time of Sale Prospectus to comply with applicable law, forthwith to prepare, file with the Commission and furnish, at its own expense, to the Underwriters and to any dealer upon request, either amendments or supplements to the Time of Sale Prospectus so that the statements in the Time of Sale Prospectus as so amended or supplemented will not, in the light of the circumstances when the Time of Sale Prospectus is delivered to a prospective purchaser, be misleading or so that the Time of Sale Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, will no longer conflict with the Registration Statement, or so that the Time of Sale Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, will comply with applicable law.

(f) If, during such period after the first date of the public offering of the Shares as in the opinion of counsel for the Underwriters the Prospectus (or in lieu thereof the notice referred to in Rule 173(a) of the Securities Act) is required by law to be delivered in connection with sales by an Underwriter or dealer, any event shall occur or condition exist as a result of which it is necessary to amend or supplement the Prospectus in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances when the Prospectus (or in lieu thereof the notice referred to in Rule 173(a) of the Securities Act) is delivered to a purchaser, not misleading, or if, in the opinion of counsel for the Underwriters, it is necessary to amend or supplement the Prospectus to comply with applicable law, forthwith to prepare, file with the Commission and furnish, at its own expense, to the Underwriters and to the dealers (whose names and addresses you will furnish to the Company) to which Shares may have been sold by you on behalf of the Underwriters and to any other dealers upon request, either amendments or supplements to the Prospectus so that the statements in the Prospectus as so amended or supplemented will not, in the light of the circumstances when the Prospectus (or in lieu thereof the notice referred to in Rule 173(a) of the Securities Act) is delivered to a purchaser, be misleading or so that the Prospectus, as amended or supplemented, will comply with applicable law.

(g) To endeavor to qualify the Shares for offer and sale under the securities or Blue Sky laws of such jurisdictions as you shall reasonably request; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required in connection therewith, as a condition thereof, to qualify as a foreign corporation or to execute a consent to service of process in any jurisdiction or subject itself to taxation as doing business in any jurisdiction if it is not otherwise so subject.

(h) During the prospectus delivery period, the Company will file all documents required to be filed with the Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14 or 15 of the Exchange Act in the manner and within the time periods required by the Exchange Act.

(i) To make generally available to the Company's security holders and to you as soon as practicable an earning statement covering a period of at least twelve months beginning with the first fiscal quarter of the Company occurring after the date of this Agreement which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder.

(j) The Company will not take, directly or indirectly, any action designed to cause or result in, or that has constituted or might reasonably be expected to constitute, under the Exchange Act or otherwise, the stabilization or manipulation of the price of any securities of the Company to facilitate the sale or resale of the Shares.

(k) To prepare a final term sheet relating to the offering of the Shares, containing only information that describes the final terms of the offering in a form consented to by the Managers, and to file such final term sheet within the period required by Rule 433(d)(5)(ii) under the Securities Act following the date the final terms have been established for the offering of the Shares.

8. Covenants of the Underwriters. Each Underwriter severally covenants with the Company not to take any action that would result in the Company being required to file with the Commission under Rule 433(d) a free writing prospectus prepared by or on behalf of such Underwriter that otherwise would not be required to be filed by the Company thereunder, but for the action of the Underwriter.

9. Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated in this Agreement are consummated or this Agreement is terminated, the Sellers agree to pay or cause to be paid all expenses incident to the performance of their obligations under this Agreement, including: (i) the fees, disbursements and expenses of the Company's counsel, the Company's accountants and counsel for the Selling Shareholder in connection with the registration and delivery of the Shares under the Securities Act and all other fees or expenses in connection with the preparation and filing of the Registration Statement, any preliminary prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, the Prospectus, any free writing prospectus prepared by or on behalf of, used by, or referred to by the Company and amendments and supplements to any of the foregoing, including the filing fees payable to the Commission relating to the Shares (within the time required by Rule 456 (b)(1), if applicable), all printing costs associated therewith, and the mailing and delivering of copies thereof to the Underwriters and dealers, in the quantities hereinabove specified, (ii) all costs and expenses related to the transfer and delivery of the Shares to the Underwriters, including any transfer or other taxes payable thereon, (iii) the cost of printing or producing any Blue Sky or Legal Investment memorandum in connection with the offer and sale of the Shares under state securities laws and all expenses in connection with the qualification of the Shares for offer and sale under state securities laws as provided in Section 7(g) hereof, including filing fees and the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel for the Underwriters in connection with such qualification and in connection with the Blue Sky or Legal Investment memorandum, (iv) all costs and expenses incident to listing the Shares on the NYSE, (v) the cost of printing certificates representing the Shares, (vi) the costs and charges of any transfer agent, registrar or depositary, and (vii) all other costs and expenses incident to the performance of the obligations of the Company hereunder for which provision is not otherwise made in this Section. It is understood, however, that except as provided in this Section, Section 10 entitled "Indemnity and Contribution" and the last paragraph of Section 12 below, the Underwriters will pay (x) all of their costs and expenses, including fees and disbursements of their counsel, stock transfer taxes payable on resale of any of the Shares by them and any advertising expenses connected with any offers they may make and (y) the costs and expenses of the Company relating to investor presentations on any road show undertaken in connection with the marketing of the offering of the Shares, including, without limitation, expenses associated with the preparation or dissemination of any electronic road show, expenses associated with the production of road show slides and graphics, fees and expenses of any consultants engaged in connection with the road show presentations, travel and lodging expenses of the representatives and officers of the Company and any such consultants, and the cost of any aircraft chartered in connection with the road show.

10. Indemnity and Contribution. (a) The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter, each person, if any, who controls any Underwriter within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act and each affiliate of any Underwriter within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities (including, without limitation, any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with defending or investigating any such action or claim) caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement or any amendment thereof, any preliminary prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, any issuer free writing prospectus as defined in Rule 433(h) under the Securities Act, any Company information that the Company has filed, or is required to file, pursuant to Rule 433(d) under the Securities Act, or the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities are caused by any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission based upon information relating to any Underwriter furnished to the Company in writing by such Underwriter through you expressly for use therein, it being understood and agreed that the only such information furnished by any Underwriter consists of the tenth paragraph under the caption Underwriting in the Registration Statement, the Time of Sale and the Prospectus.

(b) The Selling Shareholder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter, each person, if any, who controls any Underwriter within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act and each affiliate of any Underwriter within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities (including, without limitation, any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with defending or investigating any such action or claim) to the same extent as the foregoing indemnity in Section 10(a), but only to the extent that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information relating to the Selling Shareholder and furnished by or on behalf of the Selling Shareholder specifically for use in the Registration Statement, any preliminary prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, any issuer free writing prospectus or the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto.

(c) Each Underwriter agrees, severally and not jointly, to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, the Selling Shareholder, the directors of the Company, the officers of the Company who sign the Registration Statement and each person, if any, who controls the Company or the Selling Shareholder within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act to the same extent as the foregoing indemnity in Section 10(a), but only with reference to information relating to such Underwriter furnished to the Company in writing by such Underwriter through you expressly for use in the Registration Statement, any preliminary prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, any issuer free writing prospectus or the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, it being understood and agreed that the only such information is that described in Section 10(a).

(d) In case any proceeding (including any governmental investigation) shall be instituted involving any person in respect of which indemnity may be sought pursuant to Section 10(a), 10(b) or 10(c), such person (the indemnified party) shall promptly notify the person against whom such indemnity may be sought (the indemnifying party) in writing and the indemnifying party, upon request of the indemnified party, shall retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party to represent the indemnified party and any others the indemnifying party may designate in such proceeding and shall pay the fees and disbursements of such counsel related to such proceeding. In any such proceeding, any indemnified party shall have the right to retain its own counsel, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party unless (i) the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall have mutually agreed to the retention of such counsel or (ii) the named parties to any such proceeding (including any impleaded parties) include both the indemnifying party and the indemnified party and representation of both parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them. It is understood that the indemnifying party shall not, in respect of the legal expenses of any indemnified party in connection with any proceeding or related proceedings in the same jurisdiction, be liable for (i) the fees and expenses of more than one separate firm (in addition to any local counsel) for all Underwriters and all persons, if any, who control any Underwriter within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act or who are affiliates of any Underwriter within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act, (ii) the fees and expenses of more than one separate firm (in addition to any local counsel) for the Company, its directors, its officers who sign the Registration Statement and each person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of either such Section and (iii) the fees and expenses of more than one separate firm (in addition to any local counsel) for the Selling Shareholder and all persons, if any, who control the Selling Shareholder within the meaning of either such Section, and that all such fees and expenses shall be reimbursed as they are incurred. In the case of any such separate firm for the Underwriters and any such control persons and affiliates of any Underwriters, any such firm shall be designated in writing by the Manager authorized to appoint counsel under this Section set forth in Schedule I hereto. In the case of any such separate firm for the Company, and such directors, officers and control persons of the Company, such firm shall be designated in writing by the Company. In the case of any such separate firm for the Selling Shareholder and such control persons of the Selling Shareholder, such firm shall be designated in writing by the Selling Shareholder. The indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the indemnifying party agrees to indemnify the indemnified party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an indemnified party shall have requested an indemnifying party to reimburse the indemnified party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated by the second and third sentences of this paragraph, the indemnifying party agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than 30 days after receipt by such indemnifying party of the aforesaid request and (ii) such indemnifying party shall not have reimbursed the indemnified party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding.

