The following is an email message sent on behalf of Christopher Young, Senior Vice President, Security Group of Cisco Systems, Inc., to the leadership team of Sourcefire, Inc.

Dear Sourcefire Leadership Team,

Today, Cisco announced strong FY13 results reflecting how well we executed as a company over the last year. The Sourcefire acquisition was discussed during the earnings call as a major step forward to being our customers' leading security partner and our aspirational goal to be the #1 security company.

Despite our strong FY 13 results, Cisco continues to face a challenging macroeconomic environment. We have seen two things change: first, the economic recovery is slower and more inconsistent, with global GDP continuing to tick down for calendar year 2013 and global challenge across in Southern Europe, several of the emerging markets, and Asia Pacific; and second, the pace of change is continuing to increase.

In this environment, Cisco is focused on aligning resources to our top opportunities, balancing expenses to revenue, driving efficiencies in the business, and investing in growth. During our earnings call today, we announced that in order to execute on the portfolio investment and operational efficiency opportunities we see in fiscal 2014, we are rebalancing our resources with a workforce reduction which will impact approximately 4,000 employees or 5% of our global workforce.

I want to be very clear that Sourcefire employees and management will not be impacted by this workforce reduction. Consistent with our long-term goal to be the #1 IT company in the world, we expect to continue to invest in our top opportunities, including security. We expect Sourcefire employees will ask your management teams about today's announcement and we want you to be prepared with our response. Please cascade this message appropriately. Below is a direct Q&A for your teams.

We are continuing to simplify Cisco to accelerate through change with greater speed, flexibility and agility. If you have questions regarding integration and the actions announced today, please feel free to contact me, Julie Ross or Susan McDonough.

Thank you.

Chris
