CONSTELLATION ENERGY GROUP INC

Form 425

October 28, 2011

Filed by Constellation Energy Group, Inc.

Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933 and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Subject Company: Constellation Energy Group, Inc.

Commission File No. 333-175162

On October 28, 2011, the following communication was distributed to Constellation Energy leadership related to the merger with Exelon.

This message is being sent to all Constellation leaders.

Earlier this month, we mailed proxy materials to all of our shareholders in connection with a Special Meeting of Shareholders being held on November 17, 2011, to allow shareholders to vote on three proposals relating to our proposed merger with Exelon Corporation. Constellation shareholders are being asked, specifically, to vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger on substantially the terms set forth in the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/prospectus, FOR the non-binding, advisory proposal to approve the compensation that may become payable to Constellation's named executive officers in connection with the completion of the proposed merger and FOR the proposal to adjourn the Constellation special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal.

Since you are a critical link to our broader employee population, a majority of who own shares in Constellation, your help is needed to carry the following message to your teams:

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT.

Please share the following key points with your employees:

All Constellation shareholders are receiving proxy materials in the mail in connection with a Special Meeting of Shareholders being held on November 17, 2011, to allow shareholders to vote on three proposals relating to our proposed merger with Exelon Corporation. Employees who have Constellation shares in different accounts may receive more than one proxy card and should vote the shares from each card.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast. As a result, if a shareholder abstains from voting or fails to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal. Whether your holdings are large or small, we urge you to vote your shares FOR the merger proposal, the compensation proposal and the adjournment proposal as promptly as possible. The voting can be done online, on the phone or through the mail, and the proxy materials will have clear instructions.

If you have any questions, or need assistance in voting, please contact our proxy solicitor Innisfree M&A Incorporated at 1-877-800-5182.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Except for the historical information contained herein, certain of the matters discussed in this communication constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as may, will, anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, target, and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions, or events identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger of Exelon Corporation (Exelon) and Constellation Energy Group, Inc. (Constellation), integration plans and expected synergies, the expected timing of completion of the transaction, anticipated future financial and operating performance and results, including estimates for growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Exelon and Constellation, as applicable. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this communication regarding the proposed merger. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Exelon or Constellation could interfere with the merger; (5) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (6) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies' expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger; (10) the companies may not realize the values expected to be obtained for properties expected or required to be divested; (11) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (12) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of Exelon, Constellation or the combined company. Discussions of some of these other important factors and assumptions are contained in Exelon's and Constellation's respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, including: (1) Exelon's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K in (a) ITEM 1A. Risk Factors, (b) ITEM 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and (c) ITEM 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data: Note 18; (2) Exelon's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2011 in (a) Part II, Other Information, ITEM 1A. Risk Factors, (b) Part I, Financial Information, ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and (c) Part I, Financial Information, ITEM 1. Financial Statements: Note 13; (3) Constellation's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K in (a) ITEM 1A. Risk Factors, (b) ITEM 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and (c) ITEM 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data: Note 12; and (4) Constellation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2011 in (a) Part II, Other Information, ITEM 1A. Risk Factors and ITEM 5. Other Information, (b) Part I, Financial Information, ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and (c) Part I, Financial Information, ITEM 1. Financial Statements: Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, Commitments and Contingencies. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed merger, are more fully discussed in the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus included in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that Exelon filed with the SEC and that the SEC declared effective on October 11, 2011 in connection with the proposed merger. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward-looking events discussed in this communication may not occur. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this communication. Neither Exelon nor Constellation undertake any obligation to publicly release any revision to its forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this communication.

Additional Information and Where to Find it