(e) To the extent the indemnification provided for in Section 10(a), 10(b) or 10(c) is unavailable to an indemnified party or insufficient in respect of any losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to therein, then each indemnifying party under such paragraph, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party thereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the indemnifying party or parties on the one hand and the indemnified party or parties on the other hand from the offering of the Shares or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause 10(e)(i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause 10(e)(i) above but also the relative fault of the indemnifying party or parties on the one hand and of the indemnified party or parties on the other hand in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Sellers on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand in connection with the offering of the Shares shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as the net proceeds from the offering of the Shares (before deducting expenses) received by each Seller and the total underwriting discounts and commissions received by the Underwriters, in each case as set forth in the table on the cover of the Prospectus, bear to the aggregate public offering price of the Shares set forth in the Prospectus. The relative fault of the Sellers on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Sellers or by the Underwriters and the parties relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The Underwriters' respective obligations to contribute pursuant to this Section 10 are several in proportion to the respective number of Shares they have purchased hereunder, and not joint.

(f) The Sellers and the Underwriters agree that it would not be just or equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 10 were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Underwriters were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in Section 10(e). The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages and liabilities referred to in Section 10(e) shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above, any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 10, no Underwriter shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total price at which the Shares underwritten by it and distributed to the public were offered to the public exceeds the amount of any damages that such Underwriter has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The remedies provided for in this Section 10 are not exclusive and shall not limit any rights or remedies which may otherwise be available to any indemnified party at law or in equity.

(g) The indemnity and contribution provisions contained in this Section 10 and the representations, warranties and other statements of the Company and the Selling Shareholder contained in this Agreement shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of (i) any termination of this Agreement, (ii) any investigation made by or on behalf of any Underwriter, any person controlling any Underwriter or any affiliate of any Underwriter, the Selling Shareholder or any person controlling the Selling Shareholder or the Company, its officers or directors or any person controlling the Company and (iii) acceptance of and payment for any of the Shares.

11. Termination. The Underwriters may terminate this Agreement by notice given by you to the Company, if after the execution and delivery of this Agreement and prior to the Closing Date (i) trading generally shall have been suspended or materially limited on, or by, as the case may be, any of the NYSE, the American Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Global Market, the Chicago Board of Options Exchange, the Chicago Mercantile Exchange or the Chicago Board of Trade, (ii) trading of any securities of the Company shall have been suspended on any exchange or in any over-the-counter market, (iii) a material disruption in securities settlement, payment or clearance services in the United States shall have occurred, (iv) any moratorium on commercial banking activities shall have been declared by Federal, New York State or Cayman Islands authorities or (v) there shall have occurred any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, or any change in financial markets or any calamity or crisis that, in your judgment, is material and adverse and which, singly or together with any other event specified in this clause (v), makes it, in your judgment, impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the offer, sale or delivery of the Shares on the terms and in the manner contemplated in the Time of Sale Prospectus or the Prospectus.

12. Effectiveness; Defaulting Underwriters. This Agreement shall become effective upon the execution and delivery hereof by the parties hereto.

If, on the Closing Date or an Option Closing Date, as the case may be, any one or more of the Underwriters shall fail or refuse to purchase Shares that it has or they have agreed to purchase hereunder on such date, and the aggregate number of Shares which such defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed or refused to purchase is not more than one-tenth of the aggregate number of the Shares to be purchased on such date, the other Underwriters shall be obligated severally in the proportions that the number of Firm Shares set forth opposite their respective names in Schedule III bears to the aggregate number of Firm Shares set forth opposite the names of all such non-defaulting Underwriters, or in such other proportions as you may specify, to purchase the Shares which such defaulting Underwriter or Underwriters agreed but failed or refused to purchase on such date; provided that in no event shall the number of Shares that any Underwriter has agreed to purchase pursuant to this Agreement be increased pursuant to this Section 12 by an amount in excess of one-ninth of such number of Shares without the written consent of such Underwriter. If, on the Closing Date, any Underwriter or Underwriters shall fail or refuse to purchase Firm Shares and the aggregate number of Firm Shares with respect to which such default occurs is more than one-tenth of the aggregate number of Firm Shares to be purchased on such date, and arrangements satisfactory to you, the Company and the Selling Shareholder for the purchase of such Firm Shares are not made within 36 hours after such default, this Agreement shall terminate without liability on the part of any non-defaulting Underwriter, the Company or the Selling Shareholder. In any such case either you or the relevant Sellers shall have the right to postpone the Closing Date, but in no event for longer than seven days, in order that the required changes, if any, in the Registration Statement, in the Time of Sale Prospectus, in the Prospectus or in any other documents or arrangements may be effected. If, on an Option Closing Date, any Underwriter or Underwriters shall fail or refuse to purchase Additional Shares and the aggregate number of Additional Shares with respect to which such default occurs is more than one-tenth of the aggregate number of Additional Shares to be purchased on such Option Closing Date, the non-defaulting Underwriters shall have the option to (i) terminate their obligation hereunder to purchase the Additional Shares to be sold on such Option Closing Date or (ii) purchase not less than the number of Additional Shares that such non-defaulting Underwriters would have been obligated to purchase in the absence of such default. Any action taken under this paragraph shall not relieve any defaulting Underwriter from liability in respect of any default of such Underwriter under this Agreement.

If this Agreement shall be terminated by the Underwriters, or any of them, because of any failure or refusal on the part of any Seller to comply with the terms or to fulfill any of the conditions of this Agreement, or if for any reason any Seller shall be unable to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the Sellers will reimburse the Underwriters or such Underwriters as have so terminated this Agreement with respect to themselves, severally, for all out-of-pocket expenses (including the fees and disbursements of their counsel) reasonably incurred by such Underwriters in connection with this Agreement or the offering contemplated hereunder.

13. Entire Agreement. (a) This Agreement, together with any contemporaneous written agreements and any prior written agreements (to the extent not superseded by this Agreement) that relate to the offering of the Shares, represents the entire agreement between the Company and the Selling Shareholder, on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other, with respect to the preparation of any preliminary prospectus, the Time of Sale Prospectus, the Prospectus, the conduct of the offering, and the purchase and sale of the Shares.

(b) The Company acknowledges that in connection with the offering of the Shares: (i) the Underwriters have acted at arms length, are not agents of, and owe no fiduciary duties to, the Company or any other person, (ii) the Underwriters owe the Company only those duties and obligations set forth in this Agreement and prior written agreements (to the extent not superseded by this Agreement), if any, and (iii) the Underwriters may have interests that differ from those of the Company. The Company waives to the full extent permitted by applicable law any claims it may have against the Underwriters arising from an alleged breach of fiduciary duty in connection with the offering of the Shares.

14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument.

15. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York.

