Geron Corporation (the Company) is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K on April 4, 2012, to report that David J. Earp, Ph.D., J.D., will separate employment from the Company effective June 30, 2012. Until such separation, Dr. Earp will maintain his role as the Company's Senior Vice President, Corporate Transactions, and Chief Legal Officer. On April 2, 2012, Stephen N. Rosenfield, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, began managing the Company's legal affairs.

On April 2, 2012, the Company and Dr. Earp entered into a Transition and Separation Agreement (the Earp Agreement), effective April 10, 2012, that provides for, among other things, a lump sum cash severance payment of $357,500, less applicable taxes, and twelve (12) months of continued health care coverage under the provisions of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, consistent with Dr. Earp's employment agreement dated December 19, 2008, as amended. In addition, subject to Dr. Earp's performance of his obligations as an employee of the Company through to June 30, 2012, Dr. Earp will receive a bonus payment of up to $65,000, and a lump-sum cash retention payment in an amount equal to $81,250, less applicable taxes. The Earp Agreement contains indemnification provisions and provides that the exercise period of all exercisable stock options held by Dr. Earp is extended to the earlier of June 30, 2014 or the original expiration date of such stock options. The Earp Agreement also provides that the confidentiality provisions of Dr. Earp's 2008 employment agreement remain in full force and effect. In consideration of the entry into the Earp Agreement and the separation benefits described above, Dr. Earp provided the Company with a general release of claims against the Company and has agreed to execute a comparable general release of claims on June 30, 2012.

In addition, the Earp Agreement contains provisions pursuant to which Dr. Earp has agreed to serve as an independent consultant to the Company from July 1, 2012 until September 30, 2012 (the Consulting Term), with an option in favor of the Company to extend the Consulting Term until December 31, 2012. The Company and Dr. Earp may each terminate the Consulting Term at any time with thirty (30) days' advance notice. The consulting provisions also provide that Dr. Earp will receive a consulting fee of $400 per hour. Under the consulting provisions, consistent with the terms of the Company's 2002 Equity Incentive Plan and 2011 Incentive Award Plan and the original terms of the awards and options previously granted to him, Dr. Earp is entitled to continued vesting of currently unvested restricted stock awards and unvested stock options during the Consulting Term.

The foregoing description of the Earp Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Earp Agreement, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2012.
