REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Shareholders of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A.

We have reviewed the condensed consolidated balance sheet of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (formerly known as Gol Transportes Aéreos S.A.) and subsidiaries as of September 30, 2004 and the related condensed consolidated statements of income for the three-month and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 and the condensed consolidated statements of shareholders' equity for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2004. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical review procedures to financial data, and making inquiries of persons responsible to financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We have previously audited, in accordance with auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (formerly known as Gol Transportes Aéreos S.A.) and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2003, and the related consolidated statements of income, cash flows and shareholders' equity for the year then ended not presented herein, and in our report dated March 5, 2004, except for Notes 1 and 8, as to which the date is May 25, 2004, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2003 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

GOL LINHAS AÉREAS INTELIGENTES S.A.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

(In thousands of Brazilian Reais)

1. Business Overview

On March 29, 2004, GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (the Company or GLAI) became the parent company of GOL Transportes Aéreos S.A. (GOL) pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the shareholders of GOL. The Company was incorporated by issuing 224 common shares to Aeropar Participações S.A. and 56 preferred shares to Comporte Participações S.A. for an aggregate amount of one hundred reais. In accordance with the reorganization plan, all outstanding common and preferred shares of GOL (except for 14 common shares and 8 class B preferred shares of GOL that are held by members of GOL's board of directors) were contributed to the Company in exchange for the applicable number of common or preferred shares of the Company. The 116,199,986 common shares of GOL were exchanged for 109,448,267 common shares and 6,751,719 preferred shares of the Company. The 29,050,000 preferred shares class A of GOL were exchanged for 29,049,994 preferred shares and 6 common shares of the Company. The 23,542,977 preferred shares class B of GOL were exchanged for 23,542,977 preferred shares of the Company. The reorganization did not impact the operations or financial condition of GOL in any respect as of December 31, 2003 and as such, does not result in new basis of accounting.

On May 25, 2004, the shareholders approved a 2.80 for 1 stock split for all outstanding common and preferred shares. As a result of the stock split, the aggregate number of preferred shares and common shares outstanding was increased to 168,793,243. As of May 25, 2004 the Company had 59,344,746 preferred and 109,448,497 common shares. All share and earnings per share information for all periods presented have been restated to give retroactive effect to the May 25, 2004 stock split. Also, on the same date shareholders approved amendments to the Company's bylaws whereby holders of common shares may convert their shares into preferred shares, at the rate of one common share to one preferred share, to the extent such shares are duly paid in and provided that the amount of preferred shares does not exceed 50% of the total amount of shares issued. Any request for conversion must be delivered to the board of executive officers and, once accepted by the board of executive officers must be confirmed by the board of directors at the first meeting after the date of the request of conversion.

On June 29, 2004 the company concluded its initial public offering (IPO) issuing 18,750,000 preferred shares and receiving proceeds in the amount of R$459,305 net of the issuance costs of R$37,050.

The Company's principal subsidiary, GOL, was incorporated on August 1, 2000 and its main purpose is to provide regular domestic air transportation services for passengers, cargo and mail in Brazil, under the concession regime as authorized by the Civil Air Transportation Office - DAC of the Ministry of Aviation through Ordinance No. 1109/DGAC of August 18, 2000.

GOL commenced operations on January 15, 2001 and as of September 30, 2004 operated 23 Boeing 737-700/737-800/737-300 Next Generation aircraft, serving 33 cities.

In April 2004 the Company received approval from the DAC to increase its aircraft fleet to 25 and to serve four new destinations in Brazil: Porto Velho, Rio Branco, Joinville and Uberlândia.

On May 24, 2004 the Company formed GOL Finance LLP for the purpose of facilitating cross-border transactions, including the lease and the purchase of aircraft. GOL Finance LLP, whose capital at September 30, 2004 was US$17.5 million, is based in the United Kingdom.

During July 2004, the Company took delivery of its first 737-300 aircraft under two-year operating leases. The Company also exercised two purchase options with the Boeing Company increasing its firm orders to 17. The two additional purchased aircraft are expected to be delivered in July 2006.

Also in July 2004, the Company received approval from the Comissão de Estudos Relativos à Navegação Aérea (CERNAI) to start regular international flights to Buenos Aires-Argentina, and the Company opened bases in Porto Velho and Rio Branco increasing the number of cities to be served to 33.

The following table sets forth the ownership and percentages of the Company's voting (common) and non-voting (preferred) shares as at September 30, 2004:

	Common	Preferred	Total
Aeropar Participações S.A	100%	40.3%	75.2%

Edgar Filing: Gol Intelligent Airlines Inc. - Form 6-K

Comporte Participações S.A	-	4.3%	1.8%
BSSF Air Holdings LLC	-	13.1%	5.4%
Public	-	42.3%	17.6%
		100%	100%
		100%	100%

Áurea Administrações e Participações S.A. and Comporte Participações S.A are entities controlled by members of the board of directors of the Company. Aeropar Participações S.A is a subsidiary of Áurea Administrações e Participações S.A.