16. Consent to Service, Submission to Jurisdiction and Related Matters. Each Seller by the execution and delivery of this Agreement, designates CT Corporation, 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York 10011, United States of America, as its authorized agent upon whom process may be served in any suit, proceeding or other action against such Seller instituted by the Underwriters or by any person controlling the Underwriters as to which the Underwriters or any such controlling person is a party and based upon this Agreement, or in any other action against each Seller, as the case may be, in any Federal or state court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York, arising out of the offering made by the Prospectus or any purchase or sale of securities in connection therewith, and each Seller expressly accepts the jurisdiction of any such court in respect of any such suit, proceeding or other action and, without limiting other methods of obtaining jurisdiction, expressly submits to the nonexclusive personal jurisdiction of any such court in respect of any such suit, proceeding or other action. Such designation and appointment shall be irrevocable, unless and until a successor authorized agent in the United States reasonably acceptable to the Underwriters shall have been appointed by a Seller, such successor shall have accepted such appointment, and written notice thereof shall have been given to the Underwriters. Each Seller further agrees that service of process upon its authorized agent or successor (and written notice of said service to such Seller mailed by certified mail or sent by telex or delivered, as provided in Section 18 below) shall be deemed in every respect personal service of process upon such Seller, in any such suit, proceeding or other action. Each Seller hereby irrevocably waives, to the extent permitted by law, any objection that it may have or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding arising out of or based on this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein brought in the Federal or state courts sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York, and hereby further irrevocably waives, to the extent permitted by law, any claim that any such action or proceeding in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each Seller agrees that any final judgment after exhaustion of all appeals or the expiration of time to appeal in any appeals or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein rendered by any such Federal court or state court shall be conclusive and, except as prohibited by applicable law, may be enforced in any other jurisdiction by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall affect or limit the right of the Underwriters to serve any process or notice of motion or other application in any other manner permitted by law or limit or affect the right of the Underwriters to bring any action or proceeding against a Seller or any of its property in the courts of any other jurisdiction. Each Seller further agrees to take any and all action, including the execution and filing of all such instruments and documents, as may be necessary to continue such designation and appointment or such substitute designation and appointment in full force and effect. Each Seller hereby agrees to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York, or the Federal courts sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York, in connection with any action brought by it relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein.

17. Headings. The headings of the sections of this Agreement have been inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement.

18. Notices. All communications hereunder shall be in writing and effective only upon receipt and if to the Underwriters shall be delivered, mailed or sent to you at the address set forth in Schedule I hereto; if to the Company shall be delivered, mailed or sent to the address set forth in Schedule I hereto; and if to the Selling Shareholder shall be delivered, mailed or sent to the address set forth in Schedule I hereto.

FORM OF OPINION OF WALKERS

13 November 2007

TO THE ADDRESSEES SET OUT IN SCHEDULE 4

Dear Sirs

FRESH DEL MONTE PRODUCE INC.

We have been asked to provide this legal opinion to you with regard to the laws of the Cayman Islands in relation to the Document (as defined in Schedule 1) being entered into by Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc. (the Company ) in connection with:

(a) the issuance, offer and sale by the Company of up to 4,600,000 ordinary shares in the share capital of the Company with nominal or par value of US$0.01 each (the Ordinary Shares ); and

(b) the offer and sale by IAT Group Inc. (the Selling Shareholder ) of up to 6,900,000 ordinary shares in the share capital of the Company with nominal or par value of US$0.01 each.

For the purposes of giving this opinion, we have examined and relied upon the originals, copies or certified translations of the documents listed in Schedule 1.

In giving this opinion we have relied upon the assumptions set out in Schedule 2, which we have not independently verified.

We are Attorneys at Law in the Cayman Islands and express no opinion as to any laws other than the laws of the Cayman Islands in force and as interpreted at the date of this opinion. We have not, for the purposes of this opinion, made any investigation of the laws, rules or regulations of any other jurisdiction. Except as explicitly stated herein, we express no opinion in relation to any representation or warranty contained in the Document nor upon the commercial terms of the transactions contemplated by the Document.

Based upon the foregoing examinations and assumptions and upon such searches as we have conducted and having regard to legal considerations which we deem relevant, and subject to the qualifications set out in Schedule 3, and under the laws of the Cayman Islands, we give the following opinions in relation to the matters set out below.

1. The Company is an exempted company duly incorporated with limited liability, validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.
2. Based solely upon our review of the Certificate of Good Standing the Company is in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.
3. The Company has full corporate power, authority and legal right to execute and deliver the Document and to perform its obligations under the Document and to carry on its business in accordance with its Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association.
4. Based solely upon our review as at the date of this opinion of the Amended and Restated Memorandum of Association of the Company, the objects for which the Company is established are unrestricted and the Company has full power and authority to carry out any object not prohibited by any law as provided by section 7(4) of the Companies Law (as amended) of the Cayman Islands (the Companies Law ).
5. The Document has been duly authorised and executed and, when delivered by the Company, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company enforceable in accordance with its respective terms.
6. The execution, delivery and performance of the Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and the compliance by the Company with the terms and provisions thereof do not:
  - (a) contravene any law, public rule, or regulation of the Cayman Islands applicable to the Company which is currently in force; or
  - (b) contravene the Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company.
7. Neither the execution, delivery or performance of the Document nor the consummation or performance of any of the transactions contemplated thereby by the Company, requires the consent or approval of, the giving of notice to, or the registration with, or the taking of any other action in respect of any Cayman Islands governmental or judicial authority or agency.
8. The law chosen in the Document to govern its interpretation would be upheld as a valid choice of law in any action on that document in the courts of the Cayman Islands.

9. There are no stamp duties (other than the stamp duties mentioned in qualification 2 in Schedule 3), income taxes, withholdings, levies, registration taxes, or other duties or similar taxes or charges now imposed, or which under the present laws of the Cayman Islands could in the future become imposed, in connection with the enforcement or admissibility in evidence of the Document or on any payment to be made by the Company or any other person pursuant to the Document. The Cayman Islands currently have no form of income, corporate or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax.

10. None of the parties to the Document (other than the Company) is or will be deemed to be resident, domiciled or carrying on business in the Cayman Islands by reason only of the execution, delivery, performance or enforcement of the Document to which any of them is party.

11. A judgment obtained in a foreign court will be recognised and enforced in the courts of the Cayman Islands without any re-examination of the merits:

(a) at common law, by an action commenced on the foreign judgment debt in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands, where the judgment is final and in respect of which the foreign court had jurisdiction over the defendant according to Cayman Islands conflict of law rules and which is conclusive, for a liquidated sum not in respect of penalties or taxes or a fine or similar fiscal or revenue obligations, and which was neither obtained in a manner, nor is of a kind enforcement of which is contrary to natural justice or the public policy of the Cayman Islands; or

(b) by statute, by registration in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and execution as if it were a judgment of the Grand Court, where the judgment is a judgment of a superior court of any state of the Commonwealth of Australia which is final and conclusive for a sum of money not in respect of taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine, penalty or revenue obligation and which remains enforceable by execution in that jurisdiction.

12. It is not necessary or advisable under the laws of the Cayman Islands that the Document or any document relating thereto be registered or recorded in any public office or elsewhere in the Cayman Islands in order to ensure the validity, effectiveness or enforceability of the Document.

13. It is not necessary under the laws of the Cayman Islands (a) in order to enable any party to the Document to enforce their rights under the Document or (b) solely by reason of the execution, delivery and performance of the Document that any party to the Document should be licensed, qualified or otherwise entitled to carry on business in the Cayman Islands or any other political subdivision thereof.

14. The Company has executed an effective submission to the jurisdiction of the courts specified in the Document.

15. The Company has the legal capacity to sue and be sued in its own name under the laws of the Cayman Islands; the Company has validly and irrevocably appointed CT Corporation, 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York, United States of America, as its authorised agent for the purposes described in the Document; the waiver by the Company in the Document of any objection:

(a) to the venue of any action or proceeding in any federal or state court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York; and

(b) that any action or proceeding in any federal or state court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York has been brought in an inconvenient forum,

in each case, is legal, valid and binding and we are not aware of any reason why the courts of the Cayman Islands would not give effect to such waiver.

16. The Company is subject to civil and commercial law with respect to its obligations under the Document and neither the Company nor any of its assets is entitled to immunity from suit or enforcement of a judgment on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise in the courts of the Cayman Islands in proceedings against the Company in respect of any obligations under the Document, which obligations constitute private and commercial acts rather than governmental or public acts.

17. Based solely upon our examination of the Cause List and the Register of Writs and other Originating Process of the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands conducted on 8 November 2007 (the Search Date ), we confirm that, as at the time of our examination, the Company has not been party to any proceedings in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands during the six year period prior to the Search Date, there are no actions, suits or proceedings pending against the Company before the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and no steps have been, or are being, taken to compulsorily wind up the Company and based solely upon our examination of the records of the Company referred to in this opinion, as at the time of our examination no resolution voluntarily to wind up the Company has been adopted by its members.

