Item 2.06 Material Impairment.

In a Current Report on Form 8-K dated September 9, 2008, The First American Corporation (the Company) announced that, as a result of actions taken by the United States government with respect to the Federal National Mortgage Association ( Fannie Mae ) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ( Freddie Mac ), it would record other-than-temporary impairment and take a charge to third quarter earnings related to its $30.3 and $7.6 million investments in perpetual preferred securities issued by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, respectively. On October 10, 2008, the Company concluded that the third quarter pre-tax charge for impairment of these assets will be approximately $34.8 million. The Company does not expect the impairment to result in future cash expenditures.

Forward-Looking Statements

This current report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including the statements relating to the charge to third quarter earnings and related future cash expenditures. Risks and uncertainties exist that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the anticipated results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements include changes in market conditions or governmental action with respect to Fannie Mae and/or Freddie Mac. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

SIGNATURES
