Item 1.01 — Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 15, 2016, Chase Corporation (“Chase” or the “Company”) entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) by and among the Company (the “Chase Borrower”), NEPTCO Incorporated (the “NEPTCO Borrower” and together with the Chase Borrower, collectively, the “Borrowers”), certain Subsidiaries of the Borrowers party thereto as Guarantors, and the financial institutions party thereto as Lenders, Bank of America, N.A. as administrative agent, with participation from Citizens Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A, as further described in Item 2.03, which is incorporated herein by reference.

The Credit Agreement was entered into to refinance the Company’s preexisting credit agreement (the “Existing Credit Agreement”) and provide for additional liquidity to finance acquisitions, working capital, capital expenditures, and for other general corporate purposes.

Item 2.03 — Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On December 15, 2016, the Company entered into the Credit Agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) by and among the Company, NEPTCO Incorporated (“NEPTCO”), certain Subsidiaries of the Company and NEPTCO party thereto as Guarantors, and the financial institutions party thereto as Lenders, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, with participation from Citizens Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Under the Credit Agreement, Chase obtained a revolving credit loan (the “Revolving Facility”), with borrowing capabilities not to exceed at any time $150.0 million, with the ability to request an increase in this amount by an additional $50.0 million at the individual or collective option of any of the Lenders. The applicable interest rate for the Revolving Facility and Term Loan (defined below) is based on the effective London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus a range of 1.00% to 1.75%, depending on the consolidated net leverage ratio of Chase and its subsidiaries. The Credit Agreement has a five-year term with interest payments due at the end of the applicable LIBOR period (but in no event less frequently than the three-month anniversary of the commencement of such LIBOR period) and principal payment due at the expirations of the agreement, December 15, 2021. In addition, the Company may elect a base rate option for all or a portion of the Revolving Facility, in which case, interest payments shall be due with respect to such portion of the Revolving Facility on the last business day of each quarter.

Subject to certain conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement, the Company may elect to convert all or a portion of the outstanding Revolving Facility into a term loan (each, a “Term Loan”, and collectively with the Revolving Facility, the “Credit Facility”), which Term Loan shall be payable quarterly in equal installments sufficient to amortize the original principal amount of such Term Loan on a seven-year amortization schedule.

The outstanding balance on the Credit Facility is guaranteed by all of Chase's direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries. The Credit Facility is subject to restrictive covenants under the Credit Agreement, and financial covenants that require Chase and its subsidiaries to maintain certain financial ratios on a consolidated basis, including a consolidated net leverage ratio and a consolidated fixed charge coverage ratio. The Credit Agreement also places certain Lender-approval requirements as to the size of permitted acquisitions which may be entered into by the Company and its subsidiaries. Prepayment is allowed by the Credit Agreement at any time during the term of the agreement, subject to customary notice requirements.

In connection with entry into the Credit Agreement, Chase applied proceeds to pay off in full the outstanding principal balance of its preexisting term debt (the "Existing Term Loan") held under the Existing Credit Agreement, entered in conjunction with the Company's June 27, 2012 acquisition of NEPTCO Holdings, simultaneously terminating both the Existing Term Loan agreement and the preexisting revolving line of credit (the "Existing Revolving Loan"), which was fully available as of December 15, 2016, and which together fully constituted the Existing Credit Agreement.

The foregoing summary of the Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the definitive agreement, which are filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. This agreement has been included to provide investors and shareholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Chase or any of the other parties thereto. Investors should read these agreements together with the other information concerning Chase that Chase publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").