18. A judgment of a court in the Cayman Islands may be expressed in a currency other than Cayman Islands dollars.

19. On a liquidation of the Company, claims against the Company under the Document will rank at least pari passu with the claims of all other unsecured creditors (other than those preferred by law).

20. In the event of an insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy or reorganisation affecting the Company, no liquidator, creditor or other person would be able to set aside any disposition of property effected by the Company pursuant to the Document.

21. There are no foreign exchange controls or foreign exchange regulations under the currently applicable laws of the Cayman Islands.

22. Based solely upon our review as at the date of this opinion of the Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association, the minute book of the Company as maintained by the registered office of the Company and the Register of Members as provided to us by BNY Mellon Shareowner Services, 300 Galleria Parkway, Suite 1020 Atlanta, GA 30339, United States of America the authorised capital of the Company is US$2,500,000 divided into 200,000,000 ordinary shares of a nominal or par value of US$0.01 each and 50,000,000 preference shares of a nominal or par value of US$0.01 each (the Capital ). The issued Capital, according to the Register of Members of the Company as at 31 October 2007 is 58,334,962 ordinary shares (the Issued Shares ).

23. Based solely upon our review of the minute book and the Register of Members of the Company as at the date of this opinion the 23,435,636 ordinary shares of a nominal or par value of US$0.01 held by the Selling Shareholder in the Capital of the Company (the Seller s Shares ) have been duly authorised, validly issued as fully paid, and non-assessable. For the purposes of this opinion, non-assessable means that no Cayman Islands taxes are payable in respect of the issue of the Seller s Shares.

24. The Ordinary Shares have been duly authorised, and when and to the extent issued and delivered against payment therefore in accordance with the terms of the Document, the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement and the Final Prospectus Supplement (as the case maybe) will be issued, fully paid and non-assessable when an entry in respect of such Ordinary Shares in the name of the registered owners thereof has been made in the register of members of the Company (pursuant to sections 38 and 48 of the Companies Law) confirming that such Ordinary Shares are fully paid pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company duly approving the issuance of such Ordinary Shares. Section 38 of the Companies Law provides, inter alia, that every person who has agreed to become a member of a company and whose name is entered on the register of members, shall be deemed to be a member of the company . Section 48 of the Companies Law provides that The register of members shall be prima facie evidence of any matters by this [Companies] Law directed or authorised to be inserted therein . For the purposes of this opinion, non-assessable means that no Cayman Islands taxes will be payable in respect of the issue of the Ordinary Shares.

25. Under the existing laws the Cayman Islands currently in force as at the date of this opinion, all dividends and other distributions declared and payable on the Ordinary Shares may be paid by the Company to the registered holder thereof in United States dollars, which are freely transferable out of the Cayman Islands, and all such dividends and other distributions made to registered holders of the Ordinary Shares who are non-residents of the Cayman Islands will not be subject to any Cayman Islands income, withholding or other taxes under the existing laws of the Cayman Islands currently in force as at the date of this opinion and will otherwise be free and clear of any other tax, duty withholding or deduction in the Cayman Islands and without the necessity of obtaining any governmental authorisation in the Cayman Islands.

26. The statements included in the Registration Statement in item 8 headed "Indemnification of Directors and Officers", in the Final Prospectus and the Preliminary Prospectus under the headings "Description of Share Capital", "Dividend Policy" and "Taxation - Cayman Islands" and in the Annual Report in Item 10 under the heading "Memorandum and Articles of Association", with respect to those matters governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands only, insofar as such statements constitute a summary of legal matters, documents or proceedings in each case, fairly summarise in all material respects such legal matters, documents and proceedings referred to therein.

This opinion is limited to the matters referred to herein and shall not be construed as extending to any other matter or document not referred to herein. This opinion is given solely for your benefit and the benefit of your legal advisers acting in that capacity in relation to this transaction and may not be relied upon by any other person without our prior written consent.

This opinion shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Yours faithfully

WALKERS

QUALIFICATIONS

1. The term enforceable and its cognates as used in this opinion means that the obligations assumed by the Company under the Document are of a type which the courts of the Cayman Islands enforce. This does not mean that those obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms. In particular:
  - (a) enforcement of obligations and the priority of obligations may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, readjustment of debts or moratorium and other laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors or by prescription or lapse of time;
  - (b) enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity and, in particular, the availability of certain equitable remedies such as injunction or specific performance of an obligation may be limited where the court considers damages to be an adequate remedy;
  - (c) claims may become barred under statutes of limitation or may be or become subject to defences of set-off, counterclaim, estoppel and similar defences;
  - (d) where obligations are to be performed in a jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands, they may not be enforceable in the Cayman Islands to the extent that performance would be illegal under the laws of, or contrary to the public policy of, that jurisdiction;
  - (e) a judgment of a court of the Cayman Islands may be required to be made in Cayman Islands dollars;
  - (f) to the extent that any provision of the Document is adjudicated to be penal in nature, it will not be enforceable in the courts of the Cayman Islands; in particular, the enforceability of any provision of the Document which imposes additional obligations in the event of any breach or default, or of payment or prepayment being made other than on an agreed date, may be limited to the extent that it is subsequently adjudicated to be penal in nature and not an attempt to make a reasonable pre-estimate of loss;
  - (g) to the extent that the performance of any obligation arising under the Document would be fraudulent or contrary to public policy, it will not be enforceable in the courts of the Cayman Islands;

- (h) a Cayman Islands court will not necessarily award costs in litigation in accordance with contractual provisions in this regard; and
  - (i) the effectiveness of terms in the Document excusing any party from a liability or duty otherwise owed or indemnifying that party from the consequences of incurring such liability or breaching such duty shall be construed in accordance with, and shall be limited by, applicable law, including generally applicable rules and principles of common law and equity.
2. Cayman Islands stamp duty will be payable if the Document is executed in, brought to, or produced before a court of the Cayman Islands. Such duty would be nominal except in the case of:
- (a) a debenture or a legal or equitable mortgage or charge of immovable property:
    - (i) where the sum secured is CI$300,000.00 (US$360,000.00) or less, in which case duty would be 1% of the sum secured; or
    - (ii) where the sum secured is more than CI$300,000.00 (US$360,000.00) whether initially or after further advance, in which case duty would be 1.5% of the sum secured;
  - (b) a legal or equitable mortgage or charge of movable property (not including a debenture but including a bill of sale) in which case duty would be 1.5% of the sum secured;
- PROVIDED THAT no duty shall be payable under subparagraphs (a) and (b) where the property is situated outside the Cayman Islands; and that in the case of a legal or equitable mortgage or charge granted by an exempted company, an ordinary non-resident company (as defined in the Companies Law (as amended)) or an exempted trust (as defined in the Trusts Law (as amended)) or a body corporate incorporated outside the Cayman Islands of movable property situated in the Cayman Islands or over shares in such exempted company or an ordinary non-resident company, the maximum duty payable shall be CI$500.00 (US$600.00); and
- (c) any note evidencing indebtedness, in which case duty of CI$0.25 per CI$100.00 or part thereof of the face value of each note, subject to a maximum of CI$250.00, is payable, unless, the notes are issued as part of a series by an exempted company or by an ordinary non-resident company (as defined in the Companies Law (as amended)) or by a body corporate incorporated outside the Cayman Islands, in which case a duty of CI$500.00 in respect of the instrument creating the notes may be paid and thereafter no further stamp duty in respect of such notes is payable.

3. A certificate, determination, calculation or designation of any party to the Document as to any matter provided therein might be held by a Cayman Islands court not to be conclusive, final and binding, notwithstanding any provision to that effect therein contained, for example if it could be shown to have an unreasonable, arbitrary or improper basis or in the event of manifest error.
4. If any provision of the Document is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, severance of such provision from the remaining provisions will be subject to the discretion of the Cayman Islands courts notwithstanding any express provisions in this regard.
5. In principle, a person who claims to be entitled pursuant to a contract to recover the legal fees and expenses incurred in enforcing that contract shall be entitled to judgment for the amount of legal fees and expenses found due under the contract and such amount shall not be subject to taxation pursuant to the applicable rule of court.
6. A conveyance, mortgage, charge or other security interest granted or made by a company at a time when that company was unable to pay its debts as they fell due, and made or granted in favour of a creditor with a dominant intention to give that creditor a preference over the other creditors of the company, would be void pursuant to Section 168(1) of the Companies Law (as amended), if within six months thereof a petition is presented to the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands for the winding-up of such company, or a resolution is passed for the voluntary winding-up of the company.
7. Under the Fraudulent Dispositions Law (as amended), any disposition of property made with an intent to defraud (which means an intention by the party disposing of the property to wilfully defeat an obligation owed to a creditor) and at an undervalue, shall be voidable at the instance of the creditor thereby prejudiced.
8. We express no opinion upon the effectiveness of any clause of the Document providing that the terms of such Document may only be amended in writing.
9. Notwithstanding any purported date of execution in the Document, the rights and obligations therein contained take effect only on the actual execution and delivery thereof but the Document may provide that they have retrospective effect as between the parties thereto alone.

