Explanatory Note

Terayon Communication Systems, Inc. (the Company) is filing this amendment to its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 27, 2005 for the sole purpose of clarifying that it did not have any disagreements (as described under Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) with its former independent registered public accounting firm as described in such Form 8-K through September 21, 2005, the last day on which such firm served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) As previously disclosed by the Company in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 1, 2005, the Company's former independent registered public accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP, (Ernst & Young) informed the Company that it would resign as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm effective upon the earlier of completion of services related to the review of the Company's interim financial statements for the quarter ending September 30, 2005 or the filing due date of that quarterly report. Ernst & Young did not seek the Company's consent to its resignation. As a result, the Company's Audit Committee did not recommend or approve the resignation of Ernst & Young.

On August 9, 2005, the Company filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30 2005. Ernst & Young served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm in reviewing the Company's interim financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 for purposes of that quarterly report.

On September 21, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company engaged Stonefield Josephson, Inc. (Stonefield Josephson) as the Company's new independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and to perform certain procedures related to the financial statements to be included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Effective as of such date, Ernst & Young resigned as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The reports of Ernst & Young on the Company's financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

In connection with the audits of the Company's most recent two years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and in the subsequent interim periods through September 21, 2005, there were no disagreements (as described under Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) between Ernst & Young and the Company on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures, that, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused Ernst & Young to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the Company's financial statements for such years.

During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, and through September 21, 2005, there were no reportable events as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, other than the two material weaknesses disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on March 15, 2005 and as described below:

First, management identified a material weakness due to insufficient controls related to the identification, capture, and timely communication of financially significant information between certain parts of the organization and the finance department to enable the finance department to account for transactions in a complete and timely manner. As a result of this material weakness, management recorded an adjustment in the quarter ended September 30, 2004 to record termination benefits paid to a former executive.

Second, management also identified a material weakness for insufficient controls related to the preparation and review of the annual consolidated financial statements and accompanying footnote disclosures. The insufficient controls include a lack of sufficient personnel with technical accounting expertise in the finance department and inadequate review and approval procedures to prepare external financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). As a result of this material weakness, management made substantial revisions to its 2004 annual consolidated financial statements and footnote disclosures before they were issued.

Table of Contents

The Company has provided Ernst & Young with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and requested that Ernst & Young furnish a letter to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Ernst & Young agrees with the above statements. Ernst & Young furnished such a letter, dated October 14, 2005, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.

(b) On September 21, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company engaged Stonefield Josephson as the Company's new independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and to perform certain procedures related to the financial statements to be included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. The Company did not consult Stonefield Josephson on any matter or event described in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or (ii) of Regulation S-K during the Company's two most recent fiscal years and through September 21, 2005, the effective date of the Company's engagement of Stonefield Josephson.
