Item
1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Churchill Downs Incorporated (CDI) (NASDAQ: CHDN) today announced that it has issued $300 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.375% senior notes due 2021 (the "Notes") in a private offering that is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The notes are senior unsecured obligations of CDI and are guaranteed by each of CDI's domestic subsidiaries (the "Guarantors") that guarantee CDI's senior secured credit facility.

Indenture

The terms of the Notes are governed by that certain Indenture entered into on December 16, 2013 by and among CDI, the Guarantors, and US Bank National Association, as trustee.

The interest payment dates are June 15 and December 15, commencing on June 15, 2014, CDI may redeem some or all of the Notes at any time prior to December 15, 2016, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed plus an applicable make-whole premium. On or after such date CDI may redeem some or all of the Notes at redemption prices set forth in the Indenture. In addition, at any time prior to December 15, 2016, CDI may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price equal to 105.375% of the principal amount thereof, with the net cash proceeds of one or more equity offerings provided that certain conditions are met. The terms of the Indenture, among other things, limit the ability of CDI to incur additional debt and issue preferred stock; pay dividends or make other restricted payments; make certain investments; create liens; allow restrictions on the ability of certain of its subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other payments to it; sell assets; merge or consolidate with other entities; and enter into transactions with affiliates.

Subject to certain limitations, in the event of a change of control triggering event (as defined in the Indenture), CDI will be required to make an offer to purchase the Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of repurchase.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default which include (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), among others, nonpayment of principal or interest; breach of other agreements in the Indenture; failure to pay certain other indebtedness; failure to pay certain final judgments; failure of certain guarantees to be enforceable; and certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee or the holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding series of Notes may declare all the Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately. The Indenture is filed as Exhibit 4.1 hereto and this description thereof is qualified by reference thereto.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Notes, CDI and the Guarantors entered into a Registration Rights Agreement to register any Notes under the Securities Act for resale that are not freely tradable 366 days from December 16, 2013.

The agreement is filed as Exhibit 4.2 hereto and this description thereof is qualified by reference thereto.

CDI will use the net proceeds from the offering to, among other things, repay a portion of its outstanding borrowings, and accrued and unpaid interest outstanding under its senior secured credit facility, including fees and expenses incurred in connection with the foregoing.
