In response to concerns expressed by significant institutional investors, and in accordance with the recommendation of Pearl Meyer & Partners, LLC, the independent Compensation Consultant to the Company's Compensation Committee, on October 18, 2013, the Company announced that it had reached agreements (collectively, the "Second Amendments") with its Chief Executive Officer, Larry A. Mizel, and its Chief Operating Officer, David D. Mandarich (collectively, the "Executive Officers"), for the early termination of the Retirement Benefits contained in their respective Employment Agreements restated as of August 1, 2008, as amended on March 8, 2012. Pursuant to the Second Amendments, the Company will pay each of Mr. Mizel and Mr. Mandarich a deferred lump sum in the amount of $14,803,349 and $15,992,254, respectively, in full satisfaction of their past, present and future Retirement Benefits. These payments, which equal the amounts accrued on the books of the Company through June 30, 2013 with respect to the Company's estimated liability to pay Retirement Benefits, will be made to the Executive Officers on October 20, 2014. As a result of the termination of the Retirement Benefits, the Company will no longer incur ongoing Retirement Benefit accruals.

The deductibility of the Second Amendment payments for tax purposes under IRC Sec. 162(m) will be determined at the end of the taxable year in which the payments are made. However, because the Company believes that it is more likely than not that the payments will not be deductible, as part of its 2013 fourth quarter income tax expense determination, the Company will record a reserve of approximately $11.9 million against its deferred tax asset. Whether or not the payments are deductible under IRC Sec. 162(m), the Board of Directors believes that the early termination of the Retirement Benefits is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The Second Amendments to the Employment Agreements are filed herewith and incorporated by reference.