10. The obligations of the Company may be subject to restrictions pursuant to United Nations sanctions and/or measures adopted by the European Union Council for Common Foreign & Security Policy extended to the Cayman Islands by the Order of Her Majesty in Council.

11. Persons who are not party to the Document (other than beneficiaries under properly constituted trusts or persons acting pursuant to powers contained in a deed poll) under Cayman Islands law have no direct rights or obligations under such Document.

12. Based on the decision in the English case of Houldsworth v City of Glasgow Bank (1880) 5 App Cas 317 HL, in the event of a misrepresentation by a Company on which a shareholder relied in agreeing to subscribe for shares in such Company, the shareholder may be entitled to rescind the share subscription agreement and thereafter claim damages against such Company for any additional loss suffered as a result of the misrepresentation. Such a claim for damages will not arise unless and until the shareholder has successfully rescinded the share subscription agreement. A shareholder may be barred from rescinding on the grounds of delay or affirmation and if such Company is wound up (whether voluntarily or compulsorily), such shareholder will lose the right to rescind the share subscription agreement.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special United States counsel to Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc., a Cayman Islands corporation (the Company ), in connection with the Company's offering pursuant to a registration statement on Form F-3 (No. 333-144418) of 4,600,000 ordinary shares, $0.01 par value per share (the Company Securities ), and the offering by IAT Group, Inc. (the Selling Shareholder ) of 6,900,000 shares of the Company's ordinary shares (the Secondary Securities and, together with the Company Securities, the Securities ). Such registration statement, as amended as of its most recent effective date (November 6, 2007), insofar as it relates to the Securities (as determined for purposes of Rule 430B(f)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act )), but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Registration Statement; the related prospectus dated July 9, 2007, as first filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission ), but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Base Prospectus; the preliminary prospectus supplement dated November 1, 2007, as filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b)(5) under the Securities Act, but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement; and the related prospectus supplement dated November 6, 2007, as first filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b)(5) under the Securities Act, but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Final Prospectus Supplement. The Base Prospectus and the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement together are herein called the Pricing Prospectus, and the Base Prospectus and the Final Prospectus Supplement together are herein called the Final Prospectus. This opinion letter is furnished pursuant to Section 6(d) of the underwriting agreement dated November 6, 2007 (the Underwriting Agreement ) between the Company and the several underwriters named in Schedule III thereto (the Underwriters ).

In arriving at the opinions expressed below, we have reviewed the following documents:

- (a) an executed copy of the Underwriting Agreement;
- (b) the Registration Statement and the documents incorporated by reference therein;
- (c) the Pricing Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference therein, as well as the document listed in Schedule I hereto;
- (d) the Final Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference therein; and
- (e) the documents delivered to you by the Company at the closing pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement.

In addition, we have reviewed the originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction of all such corporate records of the Company and such other instruments and other certificates of public officials, officers and representatives of the Company and such other persons, and we have made such investigations of law, as we have deemed appropriate as a basis for the opinions expressed below.

In rendering the opinions expressed below, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies. In addition, we have assumed and have not verified (i) the accuracy as to factual matters of each document we have reviewed (including, without limitation, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company and the Selling Shareholder in the Underwriting Agreement).

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the further assumptions and qualifications set forth below, it is our opinion that:

1. The Underwriting Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company under the laws of the State of New York.
2. The issuance and sale of the Securities to the Underwriters pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement do not, and the performance by the Company of its obligations in the Underwriting Agreement will not, (a) require any consent, approval, authorization, registration or qualification of or with any governmental authority of the United States or the State of New York that in our experience normally would be applicable to general business entities with respect to such issuance, sale or performance, except such as have been obtained or effected under the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (but we express no opinion relating to any state securities or Blue Sky laws), (b) result in a violation of any U.S. federal or New York State law that in our experience normally would be applicable to general business entities with respect to such sale or performance (but we express no opinion relating to the U.S. federal securities laws or any state securities or Blue Sky laws), or (c) result in a breach of any of the terms and provisions of, or constitute a default under, any of the agreements of the Company identified in Exhibit 1 hereto.

3. The statements set forth in the Pricing Prospectus and the Final Prospectus under the heading "Taxation - United States," insofar as such statements purport to summarize certain federal income tax laws of the United States, constitute a fair summary of the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities by a U.S. Holder (as defined in the Final Prospectus); the statements set forth in the Final Prospectus under the heading "Underwriting," insofar as such statements purport to summarize certain provisions of the Underwriting Agreement, provide a fair summary of such provisions; and the statements set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the period ended December 29, 2006 under the heading "Additional Information - Memorandum and Articles of Association - Corporate Governance," insofar as such statements purport to summarize certain material provisions with respect to listing and corporate governance requirements of the New York Stock Exchange in accordance with Section 303A.11 of the Listed Company Manual (including the Commentary thereto) of the New York Stock Exchange, provide a fair summary of such provisions.

4. Under the law of the State of New York relating to submission to jurisdiction, the Company has, pursuant to Section 16 of the Underwriting Agreement, (i) validly and irrevocably submitted to the personal jurisdiction of any New York State or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York, in any action arising out of or based upon the Underwriting Agreement; (ii) to the fullest extent permitted by law, validly and irrevocably waived any objection to the venue of a proceeding in any such court; and (iii) has validly appointed CT Corporation, located at 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York 10011, United States of America, as its authorized agent for the purpose described in Section 16 of the Underwriting Agreement; and service of process effected on such agent in the manner permitted by applicable law will be effective to confer valid personal jurisdiction over the Company in any such action.

5. Each of the subsidiaries (the "Subsidiaries") of the Company identified in Exhibit 2 hereto is validly existing as a corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

6. No registration of the Company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, is required for the offer and sale of the Company Securities by the Company in the manner contemplated by the Underwriting Agreement and the Final Prospectus and the application of the proceeds thereof as described in the Final Prospectus.

Insofar as the foregoing opinions relate to the valid existence and good standing of any of the Subsidiaries, they are based solely on a certificate of good standing received from the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and on a telephonic and / or electronic confirmation from such Secretary of State. Insofar as the foregoing opinions relate to the validity, binding effect or enforceability of any agreement or obligation of the Company, (a) we have assumed that the Company and each other party to such agreement or obligation has satisfied those legal requirements that are applicable to it to the extent necessary to make such agreement or obligation enforceable against it (except that no such assumption is made as to the Company regarding matters of the federal law of the United States of America or the law of the State of New York that in our experience normally would be applicable to general business entities with respect to such agreement or obligation); (b) such opinions are subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; and (c) such opinions are subject to the effect of judicial application of foreign laws or foreign governmental actions affecting creditors' rights.

We note that the designation in Section 16 of the Underwriting Agreement of the U.S. federal courts sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York, as the venue for actions or proceedings arising out of or based upon the Underwriting Agreement is (notwithstanding the waiver in Section 16 of the Underwriting Agreement) subject to the power of such courts to transfer actions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) or to dismiss such actions or proceedings on the grounds that such a federal court is an inconvenient forum for such an action or proceeding.

We express no opinion as to the subject matter jurisdiction of any U.S. federal court to adjudicate any action where jurisdiction based on diversity of citizenship under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 does not exist.

In rendering the opinion in numbered paragraph 2, we have assumed that, to the extent any document referred to in clause (c) thereof is governed by the law of a jurisdiction other than those referred to in the following paragraph, such document would be interpreted in accordance with its plain meaning.

