use as part of the Company's corporate travel policy regarding personal use of corporate aircraft for future use. The Aircraft Time-Sharing Agreement will be signed by any director or executive officers of the Company who are authorized to use a corporate aircraft for personal use on or before the time they use the corporate aircraft for personal use. The Agreement is identical in form to previous Aircraft Time-Sharing Agreements executed between the Company and executive officers.

The following description of the Aircraft Time-Sharing Agreement briefly summarizes the terms and conditions that are material to us and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement which is filed as exhibit 10.1 to this current report on Form 8-K.

The Agreement permits the Company, as owner of a private aircraft, to lease the aircraft and its crew for flights by a director or executive officer for non-business purposes. The Agreement is required under Federal Aviation Administration regulations for the director or officer to pay the Company for the use of the aircraft. Under the Agreement, the director or officer will pay to the Company the aggregate incremental cost of each such flight based on the list of expenses authorized by federal regulations. The Company and flight crew retain the authority to determine what flights may be scheduled, when a flight may be cancelled or changed for safety or maintenance reasons. The Agreement terminates when the director or officer ceases to be employed by the Company or serve on the Board of Directors.
