NEXSTAR BROADCASTING ENTERS INTO DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

TO DIVEST TWO STATIONS IN TWO MARKETS FOR $270 MILLION

IRVING, Texas, June 3, 2016 Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: NXST) (Nexstar) and Media General, Inc. (NYSE: MEG) (Media General) announced today that Nexstar has entered into a definitive agreement to sell WBAY-TV, the ABC affiliate serving the Green Bay, Wisconsin market (DMA #68), and KWQC-TV, the NBC affiliate serving the Davenport -Moline-Rock Island, (Quad Cities) Iowa market (DMA #101), to Gray Television Group, Inc. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Gray Television, Inc., NYSE: GTN) (Gray) for $270 million in cash following the acquisition of Media General by Nexstar.

On January 27, 2016, Nexstar and Media General entered into a definitive merger agreement whereby Nexstar will acquire all outstanding shares of Media General. The planned divestiture of WBAY-TV and KWQC-TV reflects Nexstar's stated intention to divest certain television stations in order to comply with the FCC local and national television ownership rules and to obtain FCC and Department of Justice (DOJ) approval of the proposed Nexstar / Media General transaction.

The sale of WBAY-TV and KWQC-TV to Gray is subject to FCC approval, other regulatory approvals, the closing of the Nexstar / Media General transaction and other customary closing conditions and is expected to be completed on, or about the time of, the closing of the Nexstar / Media General transaction, which is expected later this year.

Wells Fargo Securities, LLC served as the lead financial advisor and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. served as co-advisor for Nexstar in connection with the proposed station sale. MMT Media and Telecom Brokers served as a co-broker for the transactions. Kirkland & Ellis LLP served as legal counsel for Nexstar and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP served as legal counsel for Media General.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication includes forward-looking statements. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events. Forward-looking statements include information preceded by, followed by, or that includes the words guidance, believes, expects, anticipates, could, or similar expressions. These statements, Nexstar and Media General claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements contained in this communication, concerning, among other things, the ultimate outcome and benefits of a transaction between Nexstar and Media General and timing thereof, and future financial performance, including changes in net revenue, cash flow and operating expenses, involve risks and uncertainties, and are subject to change based on various important factors, including the timing to consummate the proposed transaction; the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied and the transaction may not close; the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated, the impact of changes in national and regional economies, the ability to service and refinance our outstanding debt, successful integration of Media General (including achievement of synergies and cost reductions), pricing fluctuations in local and national advertising, future regulatory actions and conditions in the television stations operating areas, competition from others in the broadcast television markets, volatility in programming costs, the effects of governmental regulation of broadcasting, industry consolidation, technological developments and major world news events. Nexstar and Media General undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this communication might not occur. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this release. For more details on factors that could affect these expectations, please see the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus of Nexstar and Media General and Media General's and Nexstar's other filings with the SEC.
