Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 1, 2006, Saia, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Executive Severance Agreement with James A. Darby. In the event of a "Change of Control" of the Company followed within two years by (i) the termination of Mr. Darby's employment for any reason other than death, disability, retirement or "cause" or (ii) the resignation of the executive due to an adverse change in title, authority or duties, a transfer to a new location, a reduction in salary, or a reduction in fringe benefits or annual bonus below a level consistent with the Company's practice prior to a Change of Control, the Executive Severance Agreement provides that the executive shall (i) be paid a lump sum cash amount equal to the sum of two times the executive's highest compensation (salary plus bonus) for any consecutive 12 month period within the previous three years; and (ii) remain eligible for coverage under applicable medical, life insurance and long-term disability plans for two years following termination.

The Company agrees to pay any taxes incurred by the officer for any payment, distribution or other benefit (including any acceleration of vesting of any benefit) received or deemed received by the officer under the Executive Severance Agreement or otherwise that triggers the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

For the purpose of the Agreement, a "Change of Control" will be deemed to have taken place if: (i) a third person, including a "group" as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, purchases or otherwise acquires shares of the Company and as a result thereof becomes the beneficial owner of shares of the Company having 20% or more of the total number of votes that may be cast for the election of directors of the Company; or (ii) as the result of, or in connection with any cash tender or exchange offer, merger or other business combination, or contested election, or any combination of the foregoing transactions, the directors then serving on the Board of Directors cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors of Saia, Inc. or any successor to Saia, Inc.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

As previously announced, effective September 1, 2006 in connection with the Company's relocation and consolidation of corporate headquarters to Duluth, Georgia, James A. Darby replaces James J.
