With respect to the Company's Proposal to approve an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to reduce the authorized shares, the Company has adjourned the meeting to provide its stockholders additional time to vote on the amendment to its certificate of incorporation. The charter amendment requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares outstanding for adoption. Less than half of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock have been voted on this proposal. During the period of the adjournment, the Company will continue to solicit proxies from its stockholders with respect to the proposed charter amendment. Stockholders who have not already done so are encouraged to vote on the proposal. Stockholders who have already voted need not take any action on the proposal, although they may change their vote for the charter amendment by executing a new proxy, revoking a previously given proxy or attending the adjourned meeting and voting in person as set forth in the Company's proxy statement. The meeting adjournment with respect to the second proposal will be at 10:00 AM, Eastern Time, on Friday, May 31, 2013 at the offices of Blank Rome LLP, counsel to the Company, located at 405 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10174.

The Company filed the proxy statement for the 2013 Annual Meeting with the SEC on April 11, 2013 pursuant to which the Company is soliciting additional proxies in connection with the second proposal. Stockholders are encouraged to read the proxy statement and other relevant documents filed with the SEC.
