The Company previously was extended a subordinated revolving credit facility by Peter G. Dornau, its President and certain affiliates of the President, in the aggregate amount of One Million Dollars effective October 18, 2005. This subordinated revolving credit facility was increased effective December 6, 2005 to One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars. advanced and has a term of five (5) years.

Additionally, the credit included privileges for the lender whereby it could be converted into shares of common stock of the Company at any time to the extent of the outstanding loan at the rate of $1.00 per share (a maximum of 1,500,000 shares). Such price represents a premium over the market value and net book value of the underlying shares on the date it was fixed.

In conjunction with this arrangement, Mr. Dornau notified the Company on November 10, 2006 that he is exercising his rights to convert $1.5 million of this obligation into 1.5 million shares. Such transaction was approved unanimously by the members of our Board of Directors (with Mr. Dornau abstaining from the vote).