The foregoing opinions are limited to the federal law of the United States of America, the law of the State of New York and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

We are furnishing this opinion letter to you, as Representative of the Underwriters, solely for the benefit of the Underwriters in their capacity as such in connection with the offering of the Securities. This opinion letter is not to be relied on by or furnished to any other person or used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose. We assume no obligation to advise you or any other person, or to make any investigations, as to any legal developments or factual matters arising subsequent to the date hereof that might affect the opinions expressed herein.

Very truly yours,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special United States counsel to Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc., a Cayman Islands corporation (the Company), in connection with the Company's offering pursuant to a registration statement on Form F-3 (No. 333-144418) of 4,600,000 ordinary shares, $0.01 par value per share (the Company Securities), and the offering by IAT Group, Inc. (the Selling Shareholder) of 6,900,000 shares of the Company's ordinary shares (the Secondary Securities and, together with the Company Securities, the Securities). Such registration statement, as amended as of its most recent effective date (November 6, 2007), insofar as it relates to the Securities (as determined for purposes of Rule 430B(f)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act)), but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Registration Statement; the related prospectus dated July 9, 2007, as first filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission), but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Base Prospectus; the preliminary prospectus supplement dated November 1, 2007, as filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b)(5) under the Securities Act, but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement; the final pricing sheet listed in Schedule I hereto, is herein called the Final Pricing Sheet; and the related prospectus supplement dated November 6, 2007, as first filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b)(5) under the Securities Act, but excluding the documents incorporated by reference therein, is herein called the Final Prospectus Supplement. The Base Prospectus, the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement and the Final Pricing Sheet together are herein called the Pricing Prospectus, and the Base Prospectus and the Final Prospectus Supplement together are herein called the Final Prospectus. This letter is furnished pursuant to Section 6(d) of the underwriting agreement dated November 6, 2007 (the Underwriting Agreement) between the Company and the several underwriters named in Schedule III thereto (the Underwriters).

Because the primary purpose of our professional engagement was not to establish or confirm factual matters or financial, accounting or statistical information, and because many determinations involved in the preparation of the Registration Statement, the Pricing Prospectus, the Final Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in each of them are of a wholly or partially non-legal character or relate to legal matters outside the scope of our opinion letter to you of even date herewith, we are not passing upon and do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the statements contained in the Registration Statement, the Pricing Prospectus, the Final Prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference in each of them (except to the extent expressly set forth in numbered paragraph 3 of our opinion letter to you of even date herewith) and we make no representation that we have independently verified the accuracy, completeness or fairness of such statements (except as aforesaid). We also are not passing upon and do not assume any responsibility for ascertaining whether or when any of the Pricing Prospectus, the Final Prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference in each of them was conveyed to any person for purposes of Rule 159 under the Securities Act.

However, in the course of our acting as special United States counsel to the Company in connection with its preparation of the Registration Statement, the Pricing Prospectus and the Final Prospectus, we participated in conferences and telephone conversations with representatives of the Company, representatives of the independent public accountants for the Company, your representatives and representatives of your counsel, during which conferences and conversations the contents of the Registration Statement, the Pricing Prospectus, the Final Prospectus and portions of certain of the documents incorporated by reference in each of them and related matters were discussed, and we reviewed certain corporate records and documents of the Company and the Selling Shareholder furnished to us by the Company.

Based on our participation in such conferences and conversations and our review of such records and documents as described above, our understanding of the U.S. federal securities laws and the experience we have gained in our practice thereunder, we advise you that:

(a) The Registration Statement (except the financial statements and schedules and other financial and statistical data included therein, as to which we express no view), at the time it became effective, and the Final Prospectus (except as aforesaid), as of the date thereof, appeared on their face to be appropriately responsive in all material respects to the requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. In addition, we do not know of any material contracts or other material documents required to be filed as exhibits to the Registration Statement or required to be described in the Registration Statement or the Final Prospectus that are not filed or described as required.

(b) The documents incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement and the Final Prospectus (except the financial statements and schedules and other financial and statistical data included therein and management's report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, as to which we express no view), as of the respective dates of their filing with the Commission, appeared on their face to be appropriately responsive in all material respects to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(c) No information has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Registration Statement, including the documents incorporated by reference therein (except the financial statements and schedules and other financial and statistical data included therein and management's report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, as to which we express no view), at the time it became effective, contained an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(d) No information has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Pricing Prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference therein, considered together with the amount and the price to the public of the Securities on the front cover of the Final Prospectus (except in each case the financial statements and schedules and other financial and statistical data included in the Pricing Prospectus and management's report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, as to which we express no view) at 6:00 pm (Eastern time) on November 6, 2007, contained an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(e) No information has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Final Prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference therein (except the financial statements and schedules and other financial and statistical data included therein and management's report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, as to which we express no view), as of the date thereof or hereof, contained or contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

We are furnishing this letter to you, as Representative of the Underwriters, solely for the benefit of the Underwriters in their capacity as such in connection with the offering of the Securities. This letter is not to be relied on by or furnished to any other person or used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose. We assume no obligation to advise you, or to make any investigations, as to any legal developments or factual matters arising subsequent to the date hereof that might affect the views expressed herein.

Dear Sirs:

We have been informed that Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc. It has the corporate power and authority to own its properties and conduct its business as described in the Time of Sale Prospectus and the Prospectus and is duly qualified to transact business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the conduct of its business or its ownership or leasing of property requires such qualification, except to the extent that the failure to be so qualified or be in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

2. All of the issued shares of capital stock of the Subsidiary have been duly and validly authorized and issued, are fully paid and non-assessable and are owned directly by the Company, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, equities or claims.

3. The execution and delivery by the Company of, and the performance by the Company of its obligations under, the Agreement will not contravene any provision of applicable law in the Republic of Liberia or, to the best of our knowledge, any agreement or other instrument binding on the Subsidiary that is material to the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or, to the best of our knowledge, any judgment, order or decree of any governmental body, agency or court in the Republic of Liberia having jurisdiction over the Company or any subsidiary, and no consent, approval, authorization or order of, or qualification with, any governmental body or agency in the Republic of Liberia is required for the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Agreement.

4. Except as described in the Time of Sale Prospectus and Prospectus, after due inquiry, we do not know of any legal or governmental proceedings pending or threatened in the Republic of Liberia to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of the properties of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is subject that are not so described.

HOLDINGS LTD.

13 November 2007

TO THE ADDRESSEES SET OUT IN SCHEDULE 4

Dear Sirs

FRESH DEL MONTE SHIP HOLDINGS LTD.

We have been asked to provide this legal opinion to you with regard to the laws of the Cayman Islands in relation to Fresh Del Monte Ship Holdings Ltd. (the Company ).

For the purposes of giving this opinion, we have examined and relied upon the originals, copies or certified translations of the documents listed in Schedule 1.

In giving this opinion we have relied upon the assumptions set out in Schedule 2, which we have not independently verified.

We are Attorneys at Law in the Cayman Islands and express no opinion as to any laws other than the laws of the Cayman Islands in force and as interpreted at the date of this opinion. We have not, for the purposes of this opinion, made any investigation of the laws, rules or regulations of any other jurisdiction.

Based upon the foregoing examinations and assumptions and upon such searches as we have conducted and having regard to legal considerations which we deem relevant, and subject to the qualifications set out in Schedule 3, and under the laws of the Cayman Islands, we give the following opinions in relation to the matters set out below.

1. The Company is an exempted company duly incorporated with limited liability, validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.
2. Based solely upon our review of the Certificate of Good Standing, the Company is in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

3. Based solely upon our review of the Memorandum and Articles of Association as registered on 3 September 1998 the objects for which the Company is established are unrestricted and the Company has full power and authority to carry out any object not prohibited by any law as provided by section 7(4) of the Companies Law (as amended) of the Cayman Islands (the Companies Law ).

4. The Company is managed by a Board of Directors who may be elected or removed in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company.

5. Based solely upon our review as at the date of this opinion of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the minute book and the Register of Members of the Company as maintained by the registered office of the Company the authorised capital of the Company is US$50,000.00 divided into 50,000 ordinary shares of a nominal or par value of US$1.00 each (the Capital ), subject to the further provisions of the Articles of Association dated 3 September 1998 and the Companies Law. The issued Capital, according to the minute book and the Register of Members of the Company as at the date of this opinion is 50,000 ordinary shares (the Issued Shares ).

