Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 2, 2014, Santander Consumer USA Holdings Inc. (the Company) entered into an underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) with Sponsor Auto Finance Holdings Series LP, as selling stockholder (the Selling Stockholder), and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as the underwriter (the Underwriter), relating to a secondary public offering (the Offering) of its common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock). Prior to the Offering, the Selling Stockholder was the beneficial owner of approximately 4.1% of the Company's outstanding common stock. Under the Underwriting Agreement, the Selling Stockholder, an investment vehicle jointly owned by investment funds affiliated with certain entities, including Warburg Pincus LLC and Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P., agreed to sell 10,047,954 shares of Common Stock to the Underwriter at a purchase price per share of $18.65. The Offering closed on September 8, 2014. The Company will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Common Stock by the Selling Stockholder.

The Underwriting Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Company and the Selling Stockholder. It also provides that the Company and the Selling Stockholder will indemnify the Underwriter against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or contribute to payments that the Underwriter may be required to make because of any of those liabilities.

The Underwriter is a full-service financial institution engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The Underwriter and its affiliates have in the past performed commercial banking, investment banking and advisory services for the Company from time to time for which they have received customary fees and reimbursement of expenses and may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for the Company in the ordinary course of their business for which they may receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Underwriter and its affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (which may include bank loans and/or credit default swaps) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Company or its affiliates. In addition, affiliates of the Underwriter are lenders, and in some cases agents or managers for the lenders, under the Company's credit facilities, and affiliates of the Underwriter receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses as Underwriters for the Company's securitizations. The Underwriter or its affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Company routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Company consistent with their customary risk management policies. A typical such hedging strategy would include the underwriter or its affiliates hedging such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in the Company's securities. The Underwriter and its affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

A copy of the Underwriting Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.1 and is incorporated by reference herein. The foregoing description of the terms of the Underwriting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 1.1.
