ITEM 5.03(a) Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws;
Change in Fiscal Year

On March 5, 2007, the Board of Directors of General Motors Corporation approved amendments to the Corporation's Bylaws effective immediately.

Section 2.1, which establishes the number of directors as 12 unless changed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, was amended to add that the Board will not change the number of directors to less than 3 nor more than 17 without the consent of GM's stockholders. (The current number of directors, established by resolution of the Board, is 11.) The amendment also added a provision stating that there is no vacancy on the Board as long as the number of directors in office is equal to the number of directors established in Section 2.1 or by a resolution of the directors pursuant to Section 2.1.

In addition, Section 3.1 was amended to provide that the standing committees of the Board include (rather than comprise) the committees listed in that section, and to authorize the Board to establish an administrative committee to deal with matters that are not expressly reserved to the jurisdiction of the Board or one of its committees according to its delegation of authority and are not otherwise significant. Section 3.2 has been amended to identify the specific committees of the Board for which the members and chairmen shall be elected annually and that are subject to the requirements that only Independent Directors shall be members, rather than refer to the standing committees of the Board.