6. Based solely upon our review of the minute book and the Register of Members of the Company as at the date of this opinion the Issued Capital of the Company has been duly authorised and validly issued, as fully paid (subject to the receipt of funds by the Company in payment for such issuance), pursuant to a minute of a meeting of the Company dated 8 September 1998.

Section 38 of the Companies Law provides, inter alia, that every person who has agreed to become a member of a company and whose name is entered on the register of members, shall be deemed to be a member of the company . Section 48 of the Companies Law provides that The register of members shall be prima facie evidence of any matters by this [Companies] Law directed or authorised to be inserted therein .

Having regard to the foregoing, under the laws of the Cayman Islands, no personal liability attaches to the registered holders of the Issued Shares by reason only of their being registered holders thereof provided that such Issued Shares are fully paid up.

9. Based solely upon our examination of the Cause List and the Register of Writs and other Originating Process of the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands conducted on 8 November 2007 (the Search Date ), we confirm that, as at the time of our examination, there are no actions, suits or proceedings pending against the Company before the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and no steps have been, or are being, taken to compulsorily wind up the Company and based solely upon our examination of the records of the Company referred to in this opinion, as at the time of our examination no resolution voluntarily to wind up the Company has been adopted by its member.

FORM OF SELLING SHAREHOLDER OPINION (WALKERS)

13 November 2007

TO THE ADDRESSEES SET OUT IN SCHEDULE 4

Dear Sirs

IAT Group Inc.

We have been asked to provide this legal opinion to you with regard to the laws of the Cayman Islands in relation to the Document (as defined in Schedule 1) being entered into by IAT Group Inc. (the Company) in connection with:

(a) the issuance, offer and sale by Fresh Del Monte Produce Inc. ( FDP ) of up to 4,600,000 ordinary shares in the share capital of FDP with nominal or par value of US$0.01 each; and

(b) the offer and sale by the Company of up to 6,900,000 ordinary shares in the share capital of FDP with nominal or par value of US$0.01 each (the Seller Shares ).

For the purposes of giving this opinion, we have examined and relied upon the originals, copies or certified translations of the documents listed in Schedule 1.

In giving this opinion we have relied upon the assumptions set out in Schedule 2, which we have not independently verified.

We are Attorneys at Law in the Cayman Islands and express no opinion as to any laws other than the laws of the Cayman Islands in force and as interpreted at the date of this opinion. We have not, for the purposes of this opinion, made any investigation of the laws, rules or regulations of any other jurisdiction. Except as explicitly stated herein, we express no opinion in relation to any representation or warranty contained in the Document nor upon the commercial terms of the transactions contemplated by the Document.

Based upon the foregoing examinations and assumptions and upon such searches as we have conducted and having regard to legal considerations which we deem relevant, and subject to the qualifications set out in Schedule 3, and under the laws of the Cayman Islands, we give the following opinions in relation to the matters set out below.

1. The Company is an exempted company duly incorporated with limited liability, validly existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.
2. Based solely upon our review of the Certificate of Good Standing the Company is in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands.
3. The Company has full corporate power, authority and legal right to execute and deliver the Document and to perform its obligations under the Document.
4. The Document has been duly authorised and executed and, when delivered by the Company, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Company enforceable in accordance with its terms.
5. The execution, delivery and performance of the Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and the compliance by the Company with the terms and provisions thereof do not:
  - (a) contravene any law, public rule or regulation of the Cayman Islands applicable to the Company which is currently in force; or
  - (b) contravene the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company.
6. Neither the execution, delivery or performance of the Document nor the consummation or performance of any of the transactions contemplated thereby by the Company, requires the consent or approval of, the giving of notice to, or the registration with, or the taking of any other action in respect of any Cayman Islands governmental or judicial authority or agency.
7. The law chosen in the Document to govern its interpretation would be upheld as a valid choice of law in any action on that document in the courts of the Cayman Islands.
8. There are no stamp duties (other than the stamp duties mentioned in qualification 2 in Schedule 3), income taxes, withholdings, levies, registration taxes, or other duties or similar taxes or charges now imposed, or which under the present laws of the Cayman Islands could in the future become imposed, in connection with the enforcement or admissibility in evidence of the Document or on any payment to be made by the Company or any other person pursuant to the Document. The Cayman Islands currently have no form of income, corporate or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax.
9. None of the parties to the Document (other than the Company) is or will be deemed to be resident, domiciled or carrying on business in the Cayman Islands by reason only of the execution, delivery, performance or enforcement of the Document to which any of them is party.

10. A judgment obtained in a foreign court will be recognised and enforced in the courts of the Cayman Islands without any re-examination of the merits:

(a) at common law, by an action commenced on the foreign judgment debt in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands, where the judgment is final and in respect of which the foreign court had jurisdiction over the defendant according to Cayman Islands conflict of law rules and which is conclusive, for a liquidated sum not in respect of penalties or taxes or a fine or similar fiscal or revenue obligations, and which was neither obtained in a manner, nor is of a kind enforcement of which is contrary to natural justice or the public policy of the Cayman Islands; or

(b) by statute, by registration in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and execution as if it were a judgment of the Grand Court, where the judgment is a judgment of a superior court of any state of the Commonwealth of Australia which is final and conclusive for a sum of money not in respect of taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine, penalty or revenue obligation and which remains enforceable by execution in that jurisdiction.

11. It is not necessary or advisable under the laws of the Cayman Islands that the Document or any document relating thereto be registered or recorded in any public office or elsewhere in the Cayman Islands in order to ensure the validity, effectiveness or enforceability of the Document.

12. It is not necessary under the laws of the Cayman Islands (a) in order to enable any party to the Document to enforce their rights under the Document or (b) solely by reason of the execution, delivery and performance of the Document that any party to the Document should be licensed, qualified or otherwise entitled to carry on business in the Cayman Islands or any other political subdivision thereof.

13. The Company has executed an effective submission to the jurisdiction of the courts specified in the Document.

14. The Company has the legal capacity to sue and be sued in its own name under the laws of the Cayman Islands; the Company has validly and irrevocably appointed CT Corporation, 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York, United States of America, as its authorised agent for the purposes described in the Document; the waiver by the Company in the Document of any objection:

(a) to the venue of any action or proceeding in any federal or state court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, State of New York; and in each case, is legal, valid and binding and we are not aware of any reason why the courts of the Cayman Islands would not give effect to such waiver.

15. The Company is subject to civil and commercial law with respect to its obligations under the Document and neither the Company nor any of its assets is entitled to immunity from suit or enforcement of a judgment on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise in the courts of the Cayman Islands in proceedings against the Company in respect of any obligations under the Document, which obligations constitute private and commercial acts rather than governmental or public acts.

16. Based solely upon our examination of the Cause List and the Register of Writs and other Originating Process of the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands conducted on 8 November 2007 (the Search Date), we confirm that, as at the time of our examination, the Company has not been party to any proceedings in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands during the six year period prior to the Search Date, there are no actions, suits or proceedings pending against the Company before the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands and no steps have been, or are being, taken to compulsorily wind up the Company and based solely upon our examination of the records of the Company referred to in this opinion, as at the time of our examination no resolution voluntarily to wind up the Company has been adopted by its members.

17. A judgment of a court in the Cayman Islands may be expressed in a currency other than Cayman Islands dollars.

18. On a liquidation of the Company, claims against the Company under the Document will rank at least pari passu with the claims of all other unsecured creditors (other than those preferred by law).

19. In the event of an insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy or reorganisation affecting the Company, no liquidator, creditor or other person would be able to set aside any disposition of property effected by the Company pursuant to the Document.

20. There are no foreign exchange controls or foreign exchange regulations under the currently applicable laws of the Cayman Islands.

21. Based solely upon our review of the Register of Members of FDP as maintained by BNY Mellon Shareowner Services, 300 Galleria Parkway, Suite 1020 Atlanta, GA 30339, United States of America the Company is the recorded holder of 23,435,636 ordinary shares with nominal or par value of US$0.01 each in the issued share capital of FDP as at 31 October 2007.

22. Based solely upon our review of the minute book and the Register of Members of FDP as at the date of this opinion the 23,435,636 ordinary shares of a nominal or par value of US$0.01 held by the Company in the issued capital of FDP (the Company's Shares) have been duly authorised, validly issued as fully paid, and non-assessable. For the purposes of this opinion, non-assessable means that no Cayman Islands taxes are payable in respect of the issue of the Company's Shares.

