On May 20, 2016, Gannett Co., Inc. began mailing the following letter to the stockholders of Tribune Publishing Company:

May 20, 2016

Dear Tribune Publishing Company Stockholder,

On May 16, 2016, Gannett Co., Inc. (Gannett) increased its offer to acquire all of Tribune Publishing Company (Tribune) to $15.00 per share from $12.25 per share. Gannett's offer represents certain and superior cash value for your shares during an increasingly uncertain time for the industry. The $15.00 per share offer price represents:

a 99% premium to the $7.52 closing price of Tribune's common stock on April 22, 2016, the last trading day before Gannett publicly announced its initial offer for Tribune, and

a 76% premium to the $8.50 per share price at which Tribune recently sold common stock to an entity controlled by Michael Ferro, who was then made Tribune's chairman.

On May 4, 2016, Tribune's Board of Directors (Tribune Board) formally rejected Gannett's initial offer of $12.25 per share, without entering into substantive discussions, making a counteroffer or otherwise engaging with Gannett. While Gannett has since increased its offer for Tribune, the Tribune Board has yet to respond to or engage with Gannett regarding the increased offer. By not engaging constructively with Gannett regarding its offer and continuing to pursue a substance-free, newly developed and unproven strategy based on Tronc, we believe the Tribune Board is jeopardizing your investment and disregarding your best interests.

Gannett's all-cash offer represents a 99% premium to Tribune's unaffected stock price

Send a strong message to your directors to engage in serious negotiations for superior and certain value without delay

WITHHOLD your vote for all eight of Tribune's director nominees on the GOLD proxy card today

A 99% CASH PREMIUM VS. TRONC WHICH MAKES MORE SENSE TO YOU?

Do not let the Tribune Board stand in the way of your obtaining superior and certain cash value for your shares.

Tribune's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, scheduled for June 2, 2016, is an opportunity for you to influence the value of your investment. Gannett strongly urges you to WITHHOLD votes for ALL of Tribune's director nominees on the enclosed GOLD proxy card today. By voting WITHHOLD for all of Tribune's director nominees, you are sending a clear message that Tribune stockholders want the Tribune Board to engage immediately in a constructive dialogue with Gannett regarding its offer.

JUST WHOSE INTERESTS IS THE TRIBUNE BOARD SERVING?

GANNETT BELIEVES THE TRIBUNE BOARD OPERATES WITH SIGNIFICANT CORPORATE GOVERNANCE DEFICIENCIES

We believe the Tribune Board is disregarding your interests by preventing you from realizing superior and certain cash value for your shares. The Tribune Board:

Rejected Gannett's initial offer outright, without entering into substantive discussions, making a counteroffer or otherwise engaging with Gannett, even though Gannett's initial offer represented a significant premium to Tribune's unaffected stock price and far exceeded the $8.50 per share price at which Tribune recently issued common shares to an entity controlled by Michael Ferro;

Implemented a "poison pill" that provides yet another roadblock to stockholders realizing superior and certain cash value for their investment; and

Has allowed its chairman, Mr. Ferro, to publicly state that Tribune is not for sale at any price, despite public statements from Tribune stockholders urging Tribune to engage, as well as wide public recognition of the financial benefits of the proposed transaction.

Gannett believes that the Tribune Board's conduct is rooted in significant corporate governance deficiencies that were exacerbated when the Tribune Board sold disproportionate control of Tribune to Mr. Ferro at a discount. In February 2016, Tribune sold approximately 16 percent of Tribune's common stock to an entity controlled by Mr. Ferro for $8.50 per share. The $8.50 per share price represented a discount of $0.50 or six percent from Tribune's closing stock price on February 3, 2016, the day prior to the announcement of Mr. Ferro's investment. Mr. Ferro, Tribune's newly-crowned chairman, then led the Tribune Board in taking a series of steps that we believe have conveyed disproportionate control to Mr. Ferro. We've outlined the significant deterioration in Board independence on Side A of the accompanying enclosure.

ARE YOU AWARE THAT AT LEAST FOUR OF TRIBUNE'S EIGHT DIRECTOR NOMINEES HAVE SIGNIFICANT TIES TO MR. FERRO?

As depicted on Side B of the accompanying enclosure, while Mr. Ferro owns a minority stake of approximately 16 percent of Tribune, after the June 2, 2016 Annual Meeting, we believe Mr. Ferro will have disproportionate control of Tribune. The significant ties between Mr. Ferro and these director nominees should trouble all Tribune stockholders (other than Mr. Ferro). Mr. Ferro has an unproven track-record in the publishing industry, and his tenure as an ineffective operator with Chicago Sun-Times is well-documented and resulted in a poor outcome. If the Tribune Board cannot act independently of Mr. Ferro, as its recent actions suggest, it would cast legitimate doubt on the prospect of a successful future for Tribune.

TRIBUNE CHAIRMAN OFFERED SUPPORT OF GANNETT OFFER ONLY IF HE WOULD HAVE A SIGNIFICANT ROLE IN THE COMPANY

Mr. Ferro has made clear that his own self-interest, and not the best interests of all of Tribune's stockholders, is guiding his response to Gannett's offer. During a May 12, 2016 meeting with Gannett's chairman and Gannett's chief executive officer, Mr. Ferro stated that a business combination between Gannett and Tribune could make sense as long as Mr. Ferro would have a significant role at the company post-closing and was its largest shareholder. Mr. Ferro went on to state that he is unwilling to engage in a process unless he, personally, would get a piece of the action.

PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT WITHHOLD USING THE GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY

Whether or not you plan to attend the 2016 Annual Meeting, we strongly encourage you to make your voice heard by using the enclosed GOLD proxy card today to WITHHOLD your votes with respect to ALL of the director nominees to the Tribune Board. Send them a message they can't ignore and let them know you expect them to engage with Gannett, in order to provide you with the opportunity to realize superior and certain cash value for your shares.

Sincerely,

The Gannett Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gannett Mails Letter to Tribune Publishing Company Stockholders

Underscores Value of $15.00 Per Share All-Cash Premium Offer and

Duty of Tribune Board to Engage Immediately; Reiterates Commitment to the Transaction

Urges Tribune Publishing Stockholders to WITHHOLD Votes for ALL Eight Tribune Director Nominees on the GOLD Proxy Card Today

MCLEAN, Va. May 20, 2016 Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI) (Gannett or the Company) today announced that it has mailed a letter to all Tribune Publishing Company (Tribune) stockholders soliciting withhold votes in connection with the election of all eight nominees to the Tribune Board of Directors at Tribune s Annual Meeting to be held on June 2, 2016.

Gannett encourages Tribune stockholders to send a clear and coordinated message to their Board that they expect superior and certain value for their shares and that the Tribune Board should substantively engage immediately with Gannett regarding Gannett s offer to acquire Tribune for $15.00 per share in cash. Gannett s offer provides Tribune stockholders with a 99 percent premium to the $7.52 closing price of Tribune s common stock on April 22, 2016, the last trading day before Gannett publicly announced its initial offer for Tribune.

In addition to underscoring the compelling value of Gannett s offer, the May 20, 2016 letter points to significant corporate governance deficiencies that Gannett believes are endemic to Tribune s Board and compromise the Tribune Board s ability to objectively evaluate Gannett s offer. By continuing to pursue an unproven strategy rather than engaging constructively with Gannett, Gannett believes the Tribune Board is jeopardizing Tribune stockholders investment. The letter also highlights that Tribune s chairman, Michael Ferro, offered to support Gannett s offer only if he would have a significant role in the company post-closing.

The full text of the letter is as follows:

GANNETT S ALL-CASH OFFER REPRESENTS A 99% PREMIUM TO TRIBUNE S UNAFFECTED STOCK PRICE

SEND A STRONG MESSAGE TO YOUR DIRECTORS TO ENGAGE IN SERIOUS NEGOTIATIONS FOR SUPERIOR AND CERTAIN VALUE WITHOUT DELAY

WITHHOLD YOUR VOTE FOR ALL EIGHT OF TRIBUNE S DIRECTOR NOMINEES ON THE GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY

May 20, 2016

Dear Tribune Publishing Company Stockholder,

On May 16, 2016, Gannett Co., Inc. (Gannett) increased its offer to acquire all of Tribune Publishing Company (Tribune) to $15.00 per share from $12.25 per share. Gannett s offer represents certain and superior cash value for your shares during an increasingly uncertain time for the industry. The $15.00 per share offer price represents:

a 99% premium to the $7.52 closing price of Tribune's common stock on April 22, 2016, the last trading day before Gannett publicly announced its initial offer for Tribune, and

a 76% premium to the $8.50 per share price at which Tribune recently sold common stock to an entity controlled by Michael Ferro, who was then made Tribune's chairman.

On May 4, 2016, Tribune's Board of Directors (the Tribune Board) formally rejected Gannett's initial offer of $12.25 per share, without entering into substantive discussions, making a counteroffer or otherwise engaging with Gannett. While Gannett has since increased its offer for Tribune, the Tribune Board has yet to respond to or engage with Gannett regarding the increased offer. By not engaging constructively with Gannett regarding its offer and continuing to pursue a substance-free, newly developed and unproven strategy based on Tronc, we believe the Tribune Board is jeopardizing your investment and disregarding your best interests.

A 99% CASH PREMIUM VS. TRONC WHICH MAKES MORE SENSE TO YOU?

Do not let the Tribune Board stand in the way of your obtaining superior and certain cash value for your shares.

Tribune's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, scheduled for June 2, 2016, is an opportunity for you to influence the value of your investment. Gannett strongly urges you to WITHHOLD votes for ALL of Tribune's director nominees on the enclosed GOLD proxy card today. By voting WITHHOLD for all of Tribune's director nominees, you are sending a clear message that Tribune stockholders want the Tribune Board to engage immediately in a constructive dialogue with Gannett regarding its offer.

Has allowed its chairman, Mr. Ferro, to publicly state that Tribune is not for sale at any price, despite public statements from Tribune stockholders urging Tribune to engage, as well as wide public recognition of the financial benefits of the proposed transaction.

ARE YOU AWARE THAT AT LEAST FOUR OF TRIBUNE'S EIGHT DIRECTOR NOMINEES HAVE SIGNIFICANT TIES TO MR. FERRO?

As depicted on side B of the accompanying enclosure, while Mr. Ferro owns a minority stake of approximately 16 percent of Tribune, after the June 2, 2016 Annual Meeting, we believe Mr. Ferro will control a majority of the Tribune Board. The significant ties between Mr. Ferro and these director nominees should trouble all Tribune stockholders (other than Mr. Ferro). Mr. Ferro has an unproven track-record in the publishing industry, and his tenure as an ineffective operator with The Chicago Sun-Times is well-documented and resulted in a poor outcome. If the Tribune Board cannot act independently of Mr. Ferro, as its recent actions suggest, it casts legitimate doubt on the prospect of a successful future for Tribune.

TRIBUNE CHAIRMAN OFFERED SUPPORT OF GANNETT OFFER ONLY IF HE WOULD HAVE A

Mr. Ferro has made clear that his own self-interest, and not the best interests of all of Tribune's stockholders, is guiding his response to Gannett's offer.
