Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 15, 2013, FMC Corporation (the Company) completed the sale of $400 million aggregate principal amount of the Company's 4.100% Senior Notes due 2024 (the Notes). The Notes were issued under and are governed by an Indenture, dated as of November 15, 2009 (the Base Indenture), between the Company and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), as supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Indenture, dated as of November 15, 2013, by and among the Company and the Trustee (the Third Supplemental Indenture and the Base Indenture, as so supplemented and amended, the Indenture).

The Notes bear interest at a rate of 4.100% per year, payable semi-annually on February 1 and August 1 of each year, beginning on February 1, 2014. The Notes will mature on February 1, 2024, unless earlier redeemed or repurchased. The Company may redeem the Notes, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, on or before November 1, 2023 at a redemption price set forth in the Third Supplemental Indenture (which redemption price may not be less than the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed) and at any time in whole or from time to time in part, after November 1, 2023 at 100% of the principal amount, in each case, plus accrued and unpaid interest, to but not including, the date of redemption. Subject to certain limitations, in the event of a change of control (as defined in the Indenture) of the Company, the Company will be required to make an offer to repurchase the Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes to be purchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, to the date of repurchase.

Subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions, the Indenture, among other things, limits the Company's ability and the ability of the Company's restricted subsidiaries to create liens and to enter into sale and leaseback transactions and limits the Company's ability to merge or consolidate with or into other entities or to sell, lease or convey all or substantially all of the Company's assets.

The Indenture provides for certain events of default (subject in certain cases to grace and cure periods) which include, among others, non-payment of principal or interest; breach of covenants or warranties in the Indenture; defaults under or failure to pay certain other indebtedness; failure to pay certain final judgments; and certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, administration or similar proceedings. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee and the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately.

The foregoing is a brief description of certain terms of the Indenture and, by its nature, is incomplete. It is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Indenture. The Company is filing the Third Supplemental Indenture as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and the Base Indenture was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 30, 2009 as Exhibit 4.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, both of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The disclosure in Item 1.01 with respect to the Indenture and the Notes is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03 insofar as it relates to the creation of a direct financial obligation.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 15, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing the sale of the Notes. The press release is being furnished with this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.