BSSF Air Holdings LLC. is a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of AIG Brazil Special Situations Fund L.D. and AIG Brazil Special Situation parallel Fund C.V., which are funds administered by the AIG Group.

2. Basis of presentation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements

The unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements were prepared to reflect the combined financial position and the combined results of operations as if the Company had been set up on January 1, 2001 and as if the aforementioned corporate reorganization had occurred at that date.

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments consisting of normal recurring nature, considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included.

The results of the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results that might be expected for the full year ending December 31, 2004. The balance sheet at December 31, 2003 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for complete financial statements. The accompanying consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and footnotes for the year ended December 31, 2003.

For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's registration statements in Form F-1 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

3. Significant accounting policies

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP), using Brazilian Reais as functional and reporting currency. The average exchange rates for the third quarter of 2004 and 2003 were R$2.9783 and R$2.9332 respectively. The exchange rate at September 30, 2004 was R$2.8586. The accounting principles adopted under US GAAP differ in certain respects from accounting principles generally accepted in Brazil (Brazilian GAAP), which the Company uses to prepare its statutory financial statements.

The more significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with those adopted in the preparation of the audited consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2003.

Advertising costs, which are included in sales and marketing, are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 amounted to R$16,448 and R$16,691 respectively.

Accounting for stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Compensation expense for a stock option grant is recognized if the exercise price is less than the fair value of our stock on the grant date. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per common and preferred share if we had applied the fair value method to measure stock-based compensation as required under the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, " Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", as amended:

Three Months Ended	Nine Months Ended
September 30,	September 30,

Edgar Filing: Gol Intelligent Airlines Inc. - Form 6-K

	2004	2004
Net Income, as reported	96,900	260,785
Add: Stock-based employee compensation using intrinsic value	7,164	8,047
Deduct:- Stock-based employee compensation expense determined under the fair value method	(8,454)	(10,083)
Proforma net income	95,610	258,749

Earnings per common and preferred shares:

Basic as reported	0.5167	1.4723
Basic proforma	0.5098	1.4608
Diluted as reported	0.5144	1.4655
Diluted proforma	0.5076	1.4540

The fair value for these stock options was estimated at the date of grant using the Black Scholes option-pricing model assuming: expected dividend yield of 2%, expected volatility of approximately 37%, weighted average risk-free interest rate of 16%, and an expected average life of two years.

4. Receivables

Receivables are summarized as follows:

	September 30, 2004	December 31, 2003
Credit cards (net of commissions)	276,999	R$ 215,343
Account holders cargo and tickets	3,654	2,831

	330,352	244,336
Allowance for doubtful accounts	(3,515)	(3,760)
	326,837	R$ 240,576

The charge off to the allowance for doubtful accounts was R$931 and the increase was R$686 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004.

5. Deposits

Deposits for aircraft leasing contracts All the Company's aircraft are leased under operating leasing contracts. As required by the leasing contracts, the Company was obligated to make certain U.S. dollar deposits as a guarantee to the leasing companies. These deposits are non-interest bearing and refundable at the end of the respective lease agreements.

Deposits for aircraft and engine maintenance U.S. dollar deposits for aircraft and engine maintenance as stipulated in the respective lease agreements are made to specific accounts in the name of the lessor responsible for the maintenance services. Certain required aircraft and engine maintenance, as stipulated in the respective lease agreement, are funded from these deposits. These deposits are non-interest bearing.

6. Short-term borrowings

Edgar Filing: Gol Intelligent Airlines Inc. - Form 6-K

At September 30, 2004, the Company had six revolving lines of credit. One of the revolving line of credit is secured by our credit card receivables and allows for borrowings of up to R$51 million. As of September 30, 2004 this facility has not been used. Another revolving credit facility is secured by the company's travel agency receivables and allows for borrowing of up to R$7 million. As of September 30, 2004, this facility has not been used. Another revolving credit facility is secured by Certificate of Deposit and allows borrowings of up to R$41 millions. As of September 2004, R$20 millions was outstanding under this facility. The other two lines of credit are secured by promissory notes and allow borrowings of up to R$95 million and as of September 30, 2004, R$85 million was outstanding under this facility.

The weighted average annual interest rate for these Reais based short-term borrowings at September 30, 2004 was 17.42%.

