TO: All Linear Technology Employees
FROM: Vince Roche, Analog Devices CEO
SUBJECT: Analog Devices and Linear Technology Together
Dear Linear Technology Employees,

As you know, Analog Devices and Linear Technology announced last week that we plan to combine into one company. I am reaching out to you to convey my excitement about this news. As peers in the analog industry, we at Analog Devices have long admired Linear Technology's success, passion for engineering excellence, and pioneering work in high-performance analog technologies.

This is a highly complementary and compelling move for both of our companies. Analog Devices and Linear Technology together will have enhanced breadth and depth in all elements of analog technology. Combining the strength of this platform anchored by the best two teams of analog engineers in the industry creates an unrivaled powerhouse in innovation that will help redefine the trajectory of the industry and help our customers solve their most complex problems.

I know that Linear Technology has been an independent company with a proud and strong culture for more than 35 years. I want to make clear that the primary driver of this combination is to continue to cultivate, invest in, and accelerate the kind of innovation and excellence Bob Swanson and Bob Dobkin envisioned and for which Linear Technology is known. I am confident that a combined company will create even more opportunities for people at both companies.

Until closing, Analog Devices and Linear Technology will continue to operate as independent companies. In the interim, our two leadership teams will collaborate to combine the strengths of both companies and create a new organization that is much greater than the sum of its individual parts. I look forward to meeting you and hearing your thoughts and perspectives on our future together.

Sincerely,

Vincent Roche

President and Chief Executive Officer

Analog Devices, Inc.
