Section 1 Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Item 1.01 Conflict Minerals Disclosure and Report

In accordance with the execution of this policy, Harman International Industries, Incorporated ( HARMAN ) has concluded in good faith that during 2013:

- (a) HARMAN has manufactured or contracted to manufacture products as to which tin, tungsten, tantalum and/or gold (herein referred to as 3TGs or conflict minerals ) are necessary to the functionality or production of such products.
- (b) Based on a reasonable country of origin inquiry, HARMAN knows or has reason to believe that a portion of its necessary 3TGs originated or may have originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country (collectively, sometimes referred to as the Covered Countries ) and knows or has reason to believe that those necessary 3TGs may not be from recycled or scrap sources.

Description of HARMAN's Reasonable Country of Origin Inquiry ( RCOI ):

HARMAN's RCOI employed a combination of measures to determine whether the necessary 3TGs in HARMAN products originated from the Covered Countries. HARMAN's primary means of determining country of origin of necessary 3TGs was by conducting a supply chain survey with direct suppliers using the EICC-GeSI Conflict Minerals Reporting Template. This supply chain survey, and the conflict minerals program as a whole is being developed and implemented with our third-party service provider, Assent Compliance Inc.

All of HARMAN's direct suppliers were surveyed as HARMAN could not definitively determine which products contained 3TGs that were necessary to the functionality or production of our products. Approximately 31.27% of HARMAN suppliers have responded to the supply chain survey via the EICC-GeSI reporting template conducted as part of the RCOI. Currently, only 0.012% of respondents have declared that their 3TGs come from the DRC but it is currently unknown whether they directly or indirectly finance armed conflict.

In accordance with Rule 13p-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, HARMAN has filed this Specialized Disclosure Report on Form SD ( Form SD ) and the associated Conflict Minerals Report and both reports are posted to a publicly available Internet site at <http://investor.harman.com/sec.cfm>.