7. Shareholders' equity

On March 29, 2004, GLAI became the parent company of GOL pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the shareholders of GOL. In accordance with the reorganization plan, all outstanding common and preferred shares of GOL (except for 14 common shares and 8 class B preferred shares of GOL that are held by members of GOL's board of directors) were contributed to the Company in exchange for common and preferred shares of the Company. The 116,199,986 common shares of GOL were exchanged for 109,448,267 common shares and 6,751,719 preferred shares of the Company. The 29,050,000 class A preferred shares of GOL were exchanged for 29,049,994 preferred shares and 6 common shares of the Company. The 23,542,977 preferred shares class B of GOL were exchanged for 23,542,977 preferred shares of the Company. The preferred shares outstanding have no class designation. The rights and voting privileges of the common shares of the Company remain the same as those previously described above for GOL. The preferred shares of the Company are not convertible into any other security and are non-voting, except under the same limited circumstances provided by Brazilian laws as discussed above. The aggregate liquidation preference, including the adjustment by IGP-M, and divided rights discussed above remain unchanged.

As of March 31, 2004, the Company had 109,448,497 shares of common stock and 59,344,746 shares of preferred stock authorized, issued and outstanding. According to the Company's by laws the capital can be increased up to R$1.0 billion through the issuance of common or preferred shares.

On May 25, 2004, the shareholders approved a 2.80 for 1 stock split for all outstanding common and preferred shares. As a result of the stock split, the aggregate number of preferred shares and common shares outstanding was increased to 168,793,243. All share and earnings per share information for all periods presented have been restated to give retroactive effect to the May 25, 2004 stock split. Also, on the same date the shareholders approved amendments to the Company's bylaws whereby holders of common shares may convert their shares into preferred shares, at the rate of one common share to one preferred share, to the extent such shares are duly paid and provided that the amount of preferred shares does not exceed 50% of the total amount of shares issued. Any request for conversion must be delivered to the board of executive officers and, once accepted by the board of executive officers, must be confirmed by the board of directors at the first meeting after the date of the request of conversion. On May 25, 2004, the board of directors authorized the issuance of up to 20,325,734 preferred shares.

On June 29, 2004 the company concluded its initial public offering (IPO) on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and The São Paulo Stock Exchange (Bovespa) issuing 18,750,000 preferred shares for R$26.57 per share and receiving proceeds in the amount of R$459,305 net of the issuance costs of R$37,050. Additionally R$386,593 of proceeds were remitted to BSSF Holdings LLC and Comporte Participações for the sale of 14,300,000 share of their stake of the Company.

8. Stock Option Plans

At a shareholders' meeting held on May 25, 2004, the Company's shareholders approved an executive stock option plan for key senior executive officers. Initially, 937,412 of the Company's preferred shares have been reserved for issuance under the Plan. The Company expects that the number of preferred shares reserved for issuance under this executive stock option plan will be increased to 6,000,000 preferred shares and to grant these new options over a three-year period, subject to the approval of the compensation committee and the shareholders at a shareholders' meeting. The terms under which these new options will be granted will be determined by the Company's compensation committee and the board of directors.

Subsequent to the approval of the Plan, the Company issued to executive officers stock options to purchase up to 937,412 of our preferred shares at an exercise price of R$3.04 per share. Fifty percent the options will vest on October 25, 2004, with the remaining 50% vesting at the end of each quarter ending subsequent to October 25, 2004, on a pro rata basis ending on the second quarter of 2006. Each option will expire two years after the vesting date.

In connection with the initial grant of preferred stock options, the Company recorded deferred stock compensation of R$20.1 million (US$6.9 million), representing the difference between the exercise price of the options and the deemed fair value of the preferred stock. The amount of the amortization expense for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 was R$8,047.

During March 2004, the FASB issued an exposure draft of a new standard entitled "Share Based Payment", which would amend SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation," and SFAS No. 95, "Statement of Cash Flows." Among other items, the new standard would require the expensing, in the financial statements, of stock options issued by the Company. The new standard, as proposed, would be effective January 1, 2005, for calendar year companies.

Throughout most of 2004, the FASB has continued to deliberate on different aspects of a new standard, and currently expects to issue a final standard in fourth quarter 2004. Although the Company has not yet completed an analysis to quantify the exact impact the new standard will have on its future financial performance, the disclosures in Note 3 provide detail as to the Company's financial performance as if the Company had applied the fair value based method and recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 to stock-based Employee compensation to the current reporting periods.

9. Lease and other commitments

The Company leases all aircraft, as well as airport terminal space, other airport facilities, office space and other equipment. At September 30, 2004, the Company leased 23 aircraft under operating leases, with initial lease term expiration dates ranging from 2006 to 2011.

Total rent expense for all operating leases in the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, was R$146,102 and R$142,949, respectively.

