INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On September 22, 2016, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB (WSFS) reached a settlement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) relating to certain aspects of WSFS' registered transfer agent (RTA) services. Without admitting or denying the findings in the SEC's administrative cease-and-desist order, WSFS agreed to pay a civil penalty of $375,000. The SEC investigation was disclosed in the Company's June 30, 2016 10-Q filing, and the estimated penalty was included in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements as of June 30, 2016.

The RTA issue had its genesis in 2007, when Christiana Bank & Trust Company (CBT), then an independent trust company, originated a relationship with a person who had been convicted of violations of securities laws. CBT did not discover this individual's convictions, and WSFS did not uncover these convictions when it acquired CBT in 2010. During the course of an SEC examination of the RTA business in 2012, the SEC discovered this client relationship in the portfolio and also determined that WSFS may have violated certain RTA rules.

WSFS has since terminated its relationship with this individual and enhanced its client origination and on-boarding procedures so that such an omission will not recur. WSFS also revamped its transfer agent policies and procedures to address the compliance issues raised by the SEC. WSFS has cooperated with the SEC and hired an independent third party consultant to help ensure that its transfer agent policies and procedures are designed to be compliant with all applicable legal requirements.
