Item 2.06. Material Impairments.

On December 29, 2010, CoreLogic, Inc. (the Company ) filed a Form 8-K (the Original 8-K ) disclosing entry into a purchase agreement with STG-Fairway Holdings, LLC (the Purchase Agreement ) pursuant to which the Company sold its (i) employment and investment background screening services, including criminal records research and reporting, employment verifications services, fingerprinting, drug testing and investigative services, (ii) human resources outsourcing services, (iii) tax credit consulting solutions, and (iv) litigation support services (the Business ). In connection with the entry into the Purchase Agreement, the Company anticipated that it would record an additional impairment charge related to the Business. At the time that the Original 8-K was filed, the Company was unable in good faith to estimate the anticipated impairment charge. Further analysis in connection with the financial impact of the sale of the Business has now provided the Company with the ability to estimate these amounts.

As reported in the press release attached as Exhibit 99.1 to its Current Report on Form 8-K furnished with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 24, 2011, the Company incurred an incremental impairment charge in the form of the loss on the sale of the Business of $19.0 million. The net loss is comprised of a gross loss of $53.5 million net of a $34.5 million tax benefit. These amounts will be reflected in the Company s financial results for the period ended December 31, 2010.

SIGNATURES