During May 2004, the Company entered into two-year operating lease agreements and expects to take delivery of three Boeing 737-300 aircraft in the last six months of 2004 and up to two additional Boeing 737-300 aircraft late in 2004, which will be used to meet Company's short term capacity needs. One of three aircrafts was delivered on July 2004. The estimated aggregate lease payments for these aircraft would be US$4.1 million and US$6.9 million in the first and second year of the operating lease agreement, respectively. The Company will not be required to make any aircraft leasing contract deposits for these aircraft.

During May 2004, the Company signed an agreement with The Boeing Company for firm aircraft orders of 15 737-800 Next Generation aircraft scheduled for delivery between 2007 and 2009. The Company had made two deposits in the amount of US$10,015 (R$28,630) related to the above described orders.

Committed expenditures for these aircraft and related equipment are US$31.5 in 2005 and US$192.6 million in 2006, US$393.2 million in 2007, US$285.3 in 2008 and US$200.8 million in 2009.

The Company also has options to purchase 28 737-800 Next Generation aircraft that are exercisable between 2005 and 2010.

As of September 30, 2004, the Company had R$17.6 million letters of credit to guarantee certain US dollar lease payments. As of September 30, 2004, approximately R$5.3 million of the Company's accounts receivable and R$ 1.5 of Certificate of Deposit were collateral for outstanding letters of credit.

10. Financial instruments and concentration of risk

At September 30, 2004, the Company's primary monetary assets and liabilities related to aircraft leasing operations. Due to the short-term nature substantially all other financial instruments included in the balance sheet are stated at amounts that approximate their fair values.

Financial instruments that expose the Company to credit risk involve mainly cash and accounts receivable. The Company maintains cash deposits with highly rated financial institutions. Credit risk on accounts receivable relates to amounts receivable from the main international credit card companies. These receivables are short-term and the majority of them settle within 30 days.

The Company's revenue is basically generated in Brazilian reais, however its liabilities, particularly those related to aircraft leasing, are U.S. dollar denominated.

Exchange exposure related to amounts payable arising from these leasing operations is managed together with commercial hedging strategies.

The Company is exposed to the effect of changes in the price and availability of aircraft fuel. To manage these risks, the Company entered into crude oil option and swap agreements. Prices for crude oil are highly correlated to jet fuel, making crude oil derivatives effective at offsetting jet fuel prices to provide some short-term protection against a sharp increase in average fuel price. These derivatives do not qualify as hedges for financial reporting purposes and changes in fair value of such derivative contracts was R$4,439 during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and R$2,546 during the three months ended September 30, 2004, and were recorded as financial income. As of September 30, 2004 the Company had derivative contracts to buy up to 120,000 barrels of crude oil in the nominal amount of US$5,213 and fair value of US$5,513 with one-month term. The Company's acquisition of fuel and oil is made substantially from one supplier.

11. Income taxes

Edgar Filing: Gol Intelligent Airlines Inc. - Form 6-K

Income taxes in Brazil include federal income tax and social contribution. The statutory composite tax rates were 34% for the nine-months ended in September 30, 2004 and 2003. The deferred tax for this period is principally due to the deposits for aircraft maintenance that are treated as expenses under Brazilian GAAP.

In connection with the Company's March 29, 2004 reorganization, the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company's shareholders approved the merger of stockholder BSSF II Holdings Ltd. into GOL. The preferred shares previously owned by BSSF II Holdings Ltd. were cancelled and reissued to BSSF Air Holdings Ltd. With this merger, the Company acquired the right to amortize for Brazilian local statutory and tax purposes a goodwill premium of approximately R$86 million generated from BSSF II Holdings Ltd. acquisition of its ownership in GOL. The amortization of this premium for local statutory and tax purposes will result in future tax benefit for the Company over an estimated period of up to five years. The R$29.2 million tax benefit of the goodwill premium has been recorded as a deferred tax asset at March 31, 2004, with a corresponding increase to additional paid in capital. As the Company realizes the tax benefit of the goodwill premium, a reclassification from additional paid in capital to common shares will be made.

11. Earnings per share

The Company's preferred shares are not entitled to receive any fixed dividends. Rather, the preferred shareholders are entitled to receive dividends per share in the same amount of the dividends per share paid to holders of the common shares. Consequently, basic earnings per share are computed by dividing income by the weighted average number of all classes of shares outstanding during the year. The diluted preferred shares are computed including the executive employee stock options calculated using the treasury-stock method as they were granted at an exercise price less than the market price of the shares.

13. Subsequent Events

During October 2004, the Company received the last two of three 737-300 aircraft acquired under two year operating leases, increasing the aircraft fleet to 25.

Additionally, on October 2004, the Company received approval from the Departamento de Aviação Civil DAC to operate permanently in two new cities: Foz do Iguaçu (PR) and Caxias do Sul (RS). Due to the addition of these new cities and the initiation of service to Uberlândia (MG) and Joinville (SC), the number of cities served increased to 33.