23. Following the entry of the transfer of such shares into the Register of Members of FDP, the transferee stated on the relevant Share Transfer Form will be duly registered therein as the holder of legal title to such shares in the capital of FDP. Section 38 of the Companies Law (as amended) of the Cayman Islands (the Companies Law) provides, inter alia, that every person who has agreed to become a member of a company and whose name is entered on the register of members, shall be deemed to be a member of the company. Section 48 of the Companies Law provides that the register of members shall be prima facie evidence of any matters by this [Companies] Law directed or authorised to be inserted therein.

This opinion is limited to the matters referred to herein and shall not be construed as extending to any other matter or document not referred to herein. This opinion is given solely for your benefit and the benefit of your legal advisers acting in that capacity in relation to this transaction and may not be relied upon by any other person without our prior written consent.

This opinion shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Yours faithfully

WALKERS

QUALIFICATIONS

1. The term enforceable and its cognates as used in this opinion means that the obligations assumed by the Company under the Document are of a type which the courts of the Cayman Islands enforce. This does not mean that those obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms. In particular:
  - (a) enforcement of obligations and the priority of obligations may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, readjustment of debts or moratorium and other laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors or by prescription or lapse of time;
  - (b) enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity and, in particular, the availability of certain equitable remedies such as injunction or specific performance of an obligation may be limited where the court considers damages to be an adequate remedy;
  - (c) claims may become barred under statutes of limitation or may be or become subject to defences of set-off, counterclaim, estoppel and similar defences;
  - (d) where obligations are to be performed in a jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands, they may not be enforceable in the Cayman Islands to the extent that performance would be illegal under the laws of, or contrary to the public policy of, that jurisdiction;
  - (e) a judgment of a court of the Cayman Islands may be required to be made in Cayman Islands dollars;
  - (f) to the extent that any provision of the Document is adjudicated to be penal in nature, it will not be enforceable in the courts of the Cayman Islands; in particular, the enforceability of any provision of the Document which imposes additional obligations in the event of any breach or default, or of payment or prepayment being made other than on an agreed date, may be limited to the extent that it is subsequently adjudicated to be penal in nature and not an attempt to make a reasonable pre-estimate of loss;
  - (g) to the extent that the performance of any obligation arising under the Document would be fraudulent or contrary to public policy, it will not be enforceable in the courts of the Cayman Islands;

- (h) a Cayman Islands court will not necessarily award costs in litigation in accordance with contractual provisions in this regard; and
  - (i) the effectiveness of terms in the Document excusing any party from a liability or duty otherwise owed or indemnifying that party from the consequences of incurring such liability or breaching such duty shall be construed in accordance with, and shall be limited by, applicable law, including generally applicable rules and principles of common law and equity.
2. Cayman Islands stamp duty will be payable if the Document are executed in, brought to, or produced before a court of the Cayman Islands. Such duty would be nominal except in the case of:
- (a) a debenture or a legal or equitable mortgage or charge of immovable property:
    - (i) where the sum secured is CI$300,000.00 (US$360,000.00) or less, in which case duty would be 1% of the sum secured; or
    - (ii) where the sum secured is more than CI$300,000.00 (US$360,000.00) whether initially or after further advance, in which case duty would be 1.5% of the sum secured;
  - (b) a legal or equitable mortgage or charge of movable property (not including a debenture but including a bill of sale) in which case duty would be 1.5% of the sum secured;
- PROVIDED THAT no duty shall be payable under subparagraphs (a) and (b) where the property is situated outside the Cayman Islands; and that in the case of a legal or equitable mortgage or charge granted by an exempted company, an ordinary non-resident company (as defined in the Companies Law (as amended)) or an exempted trust (as defined in the Trusts Law (as amended)) or a body corporate incorporated outside the Cayman Islands of movable property situated in the Cayman Islands or over shares in such exempted company or an ordinary non-resident company, the maximum duty payable shall be CI$500.00 (US$600.00); and
- (c) any note evidencing indebtedness, in which case duty of CI$0.25 per CI$100.00 or part thereof of the face value of each note, subject to a maximum of CI$250.00, is payable, unless, the notes are issued as part of a series by an exempted company or by an ordinary non-resident company (as defined in the Companies Law (as amended)) or by a body corporate incorporated outside the Cayman Islands, in which case a duty of CI$500.00 in respect of the instrument creating the notes may be paid and thereafter no further stamp duty in respect of such notes is payable.

3. A certificate, determination, calculation or designation of any party to the Document as to any matter provided therein might be held by a Cayman Islands court not to be conclusive, final and binding, notwithstanding any provision to that effect therein contained, for example if it could be shown to have an unreasonable, arbitrary or improper basis or in the event of manifest error.
4. If any provision of the Document is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, severance of such provision from the remaining provisions will be subject to the discretion of the Cayman Islands courts notwithstanding any express provisions in this regard.
5. In principle, a person who claims to be entitled pursuant to a contract to recover the legal fees and expenses incurred in enforcing that contract shall be entitled to judgment for the amount of legal fees and expenses found due under the contract and such amount shall not be subject to taxation pursuant to the applicable rule of court.
6. A conveyance, mortgage, charge or other security interest granted or made by a company at a time when that company was unable to pay its debts as they fell due, and made or granted in favour of a creditor with a dominant intention to give that creditor a preference over the other creditors of the company, would be void pursuant to Section 168(1) of the Companies Law (as amended), if within six months thereof a petition is presented to the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands for the winding-up of such company, or a resolution is passed for the voluntary winding-up of the company.
7. Under the Fraudulent Dispositions Law (as amended), any disposition of property made with an intent to defraud (which means an intention by the party disposing of the property to wilfully defeat an obligation owed to a creditor) and at an undervalue, shall be voidable at the instance of the creditor thereby prejudiced.
8. We express no opinion upon the effectiveness of any clause of the Document providing that the terms of such Document may only be amended in writing.

9. Notwithstanding any purported date of execution in the Document, the rights and obligations therein contained take effect only on the actual execution and delivery thereof but the Document may provide that they have retrospective effect as between the parties thereto alone.

10. The obligations of the Company may be subject to restrictions pursuant to United Nations sanctions and/or measures adopted by the European Union Council for Common Foreign & Security Policy extended to the Cayman Islands by the Order of Her Majesty in Council.

11. Persons who are not party to the Document (other than beneficiaries under properly constituted trusts or persons acting pursuant to powers contained in a deed poll) under Cayman Islands law have no direct rights or obligations under such Document.

12. Based on the decision in the English case of Houldsworth v City of Glasgow Bank (1880) 5 App Cas 317 HL, in the event of a misrepresentation by a Company on which a shareholder relied in agreeing to subscribe for shares in such Company, the shareholder may be entitled to rescind the share subscription agreement and thereafter claim damages against such Company for any additional loss suffered as a result of the misrepresentation. Such a claim for damages will not arise unless and until the shareholder has successfully rescinded the share subscription agreement. A shareholder may be barred from rescinding on the grounds of delay or affirmation and if such Company is wound up (whether voluntarily or compulsorily), such shareholder will lose the right to rescind the share subscription agreement.

In addition, the undersigned agrees that, without the prior written consent of Morgan Stanley on behalf of the Underwriters, it will not, during the period commencing on the date hereof and ending 90 days after the date of the Prospectus, make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to, the registration of any Ordinary Shares or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Ordinary Shares. The undersigned also agrees and consents to the entry of stop transfer instructions with the Company's transfer agent and registrar against the transfer of the undersigned's Ordinary Shares except in compliance with the foregoing restrictions.

<sup>1</sup> This clause shall only be applicable to Jean-Pierre Bartoli, Emanuel Lazopoulos, Thomas Young and Antolin Saiz in the amounts of 16,000, 4,000, 8,000 and 8,000 Ordinary Shares, respectively.

The undersigned understands that the Company and the Underwriters are relying upon this agreement in proceeding toward consummation of the Public Offering. The undersigned further understands that this agreement is irrevocable and shall be binding upon the undersigned's heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

This lock-up letter shall be terminated (i) if the Underwriting Agreement is terminated for any reason prior to the closing of the Public Offering or (ii) on the date that is 90 days after the date of the Prospectus.

Whether or not the Public Offering actually occurs depends on a number of factors, including market conditions. Any Public Offering will only be made pursuant to an Underwriting Agreement, the terms of which are subject to negotiation between the Company and the Underwriters.

Very truly yours,
