The Stockholders Agreement provides that, prior to the end of the twelve-month period following the purchase of the Shares, and thereafter during any regularly scheduled black-out period of the Issuer or any other trading black-out declared by the Issuer pursuant to its insider trading policies, ASAC and its controlled affiliates are prohibited from transferring or announcing any intention to transfer their shares of Common Stock without the prior written consent of the majority of the members of the board of directors of Activision not affiliated with ASAC, subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Stockholders Agreement (including to sell shares to pay off debt).

The Stockholders Agreement also provides that at any time at which the percentage of shares of Common Stock held by ASAC, any member of a group with ASAC and RAK and BGK, divided by the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, exceeds 24.7%, RAK and BGK will vote any shares in excess of 24.7% (other than shares of Common Stock held by ASAC) in a manner proportionally consistent with the vote of the share of Common Stock not owned by ASAC, RAK or BGK or in accordance with the recommendation, if any, of a majority of the members of the board of directors of Activision unaffiliated with ASAC, RAK or BGK.

Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement

The partners of ASAC made capital contributions to ASAC in return for the following preferred and common interests in ASAC:

Limited Partners	94.415%	65.000%	82.500%	80.000%	75.000%

Upon the commencement of the winding up of ASAC no later than the fourth anniversary of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, and upon the repayment of the bank loans and the payment of due provision for any other liabilities of ASAC, the remaining shares of Activision Blizzard common stock held by ASAC will be distributed to the partners (based on the average closing price of shares of Activision Blizzard common stock over the 15 trading days immediately preceding the distribution date) in the following order of priority:

first, until the Preferred Return Threshold (defined below) has been met, to the partners pro rata in accordance with their respective percentage interests in respect of the Preferred Interests;

second, until the First Return Threshold (defined below) has been met, to the partners pro rata in accordance with their respective percentage interests of the Class A Common Interests;

third, until the Second Return Threshold (defined below) has been met, to the partners pro rata in accordance with their respective percentage interests in respect of Class B Common Interests;

fourth, until the Third Return Threshold (defined below) has been met, to the partners pro rata in accordance with their respective percentage interests in respect of Class C Common Interests; and

First Return Threshold means (a) the receipt of distributions by the partners in respect of their Preferred Interests and Common Interests that yield an internal rate of return of 12% on the partners' aggregate capital contributions for their Preferred Interests, accruing from and including the date of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement to but not including the date the last of such distributions is made, and (b) after the distributions under clause (a) have been made, the return to each partner of its capital contribution for its Class A Common Interests.

Second Return Threshold means (a) the receipt of distributions by the partners in respect of their Preferred Interests and Common Interests (excluding the return of each partner's capital contribution for its Class A Common Interests) that yield an internal rate of return of 18.0% on the partners' aggregate capital contributions for their Preferred Interests, accruing from and including the date of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement to but not including the date the last of such distributions is made, and (b) after the distributions under clause (a) have been made, the return to each partner of its capital contribution for its Class B Common Interests.

Third Return Threshold means (a) the receipt of distributions by the partners in respect of their Preferred Interests and Common Interests (excluding the return of each partner's capital contributions for its Class A Common Interests and Class B Common Interests) that yield an internal rate of return of 22.0% on the partners' aggregate capital contributions for their Preferred Interests, accruing from and including the date of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement to but not including the date the last of such distributions is made, and (b) after the distributions under clause (a) have been made, the return to each partner of its capital contribution for its Class C Common Interests.
