The Company thanks Mr. Hnat for his many years of service.

(c) On May 17, 2018, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Joanna Geraghty, the Company’s Executive Vice President Customer Experience, as President and Chief Operating Officer effective June 1, 2018. In this new role, Ms. Geraghty will assume responsibility for the day to day airline operations.

Ms. Geraghty, age 45, joined JetBlue in 2005 as Director Litigation & Regulatory Counsel. In connection with his retirement from the Company, JetBlue and Mr. Hnat have entered into a separation agreement (the “Separation Agreement”) dated May 17, 2018, under which Mr. Hnat will receive the EVP-level benefits under the Company’s severance plan plus a special bonus of $500,000 in recognition of Mr. Hnat’s significant efforts during his 17 year tenure with the airline to build and develop the legal department, to support innovation with the formation and start up of JetBlue Technology Ventures and JBTP, LLC, and to nurture the Company’s culture during periods of significant growth. In addition, the Company has offered, and Mr. Hnat has accepted employment as an advisor through December 31, 2018, compensated at approximately $60,833 per month, plus relocation support of up to $30,000.
