Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 24, 2010, AT&T announced a definitive agreement to sell its Sterling Commerce subsidiary to IBM for approximately $1.4 billion in cash. Sterling Commerce provides business to business applications and integration solutions to more than 18,000 customers worldwide. AT&T expects the transaction to close in the second half of 2010, subject to receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of other customary conditions. AT&T expects to record a one-time, pre-tax gain of approximately $750 million for the quarter in which the transaction closes.

CAUTIONARY LANGUAGE CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Information set forth in this filing contains financial estimates and other forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties. A discussion of factors that may affect future results is contained in AT&T's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. AT&T disclaims any obligation to update or revise statements contained in this filing based on new information or otherwise.
